THE DAILY ONTARIO.

VOLUME X. BELLEVILLE, ONT., MONDAY, JUNE 2 1879 NUMBER 20

—THE—

Daily Ontario

IS published about five o'clock every afternoon (Sundays excepted), and will be furnished by Carriers at the rate of $5.00 a year paid in advance, $6.00 otherwise. The price to mail subscribers has been changed to $5.00 a year the old price. $2.50 for six months; $1.25 for three months.

Special attention will be paid to reporting the proceedings of Courts of Law, Corporations, Public Meetings, &c., &c., and in short, neither pains nor expense will be spared to make the DAILY ONTARIO worthy of public patronage.

Special announcements can be made in the local columns of the Daily, in the same type as local items, at fifteen cents a line.

Advertisers contracting for any space not less than half a square, can have the privilege of changing their advertisements every two weeks.

Transient advertisements inserted at 8 cents per line for first insertion, and two cents for each additional insertion.

☞ Parties advertising by the year who discontinue before the termination of their contracts, will be held for full amount of said contract.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

Advertisements for insertion must be delivered before 10 o'clock on Thursday, to insure their appearance.

All advertisements without written directions inserted until forbid, and charged accordingly.

The above rates are payable in advance unless otherwise arranged.

N. B.—The square to be confined to the ordinary business of commercial houses, and for such houses it will not be held to include Auction Sales, Advertisements of Ships, Removals, Copartnership Notices, Private Funds, Houses to let or for sale.

ONTARIO MUTUA Life Assurance Co'y.

HEAD OFFICE WATERLOO, ONT.

Deposited with the Dominion Government $56,224.00

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and entirely share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self-sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63.88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.98	to $56.90
" 5th "	10.40	" 53.48
" 6th "	47.30	" 46.48
" 7th "	20.73	" 43.15
" 8th "	26.83	" 37.09
" 9th "	36.65	" 27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

Breach of Promise Hall.

A RAILLEMENT OF THE GIFT OF A DAUGHTER OF JOHN GALT, THE NOVELIST.

(Correspondence of the Ist ult Evening News)

MONTREAL, May 23.—Strolling around the close of Christ Church Cathedral a day or so ago my companion, a somewhat famous member of the Montreal press, stopped me as we reached an old-looking brick structure occupying the northwest corner of the grounds.

"Do you know the name of this building?" he asked.

"Is Synod Hall, I've been told," I replied.

"Synod Hall to the church people," he said, with a smile, "but 'Breach of Promise Hall' to the irreverent and worldly. You know that it is a monument to one of the many queer romances of this queer city. First let us enter and take stock of the place, and then I will tell you the story."

There was not a great deal to take stock of. The hall was of the gloomy Gothic pattern, furnished in stained wood. It serves for the meetings of the Anglican Synod, is a lecture and Sunday-school room, and otherwise is garnished with absolutely no Gospel text in red Lombard letters, such as are beyond the depth or merit of any but the expert. I have observed that Sunday-schools are usually decorated with texts in this illegible lettering, probably upon the principle that the strong meat of the Word is not fit for babes. One half of the building is used as a theological college, recently established by the Diocese of Montreal.

The cost of the hall, which is large, and the ground upon which it stands, must have been very great.

When we emerged from the rather depressing precincts my companion and I lighted arms and strolled away up the mountain side, and in a quiet nook, pipes having been lighted, I listened to the following tale:—

"Many years ago, when society in Montreal was a great deal more rigid in its lines than it is now, Miss Galt—a daughter of John Galt, the novelist, and sister of the present Sir Alexander T. Galt, whom you Americans have several millions of reasons for knowing from his connection with the Halifax fisheries award, was a great belle here. The Galts were prominent people, as much from the father's fame as an author and as the founder of the town of Guelph and Galt, in Ontario, as from the political and commercial eminence of the son Alexander. Among the wealthy merchants of the time was a Mr. Smith, whose name still stands in the firm of Smith & Cochrane, the great shoe manufacturers. Cochrane is the famous stock raiser at Compton. Smith wooed Miss Galt with an ardent wooing, and they became engaged.

"But between the betrothal and the time fixed for the wedding Smith saw and became infatuated with a Miss MacFarland, a really beautiful woman, and for her he coolly jilted Miss Galt.

"Miss MacFarland was not impervious to the advances of a rich suitor. Mr Smith, for we'll be polished to enjoy a sumpi over Miss Galt. But she had a bit of a history. She had long been loved by, and really did love, a fine young fellow in Three Rivers, named John Baptist. Baptist was handsome, clever and enterprising, but he was poor, while Miss McFarland was ambitious and intensely practical. When she saw that Mr. Smith had been fairly brought to earth by her charms she told Johnnie that she was too sweet a morsel to throw herself away upon a poor man, and that if he couldn't wait until she was a rich widow he had better make some other arrangements as to marrying. There was a scene, of course, and they parted.

"Smith and Miss MacFarland were married in grand style. Hardly had they got settled down in their new home when Miss Galt brought a suit for breach of promise, a suit which attracted attention all over the country. The suit was not taken for the purpose of extorting money damages from Smith, but for punishment, for Miss Galt declared she would never touch a penny of Smith's coin if a verdict for a verdict in her favor. The trial resulted in a verdict for £10,000 damages, if I recollect aright. That money she invested for the benefit of the church in the purchase of the grounds upon which the Synod Hall stands, the dwelling attached, and the Bishop's palace are situated, and the erection of a hall for a church school. Every penny of the judgment was spent in those purposes.

"Smith died some two years after his marriage, leaving the bulk of his fortune to his widow. That estimable lady, as soon as a brief season of mourning was passed, gave her hand and the late departed Smith's capital to Johny Baptist, who had faithfully waited for her. Such is the story of Breach of Promise Hall."

A Queer Story.

MISS DUER, OF MARYLAND, INDICTED FOR MURDERING HER BEST GIRL FRIEND.

GEO. RITCHIE & CO.

SNOW HILL, Md., May 22.—The Grand Jury of Worcester county, to-day, brought in a bill of indictment against Miss Duer for murder, and new interest is revived in the remarkable case of her shooting her friend, Miss Hearn, last November. Miss Ella Hearn was a beautiful accomplished, without brilliant pretentions. During her school days she had permitted a growing intimacy with Miss Duer, whose affection at last resulted in her death. Mr. Hearn, like Mr. Duer, is a well-to-do mechanic, and the two girls mingled with the best people in the town. During 1878 the two girls were constantly together. Miss Duer obtained a mastery over her weaker minded companion. "It seemed strange that Miss Hearn could love such a being as Miss Duer appears to be. She smokes; Miss Duer appears to be. She smokes; Miss Duer dresses are short and with a little jacket with inside pockets. She wears a boy's hat, which she tips when she knows a boy's hat, which she tips when acknowledging a salute. The young girls with lodging a salute. The young girls with whom she associated tell numerous stories of her curious idiosyncrasies. She never cared for the society of the sterner sex, and would make love like a Romeo to her female friends. Sometimes they would laugh these strange fancies away, at others she would frighten them. In all outdoor sports she excelled her lady friends, and could jump, shoot and play base-ball as well as any young man. She always carried a pistol and was an expert. There was a reception last year at which Miss Duer was present. She was exhibiting her skill with the pistol, when a lady said that such sport was in no way becoming a woman. Miss Duer next day wrote a challenge to the fair critic, insisting that the insult should be wiped out in blood. No notice was taken, and Miss Duer was about to have the lady "posted" as a coward, according to the code, but was dissuaded by her friends. All of her dresses were made with a view to her pistol. But she was looking on a bright, intelligent woman with quiet resolve.

She declares that the shooting was purely accidental. She says it was "Ella" for the purpose of taking a walk. She did not wish to go. I begged her. She refused. I then wanted to kiss her. I had the pistol in my hand after giving up the attempt to kiss her, and was looking at the cartridges when the pistol went off. I visited her twice during her illness. The first time she called me and received me by putting her arms around my neck. "Who hurt me?" she asked. "I, Ella," I replied. "Then you did not do it purposely, did you?"

However, Miss Hearn is cured for a long time. She would hold up her right arm in moments of mental derangement, calling out nervously: "Billie, don't shoot, please don't shoot me; I will go with you and always love you."

Upon one occasion while the two girls were gathering fallen leaves Miss Hearne started some distance ahead of her companion, when she called upon her to wait. Not obtaining instant obedience, she called again. This second summons was not heeded when, without warning, Miss Duer shot twice at the frightened girl.

When asked why she shot, the only reply was that if she had not halted the next shot would have been effective. Miss Duer remonstrated in the most passionate manner telling her that she would shoot the man that took her friend from her. Then there was Miss Foster, whom Miss Hearn was very fond of. One morning the two had taken a walk together, and upon the return home Miss Hearn found a note from Miss Duer requesting her to call at her house as she wished to see her urgently; so when the two met Miss Duer asked Miss Hearn to take a walk with her. She very decidedly refused. This appeared to arouse all the jealousy of Miss Duer, and she passionately fell upon her knees, begged that her request might be complied with.

The very next day Miss Duer called at Miss Hearn's. When Miss Duer was about to go Mrs. Hearn requested her daughter to accompany her friend to the door, and the two girls passed out. After a few moments had intervened another heard the fatal shot, and saw her daughter rush back with the blood streaming from a pistol shot in the mouth.

EAST HASTINGS,

SINCE 1871 the Mowat Government has made grants to works of public usefulness in Ontario, which are under the immediate supervision of the Public Works Department, amounting to $2,443,152.71.

WHEN talking of "Salary Grabs" and extravagance the following facts and figures should be considered: In 1873, shortly before resigning office, Sir John increased the salaries of Ministers and members by $140,000. This would be the rate of $141,800 for three years. The increase in Ontario for 1875 was $25,600, or a total of $76,800 for three years. Again, six Ministers at Toronto get $28,600; for seven at Ottawa get $13,000. Sir John gets $9,000; Mr. Mowat $5,000.

Drainage Grants to Municipalities.

Sandfield Macdonald inaugurated the policy of assisting portions of the country to recover arable land which was submerged, or occasionally inundated by water. Drains were constructed at Government expense, or loans were made to municipalities applying for aid, the conditions being that the land benefitted by the drainage was to pay an annual charge until the original loan was wiped off. Debentures payable in twenty years, and bearing interest at 5 per cent., were issued by municipalities for this purpose. The work, by this means, was entirely under the supervision of the local authorities, and the Government was relieved of much responsibility and inconvenience. This policy gave entire satisfaction, and wherever carried out is in high esteem. The sum of $328,580.93 was thus expended during the Sandfield Macdonald regime.

The Mowat Government continued the system, and has, since assuming office, advanced the following amounts to the municipalities named:

Kent	$107,408 25
Lambton	78,324 00
Middlesex	8,959 50
Elgin	26,270 72
Lanark	2,825 00
Addington	2,083 00
Peterboro'	1,060 02
Lennox	1,446 00
Essex	27,000 00
Leeds	1,590 00
Welland	1,565 00
Huron	4,000 00
Bruce	2,013 00
Durham	1,050 00
Perth	20,000 00
Grey	1,351 25
Hastings	2,200 00
Haldimand	7,840 00
Add Government work	$297,779 73 328,380 93
Total advances for drainage	$626,154 66
Total advances since 1871	498,967 00

Mr. Molesworth, the Government Engineer, who is held responsible for the due protection of the public interests in all such arrangements, has authenticated the above expenditures. He also gives the total area drained by these operations approximately at $389,968.

Mr. Holden.

Under this heading the Intelligencer printed about as unjust and malicious an article as we have seen for some time.

It grossly misrepresents what Mr. Holden said at Gilbert's School House in the same bare-faced way that it misrepresented what Mr. Holden said at the nominations about Trenton having only 150 votes altogether. Mr. Holden on Thursday alluded to Mr. Robertson boasting of 150 majority in Trenton, whereas, in his opinion, there were not 150 votes in Trenton for Mr. Robertson altogether. This was maliciously twisted into the statement that Trenton only had 150 votes.

Mr. Holden did not at Gilbert's School House or any where else pursue the course the Intelligencer says he did; but, growing desperate at the certainty of defeat, the Intelligencer adopts its old policy towards Mr. Holden. This policy has always failed in the past, and will fail now. It is very annoying to it that many Conservatives have always been, and now are, Mr. Holden's warmest supporters in Belleville, and these attacks on him are inspired solely with the view of alienating that support. But as we have already said, these attacks will fail in their purpose.

We have one word or two of caution to Mr. Holden's supporters. Be not deceived by rumors and reports, inventions of the enemy started at the last moment, to influence votes. Work steadily till five o'clock on Thursday, and victory is certain.

There is no danger of bribery being practised, because the detection of it, in this instance, will be certain, and its punishment sure. The only risk Mr. Holden runs is in the over-confidence of his friends. He has a large majority of voters in his favor, and all that remains to be done is to see that those voters record their votes.

☞ We wish it to be distinctly understood that we claim no responsibility for what our correspondents may say.

Hypocrisy.

To the Editor of the ONTARIO.

DEAR SIR,—Perhaps it is scarcely worth while noticing an effusion which appeared the other day in the Intelligencer over the cognomen of "A Reformer." I certainly would let it pass but for its gross hypocrisy, and just to show how great the demand is just now for some kind of a grievance whereby Mr. Holden's chances of election may in some measure be lessened. "A Reformer" (?) tells the reason he opposes Mr. Holden is that he thinks that "we, as a party," do not owe him anything. And further that he has refused to identify himself with the party by becoming a member of the Reform Association. Now, to be logical, "A Reformer" should oppose Mr. Robertson for the very same reasons. I confess that I have yet failed to discover what "we, as a party," owe Mr. Robertson. Moreover, I have been a member of the Reform Association for some time, and I have never yet noticed Mr. Robertson there. Everybody knows that Mr. Holden has always been a consistent Reformer, and fought ably and at all times, in the Reform ranks.

I very much fear "our Aleck" is tampering with "A Reformer's" "pipes," and his discordant wind.

Yours, &c.,

VOTER.

The Mechanics' Bank.

MONTREAL, May 30.—The excitement over the failure of the Mechanics Bank has completely subsided. The statement of affairs will not be ready for a few days, and no action will be taken by the directorate until the President, Mr. C. J. Brydges, arrives home from Manitoba. A few of the bills are being bought up by brokers at seventy-five cents on the dollar. The Molsons' Bank has a claim of $130,000 against the Mechanics', against which they hold collaterals to the amount of $240,000, so that they will loose nothing. The persons who are really responsible and blameable are the Mechanics' own directors and shareholders who neglected to have the $300,000 of preferential stock subscribed for and paid up instead of trying to run their institution on a from-hand-to-mouth principle of daily borrowing. This stock was authorized at $300,000; only about $31,000 of it was ever subscribed, and even of that but $24,000 has been paid up. There has been a good deal too much apathy on the part of these gentlemen for men to show who are ambitious to run a bank. The suspension of the bank is causing no end of troubles to its customers, especially those of the agencies in Huntingdon, Beauharnois, and that district. The field being unoccupied by any other bank, the Mechanics' bills are about the only notes in circulation among the farmers, and the latter are giving vent to complainings long and loud. They find their notes have been transferred to the Molson's Bank, who demand gold for them, and the farmers have nothing to pay with but the bills of the bank.

Wirst National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman too—
For thousands cry with eager breath,
"They saved me from the jaws of death!
All ye ailing give me heed,
The National Pills your system needs.
Immense the rush for these Pills;
Which causes so many woeful ills.

—The balance to the credit to the depositors in the Post Office Savings Bank on March 31st, per statement published Saturday, was $5,895,787.

VICE-ROYALTY AT KINGSTON.

THE LIMESTONE CITY PUTS ON AIRS.

WITH BANNERS DISPLAYED AND ESCUTCHEONS EMBLAZONED.

(From our own Correspondent.)

When I left Belleville it was with the intention of sending you an account of Friday's demonstration in Kingston, in honor of the Vice-Regal visitors. The disagreeable heat, inconvenience, and immediate departure from the city after the ceremony at Queen's College was over, must be my excuse for neglecting to do so. This (Saturday) morning I have a few moments leisure, and shall generalize the whole proceedings. Special and particular reference to what transpired in the old Limestone City, during the three red-letter days that will be written with capital letters in her more modern history, are unnecessary, as you have learned all from the excellent report published by the local press.

THE DECORATIONS.

Before making remarks of a general nature, some special reference must be made to the decorations and illuminations with which Kingston welcomed the Queen's daughter and the Governor-General. The whole city has been dressed in more than holiday attire; and a lavish display of evergreens and bunting, flags and streamers, transparencies and mottoes, give the principal streets a very pleasant and picturesque appearance. The arches, of which there were many, are elaborately and uniquely constructed, and these dressings surpass anything we have yet seen in this part of Canada. To say this, with a vivid recollection of what Belleville accomplished last Dominion Day, should be sufficient praise on my part. "Honor to whom honor is due," and in this welcome to Lorne and Louise the "loyal old city" commands and shall receive our highest commendation. Princess street, especially is the centre of attraction, and standing on the elevation near the new Albion Hotel, and looking towards the harbor, the sight is exceedingly fine. Nearly every street and building in the city can claim a specialty in decoration, and the result is a grand success. We do not think the effort can be surpassed.

THE ILLUMINATIONS.

If in embellishing the "outer walls," the denizens of Kingston exhibited good taste, they have won the admiration of thousands by the very artistic and pyramidal illuminations that make their city a fairy scene at night. No pains nor expense has been spared in making every prominent point stand out in brilliant array under the sombre canopy of a midnight sky. The public and most of the private buildings, stores, hotels, &c., have profuse displays of bright and fancy colored transparencies. The Court House, City Hall, Post Office, Custom House, &c., are ablaze at night with a thousand brilliant lights. Chinese lanterns are strung from every window and through nearly every yard, while business establishments have original devices, curious and entertaining shapes. On each day night there is a rush of a crowd to be surprised those who have witnessed many similar scenes. In addition to what the city presents, the bridge, Garden, Wolfe and other Islands, shine forth with no borrowed light. The vessels hung out a hundred lamps, and scores of tar and oil barrels were soon fire and put adrift. From these, blue and red flames would shoot up fifteen and twenty feet, as the invisible floated with the wind.

FRIDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Many people did not sleep Thursday night. The excitement had been too much for their nerves, and it was nearly day light when they gave up the rounds of sight seeing and loyal jubilation. Country folks had started at an early hour for the city, and long before the time fixed for the ceremony at Queen's College a motley crowd — sunburnt farmers and shade-whitened "counter-jumpers;" in carriages, on horseback and afoot; red and perspiring, and covered with dust—was hurrying in the direction of the grounds. At eleven o'clock, half an hour before the arrival of the Vice-Regal party, not less than 5,000 people were huddled about the foundation of the new College building, upon which, in the proper place, a raised and canopied dais, containing carpets and chairs, and decorated with flags, indicated where the ceremony of laying the corner stones would take place. Tickets of admission to the College grounds enabled the holders to obtain a more favorable view and comfortable position. But outside the charmed circle, where the strongest and rudest triumphed, there was less contentment and greater curiosity. The sound of martial music, a cloud of dust in the distance, white-capped cavalrymen and red-coated militia all with a long line of elegant carriages announced the coming of the august party. It was then excitement ran high. The acme of ambition with thousands there was to see the Princess, and this they were resolved "to do or die." As might be expected, the scene was extremely animated, and, while the carriages were arriving at the dais, not very orderly. But still, the vast crowd was good-natured and obedient, and those who could not get an advantageous position contented themselves with what was possible.

THE CEREMONY.

Conducted by the Principal and staff of Queen's College, and followed by civic and military dignitaries, the Marquis and Princess took their allotted positions amid the cheers of the assembled multitude. With little delay the ceremony prescribed began, the first being the conferring of the honorary degree of LL. D., by the corporation of Queen's College, upon the Governor General. This necessarily occupied some time. The laying of the cornerstones, one by the Marquis and one by the Princess followed, and before the last site had been concluded it was one o'clock. Then there was "mounting in hot haste;" the guard "fell in," the band played, people ran hither and thither, and the crowd that had stood in the boiling sun for several hours roam ered right and left for the gate through which the procession would pass. Those who had been baffled in their attempts to get a glimpse of the Vice-Regal pair when on the dais, made desperate efforts to retrieve their fortune at the gate. Some succeeded; many did not. As the carriages approached, it required the determined efforts of the military to keep the surging mass of spectators from entirely closing the passage. The Vice-Regal carriage was actually besieged by the eager crowd of loyal Canadian men and women who had endured so much for the gratification of looking upon the Queen's daughter. Some gazed in mute admiration or astonishment; some raised their hats and clapped their hands; while others shouted and fluttered handkerchiefs with much enthusiasm. The progress was necessarily slow, owing to the crowd, and the curious had a good opportunity to gratify their curiosity. The Princess seemed much pleased with the manifestations of loyal devotion, and was continually smiling and bowing. The Marquis showed his appreciation of what was exhibited on every side by frequently raising his hat. The heat, the dust, the task of so much ceremony, and the demonstrative crowd of spectators, must have been fatiguing, but both appeared cheerful and contented.

THE MARQUIS AND PRINCESS.

Everybody, or nearly everybody, has seen portraits of the Marquis and Princess, but none of these furnish a correct impression of the original. The expressive mobile countenance of the latter is strikingly beautiful. There may be an absence of those delicate lines which some critics pretend to admire, but the general expression of the features is decidedly "taking," to use a sporting expression. The eyes are large, full, and benseeching, and the lower part of the face, though somewhat retreating, is comely and good natured. The Marquis has an imposing mien, a strikingly intelligent face, and well developed head. He is short, about the same height as the Princess, but will turn the scales at 150. To say that both have won the hearts of all who came in contact with them here is but to repeat what many others have written. The mottoes that adorn arches and flags, expressive of devout admiration, convey no idle meaning. "God bless our Princess" and "Lorne and Louise, God bless them both"—have been written over archways, upon emblems of welcome, and have been shouted by thousands as the august visitors passed through the streets of the city.

SATURDAY'S DEMONSTRATION.

I must omit the Freemen's parade, Lacrosse match, races, concert, &c., which filled up the programme on Saturday, and each of which attracted a share of attention. The concert, especially, was an imposing and high-strung affair, at which cultured musicians of long experience nervously performed before Vice-Royalty, and were grateful for the favor shown. To-day a strong breeze from the west tempers the heat, and the absence of so great a crowd renders locomotion less annoying. A visit to the Military College, and inspection of local institutions occupy the time of the Marquis and Princess. The people seem to be getting satiated with wonders, and take things far more rationally. They begin to look upon the presence of such distinguished personages as an ordinary affair, and are looking after their business with charming unconcern of what is on the tapis.

INCIDENTS.

To have seen the John who handled the ribbons over the prancing brown team that drew the Vice-Regal pair was a sight to be remembered. The terrible immobility stamped upon that man's face was enough to silence a rebellion or put to rest the doubts of a sceptic. He was evidently impressed with the responsibility of his mission, and was fully resolved to conduct himself as seemeth becoming in the eyes of his aristocratic patrons. No sign nor demonstration could tempt him to look to the right or left. He only drove ahead, and left to others the duty of cleaning the road. Woe to the venturesome wight who got in the path marked out for his performance. But this was fidelity to duty, and in the midst of so much careless excitement a level headed John was a treasure, more especially as a convenient and good opinion of the Vice-Regal visitors depended greatly upon the facility with which they were conveyed from point to point.

One old lady was willing to go home and die, because she had not only seen the Princess, but had received from her a bow. "It was aimed at her, you see, to notice a poor old body like me," said the old matron, who was satisfied that the bow in the direction where she stood was meant for her personally. And who would attempt to convince her otherwise.

Tuesday morning early the Vice-Regal party leave by boat, and then what will become of Kingston.

MILLBRIDGE P. O. TUDOR, ONT

MESSRS. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to restore back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain. At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

MILITARY ORDERS.—Adjutant General Powell publishes general orders in regard to the regulations for the annual drill of 1879-80 of the active militia in Canada. The strength of the force to be drilled and paid for that year has been limited by an Order-in-Council to 20,000 officers, non-commissioned officers and men, and 1,256 horses for a period of twelve days. Provision has been made for the selection of the corps which may drill in the different districts, each district being allotted its full quota in proportion to the total strength of the corps therein.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION.—A Royal Commission has been appointed, with His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales as President, to promote the success of the International Exhibition to be held in Sidney in 1879, and the International Exhibition to be held at Melbourne in 1880.

A TRUISM.—Constant grinding at the mill of life, perpetual loss of vital force, will drag the strongest man to the dust; it is manifest therefore that the system must be kept supplied with a due amount of oxydizable phosphorus. The pleasantest and most palatable way in which it can be introduced into the system is by the use of Victoria Hypophosphites which is the only blood food in the world. Local & General

City Council.—Regular meeting this evening at the usual hour.

The Jubilee Church.—The Rev. John Young, of Picton, has been appointed Pastor of the new M. E. Church, Kingston.

Arrived.—The steamship Scandinavian arrived inward at 8:20 p. m. yesterday, having on board 79 cabin and 422 steerage passengers.

Aquatic Sports.—On Friday afternoon next the first races of the season, under the auspices of the Bay of Quinte Rowing Club will take place. The course will be from the end of the Grand Junction dock down the Bay.

A New Paper.—We have received the first number of The Monthly Unity, a new paper published in the interest of publishers and printers in New York City. It is an eight-page paper, well printed, and contains a large amount of information interesting to the craft.

The Grangers Excursion.—On account of the new steamer Mary Ethel not having her papers from the Inspector, the steamer Kincardine took the Grange excursion to Massassaga to-day. There was a large attendance, considering the inclemency of the weather.

After the Boys.—We are pleased to know that our hint as to boys swimming in the harbor on Sundays has been acted on by the police. Yesterday morning a crowd of them were chased by Officer Cook, but they could run the logs a little too quickly for him, and made their escape. That raid, however, prevented any further swimming during the day.

The Ballots.—In consequence of a dispute between the two candidates for West Hastings, the ballot papers have been printed in black ink. The law provides that each candidate can choose his own color. In this instance both wanted blue, and as no compromise could be made, they have both got black. Voters will remember to put Mr. Holden's name as appears first on the paper.

The "Alexandra" Excursion.—Notwithstanding the rain storm there was a good many people availed themselves of the excursion on the Alexandra Saturday evening. The crowd, however, would have been larger had the boat left earlier in the evening. Having a good deal of freight to discharge at this port, she did not leave here for Trenton in the afternoon until about 5 o'clock, so that she did not return until about 8 o'clock, owing to which many who would have gone earlier were scared off by the appearance of rain. The 15th Band was on board, and played some very good music.

Arrival of Immigrant Children.—On Friday last Mr. Quarrier arrived here with some 120 children for the Marchmont Home. They arrived on Tuesday by the "Nestorian," from Glasgow, after a rather rough passage. The children—about an equal number of boys and girls—were picked up off the streets of Edinburgh and Glasgow by Mr. Quarrier, who, at his own expense, brings them out to this country where they find happy homes. Their ages range from three years to seventeen, and they are fine healthy looking youngsters. At Kingston several ladies and gentlemen went down to the depot to see them. One lady took with her a large supply of sweetmeats and fruit, for which the youngsters were very polite.

Police Report.—During the month ending 31st May, 41 persons were arrested by the police, charged as follows: Assault 5; burglary 2; drunk 17; drunk and disorderly 10; fighting on public streets 1; larceny 2; pickpocket 1; threatening 2; vagrancy 8. 25 persons were summoned for the following offences: Assault 6; assault and battery 3; abusive language 3; fighting 4; false representations 1; infringement of street by-law 1; liquor act 2; fishery act 1; sanitary regulations 3; trespass 1. 42 persons (tramps) applied for and received protection in the Police Cells. Total arrests during the year ending May, 1879, 441; May, 1878, 63; decrease May, 1879, 19. Total number of persons summoned May, 1879, 25; May, 1878, 10; increase May, 1879, 15. Tramps May, 1879, 42; tramps May, 1878, 30; increase May, 1879, 12.

A good imported Havana Cigar for 5 cents at McDonald's.

Ill.—We regret to hear that Rev. A. C. Cormier has been confined to his home from illness for the past week. His pulpit was filled last evening by Mr. Lockett.

Watch Burglin.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region are given out by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate to fresh winds, generally clearing cool weather.

Lacrosse.—The Oka and Alberton Lacrosse Clubs have amalgamated to be known as the Belleville Lacrosse Club. A game between the friends of Messrs. Holden and Robertson will be played on Wednesday afternoon.

A Good Haul.—On Saturday night the policemen on duty arrested no less than five persons, while both the two more were lodged the number. All were either drunk and disorderly or vagrants. Besides the prisoners six lamps were put to protection from the rain in the cells last night.

Postponed.—Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the Oddfellows' Band have postponed their moonlight excursion until Wednesday evening. The steamer Transit has been engaged for the occasion, instead of the Mary Ethel, on account of the latter boat not having her papers yet. The Transit can accommodate a large crowd, and we hope to see her pretty well filled.

Presentation.—This morning the students of the Grammar School of Albert College, and the ladies of Alexandra College, presented Prof. Nicholls with a very handsome family bible, and an address, prior to his departure for the North-West. The Professor leaves to-morrow in charge of a party bound on an exploring expedition, and will be absent about five months. On his return he will resume his classes at the College.

The New Dispensation.—The Emulsion of Palatable Castor Oil with glycerine, manufactured by Scott & Bowne, is one of the greatest medical triumphs of the age. It is made what was and is intolerable and one of the most agreeable of them all. Children take it as cheerfully as they accept a spoonful of cream and literally cry for more. To any one who knows—and who does not—that Castor Oil is the most efficacious, reliable and cure of intestinal inflammation, the inestimable nature of this new dispensation will be approved. Scott & Bowne's Palatable Castor Oil should be in every household. Price 35 cents.

You can now stop at the Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, N. York, on the American plan for $2.50 or $3.00 per day, or you can, on the European plan, take your lunch down town or dine with a friend, and your room at the Hotel will only cost you $1.00 per day and upwards; and meals are also provided at moderate prices at the elegant Restaurant attached to the Hotel.

Two Questions Easily Answered.—Why should men wear beards? Because they are a great protection to the throat and lungs, and add much to their personal appearance. Why should we use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers? Because when used for coughs, colds, tickling in the throat, hoarseness, &c., they act like a charm. Ministers and lawyers use them, physicians recommend them, and singers and public speakers say they are the very best medicine in existence for the cure of such complaints. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cts per box.

But still I'm on the mend.

And when I needs little cash,
I make no loud lamenting,
But by a straw stack sit me down,
And gather in my rents."

The Montreal Pet.

Lt.-Gen. Smyth published the following letter in connection with the Montreal Review:

I have it in command to convey to the officers, non-commissioned officers and men composing the various corps of all arms assembled to celebrate the Queen's Birthday in Montreal, the entire approbation of the Governor General of their admirable soldierlike appearance and general efficiency.

The troops which had the honor to pass in review before His Excellency and Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, on the 24th May, acquitted themselves with commendable precision, steadiness and discipline.

Where every officer and man did his utmost to fulfil the duties devolving on him, it shall make no distinction. The corps were, as usual, in most creditable order, and the several troops, batteries and battalions which came some of them from great distance, during the night, fell into line looking as sound and soldierlike as though just turned out of barracks.

It affords me pleasure to assure the militia that the feu de joie fired by over 4,000 men was as nearly perfect as could have been performed by old veteran troops.

The march past in column and quarter-column reflected the highest credit upon the whole force on the ground. The general bearing of the corps of all arms was soldierlike in the extreme.

The fieldday and the sham-fight which followed, tried the steadiness of the young troops engaged. The ground was cramped to handle such a large force with proper effect, and the operations were impeded by the rather unreasonable pressure of the multitude who spread over the field.

The various orders were, however, promptly and efficiently obeyed, and the "general idea" was very creditably carried out.

It was necessary to combine a holiday display and loyal demonstration with military evolutions, and, to avoid disappointment, to take care that every officer and man of every corps took some active part in the operations.

As a military spectacle the review could hardly have been surpassed under all these circumstances—and I feel I may emphatically assure the troops who took part in it that Her Majesty's birthday was loyally celebrated by them in a manner most creditable to every officer and man.

The attendance of an American battalion, the 13th from Brooklyn, was an agreeable incident in the celebration that will not soon be forgotten. The arrival of the magnificent regiment to fall into line with Canadian troops, and to unite their tribute of honor to our Gracious Queen with them, will long be remembered among the events of that day.

The Cadets of the Royal Military College made their first appearance in public at this review. The smart, neat and well disciplined demeanor of these lads was apparent to all. The Canadian people had thus the first opportunity of witnessing the result of the judicious training of our young men in this Military College, giving evidence that those so educated will make a mark in the Militia of the future.

My thanks are due to my personal and the general staff who, one and all, exerted themselves in their several positions with promptitude and intelligence. And, the brigadiers, commanding officers, officers and men may feel satisfied that their zealous efforts have been crowned with marked success.

E. Selby Smyth,
Lieut.-General.

For Sore Throat, Sudden Colds and Diphtheria no remedy has ever been discovered so powerful to cure as Dr. Jas' Pain Killer. As a Liniment it has no equal in curing Rheumatism or Neuralgia, Burns and Bruises and wounds of every description. It is the cheapest and best remedy ever offered to the public.

No preparation of Hypophosphites I have used can compare with Fellows Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites for restoring strength to the nervous system.
I think it the best medicine I ever used.

A Horrible Crime.

A watchman at Montreal murdered at his post.

Montreal, June 1.—About 2 o'clock Saturday morning a fire was discovered in Morey's livery stable, Lagauchetiere street, and the cries were quickly on the spot. Nineteen of Morey's coupes and carriages were destroyed, or seriously injured, amongst others those which did service for the Prince Louise and the Marquis of Lorne. Constable Gravel went across the door of the office, inside of which he heard strange noises, as though a struggle was going on. He tried the door but it was locked. With a strong effort he forced it open, when he was horrified by a most horrible scene.

Through the strange unnatural light which the flames cast through the office, he saw a form advancing towards him, and as he stepped forward the almost lifeless body of the watchman fell helplessly into his arms, besmearing his clothes with blood. He conducted the half unconscious man into the street, and, stooping over, set him on the sidewalk, but the unfortunate man, with fast failing strength, stood up and staggered forward towards the burning buildings. He was restrained by the policeman, who conducted him to Morey's street police station, where he was given in charge of constable Guyon. On being asked if he suffered much pain, he lifted his head and answered in English, "I suffer very much where they stabbed me with the knife." He spoke with great difficulty, gasping out every word, but before the stupor returned over him he uttered the words, "I prevented them any way." After which he sank back and did not speak again. He was conveyed to the hospital at 2:30, and died at 10 this morning, without having recovered consciousness. An examination of the office showed that

A desperate struggle for life had taken place between the watchman and his assassins. The chair on which he had been sitting when surprised by the ruffians was standing in the middle of the office, the rug, which had doubtless covered his knees, being stained with blood. The wall and wainscoting were smeared with blood from the saturated clothes of the victim, while the floor in several places was covered with crimson marks. The stove was leaning, the pipe broken, and several pictures which had been hanging on the wall were lying on the floor, their glass frames having been shattered all to atoms. An old iron dumbbell, covered with clotted blood, lay on the floor. It did not belong to the office, but had been brought by the murderer, and was doubtless the instrument with which they first struck the unoffending man. The generally accepted theory is that the ruffians entered the building from the St Alexander street side, where some coal oil was spilled upon the fence, that they then proceeded to the carriage room and surprised the watchman. The latter then sprang to the telephone connected with the Ottawa Hotel, when he was stabbed, as the blood spirted against the wall indicates. Then there must have been a struggle and the stove upset. Here the final blow must have been given as the poor fellow tried the street door as a means of escape, for his bloody finger marks are found upon the latch. The side of the wall is Spattered with blood which must have followed the crashing in of his skull, and the side of the door is daubed with blood in such a manner as would result from his head falling against it and sliding downwards to the floor, where he lay in a pool of blood when he was found. Quenville leaves a wife and three children. He was a sober, industrious man. It is supposed the murder was committed and the premises fired by cattlers, who have long had an animosity against Morey for having deprived them of the Ottawa and Windsor Hotel custom.

An inquest was opened to-day, and the jury having visited the scene of the fire and murder, and viewed the body of Quenville, adjourned until Monday morning. There has been a great deal of excitement in the city to-day over the affair. It is thought a reward will be offered for the detection of the murderers, in the hope that one of them will give Queen's evidence.

Morning Despatches.

Chicago, June 2.—On Saturday a few eastern road actually billed freight to New York, at the rate of 7½ cents per hundred pounds. This rate of compensation, taking mileage into account, is unprecedented in the history of railroading.

St. Louis, June 2.—Chas. Printz, an old and efficient policeman, was shot dead by a young ruffian named Chas. Sanders last night.

Washington, June 2.—The United States life saving service report in all districts, excepting those embracing the Gulf Coast, 66 vessels lost during the past season, 102 vessels saved; 23 lives lost and 837 saved. During the previous year 57 vessels were lost and 226 lives saved.

The Sun says ex-Congressman Ingersoll will be buried to-day without religious ceremonies. His brother will deliver an address. Deceased was an infidel.

Middletown, N. J., June 2.—Miss Elizabeth Dargie, aged 102, died yesterday. She had conversed with Washington.

Norwich, Conn., June 2.—Temperature 100 degrees in the shade yesterday.

New York, May 5.—Arrived, the Circassian from Glasgow.

A despatch from Liberia announces the adjournment of the North-Western Boundary Commission. No agreement could be brought about between the English and Liberian to refer the matter to Commodore Shufeldt, as arbitrator.

It is reported that Jas. Gordon Bennett has purchased a large tract of land back of Yonkers, upon which he proposes to erect four thousand houses for cheap rental.

A Company for building a rapid transit route from New York to Yonkers has been organized. The route passes near the Bennett settlement.

Scranton, Pa., June 2.—Peter Powell shot his brother Melchior in the abdomen last evening, the result of a long existing feud over their father's property. Melchior is not expected to recover.

Afternoon Despatches.

Calcutta, June 2.—Plentiful rain here and in the neighborhood during the past week, doing much good. Reports not yet received from outlying districts, but there is every reason to believe the rain-fall has been general.

Philadelphia, June 2.—Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Company has fixed the following prices for June: Lump stechbort, broken, $3; egg $3.20; stove $3.30; chestnut $3.10. These figures are for hard white coals.

London, June 2.—A Vienna despatch says:—Concessions of the Governor-General, Aleko Pasha, to the populace, in not hoisting a Turkish flag and wearing a fez cap, have produced a very bad effect at Constantinople. The Sultans and he decided to insist on hoisting the Turkish flag, and that stringent instructions to that effect had already been sent Aleko Pashas It is also intended to try the case before the powers. Aleko's conduct is considered a failure all round, and will stop in a movement which final ly will render the Porte's authority altogether illusory. This fear seems not altogether baseless as an agitation has commenced in favor of native commanders for the native militia, which points toward a denial or limitation of the Sultan's treaty by which he has a right to appoint militia officers.

Mandalay, June 2.—Certain females of the Royal family, for whose safety the British Government stipulated, have been placed in irons and will probably be starved.

St. Petersburg, June 2.—A ukase has been issued instructing the Minister of Finance to issue a 5 per cent. national loan at 92, for the nominal amount of 300,000,000 roubles, to cover the expenses of the late war.

Washington, June 2.—Public debt decreased in May $6,325,020.

—The treaty between Great Britain and Afghanistan has been signed.

Thomas Excelsior Eclectric Oil.

Worth Its Weight in Gold—Pain Cannot Stay Where It Is Used.

Is in more general use every day. Goes into common use, that is. One bottle as an oil liniment, the next, we have found an old-fashioned family remedy for internal use, for coughs, colds and pain and soreness in any part. No matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it never does you any good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. Ten cents' worth cures the worst case of cholera morbus in twenty minutes. It will cure any case of pain that it is possible to cure in five or eight minutes. We are ready to give any case of excoriated nipples or unbound breast. For bruises, sprains or cuts, nothing equal to it. For scalds, burns or other discolorations to the skin, there is never the least scar or mark after using it. For pain in the back or any part of the system, it never fails. For Cramp in the stomach, and the many other pains of a similar nature, it is the only remedy that will relieve you in a moment. Sold by all druggists in Belleville, at 25 cents per bottle. Prepared only by Thomas Excelsior Eclectric Oil Co., Toronto, Ont. Proprietors for the Dominion of Canada.

SCOTT'S EMULSION
PURE COD LIVER OIL
WITH
HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

The preparation combining the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only checks the most obstinate cough, but heals the diseased parts, and restores the patient to perfect health. It is perfectly tasteless and agreeable, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior strength of this Emulsion over all others. Its wonderful success in all cases where it has been introduced, has induced many unprincipled druggists to attempt the manufacture of an article which they claim is "just as good." Let such remember that the reputation of this Emulsion has been built upon its own merits, and not upon the reputation of any other preparation, and we warn the public against all imitations or substitutes. Ask for Scott's Emulsion, and observe that the name is blown in the glass, and our trade mark, a fac-simile of the engraving on the wrapper, on every bottle. Sold by druggists at 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY
JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and danger ous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system forms it the youthful constitution for the duties of life, and carries it in middle or old age, proves a real blessing; and on the approa h of childbirth these pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; the benefits to be derived are incalculable; they rectify the constitution; lessen the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with comfort to herself and child. In all cases of of Nervous Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and limbs, Fulness on Slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites and Blues, these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and, although a powerful remedy do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution. Full directions in the pamphlet round each package. JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. $1.00 and 25c per box, can be exchanged for Berlins & Lyman, Toronto, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Full directions for taking also suggests in Belleville, C. T. Wilson Medical Hall, Dr. Herring, C. Parker Trumbull, and all druggists.

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten year the proprietor of the great shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and all affections of the Kidneys and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of lifelong duration have been permanently removed, and are eradicated. Those who volunteer their testimony of the efficacy of the remedy are not bought up in any manner, but are large and staunch, but respectable citizens of this Dominion, every one of whom and open to question, upon whose varied recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonee Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay small medicine may be powerless to aid you. No fictitious effects are paid for by follow the use of the Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate of the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some to many calomite or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of seven time to test their efficacy. The Shoshonees vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputation of any pills befo e the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy for Biliousness, Sick Headache, and inactivity on the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bo tles $1.00 Pills 25 cts a box.

GIVEN FOR RUBBER PLASTERS.

FOR LAME BACK,
Weak Back, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, Stubborn and Neglected Coughs and Colds, Female Weakness, and all local Aches & Pains, it is specially recommended.

Attention is called to every article of medicine has an article appeared which has met with greater success and more than Benson's Capcine Plaster. Why they are preferred to all other porous plasters, is owing to their improved composition; they act instantaneously, cure speedily and effectually.

Physicians and the general public who acknowledge the great benefits derived from the use of the ordinary porous plaster, however, maintain that their action is not sufficiently prompt, requiring time, patience and continuous wear to effect a cure. Bensons Capcine Plaster overcomes this difficulty by accomplishing in a few hours, that which it takes any other plaster as many days.

Although a recent invention Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster has been thoroughly tested by physicians, and have been pronounced the most thoroughly efficacious plaster ever devised.

Its marvellous influence over the circulation and general effect on the system is almost incredible; from the moment of its application to the affected part, it operates with astonishing vigor brings relief and cures more effectually than any known Plaster, Liniment or Compound.

When you desire prompt relief, ask your Druggist for Benson's Capcine Plaster. Avoid worthless plasters having a similar sounding name. Each genuine plaster has the word Capcine spelled CAPCINE. Sold by all Druggists Price 25 cents.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest result.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is cheaper than tobacco, as the small cost will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

ONTARIO MUTUA Life Assurance Co'y.

HEAD OFFICE - WATERLOO, ONT.

Deposited with the Dominion Government $56,224.00

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63,88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.98	to $56,90
" 5th "	10.40	" 53.48
" 6th "	17.80	" 46.88
" 7th "	20.73	" 43.15
" 8th "	25.89	" 37,99
" 9th "	30.65	" 27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

TOWN HALL, Moira, }
26th May, 1879 }

The Council met on the above date.
Present—Thomas Elmo, Reeve; Matthew Robinson, Deputy Reeve; Councillors, John Graham and W. H. Morton.
Council opened as Court of Revision.
On motion Mr. Robinson was appointed chairman.
The minutes of last session were read and approved.
The members made and subscribed to the oath required before entering upon the business of the Court.
The following appeals were heard and disposed of:
John O'Riely's assessment was on motion of Mr. Elmo, seconded by Mr. Graham reduced one hundred dollars.
Henry Monck was placed on the assessment roll as owner of the East half of lot 11 in the 6th concession. Albert Latta and Gilbert Latta were placed on the assessment roll as owners of part of lot 13 in the 4th concession.
On motion Mr. Elmo, seconded by Mr. Morton, the Court adjourned to meet on the sixth month day of June.
Council business was then taken up, the Reeve in the chair.
Minutes of last session read and approved.
A petition presented from Elliot and others, asking for a grant of fifteen dollars culvert across what is known as Elliott's Creek.
Mr. Morton moved, seconded by Mr. Robinson that eight dollars be granted. Carried.
Robert Roy applied to have the privilege of utilizing his statute labor in digging a ditch on the north side of the Concession road in front of his lot. Granted.
The By-Law to grant a Bonus of ten thousand dollars to the Belleville and North Hastings Railway was then taken up.
The By-Law was read a first time.
The following Returning Officers were appointed for holding the elections on the 9th of July.

Polling subdivision No. 3. Elisha Sargent, Sargent's House.
The Clerk was instructed to have the said By-Law published as required by law in the North Hastings Review—Madoc.
Council adjourned.

The Golden City.

San Francisco is in many respects the most American city on this continent, especially in its defects, there almost always carried to extremes. Statistics show that, last year, almost 300 divorces were granted in the city, or one divorce for every working day. Suicides are so common, likewise, that the newspapers often chronicle six or seven a week. This shows at what high pressure people live. They have, as a rule, no repose, no regular method, no wholesome self discipline, no understanding of themselves. Their condition, like their wants and expectations, is artificial. They exist in a continual state of excitement; the days and nights are in a constant whirl. What they do to-day, they wish to undo to-morrow. Marrying without reflection, without any guarantee for the future, they soon discover their mistake and seek release from the bonds they have so eagerly and unhesitatingly imposed upon themselves. Life is emotional, sensational, carnival-like. Nothing is nothing has been, everything is to be. Life, property, the whole community is speculative. There is no solid foundation anywhere of serious, recurring work. All the inhabitants, from the lowest to the highest, from the poorest to the most prosperous, look to some lucky venture for the golden reward of spasmodic effort. When balked by their aims and hopes, they impulsively throw off the life, which for the moment, seems unendurable. The town is a mine of gold or gunpowder. It may yield yellow treasures, or explode with terrible effect; excitement and ruin follow hard and continually one upon the other. The precious ores of California have benefitted the world, but have injured its metropolis by making the real unreal, by making all material blessings contingent on unconscionable circumstance. What San Francisco needs for healthful development is the acceptance of the idea of regular work with proportionate compensation, and all enlightenment of faith in convulsive and unearned success.

A Brave Woman.

The Hindoo queen Durghetti, who reigned over the small territory of Gurrrah, is another woman famed in the history of the Deccan for her beauty and accomplishments her heroism and constancy. The sovereigns of her race had already reigned in succession over the fertile and prosperous district which was hers by inheritance. Bent upon developing the resources of her happy little state and increasing the prosperity of her people, the spirited Hindoo queen turned all her attention and energy to those ends. Aseph Jah, one of Akbar's generals determined to overthrow her power and conquer for his master her smiling territory. Without a moments hesitation the queen called together her peaceful and peace-loving subjects. They responded to her appeal with ready devotion, and burning with indignant enthusiasm, she placed herself at the head of her troops. A helmet on her head, a quiver at her side, a lance in her hand, she advanced to meet the invading Mogul. Perceiving that her troops, new to the art of warfare, were advancing upon the enemy in disorder, she sounded a recall, reformed and harangued them, telling them that they were to wait for a signal from the royal elephant, on which she was herself seated, before advancing. Surprised by this unexpected resistance, the Mogul's by this unexpected resistance, the Mogul's were driven back and left 600 dead upon the field. But Durghetti's nobles refused to carry out her tactics and follow up their advantage by a night attack upon the discomfited troops of Aseph Jah, and when on the following day he renewed the engagement with fresh reinforcements, they fled in confusion, leaving guns and arms in the hands of the enemy. The courageous queen, supported by four of her chieftains, bore the brunt of the battle, holding out valiantly after all hope was at an end. Her friends implored her to fly—her son fell at her side, pierced through the eye by an arrow—the princess, deserted by her troops, was in imminent danger of falling into the enemy's hands. Turning to the chief officer of her household, "Haste!" she cried. "Let your dagger save me from the ...ce...ime of putting an end to my own existence! We are aware no in war, but we need not be vanquished in honor!" Her faithful servant, had n...th, however the courage to fulfil her last request, and, seeing it at her exhortation could not prevail over his affection, she snatched the dagger from his side, and satisfied the immortal longings of her soul."—In Memoriam and Her Neighbors.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 3.

YOUR VOTE

AND

INFLUENCE

RESPECTFULLY SOLICITED FOR

THOMAS HOLDEN

IN THE ELECTION FOR THE

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE

—IN—

West Hastings.

AND FOR

N. S. APPLEBY

—IN—

East Hastings,

Mr. Johnson, when speaking for the Opposition candidate at Fozboro. devoted a good deal of time to an extollation of the National Policy. His object was to try and convince the farmers present that their interests were especially served by the new fiscal arrangements, and that they were already reaping the benefits of wise Tory legislation. This is how the farmers are benefitted by the "N. P."—Fall wheat is 10 cents per bushel cheaper now than it was a year ago; spring wheat is 12½ cents per bushel cheaper; peas sell for the same price; and barley is 4 cents higher, but should be 15. These facts enable the farmer to judge the "N. P." on its merits.

At Hamilton Mr. Blake said no charge of corruption could be truthfully brought against the Mowat Government. The Spectator, with the usual allowance for self-respect, calls Mr. Blake a liar, but dare not name one corrupt act of which the Government can be held responsible. The assertion that, by a liberal distribution of surplus revenue among the municipalities, the Government was bribing individuals and corporations, is too silly to be refuted. Mr. Blake is not disposed to make a public declaration unless he can qualify the same by irrefragable evidence, and in acquitting the Mowat Government of corrupt practices he was sensible of being able to produce all the proof necessary to sustain what he asserted.

Mr. Blake and the Campaign.

Since his famous speech in East Toronto, Hon. Edward Blake has spoken four times at important political meetings, and it is impossible to estimate the influence his active participation in the campaign has created. This fact is apparent when witnessing the anger of Opposition journals. They recognize the moral power wielded by such an opponent, and view with alarm the enthusiasm with which his presence is greeted. Those who seek his counsel are not confined to the ranks of the Ministerial party, for many Conservatives rely upon his political judgment, and respect his integrity of character, quite as readily as the Reformers. Again, Mr. Blake takes the platform and addresses the electors as one qualified by past experience and present interests to judge the contending parties on their merits. He initiated many of the measures carried out by the Mowat Government, and upon which an appeal is now made to the people of Ontario. He has been an interested and intelligent spectator of what has transpired in provincial politics during the past six years, and now assumes the right to express an opinion whether the Government is entitled to a renewed lease of power, or whether the charges adduced by the Opposition are well-founded and should be sustained by the people. His powerful appeals in behalf of the Mowat Ministry, and the evident favor with which these appeals are received by the electors create a widespread uneasiness among opponents of the Government. Judging by what has transpired in East Toronto, South Brant, London, Hamilton, and Lindsay, where Mr. Blake has appeared, we believe the result of his addresses will be greatly in favor of the Government.

The Real Issue.

On Thursday the electors of West Hastings will decide who is to represent their interests in the Ontario Legislature during the ensuing Parliamentary term. The real issue should not be lost sight of. The re are members of both political parties who will be influenced in the exercise of their franchise by personal claims. This, we suppose, is an inseparable adjunct of almost all election contests, but it is really no part of the issue before the people. Mr. Holden and Mr. Robertson represent in their persons, as party candidates, the policies of the Government and Opposition respectively. They ask the votes of electors on these grounds only—or should. As citizens they may have admirers among Reformers and Conservatives, but as candidates for election to the Ontario Legislature they claim no personal virtues, more than what is their legitimate right as honored members of the community. Mr. Holden, if elected, will give an independent support to the present Government. He approves of the general policy of the Mowat Administration, and finds no justifiable reason why a change should be sought. Mr. Robertson will vote want of confidence in the Government, if returned as the representative of West Hastings. It remains, therefore, for the electors to say whether they approve of the general policy of the present Administration, or whether they would prefer to see a Ministry composed of the leading members of the present Opposition in power. And this is the real issue.

Bribing the Mechanics.

We are informed that Mr. Robertson is resorting to almost desperate efforts as his case becomes the more hopeless. Nearly every mechanic in the city has been promised a "job," with certain winks and references that the most obtuse can easily interpret. If this is not bribery pure and simple, it is certainly first cousin to the act. Mr. R. is now building a block on Front Street, but the contracts for all kinds of work thereon have been let. We have not learned of his intention to build elsewhere at present. And, even if he can reward voters as he offers, his means are limited to a small benefit of a very doubtful tenure. This is only another way Mr. R has of "filling pipes," but it is none the less dishonorable. It is nothing else than downright bribery.

"Hunting in Couples."

What have we not heard about the Mowat and Mackenzie Governments working together, from Conservative papers and politicians? Just now nearly every Minister at Ottawa is stumping Ontario Constituencies in the interest of Opposition candidates. Sir John, Dr. Tupper and Mr. Tilley are in Toronto and have spoken in favor of Messrs. Morris and Bell, Mr. Bowell is in North Hastings doing what he can for Dr. Boulter, and others are similarly employed elsewhere. The same organs that condemned in such unmeasured terms the words of sympathy expressed by Reform Ministers for political favorites have not a word to say at the present juncture of affairs. But then, it makes all the difference in the world whose ox is gored.

☞ We wish it to be distinctly understood that we claim no responsibility for what our correspondents may say.

On the Rampage.

For the Ontario.

The Intelligencer waxes wrothy. Its great bitterness of soul is manifested in its article on Mr. Holden. Feeling sure of defeat on Thursday next, it wants to "have satisfaction" before it is too late, hence the malice a prepense of its articles. Mr. Holden's masterly defence of the Mowat Administration is too much for its feverish stomach. N. P. or prog, such as it receives from the very economical (?) Government at Ottawa, in the publication of a four square advertisement from the Post Office, is more digestible, hence the effort to throw dust, to create a feeling in Trenton and Sidney against him. Mr. Holden has "sneered" at the Intelligencer, and well he might, for who of its own readers are not sneering at its frantic efforts to force Mr. Robertson on the riding. It claims that Mr. Holden has "sneered" at Trenton by saying, in reply to Mr. Robertson's boast, that there were "not 150 votes for Mr. Robertson in Trenton." The 5th inst., will reveal the fact that he is much nearer the mark than the N. P. prophets imagine. If Mr. Holden thought as little of Trenton as Mr. Robertson, who does not think it of sufficient importance to hold a meeting there, one might credit the charge. The fact is, Mr. Robertson made such a contompible exhibition of himself at Mr. Holden's meeting in Trenton that his friends have vetoed a second farce. So disgusted were his friends then that they carried away the resolutions in their pockets, that were to knock the Mowat Cabinet into a "cocked-hat." Their discretion, or their confusion on that occasion, is commendable, for a more pusillanimous exhibition for a man aspiring to be a legislator was never witnessed in Trenton. Fancy a man wanting to condemn men for not passing a law that was already on the Statute Book, and striving to convince a Trenton audience that, by preventing School Trustees from building a school house in Trenton he would be exercising economy at Toronto! What do the friends of Mr. Robertson think of this plank in his platform? Such is the kind of chaff he scattered here. It was said on the hustings that his term might be a short one, and as the bringing out of a candidate was managed by the heads of the party it is well for Belleville to consider whether they will have two from Belleville or not. The friends of Mr. Brown will know the meaning of their insinuation. It is no secret that some such device has been resorted to, to pacify Mr. Francis. On looking over the riding, it will be only necessary to bring out every vote to satisfy those who would turn out capable, honest and worthy men, that Canadians are not so unjust to their honest and efficient public men.

Observer.

The Letellier Question.

The Montreal Herald announces that the Letellier question has been referred to Her Majesty's Privy Council, and that no decision will be arrived at until after the Whitsuntide holidays. This is a heavy blow to those who have been prophesying that the Home Government would promptly send back the reference to the Governor General as one that should never have been made, while it places the Dominion Government in the position of having recommended a course of action to which His Excellency rightly refused his sanction.

Vice-Royalty at Kingston.

NOTES AND INCIDENTS.

I attempted a general reference to some of the prominent events connected with the visit of the Vice-Regal party to Kingston, in my former communication. This was all I could do under the circumstances. Where so much transpired of an unusual and interesting nature, and the space at one's disposal was limited, only a synopsis could be thought of.

THE MILITARY REVIEW.

The visit to the Military College was made at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. Everybody was busy at that hour, but many hundred spectators lined King Street, anxious to obtain another look at the Princess and her noble consort. Several carriages and a cavalry escort accompanied the august visitors, and cheers greeted them from the start to the College grounds. The review and inspection was witnessed by a large concourse of citizens, and passed off very successfully. Point Frederick, clothed in the deepest emerald, and with the picturesque College building, decorated with flags and mottoes, in the background, was much admired by the Princess and Marquis. There was just enough wind to disturb the surface of the water and give the yachts and small boats easy sailing. Scores of these were scudding about in the vicinity of the Point, and steamers were carrying loads from the city to the dock on the south side. The enlivening strains of military bands, the booming of cannon, and the paraphernalia of war on a small scale made the scene highly interesting for a time.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE

It was generally known that the Vice-Regal party would attend church at St. George's Cathedral Sunday morning, and a very large congregation was present on the occasion, many coming from a considerable distance to gratify a curiosity under favorable circumstances. The Dean of Ontario preached a very eloquent discourse, and both the distinguished worshippers were presented with a beautiful Prayer Book by the Churchwardens. In the evening the Marquis attended the small Episcopalean Church at Cataraqui.

A QUIET MONDAY.

The programme, officially promulgated, announced several informal visits to local institutions by the Vice-Regal party on Monday. A drizzling rain that continued all day, spoiled much that was marked out and kept the Marquis and Princess in their rooms. This, we presume, was not a disagreeable alternative, after such a round of ceremonious performance. Kingston is not a large city, and cannot boast of many very imposing public and private buildings. The schools, charities, &c., though creditable, are not numerous, and were soon disposed by the Marquis, who made a hurried visit to the more convenient.

THE ADDRESSES

A word or two about the addresses presented by the City and County Authorities on Thursday afternoon. I doubt whether the Vice-Regal party, during their sojourn in Canada, have received anything of the kind superior, if equal. The embellishments were executed by J. W. Moore, of Kingston, an artist whose reputation is not confined to this event or this province. The taste and ingenuity displayed in the whole arrangement were exceedingly fine, and Mr. Moore deserves a large share of praise for what he so success fully accomplished. We hope to see his skill with the pencil appreciated as it should be by the Canadian people.

"THE HASTINGS."

Before closing my notes I am in duty bound to say something about our favorite Bay boat, by which I had a most enjoyable trip to and from Kingston. At this season of the year the "beautiful Bay of Quinte" offers many attractions to the tourist. The shores are dressed in June's richest garb, and

"Every copse deep tangled, tree irregular,
And bush
Are prodical of harmony."

A trip from Belleville to the old Limestone City, on the commodious and comfortable steamer Hastings, is a treat any person should enjoy. The boat is this season commanded by Capt. Crawford, who became a favorite with the public when acting in the capacity of purser. He is a kind, courteous gentleman, and carefully looks after the comfort and convenience of his passengers. In this, too, he is ably and efficiently seconded by the other subordinate officers, including by all means the steward and stewardess who so generously supply the table with things to tempt the plate. We have no hesitation in recommending any one to place himself, wife, children or friends under the care of Capt. Crawford and his fellow officers of the Hasting.

Millbridge P. O. T...

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

John Clark,

From Morning Papers.

There has been plentiful rain in the neighborhood of Calcutta, which will have a most beneficial effect on the harvest.

An attempt to blow up the Court where the military tribunal is sitting in Kieff has been frustrated.

—The Sultan feels aggrieved at Aleko Pasha in conceding to the popular feeling in Bulgaria in not wearing the fez and in not hoisting the Turkish flag. It is stated that stringent orders have been sent insisting on the hoisting of the Turkish flag, and the case will be laid before the Powers, as there are already indications of a step being taken towards rendering the Porte's power altogether illusory.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

A Tony Fishing Party.—Among the passengers in the Adriatic, which arrived at New York on Friday, were E. A Sothern and the Duke of Beaufort. Sothern is looking well and his first evening on shore was spent at a dinner party at Delmonico's in company with the Duke of Beaufort, W. J. Florence, and other gentlemen of the stage, among whom in this city the Duke has several acquaintances. Their programme for the future embraces a salmon fishing excursion to Labrador, where Sothern and Florence have "hired a river." The Duke of Beaufort is to be one of the party. They start for the North on Monday. At Montreal they will embark in a craft constructed for the occasion, and in it they will make their way to the salmon waters. The quantity of fishing tackle and sporting implements, the devices for shielding the party from attacks of flies, and abundance of articles that come under the head of stores, are said to be noteworthy. The party will not be in a hurry to return

General Grant's Royal Progress.—Hong Kong, May 23.—General Grant's visit absorbs public attention everywhere. He reached Hong Kong on April 13th, and was received with salutes and other demonstrations. All nationalities and the public officials joined in welcoming him. He reached Canton May 6th, where 100,000 people greeted him. He was received with great ceremony by the viceroy. Salutes were fired, and the troops mustered out. A luncheon of eighty courses was served to him.

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman to:—
For thousands cry with eager breath.
"They saved me from the jaws of death!
All ye sillidg give me heed,
'Tis National Pills your system needs.
Immense the rush for these Pills;
Which cure so many woeful ills.

Far North West Items.

From the Saskatchewan Herald of date 5th May, we clip the following:

Light showers of rain and some lightning on the night of the 7th.

Pemican, in this region, is not to be had at any price now,

Prairie fires began at Fort Edmonton on the 3rd, on the south side of the river.

The mounted police have three young bears at the barracks.

The prairies and woods are already beginning to look summer like.

The footbridge across the Battle river will be put up during the present week.

The Prince Albert cricketers have challenged the Battleford club to play on the 24th.

A brigade of carts with freight from Fort Carlton to Fort Pitt passed west on the 28th.

Mr. Dickinson lately visited Fort Pitt on business connected with the Indian Department.

The Hon. James McKay will leave Manitoba during the present month and pay a visit to Edmonton.

Extinguish your camp fire carefully. There is a heavy penalty for leaving fires burning after the first of May.

A party of men from Edmonton passed down about the 29th ult., to fit out and run a steel steamer now laying at Carleton.

The last mail from Winnipeg came by way of Fort Ellice and Touchwood Hills; and the mails for the east will hereafter take the same route.

Mr. James Prince, farmer, near this place, has set a good example to those who may come here to settle, by planting a row of fine trees along the roadside in front of his farm.

A strong company has been formed at Fort Edmonton, consisting of Mr. J. Norris, Donald McLeod, and Belcher Brothers, to start a saw and grist mill, to be run by a twenty horse-power Waterous engine, during the coming season. There will be a shingle machine and a lath machine in connection.

On Sunday, 20th April, a young Half-breed named Charles Godwin, passed east in charge of the police. He was arrested on the upper Bow River by Sub-Inspector Denny, of Fort Calgarry, on a charge of horse stealing at Duck Lake two years ago, and sent down there to take his trial.

The Physical Paradox.

It has been said that "the blood is the source of life." It is truly the source of disease and death. No life that is to say, no healthy issue can be generated from impure blood, no organ of the body can normally perform its functions when supplied with impure blood. The fluid which should carry life and health to every part carries only weakness and disease. Blood is the source of life only when it is pure. If it has become diseased, it must be cleansed by proper medication, else every pulsation of the humane heart sends a wave of disease through the system. To cleanse the blood of all impurities use Dr. Pierces Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets, the most effectual alternative, tonic and cathartic remedies yet discovered. they are especially efficient in scrofulous diseases.

Fashion Notes.

Coiffures remain low.
Belts are again in fashion.
Large bonnets do not take.
Pleated skirts are very popular.
Shoulder capes are very fashionable.
Clinging dresses already look old-fashioned.
Small boys and girls wear dresses precisely alike.
All light fabrics make up well in pleated kilt skirts.
Small children wear boots and shoes without heels.
Short basques are de rigeuer, with panier draperies.
Paniers grow larger and rise higher around the hips.
Elbow sleeves are to be worn again for street costume.
Black Brussels net bonnets bid fair to be very fashionable.
Untrimmed round skirts are preferred for travelling use.
Travelling dresses are made with no trimming, or very little.
New lambrequins and curtains are of striped mummy cloth.
Plain skirts, as yet, are worn only by very fashionable women.
Children's garments have large square pockets back of the hips.
Small boys wear hats. Small girls wear bonnets or close caps.
Small boys and girls dress precisely alike except in the bonnet or hat.
Medium sized gypsy and directoire bonnets take the lead at the moment.
Sailor suits with kilt skirts continue to be worn by both small boys and girls.
The use of elbow sleeves has revived that of black velvet bands for bracelets.
Small boys wear long, dark colored stockings, whether dressed in white or colors.
Plain, short, round skirts are faced at the bottom, not bound or edged with braid.
Young girls just entering their teens are given dresses very like their older sisters.
Pinafore suits for girls of from 4 to 10 appear among novelty costumes for children.
Slips with yokes and Spanish flounces are the first short clothes of both boy and girl babies.
The hat and bonnet alone show the difference between a small boy's and a girl's dress at present.
Worth drapes wide sashes straight around the hips of many of his costumes, fastening them with large fancy buckles on one hip.
Pinafore jackets of navy blue cloth, trimmed with gilt braid and buttons, will be worn with white dresses by little girls of 4 up to 10 years.
A new skirt trimming consists of square slashed up edges, under which are placed ruffles of pleated lace showing between the slashes.
The long Marie Antionette black lace fichu is revived. It is crossed on the bosom, and the long ends formed into a bow with the ends in the back.
Gabrielles fastening in front with a double row of buttons, and trimmed with flounces at the bottom, are worn by both boys and girls under 5 years of age.
A pretty belt is formed by a wide watered ribbon passed around the waist, with one very long flat loop and two longer ends hanging directly down the front.
The materials in use for untrimmed plain round skirts are corduroy, plain satin, ladies' cloth, velvet, striped satin and moriè silks, and moriè and faille striped silk.
A pretty style of graduate's dress is made of sprigged mull muslin with pleated ruffles of the same, and profuse decorations of pale blue and rose colored satin ribbon in loops and cravat bows.
Wide half belts of the material of the dress are worn from under the arms, sewn in at the side seams, and fastening in front with buttons, lacings, or buckles, frequently in a point over the waisteoat.

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

Worth ten times its weight in gold—pain cannot stay where it is used

Is he cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents, worth has cured crick in the back, the same quantity same back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints, spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that it is possible to cure in six or eight applications. Local & General

The Cells.—One prisoner and three tramps occupied sleeping apartments in the cells last night.

Vital Statistics.—The following is the return of births, marriages and deaths, as recorded by R. Newbery, Division Registrar for the month ending May 31st:—Births, 24; marriages, 4; deaths, 27.

Weather Bulletin.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate to fresh winds, cloudy to partly cloudy weather with showers.

More Rain.—Surely there can be no grumbling now on the part of those who were wishing for rain. Since Saturday night we have had several delightful showers, and vegetation is springing forward very rapidly.

Inland Revenue.—The following excise duties were collected at the Inland Revenue office here during the month ending May 31st:—Spirits, $8,476.55; tobacco, $609.20; malt, $150.89. Total $4,239.64. Same period last year, $4,231.19. Increase $5.45.

Another Walking Match.—We understand arrangements have been made for another walking match between Beasly and Furgeson, for $25 a side, to come off in a short time. Both of the boys are in training now, and a lively contest may be expected.

Coming.—Mr. J. S. Fish, agent for Cool Johnston's Australian Burlesque Company, was in the city, to-day making arrangements for the company's appearance here on Monday next. The company comes with 20 people and eight horses, and make a grand street parade each day, accompanied by their own brass band.

Committee Meetings.—Friends of Mr. Holden are reminded that the the General Committee meet each evening until the day of election, in the Reform Rooms, Carman's Block. Every one who can possibly do so should be present and assist in securing the return of our man by a handsome majority.

Successful Examination.—At the recent examinations held in Trinity Medical College, Toronto, we observe the name of E. D. Vandervoort, son of Captain B. H. Vandervoort, of Sidney, as having passed his second examination. We congratulate the young gentleman and hope each succeeding examination will be as successfully got through with.

City Council.—At the hour appointed for meeting last night, only seven members of the Council were present, so that no meeting was held. The majority of the members are too busy with election matters just now to lose an evening. As there was nothing of importance to come before them last night, the city's affairs will not suffer in the meantime.

Reunited.—Some days since we noted the fact that an American woman had missed her husband in Kingston, and had fretted so much about it as to make herself sick and necessitate her removal to the General Hospital. Reference having been made to the matter in the local papers, the husband saw it, and at once sought his wife. The meeting was on occasion of great rejoicing.

Cleaning Up.—Messrs. Turner & Twining have been awarded the contract for painting, varnishing and frescoing the Bridge Street Methodist Church. We understand the work is to be commenced in two weeks, and is to be finished within four weeks after commencing. During the time the contractors are at work the congregation is to meet in the Lecture Room.

☞A good imported Havana Cigar for 3 cents at McDonald's.

Moonlight Excursion.—Remember that to-morrow evening, the Oddfellow's Band have a moonlight excursion on the Bay. Both brass and string bands will be in attendance, and as there is a ump's room on the steamer Transit lovers of dancing can enjoy it to their heart's content.

The Grange Pic-Nic.—This affair, which came off yesterday, was to a certain extent a failure, as the day was most unfavorable. There was not more than 150 persons in all at the Point, and a rather "tame" time was spent there. E. H. Hilborn, Esq., Master of the Dominion Grange, and others delivered addresses, which helped to kill time and make the situation a little more agreeable for those who attended.

Nota Bene.—Parties having teams that they are willing to place at the disposal of Mr. Holden on Thursday next, will oblige his Committee by intimating the fact to either the Secretary of any one of the Ward Committees, or by leaving word at the Liberal Committee Rooms. It is to be hoped that all the friends of the cause will do what they can in this respect to further the election of Mr. Holden.

Custom Returns.—Comparative statement of imports and exports collected at this port for the months ending May 31st, 1878-79:—

	VALUE.	DUTY.
Imports, 1878,	$21,583	$3,051.30
" 1879,	18,165	3,239.19
Decrease	$3,418	Increase $187.89
Exports, 1878,	$42,828
" 1879,	55,463
Increase	$12,635

Wanted to see the Princess.—A funny incident occurred as the Vice-Regal Party were leaving Johnson Street School, Kingston, on Monday morning. An old woman in a large crowd which had assembled on the street called out, as the party got into the carriage, "I want to see the Princess." His Excellency who happened to be seated near the old woman, took a hold of her by the shoulder, and pulling her forward, said "There she is, take a good look at her.' The party then drove off amid loud cheers and laughter.

Swedish Ladies Quartet.—Remember that the above company,—the greatest vocalists in America,—appear at the Opera House here on Thursday evening next. Those who attended their concert on their last visit to this city, will bear us out in the assertion that they have never been equalled here. As Belleville possesses a large amount of musical talent, we hope to see a liberal patronage extended on this occasion. Mr. Hanwell has made arrangements whereby the election returns will be announced from the stage every ten minutes, so that parties interested in the election need not keep away.

Food as Well as Medicine.—Most people think as they swallow Cod Liver Oil they are taking medicine. In one sense they are, for anything that tones, heals and invigorates the system is medicine. It not only tones and heals, but nourishes. It will save the consumptive, restore the dyspeptic, and build up the baby weakling, when all other remedies fail, and combined with the Hypophosphites as found in Scott's Emulsion. It is a most wonderful as well as agreeable remedy.

☞You can now stop at the Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, N. York, on the American plan for $2.50 or $3.00 per day, or you can, on the European plan, take your breakfast there in the morning, take your lunch down town, or dine with a friend, and your room at the Hotel will only cost you $1.00 per day and upwards; and meals are also provided at moderate prices at the elegant Restaurant attached to the Hotel.

The Question Easily Answered.—Why should men wear beards? Because they are a great protection to the throat and lungs, and add much to their personal appearance. Why should we use Bryan's Pulmonic Waifers? Because when used for coughs, colds, tickling in the throat, hoarseness, &c., they act like a charm. Ministers and lawyers use them, physicians recommend them, and singers and public speakers say they are the very best medicine in existence for the cure of such complaints. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cts per box.

—Strawberry festivals are getting ready to blossom.

—Have you had a call from anybody canvassing for "Alick?"

—Don't complain of the wet weather, "there's millions in it."

—And now what have the farmers got to say about it—the weather?

—Our city is now presenting a really beautiful appearance, particularly the streets on Taylor's Hill.

—W. H. Vanderbilt has an income of $1000 an hour. That is considerably more than we get in a day.

—If you want to know your defects, quarrel with your best friend, and you will soon find what a villain you are.

—It rained the first Sunday in June. It now remains to be seen whether the old adage in reference to rainy Sunday throughout the month will be fulfilled.

—About the guiltiest looking people in this world are a man accused of a crime of which he is innocent and a newly married couple trying to pass for veterans.

—At Yale, long ago, was a student named Dutton, who was bald. One day, at recitation, another student burst out laughing. The tutor asked what was the matter. The student made an effort to be quiet, but soon there was another explosion. The student said, "A fly kept trying to light on Dutton's head, and he slid off every time."

A Truism.—Constant grinding at the mill of life, perpetual loss of vital force, will drag the strongest man to the dust; it is manifest therefore that the system must be kept supplied with a due amount of applicable phosphorus. The Montreal Tragedy.

The Detectives at Work.—A diabolical plot.—Arrested on suspicion.

The Post of yesterday says:—The feeling around the city is, if possible, more intense than on Saturday; nothing else is spoken of, and the vast dollar has given place to that of business man conversing on the streets. Every one that meets a reporter on the street immediately asks, "any arrests yet?" An air of mystery meantime pervades the police [illegible], and reticence is the order of the day. Indeed, it can scarcely be otherwise, as it is highly improbable that the [illegible]our police have anything to communicate. One consolation is, that the very best man at hunting up an affair like Saturday morning's tragedy is in charge of it, and that is Detective Cullen, who goes steadily to work, as calm as destiny, plodding along and never heeding the excitement that effervesces and asks inopportune questions. Of course there are many theories advanced and as many criticisms hazarded as there are busy bodies and experts in the community and a great many there are among them who modestly say that if they had charge of the affair they would, in twenty-four hours place their intelligent hands on the shoulders of the murderers.

A further examination by Detective Cullen revealed a most diabolical plot to destroy the surrounding houses, and thus conceal all evidence of the fiendish crime. This morning, in course of investigating the premises, Cullen discovered that all the wooden buildings in the neighborhood had been saturated with kerosene, to assist in spreading the flames.

The Witness says:—This morning an express-driver named Russell was arrested on suspicion. There were stains of blood upon his clothes, and his eye was blackened by a blow. He stated that he had "got into a fight with some volunteers" on Saturday night. The "black eye" appears to be about eight days' old.

The Globe's report says:

This afternoon, at the meeting of the City Council, Ald. Nelson moved that the question of offering a reward for the conviction of the murderers of Quesnelville be referred to the Finance Committee for immediate consideration and report. After some discussion this was carried. The Committee retired, and a few moments later reported in favor of offering a reward of $1,000.

The coal oil used to ignite Morey's stables on Saturday morning has been traced by a detective and one of the jurors on the inquest to Jurors street station. The man appears to have been taken back to Victoria square, where the constable partly lost trace, but subsequently traced it to a point on Latour street, near the notorious Busby lane.

The Thunder Storm.

Loss of Life and Destruction of Property.

Troy, N. Y., June 2.—P. P. Perry was killed by lightning at Stephentown on Saturday night. The barn of A. J. Whitman was struck at the same time and burned; loss $2,000. There was a heavy thunder storm at Mechanicsville on Sunday afternoon. Wm. Putnam, canal driver, was killed by lightning. A man named Collins was seriously injured by lightning at Castleton the same afternoon.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 2.—A despatch from Irving, Kansas, yesterday reports that 20 deaths have occurred and 23 people were badly injured by the recent cyclone. The people want money to get necessaries. Ten buried yesterday. From 50 to 60 families at Frankfort, Kansas, are houseless and destitute. The citizens of that place donated $700. More aid is needed. A despatch from Sabetha to-day says 75 to 100 persons are destitute in the vicinity of Beattie. Bedding and clothing are in great demand.

Mount Etna.

The Eruption Still Continues.—Great Destruction of Property.—A Stream of Lava Half a Mile Wide and a Hundred Feet Deep.

Messina, June 2.

The eruption of Etna continues. A considerable portion of the bed of the Alcantara River is covered by lava. The damage to agriculture already is very serious. The inhabitants have been forced to abandon the village of Majo. The detonations are frequent.

Rome, June 2.—Etna is ejecting enormous volumes of ashes. The destruction of property is immense. The Commune of Majo has been obliterated, and Cassolo is threatened. Many large and valuable estates have been destroyed. The four main craters continue to pour forth streams of lava, while many of the smaller ones have become inactive. The stream of lava which interrupted the road at Passa Pasearo is half a mile wide and a hundred feet deep.

Morning Despatches.

Topeka, Ks., June 4.—The Freedman's Relief Association has determined to appeal to the country for help. Their business is simply to distribute aid. Governor St. John has issued a stirring appeal for aid to relieve suffering victims of the recent cyclone. Contributions of money may be sent to Hon. John A. Martin, Atchison, Ks.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 3.—The great iron works strike throws out of employment in this city and in Allegheny about 40,000 workmen. It effects not only mill hands but also coal diggers and men employed in other connections with mills. Yesterday 200 puddlers marched to Hussy, Howe & Co.'s steel works, and ordered the employees, numbering 500, including 16 puddlers, to stop work. The men promised they would at night. The strikers ordered the men at other mills to quit. The capital that will be idle, if the strike lasts, is estimated at $25,000,000 in this county alone, besides $35,000,000 at Youngstown, Ohio, and 2,000 men; $2,500,000 at Sharon, Pa., and about 1,000 men; $1,500,000 at Newcastle, Pa., and 600 men. There are dozens of other places in eastern Ohio, Virginia, and Western Pennsylvania where iron mill owners belonging to the Western Iron Manufacturers Association, who pledged their honor not to take any action not endorsed by Committee appointed to take charge of their side case.

Newark, N.—Investigation into recent wholesale poisoning of children, who drank from the brook, discloses that diphtheria caused death. Diphtheria in a mild form had been in the vicinity so that the water poisoned by barnyard drainage and putrid carcasses of dead animals was just the thing to feed the disease into development of the terrible disease.

Rockhill, S.—J. P. Caston, a young merchant from Windon at his store shot and killed Church Williford. They were rivals in the affections of a young lady. The feeling against Caston is so high he was removed to Yorkville jail.

St. Petersburg, 3.—Saturday Count Kaskiell a most intimate friend of the Czar was murdered in the suburbs, either by Nihilists or by friends of the young lady whom he wronged.

Afternoon Despatches.

Wheeling, June 3.—The excitement at Littleton, incident to the arrest of 7 of the gang of redmen who infested Wescot County, is very great. They were to have been tried to-day, but no Justice of the Peace was willing to risk his life doing so. Several were notified by redmen that they would be killed if they assisted in bringing the gang to justice. The services of Justice Lemaster of Centre District has been obtained, and the trial set for to-morrow morning. Gov. Matthews is determined to have lawlessness crushed out. About 50 of the gang attacked the house of a prominent citizen of Mannington, Monday, but finding the occupants well armed made off.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and agreeable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined Food and prescribe it in the advanced stages of disease, and a better agent in enriching both rich and poor blood, arresting the progress of the inpaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole system. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at $1 per bottle.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY

JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases incidental to the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system, fortifies the youthful constitution for the duties of life, and whether in middle or old age, proves a real blessing; and on the approach of childbirth these pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; the benefits to be derived are incalculable; they fortify the constitution; lessen the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with comfort to herself and children. In all cases of of Nervous Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fulness on Slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites and Fluxes, these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and, although a powerful remedy do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution. Full directions in the pamphlet round each package. JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. $1.00 and 12½ cents for postage enclosed to Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agent for the Dominion, will insure a bottle containing over 50 pills, by return mail. For sale at Wholesale Agents in Belleville, G. T. Wilson & Co.; Kingston, Strange, Herring, W. C. Barker, Trenton, and all respectable druggists.

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

To all sufferers from the errors and indiscretion of youth, nervous debility, premature decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

The subscriber has been appointed by the proprietor of the great Shoshonee Remedy to distribute gratuitously to those who are afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Throat and Lung Diseases, Liver Complaint, Affection of the Kidneys and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin diseases of long standing, which has been permanently restored. Those who have been permanently restored are not obliged to use this remedy are not to bogus people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but to residents of this Dominion, every case and open to question, upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonee Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of the Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate of the invalid is so often sealed, nor the form of some kind, crazy sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are wild flowers and still possess the qualities of the days of sufficient time to test their efficacy. The Shoshonee vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputation of any pills before the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy for Biliousness, Sick Headache, and inactivity on the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1.00, Pills 25 cts a box.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER.

Manufacturers Awarded the only MEDALS —AT— CENTENNIAL 1876 —AT— PARIS EXPOSITION 1878

GIVEN FOR RUBBER PLASTERS.

FOR LAME BACK,

Weak Back, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, Stubborn and Neglected Coughs and Colds, Female Weakness, and all local Aches & Pains, it is specially recommended.

At the present time the history of medicine has an instantaneous cure which has met with greater approval and success than Benson's Capcine Plaster. Why they are preferred to all other porous plasters, is owing to their improved composition; they act instantaneously and specially and effectually.

Physicians and the general public who acknowledge the great benefits derived from the use of the ordinary porous plaster, however, maintain that their action is not sufficiently prompt, requiring time, patience and continuous wear to effect a cure. Benson's Capcine Plaster overcomes this difficulty by accomplishing in a few hours, that which it takes any other plaster as many days.

Although a recent invention Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster has been thoroughly tested by physicians, and have been pronounced the most thoroughly efficacious plaster ever devised.

Its marvellous influence over the circulation and general effect on the system is almost incredible; from the moment of its application to the affected part, it operates with astonishing vigor brings relief and cures more effectually than any known Plaster, Liniment or Compound.

When you desire prompt relief, ask your Druggist for Benson's Capcine Plaster. Avoid worthless plasters having a similar sounding name. Each genuine plaster has the word Capsine spelled CAPCINE.

Sold by all Druggists Price 25 cents.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a terrifuge of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supercede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

ONTARIO MUTUA
Life Assurance Co'y.

HEAD OFFICE — WATERLOO, ONT.

Deposited with the Dominion Government $56,224,00

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly, but not an inch would he stir, and at last he stood for more than a minute absolutely alone, save for the dying piled in heaps around him. It could only end one way amid the storm of bullets which were raining round him thick as hail; one at last found its way to that noble heart, and he fell dead. As the Turks swept over the parapet and dashed past the spot where he lay, the colonel, struck by the boy's extraordinary courage and devotion, gave orders that he should be decently buried. In the evening he reported to the Commander-in-Chief that the body was that of a girl. I give this most astounding declaration of the colonel upon the authority of one of the English officers on the Serdar's staff, who tells me that he was actually present when it was made. It seems almost incredible; but, true or false, no braver heart ever beat than many sleeps in that little grave on the sunny slope of Kacelyevo.—London Times' correspondent.

THE LAST REDOUBT.

Kacelyevo's slope still felt
The cannon's bolts and the rifles' pelt ?
For a last redoubt up the hill remained,
By the Turk not yet held, by the Turk not gained.

Mehemet Ali stroked his beard :
His lips were clinched and his look was weird :

Round him were ranks of his ragged folk.
Their faces blackened with blood and smoke.

Clear me the Muscovite out !" he cried,
Then the name of "Allah !" echoed wide,
And the fezzes waved and the bayonets lowered,
And on the last redoubt they poured.

One fell, and a second quickly stepped
The gap that he left when he reeled and dropped ;
The second—a third straight filled his place;
The third—and a fourth kept up the race.

Over their corpses the living sprang,
And the ridge with their musket-rattle rang
Till the faces that lined the last redoubt
Could see their faces and hear their shout.

In the redoubt a fair form towered,
That cheered up the brave and chid the coward ;
Brandishing blade with a gallant air,
His head erect and his bosom bare.

"Fly ! they are on us !" his men implored;
But he waved them on with his waving sword.
"It cannot be held ; 'tis no shame to go !"
But he stood with his face set hard to the foe.

Then clung they about him, and tugged, and knelt.
He drew a pistol from out his belt,
And fired it blank at the first that set
Foot on the edge of the parapet.

Over that first one toppled ; but on
Clambered the rest till their bayonets shone,
As hurriedly fled his men dismayed.
Not a bayonet's length from the length of his blade.

"Yield !" But aloft his steel he flashed,
And down on their steel in ringing wise fell.
Then back he reeled with a bladeless hilt,
His honor full, but his life-blood spilt.

They lifted him up from the dabbled ground ;
His limbs were shapely and soft, and round,
No down on his lip, on his cheek, no shake—
"Bismillah !" they cried, "'tis an Infidel maid !"

Mehemet Ali came and saw
The riddled breast and the tender jaw.
"Make her a bier of your arms," he said,
"And daintily bury this dainty dead !

"Make her a grave where she stood and fell,
'Gainst the jackal's scratch and the vulture's smell.
Did the Muscovite men like their maiden fight,
In their lines we had scarcely supped to-night.

So a deeper trench among the trenches there
Was dug, for the form as brave as fair ;
And none, till the Judgment trump and shout,
Shall drive her out of the Last Redoubt.

AN INCIDENT OF THE LATE TURCO-RUSSIAN WAR.

So on the 3rd of September began the advance on Biela. The whole of the force encamped in front of Rasgrad marched out under the command of Achment Eyoub, and proceeded by various roads in the direction of Kacelyevo. Here the Russians had strongly entrenched themselves in front of the Kara-Lom. On the night of the 5th the right wing, under Ivad Pasha, reached Costanza, while the centre, under Redjib, occupied Selerick. Meanwhile, ever since the 31st of August, Osbit had been creeping along from Karhassankoi, over the hills at the back, and along the valley of the river past Berkirin Xenikoi, in the same direction On Thursday, the 6th, a combined attack on Kacelyevo was carried out in excellent style. The Russians defended themselves extremely well and made the most of the advantages on their position; but it was manifest that they were outnumbered. The Turks showed good courage, and advanced with coolness against a very heavy artillery fire, delivered with admirable precision. The enemy had entrenched themselves in three lines, but the first was soon carried. The second was more obstinately contested, and here occurred, one of the most probably extraordinary episodes of the war. As the Russians began to waver and their fire to slacken as the Turks were pressing forward with increased vigor, a young Russian officer was seen standing just behind one of their batteries waving his sword and boldly encouraging his men to stand their ground. Over and over again he rallied the troops who were pouring out of the trench, but it was no use ; it was not in his power alone to stem the tide of victory. His men, animated by his example, turned and held their own for a few minutes, but the fire was too heavy for any human being to stay and live. They could not bear it. They fell on their knees and entreated him to fly, but not an inch would he stir, and at last he stood for more than a minute absolutely alone, save for the dying piled in heaps around him. It could only end one way amid the storm of bullets which were raining round him thick as hail; one at last found its way to that noble heart, and he fell dead. As the Turks swept over the parapet and dashed past the spot where he lay, the colonel, struck by the boy's extraordinary courage and devotion, gave orders that he should be decently buried. YOUR VOTE

INFLUENCE

RESPECTFULLY SOLICITED FOR

THOMAS HOLDEN

IN THE ELECTION FOR THE

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE

—IN—

WEST HASTINGS.

AND FOR

N S. APPLEBY

—IN—

EAST HASTINGS,

Mr. Wood takes another Tumble.

The conduct of Mr. A. F. Wood, as exposed by a correspondent elsewhere, is not a surprise to those who know something of his antecedents. How a man claiming the respectability and aspiring to the position in public confidence he does, can so defiantly trifle with his reputation for honorable intentions, must puzzle a good many people who are conversant with all his political somersaults. Not only did he canvas in opposition to Dr. Boulter in North Hastings, but he repeatedly spoke from the platform strongly advising the electors to vote against the Opposition candidate. Frequently did he refer to Dr. Boulter as a political nonentity, whose ability to originate legislation and whose influence in the House could be measured by a very small compass. As our correspondent points out, this same Mr. A.F. Wood now appears before the same audiences and harrangues them in favor of the man he so unmercifully condemned a few days ago. It is difficult to conceive a more humiliating and self-demoralizing spectacle than that exhibited by Mr. Wood to-day. There is little wonder that life-long Conservatives openly avow their determination to hereafter repudiate both Mr. Wood and the party he disgraces.

In this connection we may mention that a gentleman from North Hastings who was in the city to-day, and who is well known as a prominent member of the Conservative party, declared his inability to support Dr. Boulter, on account of the Hastings Insurance Company expose. Himself and several members of his family have suffered by insuring their property in that Company, and they cannot relieve Dr. Boulter of all responsibility.

The Last Appeal.

The canvass is now completed. Every elector in Hastings has been asked for his vote—many of them more than once. The issues, too, have been fully discussed, and the candidates will to-morrow receive the expressions of confidence and non-confidence accorded by the electors to the respective policies they represent.

We have appealed for support for the Mowat Government with confidence, and an adverse decision to-morrow would be as unexpected as it would undoubtedly be unjust. The record of that Government has been fairly and fully laid before our readers, and we believe they are capable of judging how far the public interests have been served.

In West Hastings the contest has been waged with much energy; and, on the part of Mr. Holden and his friends, with great fairness. The same, however, cannot be said of the Opposition candidate and those who espouse his cause. It is no secret that many persons have been approached with offers that could be made some under the head of bribery. Workingmen have been flattered with promises of good, steady "jobs" of some kind. Others have had their imagination tickled with references to "filling pipes" by some one who could command the right kind of "stuff." Corporation officials have been told that it might be to their interest to vote for Mr. Robertson, and even sectarian influences have been invoked to secure the defeat of the Government candidate. But, in spite of all this, we believe the result of to-morrow's voting will be favorable to Mr. Holden and the Mowat Government.

Mr. Appleby, in the East Riding, feels certain of his election by a large majority. The Opposition, however, have worked hard, and may develope an unexpected strength at the polls.

The North Riding has been regarded as hopelessly given over to Conservatism, and since the retirement of Mr. Wood we have looked upon the result as a foregone conclusion. But, more recent intelligence from reliable sources show that Mr. Vankleek is proving himself a strong man, and to-morrow's summing up will either put him at the head of the poll or close upon his opponent's lead.

There still remains a duty to perform, and it is the most important of the campaign. Every elector who approves of the policy of the Mowat Government must be early at the polls to-morrow morning, and mark his ballot for HOLDEN, APPLEBY, or VANKLEEK, according to the riding in which he resides, or qualifies. And this is not all. After voting he should see that others whom he can influence properly record their votes for the Government candidates.

Parties having horses and carriages to use in the interest of Messrs. HOLDEN, APPLEBY and VANKLEEK are requested to come forward and report to the proper persons. They should be willing to give one day to a work of so much importance, without charge. We are assured that offers of assistance of this kind have already been made by many, and there will be no lack of enthusiasm and proffered support on Thursday. Work and vote for HOLDEN, APPLEBY, and VANKLEEK.

The Ballot Papers.

HOW THE ELECTORS SHOULD VOTE.

The form of the ballot paper in the Ontario elections differs from that used either in the Dominion or Municipal elections. The candidates names are arranged alphabetically, and should be printed in different colors, but the Returning Officer has the power of deciding upon the color to be used in case of candidates not agreeing. In West and North Hastings both names are black. Friends of the Mowat Government should mark their ballots as follows:

WEST HASTINGS.

HOLDEN.

1. (Thomas Holden of the City of Belleville, barrister. X

ROBERTSON.

2. (Alexander Robertson, of the City of Belleville, barrister.

Ballots marked as above will record votes in favor of the Reform Candidate. Having marked your ballot clearly and plainly with the pencil in the blank space, fold it so as to exhibit the back only; hand it to the deputy returning officer and see that it is put in the ballot box before you leave the polling booth. Having done this as early as possible, your duty will be accomplished, and you can devote the remainder of the day to see that your neighbors do theirs.

THE LAST BROADSIDE.

—Finally, there is some loose talk, in this Hamilton speech (Mr. Blake's), about "raising parties to a higher plane." Mr. Mowat, the speaker claimed, had never been charged with personal corruption, as if that were the only sin a Minister is capable of committing.—Mail.

It is certainly not the only sin a Tory Minister is capable of committing, though he can go to greater lengths in it than can any other man.

—It is now known for a certainty that Mr. Michael Murphy, Inspector of Weights and Measures, Hamilton, is to be dismissed from the office in a few days. The "hunt kersliding" under the new Act, by which the "Grits" are to be got rid of, will commence immediately after the election.

—Things have come to such a pass with the Tories that the Collector of Customs at Kincardine has been warned from Ottawa that he will loose his situation if HIS BROTHER, who is editor of the Reform newspaper in Kincardine, does not cease supporting the Reform candidate in South Bruce so vigorously. Talk of Tory tyranny after this.

—The London Advertiser states:

"In the last two months the total decrease in London in Customs receipts has amounted to the comparatively enormous sum of $25,922.73."

This is startling. In Belleville the decrease has been $8,418.

—Sir Charles Tupper says the treasury at Ottawa is empty. We can well believe it is, for the Customs receipts have fallen off so heavily that the weekly report of the state of the revenue is no longer published at Ottawa. The chances are that instead of direct taxation under Mr. Mowat we shall have it under Sir John Macdonald.

—An Opposition journal says:—"True, Irishmen do not whine; they fight." Just so, and the Irishmen of Ontario will show how they fight to-morrow. They will teach a lesson to those who call Hon. Mr. Fraser, their best friend, a "Grit bully," and who hound private members of society when about their daily avocations.

—With the most brazen-faced effrontery the Opposition organs and candidates claim that the Provincial Government should be in harmony with the Dominion Government, lest, as Prof. Annexation Smith puts it, a stone might be so placed as to throw the National Policy car off the track. And this, too, after yelping for the past three or four years that the Dominion and Provincial Liberal leaders were "hunting in couples," and condemning them without stint for so doing. This sham outcry about the necessity for "harmony" is the last vain effort to retrieve the dead and gone potency of the N. P. charm.

The Electors of Belleville who love PURE, HONEST, CAPABLE and ECONOMICAL GOVERNMENT, will VOTE to-morrow for MR. HOLDEN, and through him for the HON. MR. MOWAT.

Money Used.

We have detectives in the field, and on the eve of to-morrow's contest it is not out of place to state that they have all the evidence needed to show that Mr. Robertson, or those working for him, make good use of a plethoric bank account. If Mr. Holden is defeated, it will be entirely owing to the potent influence of the "almighty dollar," which is being so extensively circulated throughout the Riding. Be careful, gentlemen. The wrong man may accept a bribe.

☞ We wish it to be distinctly understood that we claim no responsibility for what our correspondents may say.

Mr. Wood's last Somersault.

To the Editor of the ONTARIO.

SIR,—Doubtless you are aware the shape the contest the Provincial Election has assumed in the North Riding, the fight now being between Boulter and Vankleek. Wood and Read having stepped down and out. Not out altogether with Mr. Wood, as he is now stumping it for Boulter, having publicly announced at the nomination that it was his intention to do all that he could for Boulter's return.

The man who yesterday was held up by Mr. Wood as a parliamentary impossibility, as a nonentity in the House, as wholly inefficient and unfit to be the representative of the people, is to-day declared to be the right man in the right place, worthy in every way of the confidence of the electors, and should be returned. Mr. Wood can now throw up his cap and shout himself hoarse for the man who for a year or more he has been decrying from the street corners and from the stump as a party hack, a Hastings Mutual fraud &c.

Those who are best acquainted with Mr. Wood will not be surprised at this sudden change in the political horrison. The color of the kaleidoscope, the shapes of Proteus, the changes of the chameleon, cease to be a wonder, when placed by the side of this political trickster. Dropped by the Conservatives, the door shut in his face by Reformers, all confidence forfeited by all parties, Mr. Wood ignominiously retires from the candidature, after satisfying himself by a three months canvass, that there was not even the ghost of a chance of his being returned.

You may not be aware of the fact that this same Mr. Wood has for, say two years, been coquetting with the Reform party to take him in; and it is alleged that he would have been willing to give a written pledge that he would support the Reform Government if the Reformers would only send him up; and while a few, just a few, of the unwary were cajoled into a promise of support, as a body, they said "No! how much soever we may desire the continuance in power of the Mowat Administration, and the existence of the Reform party in Ontario, yet, perish that party, and go to the wall that Government, rather than that we should bolls ourselves, and dishonor the franchise by sending such men to rule over us."

When Mr. Wood found it necessary to retire from the candidature, for the want of votes, and rather than go to sure defeat, he promised certain parties that neither he nor his friends would support Boulter in the coming contest; and yet the very next day, he wheels into line, takes shelter under the Conservative wing, and opens a masked battery on what he had just found out was the enemy. "O, consistency, &c."

Mr. Wood having, in the past proved that he would feel no compunctions in sacrificing friend or party, where self-interest was likely to gain, is believed now to see something looming up in the future that might prove to his advantage, in pursuing the course he has, probably a faint hope that the present Government would be overturned.

It may be asked, how it is that any man who has presented so many fronts, and played so many parts in politics can have friends; and after all it is not to be wondered at, when we take into consideration that human nature has proved the same in every age of the world's history, and that even the ancient Judas had friends.

Yours &c.,

NORTH HASTINGS.

There is no danger of Direct Taxation in Ontario. We have a guaranteed Revenue of $2,500,000, while our necessary expenditure is only $600,000. This leaves us a balance to the good EVERY YEAR of $1,900,000. There is therefore NO danger of Direct Taxation, under an economical Government like that of Mr. Mowat. Electors, make a note of this fact, and vote for Thomas Holden, the People's Friend.

A Montreal magistrate recommends that the filles du para be compelled to live in a remote quarter of the city.

Effects of the "N. P."

This morning the unfortunate effects of the National Policy were clearly exemplified. Wool that had formerly realized from 25 to 35c. per lb., was bought this morning for 20c. per lb., first quality, common ranging from 17c. to 19. The real cause of this state of things is that the manufacturers of tweeds, etc., were too shrewd for the farmers, and had wool placed upon the free list. By this means wool for manufacture's use is obtained from the great wool districts of the United States. Such is "Canada for the Canadians" with a vengeance. A wool merchant of this city says that wool never ranged so low within twenty years. We quote prices in different places: Belleville, 20c. for best; in Oxford County the clip is reported the best for years, 20c. being the ruling price; London, the centre of a wool-producing district, 18c. to 20c.—Whig.

Under the Ballot.

The electors will not forget that the present contest is to be decided under the ballot—a form of voting granted to the people by the Mowat Government now in power. This enables all voters to exercise their own judgment in the matter of choosing a representative, without being subjected to the species of bull-dozing which contributed to large Tory majorities in many constituencies in days happily gone by. This is a boon all will appreciate. An employer has no right to exercise any kind of terrorism over those who work for him, and the fact that he pays wages for labor gives him no moral right to control the suffrages of his employees. Workingmen may set it down as a settled fact that employers of labor do not pay one cent therefor more than it will bring in open market, and there is no compliment in the matter. An employee is under no more obligation than his employer. Each is looking after his own interest, and the relations existing between the parties will not be allowed to continue after they cease to be mutually profitable. It has been the practice in Belleville with some employers of labor to coerce their workmen into voting for the Tory candidate. Thanks to the action of the Mowat Government, this has been rendered impossible, and the daily toilers will appreciate the work of the men in power who have relieved them from political thraldom. They will turn out and vote solid for Mr. Holden and the Mowat Government, recollecting that

The crowning fact,
The kingliest act,
Of freedom is the freeman's vote,

Marking Ballot Papers.

HOW TO DO IT PROPERLY.

Recent anomalous and contradictory decisions in contested election cases, with reference to the marking of ballots, should direct particular attention to this matter. In the Monk election case (1876) the following marks on ballots were held to be valid:—(1) An irregular mark in the nature of a cross, so long as it did not loose the form of a cross. (2) A cross not in the proper compartment of the ballot paper, and either over, on, or under the candidate's name, and to the right within the division. (3) A cross with a line before, apparently inadvertently made. (4) A cross rightly placed opposite one of the candidate's names, but with two additional crosses, one across the other candidate's name, and the other to the left. (5) A double or interlaced cross, or two crosses in the right place. (6) A cross in the right place, but on the back of the ballot paper. (7) A cross in the right place, but with other marks upon the ballot paper, apparently inadvertently made. (8) Ballots inadvertently torn. (9) Ballots marked by pen and ink instead of a pencil.

As the law now stands, the responsibility of spoiling his ballot so as to defranchise him, now rests upon the voter; and, therefore, any voter who either writes his name or initials, or the name of the candidate, or puts numerals, or any mark by which he can be identified, has himself to blame if his ballot is thrown out at the counting of votes.

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman to:—
For thousands cry with eager breath,
"They saved me from the jaws of death!
All ye sildg give me heed,
'Tis National Pills your system needs,
Unmasks the rush for these Pills;
Which cure so many woeful ills.

Worse and More of It.

On several occasions of late we have pointed out the disastrous effect the National Policy has had on the railway system of Canada. Immediately prior to the 14th of March the weekly statements of receipts showed increases over the corresponding periods of last year. The 14th of March came, and since then there has been a succession of decreases. For the week ending the 23rd of May the receipts of the Great Western showed a decrease of over the corresponding week of last year. This enormous amount cannot fail to be heavily felt by the shareholders of the road, involving as it does a decrease of over $2,000 per day, Sundays included. All this is the direct result of the National Policy. It can be laid to the credit of nothing else, and there is nothing else short of a revolution or an earthquake that could possibly lop two thousand dollars each day off the receipts of the road. Just think of the matter in detail. Figure it out and see what it comes to. A little calculation will show that the road is earning less than at the same time last year by about ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS AN HOUR, speaking in even figures. Over a dollar and a half a minute is the Great Western Railway losing in consequence of the adoption of the National Policy. What does all this mean? Railway men generally—superintendents, foremen, mechanics, train men and laborers—know only too well what it means.

Remember that every man who has a Vote has a duty to discharge to-morrow in VOTING FOR MR. HOLDEN and in SUSTAINING GOOD GOVERNMENT.

A Gun From Quebec.

HON. MR. MERCIER ELECTED.

The result of the contest in St. Hyacinthe, to which all eyes have for some time past been anxiously turned, is the election of the Hon. Mr. Mercier by a majority of over 200. The significance of this result is perfectly plain to the most casual observer. When Mr. Joly's Ministry was formed a year ago, his Treasurer, the Hon. Mr. Dachand, a strong candidate in many respects, was elected for the city by a narrow majority over the man who was opposed to Mr. Mercier yesterday.

MILLBRIDGE P. O. TUDOR, ONT

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and also fell I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried everything to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil.

The most Valuable Gift—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully relieved every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Abounding and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affection of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not bogus people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate of the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public.

Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Biliousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities to the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

BASE BALL.—A return match game of base ball between the Albert College nine and the D. & D. Institute boys, will be played on the grounds of the Institute next Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—This evening the Oddfellows Band will have their excursion on the Bay, on board the pleasure steamer Transit. The boat will leave the dock at 7 o'clock sharp. We hope there will be a large attendance.

HOW'S THIS?—The Brockville Recorder says that Capt. Cuthbert and Capt. Cummings, of Trenton, were in Brockville yesterday with a new tug built for a fishing company at Richibucto. Isn't Ross putting on airs down there?

THE LAST DAY.—To-morrow the great tug of war will take place, and we advise every friend of Mr. Holden to bestir himself during the day. First record your own votes, and then see to it that your neighbor puts in his vote.

MILITIA.—The following is the maximum numbers of officers, non-commissioned an men to receive pay for drill in each district this year: Military district No. 1, 2,350; No. 2, 3,400; No. 3, 2,150; No. 4, 1,500; No. 5, 3,000; No. 6, 1,300; No. 7, 2,000; No. 8, 1,550; No. 9, 2,000; No. 10 200; No. 11, 200; No. 12, 350. Total 20,000.

THE HISTRIONIC SOCIETY.—We understand the above society which created so favorable an impression on the occasion of their first appearance, are ready with their next play, and will probably appear at the Opera House, towards the latter end of next week. The play selected for the occasion is the beautiful drama of "The Rose of Ettrick Vale."

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT—We hope our readers will not forget the grand school entertainment to be given by Mr. Sangster and the pupils of his school next Tuesday evening in the Town Hall, Camilton. In addition to the local talent, a number of readers from a distance have kindly agreed to assist. A grand magic lantern exhibition will wind up the evening's programme, the whole of which will be given for the low sum of 25 cents. An excellent programme has been provided and we strongly advise our readers to take advantage of it, and attend the exhibition.

SWEDISH LADY VOCALISTS.—The Mail of yesterday says:—The musical entertainment given in the Royal Opera House last night by these famous vocalists, assisted by Mr. Alexander Freygang, harpist, was of a decidedly superior order. The Swedish ladies have already made their bow to Toronto audiences, and it is only necessary to say that since their last appearance they have lost none of that richness of voice which has made them celebrated in quartette singing in various parts of the world. Their manner of singing several familiar English songs drew forth the hearty plaudits of the audience, and at once showed them to be as near perfection as possible in rendering (to them) foreign music. "The Old Folks at Home" was given in a style peculiarly their own, and upon which it would be scarcely possible to improve. To be appreciated the Swedish ladies have to be heard, and once heard will never be forgotten. During the evening Mr. Alexander Freygang played several solos on the harp in a manner which proved he was master of his instrument. His touch was artistic, and the music was thoroughly appreciated by the audience, who more than once demanded an encore.

WEATHER BULLETIN.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Fresh to brisk southerly to southwesterly winds, cloudy to fair warmer weather with showers.

☞ A good imported Havana Cigar for 5 cents at McDonald's.

THE CELLS.—There was one prisoner and two tramps in the cells last night.

PROMOTED.—We congratulate Master Robert Tannahill on his promotion from the agency here to the branch of the Bank of Montreal at Kingston, which position he will assume in about two weeks. He will be succeeded here by Master A. Campbell.

TROTTING RACE.—A match race for $100 a side will take place at the Dayside Driving Park on Friday next, 6th inst., between the horses "Little William" and "Rawdon." 'Busses will leave the city at 2 o'clock, for the accommodation of persons desirous of seeing the race.

W. C. T. A.—A meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Association will be held at the residence of Mrs. E. W. Holton on Thursday the 5th inst., at half past three p. m., for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. A full attendance is requested.

CITY WOOLLEN MILLS.—Mr. Lott, who has for some time carried on the woollen mills adjacent to Burrell's axe factory, has formed a co-partnership with Mr. John Eaton, who is also a practical workman, and we are pleased to know the new firm intend extending their business. With this object in view, they have purchased a lot of the newest machinery, which is now in operation. We wish the new firm increased prosperity.

TESTIMONIAL MONUMENT.—We were yesterday shown the monument, which is to be erected by the employees of the Grand Trunk Railroad to the memory of the late Thomas Grant of this city. The design is both unique and handsome, and is the only one of the kind in the Dominion. It is composed of New Brunswick Red Granite. The bottom of the monument is made of limestone, the base being 4 feet wide and 16 inches deep. On the top of this stone is a granite base 3 feet square, the die, being 2 feet 8 inches by 2 feet high. The whole is surmounted by a cross 5 feet and 3½ feet. The monument will stand about 14 feet high, and will present an imposing appearance in the cemetery. The design and execution of the structure are the work of Mr. S. A. Moore of this city, and reflect credit on our local artisans.

THE NEW DISPENSATION.—The Emulsion of Palatable Castor Oil with glycerine, manufactured by Scott & Bowne, is one of the greatest medical triumphs of the age. It has made what was the most detestable medicine the most agreeable of them all. Children take it as cheerfully as they accept a spoonful of cream and literally cry for more. To any one who knows—and who does not—that Castor Oil is the most efficacious cathartic and cure of intestinal inflammation; the inestimable nature of this new dispensation will be approved. Scott & Bowne's Palatable Castor Oil should be in every household. Price 25 cents.

☞ You can now stop at the Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, N. York, on the American plan for $2. 50 or $3.00 per day, or you can, on the European plan, take your breakfast there in the morning, take your lunch down town, or dine with a friend, and your room at the Hotel will only cost you $1.00 per day and upwards; and meals are also provided at moderate prices at the elegant Restaurant attached to the Hotel.

TWO QUESTIONS EASILY ANSWERED.—Why should men wear beards? Because they are a great protection to the throat and lungs, and add much to their personal appearance. Why should we use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers? Because when used for coughs, colds, tickling in the throat, hoarseness, &c., they act like a charm. Ministers and lawyers use them, physicians recommend them, and singers and public speakers say they are the very best medicine in existence for the cure of such complaints. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cts per box.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

WHILE strolling over his estate in the mountins near Avila, with his young wife, the Duke of Medina-Coeli, the premier peer and grandee of Spain, accidentally stumbled over his gun, receiving the contents of both barrels in the body, and was terribly wounded. He started for help, leaning on the Duchess until succor came, but, despite the assistance of the local surgeon and of the eminent army of surgeons sent immediately from Madrid by special train, the Duke expired in a few hours. He was 28 years of age, and was married twice, his first marriage being with the daughter of the Duchess Alba, a niece of the Empress Eugenie. He was married again last year to the daughter of the Marquis Torcellis. His fate caused a great impression in Madrid, the King expressing his sympathy with the widow, who is only 19 years old.

P. RYAN of Troy has challenged Johnny Dwyer of Brooklyn to fight in the prize ring. Ryan makes no secret of the matter, although the law provides explicitly for punishing the sender of such a challenge, as well as an actual fighter. An American paper referring to Ryan's challenge, says:—"Why should he fear any inconvenience? He was lately married to Miss McDwyer, and his constant companion and backer was a Police Justice of Troy, while Mr. Dwyer, whose brother is an Alderman in Brooklyn, lately returned loyally and unmolested from a public prize fight with Mr. Jimmy Elliott. Troy and Brooklyn may be sufferers, but there seems to be no danger of harm to Mr. Ryan or Mr. Dwyer."

COAL is laid down at nearly every point in New York State at from $2.50 to $2.75 per ton. In Ottawa it is $6 per ton, or more than double. The best and straw of the population of the Ottawa Valley are moving westward—many to the United States. Three parties have already gone and another starts next month. Over $2,000 worth of tickets were sold in Montreal one day last week to parties emigrating to the Western States of the Union. Rather than wait for the promised good times, these people go where cotton, coal and corn are cheap. Truly the "National Policy" is a great thing! Sir John announced in his pic-nic speeches that they "had a policy which would revive industry, employ the workingman, and make the land bud and blossom as the rose." Now they say "Give us time! Give us time!" —Ottawa Free Press.

☞ PARTIES HAVING TEAMS THAT THEY ARE WILLING TO PLACE AT THE DISPOSAL OF MR. HOLDEN TO-MORROW, WILL OBLIGE HIS COMMITTEE BY INTIMATING THE FACT TO EITHER THE SECRETARY OF ANY ONE OF THE WARD COMMITTEES, OR BY LEAVING WORD AT THE LIBERAL COMMITTEE ROOMS. IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT ALL THE FRIENDS OF THE CAUSE WILL DO WHAT THEY CAN IN THIS RESPECT TO FURTHER THE ELECTION OF MR. HOLDEN.

Wouldn't be Insulted.

There is a boarding-house not far away
Where they have their ham and eggs three times per day;
Oh! how the boarders yell
When they hear the dinner bell,
Oh! how those eggs do—

The refrain was cut short—very short indeed—and the author of the interruption was a red-haired woman with small, brown squinty eyes. She had "laid for" the singer, mop handle in hand, and was determined to put a successful termination for all time to come to such slurs on her respectably connected hash factory. The vocalist was taken by such surprise that he could not open his mouth to explain that he didn't mean her house at all, but a place in the suburbs, and the mop handle descended kerchuck on his unprotected head—followed by another well directed blow on his right shoulder which almost threw it out of gear. And then the red-haired female spoke, "How dare you come around singing about my house. I'll teach you, you young rascal," while the poor youth howling with pain, dashed behind a baker's waggon to save himself from further violence.

Casual Remarks.

—Vote for pure economical Government to-morrow, and vote for HOLDEN, APPLEBY, and VANKLEEK.

—Several hundred people were collected on the dock at Brockville yesterday to welcome the Vice-Regal party, as the steamer Spartan passed down the river.

—Remember—your ballot must be marked with a cross (X) only. If you put any other letters or marks thereon the ballot will be rejected, and your vote lost. This should be sufficient to guide electors aright.

—The Governor-General directed his Secretary to inform Mayor Gildersleeve how much himself and the Princess enjoyed their visit to Kingston.

Principal Grant concluded his eloquent sermon last Sunday night, in Kingston, with these noble words: God bless our land! God bless all entrusted with its destinies! God bless the Queen's representative and the Queen's daughter, and may they guide and stimulate us by fit word and noble deed. May we fight less and less for party, and may all be for the state, for the common weal. May we guard our bulwarks well, the bulwarks of religion and learning, of industry, of sobriety, of economy, of truth, of honor and of love, and we shall be a delightsome land, and the children who shall come after us shall dwell in peace.

☞ Mr. Holden's friends may mark their ballot-papers by placing a cross either on the right hand side opposite the name of that candidate, or at any other place WITHIN the division which contains his name. The mark, however, must be a cross—thus X

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures sweeney, swelling, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints, spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stopes the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frostel feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every description on an old beast.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the name Northrup & Lyman are shown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. *NORTHRUP & LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER.
A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical appliances. It contains new medical elements which in combination with rubber, possess the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any physician in your own locality will confirm the above statement. For lame back, rheumatism, Female Weakness, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, diseased Kidneys Wheezing cough, affections of the heart, and all ills for which porous plasters are used, it is simply the best known remedy. Ask for Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster and take no other. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts. Sent on receipt of price, Seabury & Johnson, 21 Platt Street, New York.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combination, and it has already attained a high position as a remedy in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more rapidly assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching the blood, relieving the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and curing the most obstinate Coughs. It is sweet and palatable as the cream, never separates, deposits or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

LAME BACK,

Weak Back, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease Stubborn and Neglected Coughs and Colds, Female Weakness, and all local Aches & Pains, is specially recommended.

At the time Benson's factory of medicine has an article appeared which has met with greater approval and success than Benson's Capcine Plaster. Why they are preferred to all other porous plasters, is owing to their improved composition; they act instantaneously, cure speedily and effectually.

Physicians and the general public who acknowledge the great benefits derived from the use of the ordinary porous plaster, however, maintain that their action is not sufficiently prompt, requiring time, patience and continuous wear to effect a cure. Bensons Capcine Plaster overcomes this difficulty by accomplishing in a few hours, that which it takes any other plaster as many days.

Although a recent venting Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster has been thoroughly tested by physicians, and have been pronounced the most thoroughly efficacious plaster ever devised.

Its marvellous influence over the circulation and general effect on the system is almost incredible; from the moment of its application to the affected part, it operates with astonishing vigor brings relief and cures more effectually than any known Plaster, Liniment or Compound.

When you desire prompt relief, ask your Druggist for Benson's Capcine Plaster. Avoid worthless plasters having a similar sounding name. Each genuine plaster has the word Capcine spelled C A P C I N E.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING, THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA OF PHTHISIC and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe ful smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

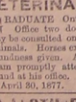
A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!



We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without the use of medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land

MACARIA OR ALTARS OF SACRIFICE

By AUGUSTA J. EVANS

"I wish you would let me see the papers. My eyes are strong enough now, and I want to know exactly what has taken place everywhere during my sickness. It seems to me impossible that General Lee's army can face McClellan's much longer without bringing on a battle, and I am so anxious about Russell. If he should be hurt, of course I must go to him. It is very strange that he has not written. Are you sure no letters came for me?"

"There are no letters, I am sure, but I have a message for you. I have seen him once since you were taken sick."

"Ah! what is it? He heard that I was ill, and came to see me I suppose. When was he here?"

Irene bent down and kissed her companion tremulously, saying, slowly:

"He desired me to kiss you for him. Electra, I have not told you before because I feared the effect upon you in your weak state; but there has been desperate battling around Richmond during your illness, and the Federals have been defeated—driven back to gaines River."

"Was Russell wounded? Yes—I understand it all now! Where is he? Oh! tell me that I may go to him."

She sprang up, but a death-like pallor overspread her face and she tottered to the open window.

Irene followed the thin figure, and putting her arms about her made her lean against her.

"He was wounded on the last day, and I went to see him; you were then delirious."

"Let me go at once, I will not disturb him; I will control myself! Only let me see him to-day!"

"Electra, you cannot see him. He has gone to his God, but in his dying hour he spoke of you fondly, sent love and—"

The form reeled, drooped, shivered, and fell back insensible in Irene's arms.

So heavy was the swoon, that it seemed as if her spirit had fled to join her cousin's in endless union; but at length consciousness returned, and with it came the woeful realization of her loss. A long, low wail rose and fell upon the air like the cry from lips of feeble, suffering, helpless children, and her head sank upon the shoulder of the sad-faced nurse. Those grief could find no expression in sobs, or moans, or tears.

"Dead! dead! and I shall see his dear face no more! Oh! why did you not let me die, too? What is my wretched life worth now? One grave might have held us both! My noble peerless Russell! the light of my solitary life! Oh, God! be merciful! Take me now!"

Very tenderly and caressingly Irene endeavored to soothe her—detailed the circumstances of her cousin's death, and pointed her despairing soul to a final reunion.

But no rift appeared in the grave's black sky of sorrow; she had not yet learned that, in drawing near the hand that holds the rod, the blow is lightened; and she bitterly demanded of her Maker to be released from the burden of life.

"Electra, hush your passionate cries! crush back your rebellious words. Your heart knows no depth of agony which mine has not sounded; and yet in this season of anguish, when Russell is taken from us both, I look upon his grave, and feel that—

* * * I am strong * * *

Knowing ye are not lost for aye among The hills, with last year's thrush. God keeps a nich In heaven to hold our idols: and albeit He breaks them to our faces, and denies That our close kisses should impair their white, I know we shall behold them raised, complete, The dust swept from their beauty—glorified New Memnons singing in the great God light!"

CHAPTER XXXVI.

The sunlight of a warm spring day flashed through the open window, and made golden arabesque tracery on the walls and portraits of the parlour at Huntington Hill. The costly crimson damask curtains had long since been cut into shirts for the soldiers, and transported to the Army of Tennessee, and air and sunshine were admitted. Electra sat sad before her canvass in this room, absorbed in the design which now engaged every thought. The witchery of her profession had woven its spell about her, beguiling for a time the sharpness of grief.

The extension of the Conscription statute had, several months before, deprived Irene of a valued and trusty overseer; and to satisfy herself concerning the character of the successor, and the condition of affairs at home, she and her uncle had returned to W——, bringing Electra with them.

Irene stood on the colonnade, leaning over the back of Eric Mitchell's arm-chair, dropping crumbs for the pigeons that cooed and scrambled at her feet, and looking dreamily down the avenue at the band of orphans who had just paid her a visit, and were returning to the asylum, convoyed by the matron.

"What contented-looking, merry little children those are," said her uncle, watching the small figures diminish as they threaded the avenue.

"Yes! they are as happy as orphans can be. I love to look into their smiling, rosy faces, and feel their dimpled hands steal timidly into mine. But, uncle, Dr. Arnold has finished his nap, and is waiting for you."

She gave him her arm to the library door, saw him seated at the papers, then joined Electra in the parlor.

"What progress are you making Electra?"

"Very little. I can't work well to-day. Ruskin says that no artist has fully grasped or matured his subject who can quit one portion of it at any moment, and proceed to the completion of some other part. Doubtless he is correct; but I am so haunted by these blue eyes that I can paint nothing else this afternoon. Will you recognize them? Yours, Irene. Forgive me; but I can find no others in imagination or in life, that so fully express serenity. My work has taken marvellous hold upon me; sleeping or waking, it follows, possesses me. I shall not hurry myself; I intend that the execution shall be equal to my ideal—and that ideal entirely worthy of the theme. I want to lay my Modern Maenica, as the first offering of Southern Art, upon my country's altar, as a nucleus around which nobler and grander pictures, from the hands of my countrymen and women, shall cluster. In sunny climes like ours my genious and her sister arts, will flourish apotheosizing; and who dare say that future ages shall not find at our students from all nations pressing like pilgrims to the Confederate School of the Southern States? Ancient republics offered promiums, and saw the scene of the arts; why not our Confederate republic, when days of national prosperity dawn upon us?" If the Legislature of each State would annually purchase, for the embellishment of the galleries and grounds of its capital, the best picture or statue produced within its borders during the twelve months, a generous emulation would be encouraged. Our marble-hearted land will furnish materials, which Southern genius can mould into monuments of imperishible beauty. This war furnishes instances of heroism before which all other records pale, and our Poets, Sculptors and Painters have only to look around them for subjects which Greek or Italian Art would glory and immortalize.

"I do distrust the poet who discerns Not character or glory in his times, And tauntingly back his soul five hundred years."

Our resources are inexhaustible, our capabilities as a people unlimited, and we require only the fostering influences which Cosmo De Medici and Nicolo exerted in France, to call into action energies and talents some of which we are, as yet, scarcely conscious Such patrons of Art and Literature I hope to find in the Planters of the Confederacy. They have wealth, leisure, and every requisite adjunct, and upon them, as a class, devolve this labor of love—the accomplishment of an American Renaissance—the development of the slumbering genius of our land. Burke has remarked: "Nobility is a graceful ornament to the civil order; it is the Corinthian capital of polished society." Certainly, Southern planters possess all the elements of this highest order of social architecture, and upon their correct appreciation of the grave responsibility attending their wealth and influence depends, in great degree, our emancipation from the gross utilitarianism which has hitherto characterized us, and our progress in refinement and the æsthetic culture. As we are distinct, socially and politically, from other nations, so let us be intellectually and æsthetically. The world has turned its back upon us in our struggle with tyranny; and, in the hour of our triumph, let us not forget that, as we won Independence without aid or sympathy, so we can maintain it in all its departments."

"Electra, in order to effect this 'consummation devoutly to be wished,' it is necessary that the primary branches of Art should be popularized, and thrown open to the masses. Will contends, in his Political Economy, that the remuneration of the peculiar employments of woman is always far below that of employments of equal skill carried on by men, and he finds an explanation in the fact that they are overstocked. Hence, in improving the condition of women, it is advisable to give them the readiest access to the most lucrative industrial pursuits, and extend the circle of their appropriate occupations. Our revolution has bagyared thousands, and depriving many of their natural providers; numbers of women in the Confederacy will be thrown entirely on their own resources for maintenance. All cannot be mantua-makers, milliners, or school teachers; and in order to open for them new avenues of support, I have determined to establish in Washington a School of Design for Women—similar in plan, though more extensive, than that founded some years ago by Mrs. Peter, of Philadelphia. The upper portion of the building will be arranged for drawing classes, wood engraving, and the various branches of Art, and the lower, serving as a depot for circulating pictures for our county. Over that School of Design I want you to preside; your talents, your education, your devotion to your art, fit you peculiarly for the position. The salary shall be such as to compensate you for your services; and, when calmer days dawn upon us, we may be able to secure some very valuable lecturers among our gentlemen artists. I have a large lot on the corner of Pine street and Huntington avenue, opposite the courthouse, which will be a fine location for it, and I wish to appropriate it to this purpose. While you are admiring the interior of the building, the walls of which are to contain frescoes of some of the most impressive scenes of our Revolution, I will embellish the grounds in front, and make them my special charge. I understand the cultivation of flowers, though the gift of painting them is denied me. Yesterday I sold my diamonds for a splendid large amount than I supposed they would command, and this sum, added to other funds now at my disposal, will enable me to accomplish the scheme. Dr. Arnold and Eric cordially approve of my plan, will aid me very liberally, and as soon as tranquility is restored, I shall succeed in erecting the building without applying to any one else for assistance. When your picture is finished, I wish you to make me a copy to be hung up in our School of Design, that the students may be constantly reminded of the debt of gratitude we owe our armies. How life-like your fingers grow! I can almost see the quiver of that wife's white lips, and hear the dismal howling of the dead man's dog."

The canvas, which she leaned forward to inspect more closely, contained an allegorical design, representing in the foreground two female figures. One stern, yet noble-featured, crowned with stars, triumph and exultation flashing in her dauntless eyes. Independence, crimson-mantled, grasping the Confederate Banner of the Cross, whose victorious folds streamed above a captured battery, where a Federal flag trailed in the dust. At her side stood white-robed, angelic Peace, with one hand over the touch-hole of the cannon against which she leaned, and the other extended in benediction. Vividly the faces contrasted—one all afrhob with national pride, beaming with brilliant destiny; the other wonderfully serene and holy. In the distance, gleaming in the evening light which streamed from the West, tints dotted a hill-side; and, intermediate between Peace and the glittering tents, stretched a torn, and trampled battle-field over which the roar and rush of conflict had just swept, leaving mangled heaps of dead in attestation of its fury. Among the trampled, bloody shreds of wheat, an aged, infirm Negro mother knelt in fruitless anguish, pressing her hand upon the pulseless heart of a handsome boy of sixteen summers, whose yellow locks were dabbled from his death wound. A few steps farther, a lovely young wife, kneeling beside the stalwart, rigid form of her husband, whose icy fingers still clutched his broken sword, lifted her woful, sad face to heaven in mute despair, while the fair-browed infant on the ground beside her dipped its little snowy, dimpled fest in a pool of its fallen's blood, and, with tears of terror still glistening on its cheeks, laughed at the scene's coloring. Just beyond these mourners, a girl of surpassing beauty, whose black hair floated like a sable banner on the breeze, clasped her rounded arms about her dead patriot lover, and kept her sad vigil in voiceless agony—with all of Sparta's stern stoicism in her blanched, stony countenance. And, last of the stricken groups, a faithful dog, couching close to the corpse of an old silver-haired man, threw back his head and howled in desolation. Neither blue shadows, nor wreathing, rosy mists, nor golden haze of sunset glory, softened the sacrificial scene, which showed its grim features strangely solemn in the weird, fading, crepuscular light.

"How many months do you suppose it will require to complete it?" asked Irene, whose interest in the picture was scarcely inferior to that of its creator.

"If I work steadily upon it, I can soon finish it; but if I go with you to a Tennessee hospital, I must, of course, leave it here until the war ends. After all, Irene, the joy of success does not equal that which attends the patient working. Perhaps it is because anticipation is the purest part of pleasure. I love my work; no man or woman ever loved it better; and yet there is a painful feeling of isolation, of loneliness, which steals over me sometimes, and chills all my enthusiasm. It is so mournful to know that, when the labor is ended, and a new chapter encircles my brow, I shall have no one but you to whom I can turn for sympathy in my triumph. If I feel this so keenly now, how shall I bear it when the glow of life fades into sober twilight shadows, and age creeps upon me?

"Oh, my God! my God!
O supreme Artist, who as sole return
For all the cosmic wonder of Thy work,
Demandest of us just a word—a name,
'My father!'—Thou hast knowledge—only thou,
How dreary 'tis for women to sit still
On winter nights by solitary fires,
And hear the nations praising them far off,
Too far!"

She threw down her brush and palette, and, turning toward her companion, leaned her purplish head against her.

"Electra, it is very true that single women have trials for which a thoughtless, happy world has little sympathy. But lonely lives are not necessarily joyless; they should be, of all others most useful. The head of the household, a wife and mother, is occupied with family cares and affections—can find little time for considering the comfort or contributing for the enjoyment of any beyond the home circle. Doubtless she is happier than the unmarried woman; but to the last belongs the privilege of carrying light and blessings of many forms—of being the friend and helper of hundreds; and because she belongs exclusively to no one, her heart expands to all her suffering fellow creatures. In my childhood I always thought of Old Maids with a sensation of contempt and repulsion; now I regard those among them who preserve their natures from cynicism and querulousness, and prove themselves social evangels of mercy as an uncrowned host of martyrs. Electra, remember other words of the same vigorous, gifted woman whom you so often quote:

"And since we needs must hunger—better,
for man's love,
Than God's truth! better, for companion sweet,
Than great convictions! let us bear our weights,
Preferring dreary hearths to desert souls?"

"Remember that the woman who dares to live alone, and be sneered at, is a braver, and nobler, and better than she who escapes both in a loveless marriage. It is true that you and I are very lonely, and yet our future holds much that is bright. You have the profession you love so well, and our new School of Design to engage your thoughts; and I a thousand claims on my time and attention. I have uncle Eric to take care of and to love, and Dr. Arnold, who is growing quite infirm, has promised me that, as soon as he can be spared from the hospitals, he will make his home with us. When this storm of war has spent itself, your uncle's family will return from Europe and reside with you. Harvey, too, will come to W—— to live—will probably be in charge of Mr. Campbell's church—and we shall have a delightful circle around his comfortable home. But I could see you in your own church I should be better satisfied—and you would be happier."

"I would join to-morrow, if thereby I could acquire your sublime faith, and strength, and resignation. Oh, Irene! my friend and comforter! I want to live differently in future. Once I was wedded to life and my art—pre-eminence in my profession, fame was all I dared to attain; now I desire to spend my remaining years so that I may meet Russell beyond the grave. His death broke the ties that bound me to this world; I live now in hope of reunion in God's eternal kingdom. I have been selfish, and careless, and complaining, but, oh! I want to do my whole duty henceforth. Irene, my calm, sweet, patient guide, teach me to be more like you.

"Electra, take Christ for your model, instead of an erring human being like myself, constantly falling short of her own duty. With Harry to direct us, we ought to accomplish a world of good, here in sight of Russel's grave. Cheer up! God's great vineyard stretches before us, calling for laborers. Hand in hand we will go in and out among the vines, while the golden sun-light will ripen shades close over us; then lift up, in token of our faithfulness, rich, ripe clusters of purple fruitage. You and I have much to do during these days of gloom and national trial—for upon the purity, the devotion and the patriotism of the women of our land, not less than upon the heroism of our armies, depends our national salvation. To jealously guard our homes and social circles from the inroads of corruption, to keep the fires of patriotism burning upon the altars of the South, to sustain and encourage those who are wrestling along the border for our birthright of freedom, to consecrated work to which we are all called; and beyond this bloody baptism open vistas of long, life usefulness, when the reign of tyranny is ended, when the roar of battle, the blast of bugle and beat of drum is hushed among our hills, and Peace! blessed Peace! again makes her abode in our country's valleys. Hasten the hour, oh! my God! when her white wings shall hover over us once more."

The eyes of the artist went back to the stainless robes and seraphic face of her picture. Peace is the loved "Modern Macaria," and, as she resumed her work, her brow cleared, the countenance kindled as in days of yore, bitter memories hushed their moans and fell asleep at the wizard touch of her profession, and the stormy, stricken soul found balm and rest in heaven appointed Labor.

Standing at the back of Electra's chair, with one hand resting on her shoulder, Irene raised her holy violet eyes, and looked through the window to the cemetery, where glittered a tall marble shaft which the citizens of W—— had erected over the last quiet resting place of Russell Austin. Sands of time were drifting stealthily around the crumbling idols of the morning of life, levelling and tenderly shrouding the Past, but serene left its softening shadow on the orphan's countenance, and laid its chastening finger about the lips which meekly murmured:—"Thy will be done." The rays of the setting sun gilded her mourning dress, gleamed in the white rose that breathed their perfume in

The Daily Ontario

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 6.

THE Governor-General and Princess Louise have received a most loyal and enthusiastic reception in the "ancient" city of Quebec, where they arrived Wednesday morning. The reply of the Marquis to the address by the Corporation of the city was the happiest of all his happy efforts in that line. One would naturally conclude, when reading his remarks, that he entertains a strong feeling of sympathy for the French people, their history, language, and customs. We have detected a strain of eulogism in all his addresses that have made any reference to the French, and at Quebec, where Champlain first made a settlement in Canada, he grew unusually eloquent in praise of "the tongue that in the Church broke in eloquence from the lips of St. Bernard and of Bosseut, and rung on the field from St. Louis Du Guesiin, and the heroic Maid of Orleans."

Crime in Montreal.

The metropolitan city of Canada has won an unenviable reputation for rowdyism and criminal proceedings of an atrocious nature. The latest and blackest was perpetrated a few evenings ago, when the livery stables of a man named Morey were burned, and the watchman brutally murdered. The condition of that grade of society that could countenance and encourage such a revolting and barbarous crime is much to be deplored. It appears that Mr. Morey has won the envy and enmity of the cabmen of Montreal, or a certain number of them, by pushing his business in advance of theirs, and monopolising the favors of the Windsor Hotel managers. But no one pretends to say that he has not secured his advantage in a business aspect by legitimate means. He has injured no competitor in seeking his own success. Threats have been heard from those who imagined their prospects injured by Mr. Morey's successful competition, and hence the inference now is that his premises were burned and poor Queenville, the watchman, murdered by envious cabmen. No direct evidence, implicating any one, has yet been obtained, but the detectives are busy, and it is altogether likely that some clue to the terrible crime will be forthcoming.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

A GLORIOUS REFORM VICTORY.

THE "N. P." GONE TO SMASH IN ONTARIO.

LOSSES AND GAINS ALONG THE LINE.

The crushing defeat experienced by the Reformers of West Hastings yesterday, through means the most corrupt and dishonoring, did not weigh long upon the spirits of those who had so bravely fought for good and honest Government. The head quarters of the Reform Association, in Carman's Block, was the rendezvous of the party, and from the whole three ridings there were representatives, earnest and enthusiastic, even before the secrets of the ballot boxes had become fully known. Men who had worked unceasingly for days and weeks, and who felt an abiding faith in the principles they contended for, were anxious to know the result of the struggle throughout the Province, and more especially in their own constituencies.

The returns from the several polling sub-divisions of the city were known in a short time after five o'clock, and the apprehensions of many were fully realized. It was well known that an influence was used more potent than even the personal popularity of the Opposition candidate. This fact is demonstrated to the satisfaction of any person by an examination of the figures returned from each ward of the city, as well as those from Sidney and Trenton. But of this more anon.

And now a word about our candidate. Mr. Holden, though defeated, never before held a higher place in the estimation of his friends and the public generally than he does to-day. Even those who stooped to dishonorable means to compass his defeat, acknowledge his sterling worth as a man, and honor him for the ability and unyielding integrity that characterized his conduct throughout the campaign. His political friends and supporters are justly proud of the example of industry, gentlemanly deportment and superior qualities as a candidate he gave them. There was no sitively no comparison between Mr. Holden and his opponent in rank of ability. This Mr. Robertson's supporters acknowledged. The result in West Hastings was not due to any lack of energy or qualification on the part of the Reform candidate. Many veterans in the political field have assured us that never before have they associated with greater satisfaction and pleasure with a candidate, than during the late Reform canvass of West Hastings by Mr. Thomas Holden.

Mr. Appleby has nobly sustained his popularity in East Hastings by rolling up a majority of 110. All honor to himself and to the band of faithful workers who so ably backed him in the canvass. There was good reason for enthusiasm at the Reform Rooms last night, among representatives of this riding, when the announcement was made that noble, old Tyendinaga had given the Government candidate a majority of 270 votes. That settled the result, and the hats came off with a "Hip, hip, hurrah!"

Returns from North Hastings are incomplete, but enough is known to render Dr. Boulter's return a matter of great doubt. He has a majority of about sixty in the front townships of the riding, but the northern sections will go heavily for Vankleek. We expect to see the final declaration favorable to the Opposition candidate, but his majority will be so small as to teach him the lesson we have so frequently had before him for study.

The National Policy was forced into the contest by the Opposition and made the chief plank of their platform. It has been most signally condemned in Ontario. Will the Conservative party accept the verdict? We are prepared for a plea in extenuation, but no references to "local bribery," &c., can cover their confusion. Not only every candidate that espoused the Opposition cause in Ontario, during the late election, made the "N.P." a live issue of the contest, but even the Ministers from Ottawa came up and begged for another endorsation of their wonderful policy. They insisted that, to uphold the Mowat Government, would be to condemn the National Policy, and agreed to accept the verdict as that end. To-day we hold them strictly to that agreement, and with the following verdict before us declare that the so-called National Policy has gone to smash in Ontario.

So far as known the following constituencies have been won from the Opposition. Cardwell, West Kent, Lennox, North Middlesex, East Peterborough, South Ontario, Lincoln, North Renfrew, Russell, East Simcoe, North Victoria, West Victoria, West Wellington, and South Lanark. The following have been won by the Opposition; Glengarry, Kingston, Ottawa, Stormont, South Wentworth, Welland, and South Grenville.

The Globe says: "The Conservative party, by delusive cries, carried this Province at the general election on the 17th of September last by a majority of 66 to 33.

The verdict then given has been reversed, and Mr. Mowat's Government will enter the new House with a majority of not less than 26, which will doubtless be increased shortly after. The change is a significant one."

The returns now at hand show that the Government has won THIRTEEN seats, and the Opposition six.

The most Valuable Gift,—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affliction of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not begus people in unkeard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public.

Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and in activities ne the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1, Pills 25 cts. a box.

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman to:—
For thousands cry with eager breath.
They saved me from the jaws of death!
All ye afflidg give no heed,
'Tis National Pills your system needs.
Immense the rush for these Pills;
Which cure so many woeful ills.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY
JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system, forms a you full constitution for the duties of life, and when taken in middle or early life proves a real blessing; and on the occasion of childbirth these pill s should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement, as benefits so derived are incalculable every female should be provided with them. Sold by all druggists in Belleville, at 75 cents per box, or will be sent free on receipt of price. Address, JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. $1.00 will be sent free of postage enclosed to Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agent for the Dominion, who will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. For sale by all druggists in Belleville, at T. Mills' Medicine Store, G. H. Boulter, Stirling, W. C. Baker, Trenton, and all medicine dealers.

Belleville—Anglo-American Hotel, June 7 & 8
Picton—Cosmopolitan Hotel, June 10 & 11.
Napanee—Campbell House, June 12 & 13.
Mr. Hotchkin's treatment is practical, rational and economical. Its object is immediate relief and eventual cure. It is based upon scientific principles and easily demonstrated to the comprehension of every intelligent person, that a truss without a steel spring or hard substance, having healed Inguinal and Umbellical as well as Varicocele, at the advanced ages respectively from 63 to 72 years must and will stand the test against all Spring Trusses. Trusses for children as well as adults. Mr. Hotchkin's post office address is Albion, Orleans County, New York. Go early the first day, before the crowd gets in.

LOCAL & GENERAL

THE CELLS.—Only one prisoner lodged n the cells last night.

POLICE COURT.—Sarah Bawden and a drunk were the only prisoners before the P. M. this morning. They were both discharged.

SHEEP KILLED BY DOGS.—Yesterday morning a large white dog attacked a lot of sheep on the farm of Wm. Ketcheson, Sidney. Six sheep and eight lambs were killed.

THE "TRANSIT" EXCURSION.—The steamer Transit made an excursion yesterday afternoon, with a very few people on board. She did not go out in the evening as advertised.

A BIG DAY.—The receipts of the Kingston Street Railway Company of Friday last were $420, equal to 9,000 passengers. What would friend Monaghan say to such a day?

OAK SHIPMENT.—The schooner Olivia will leave to-day for Charlotte with a load of iron ore for C. J. Pusey. There is a large quantity of ore lying on the dock and yesterday five carloads were brought in.

THE SAND BANKS.—Alf. Dulmage has opened his hotel at the Sand Banks, and is now prepared to receive guests. Alf thoroughly understands his business, and friends from Belleville or elsewhere who will give him a call may expect good treatment.

CHEESE MAKING.—Bob Hampton, formerly of Belleville, and for some time an aeronaut, has, we are pleased to note, given up the air business and is now in partnership with Mr. Gilbert, running a cheese factory in the township of Ernesttown. His friends here wish him success in his new business.

BOOK MAKING.—His Excellency the Governor-General's work entitled "Travels in the Dominion," is to be published this season in London. It will be illustrated by the Princess Louise, with whom the Misses Montalba are now sojourning in order that the mutual art studies of those ladies and Her Royal Highness may be renewed.

MANY anecdotes are related of the late Dr. Isaac Hall. One day, a lady writes, he ran in hurriedly to see my father, who was out the time. As he was rushing away without leaving any name I ventured to remark, "Who shall I say called?" The Home Ruler grimly replied, "Tell your father the ugliest devil he knows has called to see him." We all knew who it was then. Going home late one night he was accosted by a desperate looking ruffian in one of the suburbs of Dublin and asked what he was going to stand. "Well," replied Mr. Butt meekly, "I'm very sorry that I can't give you much, my friend but what I have we will share. Here," he continued, drawing a revolver from his pocket, "is a weapon which has six chambers. I will give you three——" but here the lawyer found himself alone.

A FATHER'S LESSON.—For the sake of young readers who wish to make their way in the world we give the following from the recently published biography of the late Sir Joshua Walmesley:—In 1807, young Joshua was rapidly mastering what advantages the school afforded, when the tidings reached him that his father was dead. It had been some time since the lad has seen him; but when they had been last together a circumstance occurred which, though trifling, was destined to have an influence on his whole life, and be, in a manner the keynote of his future conduct. He writes:—"My father and I were walking down the Wavetree Road together, when we entered an orchard where the trees were laden with fruit. Taking up a stone I threw it into a small ill-grown tree, bearing some wretched crabs; but it brought nothing down. My father stooped, picked up the stone, and threw it into another tree, the apples of which were very fine. Two or three fell at his feet. 'My lad,' he said to me, pointing to them, 'remember through life that an apple is as easily felled as a crab.' His simple words produced an impression upon me that was never forgotten."

Hanlan and Elliott.

"OUR NED" IN GOOD CONDITION.

TORONTO, June 6.—The following special appears in the Globe:—Newcastle on Tyne 5th. Hanlan is doing pretty good work. What with his training, both in running and rowing, he will come to the scratch all right. His health is so good this time that he does not need to take any medicine; but it is rather early to count our chickens. There is no betting.

FIRE IN TRENTON.

TRENTON, June 6.—This morning at half past two a fire broke out in the three-story brick block owned by the Cooley Estate, on the corner of Front and Ferry Streets, Hendrick & Palmer, dry goods, lost nearly every thing. Insured in Western $2,000; Scottish Commercial $2,000. J. B. Young, boots and shoes, saved very little. Insured in Western $1,000; Lancashire $1,000; Queen's $1,300. Jos. Briant, shoe maker, total loss. Insured for $300 in Western. Miss Rogers, dress maker, total loss. No insurance. The Custom House and Dominion Telegraph Company, in the same block, saved a few articles. The building was insured in the Queen's for $5,000. The fire extended next to C. F. Pelletier's grocery, who lost by removal and water. Insured for $300 in Western. J. B. Christie, Post Office, small loss by removal.

Condensed Telegrams.

James Farrel and Wm. Simmons were drowned while fishing at Oakham, Mass.

Fred Crill, of Hamburg, N. J., quarreled with his daughter and shot her dead.

Phidora Peeler, a handsome country girl of Atlanta, Ga., acknowledges she killed her child to save its father from disgrace.

Sam'l Howe's body found near Pioneer, Pa. Believed to have been murdered by Wm. Miller, who had accused Howe of improper intimacy with Mrs. Miller.

Ohio Republicans are now thoroughly united over Ewing's nomination.

Gen. Chas. Roome has been elected Grand Master of Masonic Grand Lodge of New York State.

A prisoner in the penitentiary at Austin, Tex., confesses having killed a man for the murder of whom another was hanged a year ago.

The Russian Commander in Bulgaria has demanded of Servia the evacuation of disputed frontier within a fortnight.

A Mrs. Bouschoff, of Dayton, Ohio, in a fit of anger seriously injured a little girl, daughter of a neighbor. Last night the child grew worse, and Mrs. B. fearing it would die committed suicide by throwing herself into a cistern.

The steamer Farrady commences loading new French Atlantic Cable Tuesday, and will sail about a week after. Expected the line will be open before autumn.

FOR SORE THROAT, Sudden Colds and Diphtheria, no remedy has ever been discovered so powerful to cure as Davis' PAIN KILLER. As a Liniment it has no equal in curing Rheumatism or Neuralgia, Burns and Bruises and wounds of every description. It is the cheapest and best remedy ever offered to the public.

No preparatron of Hypophosphites I have tused can compere with Fellows Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites for restoring strength to the nervous system.
I think it the best medicine I ever used.

FOR THE DRESSING TABLE.—Bearine is unlike most Hair Oils, &c., it is really an ornament to the Dressing Table, besides being the choicest Dressing to be obtained.

MARRIAGE is a solemn thing—a choice for life; be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for intimate complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Buchu and Uva Ursa. It is now extensively prescribed by all respectable physicians. Bright's disease of the kidneys, diabetes etc., may be overcome by Buchu if taken in time. For sale by all druggists in Belleville.

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. On dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cens' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints, spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five sents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stops the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every discription on an and breast.
BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the name Northrup & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHRUP & LYMAN Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion.

A TRUISM.—Constant grinding at the mig of life, perpetual loss of vital force, will make the strongest man to the dust; it is manifest therefore that the system must be kept supplied with a due amount of oxydizable phosphorus. The pleasantest and most palatable way in which it can be introduced into the system is by the use o Victoria Hypophosphites which is th aul blood food in the world. P all druggists in Belleville —"Alice," who lives in Picton, says that every time she walks upon the lawn it reminds her of her Bellevil'e beau; it is so soft and green, you know.

—A public meeting of the residents of Owen Sound have carried by a large majority a motion to petition the Council to suspend the harbor dues at that port during the coming year.

—The report of the stoppage of the Mechanics' Bank caused an unfounded panic in many places amongst the customers of the Merchants' Bank of Montreal, the names of the two banks being confused.

—The idea that you can read a man's thoughts in his face is all bosh. Look the man in the face who borrowed $10 of you a year ago "for a day or two," and it expresses nothing but blankness—the blankest kind,

—When you see a young woman at a lawn party armed with a turkey-red sunumbrella, lined with thin white silk and having a handful of white clover blossoms and green leaves embroidered on the top, you may be sure that she has been at a fancy bazaar.

—The Whig man is happy. He has got $9.01 out of an insolvent estate, upon a proved claim of $9.20. He bears his good fortune like a man.

ONTARIO MUTUA

Life Assurance Co'y.

HEAD OFFICE - WATERLOO, ONT.

Deposited with the Dominion Government $56,224.00

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.
This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.
Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—
Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63.88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.98 to	$56.90
" 5th "	10.40 "	53.48
" 6th "	17.30 "	46.58
" 7th "	20.73 "	43.15
" 8th "	26.89 "	37.99
" 9th "	36.65 "	27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

A Female Warrior.

AN INCIDENT OF THE LATE TURCO-RUSSIAN WAR.

So on the 3rd of September began the advance on Biela. The whole of the force encamped in front of Rasgrad marched out under the command of Achmeut Kyoub, and proceeded by various roads in the direction of Kacelyevo. Here the Russians had strongly entrenched themselves in front of the Kara-Loun. On the night of the 5th the right wing, under Fuad Pasha, reached Costanza, while the centre, under Redjib, the 31st of August, Sabit had been creeping along from Karahassankoi, over the hills at the back, and along the valley of the river past Berkirin Yenikoi, in the same direction On Thursday, the 6th, a combined attack on Kacelyevo was carried out in excellent style. The Russians defended themselves extremely well and made the most of the advantages on their position; but it was manifest that they were outnumbered. The Turks showed good courage, and advanced with coolness against a very heavy artillery fire, delivered with admirable precision. The enemy had entrenched themselves in three lines, but the first was soon carried. The second was more obstinately contested, and here occurred, one of the most probably extraordinary episodes of the war. As the Russians began to waver and their fire to slacken as the Turks were pressing forward with increased vigor, a young Russian officer was seen standing just behind one of their batteries waving his sword and boldly encouraging his men to stand their ground. Over and over again he rallied the troops who were pouring out of the trench, but it was no use; it was not in his power alone to stem the flow of victory. His men, animated by his example, turned and held their own for a few minutes, but the fire was too heavy for any human being to stay and live. They could not bear it. They fell on their knees and entreated him to fly, but not an inch would he stir, and at last he stood for more than a minute absolutely alone, save for the dying piled in heaps around him. It could only end one way amid the storm of bullets which were raining round him thick as hail; one at last found its way to that noble heart, and he fell dead. As the Turks swept over the parapet and dashed past the spot where he lay, the colonel, struck by the boy's extraordinary courage and devotion, gave orders that he should be decently buried. In the evening he reported to the Commander-in-Chief that the body was that of a girl. I give this most astounding declaration of the colonel upon the authority of one of the English officers on the Serdar's staff, who tells me that he was actually present when it was made. It seems almost incredible; but, true or false, no braver heart ever beat than now sleeps in that little grave on the sunny slope of Kacelyevo.—London Times' correspondent.

THE LAST REDOUBT.

Kacelyevo's slope still felt
The cannon's bolts and the rifles' pelt?
For a last redoubt up the hill remained,
By the Russ yet held, by the Turk not gained.

Mehemet Ali stroked his beard;
His lips were clinched and his look was weird;
Round him were ranks of his ragged folk,
Their faces blackened with blood and smoke.

Clear me the Muscovite out!" he cried.
Then the name of "Allah!" echoed wide,

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so recognized that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, arresting the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is correct and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or spoils. Beware and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

fest in a pool of its father's blood, and, with tears of terror still glistening on its cheeks, laughed at the sport following. Just beyond these mourners, a girl of surpassing beauty, whose black hair floated like a sable banner on the breeze, clasped her rounded arms about her fated patriot lover, and kept her sad vigil in voiceless agony—with all of Sparta's stern stoicism in her blanched, stony countenance. And, last of the stricken groups, a faithful dog, couching close to the corpse of an old silver-haired man, threw back his head and howled in desolation. Neither blue shadows, nor wreathing, rosy mists, nor golden haze of sunset glory, softened the sacrificial scene, which showed its grim features strangely solemn in the weird, fading, crepuscular light.

"How many months do you suppose it will require to complete it?" asked Irene, whose interest in the picture was scarcely inferior to that of its creator.

"If I work steadily upon it, I can soon finish it; but if I go with you to a Tennessee hospital, I must, of course, leave it here until the war ends. After all, Irene, the joy of success does not equal that which attends the patient working. Perhaps it is because 'anticipation is the purest part of pleasure.' I love my work; no man or woman ever loved it better; and yet there is a painful feeling of isolation, of loneliness, which steals over me sometimes, and chills all my enthusiasm. It is so mournful to know that, when the labor is ended, and a new chaplet encircles my brow, I shall have no one but you to whom I can turn for sympathy in my triumph. If I feel this so keenly now, how shall I bear it when the glow of life fades into sober twilight shadows, and age creeps upon me?

"Oh, my God! my God!
O supreme Artist, who as sole return
For all the cosmic wonder of Thy work,
Demandest of us just a word—a name,
'My father!'—Thou hast knowledge—only thou,
How dreary 'tis for women to sit still
On winter nights by solitary fires,
And hear the nations praising them far off,
Too far!"

She threw down her brush and palette, and, turning towark her companion, leaned her purplish head against her.

"Electra, it is very true that single women have trials for which a thoughtless, happy world has little sympathy. But lonely lives are not necessarily joyless; they should be, of all others most useful. The head of the household, a wife and mother, is occupied with family cares and affections—and find little time for considering the comfort or contributing for the enjoyment of any beyond the home circle. Doubtless she is happier than the unmarried woman; but to the last belongs the privilege of carrying light and blessings of many fire-sides—of being the friend and helper of hundreds; and because she belongs exclusively to no one, her heart expands to all her suffering fellow creatures. In my childhood I always thought of Old Maids with a sensation of contempt and repulsion; now I regard those among them who preserve their natures from cynicism and querulousness, and prove themselves social evangels of mercy as an uncrowned host of martyrs. Electra, remember other words of the same vigorous, gifted woman whom you so often quote:

"And since we needs must hunger—better, for man's love,
Than God's truth! better, for companion sweet.
Than great convictions! let us bear our weights,
Preferring dreary hearths to desert souls?"

"Remember that the woman who dares to live alone, and be sneered at, is braver, and nobler, and better than she who escapes both in a loveless marriage. It is true that you and I are very lonely, and yet our future holds much that is bright. You have the profession you love so well, and our new School of Design to engage your thoughts; and I a thousand claims on me, [illegible] goods now arriving.

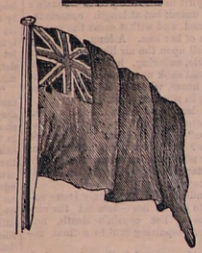
The Daily Ontario

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 6.

THE Governor-General and Princess Louise have received a most loyal and enthusiastic reception in the "ancient" city of Quebec, where they arrived Wednesday morning. The reply of the Marquis to the address by the Corporation of the city was the happiest of all his happy efforts in that line. One would naturally conclude, when reading his remarks, that he entertains a strong feeling of sympathy for the French people, their history, language, and customs. We have detected a strain of eulogism in all his addresses that have made any reference to the French, and at Quebec, where Champlain first made a settlement in Canada, he grew unusually eloquent in praise of "the tongue that in the Church broke in eloquence from the lips of St. Bernard and of Bossuet, and rung on the field from St. Louis Du Guesiin, and the heroic Maid of Orleans."

Crime in Montreal.

The metropolitan city of Canada has won an unenviable reputation for rowdyism and criminal proceedings of an atrocious nature. The latest and blackest was perpetrated a few evenings ago, when the livery stables of a man named Morey were burned, and the watchman brutally murdered. The condition of that grade of society that could countenance and encourage such a revolting and barbarous crime is much to be deplored. It appears that Mr. Morey has won the envy and enmity of the cabmen of Montreal, or a certain number of them, by pushing his business in advance of theirs, and monopolizing the favors of the Windsor Hotel managers. But no one pretends to say that he has not secured this advantage in a business aspect by legitimate means. He has injured no competitor in seeking his own success. Threats have been heard from those who imagined their prospects injured by Mr. Morey's successful competition, and hence the inference now is that his premises were burned and poor Queenville, the watchman, murdered by envious cabmen. No direct evidence, implicating any one, has yet been obtained, but the detectives are busy, and it is altogether likely that some clue to the terrible crime will be forthcoming.



AFTER THE BATTLE.

given the Government candidate a majority of 279 votes. That settled the result, and the hats came off with a "Hip, hip, hurrah!"

Returns from North Hastings are incomplete, but enough is known to render D. Boulter's return a matter of great doubt. He has a majority of about sixty in the front townships of the riding, but the northern sections will go heavily for Vankleek. We expect to see the final declaration favorable to the Opposition candidate, but his majority will be so small as to teach him the lesson we have so frequently laid before him for study.

The National Policy was forced into the contest by the Opposition and made the chief plank of their platform. It has been most signally condemned in Ontario. Will the Conservative party accept the verdict? We are prepared for a plea in extenuation, but no references to "local bribery," &c., can cover their confusion. Not only every candidate that espoused the Opposition cause in Ontario, during the late election, made the "N.P." a live issue of the contest, but even the Ministers from Ottawa came up and begged for another endorsation of their wonderful policy. They insisted that, to uphold the Mowat Government, would be to condemn the National Policy, and agreed to accept the verdict to that end. To-day we hold them strictly to that agreement, and with the following verdict before us declare that the so-called National Policy has gone to smash in Ontario.

So far as known the following constituencies have been won from the Opposition. Cardwell, West Kent, Lennox, North Middlesex, East Peterborough, South Ontario, Lincoln, North Renfrew, Russell, East Simcoe, North Victoria, West Victoria, West Wellington, and South Lanark. The following have been won by the Opposition; Glengarry, Kingston, Ottawa, Stormont, South Wentworth, Welland, and South Grenville.

The Globe says: "The Conservative party, by delusive cries, carried this Province at the general election on the 17th of September last by a majority of 66 to 33.

The verdict then given has been reversed, and Mr Mowat's Government will enter the new House with a majority of not less than 26, which will doubtless be increased shortly after. The change is a significant one."

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land

The Dutch Artist.

Bertram Krause was the son of a poor blacksmith. Very early he showed a wonderful talent for drawing and sketching, and his passion for making pictures (with charcoal and what ever else he could use) became irrepressible. One day Bertram went to the river bank to eat figs. He worked industriously all the morning, and at noon sat down upon the shore to eat his bread and cheese. He was hot, and after eating he stretched himself upon the grass and fell asleep. When he awoke, the first thing he saw was a water-lily shining white among the flags.

"Hurrah!" he cried. "Hurrah! a water-lily!" and quickly swinging up, he waded into the water and picked it. With the blossom came the long, hilmy stem, the mud and slime still clinging to it.

"This beauty is lowly born," he thought, as he smelled its spicy fragrance, and with that thought a plan and a scheme came into his mind.

His mother was a quiet woman, who had learned to watch and wait, and she sympathized with him, and helped him dream. For years her she went with his plan, and she procured for him a sheet of coarse paper and some crayons.

With all the skill he had he drew a sketch of the river, the flags and the water-lily amidst them, and when it was done he carried it tremblingly to a great artist in the city.

Years rolled away, and at the yearly art exhibition at Munich a picture appeared representing a summer sky, a tangle of reeds and flags, a stretch of sullen river, and upon the grassy shore a barefooted boy, who was holding a water-lily, at which he gazed with a look of love and joy.

"That," said an artist, "is by the celebrated Bertram Krause, and is called 'The Dawn of Hope.'"—Vick's Illustrated Monthly.

Over-dressing in Church.

I wonder if some of our good Christian women realize the harm they are doing when on a Sabbath morning they sail up the isle of the church, in rich silks and luxurious velvets and with diamonds flashing in brooch or earring? Many of them do not, of course, or they would at once forsake the habit of wearing plainer attire when they come to the house of God. But there is no question that this habit of over-dressing in church is one fraught with manifold evils.

I do not here enter on the question of elegant and costly array as a question by itself. Extravagance is relative. If every body dress in the extreme of plainness, in simple garb without ornaments, large and important industries would be paralized and many persons come to want. The question of extravagance is one that can be settled only on personal grounds, and for each individual.

But, Mrs. Goodwealth, let me put the question to you. You can afford absolutely your silks and laces and diamonds, and can afford also to give largely in benevolence. But now, when you are settled in your pew—middle aisle, just about the centre of course—and Mrs. Muchmoney takes her seat directly in front of you, are you not tempted to compare her silks and laces and diamonds with yours, and mercally compute which are the more valuable? And are these the thoughts that should be in your minds in God's house? If you and she both were to come in plain attire would you be tempted in this way?

But this is not the worst of it. Mrs. Smallgoods is an excellant woman, but her husband is on a salary by no means munificent so that their income is limited. Mrs. Smallgoods is, however, a good manager, she has taste and skill, and her attire is always neat and even attractive. But she says, "I cannot afford Dr. Goodwin's church, the ladies dress so. My best looks very shabby and mean alongside of their elegance, and so I cannot go."

Now, I admit that the logic of this is not close, nor the reasoning cogent. Mrs. Smallgoods should attend church for the same reason that should take Mrs. Goodwealth, or Mrs. Muchmoney there. She should go to worship God. But even Christian human nature is human nature still. The facts in multitudes of cases are simply that Mrs. Goodwealth's and Mrs. Muchmoney's silks and laces and diamonds and the Mrs. Smallgoods from attending some church which they prefer, and in which they would be useful, or even from attending church at all. I know that this is all wrong; I do not apologize for it. But it is a fact. Does not the simple, practical remedy lie with you, Mrs. Goodwealth, with you Mrs. Muchmoney? It is not that you should attire yourselves more simply in order to our attendance? Then in God's house you would be meeting your sister who differs from you only in the fact that she has less money than you. Is not the equality that ought to pertain when fellow creatures meet before the Lord, who is the Maker of them all.

This elaborate dressing, moreover, works even worse results than this. Mrs. Tubbs, the washerwoman—a very decent body by the way—was passing along the avenue the other Sunday, Mrs. Goodwealth, just as you turned into the church-gates. She saw, for is she not a woman? the sheen of your silk and the richness of your velvet and the flash of your diamonds. And the thought went through her head—"Such fine ladies want none of my sort in their churches. I can go down to the mission chapel, but I would not be welcome in the church on the avenue. A pretty kind of Christianity is that! I want none of it." Your overdressing, Mrs. Goodwealth, turned that woman's thoughts—your sister before God—against the religion you profess, and in which you find so much comfort. The Master was wounded in the house of his friends. I do not justify Mrs. Tubbs; but her feeling was perfectly natural.

Now, my dear friends, and you, Mrs. Muchmoney and all your like, would attire yourselves with great plainness when you go to God's house, and save your rich apparel for your social gatherings, you might do much good where now you do eminent but unfold harm. One of the evils of our day is the separation of society into classes in matters of religion as elsewhere, particularly in our cities. The rich go to the fine church, and the poor are relegated to the mission chapel, and as a consequence do not attend divine worship at all. One of the great evils of all of it, I am willing to admit, but a part of it that you can remedy—lies, Mrs. Goodwealth and Mrs. Muchmoney, in your over dressing in church.—Quevous, in Illustrated Christian Weekly.

The Praying Little Cripple.

I once knew a little cripple who lay upon her death bed. She had given herself to God, had been distressed because she could not labor for him actively amongst lost. Her pastor visited her and hearing her complaint, told her that shore from her sick bed she could offer prayers for those whom she wished to see turning to God. She advised her to write the names down and then pray earnestly and then names of any persons of the subject to her on every visit, and thought of the subject more. Soon a feeling of great religious interest sprung up in the village and the churches were crowded nightly. The little cripple heard of the progress of the revival and inquired anxiously for the saved. A few weeks later she died and among a roll of papers that was found under her pillow was one bearing the name of fifty six persons every one of whom had in the revival been converted. By each name was a cross by which the poor crippled saint had checked off the converts as they had been reported.

Poetry

Little Elsie.

BY J. H.

Two small white hands with fingers meekly folded
Upon a quiet breast;
A sweet pale face that seems in marble moulded;
In the act of rest.
Did she grow weary at her happy play,
And will she wake again at dawn of day?

No; little Elsie never more will waken
To smile or play
The sweet responsive pure bliss love coins and taken
Our pet away.
And yet we think her spirit cannot be
More lovely than this little form we see.

On the door lips a tint of rose still lingers,
Remnant of years
And as we press the dimpled tee and fingers
In sturdy our hearts,
We cannot find it in our hearts to spare
To the dark grave, a thing so bright and fair.

O blind and weak! let us return to Heaven
What we but lent a while;
Knowing how soon again we will be given
Back with her sunny smile—
Back, with more sparkle in her baby mind,
And knowledge which no sage of earth can find.

Sleep, darling Elsie—in God's sheltered garden
We lay thee—little flower!
Lifting once more our weary earthly burden
Till comes the blessed hour
When Death, the best, remembers and mild
Shall give to us once more our fair child.

The Dentist's Parlor.

Did you ever proceed by the longest way
To the dentist? try it, on the hottest day;
While your very hair felt turning gray
At the thought of what you must pay,
While you inwardly fretted, and firmly said, "Nay,
One month's be scared," but whatever you say,
You go round as odd block.

That you needn't have gone, but it just seems to be Such a fine day for walking; and you want to see
If it's only two churches, or three are there
Newly built over there; and somehow you "gree
With yourself that yourself can the dentist,—y s, he Would like afte noon better—yes, infallibly.
At his door then you knock.

But alas, his mild answer does you terrify.
He is re dy just then all your wants to supply.
"Except courage," you say to yourself with a sigh,
And you enter at once, feeling that you're a dunce.
And a pain through your heart and your liver does fly,
As the lieutenance in peril from you enjoy
And the big velvet chair.

Yes, the big ve vet chair, and I can't though I will,
If I can, describe what a pauline you feel,
Pervades when its horrid recesses you fill,
And you lean back, your blood all seeming to still
In pulsations, while o'er you the artist of skill
Leans, and says he can make you all r. ht, so he will,
But it won't go—that same.

Then le works at your teeth with small hammers and
And he hauls out the bad ones with horrid steel claws,
And drills holes through your nerve without t'emor or pause,
Till you think him at torment the great and first cause,
Even straight to your heart the great natural law—
That, compel you to let such a fiend at your jaws,
And you are and you are not to blame.

But just then, when you know that you're going fast
The torme tor announces the deed's in past.
That he's made a good job which he'll state will last,
And will give you nee r assure at each new repast,
And your money he takes with a carelessness vast,
As I you think him—ever to be seen no more.

Meadow Talk.

A bumble-bee, yellow as gold,
Sat perched on a buttercup top,
When a grasshopper, wiry and old,
Came along with a skip and a hop.
"Good morning to you," Mr. Bumble-bee
You seem to have come to stay."

"We people that work,"
Said the bee, with a jerk.
"Find benefit sometimes in stopping.
Only insects like you
Who have nothing to do,
Can keep up a perpetual hopping."

The grasshopper passed on his way,
And thoughtfully hunched up his knees;
"Why trouble this sunshiny day," Quoth he, "with reflections like these?
I follow the trade for which I was made;
We all can't be wise bumble-bees."

"There is a time to be sad,
And a time to be glad;
A time for both working and stopping;
For men to make money,
For you to make honey,
And for me to do nothing but hopping.

Courtesy.

Little girls, do you ever think about the meaning of words? That word courtesy, for instance, how much it which girls and women ought to care for very much, indeed. You may have heards of a man who is no lady women were, and in many heathen countries are now, not much better than slaves. In Java, for instance, when company come to a house, the parents present the boys very proudly, but they send the girls out of sight because they do not think it worth while to know that they have a li tle daughter in their home.

Gradually, as the world has come up from a state of barbarism, and the clergy and poet together helped her to her proper place, the lady of the castle kept the keys and presided at the feasts, wore beautiful robes of stuffs called gauze and cambric, and gave medicine to the sick. She learned surgery, too, and when the soldiers and knights came home from battle, weary and faint, she was the one to bind up their wounds and bin l up the bruised parts. So everybody treated her politely, and the story of courtesy has then came to be popular, in the place of the old roughness and rudeness, took the general name of courtesy.

Keep Straight Ahead.

Pay no attention to slanderers or gossipy mongers Keep straight on your course, and let their hacks t rn to the dust of neglect. Don't be on the watch of ling a wake of a night, brooding over the remark of some false friend, and thinking you must have had a direct light. nu ? What is the use of getting into a worry and fret over gossip that has been put afloat by your dearest foe or some meddlesome busy body, who has more time than character

Those things can't possibly injure you, unless indeed you take notice of them, and in combatting them give them undue read sianding. If you read about you to true set yourself right at once, if it is false, let it go for what it will tetch. Don't be on the watch of ling a into the hive and destroy it? Would not a thousand come upon you? It is wisdom to pay little, respecting the injuries you have received. We are generally losers, the end, if we stop to refute all the backbitings and gossipings we may hear by the way. They are annoying. it is true, but not dangerous, so long as we do not expose sad selves to them. Our characters are formed and sustained by ourselves and by our own actions and not by others. Let it be noised abroad that "exaggerators" may usually be trusted to time and the slow and steady justice of public opinion.—[apties Weekly.

Chinaman's Death-Bed.

Wang Cheng-Sheng pas baptized in April, 1876, and from first to last was one of the most consistent Christians I have seen in China. I remember the day and the occasion in which he he was induced to decide for Christ. I remember also a church meeting on a Sunday morning in which he moved all our hearts by narrating the joy with which the gospel had filled his own heart, and the peace it had brought into his family. "I was," said he on that occasion, "one of the most miserable of men, and my house was a perfect hell. I had a most violent temper, and contrived to make everybody connected with me miserable. Now my heart is at rest, and harmony pervades the whole family circle." Whenever I visited him during his illness, I found him calmly waiting the will of God. Again and again did he tell us that his whole trust was in Christ, and that death had no terror to him. The wife, also a Christian, was there with him.—[Rev. Griffith John, Hankow.

To the Boys that use Tobacco.

Just what per cent. of our boys use tobacco is something very difficult to ascertain, but we may safely say that three-fourths of the boys from eight to fifteen years old chew tobacco or smoke cigars. They frequently ask men for the stumps which are about to be thrown away, and many of them gather up the partially consumed cigars even from the streets and smoke them. Older boys, and even full-grown men, those of low instinct, take a vicious pleasure in teaching their injurious habit to little boys too young to know enough to resist them. Still a young man who has been under the very best moral influence at home, "Among all the boys of my acquaintance, from the time I was eight years old until I was fifteen there was not a single one who did not chew or smoke." Nobody, but a boy knows the extent to which this injurious habit is indulged in among boys, and even he does nearly die of sick stomach or nervous prostration after secretly smoking an old cigar stump or taking a chew of tobacco. He keeps his own secrets and lets Mama and the doctor make a diagnosis as best they may. The further they miss the real cause of the sickness, however, the better it it pleases the boy. Nicotine, the active principle of tobacco is a deadly poison. A single drop will kill a rabbit in three minutes and a half. An old professor of medicine used to say to his students, "Put a drop or two of it on his tongue and it will kill a dog in five minutes." Nicotia destroys life quicker than any known poison except prussic acid.

The life of a little boy was destroyed in a few minutes by injecting an infusion of tobacco in the bowels, which has been done by salt up the isle of the church, in rich silks and luxurious velvets and with diamonds flashing in brooch or earring? Many of them do not, of course, or they would at once forsake the habit of wearing plainer attire when they come to the house of God. But there is no question that this habit of over-dressing in church is one fraught with manifold evils.

Amaurosis, or nervomuscular blindness, in which disease there is a partial or complete loss of sight without any apparent change in the organization of the eye, has been charged to excessive smoking of strong tobacco. It is believed by some of our best authorities that there are few persons who have smoked for any great length of time more than five drachms of tobacco a day, without having their vision, and frequently their memory, enfeabled. A case of impaired vision seems likely which continued every manner of treatment until it was discovered that the patient was in the habit of smoking large quantities of strong cigars. As soon as the pipe was abandoned the individual gradually recovered his sight.

Tobacco is a powerful sedative, and there is not a single natural adjusted to its use who has not at some time been prostrated by an over dose. This condition of extreme depression is followed by artificial stimulants, and will soon create the appetite for strong drink and will lead a boy to fill a drunkard's grave.

Reading to Children.

Many persons suppose that it is useless to attempt to read anything to children under seven years of age but books written expressly for them. They think that a child cannot appreciate stories that are short and easily comprehended, and written in the simplest language. But experiment will soon end in that this is a mistaken notion.

Juvenile works are necessary when children begin to read for themselves, but until they become so familiar with the appearance of the majority of words that they recognize them at a glance, they will be required to expend so much effort of forming letters into words and sentences. Before they know the simplest monosyllable by sight, they have an extensive stock of long words that they recognize by the sound, and whose meaning they fully comprehend, as soon as they hear them uttered. And you can read passages from the most famous works of genius to a young child without changing the language in the least or explaining the authors meaning. Its smiles and tears and its appreciative remarks and its questions—for a demand for frequent elaboration is usually a proof that the work is not suitable for youthful readers—will convince you that it understands the book.

If you are on the look out for facts and fancies that will interest children you will find something that will please them in nearly every magazine or biography or books of travel or scientific work, or novels or volume of poems that you may have in your house for your self. I have entered the high school they will be familiar with the names of many of the best writers, and will know their choicest verses and have them well, and even wisely, committed to memory.

When you find nothing in a book that is suitable to read aloud there is often something interesting that you can relate. Another love to hear about Mrs. Browning's dog Flush, and Professor James Wilson's birds, Shilly and Robbie, and the rest of his pets. Some children like the washerwoman—a very decent body by the way—was passing along the avenue the other Sunday, Mrs. Goodwealth, just as you turned into the church-gates. Such unmistakable fatal results are not frequent, to be sure, but they testify to the existence of deadly poison in tobacco in a manner which leaves no room for argument.

When you find nothing in a book that is suitable whether the rum-drinker shall keep his money, or the rum-seller shall win it from him; but the rule is a large amount of loss and expense in which neither of them directly participate. We can be silent while the rum-drinker wastes and spends that which belongs to him, which is but little and which daily grows less; but an avalanche of wreck and ruin result from this traffic which neither the rum-seller nor the rum-drinker endures, and yet the bills must be paid and these expenses met. Who pays the bills?

Who pays for the fires kindled by drunken men? Who pays for the ships wrecked by tipsy pilots, or lost through drunken captains and drunken crews? Who defrauds the city from riots incited by men who are maddened by alcohol? Who pays for the feasting and jubilating of wine-bibbing public officials? Who feeds the drunkard's hungry children? Who provides for the drunkard's broken-hearted wife? Who supports the beggarly tramp who, having wasted their money in drink, wander about the country? Who repairs the losses caused by the failure of intemperate merchants and reckless and often intoxicated business men? Who makes good the damage caused by the blunders of drunken workmen, and the hindrances of business caused by the sprees of intemperate employes? Who pays for the railway wrecks caused by drunken conductors and engineers? Who repays the money which the drunkards borrow that they may obtain strong drink? Who builds the asylum where crazy drunkards are kept? Who supports the idiot children of drunken men? Who pays the bills of officers for watching drunken rowdies? Who hires constables and sheriffs to catch drunken murderers? Who pays the attorneys and juries and judges who try drunken criminals? Whose money supports jailers, turnkeys, and prison-keepers, to take care of men convicted of crimes committed when drunk? Who pays the expenses of trials and commitments and executions occasioned by the crimes of intoxicated men? Who pays for the property destroyed and burned by drunken mobs? Who builds and supports alms-houses which but for drink might remain unoccupied? Who endures the sufferings and losses and brutalities which are due to the recklessness and insanity of drunken husbands and fathers? Who pays for the inquests held on drunkards found dead by the wayside? Who pays for a pauper's coffin and for digging a drunkard's grave in the potter's field, when the last glass has been drank?

Who pays the bills? The drunkard can not pay them, for he has wasted his substance in his cups. Will the rumseller pay them? He has neither the disposition or the ability to do it. Whoever would attempt to hold a rumseller responsible for the ruin he has wrought, would sue a beggar and catch a louse." The fact is, you and I, and the sober, industrious toiling portion of the community must meet all these bills. The drunken cowd whose head is punched in the street fight, is cured in the city hospital at our expense; the drunken beggar is fed from our table; his hungry children come to our doors for bread; and we can not refuse assistance to his broken-hearted wife; and when at last, having wasted his substance in riotous living, he comes to the almshouse the asylum, the hospital, or the prison, honest, somber, temperate men pay the bills for supporting him there. There is no escaping it. We may protest and object, we may growl at taxes and find fault with beggars, but ultimately and inevitably we must foot the bills. We cannot have the privilege of spending our own money, nor can we have even the comfort of saying how it shall be spent.

Probably more that one dollar in every ten of the hard earnings of honest, toiling laborers throughout the nation, is in some way devoured by the rum devil which haunts the land, and hawks about our homes to waste and ravage and destroy. For every ten dollars which the laboring man earns, he may count on being robbed of from a dollar to a dollar and a half, to meet the expenses of this infernal traffic. So, gentlemen, taxpayers, business men, capitalists, stockholders, and gentlemen of leisure, walk up and draw out your pocket-books and pay your rum bills; one cent out of every dime, one dime out of every dollar, one dollar out of every ten, ten dollars out of every hundred, and a hundred dollars out of every thousand you earn or gain. You say that you do not use the article? That makes no difference it is used, the nation permits it, the Government licenses it, and you pay for it. So walk up and settle.—The Safeguard.

The Daily Ontario

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 7.

Mass Meeting.

A MEETING of all the friends of the Mowat Administration will be held

THIS EVENING!

AT EIGHT O'CLOCK IN

Carman's Block,

for the purpose of making arrangements for Tuesday Evening's celebration.

Let there be a rousing attendance.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

June 7, '79.

THE eighteen hundredth anniversary of the destruction of Pompeii and Herculaneum by lava from Mount Vesuvius, is to be celebrated by a scientific festival at the above first-named city next November. Rather funny, isn't it, to celebrate the destruction of two cities and the loss of many thousand lives, besides millions of treasure?

MR. J. T. BREEZE, the poet, who was not long ago familiar to the citizens of Belleville, and especially familiar to the newspaper offices, and who established his ability to write a poem on any subject at the shortest notice, is now in Kingston, attending the Congregational Church meeting. He has informed a Whig reporter that he has secured the Queen's acceptance of his poem on the "Princess Louise." This induces the Ottawa Free Press to remark: "We do not know what his latest effort is like, but it it is no better than the one in which he apostrophised Mr. C. J. Brydges as 'the Julius Cæsar of the present age,' we fancy those about Her Majesty have mercifully spared her an infliction."

ANTI-ELECTION ITEMS FROM THE "MAIL."

We have preserved a basket full of clippings from editorials that have lately appeared in the Mail and other Tory organs, bearing upon the election, but find our space will only admit the following. We quote from the Mail:

"For our own part we have no doubt of the result; yet a few considerations to be kept in mind by the electors may be tersely added by way of conclusion."

We would like to know whether the result was just as our contemporary anticipated. If not—and we have good reasons to believe it was not, the editor must entertain some doubts of his powers of political divination.

"On every side lies the evidence of fear and trepidation; nowhere is the Premier thoroughly secure; and in the most of the constituencies he knows only too surely the fate which awaits him."

The Premier's majority was 1,400. One would suppose that that was quite enough too make him feel secure in his own constituency, at least. Mr. Crooks went in with a majority of 1,000, and many others of the Ministerial candidates were secured by majorities ranging from 500 to 1,000. Perhaps there was "evidence to fear and trepidation."

"What will our Reform friends say on the morning of the 6th inst.? On the 18th September, they declared the electorate has been bought up with the National Policy programme, promises of Government Railways."

Well, they said "Cheers for the Mowat Government," and congratulated each other that an honest Administration had been so nobly sustained by the people.

"Six weeks ago the party entered upon the campaign with light hearts and tolerable confidence; now their courage has oozed out at the finger's ends and there is nothing but wretched hysterics—scolding, raving, weeping and imploring, each in turn or all together,"

Six weeks ago Reformers were confident of victory, and now they have the proof that that confidence was not misplaced. We confess to not having seen much "raving" or "weeping" over the result in this vicinity, and opine that it is the same elsewhere throughout the Province.

"Mr. Mowat and his friends would claim Mr. Gibson's return as conclusive proof that the largest manufacturing centre in the Dominion had condemned the National Policy. Do not give them such an opportunity!"

Yesterday the organ accounted for Mr. Gordon's defeat this way:—

"Considering however, that the protestations of the successful candidate that he would support whatever party was in power, and his supposed predilections in favor of the Conservative party, besides his strong personal influence in Tyendinaga, the result is not so much to be wondered at."

"Mr. Mowat and his friends," according to the Mail's logic, can reasonably claim that "the largest manufacturing centre in the Dominion has condemned the National Policy." Mr. Gibson was elected in Hamilton by a majority of 62.

"If they desire fair play to the National Policy they must close their ears to the charmer, charm he never so wisely. If they desire to consult and not to jeopardize the best interests of Ontario, they will not support Ministers who are in bitter and avowed hostility to the Government and Parliament of the Dominion."

This appeal was made to the people of Ontario by the chief Opposition organ on the 4th inst., and with the result of the elections before it, the same organ must now declare that the people do not desire to consult the best interests of the Province. If so, has there not been a reaction since the 17th of September last?

"A sudden stillness has come upon the Reform prophets, and we hear nothing now of the 'triumph of Reform principles,' the victory of Mr. Mowat's capable Administration, &c. The next cry will be heard on the morning of the 6th of June, when a wail will go up from the Reform press that the farmers are 'dupes and fools.'"

Yesterday morning the Reform press congratulated the farmers of Ontario for so intelligently and decisively judging the "N.P." and kindred Tory humbugs. They also congratulated themselves and the people generally on the triumph of Reform principles" and the glorious "victory of Mr. Mowat's capable Administration," &c. We would like to quote the Kingston News, Hamilton Spectator, London Free Press, and other Tory sheets, most of which ventured still further than the head organ in predicting what would be known felt, and observed throughout Ontario on the 6th of June, but the above will suffice for the present.

Ontario Redeemed.

In giving the magnificent verdict for Reform that Ontario gave on Thursday she placed herself on the right side again. For many years she has been a Reform province. With the associations and excitements of the past, little else could be expected. She is no admirer of Toryism, and it was, therefore, a painful surprise when she took up a different position last year. We then claimed that, had the full Reform vote been polled such a thing would not have happened. We have proof of this now. Thursday she rolled up a splendid Reform majority and swept the Tories literally out of existence. She is now on familiar ground again and will so remain.—Hamilton Times.

Outside Opinion.

The Montreal Herald says:—The Ontario Government thoroughly deserved the support of the people upon the merits of the question at issue, but since their opponents deliberately preferred to make this fight one between the Federal Government and the Opposition, there is no doubt that the declaration of the state of the polls must be a most effective blow to our rulers at Ottawa. Taken in conjunction with the St. Hyacinthe election, the news from Ontario shows that the people have awakened from the apathy which held them in bonds last September, and that the general sentiment of both Ontario and Quebec is adverse to the Federal Administration of the day.

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman too—
For thousands cry with eager breath,
"They saved me from the jaws of death!
All ye ailing give me heed,
'Tis Nature's Pills your system needs.
In sense a brush for these Pills;
Which cure so many woeful ills.

Ministerial Majority	29	1

Before and After.

"Just before the battle," the local "N. P." organ had this:—

"The prospects of Mr. Gordon are of the brightest character, as ascertained by reports from all parts of the Riding, and we regard his election as certain."

"Considering however, that the protestations of the successful candidate that he would support whatever party was in power, and his supposed predilections in favor of the Conservative party, besides his strong personal influence in Tyendinaga, the result is not so much to be wondered at."

Small Majorities.

Says the local "N. P." organ:

"One feature of the result is the small majority by which many of the constituencies carried by the Ministerialists have been gained, and another is the large number of new members who will have seats in the House."

Let us see. South Wentworth was won by the Opposition, and Mr. Carpenter's majority was 3. Stormont was another gain for the Opposition, and Mr. Kerr claims a majority of 11. The organ would say: "Under the circumstances, these were glorious victories, and the Opposition did remarkably well."

What The Pollings Show.

The following seats were carried by the Conservative party in September last, and were carried by the Mowat Government Thursday:—

Brockville, Bruce, S., Cardwell, Cornwall Elgin, E., Grey, S., Halton, Hamilton Hastings, E., Huron, E., Kent, Lanark, S., Lennox, Lincoln, Middlesex, N., Monck, Northumberland, E., Northumberland, W., Peel, Perth, N., Peterboro, E., Prince Edward, Renfrew, N., Renfrew, S., Simcoe, Victoria, N., Victoria, S., Waterloo, N., Waterloo S., Wellington, N., Wellington, S., York, N., York, S., York, W.—34.

The following constituencies carried by the Opposition Thursday, returned Reformers in September:

Kingston, South Grenville, South Wentworth.—3.

Misrepresentation.

The local "N. P." organ, when jubilating over "the greatest victory ever achieved by the Conservative party in the North Riding," says:

"The abuse which has been heaped upon Mr. Wood by the Grit party, will show the chagrin which they feel at the manly course which he took in refusing to be made a catspaw of, in order to pull the nuts out of the fire with which to tickle the Grit palate."

It would be impossible in so many words to convey a greater untruth. No Reformer was instrumental in bringing Mr. Wood out. He thrust himself upon the electors, and was soundly berated by the organ for refusing to abide by the vote of the Convention. Talk about Mr. Wood "loyally carrying out his promises!" The least said about his loyalty to principle or honesty, the better for Mr. Wood. We could furnish specimens of his loyalty that might not be very flattering to him as a Conservative. It was not until Mr. Wood discovered that the Reformers of North Hastings would have nothing to do with him that he retired from the contest, and out of pure "chagrin" glorified the very man he had been systematically abusing.

Instructive Comparison.

A lesson is enforced by a comparison between the majorities obtained last September, and those obtained on the other side on Thursday last. This will become clear from the following table:—

CONSTITUENCY.	CONS. maj. 1878	LIB. maj. 1879.
Simcoe, N	300
York, W	202	28
York, E	60	244
York, N	15	490
Prince Edward	340	40
Wellington, N. & C	320	920
Russell	515	28
Bruce, S	82	113
Grey, S	140	817
Renfrew, S	227	136
Waterloo, S	50	113
Waterloo, N	150	200
Addington	31	81
Durham, W	30	147
Elgin, E	66	137
Peel	75	100
Victoria	400	100

In addition to such changes as the above, many constituencies which gave small Reform majorities in 1878 gave very large ones in 1879. This was the case with Lambton South Grenville, North Wentworth, North Lanark, and others. The question, therefore, whatever may have been the causes leading to it, has been very great.

Addington all Right.

MR. DEROCHE ELECTED.

The returns from Addington are all in, and are thought to be nearly correct. They give Mr. Deroche, the Ministerialist, a majority of 81. It is not probable that the official returns will change this much. We rejoice over this result. Mr. Deroche is one of the ablest, as he is undoubtedly one of the most upright, members of the Legislature, and he has served his constituents well.

We understand that Mr. Vankleek has strong hopes of a majority in North Hastings when the back townships are heard from. We sincerely trust that his hopes may be realized.

Casual Remarks.

The London Taser has artistic sketches of the Tory Rooster after the battle on Thursday and Master Tommy Crothers, "leaving West Elgin for the U. E. Club."

Mr. Merelith was "the future Premier of Ontario" a few days ago. What is he now? and when will that future be?

The Whig says the vacant Postmastership of Kingston will now be filled. It was kept open until after the election for fear of offending somebody.

The St. Patrick's Society of Montreal have invited the 69th, N. Y. Regiment to attend a monster pic-nic in that city on Dominion Day.

The gallery "gods" in the Academy of Music, Montreal, pelt performers who do not please them with rotten eggs and potatoes.

Says the Montreal Post:—"The Reformers have won Ontario and we are glad of it. If the Conservatives had won they would have been too powerful and the local affairs of the sister Provinces would be manipulated from Ottawa."

MARRIAGE is a solemn thing—a choice for life; be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for female complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Bucha and Uva Ursa. It is now extensively prescribed by all respectable physicians. Bright's disease of the kidneys, diabetes etc., may be overcome by Buchu if taken in time. For sale by all druggists in Belleville.

The Consolidated Bank.

CRITICISING THE TORONTO BANK.

A despatch from Montreal says:—At the Consolidated Bank meeting Thursday not the least important part of the discussion was the management of Toronto; in fact, it was evident that there was a strong desire to criticise severely that branch of the bank, where it was admitted very heavy losses had been made. The losses are set down at $847,000, of which $548,000 occurred in Ontario alone. A question was put Mr. Haldan, representing the Western Insurance Co., of Toronto, asking for the amount which had been written off when the consolidation was effected some years ago, but there were numerous speakers at the time and the real question was lost sight of. Though a little stormy at first, when explanations had been completed there was a pretty general good feeling, the resolutions being carried almost unanimously. With respect to Director's fees, some one discovered that the Act entitled the Directors to divide $15,000 per annum among themselves, and though the President explained that it was permissive, and that about $8,000 only had been distributed when ten were on the Board, and that it would certainly be less the coming year, there was still a determination to fix the sum for division at $7,000, when, in reality, it could not reach that amount if the same proportion was given to the new Board of seven. It turned out that afterwards the President and Directors had received but $5,500 last year.

Faces.

The human face is not only "the index of the soul." Every bodily sensation leaves its indelible trace upon the features. Every human face, if studied attentively reveals the physical and mental history of its possessor. On the crowded street of the city what volumes of these histories are open to all those who who would search them. The miser with his features drawn as tightly as the openings of his money bag the debauchee with his sensual semi-angular face; the young man with the fair face and blood beaded skin, every line of his countenance revealing energy and ambition the maiden's face bright with innocent love and hope,—in a few of these face bright histories is as legible as the printed page before you. But there are other faces in which you may read sad histories—faces of work weary women to whom living has become an irksome task. The fatal alphabet of disease is written in every line of their countenances. Why will these woman suffer from debility and those painful diseases peculiar to their sex living besides the charm and beauty of a healthful face when Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sure and effectual remedy? Ladies who have used it pronounce it to be woman's elixir of health. Sold by druggists

A Glimpse of the Empress Eugenie and Her Son.

A letter from Olive Logan to the Cincinnati Enquirer" gives the following glimpse of the Empress Eugenie and the prince: "I went to Waterloo almost to see the last of young Louis Napoleon, who is off to the Cape to have a look at the Zulus. He was accompanied by Eugenie as far as Southampton. It really gave me a pang to behold this pure paragon of beauty, to whom I was presented in the days of her utmost splendor both of fortune and of fame. Her appearance was so pathetic that it made the tears spring to my eyes. She was attired in a style which we ladies understand as half mourning and carried in her beautiful head, piled hand a large bouquet of early spring violets the chosen emblem of the Napoleonic dynasty' and the welcome harbinger for so many lovely days to anon. Her hair is still the beautiful blonde so inseparably connected her name and this is something that puzzles me, unless I accept the explanation that has been given by observers—that she wears a wig. Certainly there is not a thread of gray visible, otherwise she was aged indeed. She looked positively haggard, pale as a ghost, her drooping, fatigued eyes encircled with the blue rings of care and anxiety. Her faded appearance formed a great contrast with that of her son, a rosebud of a young fellow, in the first blush of joyous youth—up to anything, fond of fun and—and evidently just bubbling over with pleasurable excitement at the thought of going to the seat of war with scenes of the greatest "swell" in the British army. One has only to see these two relics of the imperial shipwreck to fully understand what a fearful sacrifice it must be to Eugenie to part from her son for the short period of four months, which is supposed to be the length of his stay in Africa. She is the French mother to the letter; quite a different being from the Spanish or an Italian maternal parent. She has no sangfroid with him; her eyes are incessantly upon him; idolatry is legible in every glance. Since his departure her condition, I hear, has been really alarming. Tears, sobs and fainting fits have succeeded each other almost uninterruptedly, while cries of 'Oh, my son! my son; my dear son!' have wrung the hearts of her listening attendants."

The most Valuable Gift—Restoration of Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Affection of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not bogus people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no mineral by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputation of any pills before the public.

Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities of the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

Strawberries.—Mr. P. H. Hambly has the first strawberries in the market. True, they are a little high-priced just now, but a great luxury nevertheless.

A Fine Thing!—This is the exclamation of every person who has seen these eight-wheel castors. Don't fail to secure a sett when called upon by Mr. Neelin.

Trottin Race.—The trotting race announced to take place yesterday between Little William and Rawlon did not come off. It will take place on Monday next at 2:30 p. m.

Sale of Household Furniture.—The sale of the household furniture of John T. Latimer will be held on Tuesday morning next at 10 o'clock, instead of at 2 in the afternoon.

Measles.—The Beacon says that in Napanee about two-thirds of the eligible youngsters are "spotted" as victims of measles. In one department of the public school, out of a roll of 56 pupils, 37 cases broke out.

Albert College.—The closing examinations have been going on at Albert College for the last week or ten days. They will not be concluded for over a week to come, and we understand the number of matriculants will be large.

Arrived.—Dr. G. W. Hotchkin, the celebrated springless truss man, arrived in the city this morning. He will be at the Anglo-American Hotel until Monday evening, and persons in need of trusses will do well to give him a call.

Opera Burlesque.—On Monday evening next Cool Johnston's Australian Opera Burlesque Company will give one of their entertainments at the Opera House. They have a good reputation, and we hope to see a large audience.

Large Market.—Another large market this morning, but prices, as a rule, were high. This was particularly the case with fowl, which were held at from 45 to 60 cents per pair. Butter and eggs were reasonably low, the former selling at from 12½ to 15 cents, and the latter from 8 to 10.

Personal.—On the occasion of the Rev. Mr. Stanton resigning the pastorate of St. George's Church, Trenton, the members presented him with an address recognizing the fidelity of his services, accompanied with a purse of money. We are informed that the reverend gentleman contemplates a trip to the "old country."

Making Paper Transparent.—All who have occasion to make use of tracing paper may manufacture it for themselves by dampening the paper to be employed with pure fresh-distilled benzine. So long as the benzine remains in its substance the paper is transparent, and permits of tracings being made, or of writing and water color drawings on its surface without any "running." But as the benzine evaporates, the paper recovers its opacity; and if the drawing be not completed before this happens, it is necessary to damp it again. Of course this very fact that the paper again becomes opaque is an advantage over the permanently transparent tracing paper, which is flimsy and unmanageable. Even a stout drawing paper can be rendered transparent by this process.

Tar Drive.—The river is filling up very rapidly with saw-logs; the drive seeming to be much smaller this season than last.

Ministerial Change.—The Rev. Mr. Martin, M. E. Minister, late of Shannonville has been appointed by the Conference to the church at Madoc. Mr. Martin will not be long in getting into the good graces of the people.

Postponed.—The rowing races announced to take place yesterday, did not come off, owing to the roughness of the water. The first races will, therefore, be held in connection with the Yacht Club Regatta on Friday next.

Meeting To-Night.—Every friend of the Mowat Administration is requested to meet in the Club Room, Carman's Block, this evening, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of making arrangements for Tuesday evening's celebration.

Weather Bulletin.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate to fresh winds, generally clear warmer weather, continued fine to-morrow, and warmer than to-day.

The Demonstration.—Great preparations are being made for the Reform Demonstration of Tuesday evening next. Reformers from all parts of the county, as well as from adjoining constituencies, will take part. Every friend who has a horse and vehicle will greatly oblige by bringing them out.

Oddfellowship.—The Grand Lodge of Oddfellowship will meet in Hamilton on August 11th, and sit for several days. It is expected there will be between 300 and 400 delegates present, and that a demonstration will take place on one of the days during which the gathering lasts.

A Call.—During the present week the Rev. J. W. Burton was waited upon by a deputation from the North Congregational Church, Toronto, and offered the pastorate of that church. This church is one of the most influential in the city, and the salary, would be much larger, but it is very doubtful if the reverend gentleman will entertain the proposition.

Date Fixed.—We are pleased to be able to announce that the date of the next entertainment to be given by the Histrionic Association has been settled upon, namely Tuesday, June 17th. On that occasion the beautiful drama of "The Rose o' Ettrick Vale" will be produced in such a manner as to do credit to the ladies and gentlemen who compose the Association. We trust our readers will bear the date in mind and give them a good house.

More Gold.—The North Hastings Review says:—"We were shown last week by Mr. W. J. Allen a fine specimen of quartz in which the gold was abundant, lately found on the farm of Mr. Michael Connors, lot 25, 9th Concession of Madoc. If the richness of the specimen exhibited may be taken as an indication of what the lot contains, Mr. C's prospects of suddenly finding himself in possession of a fortune are unusually good. Mr. H. M. Ketcheson also exhibited a good "show" found on a lot near the above place. We only hope future developments may result to the enrichment of all concerned.

Matrimonial.—Elsewhere will be found one of those notices that prove such interesting reading to the fair sex. On this occasion, however, the interest will not be confined to the lady friends of either the bride or bridegroom. Mr. Northrup is a young man who has won the esteem of all who know him, and in Belleville he is known by almost everybody. The young lady whom he has chosen for a life companion is one everyway worthy of his choice. The best wishes of many friends greet them at the beginning of their wedded life.

☞You can now stop at the Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, N. York, on the American plan for $2. 50 or $3.00 per day, or you can, on the European plan, take your breakfast there in the morning, take your lunch down town, or dine with a friend, and your room at the Hotel will only cost you $1.00 per day and upwards; and meals are also provided at moderate prices at the elegant Restaurant attached to the Hotel.

Two Questions Easily Answered.—Why should more people be afraid? Because they are a great protection to the throat and lungs, and add much to their personal appearance. Why should we use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers? Because when used for coughs, colds, tickling in the throat, hoarseness, &c., they act like a charm. Ministers and lawyers use them, physicians recommend them, and singers and public speakers say they are the very best medicine in existence for the cure of such complaints. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cts per box.

Food as Well as Medicine.—Most people think as they swallow Cod Liver Oil they are taking medicine. In one sense they are, for anything that tones, builds and invigorates the system is medicine. It not only tones and heals, but nourishes. It will save the consumptive, restore the dyspeptic, and build up the baby wonderfully, when all other remedies fail, and combined with the Hypophosphites as found in Scott's Emulsion. It is a most wonderful as well as agreeable remedy.

Brevities.

—Heavy frost last night.

—Vennor is now having his revenge.

—We regret to learn of the serious illness of Dr. Walker, dentist.

—The Duke of Argyle and family passed east this morning on G. T.

—How quiet the local Tories were yesterday. They all went fishing.

—Considerable money was lost and won by betting characters on the elections.

—Very kind of our contemporary to keep its flag up in honor of the great Reform victory.

—Speak of a man's marble brow and he will glow with conscious pride; but allude to his marble head, and he's mad in a minute. Language is a slippery thing to fool with.

—How foolishly asks that charming old poem in the very first stanza:

Where, where will be the birds that sing
A hundred years to come?

Most of them will be dead, but the few hens that survive at that time will be most awfully tough.

From Prescott.

KILLED BY AN ENGINE.

Prescott, June 7th.—An old man named Thos. Wilson, who lived about 4 miles from this town, and was returning home, walking along the line of the St. Lawrence, and Ottawa R. R., was accidentally killed about 9 o'clock last night by the branch train returning from Prescott Junction to the town. It appears he was walking close along the side of the track and as the train neared him he staggered on the track and walked directly toward the train. The engine driver saw him, and immediately reversed his engine, whistled down brakes, and did all in his power to stop the train. He was struck by the engine and thrown some 20 feet into the air, instantly killing him. He was under the influence of liquor. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death, exonerating the railway employees from all blame.

The Montreal Tragedy.

Says the Post of 6th inst:—A man named Cleary was arrested at Prescott yesterday, who had just arrived from Montreal by boat, on suspicion of being mixed up in the Quenneville murder. The man's head was badly cut, and his appearance generally indicated that he had lately been engaged in a struggle. Detective Fahey and High Constable Bissonnette were despatched to Prescott yesterday, to arrest him if they judge the circumstances warrants such a proceeding. There is one thing to be considered in this connection, which is that, if the men now in custody are innocent, their arrest may point to the really guilty parties.

The Witness says: Detectives Arcand and Riche were occupied all day yesterday looking after the persons who drove around the mountain on the morning of the murder at Morey's, and who left Thomas Wiseman's Hotel at Mile End at about two o'clock. The officers succeeded in their search, in finding the names of the four men and four women they wanted. The women they brought to the station, and the men when they heard they were being looked for, delivered themselves up. Their names are Henry Moffatt, Michael Butler, Charles Quinn, and John Taggart. The girls were brought to the police headquarters, and after having been notified that they would probably be wanted to give evidence at the inquest on the body of Quenneville on Monday, they were liberated.

Another Reward Offered.

The Provincial Government have passed an order in council offering a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the murderers of A. Quenneville. The City Council has already offered a reward of $1,000 making together the sum of $1,500. It is to be hoped that the perpetrators of this horrible deed will be immediately brought to justice, as it is already being used for the purpose of injuring the trade of the city.

For Sore Throat, Sudden Colds and Diphtheria, no remedy has ever been discovered so powerful to cure as Davis' Pain Killer. As a Liniment it has no equal in curing Rheumatism or Neuralgia, Burns and Bruises and wounds of every description. It is the cheapest and best remedy ever offered to the public.

No preparation of Hypophosphites I have used can compare with Fellows Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites for restoring strength to the nervous system.

I think it the best medicine I ever used.

The News.

—The expenses of the St. John, N. B., Fire Department are to be reduced.

—The grand illuminations at Quebec have been postponed until Monday night next.

—A society for the protection of the book and press canvassers' interests has been formed in Montreal.

—General Sherman expects to be present at the St. Patrick's Society's pic-nic at Montreal on the 1st of July.

—A man named Cleary has been arrested at Prescott on suspicion of being implicated in the Quenneville murder at Montreal.

—The Order-in-Council prohibiting the importation and introduction of American cattle has been extended to the 6th Sept. next.

—The Norwegian ship Garibaldi was overhauled and seized at Point St. Laurent for leaving Quebec without settling her tonnage bills. The amount was paid.

—The Mayor's proclamation, offering a reward by the city of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderers of Quenneville, is posted around Montreal. No new arrests have been made.

—In the Supreme Court the appeal of the case of the City of Halifax vs. Kenny was dismissed with costs, it being held that the city had no right to tax ships if they were not at home in the port of Halifax—a very important decision.

A Strange Vampire Story.

There is in New York a family named Valley, of French extraction, who once resided in the West Indies. In consequence of that residence they have living with them two quadroon sisters, one only seven years of age. A day or two ago the youngest child was brought up before the Police Magistrate charged with an attempt to take the life of her sister, and of one of the Miss Valleys. The attempt in such an infant thus to commit murder, and especially to commit the murder of one of her benefactors, for she had been adopted by the Valley's, was in itself very remarkable; but the most extraordinary part of the story is that which relates to the means she adopted to attain her end. This was by sucking the breath and simultaneously pressing on the windpipe of her intended victims during their sleep. We suppose that no such process could have the intended effect; but it seems the act and its motive were both acknowledged, though nothing indicates the reason which induced the selection of this strange kind of assassination. The little fiend, indeed, while talking of her misconduct and its failure, expressed a wish that she had only thought of a carving knife. I appears that she had been brought up in the belief that she would be adopted by the Valleys and would inherit their supposed wealth. The ornaments in their apartments seemed like riches to her childish fancy, and she tried to anticipate the time when they would become hers.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

Boston, June 7.—Owen Monohan, aged 13 quarreled with a school-mate, Wealter Deacon aged 12, and stabbed him with a jackknife in the abdomen fatally. Monahan jailed.

Elizabeth, N. J., June 7.—Suits have been begun against the city by Singer Manufacturing Co., and others for city bonds held by them aggregating $1,500,000.

Atlanta, Ga., June 7.—Wm. Spell, under death sentence for wife murder, who recently escaped from N. C., jail, and who was arrested and placed in Hawkinsville jail, has again escaped.

Columbia, Ala., June 7th.—Moses Mathews quarrelled with Robert Davis recently. Davis departed saying he would have satisfaction. Meeting Mathews soon after Davis shot him dead.

Woburn, Ms., June 7th.—500 tons vitriol let loose by burning of Merrimac Chemical Works. Monday, ran into Richardson's pond, poisoning large quantities of fish which floated down stream choaking the water-wheel of Richardson's mill. A mile distant the water of this stream eventually reaches a pond supplying Charleston water works. Feared the poison will affect that supply.

New York, June 7.—The Pigeon flying club of this city, arranged for a race yesterday. Open to pigeon farriers of Utica, Troy, and other points. The birds were started simultaneously from Cresson Pa., Irwin, Pa., Albion, N. Y., and Mon Meadows Va. It was arranged to time their arrival in this city, but through a misunderstanding only 2 birds of 27 were timed. They made the distance from Cresson to New York 245 miles in the remarkable time of 232 minutes.

A mass meeting will be held in Cooper Institute Monday, in aid of negroes fleeing from the South.

The serious illness of Rev. Dr. Stephen H. Tyng, jr., is reported.

Seven cases of small-pox were reported to the health board yesterday, the largest number in one day for many years.

Rev. B. Jarrag, Pastor of Greek church here, received a note signed "Nihilist Com." ordering him to stop preaching. The Russian Consul also received a threatening letter.

David Stuart and Co., dry goods, Liverpool, who recently fallen, had until lately branches here and in Philadelphia. Their reputation was the highest and the failure is a surprise.

The Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, whose financial agents they were lose only a few thousand.

Six licensed cotton samplers were arrested yesterday for stealing cotton from the bales. John and Nicholas Costello, cotton brokers, to whom the stolen cotton was traced and others are indicted. Cotton merchants estimate the loss by this cause at $50,000 yearly.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

Liverpool, June 7.—Lord Loftus, recently appointed Governor of New South Wales, sails to-day for New York to proceed to Australia via San Francisco.

Pulaski, N. Y., June 7.—John Nogle quarreled with his son Monday, when his wife interfered. He struck her with an iron spider on the head, cutting a deep gash. Her condition is critical. Nogle was jailed.

London, 9.—Blanqui has been pardoned.

St. Petersburg, 7.—The Supreme Tribunal yesterday declared Solovenieff guilty of belonging to a criminal association, to overthrow the State, and sentenced him to death.

Albany, 7.—The Government signed the bill amending the act for incorporation of Life, Health and Casualty Insurance Co's Bill. It makes important changes in insurance laws. It denies to life insurance companies the authority to make insurance other than upon lives of persons.

New York, May 7.—A complimentary excursion up the Hudson was given Union veterans to-day by Hon. J. H. Starin. A flotilla of six steamers and ten barges carrying 6,000 people, six bands of music and a battery.

London, May 7.—Divers recovered the bodies of three men from the cabin of the Pommerania sunk by collision with Noel Lilian, September last.

London, June 7.—Stated that Manchester bankers, involved by Stuart & Co's., failure, may be able to escape suspension, but gradual liquidation of the firm can hardly be avoided. Cause of difficulties lock up of capital. Not probable even in the worst event the matter will have important consequences, but in Manchester other failures are expected to follow; and it is said poor Irish emigrants, who are in the habit of sending money to their friends at home, will be heavy sufferers by Liverpool failures.

She Forgot Something.

A lady in Portland, Me., called at a jewellery store and, after making a purchase, went home. Two hours later a messenger called at her house and informed her that she had left something at the jeweller's. "Now, let me see," she mused, "what can it be? Here is my pocket-book, and there on the sofa is my fan, and I have my gold watch here, and my bonnet—why, where is my bonnet? oh, there it is on floor; it fell off the table—Why, to be sure! How absent-minded I am! I declare if I haven't forgotten my darling, precious little babe!" And so she had—only that and nothing more.—Norristown Herald.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Bismarck has been bringing pressure to bear on the Khedive of Egypt. He has probably as much right to use his influence on behalf of the German bondholders as France and England have to use theirs on behalf of the French and English bondholders. Between the three Powers the Khedive is having rather a lively time of it. If he had only England to deal with he would have been snuffed out long ago, but as there are several Powers, each jealous of the other, his neck is safe.

The latest in regard to the Cape is that Sir Bartle Frere has been relieved of his Commissionship and appointed Governor of Cape Colony. It is evident that the British Government wishes it were well out of the mess it got into in regard to the Zulus, and that it would take the back track if it could. The supersession of Lord Clemsford, followed by the displacement of Sir Bartle Frere, betrays the anxiety of the Government to set things to rights at the Cape with as little delay as possible, in anticipation of the general election.

The Marquis of Lorne said at Kingston the other day that he occupied a position unknown in the constitution of other countries, as a political doctor, so that whatever prescriptions he gave must be written in invisible ink, and given when he met in consultation with other doctors. He said he could administer no remedies himself. It would be interesting to know whether the Marquis had the Letellier case in his mind when he gave expression to that idea. If he had, it makes it evident that he referred the Letellier case to England after a consultation with the other political doctors—his ministers—and not upon his own responsibility.—Telegram.

The project of forming a Law Society for Canada, which has been so frequently discussed, is about to be carried out, we are glad to see. The profession, split up by its connection with seven different Provinces, has no status as a body, and matters affecting them are decided in the Legislature, without consulting them, and without their being any medium of communication between the Government or the Legislature, and the Bar of Canada. Nor have the Judges of the Supreme Court any organization to deal with that represents in any way the views of the profession at large. The Bar have very generously responded to the invitation of the Committee who, we are glad to learn, have already received applications for membership from all parts of the Dominion. The meeting will be held to-day at 10:30 a. m., so as to enable the members of the Bar from P. E. I., New Brunswick and Nova Scotia now in attendance at the Supreme Court to be present.—Free Press

PURE COD LIVER OIL
WITH
HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so accepted that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet as honey to the taste, never separates, deposits no sediment, is pure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cents per bottle.

If we would only profit by our own experiences or the experiences ov others, it would be almost impossible for even lightning to strike us; but reather than do this we perfer to knok out what fu branes we hav got against somebody's stun wall, and then howl about the weakness ov reason or the malice ov fortune.

There is nothing that we have got so little ov, and nothing we think we have got so much ov, az originality.

It in the little bits ov things that fret and worry us; we kan dodge an elephant, but we kan't a fly.

It ain't so much the amount a man knos az the ability to use what he does know at the right time and place, that makes him a power.

A Story of Peter Cartwright.

The following good story is told of Peter Cartwright, the famous and eccentric Methodist preacher:

One day on approaching the ferry across the river Illinois, he heard the ferryman swearing terribly at the sermons of Peter Cartwright, and threatened that if ever he had to ferry the preacher across, and knew him he would drown him in the river.

"Stranger," he said, "I want you to put me across."

"Wait till I'm ready," said the ferryman, and pursued his conversation and strictures on Peter Cartwright. Having finished, he turned to Peter and said:

"Now I'll put you across."

On reaching the middle of the stream Peter threw his horse's bridle over a stake in the boat, and told the ferryman to let go his pole.

"What for?" asked the ferryman.

"Well, you've just been using my name improper-like, and you said if I ever came this way you would drown me. Now, you have a chance."

"Is your name Peter Cartwright?" asked the ferryman.

"My name is Peter Cartwright."

Instantly the ferryman laid hold of the preacher, but he did not know Peter's great strength, for Peter instantly seized the ferryman, and holding him by the nape of the neck, plunged him down into the water, saying:

"I baptize thee (splash) in the name of Satan, whose child thou art."

Then lifting him up, all dripping, Peter asked:

"Do you ever pray?"

"No."

"Then it's time you did."

"I'll do no such thing!" said the ferryman.

Splash! splash! and the ferryman was in the depths again.

"Will you pray now?" asked Peter.

"I'll do anything you bid me!" said the gasping victim.

"Then follow me—'Our Father, who art in Heaven,'" &c.

Having acted as clerk, repeating after Peter, the ferryman cried:

"Now let me go."

"Not yet," said Peter. "You must make me three promises; 1st, that you will repeat that prayer, morning and evening as long as you live; 2nd, that you will hear every pioneer preacher that comes within five miles of this ferry; 3rd, that you will put every Methodist preacher over free of expense. Do you promise and vow?"

"I promise," said the ferryman; and that very man became a shining light in the church.

MILLBRIDGE P. O. TUDOR, ONT

MESSRS. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—SIRS, I feal it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

An Infidel's Funeral.

The following eloquent tribute to the memory of a dead brother was pronounced over the body of Ebon C. Ingersoll by the noted Col. Robert Ingersoll, the infidel orator:—

My friends, I am going to do that which the dead oft promised he would do for me. The loved and loving mother, husband, father, friend, died where manhood's morning almost touches noon, and while the shadows still were falling toward the west. He had not past on the Hights Highway the stone that marks the highest point; but being weary for a moment he laid down at by the wayside, and using his burden for a pillow, fell into that dreamless sleep that kisses down his eyelids still. While yet in love with life and raptured with the world, he passed to silence and pathetic dust. Yet, after, all it may be best just to the happiest sunniest hour of all the voyage; while eager winds are kissing every sail, to dash against the unseen rock and in an instant hear the billows roar above a sunken ship. For whether in mid sea or among the breakers of the farther shore, a wreck must mark at last the end of each; and all and every life, no matter if its every hour is rich with love and every moment jeweled with a joy, will at its close, become a tragedy as sad and deep and dark as can be woven of the warp and woof of mystery and death. The brave and tender man in every storm of life was oak and rock, but in the sunshine he was vine and flower. He was the friend of all heroic souls. He climbed the heights and left all superstitions far below, while on his forehead fell the golden dawning of a grander day. He loved the beautiful, and was with color, form and music touched to tears. He sided with the weak, and with a willing hand gave alms with loyal heart and with the purest hands he fait fully discharged all public trusts. He was a worshipper of liberty, a friend of the oppressed. A thousand times I have heard him quote these words, "For justice all places a temple and all seasons a summer." He believed that happiness was the only good, reason the only torch, justice the only worship, humanity the only religion, and love the only priest. He added to the sum of human joy, and were every one for whom he did some loving service to bring a blossom to his grave he would sleep tonight beneath a wilderness of flowers. Life is a narrow vale between the cold and barren peaks of two eternities. We strive in vain to look beyond the heights. We cry aloud and the only answer is the echo of our wailing cry. From the voiceless lips of the unreplying dead there comes no word, but in the night of death hope sees a star, and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing. He who sleeps here, when dying, mistaking the approach of death for

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST,

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42 premium annually for the first three years $68.38 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The Protection Craze.

(From Glasgow Herald.)

There seems a kind of analogy between a certain phase of physical intoxication and the economic disorder which, in a sort of epidemic wave, is overspreading so many industrial centres of the world. At a certain point in his madness a man will often insist that every other member of the community but himself is hopelessly drunk. At the present stage of economic disorder every industrial nation chooses to consider every other industrial nation unduly elevated by fortune to its own discomfort and danger. If the Reciprocitarians could really state in precise terms what they actually want—and if they were honest enough to do so—the formula of each would be something like this:—"Protect my trade, but give us free competition in every other branch of industry." No doubt they will all hotly resent any such interpretation of their desires; but whether they are conscious of it or not, such is really what they mean. Like the man of many potations, they do not always recognise their own condition. But the curious thing is that not only are individual industries petitioning to be delivered from the evils of competition, but nations have taken to blaming each other for their own industrial distresses. Thus Canada declares that the United States paralyses her domestic industry by the wholesale consignment of goods to be "slaughtered." America complains that England makes her a vast lumber store from the surplus stocks of all products of the cheapest dispose of elsewhere. England declares that America is spoiling her markets and turning her industrial profits into actual losses by overloading us with goods which they cannot sell on the other side, and which we don't want here. Germany says—"Our cotton manufacturers cannot live because of the flood of Manchester goods which deluge our markets; our ironworks are idle because of the ceaseless torrent of English iron." But English ironmasters say—"We are starving because of German and Belgian competition;" while other industries groan, "All these are not for those German artisans, these German chemicals, that German paper, or soap, or something else, we could manage to get along." French manufacturers also are agitating for protection from English competition. What does it all mean? Are these things really so, or are visions about?" The effects of over facts. The English cotton manufacturer disturbs the repose of the Massachusetts millowner on his own ground just as much as the latter disorders the nerves of the Manchester man on his own exchange. German manufactures flood the English markets while English goods put the German manufacturers out of temper. There is practical retaliation everywhere, the result of the fashion of modern days for nations to pine after distant markets for the products they were heretofore content to produce for their own wants alone. The modern school of philosophers who write about "Free Trade" is, indeed, that eminent nobleman thinks at all—hope to change this anomalous state of matters by a sort of extention of the principle that exchange of goods so long as you let none free." Thus Reciprocity echoes the saying of Lowries muscular daughter, "You let me alone, an' all let thim alone."

Attention to the peculiar position of economic ideas to which we have alluded is recalled by the utterances of Prince Bismarck and others of the Protectionist party in the Reichstag the other day. "We require a moderate protective duty," said the Chancellor, "for we assurredly must perceive that we have become a refuge for the reception of the overproduction of other countries." Is not this exactly what the Canadians says, what the Americans say in a modified form, what the French are openly declaring; and what our own industrial producers are constantly asserting? What everybody says, according to the old dictum, must be true, and thus we have the curious position that every nation just now is prostrate under the effects of every nation's productiveness, or "over production," to use the favorite but delusive term of the day. Perhaps as consumers we should be disposed to use the term "fortunate recipients" instead of "victims," but this would arouse cries of horror from those who consider the object of commercein to benefit individuals and isolated industries, and not to improve the well-being of mankind at large. We are not going to attempt to argue with those who entertain such beliefs, and happily their number in our country is not large, though noisy. But we would just ask them to consider how far the retaliation which they seek in Reciprocity is not already at work as powerfully as they need wish, without any artificial aid? A century ago the manufacturing trade of England and England worrying that of Germany, while America, in tormenting them both and Canada also, has a bite taken out of her profits by the operation of Canadian protection—is not everything working in the direction they want? Whether they want or not, it must work in spite of them, and a new basis of operations formed by the irresistible composition of forces. It is idle at this time of day to argue in favor of anything so axiomatic as Free Trade. But some of the recent speakers in the German Reichstag, in the astounding statement, with an sublime indifference to facts and figures, might take the trouble to compare the statistics of the United Kingdom prior to and since 1860, and then compare these with the statistics of "protected" America. They may find therein something to qualify their assertions that England attained her present commercial position by the great system of free protective duties, and that America had only flourished because of such a system. Our readers are sufficiently familiar with the facts we have at various times adduced in confirmation of such statements. England adopted Free Trade because it was to her supreme advantage to do so. She did not do so in order to be an example to other nations, in order to be an example to other nations, but simply for her own good. If other nations cannot see the good we have derived we can not help it, we cannot force the good they may see for themselves by adopting similar tactics, why so much the worse for themselves. But it must be evident to the most ardent Protectionist that it is impossible for both England and Belgium and France and Mons. Tonyier-Quertier (not to mention the Americans and Canadians) to be right. Free Trade cannot be destroying our own commerce and that of every other country at the same time. Would not a little consideration of this discordance among Protectionists lead to a cessation to the hunt after that feeble phantom called Reciprocity?

The Daily Ontario

MONDAY EV. . 1 0, JUNE 9.

THE Montreal Gazette reluctantly concedes the Ontario elections to the Government, and says the majority will be about fifteen. The majority is nearly twice fifteen.

THE result of the Ontario elections will, it is conjectured, have a beneficial effect upon the coming contests in Rouville and Cambly, Quebec. There is much rejoicing over the Reform victory in Ontario by the Liberals of Quebec.

HERE is another specimen of stupidity and ferocity from the Mail: "Your sound Reformer will endure much for the sake of his party, but before Mr. Fraser gets through with him four years hence, he will be ready to admit that Rome charges a heavy price for her political services." The writer of that article is a co-religionist of Mr. Fraser, and knew he was penning a falsehood".

THE Mail is frantic over the defeat its party suffered last Thursday in Ontario. Unwilling to admit that the "N. P." has been on trial and condemned, even in the face of its anti-election protests, it now declares that "it is not 'Liberal ideas' nor the Reform party that have triumphed, but the Roman Catholic Church." In West Hastings fully two-thirds of the Roman Catholic electors voted against the Government candidate, while in the East Riding the majority supported Mr. Appleby.

THE Ottawa Citizen says the Opposition made a strong pull on Thursday, "but not quite strong enough to drive the Government from office." We should think not. The Government went into the contest with a majority of fifteen; and came out with one of twenty-eight, which may be increased one or two more. The general opinion is that there was not much strength in such a pull as that. It is probable the Citizen will ascertain after a time that the Reformers refused to pull with the Conservatives, and hence the result.

THE old Reform riding of South Wentworth rests under a temporary cloud. Mr. Carpenter, the Opposition candidate, has been declared elected by a majority of three votes. This is an event unlooked for in the history of such a staunch Reform borough, and a cause is assigned. In the first place, a poll was closed before five o'clock, and when several Reform votes were waiting to be recorded. In the second place, instances of the most bare-faced bribery are reported. A recount of the votes cast will be demanded.

MR. GIBSON has been elected in Hamilton by a considerable majority, as a supporter of the Mowat Government. The people of the "Ambitious City" are now curious to know what Messrs. Kilvert and Robertson "are going to do about it." Just before the election, Mr. Robertson, in an address at Germania Hall, declared that if Mr. Gibson, the Reform candidate, were elected for the Local Legislature, the result would be acceptable as proof that he (Mr. Robertson) and his friend Mr. Kilvert, M. P., were occupying seats in the Dominion Parliament under false pretences.

East Northumberland.

We predicted the election of Mr. Ferris in this constituency, and were not disappointed. The Trent Navigation Works fiasco, at Ottawa, only increased his popularity, and exposed more fully the miserable subterfuges by which Mr. Keeler and his party friends expected to obtain a victory in the Local election. The action taken by Mr. Ferris towards having the submerged land drained met with the hearty approval of all persons interested, if we except a few having mills at the dam. Herculean efforts were put forth to compass his defeat, but the result of the polling shows him elected by a majority of 48.

Prince Edward.

The old Peninsular County has once more redeemed her name from reproach. Mr. Striker has again carried the Reform banner to victory, and for the third or fourth time Mr. Clapp is a defeated aspirant after Parliamentary honors. The success of Mr. McCuaig in the September elections raised high the hopes of the Conservatives, and they entered the late contest certain of a majority for their candidate of not less than 150. Several members of the party expressed their willingness to stake almost any amount of money on the result of the polling last Thursday, and scouted the idea that there was the least possibility of Mr. Striker succeeding. The "N. P." was used by Mr. McCuaig as a lever to give his protege a "powerful" lift, but the electors had examined the elephant, and their vote showed what they thought of the animal. We heartily congratulate Mr. Striker on his splendid victory.

West Hastings

We confess to a great disappointment with the result of the election in West Hastings. With the returns before us, it is somewhat difficult to account for such a large majority for Mr. Robertson. Several persons have expressed their ability to prove acts of bribery on the part of the Opposition, but this charge we will not enquire into now. There was undoubtedly an influence exerted among a certain class of voters, favorably to Mr. Robinson's candidature, which, under the circumstances, was not only anomalous but surprising. The Government was supposed to stand unquestionably well with the Roman Catholics of the Province; and it was equally certain that the Orange boys had combined its whole strength on the Opposition side. It was only reasonable therefore, for Mr. Holden to expect the almost unanimous support of the Catholic electors of West Hastings. Instead of this being the case, however, he was, with the exception of about twenty votes, opposed by that class en masse. When Hon. Mr. Fraser visited the city a short time before the election, he received hearty assurances of approval and Government support from many who, subsequently, made themselves conspicuous in opposing Mr. Holden. Father Farrelly is an active politician and his antipathy towards the Reform party is notorious. He publicly announced his determination to do what was in his power to secure Mr. Robertson's election, and resolutely carried out his intention. To this strange blending of the Orange and Green in West Hastings, and other agencies to which we have referred, Mr. Holden owes his defeat.

And, aside from all this, there is still something mysterious connected with the returns. A majority of 337 votes in a constituency that has been looked upon as evenly balanced, or leaning in the opposite direction, must be accounted for some way. The defection among Roman Catholics was not the only cause. Many professed Reformers must have voted for Mr. Robertson on other than sectarian grounds. They may have anticipated the sure defeat of the Mowat Government, and, for reasons best known to themselves, desired to be on the winning side. But, let their motives be what they may, to-day, and for the ensuing four years, they are practically disfranchised. This may be some consolation, but it's doubtful.

The Splendid Victory.

Says the Toronto Telegram:—

The Tories were never so sure of winning an election before. They spoke in the most confident manner of the probable result, and their organs in the press predicted the splendid victory that was to be won before the sun set on polling day. But the splendid victory was the other way, and for the Tories there was noting but woe. Probably the most disgusted member of the party is Senator Macpherson, who had gone to no end of trouble in preparing a lengthy indictment of facts, figures and fiction, but which seems to have turned out to be blank cartridge. When people saw him take up the cudgels in defence of the Patteson appointment they began to suspect that he was not so great a non-partizan as he pretended to be, and so they fought shy of him.

Casual Remarks.

—The report of last meeting of South Hastings Teachers' Institute has been received, and will appear to-morrow.

—We direct attention to an article from the Glasgow Herald, on "The Protection Craze," which appears on first page of this issue.

—To read the Kingston News you would not think there had been a Reform victory in Ontario, but you would know that Mr. Metcalf had been elected in Kingston.

—There is considerable dissatisfaction in Toronto over the unsatisfactory condition of the 10th Royals Regiment, and Col. Strollery is charged with incompetency.

—The Vice-Regal party have been experiencing some disagreeable weather in Quebec. On Saturday there was quite a fall of snow. Quite a change from Kingston.

—Note this:— The decrease in the amount of Customs duties received at the Custom Houses in one month, at nine of the principal ports, was $155,000. The "N. P." did it.

—There are 88 votes on Garden Island and Mr. Calvin got every one, for very good reasons. Is there any wonder he carried the County of Frontenac? With such a pocket-borough no opponent has a fair chance.

—Thursday night the Minister of Customs was on the Market Square. He shook his hoary locks, and with stentorian lungs shouted: "We have to-day swept Gritism from Ontario, and never again will it raise its head." An hour later Mr. Bowell was on his way to Ottawa, and he took a through berth in the sleeping car.

—One of the orators at the Tory jubilee last Thursday night, just before the returns came in announcing a Reform victory, electrified his hearers by declaring that "the Grits were now squelched from the Atlantic to the Pacific." A little later this same gentleman was seen creeping along Bridge street, well under the shade of the trees, cogitating upon the uncertainty of things sublunary.

—That was biting carcasm we heard from a discomfitted Tory Saturday night. He assumed a theatrical mien, and shouted that the ONTARIO was flying a flag in honor of the success of "a pound-keeper up at Toronto." Well, if Mr. Mowat, Premier of Ontario, is nothing but a "pound-keeper" what is Mr. Robertson, one of the 28 Opposition members elected? He must be something more, for this sarcastic gentleman shouted himself hoarse over his success in West Hastings.

Financial Matters in Montreal.

AN UNSATISFACTORY CONDITION.

A telegram from Montreal says:—The condition of financial matters here is extremely unsatisfactory, if not alarming. Since the suspension of the Merchants' Bank and the failure of S. J. Claxton & Co. the bills of banks are closely scrutinized, and a broker informed your correspondent to-day that numbers of tradesmen had asked him if bills of certain French Canadian banks were good. In some cases these have been refused by private individuals. The Molsons' and Merchants' Banks are taking bills of certain French Canadian banks from customers only on the understanding that the Bank is to be guaranteed from loss. The result of this feeling of apprehension is that the circulation of several small banks must decrease and it is to be hoped they are prepared for it. The Manager of the French Canadian Bank referred to, said he would take proceedings for damages against a certain broker who had refused its bills, but he has not done so. The impression is that we are on the eve of great financial troubles, the result of too much banking capital in the past.

—The idea that you can read a man's thoughts in his face is all bosh. Look the man in the face who borrowed $10 of you a year ago "for a day or two," and it expresses nothing but blackness—the blackest kind.

North Hastings.

It is now stated that all the returns have been received from the northern townships of this Riding, and Dr. Boulter has a clear majority of 51. If so, then Mr. Van Kleek did not do nearly so well in that section as he anticipated. He greatly reduced the Dr.'s former majority in the front townships, and had he stood equally as well on the Hastings Road his election would have been sure. We have not received the figures, but expect the above majority for Boulter will be confirmed.

Election Echoes.

(London Advertiser.)

Let's see: Is there not a Senator Macpherson or something that does some talking?

The contested and by-elections will be apt to still further increase Mr. Mowat's majority.

E. King Dodds, the Tory whiskey prophet, has been handsomely defeated in Monck.

"Our temperature has many ups and downs."—F. P. Oh, yes. Way up at 8 o'clock p. m. on the 5th of June; way down at 9 o'clock p. m. on the 5th of June.

Five Catholics were elected by Reformers and only two by the Opposition. This shows which party was sincere in its desire to give fair play to the minority.

Senator Macpherson, the champion cypherer, should now take the Ontario election returns and prove that Mr. Mowat is in a decided minority. It's easy enough according to his system of handling figures.

Mr. Meredith spoke at Chatham, Guelph, St. Thomas, Richmond Hill, Wingham, Parkhill, Exeter and Lucan; and every Riding in which he spoke answered his speech by electing supporters of Mr. Mowat.

Amid the universal smash-up, there is still consolation for the Tories in the fact that they saved Tooley from the general wreck.

South Grey only gave 817 against Mr. James Fahey, the Irish Canadian's special pet. That is a rather small majority considering.

In its last issue the Irish Canadian declared "that the Government of this Province shall be handed over at once to that happy conjunction of Irish blood which is typified in the fellowship of Meredith and Fahey." Now, will Brother Boyle kindly hand it over and say no more about it?

"I made my little speech on the platform of the City Hall."—Ald. Egan. You did, James, you did. And you made it in Huron too. But where's Pat Kelly now?

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman too:—
For thousands cry with eager breath,
"They saved me from the jaws of death!
All ye ailing give me need,
'Tis National Pills your system needs.
Immense the rush for these Pills;
Which cure so many woeful ills.

Lennox.

Mr. Hawley has redeemed this constituency, and deserves honor for accomplishing so much. Flushed with their victory last September over Hon. Mr. Cartwright, and encouraged by previous records for their party in Local contests, the Conservatives professed to be amused over the nomination of an unpretending Fredericksburg farmer to enter the arena with their redoubtable Roe. The polling last Thursday gave the Reform candidate a majority of 15, with prospects of an increase on a recount. Well done, Lennox.

Joking at Defeat.

The Hamilton Spectator takes the result philosophically, and perpetrates a number of squibs, of which the following are samples:

Somebody had to be licked.

There is no balm in Gilead.

Tories will be terribly scarce around town to-day.

It is tough to be thrashed by common Grits.

"Better luck next time"—must now be our motto.

Our consolation—we didn't have to pay or the haul.

Did you ever see a sicker looking crowd than we are?

We wouldn't mind the beating—but, these bets gentlemen, those bets.

Now, Mr. Gibson, you've got your seat, but it isn't a cushioned one, anyway.

About two thousand men will now claim that they belong to the glorious fifty-nine.

Blowed if we'd be bothered with a majority that wasn't greater that 100.

As the Times remarked in 1872, the reason we were whipped was because we hadn't votes enough.

A Bad Situation.

(From the New York Sun.)

Sarah Copeland of Union Spring, Ala., is in a grevious predicament. She says that she is partly of negro descent, and that her white fellow-citizens, regarding her of mixed blood, refused to associate with her. Discarded by the whites, she sought the society of the colored race, and became the wife of a negro named James Ivey. Now the whites who had declined to recognize her as a Caucasian declare that she has violated the law prohibiting the intermarriage of races, and she has been arrested and indicted. Sarah complains that it was not fair to turn her away as having a negro taint, and then to prosecute her for assuming the marriage relation with a member of the negro race. She is not the only woman in the South whose share of negro blood is so small as to be hardly discernible, and who may come within the legal definition of a white person, and yet is actually regarded and treated as of negro extraction. What is to become of such women? White men will not marry them, and as in the case of Sarah, if they marry negroes they are consigned to the penitentiary.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

IN making some excavations to widen the bed of the Tiber, the discovery has been made, in the garden of the Farnesina Palace, of an extremely elegant chamber which once formed part of a sumptuous habitation of the early times of Imperial Rome. The ceiling is of the most beautiful stucco, with figures and ornaments in relief in an excellent state of preservation. The walls are painted in the Pompeilan style. Some of the figures have very graceful features and profiles, resembling by their delicacy the celebrated Ichthos of Attica. In the diggings in the Forum the bases of statutes with inscriptions of the Imperial epoch have been found.

COLS. Wood and Buller, who seem to be reaping the laurels of the Zulu campaign, are about 40. Col. Wood is the son of the late Sir John Wool, Bart., and nephew of ex-Lord Chancellor Hatherley, better known to lawyers here as Vice-Chancellor Sir Wm. Page Wood. His sister Lady Barret Lennord, has written some excellent novels. Col. Buller is head of a very influential and ancient West country family, which some thirty years ago returned five or six members to Parliament. Col. Buller has extensive property in Devon and Cornwall.

THE editor of the Boston Transcript says: "More than twenty-five years ago a little boy, not yet in his teens, took his first lesson in 'the art and mystery' of printing from a gentleman in middle life, who explained how the 'case' was arranged and why, and practically exemplified the process of 'setting up' type. 'This, my boy,' he said in a serious tone, yet with a kind smile, as he placed his hand on the lever of an old fashioned Franklin hand press, 'is the most powerful weapon known in the hands of bad men it is dangerous; in the hands of good men it can work miracles. We hope to abolish slavery with it.' That boy was the writer—that man was William Lloyd Garrison."

MILLBRIDGE P. O. TUDOR, ONT.

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil.

Belleville—Anglo-American Hotel, June 7 & 9

Picton—Cosmopolitan Hotel, June 10 & 11.

Napanee—Campbell House, June 12 & 13.

Mr. Hotchkin's treatment is pratical, rational and economical. Its object is immediate relief and eventual cure. It is based upon scientific principles and easily demonstrated to the comprehension of every intelligent person, that a truss without a steel spring or hard substance, having healed inguinal and Umbellical as well as Varicocele, at the advanced ages respectively from 65 to 92 years must and will stand the test against all Spring Trusses. Trusses for children as well as adults. Mr. H's post office address is Albion, Orleans County, New York. Go early the first day, before the crowd gets in.

Local & General

County Council.—The June session of the County Council will commence to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

County Court.—The County Court and General Sessions of the Peace will open to-morrow. The docket is not heavy.

To-night.—Cool Johnston's Burlesque Opera Company have arrived, and will give a performance at the Opera House to-night. The play for this evening is "The Grand Duchess," and should draw a good house.

Confirmation.—On Thursday next the Bishop of Ontario will hold a confirmation service at Christ Church, on which the work of renovation is nearly finished. We understand a large number will be confirmed.

New Livery Business.—Messrs. Hunter & Ketcheson have opened a livery business in the large brick building at the west end of the lower bridge. Their rigs and horses are all new, and will be found second to none in the country, and will, no doubt, be well patronized.

Springless Trusses.—Dr. Hotchkin, the springless truss man, who has been here since Friday night, and whose business has been good, leaves for Picton to-morrow morning, where he will remain a couple of days. He goes from there to Napanee, and thence to Kingston.

Police Court.—Edward Clancey for assaulting Mrs. Hannah, about two weeks since, was fined by the P. M. $10 or two months in jail. He took the two months. A case of violation of the liquor license act against the Captain of the steamer Alexandra, was laid over until Monday next.

Emigrants.—The Whig says:—A large number of emigrants have been sent out to the Madoc and Marmora mines by the Kingston Immigration agent. They are principally men from Durham, England, the scene of the big mining strikes, in consequence of which the miners have emigrated to Canada. They will, no doubt, assist greatly in developing the mineral resources of the country.

Change of Time.—A change of time came into effect on the Grand Trunk Railway this morning. The local train will leave here at 4 a.m., instead of at 2:30 as formerly, and on Monday mornings at 6:42 a.m. The evening express goes up at 6:15, the same as before, and the morning express at 6:42 instead of 6:50. The noon train going east leaves at 12:08, one minute later than before. The midnight express leaves at 11:40 instead of at 12:25, and the mixed at 7:15, the same time as before.

On The Tramp.—Saturday evening a couple of printers of this city, whose funds, like all other printers, were rather low, made up their minds to visit Trenton for the purpose of spending an hour or two with their girls. They took shank's mare for it, and notwithstanding the weather was very warm, reached their destination some four hours after leaving here, nothing the worse for their walk, only very much dirtier than when they started. Under cover of night they again took the highway for home, making raids upon the milk-cans which had been set out for the factory as they came along. After all the "bunking" they did while with their girls, and the large amount of milk consumed on the road, they were pretty sick boys when they reached here.

☞A good imported Havana Cigar for 5 cents at McDonald's.

The Cells.—There was only one prisoner in the cells during yesterday and last night.

Again Postponed.—Owing to the heavy rain which fell last night and to-day, the horse races which were to come off this afternoon had to be postponed until to-morrow. The track will, by that time, be in good condition, and a fine race may be expected.

Weather Bulletin.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate to fresh southeasterly to southwesterly winds; partly cloudy to clear warmer weather.

The Reform Demonstration.—At a meeting held on Saturday evening the following route for to-morrow night's procession was settled upon:—After forming upon the market square, the procession will move up Front Street to the Station, returning by Emily street to Pinnacle, down Pinnacle to Hotel, up Hotel to Charles, down Charles to Bridge, down Bridge to George, up George to Queen, down Queen to John, down John to Bridge, down Bridge to Pinnacle, down Pinnacle to Dundas, thence to Front Street, and up Front to the market square. Here the procession will break up, and speeches will be delivered by several prominent gentlemen from a distance, who have been invited to attend. All friends of the Mowat Government, along the line of march are requested to illuminate their premises in honor of the occasion. Parties having teams will greatly oblige by bringing them out.

Bavan's Wafers (the great public remedy) have now been in use over twenty years, hence it cannot be said that they are untried. They have been thoroughly tried, and pronounced (on the authority of those whose lives and health they have preserved) to be a sure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation, and if taken in season will invariably cure colds, coughs, sore throat, and all bronchial affections. One fair trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cents per box.

☞Style, elegance, location, moderate, and choice of either the American plan $2.50 to $3.00 or the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards, meals in this elegant Restaurant attached to the house, all unite in giving the travellers more for the same money, at the Grand Central Hotel, New York, than elsewhere.

—More rain.

—Most time for new potatoes.

—The average boy is getting feverish for a circus show.

—There was a good deal of boating indulged in yesterday.

—Now is the time to grumble at the almost incessant rains.

—Cool Johnson's burlesque company at the Opera House to-night.

—The Orangemen of this city have been invited to visit Mill Point on the 12th of July.

—Every friend of the Mowat Government is asked to illuminate to-morrow evening.

—The Kingston News is still crowing over Mr. Robertson's defeat. This is, perhaps, on account of their man's affinity with roosters.

—Two prominent Tory orators met on Dundas Street Saturday morning. Each one saw the other coming and dropped his chin two inches lower on his breast, their faces also presented a very elongated appearance. At last they ventured to look in each other's face as they met, and heaving a deep sigh 1st N. P. orator remarked, "Well, I never!" 2nd N. P. ditto, with a deeper sigh; "What! never?" 1st N. P ditto: "Well—" A ghastly smile played over their intellectual physiogs, and they then separated, half convinced that the great N. P. must be a gigantic fraud.

The English members of the Manitoba Legislature will endeavour to pass measures to dispense with French printing, to effect a redistribution of seats, a large expenditure on roads the promotion of increased boundaries of the province, a careful application of the school money in proportion to the sum voted for education, economiest expenditure in all branches of the service, and the establishment of any Assize Court in the West when deemed necessary.

A Thrilling Affair.

Baltimore, June 3.—John Henry Brotzan, a brutal looking negro, has been jailed at Salisbury, Md., for entering the chamber of Miss Mills, while sleeping at her father's residence, in the country, and attempting to assault her. Through Mr. Mill's effort a lynching was averted. Brotzan had been employed as a farm hand. On the night of the attempted outrage the family retired to bed as usual, the sons to the upper part of the house and the husband and wife and daughter in the lower part. About midnight the daughter, a pretty girl, was awakened by the negro. She finally gathered courage to scream out that some one was in the room. Springing out of his own bed, the father groped his way in the darkness toward his daughter's and, as he did so, came face to face with the negro. Winding his arms around him, Mr. Mills held on, while the wife, who was also awakened by the daughter's scream, jumped out of bed and ran up stairs to awaken the boys. The struggle was a desperate one. The negro, hit kicked and bit like a madman. The old man held on tenaciously. The boys rushed down stairs, threw the negro to the ground and overpowered him. He was then taken to a tree near by and securely fastened. The boys were almost mad with rage. Leaving the prisoner in charge of their father, they returned to the house, picked up their guns, and quickly made their way to the negro The old man, suspecting their intention stood up in front of the negro, and waved them back. The boys pushed their father aside, but Mr. Mills was equal to the occasion. Commanding the boys to keep a safe distance, he took his place by the side of the negro, and declared that the law and not he should be the avenger. They still persisted in their efforts to get possession of the prisoner, but the father was firm, and told them that he must be handed over to the proper authorities. The young men then left, the spot, saying they would consent to their father's wishes. Mr. Mills, for the rest of the night and until long after daybreak walked up and down in front of his prisoner, guarding him against the expected attack of his sons. Next morning the black villian was taken before Justice Fooks, and committed for trial.

An Infidel's Funeral.

The following eloquent tribute to the memory of a dead brother was pronounced over the body of Ebon C. Ingersoll by the noted Col. Robert Ingersoll, the infidel orator:—

My friends, I am going to do that which the dead oft promised he would do for me. The loved and loving mother, husband, father, friend, died where manhood's morning almost touches noon, and while the shadows still were falling toward the west. He had not past on Life's highway the stone that marks the highest point; but being weary for a moment he laid down by the wayside, and using his burden for a pillow, fell into that dreamless sleep that kisses down his eyelids still. While yet in love with life and raptured with the world, he passed to silence and pathetic dust. Yet, after, all it may be best just in the happiest sunniest hour of all (the voyage) while eager winds are kissing every sail, to dash against the unseen rock and in an instant hear the billows roar above a sunken ship. For whether in mid sea or among the breakers of the farther shore, a wreck must mark at last the end of each and all and every life, no matter if its every hour is rich with love and every moment jeweled with a joy, will at its close, become a tragedy as sad and deep and dark as can be woven of the warp and woof of mystery and death. The brave and tender man in every storm of life was oak and rock, but in the sunshine he was vine and flower. He was the friend of all heroic souls. He climbed the heights and left all superstitions far below, while on his forehead fell the golden dawning of a grander day. He loved the beautiful, and was with color, form and music touched to tears. He sided with the weak, and with a willing hand gave alms with loyal heart and with the purest hands he fait hfully discharged all public trusts. He was a worshipper of liberty, a friend of the oppressed. A thousand times I have heard him quote these words, "For justice all places a temple and all seasons a summer." He believed that happiness was the only good, reason the only torch, justice the only worship, humanity the only religion, and love the only priest. He added to the sum of human joy, and were every one for whom he did some loving service to bring a blossom to his grave he would sleep to-night beneath a wilderness of flowers. Life is a narrow vale between the cold and barren peaks of two eternities. We strive in vain to look beyond the heights. We cry aloud and the only answer is the echo of our wailing cry. From the voiceless lips of the unreplying dead there comes no word, but in the night of death hope sees a star, and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing. He who sleeps here, when dying, mistaking the approach of death for the return of health, whispered with his latest breath, "I am better now." Let us believe, in spite of doubts and dogmas and fears, that these dear words are true of all the countless dead. And now to you who have been chosen from among the many he loved to do the last sad office for the dead we give his sacred dust. Speech cannot contain our love. There was, there is, no gentler, stronger, manlier man.

But One Opinion prevails throughout the world, and that is so strongly in favor of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer that no other article ever attained so wide spread popularity.

I have derived much benefit from using Fellows' Hypophosphites in chronic constipation. John B. Moore, Forrest City, Montana.

A Joy Forever.—Such is the fine head of hair, its the pride of youth and the glory of age. Alcoholic and mineral washes should never be used: simple and healthful preparations are best; such is Bearine, use no other.

Hanlan's Practice for the Approaching Race.

ELLIOTT DOING GOOD WORK.

(Special Cablegram to the Globe.)

Newcastle-on-Tyne, June 7.

This afternoon Hanlan took a four-mile spin at an exercise pace. There was a strong wind blowing, and the water was rough. In the afternoon he rowed over the Tyne championship course. The first mile was made at top racing speed, but the remaining distance was done at an easy pace.

(Associated Press Despatch)

Newcastle, June 8.—Twenty thousand people witnessed the practice of Elliot today. He made 36 to 38 strokes to the minute, and out-pulled the eight-oared cutter of which Wm. Renforth was the stroke. Hanlan did not exceed his customary stroke.

Latest From Capetown.

Cetewayo offering terms of peace.—his good faith suspected.

Capetown, May 23.—Cetewayo on the 16th inst. despatched an envoy to Col. Crealock asking him to send a European to discuss terms of peace. John Dunn accordingly went to Cetewayo's kraal, but returned, negotiations having failed because the British refuse any terms but unconditional surrender. Cetewayo's good faith is doubted. It is thought probable he will shortly throw his whole strength against the Lower Tugela column. The contemplated rapid march against Cetewayo's kraal at Ulundi has been abandoned. The transport difficulties are increasing, owing to the scarcity of grass. The health of the troops is improving. It is reported that Major Chard, who distinguished himself at Rorke's Drift, has died of fever.

London, June 8.—A special Maritzburg report says the reports of the death of Major Chard and Cetewayo's brother Dabulmauzi are dented.

A despatch from Landsman's drift, May 13, says that spies report there are four Zulu armies in the eastern angle of Zululand designed to enter the colony.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

Washington, June 9.—The plague in Southern Russia is now almost extinct. Regulations imposing restrictions upon the importation of rags &c., into the United States have been revoked.

St. Louis, Mo., June 9.—Excitement over Communistic threats of striking hod carriers. The strikers' places have been filled. Strikers have posted threatening placards.

Lincoln, Neb., June 9.—Convicts named Smith and O'Brien had a fight at State Penitentiary yesterday. The guards fired upon them wounding O'Brien probably fatally.

Middletown, Del., June 9.—The peach crop of northern part of Delaware now promises very small yield.

Westminister, Md., June 9.—A social sensation was created by an encounter between two suitors for the hand of a daughter of Prof. Brackett, of Western Maryland College. One of the contestants, a student at the college, was arrested, expalled from college, and sent home in charge of a constable. He returned ahead of the constable and married Miss Brackett same day.

Boston, June 9.—Stated that stories of danger to water works supplying Charlestown and East Boston from poisoning by vitriol are without foundation. The quantity which ran into the brook is largely over estimated.

New York, June 9.—The Tribune says is reported Gen. Chas. F. Manderson, of Nebraska, has been tendered the war portfolio.

A leading Southern representative says it any of the appropriation bills are vetoed McCrary's nomination will be rejected.

Indian Commissioner Hoyt denies he has tendered his resignation.

Bishop Corrigan ordered collections in Catholic churches in New Jersey last Sunday of this month toward the payment of Archbishop Purcell's debts.

John Brown, aged 7, died yesterday from the effect of a kick in the abdomen during a quarrel Saturday with James Lahey, aged 11.

In an interview with a reporter, Don Asto Burnoga, Chilian Minister, who arrived from Santiago Saturday, said the war feeling all over Chili was very high. Subscriptions are pouring into the Treasury from private persons and societies for the prosecution of the war. Chili is well prepared for the conflict, but finances are very low. Arrangements have been made with foreign bondholders to suspend the sinking fund, but interest will be paid regularly.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

St. Petersburg, June 9.—Saloviff, who attempted the assassination of the Emperor, was hanged this morning.

Calcutta, June 9.—Advices have been received representing that the Anglo-Afghan treaty greatly increases British prestige in Persia.

Fourty thousand camels belonging to the British transport service died during the war in Afghanistan.

Severe type of cholera has made its appearance in lower Bolan Pass.

London, June 9.—The Times says the recent rise in cotton in Liverpool is a God-send to a long suffering centre of commercial inactivity. But for this relief, there must have been a crash. Nothing more opportune, has happened commercial affair for a long time. While the rise is only temporary, it has enabled banks and speculators to escape a perilous position, and has averted a collapse otherwise inevitable.

London, June 9—Bismarck will arrive to-day. Duke of Edinburgh will arrive Tuesday, to represent British Royalty on the occasion of Imperial fete. The act of grace whereby the Emperor intends to signalize his golden wedding, will only apply to Prussia, but other German states may initiate his example.

Manchester, June 9.—The Guardian's Paris correspondent says Bordeaux radicals propose to again elect Blanqui to the Chamber of Deputies.

A Truism.—Constant grinding at the mill of life, perpetual loss of vital force, will drain the strongest man to the dust; it is manifest therefore that the system must be kept supplied with a due amount of oxydizable phosphorus. The pleasantest and most palatable way in which it can be introduced into the system is by the use of Victoria Hypophosphites which is the only and blood food in the world. ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

Worth ten times its weight in gold—pain cannot stay where it is used

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stopes the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every discription on man and beast.

—Beware of Imitations.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the name Northrup & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHUP & LYMAN Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical appliances. It contains new medicinal elements which in combination with rubber, possess the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any physician in your own locality will confirm the above statement. For lame back, rheumatism, Female Weakness, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, diseased Kidneys Whooping cough, affections of the heart, and all ills for which porous plasters are used, it is simply the best known remedy. SCOTT'S EMULSION

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweetened palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits no pills. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

There is no such a thing as too much energy. I have seen those who were like a young hound in the chase, get away ahead of the fox.

If we would only profit by our own experiences or the experiences of others, it would be almost impossible for even lightning to strike us; but rather than do this we prefer to knock out what few brains we have got against somebody's stun wall, and then howl about the weakness or reason or the malice or fortune.

There is nothing that we have got so little of, and nothing we think we have got so much of, as originality.

It is the little bits of things that fret and worry us; we can dodge an elephant, but we can't a fly.

It ain't so much the amount a man knows as the ability to use what he does know at the right time and place, that makes him a power.

I'm been trying to find out for the last forty years at what time of life a man is the most phoolish, and just as soon as I find out, I will let you know.

The hardest man to convince is the one who agrees to everything you say.

There are a grate many roads that lead to heaven, but after ya get there, only one gateway to enter.

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made by the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affection of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not bogus people in unheard of localities or the foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputation of any pills before the public.

Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities as the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY

JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system fortifies the youthful constitution for the duties of life, and when taken in middle or old age, proves a real blessing; and on the approach of childbirth these pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; the benefits to be derived are incalculable; they purify the constitution; lessen the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with comfort to herself and child. In all cases of of Nervous Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites and Blues these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and, although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything injurious to the constitution. Full directions in the pamphlet surrounded each package. JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. $1.00 and 25 cts a box for pills enclosed by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agent for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 20 pills, by return mail. For sale by all druggists in Belleville, G. T. Wilson' Madw, G. H. Bowker, Stirling, W. C. Parks' Trenton, and all medicine dealers.

MARRIAGE is a solemn thing—a choice for life; be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for female complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Buchu and Uva Ursa. It is now extensively prescribed by all respectable physicians. Bright's disease of the kidneys, diabetes etc., may be overcome by Buchu if taken in time. For sale by all druggists in Belleville.

Sewing Machiues,

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

And Must Supercede All Others

Manufacturers in every department of trade, in which Sewing Machines are used, are daily throwing out Shuttle Machines, and use in their stead the WHEELER & WILSON which have Rotary Motion.

HEADS OF FAMALIES:

Will consider their own interest by refusing to buy what MANUFACTURERS DISCARD. ROTARY MOTION ENSURES DURABILITY SPEED, QUIETNESS, AND EASE OF OPERATION. These are the ONLY MACHINES that can be used successfully in the manufacture of Shirts, Cuffs, Collars, and all KINDS OF WHITE UNDERWEAR.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

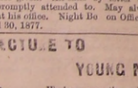
A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!



We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRIATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physicial Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years succesful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

THE ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policies are on its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

The Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows:—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63.88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.98 to	$56.90
" 5th "	" 10.49 "	53.48
" 6th "	" 17.30 "	46.68
" 7th "	" 20.73 "	43.15
" 8th "	" 25.89 "	37.99
" 9th "	" 36.65 "	27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

South Hastings Teachers' Institute.

The semi-annual meeting of the Institute was held in the Central School Buildings on Thursday, and Friday, 29th and 30th ult. The President, J. Johnston, I. P. S., in the chair.

In addition to the very large attendance of teachers the following gentlemen were also present:—Rev. J. W. Burke, W. Mackintosh, I. P. S., North Hastings, G. D. Anderson, Dr. Prince Edward Co., Mr. Anderson, Dr. Palmer, Principal of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Mr. I. Diamond, Mr. W. Johnson and Dr. Potts.

After the usual routine business had been disposed of, the Institute proceeded to elect the officers for the ensuing year, with the following results:

PRESIDENT.—J. Johnston, I. P. S.
VICE-PRESIDENT.—H. M. Hicks, M. A.
SEC.-TREAS.—S. A. Gardner.
COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT.—Messrs. O'Hagan, Stickney, Anderson, Gilbert and Miss Stewart.

The President then gave his annual address, reviewing the past year's work and the present condition of the schools under his jurisdiction. The address was replete with subject matter for thought and useful hints to teachers on nearly every subject bearing on our public schools.

Prof. Dawson followed with some excellent remarks on the preparation of lessons, by teachers before attempting to teach them.

Tablets by Miss J. Macinnis, Pinnacle St. School, was the next subject taken up. By the aid of one of her classes she illustrated her method of teaching reading (and arithmetic to a class just commencing, going over the course in both subjects given to the pupils in Part I, First Book, and acquitted herself in a creditable manner, showing that she is acquainted with the more improved methods of teaching this, one of the most difficult classes to teach well, in our Public Schools.

Mr. Kenny followed, giving his method of teaching Notation, Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication, Division and Reduction both mental and slate, to junior classes. He urged teachers to give plenty of mental questions previous to working them on the slates, and also to give plenty of practical work in connection with each rule. Mr. Kenny handled the subject with his usual ability.

On the motion of Mr. H. M. Hicks, seconded by A. H. Gilbert, S. A. Gardner was appointed delegate to the Provincial Association to be held in Toronto.

The first subject taken up during the afternoon session, was Algebra, by Dr. McLellan, Senior High School Inspector, who, for over an hour and a half discussed Fractions and the principles of factoring. It was undoubtedly the best address ever delivered before the Institute on this subject.

Mr. Thos. O'Hagan, head master of the Separate School, read a very eloquent address on "Self-culture."

At the request of the Institute, Mr. O'Hagan consented to have it published.

Mr. Irwin, head master of the County Model School, followed with an excellent Exposition of Sentences, for junior classes, showing how he would teach the different parts of speech, their definitions, and the various kinds of dependent propositions.

Mr. G. Platt congratulated the teachers on the large attendance and the interest taken by teachers in the proceedings.

Mr. Milburn, Belleville High School, explained his method of teaching Physical Geography, particularly the Geological formation, mountain and river systems, configuration of the land, and the effects these have on the civilization, commerce, occupations &c. of the inhabitants.

In the evening a Conversazione was held in the City Hall which was crowded to its utmost capacity, with an intelligent and appreciative audience, and a programme of the best local talent was presented and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

In the morning session Mr. King gave an address on the advantage to be derived from a thorough knowledge of Phrenology, giving some excellent hints on the benefits that follow a careful study of one's self.

Mr. Anderson followed with an eloquent address on the same subject, and at the close a vote of thanks was tendered him, to which he replied in suitable terms. An animated discussion followed, in which part was taken by several of the teachers.

Reading, second Book, by Miss Potter, Octavia St. School, was the next subject. By the aid of one of her classes she gave a practical explanation of her method of arousing a lesson previous to its home preparation, afterwards the recitation of the same, including reading, meanings of the words, correction of errors, and finally the dictation of a more difficult work, showing herself a very easily made one of the most pleasing in the schoolroom.

H. M. Hicks, M.A., Head Master, Trenton, High School, then gave his method of teaching Composition, recommending the use of Swinton's Language Lessons, and frequently causing pupils to write out from memory the substance of one of their lessons.

Mr. Parker read a very eloquent and interesting paper on "The Teacher of yesterday, to-day and to-morrow" which at the request of the Institute he consented to publish.

In the afternoon Dr. McLellan, gave a exposition of his method of teaching Mental and Slate Arithmetic from the beginning through Fractions, in his usual easy, lucid style. This subject of itself would more than repay any teacher for his time and trouble in attending the Institute.

Drawing by Miss Stewart, Trenton High School, was the next subject taken up. She gave her plan of teaching pupils the much neglected subject, including the different geometrical forms, copy and dictation drawing, acquitting herself in a highly creditable manner and showing that she thoroughly understands her subject.

At the request of several teachers Dr. McLellan explained some difficulties in Algebra after which it was moved by Prof. Dawson seconded by J. W. Dafoe, and resolved:

That Dr. McLellan be asked to prepare and publish a work on Algebra, that shall take up more particularly factoring and those parts that are only slightly treated in the authorized Text Books.

After addresses from Dr. Palmer, I. Diamond and Dr. McLellan the Institute adjourned.

—A public meeting of the residents of Owen Sound have carried by a large majority a motion to petition the Council to suspend the harbor dues at that port during the coming year.

The Daily Ontario

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 10.

Even Mr. Meredith's grandmother, not to speak of his "sisters, his cousins, and his aunts," could not turn the Ontario elections in favor of the Opposition. But if it had not been fortunately discovered, at almost the last moment, that the venerable lady in question was not really of the well-renowned family of "the Redmonds of Oxford," we tremble when we think of what the result might have been.

The Mill Point Echo says, in reference to the election in that village last Thursday: "The best of feeling prevailed, and we can safely say every voter was allowed to make free choice of his candidate." That is the reason why Mr. Gordon had majority of only five, instead of eighty, as in the case of Mr. White. When the electors were allowed to make free choice of their candidate they divided nearly evenly, and this gave the coup de grace to Conservative hopes in East Hastings. With a fair vote in Mill Point, the riding is sure for Reform.

There is great enthusiasm in France over M. de Lesseps' scheme for building a ship canal across the Isthmus of Panama. But something more than enthusiasm will be needed to complete the project. The idea is to construct a canal without a lock, cut on a single level, through the heart of mountains, and at no matter what expense. Such an idea collects cheers and enthusiasm more easily than cash. Such an idea, however, the recent congress at Paris almost unanimously adopted, despite the protests of engineers who have any practical and thorough knowledge of the country. It is altogether likely that M. de Lesseps will have to raise all the funds for his grand scheme in France—if he can. England and the United States, the only other powers much interested, don't take stock readily. They're a little suspicious of a failure.

Mr. Blake's Services.

When Hon. Edward Blake announced his intentions to take part in the Ontario election contest, there was a perceptible shaking among the Tory dry-bones. He had not yet expressed an opinion on the National Policy, and as the Opposition insisted that the new tariff should be one of the issues to be voted on, his arraignment of that policy was anticipated with dread. Mr. Blake spoke five times during the campaign—at Toronto, Hamilton, London, Ingersoll, and Lindsay, and was greeted by vast crowds and unbounded enthusiasm. In discussing Provincial politics, he was justified, by the attitude of the Conservative party, in placing the National Policy before the electors from his stand-point. Mr. Blake objected to the Opposition plea that Dominion issues were concerned in the Ontario elections, but embraced the opportunity offered to condemn the new fiscal arrangements at Ottawa.

There is no doubt that the speeches delivered by the honorable gentleman had much to do in shaping the issues of the contest that followed. In Ontario Mr. Blake's name is a tower of strength. Among the younger class of voters he is a kind of political ideal, by which they would govern themselves when exercising the right of franchise. His eloquent and powerful appeals in behalf of the Mowat Government did not go begging for willing auditors, and it is more than probable that the splendid Reform victory achieved last Thursday is largely due to his valuable services in the preceding campaign.

The Catholic Vote.

Perhaps we could have been a little more definite in our remarks yesterday, anent the Catholic vote in West Hastings, but there should be no difficulty in comprehending our meaning. The notable exceptions to which we referred are too well known in this city to need pointing out by name. They are men of social influence, of marked intelligence, and a resolution that brooks no restraint. To them the Reform party owe much for valuable services in the past. They have never flinched from the performance of a public duty, and are not afraid to avow their principles. We honor them as citizens, and are proud to recognize them as standard-bearers in the noble cause of Reform. In this country every man has a right to the free exercise of his franchise; and he is not a freeman who stifles his own convictions to rings beneath the rod of a despot.

Lively Cartoons.

Grip has a lively looking cartoon on the result of the late political contest. It is labelled "See the conquering hero comes." Hon. Geo. Brown is galloping along on all fours, while Hon. Mr. Blake is comfortably seated on his back blowing abroad 'Victory' by means of a laurel wreathed trumpet. Hon. Mr. Mowat is sitting on Mr. Blake's shoulders flying the banners of 'Honesty' and 'Economy.' In the back ground Mr Phipps is dancing to the music of cymbols and crying out—"I did it all." The review of the troops (political) after the terrible sham fight of the 5th of June, will cause the soberest face to smile.

Too much Tooting.

Our local contemporary and the Picton Gazette have been flattering the vanity of the Kingston News by complimentary references to what it accomplished during the Vice-Regal visit to the Limestone city. The News is tickled and says:—

'It is very gratifying to state that the enterprise was largely encouraged, and that very large extra editions of both the daily and weekly issues were speedily disposed of, 14 persons taking 500 extra copies."

All very well, but the News did not, by any means, monopolize public favor on the occasion. We give it credit for considerable enterprise, but what about the Whig? Being in a position to judge each paper on its merits, we must accord first place to the latter. The Whig has won distinction for the fullness and reliability of its local reports, and during the Vice-Regal visit it surpassed all former efforts. Both the Kingston dailies did well, but the Whig did the better. The News will not dispute this.

Not Satisfied Yet.

The Picton Gazette intimates that a recount of the votes cast in Prince Edward County, during the late election, will be demanded. Mr. Clapp was defeated, and, presto, there must have been bribery and corruption. Some people require a good deal to satisfy them. Mr. Clapp has been repeatedly beaten in that County, but persistently refuses to accept the verdict of the people until compelled to do so by an increased majority against him. He has protested and demanded before, but the final results have left him further from the goal of his ambition than when he began. Should Mr. Striker's election be again questioned, we have no doubt the conclusion will give him a still stronger hold upon the old peninsular county.

More about the "N. P."

A life insurance agent writes to the Montreal "Herald" as follows:—

"I had occasion to call upon a gentleman employed by the Montreal Warehousing Company for his annual premium, and learned from him that he was obliged to abandon the policy on his life, on account of the reduction in his salary consequent on the state of the grain trade, which he also said had been rendered utterly unprofitable by the new fiscal policy of the country. His salary had been twice reduced within the last four months and to the natural difficulties of carrying on the business of shipping here, arising out of railway arrangements in the United States, are now added the obstructions caused by the necessity of bonding, &c. If this continues, it is expected that the trade of the Company will be entirely closed within six months of date.

THE CATHOLIC VOTE IN WEST HASTINGS.

To the Editor of the Daily Ontario.

Dear Sir,—The Daily Ontario of yesterday fell into a grave error, where it states that Mr. Holden in West Hastings, did not get more than twenty votes from the Roman Catholic body at the late election, which if allowed to go uncontradicted, might leave a very bad impression. The number of votes received from that body will compare favorably with the number obtained from Protestant electors. Whilst say this much, having reason to know, I am free to admit that he did not get as large a vote from the R. Catholic electors as is usually cast on the Reform side by that body. Catholics, as a body, for very good reasons, are Reformers, and when not tampered with by unscrupulous tricksters, vote the ticket stated. This is the reason why any defection from the Reform ranks is so easily magnified. Leaders in politics, as well as in religion, are not always honest, and when the two blend, and like waggon tires, welded at the extremes, as was the case in the late election, look out for fraud and corruption, whilst the fellows beneath must bear the burden. Had not this something to do with the open house and whiskey jug in Ormsby Ward, kept by the supporters of Mr. Robertson, where a large section of the votes are Catholics, and where a majority was given for a Conservative for the first time in many years? Had it anything to do with the barefaced acrobatic movements in a pecuniary way that took place on the day of election? The public, I think, have no hesitation in deciding. Else, what does the expression mean:—"If you find any hard cases send them to me." This, by a reverend gentleman is very significant. The supposition is, he means cases that the whiskey jug or a greasy hand could not soften. What depravity! This feeling of depravity was shared most magnanimously by the general rowdy element, and very much helped to swell the list of Mr. Robertson's friends. I am also told that several Scotch electors, of known Reform principles, voted for Mr. Robertson, on the ground of Nationality. Other reasons, had I time, might be mentioned, to show that it was not the defection of the Catholic vote altogether, that lost the election to Mr. Holden.

Catholics, as a people, have great faith in the expounders of their religion. That faith sometimes extends to temporal matters; but unfortunately for themselves and for the Church in some isolated cases, that faith and trust is abused, and they receive the jeers and ridicule of their Protestant neighbors.

In this city, I regret, times are very much changed in that respect from the state of things in the days of yore, when political corruption, which is now the pet, was spurred with contempt. Mr. Editor, I feel like letting out a link or two on this matter, but time and space are against me, and therefore beg to subscribe myself,

Catholic.

Belleville, June 10th, 1879.

A Word To The Corpulent.

Instead of regarding obesity as an abnormal condition, many people have erroneously considered it as an evidence of health, and any agent that reduces fat is therefore at once suspected of being injurious. Starting to reason from the false position that fat is an evidence of health, it is not surprising that they should very naturally fall into the error of supposing that an agent possessing properties capable of reducing corpulency would prove injurious to the health. Reasoning however from rational basis that an undue deposition of fat, constituting obesity, is not a healthy but a morbid condition, it is quite as natural for us to arrive at the opposite conclusion, which is sustained by experience and observation that the reduction of fat in cases of corpulency is invariably followed by an improvement of strength, spirit and physical comfort. Allans Anti Fat will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pound a week Sold by druggists.

A young man named Thomas Gardner, of Bowmanville, was shot on Friday morning, half a mile from Minden. He was lifting a gun by the muzzle out of a waggon which was portaging the effects of a boating party from Bomanville with which he came, when the trigger caught in a bag, and the whole charge was emptied into the lower part of the left arm. He has since died from his wounds.

Casual Remarks.

—The Duke of Argyll is expected to make a flying visit to Ottawa.

—The appraisers of the several Custom Houses of the Dominion meet in Montreal to-morrow to discuss the various questions connected with their duties, and to organize generally.

—A typographical error occurred in an article that appeared yesterday, relating to "Business in Montreal," whereby the Merchants' Bank was made do disagreeable duty for the Mechanics.' The Merchants' has not failed.

—Ex-Speaker Cockburn, Mr. Alonzo Wright, and other influential Conservatives express themselves as much displeased at the course pursued by Sir John and Dr. Tupper in trying to influence the electors of Ontario.

—The Hanlan-Elliot race takes place next Monday, 16th inst. Both men are in excellent trim and are practising daily. "Our Ned" is still the favorite, and, of course, we expect him to win.

—Mr. Goldwin Smith bewails the "Grit" success in Ontario. He writes to the Telegram in this vein, and says "in a social point of view" "Grit" ascendency in Ontario "for another four years is not a pleasant prospect." The cat is out at last.

—The editor of the Telegram is an apt pupil of the ex-Oxford Professor, and from a genial young bachelor of thirty is rapidly degenerating into a confirmed cynic. He is pleased with nothing. All kinds of a Government is a failure; Royalty is worse; international courtesies a sham; public demonstrations a costly humbug; and the Globe an intolerable nuisance.

—Since the 1st of January last 7,260 cattle have been exported from Canada to England. During the same period last year the number exported was 19,000—the larger share going to the United States.

Our Far West Provinces.

The first sod on section B of the Canada Pacific Railway was turned on Monday, June 2nd. One hundred men are now at work.

The Custom receipts at the Port of Winnipeg for the month of May were $61,385,-88, as against $30,487 60 for the same month last year.

During the four months since the Winnipeg market has been declared free, $340 has been taken by the market superintendent as weighing and measuring fees.

A Winnipeg brewer has a chunk of ice in his brewery, the dimensions of which are 25 feet by 35 and 6 feet thick. This block has been placed in the roof of the cellar, which it keeps at nearly freezing point.

A new by-law has recently come into force in Winnipeg by which all parties having three or more boarders are compelled to register and take out a license, for which a fee of $5 is charged. A fine is imposed in default.

The American ship Jeremiah Thompson, Captain R. Kirby, arrived at Victoria, B. C., on Sunday, the 18th May, from Yokohama, Japan, from which port she sailed on the 23rd April, making the passage in 24 days, about the quickest passage made between the two ports.

A man named Day, whilst painting a sign on the front of one of the prominent business houses in Winnipeg recently, was precipitated to the ground, a distance of forty feet, receiving severe injuries to the spine. The scaffolding on which he was standing fell to a perpendicular position in consequence of the rope suspending, one end not being properly secured.

St. Clair City is the name of an embryo metropolis at Bird Tail Creek, Man. Advices from that quarter represent that the settlers sent out under the auspices of the Hamilton Colonization Company are much pleased with their new homes, and there is every prospect of it becoming a thriving community. There are now sixty-five families settled there, and as many more on the way. The land thereabouts is well wooded, and mill privileges are abundant, so that it is intended to put up one or more mills immediately.

A gentleman writing from Fort Walsh on the 3rd of May says: "My impression is that the Government will soon have to feed the Indians or fight them. They are beginning to grumble a great deal, and there is a great scarcity of buffalo. Sitting Bull is encamped near Wood Mountain Police Post, and has six hundred lodges with him. His warriors number about fourteen hundred, and are splendidly armed and mounted. Their arms are Winchester and Sharpe carbines and Colt revolvers. War parties of young bucks are continually crossing the line on horse-stealing and scalp-taking expeditions. The chiefs of the nation have little control over the young men. They try to prevent these parties from going out, but cannot do so. The Sioux, for the most part, are fine-looking men, but have "cut-throat" plainly written on their faces. The latest I can learn of the manner of General Custer's death is that, when all was lost, he first shot his interpreter and then himself, so that they would not be taken prisoners, I think this is likely correct, as Custer was not scalped, the Indians never scalping a man after he shoots himself."

He Rather Liked It.

One of our well known citizens was sitting in his parlor the other evening surrounded by his wife and children when the conversation turned upon likes and dislikes, and taste and flavor of various condiments. One person preferred this, another that, when a little blue-eyed, four year old spoke up and said she rather liked castor oil. This seemed singular; but it is not surprising, when we know that she, that very morning, had been taking some of Scott & Bowne's palatable castor oil. Price 25 cents.

The Maritime Provinces cases have been concluded, and those of Quebec are now before the Supreme Court.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

The Ohio Sunday law exempts from the observance of Sunday Jews, Seventh Day Baptists, ferrymen, emigrants and toll-gate keepers.

The new law in Illinois, permits all persons, male and female to vote on the question whether licenses shall be granted in their town.

The Czar, owing to his repressive policy, is afraid to leave the palace at Livadia unattended, while the Czarevitch mixes freely with the people and is as popular as the Prince of Wales among the masses.

Sir Robert Peel rather neatly, if not very civilly, says of Mr. Gladstone that he "can speak by the yard," but the London Hornet says Mr. Gladstone's heedless rhetoric is completely distanced by Signor Grimaldi, who can utter nearly 2200 words per minute, and who gave vent to 80,000 words in a single debate.

The Gallican Church, revived by M. Loyson, better known as Father Hyacinthe, who has up to the present moment been the sole representative of its hierarchy has been receiving the adhesion of a new Priest. The Abbe Carrier was formerly a Chaplain in the army and a Knight of the Legion of Honor.

The London Morning Advertiser "hopes that the final order for the departure of the Guards for Zululand may not be necessary. It seems incredible that with such splendid fighting material as the friendly Kaffirs on our supply we have not been able to arm and drill and organize a sufficient force, backed by 16,000 British troops, to improve the Zulus off the face of the earth."

The land in Ireland is cultivated by 600,000 tenants, who occupy an average of thirty-two acres each. There are 16,000 landlords, of whom 1,942 own two-thirds of the whole country. Mr. Gladstone says that the question of converting the disaffected Irish tenant into an owner rises into the higher region of politics and of moral and social order, and goes to the root of how to banish Irish discontent.

London Examiner: "The Zulus are the Celestials of South Africa, the word 'Zulu' signifying heaven. Their reputation as a warlike race dates from Chaka, who became early influenced with the ambition of rivalling Napoleon Bonaparte. While quite a youth he fell in with some English sailors, who had been cast ashore in St. Lucia Bay, and from them he learned of the victorious career of the great Corsican. He vowed that he would be a conqueror, and at once set to work to fulfil his vow. When, in 1825, he heard for the first time of the overthrow of the French Empire at Waterloo, he complacently remarked: "Yes, I see, now, there are only two great chiefs in all the earth. My brother, King George, he is king of all the whites, and I, Chaka, I am king of all the blacks."

Marriage is a solemn thing—a choice for life; be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for female complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Buchu and Uva Ursa. American Notes.

A pauper, in Trenton, Mass., got $5 from the poormaster "to obtain the necessities of life," as he declared, and used the money in taking to himself a wife.

Grand Rapids has had its bogus foreign Count. He was handsome, plausible and audacious. The young women were bewitched by him, and he picked out Estina Sexton, married her, took her to Chicago on a wedding tour, stole her money, and deserted her.

According to the story of the Baltimore American, a North Carolina widower has been arrested while attempting to sell a set of false teeth belonging to his deceased wife's estate, to procure funds for the purchase of a suit in which to marry a second wife.

High up in the Sierra Nevada mountains there has been found the wreck of a vessel resembling a Chinese junk. The timbers appear to be camphor wood, and the fastenings are of copper, but the rigging is, of course all gone. Near by lay the bones of human beings. The valley is known to have been an inland sea.

A note found on the body of a suicide at Worcester, Mass., contained the following: "Don't think I am insane or anything of the kind. Simply, I can find no work at anything, from shovelling to steam engineering. I have tried over twenty cities and farmers without number, and rather than beg or steal do this act. My reputation is unsullied."

The Raleigh, N. C., News of the 3rd inst. says: "On Sunday morning, at about 2:45 o'clock, a meteor of unusual magnitude made its appearance in the Southern sky, moving in a south eastern direction. It was observed for some twenty-five seconds and then disappeared. Three minutes afterwards a loud detonation was heard, sounding like the discharge of a heavy piece of ordnance."

A strange family complication has cropped out in Jackson, Ind. Dr. Baldridge has been a physician of high standing and extensive practice for twenty-five years; also a prominent pillar of the Presbyterian church. During all this time he has been living in illicit relations with a woman who passed for his wife while his legal wife, whom he had deserted for his paramour, for the past ten or fifteen years has been living in the same house with them, passing for his brother's widow.

Millbridge P. O. Tudor, Ont

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain. At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I saturated wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

John Clark,

Local & General

Lennox and Addington.—The official returns from Lennox give Mr. Hawley a majority of 15. The latest returns from Addington give a majority of 55 in Mr. Dorcche's favor.

County Council.—The Gravel Roads Committee of the County Council met yesterday, and the whole Council met this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Many of the members will take part in the demonstration to-night.

Launched.—The yacht Katie Gray was launched yesterday, some alterations having been made on her during this spring. She will be fitted up so as to take part in the races on Friday next, when she will no doubt, give a good account of herself, as she has in the past.

The Demonstration.—A large number of farmers have arrived in the city for the purpose of taking part in the demonstration to-night, which promises to be one of the best that has ever been held in the city. We hope to see the house of every Reformer on the line of march brilliantly illuminated.

The Twenty-Fifth Montreal.—The Montreal Orangemen have wisely concluded to make no demonstration there this year. On the Sunday following the 12th they will attend divine service. Until the legality of the Orange order has been established, there will be no attempt at any demonstration.

Dominion Day.—Is our national day to be allowed to pass over without any demonstration? A small amount of money distributed in prizes for athletic sports, &c., would serve to keep our people in the city and draw a great many from the country. Who will move in the matter? By all means let us have a celebration of some kind.

Moonlight Excursion.—After the almost incessant rain we have had for the past week or so, there is every prospect of fine weather for the Oddfellows' Band excursion to-morrow evening. The steamer Transit, which has been engaged, is large and commodious, and as both brass and string bands will be present a very pleasant evening may be looked forward to. The merits of this band to public patronage needs no notice from us, and if the weather is favorable we have no doubt there will be a large attendance.

The Reform Demonstration.—At a meeting held on Saturday evening the following route for to-night's procession was settled upon :—After forming up on the market square, the procession will move up Front Street to the Station, returning by Emily street to Pinnacle, down Pinnacle to Hotel, up Hotel to Charles, down Charles to Bridge, down Bridge to George, up George to Queen, down Queen to John, down John to Bridge, down Bridge to Pinnacle, down Pinnacle to Dundas, thence to Front Street, and up Front to the market square. Here the procession will break up, and speeches will be delivered by several prominent gentleman from a distance, who have been invited to attend. All friends of the Mowat Government, along the line of march are requested to illuminate their premises in honor of the occasion. Parties having teams will greatly oblige by bringing them out.

Opera House.—Cool Johnston's Burlesque Company played at the Opera House last evening to a rather small audience, but judging from the frequent applause the entertainment seemed to give pretty general satisfaction. The nature of the entertainment partook more or variety than burlesque, and the company embraces among its members some tolerably good singers. The singing, dancing and jokes of Messrs. Richardson and Johnston were very good, particularly some of the local hits, which never fail to catch the "gods."

☞A good imported Havana Cigar for 5 cents at McDonald's.

The Cells.—There were one prisoner and a tramp in the cells last night.

To Builders.—Elsewhere tenders are asked for the construction of a stone and frame house on Charles Street.

Errata.—A few days since we announced that the work on the Bridge Street C. M. Church was being done by Messrs Turner & Twining. It should have been Messrs Taylor & Twining.

Along the Docks.—The schooner Transmontane is unloading coal for Rathbun & Son, and the Dominion for Downey & Co. The Kincaid ne left to-day with a load of rye for Oswego, got at Trenton.

Cricket.—The Oswego Palladium says that on the 4th of July the Belleville Cricket Club will play with the Onondagas at Syracuse. How is this, boys? Are you going away to get another waxing?

School Entertainment.—This evening the pupils of Mr. Saunster's school will give an entertainment at Canifton. The programme is a very fine one, and those who attend will get the worth of their 25 cents.

Weather Bulletin.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Fresh to brisk southerly to southwesterly winds, partly cloudy hot weather, possibly thunder storms tonight.

Child Drowned.—A correspondent writes from Stirling: A two year old son of James Stapley, residing in the 9th Con. of Sidney, was drowned yesterday in a well, situated near his father's house. The child was missing about ten minutes, and when the body was discovered in the well, life was extinct,

An Hour's Walk.—Three of our young walkists had an hour's walk at Coleman's Hall last night, for a sweepstake of $3. The names of the walkers were Charles Hawley, Geo Newbery and P. Smith, and the race was won by the latter, after a spirited contest. Smith made five miles and 304 laps, and Newbery 5 and 19 laps. Hawley was taken sick and had to withdraw.

Complimentary Benefit.—The Belleville Histrionic Society, of whose first appearance in this city there was so much favorable comment, have tendered Mr. Geo. Hanwell, Manager of the Opera House a complimentary benefit, and the performance will take place on Tuesday evening next. On that occasion two good plays will be put upon the boards.—"The Rose of Etterick Vale" and "The Irish Tutor," —and we hope to see a crowded house. Mr. Hanwell has, by giving the free use of the Opera House, and by connecting himself with the Association, done much to help the Association forward in their object of mutual improvement, and affording innocent amusement to our citizens, and the announcement of a benefit to him will, we are sure, draw well.

Friday's Regatta.—At a meeting of the Yacht Club held last evening, the arrangements for Friday's races were completed. The second class race is to be for boats belonging to the Club, and the first prize will be a silver pitcher, presented by Alex. Robertson, Esq., and $35 in money; $20 to 2nd, and $10 to 3rd. The flag presented by Cole & Co., of Ottawa will also be given to the boat taking first prize, which will have to be won three times in succession before it will become the property of any one. For third class yachts the prizes will be $15 and $5. Double and single scull races will also take place, for medals and cups, being the first of a series of races for the championship of the Club.

Bryan's Wafers (the great public remedy) have now been in use over twenty years, hence it cannot be said that they are on trial. They have been thoroughly tried, and pronounced (on the authority of those whose lives and health they have preserved) to be a sure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation, and if taken in season will invariably cure colds, coughs, sore throat, and all bronchial affections. One fair trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cents per box.

☞Style, elegance, location, moderate, and choice of either the American plan $2.50 to $3.00 or the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards, meals in the elegant Restaurant attached to the house, all unite in giving the travellers more for the same money, at the Grand Central Hotel, New York, than elsewhere.

County Council.

SECOND SESSION.

Tuesday, June 10, 1879.

The Council met at 2:15 p. m., the Warden in the chair.

Present—Messrs. Lee, Francis, Gordon, Emo, Currie, Appleby, Sills, Vandervoort, Vanderwaters, Anderson, McCready, Wesse, Ashley, Tuttle, Parker, Montgomery, O'Flynn, Aylsworth, Kavanagh, Caskey, Parkhurst, Fitzgerald, Vankiook, Ganter, Murphy, McDavitt, Robinson and Cook.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Warden, then delivered his address, as follows:

Gentlemen:—As you are aware, our regular adjourned meeting would have taken place last week, but for the elections. It was thought advisible not to meet, and in consequence I have called this special meeting for general purposes, and which is the most important one of the year, the equalization of the Assessments and levying of Taxes in particular. The Auditors Report for 1878 will be laid before you. Not having any March session, it could not be sooner done.

The reports of the Gravel Road and Finance Committees, covering the bridge expenditure, will be given you ; also, the report of the Committee on the Trenton Swing Bridge.

The debentures to the North Hastings Railway have been handed over to the Trustees.

I have countersigned the County Surveyor's requisitions to the amount of $2,-603 84.

I was informed that the culvert ordered last session to be built near Finche's, in Stirling, was not on a County road. The County Surveyor has ordered the timber, and which has been delivered and paid for, $138.83, and as there will be a considerable amount required to do the work I directed the County Surveyor not to proceed with the work until after the Council met.

I was requested by the Reeve of Madoc village to inspect a bridge over Deer Creek in that village, which we did together, and came to the conclusion that with some repairs it might be made to wear for some time. The timber was removed to Steco. Since our inspection, however, a heavy load going over the bridge made it unsafe, and the bridge will have to be rebuilt. The County Surveyor would be glad if you would appoint some member of the Council to be associated with him in inspecting before recommending the erection of any new bridges. The opinion seems to prevail that sometimes bridges might be made to last longer; and now as the whole responsibility is upon the Surveyor, this would partially relieve, and as the expenditure on our bridges is necessarily very large extending over two hundred bridges and upwards, they cannot be too cautiously guarded.

My attention has been called by the Auditors to the Registrar's return of fees to the County Treasurer, they claiming that a considerable additional sum should be paid to the County. As the matter is one of importance, I would suggest that some action be taken at this session, by reference to a committee or to the Attorney General for his opinion, as to whether the Auditors are correct.

I have had some correspondence with E. Horton, Official Stenographer, which I will read you.

I have been served with papers in two suits as to our interest in the Grand Junction Railway, and have placed them in the County Solicitor's hands for defence. I had hoped our settlement with the Company would have kept us out of any further law suits, but as by our agreement, any costs incurred will have to be borne by the Company, it effects them more than the County. As the work is being prosecuted by Campbell, it is likely that you will be required during the year to provide for the balance, $20,000, by the issue of debentures.

In view of the increased taxation, I should recommend that the expenditures be made as low as possible—not forgetting the public interests—and that a sufficient sum be raised to cover all requirements and avoid an overdrawn bank account. I trust that our meeting will be one of harmony and be productive to the public good.

Jersey City, N. J., June 10.—"Cove" Bennet and Mrs. Smith were to-day sentenced to hang July 24th, for the murder of the latter's husband.

Washington, June 10.—The House yesterday passed a bill amending the statutes relative to importation of neat cattle for breeding.

Columbus, O., June 10.—Reported Pratt, Greenback nominee for Government has withdrawa in Ewing's favor. The rumor is unconfirmed.

Westminster, Md., June 10.—Daniel Bush, a wealthy farmer of Carrol Co., suicided by shooting yesterday. Cause, fears of crop failure.

Newport, R. I., June 10.—Kate Fitzgerald attempted to shoot Postmaster Pearce Saturday night. Pearce has been paying attentions to her recently. She charges him with her ruin. Pearce's wife recently attempted to kill him and also to kill herself.

New York, June 10.—The Herald's Auburn special says Conkling has chosen Frenchy Johnson to row against him at Silver Lake.

The Tribune's Philadelphia special reports Geo. W. Childs, who is in constant correspondence with Grant, says the latter has never mentioned a third term idea in his letters. Childs feels convinced the possibility of being called upon to serve a third term is wholly foreign to Grant's thoughts; that any movements to bestow public honors after his arrival, which have a political purpose, will be distasteful to him. The proposed excursion affair is a business speculation, aided by railways. Childs says there will undoubtedly be a handsome reception tendered Grant by the city of San Francisco, and few personal friends will cross the continent to take part in welcoming him, but their trip will be a private affair. Grant expects to reach San Francisco in July, about 25th, and intends to make an excursion to all places of interest on the Pacific coast. Afterwards he means to stop a few days at Virginia City, Nev., and on his way eastward will spend a little time in Salt Lake City, and then take in Colorado, where he expects to make a rather extensive tour.

New York, June 10.—W. B. Somerville for 8 years the efficient manager of the National Associated Press, has resigned to take charge of Western Union Company's Press bureau.

Richard Aspinwall sued for divorce in supreme court yesterday from Mrs. Helen Frame. In '74, after a champagne supper Aspinwall and Mrs. Frame, who was then Miss Smith, were married for fun, but kept the affair a secret and never lived together. Miss Smith married Fame subsequently, when Aspinwall brought suit for divorce. Judge Donohue held the marriage with Aspinwall invalid.

Brooklyn, June 10.—After a lapse of 6 years, work has recommenced on New Catholic Cathedral. Will cost about a million.

Afternoon Despatches.

London, June, 10.—The Times says the chairman of Council of Foreign Bondholders sent a protest to the Governor of Louisiana against the attempt of State Convention now sitting to reduce State debt.

Arrived Victoria.

Rotterdam, June 10.—Arrived Moas.

Rome, June 10.—4 soldiers and several civilians killed in a disturbances occasioned by collection of taxes in Sicily. Troops have gone to suppress the disorders. The river Po is subsiding and the surrounding country is desolated.

Philadelphia, June 10.—Edward Parr, murderer, who poisoned himself in court yesterday, died this a. m. An rigid investigation will be had to discover how the poison was conveyed to deceased.

Romney, June 10.—Three employers of Government bookkeepot at Poonah, confessed they set recent fire to destroy evidence of defalcations. Two were sentenced to life-long transportation, and one to ten years.

A Truism.—Constant grinding at the mill of life, perpetual loss of vital force, will even the strongest man to the dust, it is manifest therefore that the system must be kept supplied with a due amount of oxydizable phosphorus. The pleasantest and most palatable way in which it can be introduced into the system is by the use of Victoria Hypophosphites which is the most perfect blood food in the world. For all druggists in Belleville.

Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical appliances. It contains new medicinal elements which in combination with rubber, possess the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any physician in your own locality will confirm the above statement. For lame back, rheumatism, Female Weakness, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, Diseased Kidneys Whooping cough, affections of the heart, and all fly for which porous plasters are used, it is simply the best known remedy. Ask for Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster and take no other. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts. Sent on receipt of price, Seabury & Johnson 21 Platt Street, New York.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds, Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. Its not only creating the most delicately extended virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and easy of digestion, as in other chemicals, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so important, are developed to a degree not attained by any other preparation. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly augmented curative powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly stated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only a most enriching but much more easily assimilated, by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better aid to digestion and as a tonic it gives life and strength to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable as the cream we use in our tea, coffee, or chocolate, and so pleasant that children take it as we do sweets. It is here and there we find it. For sale by all druggists at 50 cts per bottle.

Moved by J. McCreadie seconded by P. C. Burgess, that $25 be granted to rebuild the bridge in road Beat No. 71. Carried.

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints; affection of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy do not begin to number in thousands. Its virtues are known states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate of the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities no the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY
JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system fortifies it the youthful constitution for the duty of life. It should be taken in middle or old age, proves a real blessing, and on the approach of childbirth three pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; the benefits to be derived are incalculable; they relieve the constitution; lessen the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with comfort to herself and child. In all cases of of Nervous Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and limbs, Fatigue on Slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites and Blues, these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and, although a powerfull remedy do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution. Full directions in the pamphlet round each package. JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. $1.00 and 15 cents for postage, enclosed to Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agent for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. For sale by all druggists in Belleville, G. T. Wilson, Medex, G. H. Boulter, St. Ring, W. G. Barker, Trenton, and all medicine dealers.

Public Notice

IS hereby given, that under and in pursuance of the powers vested in Municipal Councils by the Municipal Institutions Act of 1879 of the Province of Ontario, chapter 48 and amendments thereto, the Council of the Municipality of the City of Belleville intend, immediately after the expiration of one month from the first publication of this notice, to pass a

By-Law

for the following purpose, that is to say:—That Rear Street be widened to John Street, commencing at the Eastern boundry of said Street 318 feet more or less north from Hotel Street, where a fence now stands belonging to Jacob Cronk, thence easterly along said fence to John Street, thence northerly along the western side of John Street to the land now owned by the City, thence westerly along the southern limit of said land to Rear Street, thence along the eastern side of Rear Street to the place of beginning.

AND TAKE NOTICE, that any and all persons whose lands may be prejudicially affected thereby, or who may be in any way interested in the lands required for the opening and extending of said Street, or any of them, may be heard at the bar of the Council of said Municipality, either in person or by Council, or by petition, or at any regular meeting of the said Council, before the passing of said By-Law.

Dated this 20th day of May, A. D. 1879, at Belleville City Clerk's office.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking mixture is made. It is a harmless herb, and derives its name. It is a harmless herb, and derives its name. It is a narcotic of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe ful smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

ONTARIO MUTUA
Life Assurance Co'y.

HEAD OFFICE — WATERLOO, ONT.

Deposited with the Dominion Government $66,224,00

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business: its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63,88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.63	to $56.90
" 5th "	10.40	" 53.43
" 6th "	17.20	" 46.63
" 7th "	20.34	" 43.15
" 8th "	25.89	" 37.99
" 9th "	30.65	" 27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. This shows figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

Marriage.

TURN IN THE MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE—RICH AND HEARTY SPEECH BY REPRESENTATIVE MCNAB.

There came up for consideration, last week, in the House, in committee of the whole, Mr. Young in the chair, a Bill introduced by Mr. McNab, amending the laws relative to marriage. Its provisions require that unmarried persons, males under 21 and females under 18, intending to marry, shall be required to produce the consent, in writing, of parents and guardians, to be attested by two witnesses.

Piled up before him, on his desk, were volume after volume of the statutes of various States, so lofty as to make a screen between Mr. McNab and the Speaker. He explained that the Bill was not original with him, but contained the provisions found by a diligent reading of those laws.

Upon the motion, by Mr. Cheney, to strike out all after the enacting clause, Mr. McNab spoke, deprecating so summary a method of treating a Bill which he thought he could show was desirable. After an introduction to this effect, Mr. McNab proceeded by saying that marriage was a natural law, a sacrament of the church, a doctrine approved, too, by mankind, generally. All marriage laws need to conform to the laws of nature. There were good reasons for all. He invited the members to go with him to the long past ages, to glance down the dim vistas of history (applause), to review nations that once were, that are not now. He asked them to say whether it was not true that the nations that excelled most in science and art had not the strictest marriage laws. The people of the ancient world who had the best intellectual and physical development were the Greeks, and the best of the Greeks were the Spartans. The laws of that nation were of the parental kind, more especially those relating to marriage. They defined who should marry and when they should marry; and some were not allowed to marry at all. (Applause.) They examined the individual and decided accordingly. Now he did not want any such strict laws for himself. He did not wish any such transitional inquistors to come poking about his domestic hearth. (Laughter.) But the result was good. The fathers were heroes—the mothers were heroes—or heroines—before children. Such heroes, and therefore heroic offsprings. (Applause.) Greece excelled in many things; also in perfecting the human race. (Laughter.) The glory of Greece belongs to the mothers of Greece—to the women whose sons fought at Platea, and stood like the mountain at Thermopylæ; to the women whose sons were in line at that other field—what do you call it? Ah! Marathon! Marathon! (applause and laughter.) The woman of Greece were business, I tell you. (Uproarious cheers.) You remember Socrates? (Laughter.) He had grand old philosopher—had a wife. She made him walk chalk, too. (Renewed laughter.) And old Diogenes—the wise—they said he was wise because he was content walking with a tub. (Laughter.) I never could see the wisdom of that, but he was wise enough to get a good Greek wife. (Applause.) But this is only a digression; don't take it down. Do we rather figs of thorns or grapes of thistles? Certainly not; neither do sickly, half developed women—(Shouts of applause and laughter, drowning the words of the orator).

Look at Rome—that grand old commonwealth. A Roman in the earlier times was allowed but one wife at a time. (Great laughter.) He was obliged to support her, to cherish her, to take care of her like a man and a Roman. (Applause.) Read the marriage laws of Rome and see how well they provided that none but sound and proper persons take upon themselves the obligations of matrimony. Read Justinian and the chapters on marriage in the "Corpus Juris Civilis." And Rome was great so long as she adhered to those laws. When the ordinances regulating marriage were relaxed the power of Rome waned. The barbarians came down from the great German forests and the wilds of Hungary, and overwhelmed the degenerate people succeeding to such a heroic heritage.

But to come down from Rome to something nearer by in time and place. (Applause.) Take the Indians of our own country. The painted savage, who woos a dusky maiden in the moonlit woods would not be permitted by the laws of his tribe to marry her until he possessed a ridge and bow and arrow and had shown skill enough to hunt. (Great laughter.) Perhaps he had better get off from this track, and come down to Michigan (demonstrations of applause); come down to Michigan, where they were all at home. Let us get at this Bill. It will produce no extra expense upon the State, but materialy improve it. The only change from the present laws was to compel the young man or the young woman, who wish to marry before they are eighteen, to obtain the consent of their parents or guardians. If they wish to marry too young, this makes them wait. Was it not a proper thing to make them wait?

He had some experience in this marrying business. (Applause.) He meant as a matter of the fiance, when he was new to the position and had just assumed the magisterial robes of office—robes that sat loosely and with dignity upon his innocent greenness. (Great laughter.) He would never forget that occasion, and he did not believe the unhappy couple ever would. (Renewed demonstrations and applause.) He was filled with embarrassment and a sense of awe (cheers) decidedly mixed up. (Applause.) He proceeded with circumspection and first swore the woman to support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Michigan, and to faithfully perform all the duties of a good wife to the best of her ability. (Loud applause and laughter.) Then he swore the man in the same way, and cautioned him to discharge faithfully and to the best of his ability all the duties of a good husband. (Cheers and laughter.) The woman was awfully frightened (laughter), and he (Mr. McNab, was even more frightened—the man didn't seem to care so much about the case. Well, the result was that they didn't stick. (Cheers and tumultuous laughter.) He mentioned this to show how much the most solemn ceremony (laughter), performed by the most august personage (shrieks of laughter), couldn't make a marriage stick unless the parties thereto were rightly constituted. (More applause.) This Bill would prevent immature marriages, hasty marriages, whose results were quarrels, fights, divorces, lawsuits, pauperism and crime (Applause and laughter.) Some one remarked that if it became a law, it would break up marriages, it would break up match making. He did not believe it. The love that could not last two years was unworthy of the name of love. (Applause.) Love, true love, was a sentiment deep as the ocean and unquenchable.

The Daily Ontario

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 11.

THE Mail is ingenious, but sometimes not honest. It joined the Ottawa Cabine brigade in demanding that the National Policy must be considered an issue in the Ontario elections, and up to the very morning of the 5th inst. insis ed that every vot cast for Conservative candidates last Sept, should be recorded for the Opposition in the contest then to be decided. The result was so overwhelmingly against the appeal it took the Mail several days to recover from the shock. Now, however, that the Reform press is holding the Opposition responsible for the verdict the Mail pretends to argue that the "N. P." had nothing to do with the Ontario elections. Copious extracts from its columns, of arguments used prior to the election, do not concern it the least. Anything rather than acknowledge a defeat of the "N.P." even to eating its own words.

The Helpless Poor.

The Toronto Telegram makes a suggestion that should receive some attention. We quote :—" One of the questions which might claim attention at the hands of the confirmed Mowat Administration is the treatment of the helpless poor. Their position in the community is in many respects analogous to that of the idiotic and insane. It is a question which, however, will have to be approached with no tear-drizzling sentimentality, but must be laid hold of with firm, if gentle, hands. What is wanted is some plan that will render the helpless poor as nearly self-sustaining as possible, and still not compromise that independent spirit which, in the poor as well as the rich, is such an excellent conservator of morality."

It may be claimed that this is a question for municipalities to deal with, and that it does not properly concern the Provincial Legislature. As the Telegram says, the helpless poor occupy a position in the community not unlike that of the idiotic and insane. Provisions are made for those who are mentally unfit to support themselves, and the destitute, who are a much greater burden, and sometimes more dangerous to the well being of society, seem to demand similar attention.

Personal Considerations.

It is not often that we can agree with Prof. Goldwin Smith, when political or public questions are discussed. In his recent letter to the Toronto Telegram he says:

"If I interpret the returns rightly, not only local but personal considerations have prevailed over national issues. If a candidate was personally popular in his district, whatever his opinions, as a rule he has been elected."

This fact has been repeatedly impressed upon our mind. In every election, and on both sides, many instances have occured to confirm what the Prof. asserts. A candidate personally popular, no matter what his political views may be, has a decided advantage in an election contest, and may be regarded as the winning man before the ballots are counted.

Electors, with few exceptions, pay little attention to the accepted issues brought forward by politicians and their organs. They call themselves Reformers or Conservatives, as the case may be, but do not take much interest in the questions that divide the parties. When the nominee of either side happens to be a public favorite socially, even though his political views are as changeable as the chameleon's sports, and his ability far below mediocrity, he is, without further question, voted the coming man.

Public opinion may be educated by newspapers and lecturers—and we would be very sorry to have to confess the reverse, but the nature of that education depends largely upon circumstances. When politics is concerned, said public opinion is disposed to take lessons from contracted personal views, rather than from a comprehensive theory or party doctrine. We might instance the case of Mr. Blake's defeat in South Bruce, but the fact is self-evident. Goldwin Smith is right this time.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that we claim no responsibility for what our correspondents may say.

The Reform Parade.

To the Editor of the ONTARIO.

SIR,—Will you pardon the inquisitiveness of a stranger in your town, as I merely wish to ask you a question, and that is, How could you be so generous as to give the total returns of one of your opponents, which I saw painted on a transparency at the head of the Reform Procession? Or there as it a trick of your opponents? If the latter, I don't wonder at the exuberance of your feelings last night, in celebrating a victory over a party that would condescend to a disreputable trick of that kind.

Yours,

STRANGER.

Then and Now.

To the Editor of the ONTARIO.]

SIR,—After the 17th of September last I thought:

I'd like to be a Tory
And with the Tories dwell,
With the N——al Policy on the brain,
It worked so awful well.

But since the 5th of June inst., the scene is changed, and now, I would not "like to be a Tory, &c., because—

Reformers did the victory win,
And Tory power destroy;
Did triumph over national sin (N.P.)
And crown the world with joy.

Yes! Ontario leads, the conquering Queen,
Her banners wide unfurled,
While Grits, not Tories shout and sing
The saviors of the world—Ontario.!

from the R.T.P.—Rascally Tory Policy or Party—misnamed the National Policy.

THAT'S ALL.

What National Pills alone can do
Men testify—and women too—
Thousands cry with eager breath,
"They saved me from the jaws of death!
They've killing pain me head,
All ye killing pains your system needs,
'Tis National Pills your system needs.
Immense the rush for these Pills;
Will begin so many woeful ills.

CELEBRATING THE VICTORY.

MAGNIFICENT REFORM DEMONSTRATION.

Bellevill's Tribute to Good and Honest Government.

FIVE THOUSAND SPECTATORS ON FRONT STREET.

ELOQUENT SPEECHES AND UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM.

The Reform demonstration last night in honor of the victory at the polls on the 5th inst., was the best ever witnessed in Belleville. All day yesterday the preparations went on, and hundreds of yeoman arrived from the townships to take part in the festivities. Long before the hour of starting, crowds of eager spectators were on the Market Square and in the vicinity and mounted marshalls galloped to and fro arranging the order of march.

THE PROCESSION.

It was nearly nine o'clock before the programme of proceedings was concluded, and then the order was given to fall in. If proof were needed that the City of Belleville and County of Hastings were loyal still to the grand old principles of Reform that have saved the country from anarchy and bankruptcy it was then forthcoming. Headed by the splendid Oddfellows' Band and a body of torch bearers the procession, more than half a mile in length, and composed of gentlemen who look their opponents squarely in the face by daylight, took up its march. Over fifty carriages were counted in Front Street, but this was no criterion of the exact number that followed the lead. Many were compelled to drop out and take other courses, owing to their horses becoming restive under the glare of torches and flash of rockets. About midway the 15th. Battalion Band, in neat uniforms and playing in fine style, lead another company of torchbearers, and these were again followed by carriages and thousands of men, women and children on foot. Nearly every carriage in the procession carried torches, while the marshalls and foot-guards were also decorated with similar ornaments. The scene, as the long line moved through Front Street was most enlivening, and far surpassed anything of the kind ever before witnessed in this city.

THE CROWDS.

It was roughly estimated that not less than 5,000 people lined Front Street between the City Hall and the Upper Bridge. This was a low estimate, for not only was every inch of the sidewalk and nearly half the roadway were occupied, but the windows and doors of every building on the route. The enthusiasm was unbounded, save among the Tory roughs who had been hired to carry out as far as possible the characteristic traits of the party. But more of this anon.

THE FIREWORKS.

Rockets were let off at intervals along the line of march, and previous to the accident by which a large share of the stock was lost, the display was almost continuous and very imposing. The accident to which we refer occurred on Mill Street. A waggon, containing 75 rockets, and occupied by J. C. Moynes, D. J. Smith, B. Johnson, Mr. Hill and others, by some means came in contact with Roman candles carried near by, by which the quilt covering the rockets was ignited and the whole exploded. The occupants sprang from their seats without injury. The horses ran away, but were soon caught. No particular damage was done. This accident compelled a husbanding of resources, and hence the display of fireworks was somewhat curtailed. But still, at intervals, the sky was illuminated by well-directed rockets, which marked the course of the procession.

THE ILLUMINATIONS.

In response to a request of the Committee, a number of Reformers went to considerable expense in illuminating their residences and shops. It would be quite impossible to enumerate all who responded in this way, but a few prominent ones are justly entitled to a special notice. Beginning at the starting place—the Reform Association Rooms and ONTARIO office were brilliantly lighted inside and had Chinese lanterns and transparencies strung in front of the building. Mr Turley, of the Lorne Hotel, also added very much to the appearance of this block by the tasteful decorations on his place. From a rope extended across the, street were suspended flags and mottoes conspicuous among which were "The Mowat-Fraser Administration triumphant." Mr. Ford had his Art Gallery ablaze with gas and Chinese lanterns. Conger Bros', and a few other shops were also illuminated. O'Brien's Hotel and the Carriage Factory of Mr. St. Charles were beautifully trimmed with lanterns and gas jets. The windows of the hotel were filled with ladies waving their handkerchiefs. Next came the "Ontario House," where Mr. Fitzpatrick had a hundred candles burning in his windows. The private residence of Mr. E. Burril was the next to attract special attention. The largest trees in front had lanterns suspended from the boughs, and the windows were ablaze. Mr. Read's grocery and residence and a house opposite were also illuminated. Mr. Jas. Meagher did nobly. His fine residence shop were magnificently trimmed with lanterns and every window was thrown open revealing the light and comfort within. There were other places with tokens of approval on Mill Street but we could not learn names. On Hotel Street Mr. Farley and Mr. Smith were aglow with Reform enthusiasm. On Charles we noticed the residence of Mr. Smith, Mr. Jno. Cook, Mr. W. C. Holton, Mr. J. J. B. Flint and Mr. Phillips. All of these were decorated and illuminated, but we must specially mention the fine effect of Messrs. Flint and Holton. Their beautiful residences are well adapted to make a good display, and every facility was utilized to good purpose. On Bridge Street, Messrs. Dr. Caldwell, D. Robinson, Jno. Lewis, A. Brown, U. E. Thompson, N. Jones, W. E. Holton, and Mrs. D. D. Bogart were illuminated and appeared to excellent advantage. Mr. Lewis had Chinese lanterns suspended at regular intervals from the top of his tower to the basement. The absence of lights inside made the building invisible from a distance, and the scene was very pretty. The windows of Mr. Brown's beautiful house were decorated with colored paper and brilliantly lighted. Mr. Holton, in addition to the lights within his house, had lanterns strung through the yard, where a large number of ladies and children had collected to cheer the procession. Mr. Jones showed red, white and blue transparencies, lanterns and flags. On Queen Street we noticed a fine transparency at the residences of Messrs. L. W. Yeomans and W. F. Jones, who also showed other emblems of loyalty. On George Street, Mr. Thos. Ritchie and Mr. Charles Holten were grandly illuminated. Mr. Ritchie's house had colored paper in the windows and was well lighted. Mr. Holton had a row of Chinese lanterns and a bon-fire of unique construction. A tar barrel was made to emit a bright flame and add materially to the scene. We have omitted others who helped to make the affair a grand success, not purposely, but because want of space forbids a further notice.

THE TRANSPARENCIES.

Whoever designed and executed the transparencies carried in the procession had a fine conception of the "eternal fitness of things." They were exceedingly neat and appropriate. We noted the mottoes shown as follows:—

No. 1—"Mowat Administration"—"The People's Choice,"

No. 2—"Pure Elections"—"Honest Government."

No. 3—"Distributed to the People. $17,500,000"—"Surplus $4,500,000."

No. 4—"N. W. Boundry will be confirmed"—"Ontario's Rights."

No. 5—"Colonization Roads"—"Railways Promoted"—Franchise to Farmer's Sons"—"Municipal Loan Fund Settled."

No. 6—"Ontario has spoken"—"No N. P. here."

No. 7—"Ontario is safe"—"Majority 28.

No. 8—"The Pet is sick—the last hours of the poor N. P."—"Grit Medicine, June 5th."

This last one bore off the palm for originality of conception, and was a counterpart of Grip's elephant was admirably depicted on his back, with his legs dangling in the air, and looking the very picture of being "too sick to live." It created immense amusement, and was a bitter pill for the chagrined Tories to swallow. A hundred roughs were direstok to pelt it with stones but they did not touch the emblem of truth.

TORY ROWDYISM.

This brings us to the point we touched on above. In the exuberance of joy over such a triumph as we celebrated last night we can afford to be magnanimous, but there is a limit even to this exercise of the Golden Rule. Last September the Conservatives of Belleville celebrated the victory of their party at the polls. Reformers looked on quietly, and even congratulated the moving spirits on the success of their celebration. Did they offer an insult of the most trivial nature? Was there one single exhibition of rowdyism on the part of those who voted against Sir John Macdonald and his candidates? If so we have yet to learn the fact. But how did the Tories repay this courtesy last night? They hired a gang of roughs to pelt respectable people with rotten eggs and stones. They crawled through the streets like cowards and insulted by word and act gentlemen riding in their own carriages. They used the means of their Association to defray the expenses incurred in getting up transparencies and hiring rowdies to parade their ill-manners through the streets of the city. They tried to bribe the little fellows who carried torches in the procession and offered them considerable money to leave with their lights. They were sneaking behind every hiding place with missiles to throw at the most conspicuous transparencies. This is a strong indictment, and a sweeping one, too, but circumstances justify all we have said, and more. We shall hold the Conservative party responsible for the disgraceful transactions that took place last night in this city, and ask those who disapprove of them in so by what means they see fit. We will give publicity to every name that can be associated with the conduct so universally condemned. The transparency announcing Mr. Robertson's majority in West Hastings was guarded by W. Severn and W. Scholes, and was supported by one Kennedy, a burly fellow. Several ladies who were near the Congregational Church, on Hotel Street, state that they saw Dr. Tracy and Capt. Willett start this exhibition, and give directions to those in the cart where to head off the procession. These gentlemen may be able to clear themselves of the odium attached to such a despicable trick. For the sake of old friendships, we hope so. One W. Carroll, an impulsive, foul-mouthed and narrow-brained law student, made himself more than usually objectionable, and he got from Mr. Tom Flanagan's store. The character of Mr. Mowat has been built in a more lasting manner than could ever be overthrown by such a contemptible, if true, and shows how terribly annoyed the Tories were over the celebration of a Reform victory, and how desperate were their attempts to lessen, if possible, the success of the movement. When Dr. Platt and Mr. Ferris were speaking on the Market Square a number of rotten eggs were thrown at them, and several persons were struck. We shall put forth every possible effort to ferrit out the perpetrators of such dastardly conduct, and publish their names to the world. Had a member of the party to which we owe allegiance interfered in a similar way with the Conservative procession last September, our condemnation would have been as ready and as forcible. Will the local Tory organ offer a word of disapproval of last night's transactions on the part of its political friends? We shall see. But, in spite of all that Tory chagrin and rowdyism could do, the demonstration surpassed anything of the kind ever before witnessed here.

J. J. B. Flint, Esq., President of the Reform Association of West Hastings, called the vast assemblage to order. He felt satisfied that although an audience was an immense one, a good hearing would be given the different speakers. As President of the Association he congratulated the Mowat Government on the unparalelled success of the demonstration which had been given in their honor. During the Election campaign the various acts of the Government had been fully discussed, and he had only to point to the transparencies which they saw around them to show what the Government had done. He spoke of several of thess acts, and then made place for Mr. Holden, the next speaker.

Mr. Holden, on arising to speak was received with loud cheers. He said, the fact was known to the most of those present, that he had been defeated in the late contest, and if there was any one in the city who did not know it, the transparency which headed the procession told of his defeat by 337 majority. He admired the spirit which dictated the sending out of that transparency. Although he had been defeated in West Hastings, he said, he would rather be defeated, and have the glorious majority which the Government had to-day, than be like the 17th of September last when West Hastings was carried and the country lost. He felt that if the Dominion elections were to come off now things would be reversed in the Dominion. At the demonstration which had taken place in this city after the election of the 5th of June, before the full returns came in, one of the speakers said they had swept the country of Grits from the Atlantic to the Pacific, but the Grits were alive to-day. One of the worst things he (Mr. H.) had to contend with during the election was the expectation that the Government was to be defeated. They had paraded in the Tory paper that to vote for Holden was to support public plunder, but the people who started that cry were those who were after plunder, and he was glad to say it would be many days before they would get it. He felt sorry for his defeat, not on account of himself but on account of his friends, but his failure was not to be attributed to either himself or friends. He also felt sorry for those people who expected a change of Government and were office-seekers, for although Mr. Robertson was to-day the representative of West Hastings he (Mr. H.) would be its representative. (Cheers.) He was also sorry for the disappointment those officials who had exerted themselves so strongly against him, for although he did not believe in Sir John's policy he believed that the least Government officials could do was to keep quiet. He was glad he was defeated for one reason that it gave his opponents so much pleasure. There was something worse than defeat and that was dishonor. (Cheers.) Nothing of a dishonorable nature could be said against his (Mr.H.'s) conduct in the election and that was more than could be said of his opponents. The support he had received was because the people believed in the honesty of the Mowat Government, and he felt proud of that support. He had the satisfaction of knowing that if the people thought the Government would have been sustained it would have gained him at least 150 majority. He had no feelings of enmity against any man who opposed him, but he despised men who pretended to support him and then voted contrary to whom there were many. He was satisfied that when the people were called upon again to vote for members for the House of Commons they would vote against the McDonald Government, and return to power honest men. He resumed his seat amid deafening cheers, after which the Oddfellows Band struck up "For he is a jolly good fellow."

The President stated that it was the intention of the Committee to get some of the leading members of the Government to attend. They were unable to attend because of a prior engagements. He was glad, however, to announce that there were present two gentlemen who had done good service in the Reform ranks, and who had recently fought the battle and came out victorious. He proposed three cheers for Messrs. Striker and Ferris, which were heartily responded to. He then called on Mr. Ferris,

Mr. Ferris, M. P. P., on rising in response to a voice said he was a fighting man. He wished to extend his voice far enough to be heard. The Government whose victory they were then celebrating had the endorsation of the people, and he was glad to see, by the magnificent demonstration of the evening that the sympathies of the people of West Hastings were with them. The Government had appealed to them solely on its record of the past, and the demonstration given in their favor here was a testimonial to true and loyal Government. He then reviewed many of the acts of the Government, showing that they had done what was for the interest of the country. The character of Mr. Mowat not a rotten shot amongst them. On their behalf he returned thanks for the magnificent demonstration, and as he was going to Toronto tomorrow he would be proud to convey to the Attorney-General the sympathy with him exhibited by the large audience. He then sat down amid loud cheering.

Mr. Striker, M. P. P., was next called upon. He said he was delighted to have received an invitation to be present and participate in the demonstration in honor of the Great victory achieved by the Government. He was sorry Mr. Holden had not been returned to represent them, because, if elected, he would have supported an honest Government. It was fortunate for West Hastings that they had not elected a supporter of the Government, however, as the last good neighbors all round us, and they would not allow our interests to suffer. We had Mr. Appleby in the East. Mr. Ferris in Northumberland, and himself (Mr. Striker) in Prince Edward. (Cheers.) Mr. Robertson would hold a seat in the house and they would do the voting. He war proud to know that the McDougall circulars, which had been scattered profusely throughout the country, had no weight with the people, because they were to intelligent to swallow his bosh. He was satisfied that if the elections were to come off now for the Dominion Parliament we would have a majority in the House. In his own riding, if the present member, Mr. McQuaig, would resign. Dr. Platt would most assuredly defeat him. It was no suprise to him that the Mowat Government should have a large majority, because it was an honest government. He was satisfied it would be a long day before there would be a Conservative majority in Ontario, and when another chance was given Prince Edward would send a representative to the Dominion Parliament and resuming his seat rousing cheers were given for the speaker Prince Edward.

Dr. Platt was the next speaker. He believed it to be his first duty to thank the committee for the invitation which had been given him to be present. Before he congratulate the Reformers on the magnificent demonstration of the evening; the Mowat Government on the demonstration in their favor; the country on having returned the Mowat Government with such a glorious majority. If the demonstration had been gotten up to celebrate a mere party victory, it would be of little account, but he believed it was because of the interest the people had in the welfare of the Province. The people had spoken faithfully when they said that they believed the interests of the country were safe in the hands of the Government; that the principles for which their forefathers had fought were safer in their hands than in the hands of the Tories; that the interests of our Confederation were safer; our educational interests were safer. He believed the people resented the attack made upon the educational system of the country by the Opposition. When our victory was made known, from one end of the Dominion to the other the great heart of the masses rejoiced. He was glad some of the previous speakers had referred to the National Policy and the contest waged on the 17th of September last. He was surprised to observe that during the meetings held prior to the late election the opponents of the Government were not inclined to introduce the subject. The N. P. had been forced upon the Reform party and the electors of Ontario, and in his election campaign he had the pleasure of showing the electors of Prince Edward that from beginning to end, top to bottom, it was a most arrant humbug. Our experience of their pet scheme since that time has proven the correctness of that statement. The people were told that with its advent prosperity would dawn upon us, there would be no more hard times, &c. Well, the country spoke in its favor, and the better times did not dawn. We were told to wait until Parliament met and the policy was matured. Parliament met, and better times did not dawn. At last the black Friday for Canada came when it was sprung upon the people, and the result was worse times than ever. It was simply intended for the purpose of getting Sir John into power and defeating the Mowat Government, but, thanks to the people of Ontario, they did not succeed. This victory might well be regarded as the death knell of the National Policy. The people of Prince Edward had gone in favor of the National Policy, but now they would resent the man they elected if a chance were given them. The demonstration here showed plainly that there was a strong feeling here in favor of Reform, and was adequate to the proportions of the city. The reason why West Hastings had not elected Mr. Holden, he believed, was because the people had not been allowed to exercise their franchise honestly, and he appealed to them to see that no undue influence was used against them when next they had an opportunity of expressing an opinion by the ballot. He took it that the demonstration had not been gotten up as menace to the menance to Conservative party, but was a tribute to honest Government, and the transparency which headed the procession was characteristic of the party who had sent it there. Rotten eggs had been thrown, which was also characteristic of the party. The same party rotten egged one of the best Governor-Generals Canada ever had, and burned the Parliament buildings because they could not get what they wanted. This concluded Dr. Platt's address, and it was followed by deafening cheers, and music from the 15th Band.

Dr. Day, of Trenton, was next called upon. He said that he had felt a good deal of sourness over the defeat of Mr. Holden in West Hastings, but the sourness had left him since he came here and saw the magnificent demonstration. He felt sure that if another chance were given the result would be different and the country would give a still larger majority in favor of the Mowat Administration. He felt proud to know that the back bone of Toryism in Ontario was broken. If he ever had a chance to go into a contest again he would use his mightiest endeavors to wipe away the stigma which had been put upon us in this contest.

Dr. Hope was the next speaker, and was received with enthusiasm. He joined his congratulations with those of former speakers at the success of the demonstration. He hoped it would not be long before an opportunity would be given Mr. Mowat and other members of the Government to attend a public dinner here, when we could hear from their own lips their opinion of the verdict given in their favor. He retired amid cheering.

Calls were then made for Jas. Meagher, who responded. He was sorry he was not a speaker, or had the eloquence of his fellow-countrymen, Mr. Ferris, but he was like to pay no the request that he had a good deal of grit. All who were acquainted with him knew that since he became a man he had cast his lot among the Reformers. He had watched closely the political course of both parties, and if his judgment was worth anything, (and in this respect, he thought it was), he felt that honesty of purpose was with the Reformers. He was a boy in 1838, and he well remembered the action of the Tories then. All the advantages the country ever had were received from the Reform side of the House, and now he was still more firmly convinced than even that he was on the right side of politics. He did not think the stigma thrown upon his co-religionists in West Hastings was merited. He felt proud of them, but he had no hesitation in saying that some serious stress must have been brought to bear upon some of those who opposed Mr. Holden. The Government, however, had been sustained, despite that pressure, and at the end of nother term they would be sent back with a still larger majority. (Loud cheers.)

Mr. E. D. O'Flynn, of Madoc, next took the stand. He said that while defeated in West Hastings the Reformers had constituencies all around them that would see that justice was done to us. He believed the men who were seeking to overthrow the Government were not the men to govern the country, the extravagance of which so much had been said by the Tories was a sham. The large amount of $17,500,000 that had been spent among the people was evidence enough of this. Although he was a defeated candidate he was not discouraged and believed the North Riding would yet be carried by the Reformers. (Loud cheers.)

Mr. Clute responded to loud calls from the crowd, and was received with deafening cheers. He first expressed his gratification at the success of the demonstration. He felt confident if the electors of the Riding had been given a chance Thomas Holden would be elected. It was no honor to carry an election in the manner their opponents had carried this one. It was gratifying to hear admissions from their opponents that the Mowat Government should be sustained. It was grand to hear such admissions, He then dealt with some of the acts of the Government, with a view to showing how unjust it would have been to turn that Government from power. He then called for three rousing cheers for the Mowat Government, which were given right lustily, after which the 15th Band played "God Save the Queen," and the crowd broke up.

APOLOGY.—Owing to the length of the report of last night's demonstration several matters of local interest had to be left over.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—Remember the Oddfellows' Band have an excursion on the steamer Transit this evening. Brass and string bands in attendance,

ANOTHER REFORM DEMONSTRATION.—The Reformers of Lennox intend celebrating the victory on Tuesday next. The Oddfellows' Band have been engaged for the occasion.

WEATHER BULLETIN.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate to fresh westerly to southerly winds, clear to fair continue l hot weather.

THE WEATHER.—It looks to-day as if we were at least to enjoy some clear, settled weather. Some one has written about winter lingering in the lap of spring, but to us it seems as if he forgot to rise until summer drove him out, and the warm sun of June melted his clothing. However this may be, we rejoice at the change, which will start vegetation, and make the farmers' faces happy with the thoughts of the coming bountiful harvest.

MATCHED RACE.—The matched race for $50 a side, between "Little William" and "Rawdon," after several postponements on account of the weather, took place at the Bay Side Driving Park, yesterday afternoon. The attendance was very meagre. The first two heats were won by "Little William." The third being a "running race" between the two horses, the Judges promptly decided this no heat. The fourth was won by "Little William," he thus winning the match.

DOMINION DAY.—A few days since a number of our citizens called upon the Chief of Police and asked him if he would undertake getting up a demonstration here on the 1st of July (Dominion Day), in order that once more a similiarly enjoyable day to that ever-to-be-remembered one on the occasion of our inauguration last year, might be enjoyed. We are pleased to say that the Chief complied with the request, and with his usual energy has set to work. We trust the citizens will do all in their power to assist him in his undertaking, by liberally subscribing towards the necessary funds requisite to make the day a success. Already the Chief has succeeded in securing some $200, but this sum will require to be very much augmented, and we feel sure that such will be the fact.

BRYAN'S WAFERS (the great public remedy) have now been in use over twenty years, hence it cannot be said that they are on trial. They have been thoroughly tried, and pronounced (on the authority of those whose lives and health they have preserved) to be a sure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation, and if taken in season will invariably cure colds, coughs, sore throat, and all bronchial affections. One fair trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cents per box.

Style, elegance, location, moderate, and choice of either the American plan $2.50 to $3.00 or the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards, meals in the elegant Restaurant attached to he house, all unite in giving the travellers more for the same money, at the Grand Central Hotel, New York, than elsewhere.

He Rather Liked It.

One of our well known citizens was sitting in his parlor the other evening surrounded by his wife and children when the conversation turned upon likes and dislikes, and taste and flavor of various condiments. One person preferred this, another that, when a little blue-eyed, four year old spoke up and said she rather liked castor oil. It seemed singular; but it is not surprising, when we know that she, that very morning, had been taking some of Scott & Bowne's palatable castor oil. Price 25 cents.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

SECOND SESSION.

COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS.

The following were read by the Warden:—

From E. Horton, short hand reporter, relative to appointment as official reporter for County Court, and stating that he could not undertake to furnish a copy of the evidence taken by him to counsel who wished them. His fee would be $10 per day.

On motion of Mr. Francis it was received and filed.

From the County of Hastings Rifle Association, asking a grant of $100 to aid them in their annual matches.

From the Ontario Rifle Association, asking a donation of $10.

From the Provincial Secretary's Office, Toronto, referring to the petition of the County Council relative to the employment of prisoners out side of jail walls, and enclosing a copy of the law.

From Dr. Hope relative to his position as Surgeon of the County Jail, showing that his salary was not large enough when the fact was taken into consideration that he furnished the medicine, and asking for an increase.

From John Richardson stating that he sustained a loss by having a mare hurt on a county road, and asking $75 to repay him for his loss. All of the above were on motion referred to their respective committees.

REPORTS.

The Committee appointed to inspect the Trenton Bridge reported recommending certain repairs and alterations.

A number of returns for repairs on bridges, ordered last session, were read.

The County Surveyor presented his report, showing the amount of work done under his supervision since the last meeting of the Council and on that part of the work finished $1,938.73 was expended. It further contained various recommendations as to work required.

The Superintendent of Gravel Roads presented a report of the amount of gravel banked on the county roads, together with the amount of the different contracts awarded.

The forgoing reports were, on motion, received and filed,

The report of the County Gravel Road Superintendent was also read, which on motion, was received and filed,

On motion the reports of the Superintendents of schools were read by the Inspectors.

Mr. Nemo said he was much pleased with the elaborate reports which had just been read by the Inspectors, but thought that the expense of having them published would be too great. He moved that the matter of having them published be laid over until to-morrow.—Carried.

Mr. Emo gave notice of introduction of a By-law for the appointment of a Board of Public School Examiners.

Mr. Tuttle gave notices of a By-law for the opening of a certain road in the Township of Madoc.

On motion the Council adjourned until 10 a. m. to-morrow.

BUT ONE OPINION prevails throughout the world, and that is so strongly in favor of Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER, that no other article ever attained so wide spread popularity.

I have derived much benefit from using Fellows' Hypophosphites in chronic constipation.

HOME AND ABROAD

THE appointees of the several Custom Houses of the Dominion will assemble at Montreal next Wednesday, to discuss the various questions connected with their duties, and to organize generally.

COMMISSIONERS Spinney and Walker of the Boston Police Board, according to a newspaper of that city, disagreed about the appointment of a captain, and had a fight of three lively rounds, ending with the interference of the third commissioner.

MR. MACIVER, in a recent debate in the British Commons, said that when the member for Birmingham died his epitaph should be thus written: "Estimable in all the relations of private life, he gave us sour claret cheap, and he ruined the weavers of Coventry."

THE translation of the "Merchant of Venice" by Dom Luiz I., King of Portugal, had just been published anonymously, although extracts have been given in the papers attributing the authorship to the King, and thus making a public secret of the affair. The book will not be offered for sale, but will be distributed privately, as was the King's translation of "Hamlet."

ACCORDING to the Paris Golos, the plague of locusts in the Caucasus is assuming alarming proportions. The locusts are devouring whole districts, and the price of bread in consequence has doubled. At the same time, with the setting in of warm weather, fears of the plague assuming a more virulent form are entertained. Incendiarism likewise continues, and panic grows among the officials.

CARDINAL NEWMAN takes his title from the Church of St. Georgio de Nelabro, the only one in Rome dedicated to the patron saint of England. The church contains, under the high altar, the head of St. George and the red silk banner, which are exhibited on the day after Ash Wednesday and on St. George's day, the only days when the church is open to the public. Two minutes' walk distant is the church of St. Maria-in-Cosmedin, under which is preserved a piece of St. Patrick's skull, exhibited on that saint's day.

Demonstration Notes,

The steamer Mary Ethel arrived here last night about 9 o'clock with a large crowd on board, to witness and take part in the Reform demonstration.

The Reformers of Madoc chartered a train for an excursion, and came down from the north in strong force. They arrived here about 8 o'clock.

A lady standing on the Market Square last evening was struck by one of the Tory rotten eggs, and had her dress terribly soiled. She has her opinion of the party that will countenance such proceedings.

The attempt made by certain Tories to have people believe that eggs were thrown last night from the waggons in the procession, is in keeping with the whole proceedings. It is a cowardly falsehood.

Several of the transparencies carried in the procession last night were broken by stones thrown by the Tory mob. A number were taken out this morning.

Mr. Owen Jones was struck twice while standing in a waggon—once on the face, and a second time on the back. He was considerably hurt.

Condensed Telegrams.

—A terrific wind storm passed over Dubuke last night, doing much damage to property and causing the death of one person.

—The adjournment of Congress is expected to take place about the 19th inst.

—Myron Leffington, a well known commedian, died in New York yesterday.

—The Pennsylvania Coal Co. decided to advance the price of coal 10 cts. per ton.

—Five cases of small-pox reported yesterday in New York.

MILLBROOK P. O. TUDOR, ONT

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also as that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain. At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outside of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could, but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep it also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

UNDER and by virtue of powers of sale contained in certain mortgages, which will be produced at the time of sale, there will be sold on at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, by Charles Wilkins, Auctioneer at the Court House in the City of Belleville, the following properties:

(1) The west half of Lot No. 18 in the 9th Concession of the Township of Marmora, in the County of Hastings, containing 100 acres more or less.

This property is situated about six miles from the village of Marmora.

(2) The north half of Lot 14 in the 5th Concession and Lot No. 14 in the 6th Concession of the Township of Thurlow, in the County of Hastings, containing together 300 acres, more or less.

This property is situated about 5 miles from the City of Belleville, and there are erected thereon two dwelling houses and two barns.

(3) The west three-quarters of Lot No. 9, on the east side of Murney Street, in the Town of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, as laid down on a plan of part of Lot No. 2 in the 1st Concession of the Township of Thurlow, now in Belleville, for one Edmund Murney by J. J. Haslett, P. L. S.

On this property there are erected two dwelling houses and a store.

(4) Lot No. 18 on the east side of Everett Street, in the Town of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, according to a plan registered in the Registry Office for the said County, on the 20th day of July, A. D. 1852, for W. H. Coleman.

Upon this property there is erected a dwelling house with a kitchen attached.

(5) Part of Lot 3 in the 1st Concession of the Township of Thurlow known as Lot 1, on the north side of Bridge Street, in the Town of Belleville, according to a plan of John D. Evans, P. L. S., called "Glass Brook" and registered 18th of August, 1875.

There is erected upon this Lot a two-story brick dwelling house.

(6) Lot No. 28 on the southeast side of Grove Street and fronting thereon, in the Town of Belleville, as laid down on a plan drawn by P. Shorts and registered in the Registry Office for the County of Hastings.

This property contains one-fifth of an acre of land, more or less, and thereon is erected a good two-story brick dwelling house.

(7) Farm Lot No. 6 on a plan of subdivisions of Lots Nos. 5, 6 and 7 in the 3rd Concession of the Township of Thurlow, on the west side of the River Moira, by P. V. Elmer, P. L. S., and in the Registry Office of the County of Hastings and designated West Canifton.

This property contains 45 acres of land more or less, and is situated about 3 miles from the City of Belleville.

(9) The east half of Lot No. 9 in the 4th Concession of the Township of Sidney, in the County of Hastings, containing 100 acres more or less.

On this property there are erected a good stone dwelling house, two barns and a driving shed.

(9) The south half of Lot No. 9 in the 13th Concession of the Township of Huntingford, in the County of Hastings, containing 100 acres, more or less.

(10) Lots Nos. 41 and 42 on the east side of Octavia Street, in the Town of Belleville, as laid out on a plan of part of Lot No. 2, in the 1st Concession of the Township of Thurlow, for Edmund Murney.

On this property there are erected two brick dwelling houses.

Great Bargain in Land.

ONE hundred acres of good land in the Township of Sidney for fifteen hundred dollars

The subscriber offers for sale the north half of Lot No. 6, in the 7th Con. of Sidney, at the above mentioned price.

There are sixty five acres cleared. The soil is a clay and sandy loam, will soon be all fit for the reaper, and will be found the cheapest land in the County of Hastings. There is a large crop on the ground which affords a good opportunity of judging the strength, and quality of the soil.

Terms easy, and title good, for further particulars, apply to

SCOTT'S EMULSION
PURE COD LIVER OIL
WITH
HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND S

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the stimulating and curative properties of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless, as it is also a perfect substitute for it in all forms, copy and dictation stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life giving properties of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda are developed by the chemical process used in its manufacture, thus producing a remedy which will create appetite, assimilate the food, give strength, and at the same time exert the specific influence of the Cod Liver Oil in curing Pulmonary Consumption, Scrofula, and all forms of Wasting Disease. It is almost as palatable as milk, and may be taken by the most delicate babe or sickly adult. Being prepared without the aid of heat, the Hypophosphites are not destroyed, as is the case when made by the old process, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and will be found to create an appetite for food, and permanently increase the flesh, making the most perfect and thoroughly satisfactory flesh producer known to the medical profession. It is sweet and palatable as cream, and may be taken by the most delicate babe or sickly adult. It will not cause nausea or sickness, but on the contrary will check any tendency to vomiting, relieve pain, and by giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste

Mr. McN—— you know how it is in the Birds. There was a man named Isaac or Jacob—who was the brother of Sarah? No report from Mr. Sharpe as the whole assembly and the occupants of the gallery being convulsed with laughter.) "Well, sir, it was Isaac; he served seven years under Laban for a wife, and then had to serve seven years longer before he got her! And did he complain? No, sir; he had a great deal of it, and when he quitted the service of the old man he had a whole herd of ringed cattle." (Loud continued laughter and applause, interrupted by the laughter and applause, interrupted by the laughter and applause.) "Jacob? Well, gave of the Chairman.) "Jacob? Well, some members say Isaac and some say Jacob—it don't matter, Mr. Chairman, except to show that the members are deficient in Scriptural studies."

How shall to prevent unhappy marriages the source that fed prisons and filled poorhouses, and he knew no better method than that indicated by the Bill. It made no hardships.

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affliction of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who have proved their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not bogus people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public.

Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or billiousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities no the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY
JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system, fulfils a the you Multi constitution for the duties of life, and when taken in middle or old age, carries a real blessing; and on the approach of childbirth these pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; the benefits to be derived are invaluable; they clear the constitution; lessen the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with comfort to herself and child. In all cases of of Nervous Spinal Affections, Pains in the back and limbs, Failure of Appetite exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Fits and Blues the se pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and, although a powerful remedy do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution. Full directions in the pamphlet round each package. JOB MOSES, 39 YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. $1.00 and 125 cts for postage enclosed to Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agent for the Dominion, will insure it's containing over 50 pills, by return mail. For sale by all druggists in Belleville, G. T. Wilson Mader, H. Dow ler, 38 King, W. C. Parker 7 Trenton, and all the medicine dealers.

It was nearly nine o'clock before the programme of proceedings was completed and then the order was given to proceed. If proof were needed that the City of Belleville and County of Hastings were still to the grand old principles of their fathers who have saved the country from [illegible] and bankruptcy it was then forthcoming. Headed by the splendid Oddfellows band, and a body of torch bearers the procession, more than half a mile in length, composed of gentlemen who took their sparsely in the face by daylight, to the [illegible]arch. Over fifty carriages were in front Street, but this was no [illegible] of the exact number that [illegible] the lead. Many were [illegible] to drop out and take other courses to their horses becoming restive [illegible] glare of torches and flash of rockets. [illegible] midway the 15th. Battalion Band [illegible] uniforms and playing in fine [illegible] another company of torchbearers [illegible] were again followed by carriages [illegible] ands of men, women and children. Nearly every carriage in the procession carried torches, while the marshal [illegible] foot-guards were also decorated with [illegible] ular ornaments. The scene, as the line moved through Front Street [illegible] enlivening, and far surpassed at [illegible] the kind ever before witnessed in [illegible]

THE CROWDS.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring induces rest. The happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

THE

ONTARIO MUTUAL Life Assurance Co'y.

HEAD OFFICE, WATERLOO, ONT.

Deposited with the Dominion Government, $56,221.00

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL!

The Policy-holders own its funds and control its business. Its Policy-holders are the only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NEET COST.

This Company puts by many thousand dollars year for the Security of Policy holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, and has a reserve of 4 per cent interest.

In assuring, mutuities cannot value this one cent, as two great Annuities result from this safe calculation, viz.

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then real annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows :—

Mr. Yerex, Exter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $3,000 at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63.88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows :

The 4th Premium	by 4 c. s.	to	$56.80
" 5th	"	"	1940 " 53.48
" 6th	"	"	1740 " 50.68
" 7th	"	"	1540 " 47.90
" 8th	"	"	1340 " 45.19
" 9th	"	"	1140 " 42.59
" 10th	"	"	940 " 39.99
" 11th	"	"	740 " 37.50
" 12th	"	"	540 " 35.05
" 13th	"	"	340 " 32.65
" 14th	"	"	140 " 30.36

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures prove the assurance of many of your ambition and thwarted him as much as you could, in as much you did a great wrong to the country, and to a most estimable and honorable brother officer. I have heard, in such a way as to believe it of your recently saying that both the army and the Government needed a discipline. Of course it was not for this, but in spite of this, that I have left you the command. Only these generals who gain success can set up obstacles. What I now say to you is military candour, and I will risk the friendship. The government will support you to the utmost of its ability, which is neither more nor less than it has done and will do for all commanders. I shall not, however, conceal that I have alluded to in the army of criticism their commander and withholding confidence from him, will now turn upon you. I shall have none of it, for as far as I can do so I down. Neither you nor Napoleon if he were alive again, could get any good out of an army while such a spirit prevails in it. And now beware of rashness. Beware of rashness, but, with energy and with prudence vigilence, go forward and give us victories.

Yours very truly,
A. LINCOLN.

His Grace the Duke.

THE NEW DIFFERENT SPECIMENS NOW COMING TO AMERICA.

The United States since this month an event which she never saw before, in the arrival of two British Dukes, the antipodes to each other in politics and everything else, but personally very friendly. American knows something of the Duke of Argyll, the accomplished, if not profound, author of the "Reign of Law." It was said of him at least Lord Derby of the Duke of Argyll, if, instead of being born in the purple of Knowsley, he had first seen light in the middle of Salisbury Plain, he would still have become a distinguished man, and in a degree, the leading statesman of His Grace of Argyll. Very early in life he married into a family whose head was a devoted lover of art and literature, a connection which, we doubt, several still further to develope the young Duke's taste in this direction, and as time has gone on he has worthily sustained the position of a genuine nobleman. Nor must we omit to say that as an orator when the moral tone of high life has become exceptionally low, so pure an influence could be found in the House and Lords of Britain as that of the Duke of Argyll. Quite a great contrast in the respect is the Ivory Duke. His Grace of Beaufort, is the gayest of society, the quintessential flower of dissipated circles, the right hand man of the Princes, the admirer of women, who's daughters are like himself, models of all that ladies should be. Except filling an often genial court appointment, Keeper of Badminton, and a great sportsman in the region of Gloucestershire, the Duke, who has no reputation for ability, has taken no part in life which could in any sense be termed public. The great parliamentary questions which have excited and rent asunder parliament from his party, and then his second son, a young man of lovely life, who had never distinguished himself, and who died young, and by that was spared the pain of being, with his father, ignored by Lord Beaconsfield into the Ivory Quinick and a full court appointment, which a few months ago he resigned, entered the service of the Prince of Wales. The Duke of Beaufort, who has really been one of the greatest men in this country in which he holds so high a place, is a man of great popularity among the class of his own particular sphere, and is an engaging address, a hearty hospitality, will do very much to make for errors and shortcomings in most men, and in this case the Duke of Beaufort, we would, in the face of the English and American ton, almost for almost anything. Bilwer has laid it down that a noble character scarcely ever has irregular qualities.—Truth.

From "Truth."

Dear old Sir Walter Trevelyan! His familiar figure will be missed in the neighborhood of the Northumberland Home. Un-like most handsome men he talks are also rich. He was delighted to remember seeing him pass a drawing-room window one day on his way to the front door. "Who is that?" asked one of the guests, "Oh," said the hostess, catching sight of the retreating back of a long figure, a broad hat and an Inverness cape. "It is either Sir Walter Trevelyan or a bogey." But he could shell out a cool thousand for

HON. Mr. Jo[illegible]ase congratulated [illegible]day.

[illegible] expresses himself highly with the reception he met with in [illegible]on, when on the Letellier mission. He had every opportunity afforded him of placing the views of himself and his colleagues before the Imperial Government.

AMONG the new members elected to the Legislature last Thursday, Mr. McMaster, who is doubtfully returned for Glengarry, will take rank as a leading member of Mr. Meredith's Opposition. He is said to be an eloquent speaker, a keen debater, and to possess commanding ability. But Mr. McMaster's election will probably be protested, as there is said to be good evidence of extensive bribery and corrupt acts by the Opposition candidate and his party.

THE supporters of Mr. Robertson profess to be very proud of their majority in West Hastings. Reformers have no objection to their parading the figures before the public. They were obtained by a most corrupt and extravagant use of whiskey and money; and by other agencies equally as dishonorable. We do not believe that Mr. Robertson feels very much flattered with the return before him, knowing, as he must, how that majority of 337 was obtained. Mr. Holden, though defeated, is practically the representative of West Hastings to-day, and will be during the next four years.

The Negro Exodus.

There is much feeling in the Southern States, and elsewhere throughout the Union, over the exodus of negroes from the South. Public sentiment seems to be nearly evenly divided about this modern hegira. Prominent members of the colored race approve of the movement, while as prominent ones disapprove of it. In the North and South public men express themselves pro and con in about the same proportion. The Mississippi planters have warned off the steamboats from the landings, and it is even reported have prepared to attack with cannon any Northern boats which come down to take away refugees. The President has been interviewed on the subject, and is semi-officially reported as declaring that the navigation of the Mississippi must be free, and that the whole power of the National Government will be exerted, if need be, to keep it free. In this position he will be sustained not only by the whole North, but also by a respectable minority in the South.

Senator Butler, of South Carolina, says the exodus is a good thing for the South which has too much cheap labor. He thinks that the negroes can easily stand the Northern climate; hopes that the exodus will continue long enough to carry to the north two or three hundred thousand negroes; and is of the opinion that a gradual interchange and exchange of population between the sections would be beneficial to the country.

Casual Remarks.

—The N. P. has almost entirely destroyed the export trade between Montreal and P. E. Island. Tally again.

—The Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec is still indisposed, though able to preside at the State Dinner Tuesday night.

—The local Tory organ repeats the falsehood that rotten eggs were thrown from waggons in the Reform procession last Tuesday night. Shame!

—The accountants of Montreal have organized for mutual protection. A charter will be asked for, the object being to raise the status of the profession.

—A number of prominent Conservatives have promptly and most emphatically condemned the rowdyism of certain members of their party last Tuesday night.

—A despatch from Ottawa says:—"Mr. Edward Sherwood, of Belleville, brother of the Chief of Police, has been appointed Deputy Sheriff for the County of Carleton."

—The local Tory organ says the speakers last Tuesday night, on the Market Square, "were fairly received." From this we are to infer that by the grace of the Tory party their lives were spared.

—Sergt. Seymour, who left Winnipeg with Rymer, the forger, for Toronto, some time ago, has not yet been heard from. The impression is he has sheddalled, too, with his prisoner; or else met with foul play.

—A horse belonging to Foster & Co., and carrying one of their employees, fell dead on Pinnacle Street Tuesday night. The animal would rather die than disgrace himself by carrying the person who had been dressed to caricature the proceedings. It sometimes happens that brutes show more reason than their human masters.

—The local Tory organ calls the demonstration Tuesday night "a first-class burlesque on that of the Conservatives in September last." It was such a burlesque as Westminister Abbey is on a backwoodsman's hut, for, in point of size, display, and enthusiasm, the comparison was about the same.

—Not one word of condemnation in the local Tory organ for those who so disgraced themselves and the party to which they belong by rampant rowdyism Tuesday night. The gentlemen and ladies pelted with rotten eggs have the satisfaction of knowing that they were not the first to be honored by the Tory party of Canada.

It is given as a reason why that insulting Tory transparency was sent through the streets of the city Tuesday night, that members of that party contributed towards the celebration, and therefore, claimed a right to take part. We demand the name of one Conservative who contributed a cent. It is an easy matter to make good the claim put forth, and here's a chance.

—Something has been said about the authorgraphy shown in the mottoe that was strung across the street in front of the Reform Association Rooms Tuesday night. The painter is a Con[illegible] and hence his error, whether [illegible]otherwise, must be [illegible]rvative, that would [illegible]accidental or as [illegible]attributed to the party [illegible]nogolius knowledge, as well [illegible]uality.

—We have made a vow and shall keep it. Gentlemen, who are ready to back up what they assert, inform us that one of the most abusive and rowdy-acting among all the Tory rowdies Tuesday night was Henry Fillister, of Thurlow. When the procession was passing the Dafoe House he used expressions no decent person would repeat, and snatching a torch from one of the boys, threw it at the transparency carried in Mr. D. R. Leaven's carriage. Perhaps Mr. Fillister was scarcely responsible for his conduct, but we are in no humor to excuse short-comings, now, and so his name appears in this connection.

Capt. Jellett Vindicated.

To the Editor of the DAILY ONTARIO.

DEAR SIR,—I was in company with Capt. John Jellett from the starting till the ending of the procession of Tuesday night, and he in no way interfered with the same. The persons who gave you the information stated in your paper are certainly mistaken as to his identity. A. P. Wickman, of Cloyne, was also in our company.

S. B. BURDETT.

Belleville, June 12, 1879.

 We publish this letter with much pleasure. The names of Dr. Tracy and Capt. Jellett were given to us on the best of authority, and under the circumstances we could not treat them more respectfully than we did. It is now evident that the ladies were mistaken in their identity of the persons who started the Tory transparency. We cheerfully give both gentlemen the full benefit of their friend's denial. —ED. ONTARIO.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD

IT is believed in London tha[illegible]Lord Dufferin will be appointed Governor of Asia Minor, where the Reforms about to be initiated necessitate the employment of a master mind, and that he is not likely to return to St. Petersburgh.

MAKE a shallow basin in the ground not far from the kitchen and fill with coal ashes as it is made, and on this throw night slops wash water, etc. An immense amount of the very best fertilizers can be made in this way.

PURE air and water are of even more importance than exercise in the care of young animals They are often huddled together in houses altogether insufficient in size, and in which the atmosphere is almost constantly impure from the product of respiration.

IT is useless to say that good crops come from luck. It is not so. The secret is in selecting the seed with care, draining the fields, keeping out the cattle and having sound fences Thrift is what honest men thrive by. Rogues have luck, if getting along only is luck.

IF after the wool has grown to some considerable length, sheep or lambs become annoyed with lice or ticks, wash the lambs in a strong decotion of tobacco. Another way is to take a pair of bellows and inhale tobacco smoke; then blow the smoke with considerable force among the ticks. This will prove instant death to them.

THE liquid yieldings of animals are worth more—good authorities say one-sixth more—pound for pound, then the solid excrements, and they are saved with greater care by the best European farmers and gardners. All the leaks in the stable are not in the roof; those often in the floor are quite as objectionable, and are the cause of a great deal of waste.

THE Prince of Wales' recent speech on London cabdrivers has been translated verbatim into most of the Russian newspapers and laudatory remarks appended. One or two of the observations of the reviewers are worth recording. "The annual salary of the Kniaz Vaolski," says the Wo'os "is so wrotchedly small that his Royal Highness is compelled to make constant use of hansoms." "Perhaps," observes the Kievlanin, "no other Heir Apparent in Europe hires flies and cabs more frequantly than the Prince of Wales, and the result of this condescension is that he is most popular with Londoners, who usually speak of him as being a 'joly good fellow.'" "It is no uncommon thing," remarks a third, "for the Prince of Wales to drive a cab himself. The heir to the Lion and the Unicorn is excessively fond of horses; nothing pleases him better than to shut a driver inside his vehicle and to enjoy the joke of holding the reins on the box!"

RUMORED COMBINATION OF G. T. & G. W. RAILWAYS.

A NEW LINE PROJECTED.

MONTREAL, June 12.—It is understood that the Great Western Railway Company of Canada has entered into a contract with the Wabash & Grand Trunk Companies for the construction of a new line of Railway between Detroit and Toledo, and that there is a fair prospect of the two great Canadian roads uniting in Chicago. This accounts for the recent long and anxious conferences at Detroit and Toronto.

Our Neighbors.

—The Whig says: We are informed that it is the intention to protest the Frontenac election on grounds of bribery and corruption, for which Mr. Calvin may be made to suffer, whether he is personally responsible or not. The matter will be developed in a few days.

—The Kingston Firemen and Oddfellows are expected to visit Watertown on the 4th of July. As much as $3,000 will be spent in a celebration of the anniversary of American independence, so that those going from here will have all the amusement they can hope for or desire.

—Dr. Saunders, of Mill Point, very skillfully removed a tape worm 123 feet in length from Mr. Wm. Ham, of that place a few days ago. The patient expresses the utmost admiration of the doctor's treatment.—Standard.

—Mr. John Sherman, of Belleville, has removed to this place, and opened an agency for the sale of the Wanzer Sewing Machine, in the Paisley Block. These machines have taken a foremost place among the best markets of this and all other countries, and is a purely Canadian machine. Mr. Sherman has also a large assortment of plants, and as he is a pushing business man, he will probably work up a good trade in Napanee.—Ibid

The Green-Eyed Monster.

HOW A JEALOUS HUSBAND PUNISHED AN UNFAITHFUL WIFE.

A case against Napoleon Jubinville, saloon keeper, charged with assaulting his wife, was to have been heard this morning before the Recorder, but was settled between the parties. It appears that Jubinville is a prey to the "green-eyed monster," and suspected his wife of infidelity.

Returning home rather unexpectedly at two o'clock in the morning, he discovered his wife alone with a young car conductor in her apartment. The guilty pair trembled at the wrath which they had provoked and shuddered for their own safety. The demon jealously seized full possession of Jubinville, and fired him with a desire to avenge his wrongs. Seizing a six-shooter, he rushed for the destroyer of his happiness, and would speedily have rid the earth of his presence if he had not eluded and escaped.

The flight of the Don Juan did not tend to allay his fiery wrath, and, returning to his bedchamber, he met his faithless spouse and assaulted her in a most attrocious manner. He caught the woman by the hair and threw her to the floor; while she lay there he brutally kicked her on the side of the body and breast. Infuriated almost to madness, Jubinville then proceeded to destroy the beauty of the countenance which had proved so attractive to others and detrimental to his own peace of mind, by striking her face with his clenched fists until the beautiful features were reduced to a horribly lacerated and bleading condition. Savage as this attack was it did not serve to mollify the jealous wrath of Jubinville, but, brandishing a revolver he threatened to forever rid himself of his treacherous spouse if she ever breathed a word of what had occurred. With this parting injunction of silence he threw the terribly punished woman into the street, and returning, bolted and barred the entrance to prevent her return. Mrs. Jubinville shortly after recovered her senses, and, meeting a policeman, she was escorted to the police station, where she was accommodated with a lodging for that night. The following day she had a warrant issued for the arrest of her outraged husband; and the case was fixed for this morning, when she declined to prosecute.—Montreal Post.

Messrs. Milburn, Boutley & Pearson,—SIRS, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also will in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

The history of a great many courting scenes which begin with poetry and romance and end in stern, hard fact is aptly described in these verses:—

He took her fancy when he came,
He took her hand, he took a kiss;
He took no notice of the shame,
That glowed her happy cheek at this.
He took to coming afternoons,
He took an oath he'd ne'er deceive,
He took her father's silver spoons,
And after that he took his leave.

—Every woman that suicides has "lovely golden hair;" every trout is a "speckled beauty;" every party is "the most recherche affair of the season;" dancing is always kept up "till the wee sma' hours;" every newspaper we hate is "our respected contemporary;" every man we know is either a judge, colonel, or major.

—Owing to the better times and the fact that everything is coming down, we have reduced the price of original poetry in this column to three dollars a line, a reduction of nearly fifty per cent. At this rate, every man should be able to publish at least one poem per week in this department. No limit is placed on the length of the poem; write as much as you wish and send the money with your poem.

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured deafness in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise. It always does you good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stopes the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every discription on an and breast.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the name Northrup & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHRUP & LYMAN Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion

Consumption Cured.

OWING to the extensive fitting up of our new Studio in

Ashley's Block

we are sorry to inform the Citizens of Belleville that we will not be able to open until on or about the 15 h or 20 h of Jun.

We hope you will patiently wait, and we think when you see the style of work made by our Mr. Dean, who held for many years a prominent position in Notman's Studio, you will be led to exclaim "They are the finest finished photos I ever saw."

LOCAL & GENERAL

TEARING DOWN.—This morning a large gang of men commenced tearing down the large rough-cast house on the corner of John and Hotel Streets, on the site of which Mr. S. S. Lazier will erect his new house.

CONVERSAZIONE.—The Historical Society of Albert College have issued invitations for their annual conversazione, which will be held at the College Chapel on Wednesday evening next. The programme is one of the finest the Society have ever prepared, and a most enjoyable evening may be anticipated.

THE COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT.—Tickets for the benefit to be given to Mr Geo. Hanwell by the Belleville Histrionic Society are now on sale at Reynolds', and we hope both for the sake of the Society and Mr. Hanwell they will be readily bought up. Mr. Hanwell has on many occasions, lent the use of his house to charitable purposes, and is justly entitled to the patronage of the public.

THE REGATTA.—The union regatta, under the joint auspices of the Bay of Quinte Yacht Club and the Rowing Club, will be held at Massassaga to-morrow afternoon. The prizes offered for all the races are good ones, and there will be a large number of entries. The steamer Transit will leave Campbell's wharf at 1 and 2 o'clock, and tickets for the round trip are placed at the low price of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

OBIT.—We regret to have to announce the sudden death of Mr. W. H. Rielly, proprietor of the Oak Hall Clothing House which took place on Tuesday last. Although Mr. R., had been sick for some time, his death was unexpected, and the greatest sympathy is felt with his mother and sisters in their bereavement. The deceased came to Belleville a little over a year ago, and in business circles and private life was regarded by all who knew him as a straightforward, honest man. His funeral took place to-day, and was largely attended.

PRESS ASSOCIATION.—The following are the arrangements for the annual meeting of the Press Association, which will take place at Kingston on the 22nd of July:—The party will visit the Penitentiary, Rockwood Asylum and Military College; the next morning the party should go down the river, probably to Alexandria Bay, stopping over for an hour or two at Brockville; then a couple of days should be spent at the Thousand Island Park or one of the Islands a-joining in fishing or other amusements. The arrangements are not definitely completed, but it is not likely there will be any very great departure from the above.

THE MOONLIGHT (?) EXCURSION.—The weather being fine last evening, the oft postponed excursion of the Oddfellow's Band took place. The attendance was good, and everything promised an evening of rare enjoyment, but shortly after ten o'clock a damper was put upon the feelings of the party when it was suddenly discovered that the steamer had grounded in about two feet and a half of water at Cow Island. The paddle wheels were kept in motion and vain endeavors made to get off, which had, finally, to be abandoned. When it was discovered that all efforts were futile, the members of the band set to work with a will to get their guests out of their awkward predicament. The writer is under obligations to Captain Simpson and the members of the band for having towed a boat and sent him with a few others ashore soon after the grounding of the steamer. With a number of row boats the bandemen speedily placed a large number of the passengers on terra firma, so that by the time the tug Bonar came up the bay, which was about 2 o'clock, there was only about thirty or forty people on board. About 3 o'clock, the tug succeeded in pulling her off, and the remaining passengers reached home soon after that hour.

THE MARKET.—A rather small market this morning. No change in prices.

THE CELLS.—Two drunks lodged at the Police Station last night. The tramps preferred the open air.

POLICE COURT.—Two drunks were brought before the P. M., this morning. Both were discharged.

BASE BALL.—A match game of base ball will be played next Saturday at 3 p. m., between the "Troublers" and "Silent" clubs on the grounds of the latter, at the D. & D. Institute.

CROP PROSPECTS.—From all sections of the country we learn that there was never more favorable crops than this year. It is said the country never looked better, and the farmer who cannot now afford to smile must be a miserable man, indeed.

PERSONAL.—We learn from the American Advocate that Dr. Jaques is to be the Orator in the Literary Exercises at the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the Syracuse University, a post filled last year by Dr. Fowler, of New York. The number of graduates is reported about six hundred.

THE POLICE FORCE.—The new summer uniforms for the police force will not be ready before next week. In the meantime the men on day duty are suffering from excessive heat, owing to their warm clothing. New hats were served out to them on Monday, which are anything but becoming.

EDISON OUTDONE.—In glancing over the report of the great Reform procession of Tuesday night, the "young man" of our contemporary evidently wore a pair of of glasses, the sight of which would make glad the heart of Edison, the inventor. The singular anomaly of the "specs" is that they caused the writer, to see nothing that he does not wish to bring within the line of vision, and make everything appear in the darkest colors that reflects credit on an opponent. Has a patent been applied for?

A STRAW.—The Jeffs' estate at Trenton has been in the market for some time. About a month ago it was put up and $16,000 offered for it. But the persons having the property in charge did not consider the price sufficient, and, being keen business men, determined to await the result of the Provincial Elections, knowing that the price could not drop further, while there were many chances of a raise. The result has reached the best anticipations. The property sold readily this week for $19,300. The intelligence comes from Trenton to a business man in Kingston.

CORNER STONE.—The corner stone of the new M. E. Church, on the farm of D. Firman, Esq., 5th Concession Thurlow, was laid by Rev. I. B. Aylsworth, pastor of the charge, yesterday morning. A sumptuous dinner was served in an adjoining grove, after which very suitable addresses were delivered by Revs. W. Bass, T. Macammon, B. Lane, E. I. Badgley and W. Bird. The exercises were greatly enlivened by the sweet music furnished by Mrs. I. B. Aylesworth. The church is to be built of brick, and from the well earned reputation of the contractor, W. H. Garrison, Esq., it is expected the church will be a gem when finished.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

SECOND SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, June 11.

Council met at 10 o'clock, the Warden in the chair.

The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

A communication from the County Clerk of Peterborough, with regard to a road in Belmont was referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges.

A petition from a number of ratepayers in Rawdon and Sidney for a grant for a road, Referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges.

From Thos. Owens asking for remuneration for the loss of a horse last winter by breaking through a road, Referred to Ways and Means.

A petition from ratepayers in Hungerford for a grant on a road, Referred to Roads and Bridges.

A petition from John Moore for a grant on a road between Elziver and Kaladar, Referred to Roads and Bridges.

From Hon. Billa Flint, asking for a remission of taxes from the Townships of Elziver and Grimsthrope—Referred to Ways and Means.

From certain ratepayers, asking to have the bridge over Papineau Creek, repaired.—Referred to Roads and Bridges.

From the Township Council of Dungannon and Faraday, asking a grant of $500 for roads and bridges in that municipality. Referred to Committee on Roads and Bridges.

From taxpayers in Hungerford for a grant of $200 on the Stoco and Marlbank road.—Referred to Committee on Roads and Bridges.

From taxpayers in Hungerford and Tyendinaga, for completion of Boundary line road between Tyendinaga and Hungerford.—Referred to Committee on Roads and Bridges.

From the Registrar, regarding registration fees.—Received and laid on the table.

NOTICES.

The following notices were given: For the assumption of the road from Deer Creek, Madoc, to the North Hastings Railway, also for the equalization of the assessment.

MOTIONS.

Mr. McCreadie moved for a statement of the indebtedness of minor municipalities to the county.—Carried.

On motion a Committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Horton, short hand reporter, as to the reporting of the Court proceedings.

WAYS AND MEANS.

Council went into Committee on Ways and Means. Mr. Aylsworth in the chair.

The petition of Thomas Ovens for loss of a horse caused by breaking through into a drain in a field in the north part of Rawdon, which was used in lieu of the gravel road, which was drifted full of snow.

Mr. Cooke stated the circumstances, saying the horse was a good one.

Mr. Emo thought all they could do was to give Mr. Ovens a sum in compensation for the loss of the horse.

Mr. Anderson opposed a grant, as the roads could not have been kept clean. It was the duty of every man to take care of his own horse.

Mr. Cook moved, seconded by Mr. Vankleek that a grant of $40 be made, which was a little more than half the value of the horse.

Mr. Carrie would have favored the motion had the horse been killed on the road.

Dr. Parker supported the motion.

The Warden thought Mr. Ovens had a claim against the County, and he moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Kavanagh, that $25 be granted.

Mr. Appleby contended that the cause of the horse's death was not certified to.

Mr. Weese moved to throw out the petition.

Mr. Cooke said Mr. Ovens would make an affidavit to that effect.

Mr. O'Flynn did not think the Council a charitable institution and should not pay for the horse if not liable. He would give something personally, but would not vote for a grant.

Mr. Vankleek held that if they could get clear of keeping the roads open by paying for one old horse, they would effect a large saving.

Mr. Appleby would move to lay the matter over till the next meeting, in order to afford Mr. Ovens an opportunity to prove the cause of his horse's death.—Not seconded.

Mr. Cooke said it was of no use laying the matter over later than the afternoon, as Mr. Ovens would, if necessary, make an affidavit. The horse was killed by an accident in fields where they had opened a road in lieu of the gravel road.

After some further discussion, the motion for a grant of $25 was carried.

A number of accounts were passed.

The petition of Dr. Hope for an increase of salary as gaol surgeon, was taken up.

Mr. Vandewaters moved that $50 per year additional be given.

Mr. Ashley moved for an increase of $100 per annum.

Mr. Emo said there were other physicians who would willingly do the work which Dr. Hope does for a smaller salary than he gets now.

Mr. Ashley said they ought to consider that Dr. Hope had but $40 for 25 years. Although others might be willing to do it for $50 a year, it should not be considered, as some medical men might be willing to do the work for the honor.

Mr. Robinson opposed an increase, if other medical men would perform the service as cheap or cheaper.

Dr. Parker agreed with Mr. Robinson.

At the suggestion of the Warden, the matter was laid over for further consideration.

Committee rose, reported progress and asked leave to sit again.—Granted.

It being 12 o'clock, the Warden left the chair.

—Mr. C. W. Weldon, M. P., has been arrested at the instance of the executor of the late Mr. O'Sullivan, of Moncton. He procured bail,

MORNING DESPATCHES.

BODIE, Cal., June 12.—The Standard publishes particulars of the discovery of a bonanza in the Bodie gold mine. The development is on 433 foot level, and has been uncovered 200 ft. in length, and 300 ft. vertically. The average thickness is 2 feet, the filling being a peculiar mixture of metallic gold, horn and native silver, and silver in sulphur. The management will mix the rich with the lower grade of ore to prolong the production, while prospecting on lower levels, confining dividends to one hundred thousand dollars per month. The strike creates great excitement.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—Pierre Lorillard has bought for $9,000 the two year old colt "Wallenstein." He will run at Chicago meeting, then go west and in the fall go to England to prepare for the Derby.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The Herald's cable says a profound sensation was caused in Berlin yesterday by the slighting reception given Bismarck by Empress Augusta. The Emperor greeted him with the greatest frankness. It is known that the Empress long entertained a bitter dislike for the Chancellor.

Khedive of Egypt received a despatch from Capt. Gessie indicating the slave trade at its chief centre has been crushed, and the rich territories of the Soudon are soon likely to be opened to civilization. Capt. Gessie fought seven battles with slave traders on the Gazelle River. All slave nations were destroyed and the establishment of civilized rule will prevent any further trade from the region of the Gazelles.

GREENVILLE, 12.—John Moore, proprietor of a distillery, was jailed at Spartansburg for outraging and murdering a young girl. Threats of lynching.

ATLANTA, 12.—Samuel Hill, gambler, was arraigned yesterday on charge of killing Jno. Simmons the alleged seducer of Hill's wife. The defense claims Mrs. Hill was a disreputable character.

NEW YORK, 12.—Three cases of sunstroke yesterday.

Trial of Jos. Hops for alleged complicity in noted Manhattan Savings Bank robbery commenced yesterday.

Trial of Indian Commissioner Hoyt and other officers of International trust company, for alleged pulication of false statements commenced in Jersey City yesterday.

Morning papers state that Mrs. Dr. Hall who was found murdered yesterday, was a prominent member of Sorouis, and other womens societies, and was also well known Spiritualist. She was formerly wealthy, but lost heavily by stock speculations. Believed she was bound to her bed after she had been killed. Her husband, with whom she lived unhappily, is under the eyes of detectives. He semmed indifferent when questioned.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

ROCKLAND, Me., June 12.—Sam Hames charged with numerous robberies, wounded Keeper Robbins fatally with a stove wrench last night and escaped.

LONDON, June 12.—In Hanlan-Elliott match, to take place Monday £90 to £40 on Hanlan is offered; £5 2 wanted.

The Times Capetown advices says 2 chiefs and 300 followers from Bazurland have been captured. Cavalry visited Isandula and buried the bodies of soldiers killed in the battle of 22nd January. Forty wagons were recovered.

LONDON, June 12.—The Rous Memorial Stake was won by Lagrange's "Phenix."

FORT ROBINSON, Neb., June 12.—The daily passenger coach which left Sidney Monday for Deadwood was stopped north of the Cheyenne River Tuesday at midnight by five masked robbers. Four passengers were robbed. The mail sacks were cut open, the robbers taking registered packages.

FROM THOROLD.

A SHOOTING CASE—AVENGING A FRIEND'S DISGRACE.

THOROLD, June 12.—A man named Chas. Garratt of Drummondville, while standing on the market this morning, was shot by a young man named Wm. Alexander, of Thorold. He deliberately shot him while standing about three feet from him, the ball penetrating the abdomen. Garratt is in a very critical condition. The cause of the shooting is said to be that Garratt seduced a young lady friend of Alexander's. Alexander is now under arrest.

He Rather Liked It.

One of our well known citizens was sitting in his parlor the other evening surrounded by his wife and children when the conversation turned upon likes and dislikes, and taste and flavor of various condiments. One person preferred this, another that, when a little blue-eyed, four year old spoke up and said she rather liked castor oil. This seemed singular, but it is not surprising, when we know that she, that very morning, had been taking some of Scott & Bowne's palatable cast or oil. Price 25 cents

SCOTT'S EMULSION PURE COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil as a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vitality and that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vitality and that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vitality superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but more promptly assimilated by the system than plain cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching the blood, restoring the impaired functions and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or scals. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle the United Kingdom Alliance when the right moment came. His nephew the new baronet, who is no chicken, was a posthumous son. His mother was an Irishwoman and so is his wife.

Very amusing theories have been put forward to account for the law forbidding in England marriage with a deceased wife's sister. One writer lately stated gravely that a principal reason was to prevent a man who found that he liked his sister-in-law better than his wife, killing the latter in order to marry the former. Another position of a contrary kind is taken by those who argue that the main motive of those who are against repealing the law is, in fact, based on a conviction that it would lead to a great inconvenience, for instance, when a man loses his wife, it is usually his wife's sister not his own sister, who comes to take her place in his family, and inasmuch as she is regarded as standing to him in exactly the same relation as his own sister, the most strait laced and censorious person would never have a word to say to any visit of whatever length he or she, abode with her brother-in-law of twenty-eight, and look after his infant children. Repeal the law, and all this is changed. It would then not be "proper" for the young sister-in-law to remain a night under her brother-in-law's roof without a chaperone. Consequently, enormous inconvenience would arise, and there would be a break up in a thousand homes, for brothers-in-law may have the warmest regard for deceased wives' sisters and yet have no sort of desire to marry them. Again, I presume many people think that it is very undesirable to make two marriages in the same family, and that on divers accounts it is better to avoid the connection. It is well known that there are certain influential persons who are very desirous of making the marriage now prohibited. In all probability, some of them are the large landowners in the County of Norfolk, which has rendered it easy to get a petition signed there, and as the Prince of Wales is exceedingly obliging and amiable, if ever he did incontinence capacity for taking an interest—but, unfortunately, by no means always a judicious one—in other people's affairs, he probably was easily induced to give the matter a helping hand by presenting the petition. Probably in another five years the proposed Bill will pass in the Imperial as it already has in several of the Colonial Legislature.

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affliction of the Kidneys, Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not begus peoples in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be useless to aid you. No inferior efforts can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain the elements by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are wisely planned, and still possess the full powers of nature after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have been in use many years, the most favorable reputation of any pills before the public.

Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy by Billiousness, Sick Headache, and in purifying the stomach. Price for the large size, only in just bottles, $1, Pills 25 cts. a box.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY

JOB MOSES PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and regulates the monthly period with such certainty as to prevent those frightful consequences which the system entails when this is irregular. In all cases of Nervous Prostration, Pains in the Back and limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites and Blues, they have no equal, and in all cases where all other means have failed, and, although a powerful remedy, do not contain mercury, or any other mineral or thing hurtful to the constitution. Full directions in the pamphlet round each package. Sold by MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. Price one box $1, or five boxes, enclosed to Sterling & Lyman, Druggists, Ont., general agent for the Dominion, will insure a cure, containing will receive by return mail, or by all druggists in Belleville. Sold by Dr. Hicks, G. H. Hunter, Stirling, W. C. Burke, Trenton, and all leading druggists.

Public Notice

IS hereby given, that under and in pursuance of the powers vested in Municipal Council of The Municipal Institutions Act of 1873, of the Province of Ontario, chapter 48 and amendments thereto, the Council of the Municipality of the City of Belleville intend, immediately after the expiration of one month from the first publication of this notice, to pass a

By-Law

for the following purpose, that is to say:—

That Rear Street be widened to John Street, commencing at the Eastern Boundary of said Street 218 feet more or less north from Dundas Street, where it now ends, belonging to Jacob Cronk, thence easterly along said fence to John Street, thence northerly along the western side of John Street to the land now owned by the City, thence westerly along the southern limit of said land to Rear Street, thence along the eastern side of Rear Street to the place of beginning.

AND TAKE NOTICE, that any and all persons whose lands may be prejudicially affected thereby, or who may be in any way interested in the lands required for the opening and extending of said Street or any of them may be heard at the Meeting of the Council of said Municipality, either in person or by Counsel, or Agent, or both, or at any regular meeting of Hall, and Council, before the passing of said By-Law.

Dated this 20th day of May A. D., 1879, at Belleville City Clerk's office.

R. NEWBERY,
City Clerk.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING, THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered; and is a speedy relief in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of Asthma or Pertussis, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to its treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the balsamic resin of the silver tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a specific of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supercede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., entitled THE MARRIAGE GUIDE.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postage stamps.

The Celebrated Author in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ The Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

ONTARIO MUTUA Life Assurance Co'y.

HEAD OFFICE - WATERLOO, ONT.

Deposited with the Dominion Government $50,224,00

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for he first three years $65,88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by		$ 6.98 to	$56.90
" 5th	"	10.40 "	53.48
" 6th	"	17.30 "	46.58
" 7th	"	20.73 "	43.15
" 8th	"	25.89 "	37.99
" 9th	"	30.65 "	27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

SECOND SESSION.

At 2 p. m., the Council resumed.

Council went into Committee on Roads and Bridges. Mr. Sills in the chair.

The petition for a grant on the line between Rawdon and Sidney at Hall Hill was taken up.

The County Surveyor's report was then considered.

The Warden said in reference to the bridge at Vince's in Stirling, that he had understood that only a culvert was to be built. He also found that it was not on a County road, and so had stopped the work.

Mr. Emo said the bridge had been thought to be on the County road, but it proved not to be so.

Dr. Parker held that the road was virtually a County road, as it would be so if necessary if the upper bridge in Stirling had not been built.

Mr. Ashley said the Council ought to know why the work was stopped. If it had been in some other municipalities the work would have been built.

The Warden repeated that the work was stopped because it was not a County road, and that the cost would be very much greater than anticipated.

Mr. Cook said the grant had been made in good faith, and the bridge ought to be built.

Mr. Emo moved that the timber on the ground be given to the village of Stirling to assist in completing the bridge.

Mr. Parker moved an amendment, seconded by Mr. Ashley, that the work be completed by the County.

The amendment was put and lost, and the original motion was carried.

Repairs were ordered to be made to the stone embankment at Bridgewater: the bridge at Mud Creek, Tyendinaga, was ordered to be repaired, and that near Waterhouse's, in Hungerford.

Mr. Ashley moved, seconded by the Warden, that an appropriation of $300 be made for roofing trusses and painting bridges—Carried.

Mr. Appleby stated that the bridge at Lonsdale is rotten, and it would be more economical to rebuild it.

Mr. Curry was of opinion that there would be a saving by building an iron bridge there.

Mr. Appleby moved, seconded by Mr. Curry, that the bridge be examined by the County Surveyor and put in a safe condition, and to rebuild the same, if necessary, with the approbation of the Warden.

Mr. Kavanagh moved the adoption of the clause asking the appointment of Mr. Aylsworth and some other gentlemen to be associated with the County Surveyor and the Warden in regard to determining on extensive repairs.

Mr. Emo was willing to have Mr. Aylsworth appointed, but thought the appointment of an additional person unnecessary.

The clause was amended so as to recommend the appointment of Mr. Aylsworth only, and was carried.

Mr. Emo moved that the Surveyor be instructed to prohibit persons from damaging county roads by removing sand or gravel from the shores.

Carried.

The County Surveyor was ordered to examine the bridge at Smith's Mills, repair it and report at the next meeting, and to repair two small bridges on the road from Marysville to Mill Point, also to repair or rebuild the bridge across Cooper Creek, Madoc, near Thomas Allen's, and two bridges near Frankford.

Mr. Emo moved, seconded by Mr. Robinson, that the County Surveyor be authorized to make an opening of 10 to 12 feet wide in mud bridge on Hog Lake, to let off the scum and debris accumulating west of the same, which has been the known cause of so much sickness in that locality, known as fever and ague.

The motion was carried.

Mr. O'Flynn moved that no further work be done on the Trenton bridge beyond what was recommended by the Special Committee, except the necessary repairs.—Carried.

Dr. Parker moved for the erection of a fence at the crossing of the Grand Junction Railway in Stirling.—Carried.

Committee rose, reported progress, and asked leave to sit again.—Granted.

Mr. Ashley moved the appointment of Messrs. Emo, Sills, and Aylsworth, as a Committee to prepare estimates and report as early as possible.—Carried.

Mr. Kavanagh moved that the reports of the Public School Inspectors be published in the weekly newspapers of the city, on the same terms as formerly.

After some discussion, the motion was amended so as to include the publication of the North Hastings report in the Madoc Review, and carried.

NOTICES.

Mr. Aylsworth gave notice of a By-law for the levying of taxes.

Mr. Cook gave notice of a By-law for the assumption of the bridge over Squire's creek, 4th con. Rawdon.

Council went into Committee on Equalization, Mr. Emo in the chair.

Mr. Aylsworth said the question was one surrounded with great difficulty, and although attempts had been made to alter the equalization year after year, they had after long discussions come back to about the same figures as before. The equalization might not be in all cases just—the North had increased a little more rapidly than the South—yet he thought the best thing they could do was to adopt last year's equalization for this year at least, and move to that effect.

Mr. Ashley in seconding the motion said he agreed with Mr. Aylsworth, but the time was not far distant when a change would be necessary. Railways were completed and were now running, the effect of which would be to improve certain municipalities more than others, and in the near future a change would be desireable.

Mr. Anderson supported the motion, and agreed with the remarks made by Mr. Ashley. The railroads had not done much good as yet but would do so.

Mr. Sills went over the averaged assessed value of land in the various municipalities as shown by the year's returns, which he contended was unjust towards the front townships.

Mr. Anderson said in every concession in Tyendinaga there was at least a thousand acres in one block that was not worth a dollar. As to other townships he could not say.

The Warden said that most of the land in Lake is not worth 50 cents an acre, and about half of Marmora was equally as bad. There may be hidden wealth, but it is not yet developed.

Mr. O'Flynn held Mr. Sills was wrong in his conclusions. The value of Mr. Sills' farm would purchase the whole of seven townships. He would like to know how it was that Madoc, with a population of 1,200, was equalized at $140,000, while Mill Point, with a population of 1,200 is equalized at $120,000.

Mr. Aylsworth said the basis of equalization was assessed valuation—not population. The assessed value of Madoc is much greater than that of Mill Point, yet there is but a comparatively slight difference in the equalization.

After some further remarks by Messrs. Ashley, O'Flynn, Kavanagh and Breeze, the motion was carried.

The following is the equalization :—

	Assessment 1878.	Equalization
Sidney	$2,082,975	$2,540,000
Thurlo	2,016,003	2,399,000
Tyendinaga	1,395,182	1,900,000
Rawdon	1,072,813	1,100,000
Huntingdon	420,044	796,000
Hungerford	611,946	920,000
Marmora & Lake	253,511	350,000
Madoc (Tp.)	541,900	744,000
Elzevir & Grimsthorpe	74,194	200,000
Tudor, et al	65,692	70,000
Dungannon & Faraday	43,814	28,000
Bangor et al	40,785	32,000
Montague & Herschell	27,071	40,000
Carlow & Mayo	87,300	32,000
Trenton	895,875	900,000
Stirling	170,040	175,000
Mill Point	116,878	120,000
Madoc (vil.)	155,800	140,000
Total		$11,937,000

The Committee rose and reported.—Adopted.

Council adjourned till 10 a. m. on Thursday.

Thursday, June 12, 1879.

The Council met at 10 a. m., the Warden in the chair.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

PETITIONS.

A petition was presented from John White and others, asking that $100 be expended on a certain road in the Township of Tyendinaga.

REPORTS.

Mr. Aylsworth, Chairman, presented the first report of the Public Accounts Committee, showing an expenditure amounting in all to $9,500, $2,669 of which has already been expended on bridges.

On motion the report was adopted.

Mr. Aylsworth, Chairman, reported that the committee appointed yesterday to wait upon Mr. Horton, short hand reporter, had an interview with that gentleman and that he would not accept an engagement at less than $10 per day, he to pay his own expenses. That they did not make any permanent engagement with him, but simply engaged him for the present session.

The report was, on motion, adopted.

The Gravel Roads Committee reported, that they had looked into the very extensive report presented by Mr. Farnham, County Gravel Roads Superintendent, and recommending the expenditure of a number of amounts on roads in the County. The total amount of appropriations was $12,100.

Mr. Ashley moved the adoption of the report, seconded by Mr. Appleby. Carried.

Mr. Ashley, Chairman, also presented the report of the Committee on Estimates, asking an appropriation for all purposes amounting to $48,236.80.

This amount is made up as follows:—

Jury Law	$5,000.00
Board of Examiners	550.00
Administration of Justice	3,600.00
Warden and Councillors	2,400.00
Salaries	4,300.00
Printing and Stationary	2,000.00
Gravel Roads	12,600.00
Bridges on County Roads	9,500.00
Grants to County Roads and Municipalities	1,600.00
Court House and Jail	1,500.00
Grants to High, Poor and Model Schools	1,500.00
Contingencies	2,086.30
Interest Merchant's Bank account	1,600.00
	$48,236.80

ASSETS.

City of Belleville $4,456.80
Casual Revenue 2,000.00
35-100 of a c. on
$11,937.00 $41,779.50 $48,236.80

Mr. Ashley said in support of the report that the appropriation for gravel roads was somewhat larger than usual, and would probably be larger than for some years to come. He thought that every member of the Council had come here this year with the intention of curtailing expenses. The provision made was in the interest of the villages.

Mr. Tuttle thought that to complete a road from Bridgewater to Flinton, in the Township of Elzevir and Grimsthorpe a grant should be made for it. It was at present in an unfurnished state, and certainly needed repairs.

Mr. Emo favored the adopting of the report, as a whole, but would have no objection to a special grant where it was really necessary.

Mr. Gunter moved that the report be referred to the Committee of the Whole on Estimates.

Mr. Ashley had no objection, and the motion to refer to the Committee of the Whole was passed.

BY-LAWS.

The By-laws of which notice was given yesterday, were introduced and read a first time.

NOTICES.

Mr. Carry gave notice of By-law for assuming a road leading from Latta's Mills in Tyendinaga as a county road.

MOTIONS.

Mr. Lee moved that a committee be appointed to advertise for tenders from persons willing to keep the roads in the county in repair. That the said committee prepare plans and specifications and lay out the roads in sections.

On motion the Committee of the Whole on Ways and Means resumed, Mr. Ashley in the chair.

Dr. Hope, who was present, was on motion heard in reference to his communication for an increase in salary. He stated the medicines furnished to the prisoners in the jail would alone amount to about $50, so that he had given his services for almost nothing. He would be pleased to have his salary increased to $200 per year, and would also like that some arrangement could be made whereby he could have a place to keep his medicines in the jail.

Hon. Mr. Flint also gave his views in reference to the above matter, giving a statement of the length of time that a jail surgeon had been employed in the county. It was of opinion the doctor was not receiving too much salary. A medical man might be found who would do it for less, but he did not favor a change of any officer of the county who had discharged his duties faithfully.

Mr. Emo said that he had been spoken to a year or two ago by some medical men to have a change made in the office of Jail Surgeon, to have it could be done at the same salary. He would them by no means should a change be made. He was in favor of a small increase.

Mr. O'Flynn also spoke in favor of Dr. Hope's claim.

The Warden moved that Dr. Hope's salary be increased to $150.

Mr. Anderson objected to any increase of salary, as if one official was raised, others should be.

Dr. Parker, thought that $50 increase was very little, but that he should, at least, have that much.

The Warden's motion was carried.

On motion the committee rose and reported.

It being twelve o'clock the Warden left the chair.

At 2 p. m. the Council resumed.

Mr. O'Flynn introduced a by-law to assume a certain road in the Township of Madoc.

Mr. O'Flynn made a statement as to the grant for the Model School in Madoc, passed at last session, for work done in 1877. On account of the Government not doing as they thought it was going to do, the municipality of Madoc felt that they owed the County $75.

The Warden said that the Inspector and the Reeve of Madoc were entitled to thanks for their candor.

On motion the Council went into Committee of the Whole on By-laws. Mr. Lee in the chair.

BY-LAWS.

The By-law to appoint a Board of Examiners for the County was taken up for its second reading. The By-law provides for the appointment of Messrs. John Johnston, Inspector of South Hastings; W. McIntosh Inspector of North Hastings; Rev. E. Wishart and Mr. F. Seymour of Madoc; Prof. Dawson, of Belleville High School.

Mr. Vandervoort moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Wesse, that the name of Mr. Geo. Young, of Trenton, be substituted for that of Mr. Seymour, of Madoc. Lost.

Mr. Ashley moved, seconded by Mr. Vandervoort, that the name of Mr. Hicks, of Trenton, be substituted.

The By-law was then carried, with the amendment filled in as above.

The Committee rose, reported progress, and asked leave to sit again.—Granted.

WAYS AND MEANS.

On motion the Committee of the Whole on Ways and Means resumed. Mr. Ashley in the chair.

On motion the Hon. Billa Flint was heard at the bar in reference to claims of the Township of Elzevir for a rebate of assessment [illegible] and stated that during the time of his representation of that township they had built fifteen miles of as good roads as there was in the county. That during the time they were being built, the overseeing was done by himself or a clerk of his own without cost to the county. The county had given $2,000 towards these roads, and the township about $4,000. In consequence of building these roads, the township had ran behind nearly $1,800 in its indebtedness to the county for taxes. On account of a decrease in the tax on wild lands the township found it hard to meet its liabilities. While Reeve of the Township he had done all that he could to prevent the members from voting away money for roads, but they acted against his wishes. He trusted they would take this matter into their serious consideration and grant the prayer of the petition.

Mr. Ashley said if the remarks of Hon. Mr. Flint were true, and he believed they were, there was no doubt the county would have to do something for Elziver. At the same time it should be a warning to the representative of every member of the Board to steer clear of anything of the same kind. However, it was a question that should be approached carefully, as by making this grant it would be setting an example to other townships to make a similar request.

Mr. Tuttle moved that the prayer of the petitioner be granted, and substantiated the remarks made by Mr. Flint.

Dr. Falkiner wished to know whether Elziver had not obtained grants from the county for these roads ?

Hon. Mr. Flint explained that the county had granted various sums, but only $1,797.45 had been given for these roads.

Mr. Kavanagh seconded Mr. Tuttle's motion, and in doing so stated that he believed, after hearing Mr. Flint's explanation, that Elziver was entitled to aid.

Moved in amendment by Mr. Appleby, that the matter be laid over until to-morrow. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Sills, seconded by Mr. Vandewaters that $40 be appropriated for lighting Frankford bridge. Carried.

Various other accounts were passed and ordered to be paid.

On the petition of Mr. J. Richardson for $75 compensation on account of damage done to a horse on a road in Marmora, there was some discussion.

The Warden explained that he knew the circumstances in connection with the horse's injury to be correct, and if the County was liable, Mr. Richardson ought to receive compensation. He moved that $50 be granted.

Mr. McCready moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Wesse, that the prayer of the petition be not granted.

In amendment to the amendment, by Mr. Caskey, that $25 be paid him. Carried.

On the petition of Mr. Tammadge, Secretary of the Hastings Rifle Association, asking for a grant of $100 towards the annual rifle matches, a motion to grant $50 was carried.

The petition of the Ontarion Rifle Association, asking for a grant of $10 was, on motion granted.

On motion, $20 was allowed in payment of on account for repairs on a culvert near the municipality of Trenton.

The Warden stated that the County Surveyor had reported to him that the ceiling of Shire Hall needed repairs.

The County Surveyor also stated the floors of No. 1 corridor in the jail needed repairs.

On motion, he was instructed to have the necessary work done.

The Committee rose, reported progress, and asked leave to sit again.—Granted.

Mr. Ashley moved, seconded by Mr. Vankleek, a vote of thanks to the School Inspectors for the very full information given by them in their reports on the educational interests of the County.—Carried.

Mr. Tuttle moved that the Board of School Examiners meet in South Hastings at Belleville, and in North Hastings at Madoc. Carried.

On motion the Council adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10.

The Daily Ontario

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 13.

THE Ontario Opposition is supposed to be composed of 28 members. In a House of 88, this is a small force, but the prospects are that Mr. Meredith cannot rely upon even that number of supporters. It is hinted that some of the less-pronounced Conservative members elected last week will be found giving an independent support to the Mowat Ministry.

THERE is a political adage :—"As goes Ontario, so goes the Dominion ;" and hence the speakers last Tuesday evening had some reason to predict a Reform victory, were the Dominion elections to come off next week. There is an undoubted reaction against the "N. P." which may lead to a change of Government at Ottawa sooner than is expected.

A Game two can Play at.

There may be more in such rumors as the Telegram speaks of than most people are disposed to believe. Our contemporary says :—

"Rumors of the dismissal of prominent public officials are still rife, the intention being to make room for good Tories who have borne the heat and burden of the day and are hungering for their reward. The Government had better be careful how it deals with the offices. It it cuts off the heads of officials who are Grits it may find the Ontario Government retaliating by cutting off the heads of officials who are Tories, for of course this game of official decapitation is one that two can play at."

What has taken place since the Conservatives got control of the public patronage at Ottawa will scarcely influence the Ontario Government in the management of the Civil Service, but there can be no mistaking the drift of public opinion in this ruhtter. A strong pressure will undoubtedly be brought to bear upon Mr. Mowat and his colleagues of a retaliatory kind, but it it doubtful whether they will follow the example of the Tory Government at Ottawa, strong as the provocation may be, and introduce the American system.

More Outside Opinion.

It is interesting to notice how the issue of the late election in Ontario is viewed by outsiders. Our American neighbors are beginning to take a lively interest in the political affairs of Canada, and it must be acknowledged that in most cases the remarks of leading New York journals are pertinent to the questions involved.

The Detroit Free Press says :—"It is generally conceded that the unpopularity of Protection was one of the causes that led to the very decisive success of the Mowat Administration last week."

Says the New York Tribune :—"In each province the Liberal Ministry has the advantage of a leader of a limited purity of character. Mr. Mowat and Mr. Joly being men against whom their most vehement antagonists would not venture to allege improper practices, but after allowing for this advantage, which is more of an advantage in Canada than it would be, we are sorry to say, in New York, and the further advantage of a successful and economical administration of public affairs, the indications of a reaction in favor of the Canadian Liberals are most gratifying."

The Halifax Chronicle has this:—"Nobly has Ontario redeemed herself. Thursday's victory was a grand one for the premier Province, which will have for another term the benefits of an honest and wise administration of affairs. It was a grand one, too, for the Reform party, which, defeated in September last by the most impudent imposture, is rapidly rising to the commanding position that, from the character of its leaders and the wisdom of its policy, it is entitled to hold in the Dominion of Canada. The splendid triumph in Ontario will send a thrill of joy through the ranks of the Reform party down by the sea, and inspire them with a determination to be ready to do their own part when the proper time comes."

Casual Remarks.

—When Hon. Mr. Harly was assured that the Government was sustained on the 5th inst., he telegraphed to his colleague, Hon. Mr. Pardee, the one word "Hallelujah!" It expressed all he felt.

—The local Tory organ thinks the "emblems of Mr. Mackenzie" that were strung across the street, on the occasion of Sir John's visit here three years ago, constituted an insult equal to, if not greater than was offered by the Tories Tuesday evening. Indeed! What is there about Mr. Mackenzie's "emblems" that can be considered insulting to Sir John? Perhaps it is because said "emblems" have reference to the early life of one of the commonalty. Sir John, we know, if a blue-blooded aristocrat.

—It is not probable that the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards will visit either Utica or Brooklyn on the coming 4th of July, as anticipated.

That Rowdyism.

The local Tory organ, after a full confession, protests to disapprobate the rowdyism exhibited on our streets last Tuesday evening, by members of the political party of which it is a professed exponent. This pretention, insincere as it is, would be acceptable, were it not interlarded with assertions and insinuations that add to the injury already done. Now, as on former occasions when the ONTARIO has, from a sense of duty, been brought into contact with individuals, our neighbor evinces much anxiety in behalf of the injured (?) parties, and counsels the vengeance of the law. This only reveals a chronic ill-will and a disposition to revel in our discomfiture. The gentlemen whose names were mentioned in connection with the disgraceful transactions of last Tuesday night, were so used on what we considered reliable authority; and were, under the circumstances, courteously associated. We confess that, when writing the indictment, we felt keenly the insults that had been offered to gentlemen whose friendship and confidence we are proud to possess, and to a party whose record we so highly honor. We resented those insults with honest indignation, and would have been recreant to our duty had we failed to do so. Not one word that has been written do we regret. If an unintentional injury or injustice has been done any man, we offer him the retraction of an honest journalist. It is probable that, in a moment of excitement, information has been given and names mentioned that could not be substantiated, but if a mistake has been made of this nature it was not for the purpose of doing an intentional injury. Had the transactions of Tuesday night been reversed, and the Conservatives placed in the position occupied by the Reformers on that occasion, the resentment of such insults as were offered would have been much more emphatic than the one complained of on our part. We have been told by members of that party, who have the will to follow up their convictions, that, had such a transparency as announced Mr. Robertson's victory the other night preceded their procession last September, it would have been smashed into atoms before going ten rods, and the heads of those who protected it would have been smashed, too. But these are not the men who whine over our strictures. We have the satisfaction of knowing that many prominent Conservatives approve of the course we have taken, as being perfectly justifiable under such great provocation.

With the repeated assertion that eggs were thrown from a carriage in the procession, we are authorized by every person who occupied carriages to brand the statement as a deliberate falsehood. No one who took part in the demonstration, as a friend of the Mowat Government, carried such arguments with him. The eggs were thrown by Conservatives, and the whole work had been pre-arranged. The attempt to evade such a responsibility is as cowardly as it is mean.

What National Pills alone can do
Our women well relate to—
For thousands cry with eager breath,
"Dear saved me from the jaws of death!
All vegetable are these Pills;
'Tis National Pills your system needs.
Immense the rush for these Pills;
Which cures so many woeful ills.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that we claim no responsibility for what our correspondents may say.

Do You Know ?

To the Editor of the DAILY ONTARIO.

SIR,—Do you know how many Reformers were asked for subscriptions towards defraying expenses of the Conservative demonstration in September last ? If not you can be supplied with the information ; and the amounts were paid as well as subscribed.

Do you know, or did you ever hear, that the fireworks supplied for that same circus in September are still unpaid ? That, although money was collected for that purpose from both Grit and Tory, the debt has not been paid yet ? "What, never ? Well hardly ever."

Do you know who will pay me for my Leghorn bonnet, spoilt by a Partridge-Cochin nest-egg, thrown by some Conservative Rooster, not from a carriage, but over from opposite side of the street? "Who will doctor this for me ?"

Yours affectionately,
H. M. S. PINAFORE.

That Vote.

To the Editor of the ONTARIO.

DEAR SIR,—When you stated in your article headed "West Hastings" on Monday, that Mr. Holden was opposed by the Catholics, except about twenty votes, I suppose you meant that only about that number were actively engaged in that gentleman's candidature, but even taking this view of the statement you fell short of the mark. It so happens that I have a pretty good idea of how a large number of Catholics voted. I could count over seventy-five whom I know voted for Mr. Holden, and I have no hesitation in saying that one half, or more than that number, of the Catholic votes polled in the city were cast for Mr. Holden. I know one division where ninety votes were polled. In this division there were twenty five Catholic voters fourteen of whom voted Holden, eight for Robertson and three did not vote at all. Of the eight who voted Robertson, five were promised to him from the beginning. The change must not be attributed to religious influence from the simple fact that there was none exercised there. And I believe this influence has been magnified in other directions beyond its reality, and that these three changes at any rate were caused by something more potent than election matters. These three were not the only ones who were induced to change their opinions at the polling prices referred to, for at this same poll only twenty nine Protestant votes were cast for Mr. Holden, nine or ten others having violated their promises. I state this for the purpose of showing, and I believe I can establish the fact, that the desertion from Mr. Holden's ranks on the part of Catholics. Is it not a fact that at every polling division in the city, one only excepted, where the Catholic vote was strong, Mr. Holden was strong? Mr. Holden did not have any truer or harder workers in his ranks than the Catholic supporters of the Mowat-Fraser Administration. The honesty, purity and even-handed justice of this Administration has been acknowledged by them and appreciated, and we would be traitors to our friends and enemies of ourselves did we lend a helping hand to displace that Government by supporting a fraction, or I might say, the remnant of a fraction, bent only on public plunder. Although we regret exceedingly the defeat of Mr. Holden, we have the proud satisfaction of knowing that the Government goes back triumphant.

It is a singular fact that no Parliamentary election passes over without some "fuss" being made about the Catholic vote. It is nonsence to say that such used not to be the case here in years past. It has been so and to a much greater extent than now. I believe that a greater number of pure and patriotic Catholic votes were cast for Mr. Holden in the recent contest than has been cast for any candidate on either side in Belleville previously.

Mr. Holden may attribute his defeat to the Orange vote and to Mr. —— 's money and to nothing else.

A CATHOLIC REFORMER.

Belleville, June 12, '79.

We are always glad to hear from our correspondent, who takes a moderate and rational view of matters generally. Since writing the article referred to we have learned facts relative to the Catholic vote in West Hastings which induces us to accept our correspondent's version of the affair as being correct.—ED. ONTARIO.

MILLBRIDGE P. O. TUDOR, ONT

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—SIRS, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

LOCAL & GENERAL

COUNTY COUNCIL.—This session of the County Council will probably close at noon to-morrow. It has been a long one, but a great deal of business has been done.

A LARGE EGG.—The first large egg laid on our table this season was brought this morning. It was laid by a common hen owned by James Moorman, 2nd concession of Thurlow, and measured 6½ x 8½ inches.

THE REGATTA.—A large number of people went to Massassaga Point to-day to witness the regatta. We are unable to give the result before to-morrow, but are informed it was one of the best regattas that has ever taken place here.

A RECOUNT.—A recount of Ballots in the Addington election has been asked for by the defeated candidate. We understand Mr. Deroche need have nothing to fear by a recount, but that the result will be favorable to the present member.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.—We have received a circular from Ogdensburg, giving the programme of the regatta to take place there on the Fourth of July. The first will be a sailing race, for $75, open to all sailing boats. The prizes will be $50, $15 and $10, time allowance to be given. Rowing races, lap streak wherries, for purse of $30, $20 to 1st and $10 to 2nd.

FRANKFORD MISSION.—Canon Bleasdell, of Trenton, has issued a little pamphlet, in answer to the Sterling story, and in explanation of the Dorchester glebes, over which there has been much difference of opinion in times past. What the upshot of the Frankfort mission case may be we cannot say, but unless settled before the meeting of Synod there will be, in all probability, a good deal of discussion over it.

MORE BIG FISH.—Mr. Levi Taylor received another lot of fine salt water salmon yesterday, as well as a choice lot of lobsters in the shell. The salmon were from New Brunswick, 19 in number and weighed in the aggregate 465 pounds. For the convenience of purchasers, Mr. Taylor will cut the salmon to any size required. Call and seem the.

PINAFORE.—The Opera House was engaged for the performances of a Pinafore Company on Monday evening. There is no probability of the engagement being filled, however. The Company is still playing in Montreal having over-run the allotted time, which is a good indication that a "bonanza" has been struck, that the playing is good on the one hand, and the public support good on the other.

DOMINION DAY.—Our citizens will be delighted to learn that Chief McKinnon is succeeding admirably with his subscription list for the Dominion Day celebration. Already nearly $300 has been subscribed, which will yet be largely added to. It is his intention to have games, sports, fireworks, torch-light procession, &c., which will draw a large number of people to the city, and we hope those persons who have not yet subscribed will do so at once. The intended celebration will be second only to that of Dominion Day last year.

THE P. E. RAILWAY.—The last issue of the Trenton "Courier" has the following.—"The switch connecting the Grand Trunk with the Prince Edward Railway was made on Monday. The engine to be used in building the road has also arrived. Mr. K. McKinnon has completed the engine house and preparations for building the turning table are going forward. A Mr. Thomassick has taken the contract of laying the ties and rails. On Monday and Tuesday forty car loads of rails were unloaded, and on Tues ay twenty more car loads arrived. We may expect shortly to hear the whistle of the engine through our village."

POLICE MATTERS.—Four prisoners were brought in last night, three of whom were drunks. One was arrested on a warrant.

ON DIT.—It is expected that several ladies will receive their degrees at the Alexandra College exhibition next Tuesday evening, June 17.

WEATHER BULLETIN.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate to fresh winds, generally clear weather.

THANKS.—On behalf of the Reformers of West Hastings we desire to return thanks to those gentlemen who kindly furnished teams for the demonstration on Tuesday night last, and particularly to Messrs. Lake & Jenking, Patrick O'Brien, and Hunter & Ketcheson.

ALBERT COLLGE.—The Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Badgley in the M. E. Church at 11 a.m., Sunday, June 15th. The Christian Reunion will be held in the College Chapel at 4 p.m. on Sunday, June 15th. The address before the Alumni Society will be delivered by E. McMahon, B.A., on Monday, June 16th, at 8 p.m., in the College Chapel. The Ladies Convocation will be on Tuesday evening, June 17th, at 8 o'clock, in the College Chapel. The Albert University Convocation occurs on Wednesday, June 18th, at 2 p.m., in the City Hall. The Conversazione of the Historical Society will be Wednesday evening, June 18th, at the College.

Style, elegance, location, moderate, and choice of either the American plan $2.50 to $3.00 or the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards, meals in the elegant Restaurant attached to the house, all unite in giving the travellers more for the same money, at the Grand Central Hotel, New York, than elsewhere.

Stop that terrible cough, and thus avoid a consumptive's grave, by taking Dr. Pierc's Golden Medical Discovery. As a cough remedy it is unsurpassed. Sold by druggists.

Brevities.

—Who threw the eggs?

—Butter now assumes a melting mood.

—The Intermediate Examinations commence July 8th.

—The lady with a new bonnet never likes to hear a clergyman pray for rain.

—This is the time of the year at which the sentimental youth names a row boat after his girl and has it painted green.

—The horey bee is now getting in his work on the clover buds, and barefooted boys are using both ends of him with equal facility.

—Edison is getting along finely with his new electric light, and before the summer is over your gas man will raise his hat to you on the street.

—Keep still. The first of July will be along in a few weeks, and if possible the small boy should not be informed of its approach until it is all over.

—When pedlars are selling eye-glasses at two for a quarter, there is no excuse for the stylish young man appearing without the important adjuct.

—Now the wind that softly breathe, and the flowers that garlands wreathe, a gentle hint of summer in the mint emplants; and go do the beetles, and the spiders and the ants.

BUT ONE OPINION prevails throughout the world, and that is so strongly in favor of Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER, that no other article ever attained so wide spread popularity.

I have derived much benefit from using Fellows' Hypophosphites in chronic constipation. JOHN B. MOORE, Forrest City, Montana.

A JOY FOREVER.—Such is the fine head of hair, its the pride of youth and the glory of age. Alcoholic and mineral washes should never be used; simple and healthful preparations are best; such is Bearine, use no other

The News.

—The crops around Brockville look splendid.

—Montreal City Council has resolved to do away with butchers' stalls after May 1st, 1880.

—Reports from different parts of the Province of Quebec announce an earthquake visitation on Monday night.

—Fresh salmon is in good supply at Montreal, selling from 8c to 9c wholesale, and from 12c to 15c retail.

—A boy named Powell was killed Wednesday night at Prescott in attempting to get on a train while in motion.

—The County of Carleton Orange Lodge has postponed its annual celebration until the visit of the British and Irish delegates.

—The splendid charge of the Bishop of Toronto to his Synod is the subject of great congratulation. It will do a large amount of good in putting a stop to extreme practices.

—The Dominion Government has granted permission to the 69th New York regiment to visit Canada on Dominion Day, bearing arms. But the regiment is not coming. So much the better all round. The application was made by Mr. McNamee, President of St. Patrick's Society, to the Minister of Militia.

DOON, Ont., June 12.—Considerable excitement was caused in this village yesterday morning by the finding of a coat and vest on the waste gate of the dam, and farther search was made, and about one o'clock in the afternoon the body of a man named John Franks was found. Coroner Brolby, of Berlin, was summoned and held an inquest. The jury rendered a verdict of suicide, while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity. The deceased was unmarried, and about thirty years of age. His folks, who live at Petersburg, were telegraphed for, and arrived last night and took charge of the remains. He was buried this morning at ten o'clock.

He Rather Liked It.

One of our well known citizens was sitting in his parlor the other evening surrounded by his wife and children when the conversation turned upon likes and dislikes, and taste and flavor of various condiments. One person preferred this, another that, when a little blue-eyed, four year old spoke up and said she rather liked castor oil. This seemed singular; but it is not surprising, when we know that she, that very morning, had been taking some of Scott & Bowne's palatable castor oil. Price 25 cents

School Entertainment.

The entertainment given by Mr. Sangster and his friends in the Town Hall, Cannifton, on Tuesday evening last, was a complete success in more ways than one. The hall was comfortably filled, with an intelligent and appreciative audience, who thoroughly enjoyed the treat which was prepared for them. John White, Esq. occupied the chair.

The professional readers who so kindly volunteered their assistance deserve credit for the manner in which they executed their parts throughout. Mr. John Cook recited the "Passage of the Red Sea" in a manner which left little to be desired, and Mr. Carter's "Wounded," was likewise good.

Of the pupils who recited we find it a difficult matter to particularize, as all filled their parts in a manner alike creditable to themselves and teacher.

Want of space forbids us noticing at any length the individual reciting of all, but we must make special mention of a few names. Miss Ida Solmes' reciting was particularly good, and a song entitled "Grandpa's Spectacles," sung by the same young lady was well received, and got what it deserved a hearty and prolonged encore. The "Interrupted Recitation" by Miss Gussie McWilliams was excellent, and fairly brought down the house."

Mr. F. Ketcheson's reading was good, and Mr. McWilliams acquitted himself creditably. Of the other young ladies who deserve special mention, we might name the Misses Archibald, Cornerford, Scantlebury, Titterson, and Mary McWilliams. Miss Johanna Pitman's "Whose business is it?" took well. Masters W. Belch, J. Belch, and Clapp, of the boys, deserve a passing notice. Miss Emma Titterson, a tiny girl, bravely faced the large audience and said her "Say." Miss Harris had been ill, but did exceedingly well. The music, thanks to the exertions of Misses Marshall and Burgess, was very fine. An address by Mr. Bennett, a reading by Mr. Sangster, and a magic lantern exhibition, brought the entertainment to a close.

Examinations at the D. & D Institute.

Dr. James Carlyle, of the Toronto Normal School, has been conducting the annual examinations of the pupils of the Deaf and Dumb Institute during this week. We are pleased to learn that the term just closing has been exceptionally prosperous and satisfactory to all concerned, and that the Inspector expresses himself favorably as to the progress the of the classes. The term will close on Wednesday next, the 18th. inst., when teachers and pupils will begin the enjoyment of a three month's vacation. They will appreciate a relief from duty during the hot summer months, and we wish them all the pleasure anticipated.

The Letellier Affair.

THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR NOT TO BE DISMISSED.—THE DECISION WILL BE FIRST MADE IN CANADA.
HANLAN STILL HARD AT WORK.

(Special Cablegram to the Globe.)

LONDON, June 12.

The date of Mr. Langevin's departure is still uncertain. He has had several consultations with the Colonial office, but the Government has not yet informed him of its decision in the Letellier affair. I learned this afternoon from a trustworthy official source that the Cabinet has decided not to sanction the Lieutenant-Governor's dismissal. The Colonial secretary informs me that he does not contemplate making any communication of the decision to the English newspapers, therefore the publication of the news may first take place in Canada. Mr. Langevin will not leave till the despatch is sent to the Marquis of Lorne.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, June 11.

Hanlan this morning covered two miles and a half at racing speed. Elliott went over the same distance. The weather was wet, increasing to a storm which stopped work for the day.

The Eastern Ontario Prentice Boys opened their first session at Oshawa Tuesday. Rev. Dr. Miller preached.

BRYAN'S WAFERS (the great public remedy) have now been in use over twenty years, hence it cannot be said that they are on trial. They have been thoroughly tried, and pronounced (on the authority of those whose lives and health they have preserved) to be a sure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation, and if taken in season will invariably cure colds, coughs, sore throat, and all bronchial affections. One fair trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cents per box.

The Real Simon Pure.

There is no class of invalids whose intellect is so bright and who so appreciate all that is worthy in this life as those who are afflicted with that fearful scourge Consumption. They are cheated out of life's enjoyments by the terror of the malady. They ought to take heart and look forward to brighter days for Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil will surely bring them relief if taken as directed. It is an almost infallible remedy for all diseases of the lungs, and is very fattening.

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS' ECLESIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. On dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stops the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every discription on man and beast.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Work on the sub drain of the Tutro-Tunnel is being vigorously pushed ahead. Waters from the flooded mines will be discharged in the tunnel on contract time June 29th, which is looked forward to with much interest. Expected it will make an era of prosperity for miners in the Comstock lode. Since the the water flooded the Savage and adjacent mines 4 yearsago the lower works have remained submerged. It was then generally believed that the top of the new bonanza had been struck.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Arrived Oder from Bremen.

MOUNT AIRY, N. C., June 13.—Alonzo Bryant and family were poisoned yesterday eating wild [illegible]. Bryant's condition is dangerous; wife and 2 children dead.

COLUMBUS, Ky., June 13.—A negro horse thief was burned to death in a log jail yesterday. Believed he fired the jail to effect his escape. Vain efforts were made to save him.

FALL RIVER, 13.—Every prospect of a strike here. Should no settlement be reached 12,000 hands will be thrown out of employment, and the pay-roll of $700,000 be suspended. Though determined, both sides consider the question calmly.

NEW YORK, 13.—Michael Shaughnessy, who recently without provocation fatally stabbed his uncle with whom he resided, has become insane. He attempted to hang himself, but was discovered.

Rose Ellan, aged 17, claiming to be the daughter of a wealthy mill-owner in Lee, Mass., was found sick on the street last night. Stated she left home with Walter Griffin who promised to marry her, but had deserted her after wronging her.

Gen. Hazen has begun a suit for libel against Gen. Stanley. Preliminary papers were served on Stanley in Buffalo yesterday. This is intended to furnish a satisfactory method of settling issues between these two generals.

News has been received that Pacific mail steamer Acapulco has been prevented from landing at Aspinwall. She carried war amunitions consigned to Peruvian houses. The Chilian Government protested against the passage of the arms across neutral territories.

Father Hayes pastor of St. Ann's Catholic church, charged with whipping a five year old pupil in a parochial school, was acquitted yesterday.

Emma Abbott, prima donna, collected $1,000 on Wall St. yesterday, thus securing a sufficient sum to commence proceedings for a new trial for "Cove" Bennett and Mrs. Smith the condemned Jersy City murderers. Judge Hilton contributed $300 and Jay Gould $100.

Gustave Johnson Swede, recently arrested on an incoming steamer has confessed he murdered Larsen, post-carrier, in Sweeden for 50 crowns paid him by a man whom Larsen superseded. Johnson will be sent back to Sweeden for trial.

The Tribune says the rent received from the old John Brown farm at North Elba, since it was purchased by popular subscription, now amounts to several hundred dollars. At Wendell Phillips' recommendation this money was sent to John Brown, jr., who proposes to use it to aid the negro refugees from the South.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

CINCINNATI, O., June 13.—A destructive storm passed over Southern Ohio and portions of Indiana and Kentucky, damaging crops, fences, &c. Lightning struck many dwellings in Salem. The house of David Mitchell and railway depot at Christiansburg, Ky., were completely demolished. Two hundred trees were uprooted. The lightning struck the house of Jno. Hamilton, Madison, Ind., seriously injuring the inmates.

LONDON, June 13.—At the Ascot meeting to-day the Hardwick Stakes were won by "Chippendale." The Alexander Plate was won by Lagrange's "Insulaire."

NEW YORK, June 13.—Announced on Wall Street to-day that the entire stock of the new Central Union Telegraph Co. has been taken up by such capitalists as Jay Gould, Russell Sage, P. L. Amer, of Boston, J. B. Alley, of Lynn, and President Garrett, of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Offers were made for twice the amount of the Co.'s stock. The Co. has purchased all the Dominion Co.'s telegraph lines and within 90 days it is claimed will have 6,000 miles of first class lines in full operation to Boston, Chicago St. Louis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Gallville, New Orleans, St. Paul, Kansas City, Omaha and San Francisco. The lines will be constructed with special reference to cheap transmission of press news as well as general business.

LONDON, June 13.—A manchester despatch says a rumor is in circulation of further business troubles among several large houses of Mahchester. The collapse of another very large firm is momentarily expected.

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—The fire at Point Breeze was rekindled this morning, a stiff breeze fanning the flames to immense proportions at noon. Feared the fire will reach Point Breeze oil works. The strong westerly winds blew the flames to the wharf of Atlantic Petroleum Storage Co., and the fire at once spread to a large shed south of the warehouse, destroyed on Wednesday. The wind then veered to North and a long line of sheds extending nearly a mile to south-west caught fire and by noon were all ablaze with 7,300 bbls. of oil which they contained. South of the sheds is the Point Breeze oil works and below the oil works a large number of frame buildings, occupied by workmen and their families. In rear of the sheds, reported on fire, are five others and larger warhouses separated from the burning sheds by an elevation of ground. From present indications they will be saved as well as the Atlantic Oil Company's tanks further east, which contain 15,000 bbls. of crude oil, and 40,000 refined and special oils.

CLEVELAND, June 13.—Crop reports from Northern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania indicate there will be about a two-third crop of wheat and oats; hay very light; corn a complete failure; fruits fair.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., June 13.—The boat "Uncle Sam" in which Goldsmith and wife started on a cruise around the world, was spoken by a schooner off this port, all well.

A TRUISM.—Constant grinding at the mill of life, perpetual loss of vital force, will drain the strongest man to the dust; it is manifest therefore that the system must be kept supplied with a due amount of oxydizable phosphorus. The pleasantest and most palatable way in which it can be introduced into the system is by the use of Victoria Hypophosphites which is the all druggists in Belleville. F

SCOTT'S EMULSION
PURE COD LIVER OIL
WITH
HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at 50 cts per bottle.

How Moore Wrote the Canadian Boat Song.

In his passage down the St. Lawrence he jotted down on reading upon the fly leaf of a volume he was then reading both the notes and a few of the words of the original song by which his name will be glorified. He missed the book on his return, and only recovered it in 1839, when he for the last time visited Ireland. At one of the latter evenings which he always accompanied his visits, a beautiful girl was introduced to the poet by Mr. Weld, a gentleman of fortune residing in the suburbs; but amid such a crowd of beauty it is doubtful if he would not have let the name with casual observation, had not Mr. Weld whispered in his ear, "She possesses the original copy of your 'Canadian Boat Song.'" The book in which the notes were written was "Priestly Lectures," and belonged, to a gentleman with whom Moore was travelling. On his death the book came into the possession of Mr. Machonochie, of Edenmore, near Dublin, who gave it to his daughter. Moore asked to see the book and it was brought to him next day at Milliken's bookstore, in Grafton street where he had a private room for writing. When his eyes fell on the well-remembered lines he gazed on them so long and so earnestly that the lady at last said, "Oh, Mr. Moore, I hope you do not want to take them; they are so dear to me." "No, Miss Machonochie, indeed I do not; but if you knew what thrilling remembrances of a happy past the contemplation of this page provokes, you would not wonder at my feelings. Since I wrote those lines I have been going so fast down the rapids of life that I owe you much for enabling me to live, though but for a few minutes, in the past, and I shall long remember this pleasant meeting." Moore authenticated the lines, explaining how they were written, with his autograph. In the original notes to the song, Moore says, "The words were written to an air which the boatmen often sang." He found on looking at this book that the music was as much his own as the words. The air had never been heard until he presented it for all time to the lovers of plaintive song and romantic imagery.—N Y Sun.

The most Valuable Gift—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affection of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not bogus people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public.

Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Biliousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities no the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY

JOB MOSES PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system fortifies the you hful constitution for the trials of life; and when taken in middle or old age, proves a real blessing; and on the approach of childbirth these pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement, the benefits to be derived are incalculable; they purify the constitution; lessen the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with comfort to herself and child. In all cases of of Nervous Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites and Blues, these pills will effect a cure, when all other means have failed, and, although a powerful remedy do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution. Full directions in the pamphlet round each package. JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. $1.00 and 12½ cents for postage enclosed to Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agent for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. For sale by all druggists in Belleville, G. T. Wilson, Mass., G. H. Boulter, Stirling, W. C. Barker, Trenton, and all medicine dealers.

Public Notice

IS hereby given, that under and in pursuance of the powers vested in Municipal Councils by the Municipal Institutions Act of 1873 of the Province of Ontario, chapter 48 and amendments thereto, the Council of the Municipality of the City of Belleville intend, immediately after the expiration of one month from the first publication of this notice, to pass a

By-Law

for the following purpose, that is to say:—That Rear Street be widened to John Street, commencing at the Eastern boundary of said Street 318 feet more or less north from Hotel Street, where a fence now stands belonging to Jacob Cronk, thence easterly along said fence to John Street, thence northerly along the western side of John Street to the land now owned by the City, thence westerly along the southern limit of said land to Rear Street, thence along the eastern side of Rear Street to the place of beginning.

AND TAKE NOTICE, that any and all persons whose lands may be prejudicially affected thereby, or who may be in any way interested in the lands required for the opening and extending of said Street, or any of them, may be heard at the bar of the Council of said Municipality, either in person or by Council, or by petition, or at any regular meeting of the said Council, before the passing of said By-Law.

Dated this 20th day of May, A. D. 1879, at Belleville City Clerk's office.

R. NEWBERY,
City Clerk.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVATA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nerves system, but strengthens and builds it up, and consequently supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63,88 since which time no profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.88	to	$56,90
" 5th "	10,40	"	58.48
" 6th "	17.30	"	46.58
" 7th "	20.73	"	43.15
" 8th "	25.89	"	37.99
" 9th "	36.65	"	27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

Poetry

The Silent Tower.

BY GEO. W. BUNGAY.

"Dr. John Hall's people refrained from hanging a bell in the tower of their church, on the corner of Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth street, and would not even suffer the clock to strike, lest the patients in St. Luke's Hospital, opposite, should be disturbed."—Christian Union.

It rises in silence, and splendor,
In the light of the smiling day;
The lesson is touching and tender
To sufferers over the way.

It points to the bells that are ringing
In heaven, unheard here below;
Where the choir celestial is singing,
Near the throne that is whiter than snow.

The music of silence is sweeter
Than the clanging of bells in the towers;
It chords with the cadence whose meter
Is sweet as the wind-harp in flowers.

By the couches whose patients are sleeping,
And dreaming of visions above,
Two Angels their vigils are keeping,
One is Mercy, the other is Love.

Not even the clock that's revealing
The passing away of the hour,
Can disturb with dolorous pealing—
Since Love struck it dumb on the tower.

A Wonderful Baby.

BY JOSEPHINE POLLARD.

'Twas a wonderful baby, I cannot deny it,
The loveliest, sweetest, that ever was made;
And no silver or gold in the country could buy it,
Nor jewels—though e'en a queens's casket were paid.

We humor and fondle, we kiss and caress it,
Are anxious whenever it's out of our sight;
And we call it pet names—such as "queen lamb" and "blessed,"
"Dear old precious darling," from morning till night.

If we have any joys, if we have any trouble,
If over our pathway a dark shadow lowers;
Our gentle we divide and our pleasures we double
Because of this wonderful baby of ours.

It never is cross, or impatient, or fretful,
Like most other babies that you and I know;
And we would be never unkind or forgetful
Of all that to this precious darling we owe.

Its face is all wrinkled—now isn't that funny?
But this has been feeble for many a day,
And over the brow where were ringlets once sunny
There now are soft tresses of silvery gray.

You'll think I am foolish and frivolous, maybe—
Declaring the truth I have surely not told;
But this precious old darling, this wonderful baby,
So dear to our hearts is now eighty years old.

By care and caresses we give to no other.
Her care and her kindness we strive to repay;
And we thank the dear Father in heaven that MOTHER,
With heart young as ever, is with us to-day

The Brakeman's Last Trip.

[The following, suggested by an incident in the columns of the "Detroit Free Press," went the rounds several years ago, and is republished by request.]

Dying and dead,
In the city that borders the river,
The stalwart form of a brakeman lay,
With a bullet hole in his liver.
While his comrades watched fond by over.

The city's roar in the deepening storm
Had ceased at a noisy rumbling,
But the Engine's shriek seemed a knell of doom,
Waking death's echoes in every room
As they watched him brokenly slumbering.

So quiet he lay that their hearts were stirred
With the fear that his rest was through,
But he opened his lips and shouted a word,
Shouted in haste as if deferred,
It was only "All aboard."

They brushed back his hair, with death dew slicked,
And watched for his fitful breathing;
He seemed an engineer then and there
The fire all smothered, the steam unchecked
And the smoke above it wreathing.

["Jackson passengers going north by S giaw road change cars."]

The men knew then that their comrade thought
He was coupling his "runs,"
Upon a train with passengers fraught,
Over the Michigan Central route,
And his duty said "Couple 'em."

Again a whistle loud and clear,
From a tug that lay in the harbor;
But it reached the ears of the brakesman's ear,
And thinking another station near,
He cried as of old, "All aboard."

A thousand times he'd been over the road,
But never with this inspector,
'Twas a special train and mighty load,
And death was the engine that growled and glowled,
And a station grim the conductor.

["Y e allantrchange cars here for the Kel River Road."]

The brakesman started to think of the speed
That was bringing that phantom train.
He's coming home fast, he is indeed,
At the end of his route he will be free',
And he never will go again.

Almost here and the shadowy train
That would bring rest and home—
Almost free from mor ality's pain,
It took a sad sight to calm again,
In a gurgling, dying tone:

["Grand Trunk Junction passengers going East by Grand Trunk change cars."]

Then they thought that all was o'er,
And they shivered with dread and fear
But he was watching for his post,
Was listening again to the hollow roar,
That none but he could hear.

["De——"]
Not Detroit, but death an l space,
Was the station he tried to stop;
The phantom train had brought relief,
Rest and repose that shall never cease,
To that station—for the unseen Eye."

And his comrades saw the wonderful sight,
As they eased with bated breath
The ghostly passenger and pallid light
That shone on his face from the dim head-light
Of the shadowy engine of Death.

Childlike Faith.

The beauty of a childlike faith has rarely found a more sublime expression than was given to it by an unlettered negro when a missionary said to him, "How wonderful that the great God should condescend to become a man!" The negro instantly replied, "Not small enough, I guess, for me." Such a reply could not have come except from one whose eye of faith had looked into God's heart of love. The same penetrative faith was more elegantly but not more sublimely expressed by a dying young scholar when told that a cultivated Unitarian had said that it was impossible for God to be so small as that an Almighty God should become a man and die for such creeping worms as men. The dying scholar, speaking with the ardor of an intense affection, replied, "Real greatness does not consider it degradation to stoop—it considers the meanest, and the lowlier our conceptions of Godhead, the readier shall we be to believe that He did that wondrous thing—take upon Him the form of a servant and become obedient unto death." Yes, it was indeed a wondrous thing to do; but a loving heart can readily believe that it was done, because it comprehends that love costs: it goes out of itself and live in and for another." And He who loves men with infinite affection did that when He took upon Him self our nature and died for us. Oh, marvelous love!—Zion's Herald.

The Prince of Wales and His Boys at Home.

Speaking of the sons of the Prince of Wales, the correspondents of a provincial paper says: "I imagine from all I hear that they are well brought up, and in a thoroughly modern school of royalty. So far as their parents can prevent it, they have a very liberal and enabling ship on account of their highly respectable social connection; and it is due to say tell me their father, the Prince of Wales, has determined to oversee, with them, a hardship of his own childhood. What with the etiquette of the British Court and the public duties falling on Prince Albert and the Princess, the brilliant younger days, it is said that little Albert Edward often found himself an exile from the paternal home. He longed affectionately to be sitting on his father's knee he may have never developed the very warm-hearted, and his feelings towards his children are those of a loving father. Remembering his own childish longings and griefs, he insists, as an absolute rule of the house, that his boys are at home, that whenever they wish to go to their parents they shall be allowed to do so. I have heard several anecdotes bearing on this subject from those who are privileged to hear what they speak. The lads will run in to see their father at times when the Prince is engaged in semi-official and business audiences at Marlborough House. He permits them to stay about him in the way affectionate boys will about a father, without regard to court etiquette or royal precedent.

Native Christians in India.

Bishop Caldwell, English Bishop at Madras, in a paper often "Converts to Christianity," says: remembering that we never can know the private life of any class of people in England so well as we know the priva te life—if that can be called private which is perfectly public—of native Christians in this country, I may claim that the Christians of our Indian Empire have no need to shrink from comparison with Christians in a similar state of life and similarly circumstanced in England or in any other part of the world. The style of character they exhibit is one which those who are well acquainted with them cannot but like. I think I do not exaggerate when I affirm that they appear to me in general more teachable and tractable, more considerate of the feelings of others, and more respectful to superiors, more uniformly courteous and unobtrusive, and greater, more truthful in Providence, better church-goers, yet freer from religious bigotry, and more liberal in their views, more liberal than Christ ans in England holding a similar position in the social scale. I have no hesitation in saying that they are free from imperfection; on the contrary, living among them as I do from day to day, I see their imperfections; daily, and daily do I have reason to exhort, as I see need, but I am bound to say that when I have gone away anywhere, and looked back upon the Christians of this country from a distance,—when I have compared them with what I have seen and known of Christians in other countries, I find that their good qualities have left a deeper impression in my mind than their imperfections."

The Prince of Wales' Home.

A writer that describes the country house of the Prince of Wales at Sandringham, says: "Outside of considerable distance, a hall which you enter on arriving is filled up as a billiard room, with a piano, easy chairs, and tables for writing tables. Behind the piano are a quantity of toys for the children to amuse themselves with at the children's hour after tea.

Here after o'clock, for the table is placed in the centre of the hall, as it presided over by the princess in the loveliest of its gowns.

Here a great wood fire is seen here surrounded by her three little girls, who look like fairy fairies, and who run about to get in between the chairs of the large pillar post to at the end of the hall. There are always four or five dogs to add to the chaos.

At Christmas the hall looks like a bazaar, being filled with the most costly and beautiful tables, with a large Christmas bush in the middle, and on the right and left sides of the hall full of presents for the household and visitors.

Their royal highnesses arrange all the presents themselves and do not allow the servants to do it until evening.

The drawing room is a particularly pretty room, full of furniture, and all available corners are filled with gigantic flower glasses filled with pimpus grass and evergreens.

Out of the drawing room on the opposite side of the dining room, as the sitting room, fills it with boxesses. Behind this is the princess' room, quite full of beautiful things. Here he and the princess always breakfast, and here on the ninth of November (the 9th first) of December are laid out the memorial birthday presents.

Of the princess's private apartment up stairs it will suffice to say that a sportsman has never royal highness, boudoir or sitting room was never seen. All the visitors' rooms are perfect, nor are the servants' comforts neglected.—(Youth's Companion.

The Greatness or Trifles.

The best fidelity to Christ is shown in a daily vi ilant service to Him in trifles, in efforts to honor Him in the most inconspicuous services, such as good temper in families, sympathy with man and beast, honesty in busines, liberality to servants, fidelity to employers. These things make up the best discipleship. The same, truth applies to many things. The best paintings are those where such details as the blades of grass, the leaves of the trees, the outlines upon the water, and similar minute points are most perfectly delineated. Artistic excellency consists chiefly in the complete accuracy which the skilful artist and worker cannot or will not accomplish. The great Italian sculptor, Michael Angelo, was once visited by an acquaintance, who found him chipping away his studio. "Why, you have done nothing to that figure since I was here last." "Yes," was the reply, "I have softened this expression, touched off that projection, and made other improvements." "Oh!" said the visitor, "those are mere trifles." True, answered Michael Angelo, "but remember that trifles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle." In like manner, the highest forms of devotion to Christ consist in fidelity to apparent trifles. For only heartfelt love and abiding recollectedness of Him, as in ever daily object, will enable His disciples to maintain throughout each day, in word and company, in busy occupation and before His enemies, the habit of confessing Him thus continuously and in the whole details of life.—[London Record.

The Art of Teaching.

A few years ago hymn-learning, catechism and task lessons formed the staple of even our Scripture instruction. There is a demand for good Bible teaching that will equal the teaching of our best academies and colleges. The Bible is so adapted to every human soul as to place us on equal vantage ground. We want to know, How to use it? Mr. J. G. Fitch, of the Normal College, London, has given us an admirable synopsis of the few simple principles which underlie the great art, and which, as he justly observes, "require to be pondered and thoroughly grasped by every teacher."

1. "Never to tell a child what he can be not quite understand." Clear knowledge makes clear pleasant teaching.

2. "Never to tell a child what you could make the child tell you." As will thus remember it ten times as long.

3. "Never to give a piece of information without asking for it." The mind cannot retain what it does not expect to be called on for again or to have future use for.

4. "Never to use a word which an ol oneylone will convey your meaning and never to use any word at all unless you are quite sure it has a meaning to convey." Mark—not "long word but "hard" words.

5. "Never to begin an address or a lesson, without a clear view of its end." Then aim high and at the mark.

6. "Never to give an unnecessary command, nor one which you do not mean to see obeyed. Therefore few, commands; for in case you fail to secure obedience the child rules you and not you the child.

7. "Never to permit a child to remain in the class for a minute without something to do and a motive for doing it. A child wants something to do and cannot bear to be idle.

Animal Friendships.

Many equine celebrities have delighted in feline companions, following in this the example of their notable ancestor, the Godolphin Arab, between whom and a cat an intimate friendship existed, for years, a friendship that came to a touching end; for when that famous steed died, his old companion mourned so deeply for her friend that when a had soon it put under ground crawled slowly away to a hay-loft and refusing to be comforted pined away and died.

Mr Huntington of East Bloomfield, America owns a thorough horse named Narragansett, and a white cat. The latter was wont to pay a call to Narragansett's stall to haunt up his mice, and then enjoy a quiet nap. Mr. Huntington removed to Rochester with his family leaving the cat behind; but she comfamily leaving the cat behind; but she completely disappeared, and was mainly that she was planned so loundly and nce mysteriously that she was sent on to the new abode. Her first object was sent on to the new abode. Her first object was now to get somebody to interpret her desires, now to get somebody to interpret her desires, and after her master divined them and started off At last her master found them. As soon as they were with her to the barn. As soon as they were inside the cat went to the horses stall made herself up contentedly. When Mr Huntington visited the barr next morning there was puss close to Narragansett's feet with a family of five beside her. The horse evidently knew all about it—for that it behoved him to take heed how he trod on his feet. Puss afterwards would go out leaving the little ones to the care of her friend who could every now and then look to see how they were getting along. When these inspections took place in the mother's presence she was not at all uneasy although she showed the greatest fear and anxiety if any children or strangers intruded upon her privacy.

A gentleman in Sussex had a cat which showed the greatest affection for a young black bird which was given to her by a stable boy for food a day or two after she had been deprived of her kittens. She tended it with the greatest care; they became inseparable companions, and no mother could show a greater fondness for her offspring that she did for the bird.

Leamery had up a cat and several mice together in a cage. The mice in time got to be very friendly and plucked and nibbled at their fellow prisoner. When any of them grew troublesome she would gently box their ears. A German magazine tells of a Mr. Hocart who placed a tame sparrow under the protection of a wild cat. Another cat attacked the sparrow which was at the most critical moment rescued by its protector. During the sparrows subsequent illness its natural foe watched over it with the greatest tenderness. The same authority gives as finstance of a cat trained like a watch dog to keep guard over a yard containing a hare and some sparrows Blackbirds and partridges.

That a horse could be half fellow with a hen appears to be absurd to the many; but we have Gilbert White's word for it that a horse lacking more suitable companions struck up a great friendship for a hen, and displayed immense gratification when she put in an appearance, and clucked a greeting whilst he moved about with the greatest caution lest he might trample on his little friend.

Col. Montague tells of a pointer which after being well beaten for killing a Chinese goose was further punished by having this murdered bird tied to his neck a penance that entailed his being constantly attended by the defuncts mate. Whether the latter was satisfied her that he repented the cruel deed is more than we know; but after a little while the pointer and the goose were on the best of terms, living under the same roof, fed out of one trough, occupying the same straw bed, and when the dog went on duty in the field the goose filled the air with her lamentations for his absence.

The Learned Blacksmith.

BY H. CLAY TRUMBULL.

A story like Elihu Burritt's ought to be told to every school boy, and to every boy who reads at a school. And just now, when the mention of his death is in all the public prints, is a good time to re-emphasize some of the lessons of his life, for the benefit of those who are coming on to the stage of action as he passed off.

Elihu Burritt was a poor boy. He had very few school advantages. He was compelled to work hard at a blacksmith's forge for a living. But these things did not interfere with his becoming a great man,' with his making distinguished acquirements as a scholar, with his finding all the time he needed for whatever he had to do. Such things are never an obstacle to one who is determined to study, to make progress, to fill a place in the world. Having no fortune to depend on, young Burritt depended on honest work for his support, and because he could not leave his forge to go to school, he studied at his forge. Lasking leisure hours for study, he improved the seconds between the puffs at the bellows and the blows at his anvil in study. In this way he learned Latin and Greek and French; and then went on unaided to the study of Spanish and Italian and German and Hebrew and other languages, until he had made rare attainments in this sphere. As he had found no time while blacksmithing to go to school, he dropped blacksmithing and taught school. This is a good lesson for poor boys, out of the life of Elihu Burritt. If you cannot find time or afford money to go to school as a scholar, learn enough, in the odd minutes of your daily work, to be a teacher. Then you can go to school as much as you want, and they will pay you for going.

After teaching a while there, Mr. Burrit went into the grocery and provision business; and afterward into the iron ware going to "get on in the world," to make money, and to have all the advantages of money using. But the great financial crash of 1837 came and swept away his property. It was a sore disappointment. His business was ruined. He had to start anew at twenty seven years old. He went on foot to Boston, and from there back to Worcester, where he began again at blacksmithing and language learning. By the time he was thirty he was familiar not only with the ancient classic languages, but with the modern languages of continental Europe, and with a number of oriental languages, ancient and modern. He began to grow famous as "The Learned Blacksmith." He became a public lecturer, an editor, a reformer in the interests of peace, of cheap ocean postage, of emancipation. He visited Europe. Both there and in America he was useful and honored. He became the friend and co-worker of eminent scholars and statesmen. He gained a world-wide prominence for his goodness and his learning. And all this he would have missed had he succeeded in the grocery business. Here is another good lesson for the boys, out of the life of Elihu Burritt. Success in business is sometimes the worst thing that could happen to a man, taking away his money and leaving him looking a millstone from his neck. How grateful we ought to be to God for our disappointments!—S S Times.

OUR CONTRIBUTION.

Patience and Tact.

It was in those latter days, when his eye was dimmed, his ear dull, and his soul grew more impatient as, leaning on the parified. One morning, as leaning on the arm of a friend, he was about to enter a charitable institution, he heard the loud cursing of an infuriate woman. He feared would have hurried past, but he stopped. "What is the trouble?" he asked.

"What is the trouble?" he asked.

"What is the Christian in there."

"What have they done?"

"Drove me off, they want to do the devil."

"Stand back Dr. Kirk," said the friend.

"There's another of 'em! I'm drunk; that's so! but I don't want to be drunk," with a fierce oath.

"Why are you then?" asked the Dr.

"Because they won't anybody help me be good, and there's a plenty that'll help me be bad."

"Do you wish to be good?" he asked very firmly and very kindly.

"Yes I do," crying aloud.

"It's maudlin grief," said Dr. Kirk's friend.

"There 'tis again! Pretty Christian you are."

"What help do you want?"

"I want a place to stay until I get ober."

"Come in with me."

She followed him and he spoke of her to the lady in charge.

"Doctor, she has been here three times this week, drunk, because and nothing. We have sent her away each time, and she comes back worse than before."

"Have you ever given her a trial?"

"No! She seems too vile for our sympathy or charity."

"Let us try her."

The lady hesitated. She disliked to say "No" to Dr. Kirk, and she disliked to help one she thought so utterly bad.

"I will take the responsibility," Dr. Kirk urged.

"We will try her since you ask it."

"For his sake, but not for Christ's," sneered the woman.

"We all do it for Christ's sake, and may he help you to lead a new and better life. I'll come to see you soon."

"Don't come to-morrow, please, sir; I want you to see me sober."

When he went, they gave a good report of her after the first twenty-four hours, and he found her looking very respectable. She told him all the sad history of her life and her fall, step by step, into drunkenness, but assured him it was her only crime, and begged she might have a situation to work where she would be safe from temptation. Such a place was found her, and she is in it yet.

Soon after she went to it she bought a box of early strawberries and took them to Dr. Kirk. With that exquisite tact so characteristic of him, he asked her to take out a saucerful and put some sugar on them. He ate them before her, talking all the while of Christ and holiness and happiness, thus leading her onward in the new life, and upward to that pure heaven he was so near. From that time she has been a consistent Christian and faithful servant, and now she keeps a copy of "Dr. Kirk's Life" beside her Bible.—Mrs. Sanford, in N. Y. Observer.

Testimony of the Bible on Temperance.

"This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard, and all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die; so shalt thou put away evil from among you." (Deut. 21: 20 21.)

"Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations." Lev. 10: 9.

To the mother of Samson: "Now, therefore, beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink." (Judges 13: 4.)

"He that loveth wine . . . shall not be rich." (Prov. 21: 27.)

"Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine." (Prov. 23: 29-30.

The Daily Ontario

SATURDAY EVESING, JUNE 14.

THE great rowing race between our champion, Edward Hanlan, and the English champion, Elliott, comes off on Monday next, over the Tyne course at Newcastle, England. The contest excites much interest in sporting circles and everywhere else. Should Hanlan succeed in winning this race, he will be entitled to the proud distinction of champion oarsman of the world. He undoubtedly has an opponent "worthy of his steel," who will not allow him to bail his boat out during the race. Betting, which is the only criterion of how public opinion is formed, has been from the first heavily in favor of the Canadian. In fact, Hanlan's backers are justly indignant at the cowardice of Englishmen, who profess to believe their champion the better man, but refuse to place even money on him. Their extreme caution indicates a want of confidence in Elliott's ability to win the race.

Reclamation.

We have referred to the growing feeling among Reformers in favor of a retaliatory system in Ontario, so far as dismissals from office are concerned. A correspondent of the St. Catharines News demands that, as a policy of protection, a Tory office holder under the Ontario Government must be dismissed for every Reform office holder dismissed by the Dominion Government. He also intimates that steps will be immediately taken in the County of Lincoln, to bring before Mr. Mowat the names of Tory officials who have given sufficient provocation for their dismissal. Such a feeling is much to be regretted, but, as this writer asserts, Reformers are driven to this course "by the infamous persecution adopted towards members of their party by the Ottawa Government."

The following from the Ottawa Free Press would indicate that there is to be plenty ground for retaliation of this kind. Our contemporary says:—"It is quite understood that there is to be a clean sweep of from about 150 to 200 employees in the Civil Service in various parts of the Dominion. The object is to get rid of the appointees of the late Government, and as the Ministers going to England are not likely to return for three months, it is hoped that the dissatisfaction created by the dismissals will have blown over, and that they will be in a position to fill up the vacancies thus created from among their own friends. The reason advanced for the contemplated action is that the Auditor-General has called the attention of the Ministry to the fact that most of the temporary clerks are holding office contrary to the law which provides that the Privy Council has the right to engage temporary clerks for six months only. No order having been made by the Council appointing for the employment of such clerks since the present Government succeeded to office, the Auditor General has refused to pass pay sheets for their salaries, determining to stand on the strict letter of the law. The Government, taking advantage of this action, find themselves in a position to make the clean sweep adverted to, and they doubtless chuckle at the idea of having, through it, found a grand opportunity for rewarding their clamorous supporters in various parts of the country."

New Invention.

Yesterday the Grand Trunk Railway Co. put upon each side of the two bridges near this station, an invention designed to protect brakesmen from accidents when trains are passing under railway bridges. The invention consists of two poles planted close to the track, one on each side, about twenty feet high, and across the top of these a wire is stretched. Suspended from this wire are ten or twelve pieces of rope, each about five feet in length, the lower ends being unconfined. When a brakesman, standing on the top of a common car, passes under these ropes the ends come in contact with his head, giving him timely warning of approaching danger. The posts stand about 100 feet from the bridges. The invention is said to be one the less effective.

"Phunny," Very!

The Mail has been involved to come to the rescue of the Belleville Tories, who feel so sick over that Reform demonstration last Tuesday night. The "phunny man" of our contemporary is given the hint, and with the aid of Sam Weller, Col. Tom, and other genial spirits he spreads himself amazingly. We can appreciate the Mail's humor, if it is a little strained this time, but can't stomach its flimsy excuse for "Tory rowdyism." In the first place the demonstration was not a failure, but a grand success—the largest, most respectable and most enthusiastic ever held in this city. Again, the offer to the torch-bearers was just as we stated, and not as the Mail puts it. Of course the Tories of Belleville could not raise much over $20 on a pinch. That sum was offered to the boys—to the lot, and their work to meet at a certain office in "Chancery Lane" at a certain hour next day, when the Tipperary Orator would dispense the cash, duly contributed by the party. But what about those eggs? They constituted the principal "snickering" of the Tories that evening. The Mail knows that its party has practiced egg-throwing before, and can say a rotten Hamburg or Cochin-China with the accuracy of a Zulu. It isn't fair for the Mail to leave out the eggs and stones. Come, toe the mark, friend, and tell us what you think about that part of the show. You have thrown your party here half justice. They pride themselves upon having pelted several ladies and gentlemen with rotten eggs on the evening of June 10th, and want credit for it. Doesn't history record their proficiency with such weapons in days gone by, and shades of dead Tories! have the children of the heros of Lord Elgin's Administration degenerated? You see, friend, the "biggest" part of the affair is left out. But it was stunnin'—we mean the egg throwing.

How it worked in Frontenac.

Toronto Tribune.

A correspondent writes us from Kingston that Dr. Sullivan, of that city, a Catholic Conservative, went into Frontenac county and exerted his utmost influence against Mr. Dawson, the Reform Catholic candidate, and in favor of Mr. Calvin the Conservative Protestant. This is what the Mail would call sticking down his fellow Catholics; but bless your innocent little hearts! this is just precisely one of those cases in which the ownership of the Ontario Conservative party in the habits of dogs. Had the case been reversed, then Dr. Sullivan, according to Mail ethics, would have only had to tell the Catholics to throw their politics to the winds and vote for the Conservative because he was a Catholic. You can see that this rule for the guidance of the "Catholic vate," which is of pure Tory manufacture, is a very poor rule indeed, for it is one that is not intended to work both ways. To the Catholic Conservative it says; support the candidate of your party; to the Catholic Reformer; vote for the Conservative because he is a Catholic. Though we regret that Mr. Dawson was not elected, yet we would far rather see him suffer defeat at the hands of his fellow Catholics, on the political issue, than see him or any other member take his seat in the Legislative Assembly on the "religious cry." Whatever of success may have attended Dr. Sullivan's efforts in Frontenac and Kingston, we are rejoiced to know that they have been effectively neutralized by the spirited action of the Catholic Reformers throughout the Province, and we only notice the Doctor's course here as another one of the many proofs that can be given of the utterly hollow and deceptive character of the Tory pretensions about Catholic representation. They would have gladly accepted Tory Catholic members, provided only that they could have secured them by Reform Catholic votes! But they did not succeed, and hence their abuse of the Catholic electorate.

Some Queries.

To the Editor of the ONTARIO.

DEAR SIR.—I take it for granted that you know everything. This being the case, perhaps you can explain how it is that persons not holding a license are permitted to sell at public auction? I thought that none but those who held a license were authorized by law to sell. If this is not true what protection does a license afford? And the question naturally arises, If it requires a license before any person is qualified to sell by public auction, are those sales legal, whether Chancery, or Mortgage or Bailiff, that are so frequently effected without calling for the services of a licensed auctioneer? I can say if I were an auctioneer, I would look into this matter for my own sake, and for the benefit of the public.

FAIR PLAY.

Precedent and Practice.

To the Editor of the ONTARIO.

DEAR SIR,—When the Council went into Committee of the Whole on the Estimates, $1,600 was set apart for County Roads, outside the Gravelled Roads, by the Committee on Estimates.

An amendment was moved granting $2,700 instead of $1,600. Mr. Gordon gave us an example of his economy, by voting for the larger sum. Not very consistent with his preaching during his election campaign, eh?

A COUNTY COUNCILLOR.

—Hon. Mr. Biggs will be re-elected for South Paul Mann., without opposition.

As Others See Us.

A recent issue of the Canada Druggist contains the following, which, though containing nothing new, may be of interest to some of our readers:—If there is one thing more than another which marks the progress of Canada it is the number of recent additions to the list of cities. Prominent among the younger or latter born is the city of

BELLEVILLE.

One hundred years ago no such name was to be found on the map and to-day we have a city of over 10,000 inhabitants, with well-formed streets, attractive stores, factories, workshops, colleges, churches and schools. It is the county seat for Hastings, is beautifully situated on the shores of the Bay of Quinte at the mouth of the River Moira the shadowing hills and slopes being studded with handsome residences, and tastefully laid-out grounds.

Belleville was first known as Meyer's Creek, but was afterwards named Belleville in honor of Governor Gore's wife "Lady Bella," hence the name which the Bay City now carries. In 1850 Belleville was incorporated as a town, from which period its progress was rapid and continuous, till on the first of July 1878, it took its place as one of the promising cities of the Dominion. At no distant day it is likely to be one of the most important cities in Canada.

The educational appliances of Belleville are of a higher order, and are in every way worthy of the advancement and improvements noticeable in other departments, and indeed superior to what is to be met with in towns of a similar size, for although I am now writing of a city, it was during the earlier history of the place that these institutions of learning were established, and for a number of years they have been disseminating the blessings of science, civilization, and religion.

ALBERT UNIVERSITY

was established in 1857 in connection with the Methodist Episcopal Church. This college after some difficulties not unusual to other institutions of its kind, is now in a prosperous condition and occupies a prominent place among the seats of learning in Canada. It is supplied with an able staff of Professors, some of whom graduated within its walls, Professor Macoun is professor of "Botany," and is a man of extensive reputation in this department, having contributed some valuable papers on this subject. Mr. Macoun is a native of County Down, Ireland, and is not the least of the many learned men which that country has produced.

ONTARIO INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB.

This Institution was established by the Provincial Government in 1870. The object of it is to educate deaf mutes, teach them trades, and bring them to such a position as to make them self-sustaining in life, and useful and interesting members of society. Under the able management of Dr. W. J. Palmer, the Principal, the institution is in a high state of efficiency and stands in the first rank among similar institutions on this continent. The rooms are large and airy; the inmates are clean and tidy; and they have a cheerful and contented appearance, and seem to be enjoying the comforts of home. They passed to bear testimony to the kindness and attention to the teaching staff, whose labors must be of a monotonous and wearisome kind.

VISIBLE SPEECH.

A new department has been established here—that of teaching articulation or visible speech to some mutes. The plan promises to be very successful. Mr. Brown, a gentleman in every way well qualified, is engaged in giving instructions in what is known as "Bell's System." I saw a class of five children examined, and although they were only about a month under instruction, they could pronounce words of one syllable pretty distinctly.

THE CHURCHES.

The churches of Belleville are good, substantial buildings, and at the same time exhibit nearly all the improvements in modern architecture. There are two Presbyterian Churches, St. Andrew's and John Street. The former was organized about the year 1800, and the present minister is the Rev. M. W. McLean. After the disruption Belleville was supplied with preaching by the Kingston Presbytery until 1846, when the Rev. Wm. Gregg (now Professor Gregg, D. D.) was sent out by the Colonial Committee of the Free Church of Scotland. At this time the Presbyterian population was sparse for within a radius of some ten miles there were only about 100 persons. In 1850 the congregation which had worshiped in a private building, commenced the erection of the present church, which was opened for worship in January 1852, by the Rev. Messrs. McLeod of Cobourg, Smith of Grafton and Barns of Kingston, at which period the congregation assumed the name of John Street Church. On the removal of the Rev. Wm. Gregg, to Cooke's Church, Toronto, the congregation called the Rev. W. F. White, who was succeeded by the Rev. Wm. McLaren (now Professor McLaren), who in June 1870 was called to Knox Church, Ottawa. The present minister is the Rev. John Burton, who was installed in December 1874, and who is successfully carrying on the work so well begun by Dr. Gregg and continued by Professor McLaren. The congregation is in a healthy state, and although like many others, it has suffered from emigration and deaths, still the communion roll is steadily increasing, and at present contains the names of nearly 300 members.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

SECOND SESSION.

Friday, June 13th,

The Council met at 10 a. m., the Warden in the chair.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

A communication was read from J. A. Brock relative to a group picture of the members of the Council, which on motion, was received and filed.

The Auditors report was laid on the table.

Moved by E. G. Sills, seconded by P. Vankleek, that the Warden and Messrs. Aylsworth and the Treasurer, confer with the County Registrar as to the apportion of fees due the county, and if necessary apply to the Attorney General for his opinion. Carried.

ESTIMATES

On motion the Council went into Committee of the Whole on Estimates, Mr. Appleby in the chair.

On the appropriation for county roads, Mr. Tuttle again urged the claims of the Township of Elzivir for a grant of $100 to build a road in that township.

Mr. Vankleek moved, seconded by Mr. Gordon, that the grant for county roads be $2,700, to be appropriated as follows:—Northern townships $200 each—$1,000; Madoc Township $150; Marmora $150; Elzivir 100; Hungerford, Huntingdon, Rawdon, Tyendinaga, Thurlow and Sidney, $150 each; Mill Point, Madoc Village, Trenton and Stirling, $100 each, and Snow Road $100.

Mr. Sills did not approve of the motion, as it was against the interests of Sidney.

Mr. Vankleek said it was the smallest amount ever asked for in the county, and while Sidney and Thurlow were the largest tax payers, the back townships were in greater need, and they were sorry to have to ask for what they did.

Mr. Emo had no objection to the motion.

Mr. Gordon believed that the front townships should be satisfied, and was strongly in favor of the motion. Mr. Currie would like to get a larger grant for Tyendinaga, but had no objection to the passage of the motion.

Mr. Ashley moved in amendment that the sum originally placed in the estimates be adopted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

A CHICAGO despatch says that, notwithstanding the agreement of the Niagara Falls conferences to the general rate of 15 cents on grain to eastern points from Chicago, several agents now contract for freight at 10 cents.

THE captain of an American schooner is now on trial in New York for cruelty at sea, in "ticing two of his sailors This mode of punishing sailors is almost entirely out of date, and very seldom is a case of the kind heard of.

MRS. LYMAN of Dalton, Mass., had $500 stolen from her, and suspecting her youthful son she waited him until he was glad to own up, and while she was deliberating as to what further punishment to inflict it was discovered that he was innocent.

AN INCIDENT ABOUT THE PRINCESS.—When the Spartan was leaving Kingston on the down trip of the Vice-Regal party for Montreal, a tall tar, of decidedly Milesian turn, rushed up to the Princess Louise, grasped her by the arm, shaking her soundly and exclaiming, "God bless you! God bless you!" The Princess seized her well-wisher by the arm and repeated the expression right heartily. This is another proof of the excessive good nature of a daughter of our popular Sovereign.

AN English clown, Billy Walton, was buried according to his dying wish. There was a procession of the performers in costume and paint, the band occupying the gaudy circus carriage, the air being "In some fair sultry clime," etc., and as the grave was filled his brother clowns turned somersaults over it.

THE Church of the Messiah of New York has called Rev. Robert Collyer of Chicago to be its pastor. Mr. Collyer, informed the trustees before the call was made that he would accept. Mr. Collyer is an Englishman by birth, a blacksmith by trade, and a famous preacher by general report. He is 58 years of age, and has preached in Chicago for more than 20 years.

FALL WHEAT.—Mr. Wm. Whitney, of Sophiasburgh, has laid on our table several stalks of wheat, of the Blossom variety, measuring about four feet in length. He has a field of this, which, from present appearances, promises a bountiful yield.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Rev. S. P. Rose, who left Belleville last year for Newmarket, is announced to preach in Holloway Street Church to-morrow morning, and Bridge Street Church in the evening. His friends will be pleased to see and hear him again.

D. & D. INSTITUTE.—This afternoon the officers and pupils of the D. and D. Institute had their annual excursion on the Bay. The steamer Transit left the Institute wharf at 2 o'clock with a large number of pupils, teachers, and invited guests on board, and steamed away to Mill Point Remaining there an hour, she returned to the city about 8 this evening.

SCENTED PRAIRIE GRASS.—Mr. John Vermilyea, of Thurlow, has shown us a specimen of scented grass, picked from the prairies of Manitoba by his sister, Mrs. B. W. Garrett, of Raphe City, Little Saskatchewan, 120 miles west of Winnipeg. The grass is something like our June grass, but with larger and brighter blossoms and stalks of deeper green. It is said to be very sweet and succulent, and much relished by stock.

ROBBERY.—HARVESTOWN.—On Monday night we are told, some party entered the house of Mr. Shilton Harvey, ransacked it and escaped with a silver watch. Young Mr. Ham followed the thief until the latter objected with a revolver shot. Mr. Ham was not struck except with the idea that he had better quit the chase when he did. On Thursday night the house of Mr. Chas. Brown was entered in a similar manner and several articles of value stolen. There are robberies also reported at Bath, but we are without particulars.

WARNING TO FARMERS.—Says the Beaver: The unfortunate result of grain speculation by several farmers of Adolphustown, will very likely prevent them tampering with something entirely beyond the proper sphere of a farmer. Last fall several farmers of that township clubbed together and shipped about three thousand bushels of barley to Oswego. A few days since their returns came and proved to be the magnificent net sum of 20 cents per bushel. For this very same barley they were freely offered last fall $1.05 and might have sold without trouble for $1.10. A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.

CITY COUNCIL.—A regular meeting of the City Council will be held on Monday evening.

THE CELLS.—Two tramps had possession of the cells last night. No arrests were made.

THE MARKET.—There was a very good market this morning, and prices were unchanged.

COUNTY COUNCIL.—The work of the County Council was brought to an end at noon to-day. The next session will convene on the second Tuesday in November.

WEATHER BULLETIN.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Fresh to brisk, southerly to easterly winds, partly cloudy to cloudy weather, followed by rain, cloudy and rainy to-morrow.

FELL IN.—Yesterday afternoon a little son of Mr. McArthur, shoe-maker, living on Front Street, fell into the river in rear of his father's shop. He would have been drowned but for the timely arrival of a young man who saw him fall in.

WANTS HIM TO DECLINE.—The Canada Presbyterian says:—"The good people of the Northern Congregational Church, in Toronto appear to be going in for friendly reprisals on Presbyterians. Within the past two or three years several Congregational ministers have come over to our side of the house. And now the Rev. John Burton, of Bellsville, has been cordially invited to become the pastor of the above named Church. We are not in a position to say what may be Mr. Burton's reply; but it will afford pleasure to his many friends in the Presbyterian Church if he can see his way to decline."

☞Style, elegance, location, moderate, and choice of either the American plan $2.50 to $3.00 or the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards. meals in the elegant Restaurant attached to the house, all unite in giving the travellers more for the same money, at the Grand Central Hotel, New York, than elsewhere

☞EGAN'S WAFERS (the great public remedy) have now been in use over twenty years, hence it cannot be said that they are on trial. They have been thoroughly tried, and pronounced (on the authority of those whose lives and health they have preserved) to be a sure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation, and if taken according to directions will invariably cure colds, sore throat, and all bronchial affections. One fair trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cents per box.

Brevities.

—Considerable sickness in Kingston.

—Ice is still reported in Mackinaw Straits.

—Isn't this just about perfect summer weather?

—The recount of votes in Addington takes place to-day.

—The Beaver thinks the recount in Lennox will not materially alter the first return.

—Public baths are a nessity here. Who will be so philantropic as to move in the matter.

—The Whig: "The Tories of Belleville will hereafter be known as the party of rotten eggs."

—Wednesday was St. Barnabas Day, and was the longest day of the year, the night in consequence being the shortest.

—Mrs. Gales, who was visiting her father, Mr. Wilkinson, in Kingston, was found drowned in a well yesterday morning. Suicide is surmised.

THE COMILG RACE.

THE FINAL DEPOSITS PAID—CAN THE 'SPORTSMAN' CUP BE ROWED FOR IN CANADA?—ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION GIVEN TO THE COMPETITORS.

(Per Ist Cal'egram to the Globe.)

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, June 13

Hanlan this morning rowed five miles, and in the afternoon seven; in good form. Elliott did three miles in the morning and four in the afternoon in easy style. The betting is now five to two on Hanlan.

The final deposit has been paid. At a meeting to-night it was arranged that the start take place on Monday at 11:45 a.m. Dr. Armstrong is the referee. The Canadian contingent was present in force. Both competitors were present. Hanlan received an ovation,

(Ass ciated Press Despatch.)

The final deposit of £100 a side was paid this evening at Barrass' Bee Hive Inn by S. Brownlee on behalf of Elliott, and by Mr. Davis, of Windsor, Ont., on behalf of Hanlan. Col. Shaw, U. S. Consul, Manchester; Messrs. Ward, of Toronto; Coulson, of Montreal; Starling, of Belleville; Hanlan and Elliott, and many English rowing men were present at the meeting. Mr. Walton, of the Newcastle Chronicle, presided. Dr. Lake Armstrong, President of the Amateur Club, was unanimously appointed referee, and Mr. Tom. Swaddle distant judge. It was agreed that the men should be in their boats ready to start at 11:45 on Monday morning. The Chairman of the meeting, at the request of Col. Shaw, asked whether, in the event of Hanlan winning, the next contest for the Sportsman's Challenge Cup, could take place in Canada. The Chairman observed that the question was an important one and could only be decided by the trustees and donors of the cup whose regulations distinctly stated that it could only be contested for on the Thames and Tyne. Col. Shaw appealed to the generosity of the trustees. He could promise any English Sculler a hearty reception in Canada, and had no doubt the expenses of his journey would be cheerfully allowed. The editor of the Sports man promised to communicate with the trustees. Doubtless their decision would be dicated solely by what they believed to be best for the interest of sculling. Hanlan's supporters left the question of the starting point entirely in the hands of Elliott's friends. A point of the Mansion House was fixed upon. Votes of thanks to the Chairman and the competitors for the friendly spirit displayed concluded the proceedings. Thousands of people assembled outside of the meeting place to view and cheer the competitors.

The Regatta.

The union regatta of the Yacht and Rowing Clubs took place at Mississauga Point yesterday afternoon, in presence of a large number of spectators. At the time of the start, shortly before 3 o'clock, there was a good breeze blowing, and the race promised to be a very exciting one, as all the boats were pretty evenly matched.

The distance to be sailed was 18 miles three times around the course, for second class yachts, and there were four entries, the start being made in the following manner:—

Katie Gray	2:43:56
Surprise	2:45:15
Sylvia	2:46:40
Gracie	2:51:18

Until about half way around the wind kept up, but then died away, seeming to leave the boats all in a group and at a stand still.

The first time around the stake boat was passed as follows:—

Katie Gray	5:03:30
Surprise	5:06:30
Gracie	5:09:24
Sylvia	5:13:37

Just about this time the wind seemed to freshen a little, and this run was made much more rapidly than the first. The second time the boats passed in the following order:—

Katie Gray	6:06:40
Surprise	6:11:04
Gracie	6:14:40
Sylvia	6:25:52

The third and last time the home buoy was reached as follows:—

Katie Gray	6:06:40
Surprise	6:11:03
Gracie	6:41

The Katie Gray thus became winner of the first money, cup and flag for the first year, by 8 m. 43 sec. over the Surprise, and 11 m. 68 sec. over the Gracie.

THIRD CLASS.

There were three entries in this class, the course being 18 miles, twice around. The start was made as follows:—

Iris, (of Picton)	3:08:30
Wide Awake	3:10:18
Mabel	3:10:27

Like the second-class boats they were a long time in making the first round, which was done in the following order:—

Iris	5:17:12
Wide Awake	5:18:42
Mabel	5:21:56

On the second time around the Mabel was disabled and had to abandon the race, which was won by the Wide Awake. The winning buoy being reached as follows:—

Iris	6:33:22
Wide Awake	6:33:52

ROWING RACES.

About an hour after the yachts had been started the double scull race took place. There were three entries, being Messrs. Sutherland and Blair, Ponton Brothers, and Barber and Bird. The first into the water had a bad start, in fact the rowers did not get the word at all, but started simultaneously and a foul took place at once between the Ponton Brothers, and Barber and Bird; Sutherland and Blair who had darted ahead, were called back, and another and a better start was made. The boats were in the following position: On the inside, near the point, Sutherland and Blair; middle, Barber and Bird, and outside Ponton Brothers. Again the inside men took the water first and shot away, while another foul took place between the same parties as before in which Barber and Bird had an oar broken, Ponton Brothers however followed, and had it not been for the foul would have given the victors a hard run; they only coming in about 150 yards ahead.

For the single scull race the entries were Sutherland Blair and Barber. A good start, was made and the race was won easily by Sutherland, who led Blair to the home boat about 150 yards. Barber gave up.

The steamer Transit made two trips to the point, and one at two o'clock, each time bringing a good crowd of people. At the point Mr. Pretty, the proprietor of the hotel, did all that he possibly could to make the guests comfortable, and everything passed off pleasantly. The Transit reached home about 7:30 with a large crowd of passengers and all were well pleased with the result of the day's sport.

BUT ONE OPINION prevails throughout the world, and that is so strongly in favor of Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER, that no other article ever obtained so wide spread popularity.

I have derived much benefit from using Fellows' Hypophosphites in chronic constipation. JOHN B. MOORE, Forrest City, Montana.

A JOY FOREVER.—Dr. Pierre's Curative is the fine head of hair, its the pride of youth and the glory of age. Alcoholic and mineral washes should never be used: simple and healthful preparations are best; such is Ayarine, use no other.

The Real Simon Pure.

There is no class of invalids whose intellect is so bright and who so appreciate all that is lovely in this life as those who are effected with that fearful scourge Consumption. They are cheated out of life's enjoyments by the terror of the malady. They ought to take heart and look forward to brighter days for Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil will surely bring them relief if taken as directed. It is an almost infallible remedy for all diseases of the lungs, and is very fattening.

Toronto Conference.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

SMITHFIELD, N.C., June 14.—Jesse Davis, the negro hanged yesterday in the presence of 8,000 spectators, for criminal assault on a white woman, said he knew he was going to heaven.

RALEIGH, N.C., June 14.—Mrs. Louisa Perce, residing eight miles from here, is charged with having recently thrown her new-born twins into the fire alive, and burned them to death.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 14.—In U. S. Circuit Court yesterday, Judge Baxter dismissed the petition for $50,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by Conductor Hastings having been knocked from the train on the Nashville Division of the St. Louis and Southwestern R. R., and killed, on the ground that there is now a law requiring railways to erect bridges at any specified height, and that deceased had gone over the road often enough to be aware of danger.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The Herald's Berlin special says the Emperor's golden wedding day has a further interest to the people of U. S. in the fact that White, the American Minister was received on that occasion for the first time and was the only foreign representative to whom their majesties paid special grace. Emperor William after a cordial greeting, asked:

"Do you speak German?" To which Mr. White replied in German. The Emperor then in German expressed his gratification and pleasure at receiving a congratulatory message from the President of the U, S. He prolonged the conversation several minutes, in the presence of brilliant surroundings. Mr. White's introduction to the German Court was most flattering, not only to himself, but to the country which he represents.

The Times, Concord, N. H. says Blair's nomination for Senatorship is a disappointment to many Republicans.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—4 or 500 people went over to Arlington yesterday to witness the decoration of graves of Confederate dead, and listen to an address by Representative Blackburn the latter being the main attraction to many.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The Herald says it was well-known the Pres't has on further consideration determined to veto the judiciary expenses bill if it comes to him in the shape which it has passed the House.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The Longshoremen are again striking, claiming S. S. Co's are not paying them as much as promised.

John. B. Burr of J. B. Burr's Publishing Co., Hartford, left his home June 4th and came to New York; He settled his business satisfactorily but since June 6th has not been heard from.

The American bark Moravia sails to-day on its second passage to Liberia, having on board 50 negroes gathered from Arkansas, Carolinas and other portions of the country by agents of colonization society to be sent out under care of Rev. C. C. Brown, who has been 27 years a resident of Liberia.

An oil train on N. Y. Central R. R., near Bound Brook, yesterday was thrown from the track by striking a cow. The oil took fire and a thousand gallons were burned.

The Sun says from all that we can learn the recent advance of the price of coal has had the effect of materially decreasing the demand for it. Dealers say while there is considerable doing in filling old orders new ones come in sluggishly.

Tax payers of Elizabeth, yesterday decided to present a plan of compromise with bond holders, providing the principal of the city's indebtedness shall be paid in full.

Police officer Nugent was arrested yesterday charged with complicity in Manhattan Bank burglarly. Kelly identifies him as the accomplice who watched outside and afterwards carried off stolen securities in a satchel. Four years ago Nugent was charged with burglarly while on the police force.

LONDON, June 14.—Rowell stopped work Wednesday, and it is rumored he has broken down. His heel was punctured by a peg and gathered causing great pain. His condition, however, is tolerably good. Weston is practising running. Eunis will doubtless show fine performance. They start after 12 Monday, a. m.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—In the House to-day a joint resolution, reported from the Committee of Commerce, was passed, authorizing the Secretary of War to convene a board of engineers to enquire whether for railroad purposes the Detroit River can be bridged or tunneled near Detroit.

He Rather Liked It.

One of our well known citizens was sitting in his parlor the other evening surrounded by his wife and children when the conversation turned upon likes and dislikes, and taste and flavor of various condiments. One person preferred this, another that, when a little blue-eyed, four year old spoke up and said she rather liked castor oil. This seemed singular; but it is not surprising, when we know that she, that very morning, had been taking some of Scott & Bowne's palatable castor oil. Price 25 cents

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Good Advice to Parents.

Many parents labor under the mistaken impression that their children must pass through the ordeal known as children's diseases, and as they sometimes express it, the sooner the better. A child is no more subject to disease (in fact less so than an adult, if the proper precautions are taken to regulate its diet and keep the system cleansed by appropriate medicines. By this we do not mean an habitual dosing with medicines. Such a practice would weaken the infant system so that it could not resist the attacks of disease and would also prove ruinous to the childs constitution. But a moderate occasional use of an efficient alternative or blood purifier would almost absolutely insure the childs system against disease besides greatly promoting its vigor and strength. Dr. Pierces Golden Medical Discovery is unexcelled as an alternative and will prove a very effectual preventive of these diseases.

In spite of his protests and the girl's tears, he was put off at the next station, and she was sent home in charge of a committee.

"I Make No Professi n."

Yes you do, we beg pardon for saying. You have made one just now. You have professed not to make any profession. And in the very words you contradict yourself.

There are some few articles of professions which you have made repeatedly. For instance you express a high regard for consistency And because your regard for consistency is so very high you have gone on in inconsistency. Professing to appreciate rectitude and truth and duty, you have lived without even attempting a course of life in which these excellences shall controle the whole heart. That is because true heartedness within and true dutifulness in conduct without are so very important therefore you have not tried either. In fact dear high toned fault finding critical outsider you are not only a professor but one of the class of most inconsistent professors in the world.

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever Discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in curing and purifying the blood, arresting the formation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

Danger in a Seal-Skin Sacque.

It was a fearfully battered-up citizeness that walked into the police headquarters the other day, and demanded a warrant.

"Certainly," said the P. M. picking up a blank. "What was the scoundrel's name, madam?"

"It wasn't a man. It was that ugly, spiteful hussy, Mrs. McGuffey. I'll have her heart's blood!"

"You don't mean to say that it was a woman who battered you up in that fearful manner?"

"I'll tell you all about it. You see the disgusting creature lives next to me. And this morning I was just polishing up our cake-basket—real silver, your Honor—when what should I see going past the window but Mrs. McGuffey starting out for a walk in a seal-skin sacque!

"Yes, madam, but——"

"The idea of her in a seal-skin, when she can hardly pay her rent. I just ran to the window to see if it was seal-skin or not and I leaned out to look——"

"And that's what injured you in this manner?"

"Exactly, sir. Now I want to get her arrested and put in jail for ten years, if you can fix it that way. Seal-skin sacque indeed!"

But the official heartlessly refused to interfere, and the female wreck walked off, consoling herself with the reflection that it was wash-day, and that at all events, she could cut all the clothes line tied to her back fence, and let down the McGuffey linen into the dirt.

Courtesy and Christian Courtesy.

There is a thing which we call high-breeding or courtesy; its name proclaims that it is the manners of the court, and it is supposed to belong exclusively to persons highly born. There is another thing which we call Christian courtesy; the difference between the two is that high breeding gracefully insists upon its own rights; Christian courtesy gracefully remembers the rights of others. In the narrow, limited sense of the word, "gentleman" can only be applicable to persons born in a certain class, and "gentle" is only the English word "genteel;" but in the larger, higher meaning it belongs to those who are gentle in character rather than in blood; and just as "gentle" has been corrupted into "genteel," so the words "gentleman," "courtesy," "gold mine," have come to be considered the exclusive property of one class.

The Spirit of Christ does really what high breeding only does outwardly. A high-bred man never forgets himself, controls his temper, does nothing in excess, is urbane, dignified, and that even to persons whom he is inwardly cursing in his heart, or wishing far away. But a Christian is what the world seems to be. Love gives him a delicate tact which never offends, because it is ful of sympathy. It discerns afar off what would hurt fastidious feelings, feels with others, is ever on the watch to anticipate their thoughts. And hence the only true refinement—that which lies not on the surface, but goes deep down into the character—comes from Christian love.—F. W. Robertson.

Making God a Beggar.

"I'm trying to beg a little money for our preacher to-day," explains the steward, in apologetic tones, his manner of asking, perhaps, saying almost as plainly as words could, "and I'm half ashamed of my errand."

"I was appointed to beg some money for the Sunday-school," says the smiling young lady-collector, as subscription-paper in hand she sweeps down upon her victim.

"I'm going to beg some money to-day for missionary purposes," announces the pastor to his congregation, who, some way receive the impression that he very much dislikes doing such a thing, and would be surprised at a liberal contribution. And so we hear almost every Sunday, and week-day too, pastors begging, stewards begging, and young lady-collectors begging.

The obnoxious words are ding-donged in the people's ears, in connection with Church finances, until it is no wonder if they do begin to believe that the Church has no claims upon them for a support that they are morally bound to honor, but is a public pauper to be neglected and even spurned if they happen to be in a bad humor.

Begging for what, my friends? For the Church. Whose Church? Why, Christ's of course. Ah, yes; you are degrading this Divine institution, of which Jesus Christ is the Head to the level—yes, below the level—of human institutions that are dependent upon charity. You are reversing the order of things by which God is proprietor of all things and make Him assume a servile attitude, and actually beg by proxy (through you) for a few paltry dimes or dollars, of those who really owe Him, and have solemnly promised Him to hold subject to his commands all they possess. The word has no right to a place in our church vocabulary. It is a wretched usurper, and the sooner it is kicked out the better. Now, fellow-pastors, brother stewards, sister collectors, one and all, for the sake of decency and truth, and that God may be honored, His creatures taught their obligations, and his cause prospered, let us never more use in this connection the lying word, beg. Let us all give one vigorous kick, and oust it instanter.—Sunday Magazine.

The most Valuable Gift—Is for tion of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the [illegible] Shoshocs Remedy has faithfully redeemed ever promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affection of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not bought people, but unbiased of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed, under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Biliousness, Sick Headache, and insidiously to the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Fifth 25 cts. a box.

MILLBROOK P. O. TYRON, ONT

MESSRS. Millburn, Boulton & Pearson,—SIRS, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing. I could think of but found it all in vain. At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one week's time I found I hear as well as I ever could but still use the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada Mountains, which this delicious smoking derives its virtue. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe ful smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce t one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO

YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

ONTARIO MUTUA Life Assurance Co'y.

HEAD OFFICE — WATERLOO, ONT.

Deposited with the Dominion Government $56,224,00

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its only Stockholders, and mutually share all profits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST,

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63,88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.98 to	$56,90
" 5th "	10.40 "	53.48
" 6th "	17.30 "	46.58
" 7th "	20.73 "	43.15
" 8th "	25.89 "	37.99
" 9th "	36.65 "	27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

COUNTY COUN CIL.

SECOND SESSION.

He was of opinion that the front townships should be satisfied if they did not get anything at all on roads. He could not see how members could go back to their constituents this year and tell them that the expenditure had been increased, after the promises made towards economy.

Mr. Kavanagh did not regard Mr. Ashley's apportionment as being fair. His township, at least, should have as much as it had in other years. If he did not get a sum similar to that of former years, he would rather take nothing.

Mr. Robinson wanted to know why the villages should get so much and the rear townships so little.

Mr. Ashley explained that in consequence of the railroad running into Madoc, and their having to open up a road to the station, it was entitled to a grant of $100. The villages of Stirling, Trenton and Mill Point had also claims to a grant of $100 each. He thought the representative of Dungannon & Farrady had taken a wrong view, and should be satisfied with the grant proposed by his motion.

Mr. Vankleek thought the distribution, as laid down in his motion, should pass.

Mr. Cook said he would support Mr. Vankleek's motion, as he considered it to be fair.

Mr. Aylesworth said if the items for county roads passed at the January session were to be counted in the estimates, as now brought in, the appropriation would have to be largely increased. It would require the united exertion of every member of the Council to keep the expenditure within the estimates. He would rather Mill Point got nothing than to have the expenditure increased.

Mr. Tuttle had no objection to the back townships getting large grants. While his township was getting nothing as much as it should, he was willing to take that amount rather than to increase the expenditure.

Mr. Gordon said while the Reeve of Elzivr was willing to take the bait of $100, he (Mr. G.) was still in favor of Mr. Vankleek's motion. The grant to Hungerford was low, but he was willing to accept it.

Mr. O'Flynn was in favor of Mr. Ashley's motion. He went in for curtailing expenses.

Mr. Murphy thought Mr. Vankleek's motion to be the most just, and would support it.

Mr. Kavanagh said that unless the northern townships got more money they would be obliged to divide up their townships and have more representatives, and that then they would be [illegible] one. He thought that if it could be done the Council should pass a by-law doing away with the county roads, and make the municipalities support their own roads.

Mr. Aylesworth said he had been spoken to by several members on the subject, and was of the opinion that they would eventually have to come to that. The majority of the northern townships got more than they paid into the county, and he believed that the grants would have to be less or their equalization increased.

Mr. Kavanagh said that he was of opinion the front townships would like to shake off the rear, but they could not do that very easily.

Dr. Parker was in favor of giving all the aid they possibly could to the struggling townships in the rear, and would support Mr. Vankleek's motion.

Mr. Ashley said that unless they tried to keep within the estimates each year, they would soon come to be in the same position as was Elzivr.

The Warden said there seemed to be a general desire on the part of the members to keep down the expenses, and on account of the position he occupied he would like to keep the expenditure within the estimates. He, however, would like to see an additional $1,100 put on, so that small grants could be made to those municipalities which needed them.

Mr. Vankleek's motion was put and carried.

Mr. Vankleek moved that the levy be 36-100 of a cent.

Mr. Vandewaters moved in amendment that the rate be 37-100 of a cent. Carried.

On motion the committee rose and reported.

Mr. Ashley moved that the report be not now adopted, but be referred back for the purpose of changing the appropriation on county roads from $2,700 to $1,600.

The yeas and nays were taken as follows:

Yeas.—Messrs. Tuttle, Ashley, Weese, McCready, Aylsworth, Appleby, Sills, Vandewaters, Vandervoort, Emo, Robinson, and Lee.—12.

Nays.—Messrs. O'Flynn, Kavanagh, Grunter, Vankleek, Caskey, Fitzgerald, McDavitt, Parkhurst, Anderson, Curry, Gordon, Murphy, Parker, Cook, Montgomery, and Pearce.—16.

The motion was lost, and the report, as a whole, was adopted.

The Committee of the Whole on Ways and Means resumed.

Hon. Mr. Flint's petition was again taken up.

Mr. Appleby moved, seconded by Mr. Sills, that as the financial position of the County was very low, the prayer of the petition be not granted.

Mr. Tuttle said he understood the chief grounds taken against granting the prayer of the petition was that other townships who were in arrears would claim a rebate also. He thought, however, that there was no townships in the county which could no claims. If the whole amount, $1,400 and over, be not granted, then he hoped they would grant some rebate.

Mr. Ashley said this matter should have been settled before the estimates were passed, and he would like to have helped them, but now he could not see how it would be done.

The amendment was carried.

The petitioner asked leave to withdraw his petition, which was granted.

The committee rose and reported progress.

Mr. Appleby moved, seconded by Mr. Vandervoort, that the Council adjourn until half-past seven o'clock. Lost.

The whole of the afternoon session on Friday, as well as that of Saturday morning, was taken up in Committee of the Whole on Gravel Roads, Ways and Means, &c. The session came to an end at noon on Saturday, to meet again on the second Tuesday in November.

The Princess of Wales.

London correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, May 31.

For fashionability, for nobbiness, for chic, for everything that women most admire in women, there is really no describing her.

she must be seen to be appreciated. Her dressing is always the last expression of Parisian elegance, and invariably her toilet is as finished as an epigram, down to the smallest detail. From her dainty, high heeled boots up to the tightly drawn veil over her face, she is the most consummately apparelled lady, in the French style, who graces the metropolis. Judging her merely as a woman, with no aid from her high rank to bewilder a man's imagination, I think there are many girls here in society, who, with their limpid eyes, [illegible] complexion, soft, tumbled hair, and general fe[illegible]ciness would win the race for a heart sooner than she. But the matter is not to be thought of, of course. She is Princess, future Queen and Empress, and wonderfully well she is adapted to her station. Will you believe that yesterday, in the universal sahsm which greeted her entrance, from a varied collection of greatness, she walked straight across the room to a little paralysed child who was propped up in a promenader and began to play with it! The all unconscious midget chatted back babble and gave her a flower it held in its shadowy fingers. It was a touching little picture and one which is worthy of an artist. When she left the bazaar and drove away through the streets cheer after cheer greeted Alexandra as the various passers recognized the soft and face. Horses for loyalty mean something more here than they did in Imperial days in France, when the choristers of the Grand Opera were detailed during the day to stand on the street corners and shout "Vive Empereu!" An Englishman will bear a wrong in silence, deeming submission a duty to God and law, but you cannot make him shout if he don't want to.

The Daily Ontario

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 16.

RUMORED that a general reorganization of the Weights and Measures Act is now in progress. A large number of dismissals have been decided on, the principle of grouping counties for inspection purposes having been adopted.

THE Montreal Gazette, in the course of a lecture to the Ontario Opposition flavored with advice as to the future operations, remarks that "Mr. Mowat, with his large majority, will be more than human if he does not err in his administration of affairs." The words of our Opposition contemporary are worthy of being taken to heart. A large majority undoubtedly brings some danger in its train. Had the Reform majority been smaller at Ottawa during the regime of the late Administration, several sins of omission and commission would probably have been avoided. We believe Mr. Mowat has the tact and the firmness to properly lead his majority in the future as in the past; and he will find the independent Liberal press faithful to defend or to criticise as occasion may demand.

has not been a single officer [illegible] there the present Dominion Government for political reasons," a statement which argues either a great lack of acquaintance with public affairs upon the part of the writer, or a reckless hardihood that would do more credit to a Zulu than to a journalist. The first act of the present Government was to dismiss Mr. Buckingham for political reasons, and there has hardly been a day since then that Reform officials have not been removed in order to give their places to sympathizers with the present party in power, and for no other cause. Should H. M. S. "Pinafore" be at present anchored off Hamilton, we advise our excellent contemporary to obtain the permission of Capt. Corcoran to repeat its tale to the marines, on board of the vessel.

More Censure.

The Stratford Herald, whose editor was one of Mr. Meredith's defeated candidates, joins the Toronto Mail and the Montreal Gazette in expressing its dissatisfaction with the leader of the Opposition. It says:—"Had Sir John A. Macdonald commanded the forces the result might have been different. Mr. Meredith is an estimable and polished gentleman, but he is a stranger to his followers in many constituencies, and at no pains to make himself acquainted with them. We trust that in the future we shall have less to complain of upon this score." Mr. Meredith is catching it pretty severely. By one journal he is accused of being an incapable as an organizer of his party; a second regards him as an incapable so far as framing a policy when in Opposition is concerned, while a third believes him to be incapable of the performance of the ordinary duties dictated by common courtesy.

Retaliation.

The suggestion we threw out a few days ago of the necessity as well as the expediency of letting the Tory Government at Ottawa know that the Governments at Toronto will not stand idly by and see Reformers dismissed the Dominion service for political reasons has been generally commented upon by the Liberal press and approved. It is a suggestion in keeping with the times we live in and is perfectly justifiable. We have seen since the 17th of September, Reformers have been ruthlessly slaughtered by the Tories in order to give the impecunious hangers-on of that party place and pelf. We have seen valuable and trusted servants compelled to accept superannuation and to resign for this purpose, too, and we have no hesitation in saying that it is time the Mowat Government took a stand in this matter and protected their friends. They have it in their power, as Mr. Joly has it in Quebec, to tell the Ministers at Ottawa that the Jacksonian theory "to the victors belong the spoils," shall not be put in practice with impunity by the Tories in Ontario or in Lower Canada. Had Mr. Mowat been defeated, we should have had the pain of witnessing wholesale dismissals of Reform appointees. His triumph was, however, the first and a severe check. Let him show that, if necessary, a second or more severe one will be administered. In this country we wish Civil Service to be an institution of a permanent character, so far as appointments are concerned. We desire to preserve it from degenerating into a mere political engine as it is in the United States, where it is the creature and sport of party. Lord Dufferin nobly impressed upon the people of this country the value of permanent appointments, and the necessity of the absence of politics from [illegible]'s ranks. We, therefore, take it that the retaliation we have suggested is [illegible]ustifiable upon either and higher grou[illegible]ands than those of protecting our fri[illegible]nds which, we regret to say from t[illegible]o state into which these matters ha[illegible]ve fallen of late, is in itself a complete defence of the step we [illegible]ady recommend.—Hamilton Times.

Clearing the Atmosphere.

The storm which swept the country on the 5th [illegible]une has, we take it, purified the politi[illegible]osphere. Such noxious vapors as the [illegible]ion of the currency, quasi-[illegible]epublicanism and "rag-babyism," have been [illegible]n of existence, and will, we fancy, never [illegible]make be heard of. The folly of mixing up Dominion and Provincial issues has also been knocked out of time, as the organs in their haste to escape the dilemma into which they had forced themselves have not been slow to point out. The election therefore, may be accepted as as having done a vast deal of good over and above the firmly reseating in power of Mr. Mowat and his colleagues.

"Useful at Times."

The Mail admits that the average Tory rough "is a terrible person," but insists that "he is useful sometimes." We readily grant both points. He can, and does, make himself a terror to civil folks, when he is sufficiently inspired. It only requires about three "smiles" and a little party "unction" (the Mail can understand both phrases) to put him into "fighting trim," and then there's fun for you. He takes to rotten eggs and brick-bats as naturally as to whiskey, and knows how to utilize the dark corners when practising on political opponents. We have watched him under peculiarly trying circumstances, and must admit that he is a terrible person."

And, the average Tory rough is "useful," too. He can help wonderfully when the party gets into a tight place. He is heavy on knock-down arguments, and generally goes well armed with his favorite weapons of defence. In case of an emergency, he responds with alacrity, and has an abiding faith in the divine rights of the Tories to rule—always. He was useful in 1842, and has been on many occasions since. We found him very useful—to his party—last Tuesday evening. Several thousand people were on the streets to witness an imposing political demonstration, and the idea occurred to the leaders of that party that so much music and enthusiasm would work mischief to them, and, perhaps, spoil some nice calculations. So they concluded to organize the "Tory roughs" for a counter movement, and agreed upon a programme. [illegible]. Then eggs and brick-bats. [illegible] the eggs. The thing worked to a charm, as scores of people who were marked can testify. 'Tis a fact, the "Tory rough" was immensely useful last Tuesday evening.

Hanlan Champion of the World

The result of the great race on the Tyne this morning is another and crowning victory for Hanlan, who is now justly entitled to the championship of the world. Few people in Canada, we suppose, doubted the ability of their favorite to win, but they did not expect so hollow a victory. Elliott had won the first position as an oarsman in England, and this was sufficient to give him unusual prestige. To be champion sculler of England was tantamount to being the best oarsman in the world. But the ease with which the Canadian has wrested the laurels from his English competitors has not only established his superiority as an oarsman, but has also taught Englishmen that the style of sculling that has been so long in vogue among them is defective in more ways than one.

Casual Remarks.

—The Light Guards of Detroit will visit Chatham Dominion Day.

—"Our Ned" is now champion of the "wide, wide world."

—The Dominion Government will vaccinate the Indians of Manitoba.

—The London Advertiser compliments Messrs. Brown and Blake for declining knighthood.

—Rumored now that Lt.-Gov. Letellier will not only be permitted to sit out his term, but that he will be knighted.

—Stated that the Dominion Government will remove the Deputy Receiver General, to make place for another hungry Tory.

—It is now in order to speak of the Dominion Finance Minister as Sir Leonard Tilley, not Sir Samuel.

—Mr. Jas. Innes, of the Guelph Mercury, must find newspaper business profitable. He is able to go to Europe for a trip and take his wife along.

—The elections for Rouville and Chambly take place to-morrow, and much interest is felt in the result.

—There is a growing feeling in favor of having Hon. Edward Blake in the House of Commons, and the probability is that a seat will be offered him soon.

—The vote on the 4th of June showed a reaction in the cities in favor of the Reform party by nearly 2,000 votes. Another pull will do it.

—Excepting that of the member for Carleton, the united majorities of four Ministerial candidates exceeded the combined majorities of all the Oppositionists elected.

—It is positively stated that after Sir John's trip to England he will retire from political life. Speculation is rife as to whether Sir Charles or Sir Sackmy will succeed the present Chieftain.

Cause and Effect.

The Toronto Conservative organ is still rubbing its eyes and asking what struck—not the celebrated William Patterson—but the Conservative Opposition in Ontario on the 5th of June.

We can answer our esteemed contemporary in a few words: (1) Mr. Mowat was sustained by about his old majority on the excellence of his record in the Ontario Legislature, combined with the weakness of his opponents personally and in point of policy. (2) The additional majority may be attributed to resentment in the public mind on discovering the National Policy to be a delusion and a snare.

That is the philosophy of the 5th of June in a nut-shell.—London Tiser.

Public Baths.

THE NECESSITY FOR A BATHING PLACE IN THE CITY.

Now that the warm weather has set in, many of our citizens, after being confined to their offices and shops all day, feel the need of a bath in the evening. But there is no place within a reasonable distance where they can enjoy the refreshing results of a good plunge and swim. In order to accomplish his wish, a person now has to row two or three miles to get outside the city limits. By the time Zwick's Island or some other safe locality is reached he is in a profuse state of perspiration, and a sudden plunge into the cool water produces effects which if not felt at the moment, appear in after years, and are the origin of many diseases and ailments which make man prematurely old, and often result fatally. With the many facilities at our disposal there can be no excuse why some effort is not made to provide accommodation for those who wish to indulge in a swim. There are many places along the river and harbor that could be utilized for this purpose. It would not cost much to construct the proper houses and sheds. If necessary a fee of five cents to each person could be charged for expenses, which would pay a caretaker's salary. What a great boon such accommodation would be to the working and business men of the city, and at how little expense could it be granted. The trifling amount of expense could not be incurred in any better way by the City Council than in providing safe and cheap public baths. Who will move in this matter?

Poisoned.

TWO FAMILIES IN AGONY THROUGH EATING BACON.—DEATH OF ONE OF THE CHILDREN.

MONTREAL, June 14.—The poisoning case which came to light last night is the subject of much interest to-day. Two families, that of Yamet Farnam, laborer, aged about 50 years, and Edward Folan, his son-in-law, aged 25, an employee of the rolling mills of Messrs. Pillow, Hersey & Co., and residing on Young street, on Thursday last were in their usual health and vigor. In the evening Folan's wife went to the grocery store and bought several articles of consumption for next day including one and a half pounds of bacon. She cooked a portion of the latter for her own and her children's supper and observed at the time she placed it in the pan that it was slightly tinged as though with mildew in a small meat locker thoroughly fresh and wholesome. She ate a small portion as did also the two little boys, George, aged three years, and Willie, aged five. Of the remainder she cooked a portion for her husband's midday meal next day and gave the remainder to her mother living next door. Yesterday morning, after Folan had left for work, Mrs. Folan was seized with illness, experiencing every symptom of sickness at the stomach. Willie was also taken sick and suddenly became worse, dying at eight o'clock last night. Folan himself is in bed, and the grandfather is also ill. The meat has been submitted to public analysis and an inquest is being held.

Persons and Things.

Moody and Sankey's "Hold the Fort" was played by the band of the besieged in Ekowe, Zululand, every Sunday.

Garibaldi says that ninety-six out of every hundred Englishmen would vote for Queen Victoria as head of the English nation.

Prof. Tyndall says that in Edison's telephone there is no action which men of science would not at one time have pronounced possible in theory but impossible of realization and a mere dream. It was through experimental fact alone that so great things had been brought about.

Prince Napoleon Jerome Bonaparte has a veritable museum of Napoleonic relics. There is the spoon worn by the great Emperor at the battle of Marengo, a silver dressing case which he gave to King Jerome, the little three cornered hat, and the field glass with which he watched his batteries.

A French professor, who lectured on "Suicide and Suicidal Subjects," commenced by boldly telling his hearers that "every one of you has at some time or another, more or less often, thought and desired to commit suicide," and challenged any one present to contradict his statement, but no one did so.

Obituary.

THE LATE DAVID S. CONGER.

The subject of this brief notice was well known to most of the older inhabitants of Prince Edward County. For more than half a century he had lived a quiet, honorable life in the vicinity of Picton, and was one of those men who exercise a wholesome influence over all who come in contact with them. For some time he had been confined to his bed by severe affliction, and, therefore, his death yesterday was not unexpected. He was 74 years of age, and leaves a widow and several children to mourn the loss of a kind husband and affectionate father. The Messrs. Conger Bros., of this city, are sons of the deceased.

Lord Dufferin's Bull Dog.

A bull dog that was stolen from Lord Dufferin in Canada, a year ago, turned up lately at Terre Haute, where she killed a Texan steer in a street fight. Col. Burns, of Evansville, bought her for $100, and fastened her in his stable. The Evansville Journal of last Wednesday said: "Yesterday, while Colonel was leading a horse worth $1,000 past the dog, she leaped to-ward the horse with such tremendous force that the collar snapped like a string. She buried her teeth in the horse's flesh. Col. Burns seized the dog by the throat with both hands, and hurling her on her back, threw himself upon her as she fell. She tore his shirt into shreds. At last, with his heavy boot heel he planted a blow on the forehead which [illegible]stunned the beast."

[illegible]ival of Thursday Col. Burns was sitting on horseback at his front gate yesterday morning, when the spotted dog dashed out the side gate, having broken the cast-iron chain. He whipped his horse into a gallop and followed. Capt. App, of the police, was coming down the street in his barouche when the dog dashed toward his horse and made a leap at his throat. The horse shied to escape the danger, overthrowing the brouche and hurling Capt. App against a shade tree with such force as to dislocate the right elbow. On Parrett street the furious dog met a lad and seized him by the collar of his coat, both rolled off the plank walk and rolled down the embankment. Col. Burns attacked the dog with the butt of a heavy whip and knocked her senseless. The horse ran away during the fight and has not been recovered. The dog was hauled home still senseless." The Journal of Friday said:—"Langolf went to the stables to see the dog yesterday. She lazily yawned and pretended to fawn, while her great red chops, hanging down, were opened and closed indolently. Langolf went to to pat her gently, when she leaped at his throat. The stout trace held her back, though her paws caught in the marshal's vest and brought him down on his knees. He drew his revolver and put two bullets through her head. With a few struggles the ferocious beast died."

The most Valuab's Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affliction of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not bogus people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities no the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

Local & General

City Council.—Regular meeting of the Council this evening, the first held in a month.

Police Matters.—Only one arrest has been made since Saturday—a drunk—and he was discharged yesterday.

Personal.—Thos Kelso, Esq., who has been on a visit to the Nor-west returned home on Saturday. He looks well, and enjoyed his trip immensely.

The Alexandra.—This steamer was sold here on Saturday morning last to the Bank of Montreal for $8,100. There was but few people present at the sale.

Weather Bulletin.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region receive l by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Fresh northerly to westerly winds, fair to clear weather.

Alexandra College.—The annual exhibition or convocation of this Institution will occur to-morrow (Tuesday) evening. There will be several lady graduates. The exercises promise to be specially attractive.

P. E. R.—The Prince Edward Railway is nearing completion. A right of way has been purchased clear through to Trenton, and track laying is already in progress. A connection will be made with the Grand Trunk at Trenton. The first engine placed on the line will be called the 'Picton.' The Gazette man has gone into great ecstacies over it.

And Still Another Batch.—The appointment of Official Assignees still goes on by the Dominion Government they, doubtless, anticipating a large increase in bankrupts on account of their policy which was to bring increased prosperity. Last week's Gazette contains nine appointments of Official Assignees, amongst whom we oh the name of John McCullough, of Mill Point.

Theft and Recovery.—Some time ago a gentleman in Mill Point missed a diamond ring valued at $100. He suspected a Kingston man of stealing it, and sent word to Chief Hance. The Chief despatched a detective to the suspected man's house, but the man denied knowing anything of it. In a few day's, however, the ring was returned, with the excuse that another man, than the suspected one had taken it.

Vennor Again.—Vennor still keeps at it, with a view of hitting the nail on the head some time. Here is his latest:—"Judging from the movements of the spring birds, I feel certain we are going to experience a wet summer, with frequent cold relapses and severe frosts, the same conditions extend through a large portion, also, of the United States. The winter of 1879-80 will again be severe with heavy snow falls."

Bad Side-Walk.—The residents of that portion of the city which is reached by Moira Street West complain of the very bad state of the side-walks above the hill. The planks in many places have been removed, leaving regular mat-traps into which luckless night traveller stumbles, and in other places the stringers have decayed so as to allow the boards to lie on the ground. A little attention to these defects would be thankfully acknowledged.

Dominion Day.—Our citizens will be pleased to learn that Chief McKinnon is succeeding with his subscription list and from the amount already subscribed, we are warranted in saying that the celebration on Dominion Day will be gotten up on a large scale. One of the great features of the day will be the contest between Chief McKinnon and D. C. Ross for the heavy weight championship of America and $500 a side, the articles of agreement for which arrived to-day.

The Victory.—Flags have been flying to-day in honor of Haulan's victory, from the City Hall flag-staff, and various private residences in the city.

Personal.—The Rev. Mr. Rose, formerly of this city, preached in the Bridge St. Church last evening, and in Holloway St. Church in the morning. His many friends here were glad to hear his voice once more. He left for home to-day.

Convocation Day.—The thirteenth annual convocation of Albert University will take place at the City Hall on Wednesday afternoon, when a large number of degrees will be conferred.

Evangelistic.—Mr. Geo. C. Needham, a co laborer with Moodie & Sankey, assisted by his brother, W. E. and D. C. Needham, had an evangelistic service at the Opera House last evening. There was a large audience.

Rowing Race.—We understand arrangements have been made for a rowing race to take place on Friday afternoon next between Messrs. Joseph Tisdale and George Sutherland. We have not learned what course is to be rowed, or for what amount, but a good race may be expected.

Progressing.—The walls for Mr. Tickell's new cabinet factory, being built by Alex. Brown, Esq., are now up. The roof will be put on at once, and the machinery placed in the building for an early start. A large number of hands will be employed, and the factory will be one of the best in this part of the country.

Fire.—Yesterday morning about 4 o'clock a fire broke out in a frame dwelling house in the Grove, West Belleville occupied by a man named James Johnston. The family barely escaped with their lives and saved but little of their furniture or clothing. Although the engines were promptly on hand, the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to save the building. It was owned by Mr. McCormick of the Deaf & Dumb Institute.

The Histrionic Association.—We trust our readers will bear in mind the complimentary benefit tendered by the above association to Mr. Geo. Hanwell at the Opera House to-morrow evening. We understand the different members are well up in their respective parts, and the play will be put upon the boards in such a manner as to do them credit. Both the association and Mr. Hanwell have claims upon the public that should not be ignored, and we hope to see the house crowded in every part.

'Prentice Boys.—At the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the 'Prentice Boys at Oshawa, the following officers were elected and installed:—Charles A Pettit, Belleville, Grand Master; H Pearson, Guelph, S D G M; John McIlroy, Kingston, J D G M; J W Wilde, Toronto, G Secretary; R Anderson, Napanee, G Treasurer; C Gentleman, Toronto, G Chaplain; F Southcombe, Oshawa, Ass't. G Secretary; G O'Neil, Ottawa, G Lecturer; T R Irwin, Stratford, Ass't. G Lecturer; Wm. Trewin, Oshawa, G D of C; P Sher, lock, Camben East, G I Tyler.

Taking Well.—We see again among us Mr. S. H. Scott, and learn from him that he is again manufacturing a large amount of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. Mr. S—— represents Scott & Bowne of New York, whose preparations of Cod Liver Oil and Castor Oil are so well known in the States. They are introducing these two reliable medicines in Canada, locating here with their office and factory, and we are glad to hear that both their Scott's Emulsion and the Scott & Bowne's Palatable Castor Oil are having large sales over the entire Dominion. Some [illegible] this firm are doing can be had from the fact that they are putting up about 10,000 bottles of their preparation and that this is the third time in less than nine months that Mr. S—— has done the same thing here. We can but wish them success as we know their remedies to be all they claim for them.

A Challenge.—We are informed that a challenge appeared in Saturday's issue of the Oswego Palladium, from the owner of the yacht Ella, to W. H. Campbell, of this city, owner of the Katie Gray, to sail a race for from $100 to $250 a side. The race to be sailed at Kingston on July 1st, under the Royal Canadian Yacht Club rules. Mr. Campbell will not accept the conditions, for the reason that there is a regatta in Kingston on that day, but is disposed to double the stakes to be sailed at some future time. The Ella's challenge calls for a deposit of the stakes by the 24th inst., but unless so no other date can be fixed upon there will be no deposit. Should the race come off, we are confident the Katie Gray will come out as she generally does, ahead.

Consumption, so prevalent and so fatal is dreaded as the great scourge of our race; and yet, in the formative stages, all pulmonary complaints may be readily controlled by using "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers." They will relieve the worst cough in a few minutes, and have a most beneficial influence on the bronchial and pulmonary organs; but they must be used in time. Public speakers and singers will also derive great benefit by using them. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

The Midnight Fire Bell.—What a shock it gives to hear the sharp clang of the midnight fire bell. To the doting mother the plaintive moan or the more shrill cry of her darling child that lies in its crib by her bedside, too plainly telling her of its sufferings from an attack of inflammation of the bowels the shock is no less terrible and terrifying. She springs for the bottle of Scott & Bowne's Palatable Castor oil which she took the precaution to obtain from the druggist the day before and with one teaspoonful puts to flight the disease. The little sufferer thus ameliorately forgets as palatable as cream. Price 25 cents.

Elevated Railroads, Lines of Stages, Places of amusement Depots and Steamers—all these radiate from, or are situated in, the immediate neighborhood of the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, which is now kept on both plans, the American $2.50 or $3.00, and the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices is conducted by the Grand Central.

The collection of harbor dues at Owen Sound will be suspended.

THE GREAT RACE TO-DAY.

HANLAN AN EASY VICOR

HE TAKE THE CHAMPIONSHIP AS HE PLEASES.

Newcastle-on-Tyne, June 16.—Hanlan won by ten lengths. No time yet.

London, 2 p. m., June 16.—Hanlan won with ease by nearly a dozen lengths.

New Castle, 3 p. m.—Weather fine though dull. Water beautifully smooth. Immense concourse of spectators. 20 laden steamers of spectators followed the race. 5 to 2 on Hanlan had been laid during the morning, but Elliott came into better favor just prior to the start. Only a slight shade of odds was laid on the Canadian. Elliott won the toss and took the northern shore. After some delay, at 12:15 the men got off. A capital start. Hanlan dashed in a stroke at the rate of 42 to minute and at once drew to the front. Elliott struck out at the rate of 40, he exerted all of his enormous strength, but splashed now and then, and his boat did not travel well. Hanlan got a lead of 4 lengths, at Red Haugh bridge, making the first mile in 6 minutes, 11½ seconds. The Canadian way then leading by 5 lengths. Hanlan now slackened down and contented himself with keeping the advantage and eventually won very easily by 8 lengths, in the good time of 21 minutes, 1 second. An enormous multitude at Scotswood, who cheered Hanlan to the echo.

New York, June 16.—A London special says: Elliott's steering was very faulty. Hanlan's steering was excellent. When off Benwell boat house Hanlan stopped rowing to look around him to ascertain the distance he had yet to row. About this time a deathlike silence fell on the assembled thousands, for England's champion had been defeated almost without an effort. After smiling pleasantly to those on shore Hanlan began rowing with all his might. The gap between him and Elliott was soon increased and amid deafening plaudits Hanlan rowed under Scootswood bridge.

At the start Elliott was stripped to the skin but Hanlan wore his dark blue sleeveless jersey. Elliott who looked confident and cheerful, called out to several of his friends on the Umpire's boat—"I'll take 3 to 1 that I lead all the way." No response was made.

London 5 p. m.—The sporting reporters say such a performance as Hanlan's has never been seen in British waters.

Hurrah for "our Ned!"

SNOW STORM IN JUNE.

Portsmouth, June 15. Snow fell here last night between 10 and 11, making the ground white.

LATEST CAPETOWN NEWS.

AN IMMEDIATE ADVANCE CONTEMPLATED—MORE MILITARY UNREADINESS REPORTED.

London, June 15.—Lord Chelmsford telegraphed on May 26th, that the second division will advance twelve miles on May 28, to Blood River. The Commissariat say they have sufficient supplies and transportation to enable the forces to advance on or before June 1st.

A correspondent with Crealock's column writes:—It is reported that a large Zulu force watches this column which will advance this week to Fort Chelmsford. A correspondent from Landsman's Drift on the 23rd of May declares the route of the invasion had not then been decided upon. The correspondent adds:—The condition of unreadiness is purely military. The delay was utterly flagrant.

A WATERSPOUT IN DEADWOOD.

CAUSING AN INUNDATION — NINE PERSONS DROWNED.

Deadwood, Dakota, June 14.—At Buffalo Gap on Thursday night, by a sudden rise and overflow of Beaver Creek, caused by a waterspout, eleven persons were drowned. Seven of them, including three children were emigrants on the way to the Hills from Mills County, Iowa; the others were men going from the Hills to the railroad. In five minutes from the first alarm the whole country was flooded. The water subsided almost as suddenly.

Deadwood, D.T., June 15.—Further particulars show that the cloud burst near Buffalo Gap on Thursday evening. The water commenced rising about 8 o'clock in Beaver Creek, a mile on this side of Buffalo Gap station, on the Sidney stage road. Near the banks of the creek were camped a party of nine persons from Mill County, Iowa, four from the Black Hills, and Montgomery Bros. and Clark's freight outfits, loaded with 40,000 pounds, principally Home State Mining Company's machinery, which was nearly all destroyed and scattered for miles around. All the wagons with Iowa emigrants were also destroyed, nothing a few miles were saved. Nine persons were drowned, four babies so far have been recovered. The water covered a space of forty miles and subsided within two hours after the rise. Fragments of the wagons, etc., were seen three to five miles from the scene of the disaster. All the creeks around the hills were unusually high.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM.

DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING AND FLOOD.

A very heavy thunder storm passed over Toronto yesterday afternoon, which did considerable damage. The rain poured down in perfect torrents for upwards of four hours, having fallen to the depth of nearly 18 inches in that time. In many instances the lightning damaged property, but fortunately no case of human beings having been injured was reported.

Several buildings in the city were struck by lightning.

In St. Michael's Cathedral, where services were being held, there was almost a panic among the congregation in consequence of the loud peals of thunder. At one time the crash was so great that the people rose to their feet and were about rushing for the doors, when one of the priests allayed their fears by the assurances that there was no danger.

The lightning struck the wires of the fire alarm telegraph in many places, the result being that the bell's at the fire halls sung, being sounded repeatedly during the afternoon. No damage, however, seemed to have been done to the apparatus.

The fiery fluid whizzed about the telephone wires at the Central Station at intervals during the afternoon, causing the officers there to fear that the building would be struck. However, the storm passed off without such a fatality occurring the only damage being a disarrangement of the wires for a time.

The damage by the flood was not so great. The sewer at the corner of Sackville and Carlton streets caved in, leaving a cavity about 25 feet in length. In many parts of the city the sidewalks and crossings were submerged, and culverts choked up, so that the water accumulated in large quantities, and in some places flooded cellars.

The expenditure of brain power too early or too severely in children often results in physicial debility; the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites exerts a singularly happy effect in such cases.

"Sudden Colds."—At the commencement of a cold, take a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in a little milk and sugar, and the cure is more sudden than the cold.

Unequalled.—Delightful to use, clean and healthful upon the hair, there is nothing that can compare with it, Try Bearine.

The Mail's correspondents at Ottawa and Montreal throw discredit on the assertion that the Home Government will not Sanction Lettellier's dismissal. The gentleman who cabled the message is, however, likely to be a more reliable man than either of those worthies.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

Chicago, June 16.—Exaggerated reports about Indian troubles current in Idaho papers, are said to be manufactured for the purpose of having troops sent there so that settlers may sell them subsistence. The trouble with Yanktonais Indians, on James River, Dak., is over their agreeing to go back to Crow Creek Agency.

Bismarck, D. T., June 16.—The war department ordered Gen. Miles to go north of Missouri River and drive back the hostile Indians from Sitting Bull's camp. The General has put two companies of Fifth Infantry in the field to run down the Indians who recently killed a woodchopper on the Yellowstone.

Freehold, N. J., June 16.—Samuel P. Knapp a well known member of New York Corn Exchange and detective Drake are accused of conspiring to entice Peter S. Golden from Freehold, to a house of ill fame in New York to get evidence for Mrs. Golden, Knapp's sister, to institute a divorce case. Resulted in conviction on Saturday.

New York, June 16:—The Herald's London special says Talmage preached yesterday at Islington Presbyterian Church, Colebrook Road, to an enormous congregation. A dense crowd blockaded the streets for half a mile. Before the church was reached his carriage was lifted from the ground and carried bodily to the church.

The Tribune reports the police are looking for the negro Bristow Francis, husband of Mrs. Hall' cook. He is suspected of being implicated in the murder of Mrs. Dr. Hall.

The Times on the contrary says police investigation shows a complete alibi for Francis.

Preliminaries are arranged for the extension of Harlem Road to the City Hall. The road is expected to be finished by next Christmas. This probably accounts for the heavy decline in elevated R. R. stock, Saturday.

A dinner was given to Chief Justice Waite Saturday evening by Chas. O'Conner.

Rev. Rob't Collyer has accepted a call to Church of Messiah pulpit.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

London, June 16.—The Times says business difficulties in the provinces are still apprehended. Heavy failures would have occurred before now, but the provincial banks interested prefer to help customers rather then disclose the fact they have suffered loses. Money lenders are more suspicious than ever.

The lawn tennis championship scores at ball past nine this a. m., were: Brown 56; Weston 53; Ennis 45½; Harding 42½. Harding is off the track and is believed to be played out.

Cincinatti, June 16.—While a train bearing the Mannerchor Society was approaching Indianapolis last night an unknown person fired into it dangerously wounding Miss Frack, one of the chief singers.

Raleigh, N. C. June 16.—Stated the Treasury received new bonds for funding the refunding certificates among holders of old bonds must present them promptly for redemption.

New York, June 16.—The Graphic says it understands the next quarterly dividend of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company will be raised to one per cent.

Watertown, N. Y., June 16.—James R. Decker, aged 20, fatally shot himself this morning while exhibiting a revolver.

Providence, R. I., June 16.—Spinners and weavers in the Westerly Woollen Mill struck this morning for restoration of wages. Mill shut down.

THE NEWS.

Middlesex County Council has asked the Government to issue Dominion notes for all its obligations, and make them legal tender except customs.

Excitement among the Angelicans in the diocese of Huron over some sharply written papers put in circulation, which handle questions likely to be discussed at the forthcoming meeting.

A sad case of poisoning occurred near Frankstown, Lanark County, this week. On Wednesday a daughter of Mr. Thomas Pierce, aged about eighteen months, got a box containing about two dozen sugar-coated narcotic alterative pills, which she ate. When discovered she was lying on the floor, with the empty box in her hand. On Thursday the child died. The child remained in a stupor from the time it was discovered until its death. The case caused a good deal of excitement in the community.

Friday evening a young lady residing with the family of Dr. Thayer, Beaver Hall Hill, Montreal, while passing the corner of Mountain street, clasped her hand to her forehead, gave an exclamation of surprise, and said she was struck. Upon being taken to a house it was found she received a pistol bullet over the left eye. The ball was extracted by Dr. Roddick, but the shock to her nervous system makes the case serious. It is supposed that the ball was fired by some person carelessly.

The Merchants' Bank statement just issued shows the profits for the year to have been $512,406, which, with the balance of profit and loss of last year, makes $548,478. $154,494 have been written off for losses, and $357,011 have been paid in 6½ per cent. dividends, leaving to the balance of profit and loss $36,967. The Detroit and Milwaukee bonds held by the Bank, and now guaranteed by the Great Western Railway, have, for the first time for years, paid interest.

Extraordinary Prayer.—At a recent Primitive Methodist prayer meeting held at Runcorn, Cheshire, a local preacher, in the course of his address to the Deity, made use of the following extraordinary words:—"Oh, Lord, these are bad times, and there's a good many people got nought to eat, because they've got no bread. There's a good many people out of work, because they've got no work to do, and oh Lord, they tell me it's through an old Jew that lives in London. Slay him, oh Lord! If I slay him they'll hang me; but do Thou slay him, oh Lord, for they can't hang Thee!"

A Truism.—Constant grinding at the mill of life, perpetual loss of vital force, will dra the strongest man to the dust; it is manifes therefore that the system must be kept supplied with a due amount of oxydizable phosphorus. The pleasantest and most palatable way in which if can be introduced into the system is by the use o Victoria Hypophosphites which is th most and blood food in the world. BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical applianees. It contains new medicinal elements which in combination with rubber, possess the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any physician in your own locality will confirm the above statement. For lame back, rheumatism, Female Weakness, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, diseased Kidneys Whooping cough, affections of the heart, and all ills for which porous plasters are used, it is simply the best known remedy. SCOTT'S EMULSION
PURE COD LIVER OIL
WITH
HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the powerful superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at 50 cts per bottle.

ONTARIO MUTUA Life Assurance Co'y.

HEAD OFFICE — WATERLOO, ONT.

Deposited with the Dominion Government $56,224.00

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63.88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by $ 6.38 to		$56.90
" 5th	"	49.40 " 53.48
" 6th	"	17.30 " 46.28
" 7th	"	20.73 " 43.15
" 8th	"	25.80 " 37.99
" 9th	"	36.65 " 27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

A Ruined English Woman.

A FATHER AVENGES HIS DAUGHTER'S WRONGS AND BECOMES A CONVICT.—A SAD STORY.

(From the London Telegraph, May 2.)

English justice strives to be just and pure and English Judges in our day administer the law with an uprightness and a sense of duty which have elevated the Bench above the reach of suspicion. Yet English justice and English Judges are human and fallible, and sometimes in their most merciful hour they commit unavoidable wrongs. They have committed such a wrong, we believe, in the present instance of Henry Pace, and this, notwithstanding the apparent lenient sentence which was passed upon him by Lord Coleridge for the manslaughter of Maurice Cole.

Not the tenth or the twelfth part of the pathos in the tragic idyll which we publish to-day, could, by any possibility, have come out at the trial. Now for the first time the public learns that in Henry Pace there appeared at the bar of his country's justice a most creditable representative of England's artisanship. The ignorant idler or organizer of strikes, no pot-house frequenter is this skilful and frugal foreman. Cheerful in his labor, happy and affectionate in his home, bringing up his many children, as far as he could, to be like him, and to do their duty the right, now toiling at shameful prison task as a dead and useless subject of Her Majesty possessed. Though he began his day's work in Clerkenwell, at 6 o'clock every morning, he had taken a cottage and the fresh country air for his loved ones as far away as two miles beyond Coalleigh Park Station, and combled the daily tramp to and fro as nothing so that he might keep them all well and hearty. He did not call his wife and eight living children, as some do, "Incumbrances;" they were the delight of his honest life, and he made room in his house besides for his old father, and, in a measure, for his friend and fellow workman. Let it be judged how dear to such a man must have been his handsome eldest girl, the first child of his youthful marriage; and let it be also judged, while this is true, what thoughts, what memories must have been in the betrayed father's heart in that fatal moment when he spoke alone with Maurice Cole for the last of many bitter times, and when the gathered agony of his sorrow and shame broke forth in the lightning flash of a death blow. Of good nature and comradeship Pace took his younger fellow mason down to the pretty country cottage; a showy, plausible fellow, glib and unscrupulous, who quickly wrought the ruin of this unsuspecting man's daughter by very innocence and hospitality. Liar, knave and practiced debauchee, this Maurice Cole stands forth as the type of the clever bad English artisan, for Henry Pace represents the good and steadfast worker. What followed is so faithfully and thoroughly set forth in our narrative that we have no need to recapitulate the too familiar steps by which the daughter's heart was first estranged from her accepted lover, and then from her father and family, to be cast away upon this unhuman animal. Only upon all these new particulars are mastered can the whole scene of justice begin to place itself within the heart of this brave and suffering father, and to think from his tortured mind. His generosity repaid by treachery, his happy heart despoiled, his child estranged, his household honor mocked, his life-long efforts overthrown, and, to crown all these things, which had already changed his very nature, the knowledge that his only girl was become the mother of a bastard, and the discovery that the insolent cause of this disgrace was far too familiar with such matters to do more than laugh the affair off when he commanded that Cole should make a wife of his victim. In the picture which we present of Pace's state of mind, after all became known, exists a revelation of the havoc which anger and dishonor can wreak upon a strong upright man, clearer and completer than is furnished by any sensational fiction His kind and honest mind was not indeed overthrown, but it was tempest tossed, and furious on the morning of the fatal day. He had not slept; he had not touched food; he kissed the baby, but turned without a good-bye from the wife he loved so well, as he strode out of the cottage to the workshop where he must meet Maurice Cole. Yet, knowing he must meet the betrayer, this convicted prisoner carried no lethal weapon, and cherished, even then, no violent intention. It was only when he encountered Cole, face to face, amid the whirling machinery, and something passed between them—a plea, an entreaty, perchance, on the one side, and a jeer, an insult on the other—that the fatal fabric of manhood in Pace leaped from its burning blood to his vigorous arm. In his hand was the iron spanner just used in turning an engine nut—no weapon of murder, but the implement and symbol of his manful toil, of toil so outraged, robbed and ruined. Was it manslaughter in any but a merely formal and legal sense which, before reason and self-restraint could whisper calmness to the father's instinct, drove that avenging iron through the villan's forehead? It is a bold, and might be, under any other circumstances, a dangerous thing to say, but Henry Pace's deed was, except technically, not so much a crime, as an offence against human law. It has so been punished; but while the convict in jail is condemned, the friendliness and patience of that great tribunal may be faithfully laid against the righteous indignation of the father who loved his daughter, even in her shame, with a devotion that knew no bounds.

Maud Branscombe's Fate.

IT TURNS OUT TO BE MUCH MORE HAPPY THAN THE REPORTER OF THE ST. PAUL "GLOBE" SOME MONTHS AGO INDICATED.

Readers of the Telegram will remember that some months ago we published what purported to be a truthful account, as furnished by the St. Paul Globe of an incident in the life of Miss Maud Branscombe, who was for sometime a resident in Toronto, and to whom is accorded the distinction of being the best photographed woman in the world. Briefly the story was that she had been engaged when in England to a young Englishman, who went to Australia for his health; that while her lover was there she married Louis Pollek, a wealthy Jew; that she deserted him and came to America; that her English lover commissioned Mrs. Scott-Siddons to find her out and convey his forgiveness and assurance of his continued devotion; that Miss Branscombe arrived in St. Paul escorted by a Chicago boyman; that while there she became a mother, that she deserted the child, and that Mrs. Scott-Siddons was searching for her in St. Paul.

The Daily Ontari

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 17.

THE County Council of Middlesex has passed a resolution in favor of a national currency. This may not mean much, but it has given much satisfaction and no little pleasure to the friends of the "rag-baby."

THE Allan steamship Sardinian has made the quickest passage across the ocean on record. She occupied only seven days and sixteen hours in sailing from Liverpool to Rimouski. This is remarkably quick time.

WE have stringent fishery laws which are rigidly enforced by the officers appointed to look after such matters. Our people recognize the wisdom of such laws, in the preservation of the valuable fishing privileges of the inland waters of Canada, but they complain of the want of obedience to the game laws of the United States. American fishermen pay no attention whatever to existing laws of that country, and by this means have an undue advantage over Canadians.

THERE is to be a review of troops at Toronto sometime in September, when the Vice-Regal party visit that city, and somebody has suggested that some U. S. regiment be invited to come over and take part in the manœuverings. The Telegram objects, and says: "The feeling is that we should have our own review in our own way, and by our own volunteers. But the greatest objection is on the score of expense. It costs a lot of money to bring a regiment from New York to Canada, or even to keep it when it gets here, and this expense nobody seems to be very anxious to undertake."

THE New York Journal of Commerce regards the late elections in Ontario as a significant verdict against the new tariff enacted by the Dominion Government, and remarks:—"Had a plebiscite been taken before the tariff was enacted the people would have declared against it. Their only recourse now is to overthrow the present Dominion Government at the polls and repeal the odious clauses of the tariff. This, we have little reason to doubt, they will do at the earliest opportunity. The hardships of the tariff continue to be severely felt among all classes of consumers. It has cut them off from near and cheap markets and raised the prices of all the necessaries of life, without stimulating home industry in the least. The Canadians talk about putting up factories and workshops to supply the home demand for certain goods, but nobody has any faith in the permanency of the tariff, and the scheme will never go beyond the paper stage."

The Way it is Done.

On the 18th of last September Mr. How, the aged Postmarter of Hilsburgh, Wellington Co., found fastened to his door by a piece of crape the following:

"Poor old man, your Government is dead. Prepare to meet your doom."

On the 2nd inst., Mr. Howe received the following sequel to the warning given nearly nine months previous:

TORONTO DIVISION, June 2nd, 1879.

DEAR SIR.—On Wednesday, the 4th inst., my assistant will visit Hillsburgh, for the purpose of transferring the post office to the charge of William Donaldson. Please, as far as you can, have things in proper shape for removal.

Yours truly,
M. SWEETMAN.

No charge has ever been made against Mr. How that he knows of, and these two notices were the only ones he ever received. His accounts have been examined and found correct, and the business of the office was properly conducted. But he was a Reformer, and this is the only complaint that can be brought against him by the Ottawa Government.

Hon. Mr. Fraser and the Catholic Vote.

If the Opposition journals are wise they will discontinue as soon as possible their brutal assaults on the Hon. C. F. Fraser in connection with the Catholic vote. Mr. Fraser, like any of the public men, must be held amenable to criticism for his public acts; and when he is assailed as a sectarian firebrand, the charge is so ridiculously untrue that it can injure only those who make it. In our opinion if anything has more than another tended to secure for the Mowat Administration Roman Catholic support it is the persistent and insulting falsehood of the Opposition press that Mr. Mowat is overruled by Mr. Fraser, and that the latter is only the mouth-piece of the Archbishop of Toronto. Mr. Mowat is able to assert, and does assert, his own policy as Premier, and Mr. Fraser has never shown any disposition to prevent him from doing so. The Commissioner of Public Works is one of the ablest of our young Canadian statesmen. He is possessed of great force of character, and is a keen debater and an accomplished popular orator. We defy the organs to quote a single passage from any of his recent addresses which will bear out the charge of sectarian propagandism so flippantly levelled against him. The result of the election shows that he has a far stronger hold on the Protestants as well as Catholic electors of Ontario than the Opposition gave him credit for, and if they are wise they will hence forth either leave him alone or subject him to criticism of a fair and legitimate kind. If they pursue the course they are now pursuing, so much the worse for themselves.

Casual Remarks.

—Rev. Soloman Peter Hale was appointed to a certain circuit by the late B. M. E. Conference. He refused to go and was expelled.

—At the last Methodist Conference in London 22 candidates came up for ordination, and of these 20 sought and obtained permission to marry.

—Several parties from Mitchell, Ont., are going to Chicago to engage in oatmeal manufacture. The "N.P." kills their business in Canada.

—The Legislature of the State of New York is actively moving in the matter of having Lord Dufferin's suggestion for an International Park at Niagara Falls carried out.

—Did Mr. Hugh McKinnon win the title of "Chief of Police of this city" at the Centennial? An article in our local contemporary last night will lead to no other conclusion.

—Mr. James McGaw, of Hanover, polled his votes on the 5th inst. for the Reform candidates of North and South Bruce and North and South Grey, and had the satisfaction of seeing three of them elected. This is another good day's work.

—Mr. John Henning, an old employee of the Welland Canal, was dismissed some time ago for alleged misdemeanors. The case against him has been dropped, but not a word to Mr. Henning about the injustice done him. A Tory has his place.

—The Messrs. Wilson, livery stable keepers of Kingston, are being prosecuted for hiring "rigs" to others than bona fide travellers, &c., on Sunday. The case is an important one, and affects every livery-man in the country. The magistrate reserved his decision until to-morrow.

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman too:—
For thousands cry with eager breath,
"I thay saved me from the jaws of death!
All we allidge from me need,
'Tis National Pills your system needs.
Immense the rush for these Pills;
Which cure so many Ills.

What About those Roosters, Now?

In September 1878, the Intelligencer and many other Conservative journals were adorned with a wood cut of a rooster, while the Editors did the crowing over the general beguilement of the Country. The Intelligencer rooster crowed all day and all night, and six months ahead of time. He flapped his wings and stretched his neck, and shook his wattles till he fairly strained his constitution, and was laid up a day or two for repairs. At least he was taken out of the paper for a time, and came back with a strengthening plaster and liver pad on. Where is that rooster now? In the back yard scratching dirt. He has stepped out for a few years, but we have some slight recollection of his clarion notes. One bright October morning the Intelligencer rooster got his pin-featers on end and let off this as a Good-night-see-you-again-in-the-morning Solo:

"The roosters that headed
The glorious news
In the columns of the Con-
Servative papers throughout
The Dominion, after the 17th, have all gone
To roost till Spring! Then
The little Parl-ia-ment,
You know!"

We are looking for that rooster. Where is his proud form and steely spurs? We should enjoy a sight of that Intlleigencer game-cock immensely, and to listen once more to his song of "the little Parliament, you know," would be refreshing. Has the rooster of the 17th gone to pot? If not, let us hear him warble.—COM.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD

A rural bride of considerable beauty went to Indianapolis on the honeymoon trip. Her husband was manifestly proud of her fine looks. While they were going about the city she was struck in the face by a falling signboard, and her nose broken. The attending surgeon said she was badly disfigured for life. "Just my darned luck," the husband exclaimed; "property always goes to ruin in my hands."

KIND WORDS.—In the course of the long and eloquent address to the Diocesan Synod of Toronto, delivered by Bishop Sweatman Tuesday, His Lordship, referring to his consecration, said:—"The first day of last month, the feast of St. Phillip and St. James, was one to be remembered by me as a most solemn and sacred one throughout my life; for I was then set apart for the holy office of a Bishop in the Church of God. The Right Rev. the Bishop of Quebec acted as a consecrator, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of Huron and Algoma as presenters, the Bishops of Niagra and Montreal assisting in the laying on of hands. The sermon was preached by my oldest friend in Canada, who was the instrument of bringing me out to this country, and to whom I am indebted for the most unvarying kindness and constant friendship—his relations towards me having been those of a father to a son—the Lord Bishop of Huron."

THE Tactics of the U.E. Club were shown very forcibly in the late contest in West Elgin. One of their emissaries made a campaign tour of the riding, whose arguments and speeches were all culled from a book labelled "Journals of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario," from which he read extracts intended to damage the cause of the Ministerial candidate. It turns out that this so-called "Journals of the House" was filled with extracts from the Mail newspaper.

Ghosts.

Not Col. Ingersoll's "aristocracy of the air," but real human ghosts. Ghosts that were once healthy men and women, but are now simply, the "ghosts of what they once were." As we meet them, and inquire the cause of all this change, they repeat the old old story, "a cold" "neglected cough," "catarrh," "overwork," or "dyspepsia," "liver complaints," and "constipation," with unsuccessful physicians and remedies. In offering his Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets for the cure of the above affections, Dr Pierce does not recommend them as a sure cure in all stages. For if the lungs be half wasted away, or there be a cancerous complication, no physician or medicine can cure. The discovery is, however an unequalled pectoral and blood-purifier. It speedily cures the most aggravated cough, or cold, and in its early or middle stages, consumption. By correcting and irregularities of the stomach and liver, it readily cures blotches pimples, scrofulous ulcers, bunches, or tumors. Hundreds testify that it has restored their health, after eminent physicians had failed. For constipation, use the Pellets. As a local remedy for catarrh, use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

MARRIAGE is a solemn thing—a choice for life, be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for female complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Buchu and Uva Ursa. It is now extensively prescribed by all respectable physicians etc., may be overcome by Buchu if taken in time. For sale by all druggists in Belleville

City Council.

A regular meeting of the Council was held at the Council Chamber last evening.

Present—His Worship the Mayor, and Ald. Petrie, Wallbridge, Jellett, Doyle, Hambly, McInnich, Dickson, Vandusen, Geen, Proctor, St. Charles, Hayne, Holden, Hulme, Panter, Lingham.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS.

The following were read:—

From Ald. Tobias Bleecker, tendering his resignation as an Alderman for Foster Ward.

From John Bell, Esq., Q.C., calling attention, on behalf of the lumbermen, to the Act passed by the House of Commons governing harbor dues, and the means to be adopted for securing the saw logs by the booms at the mouth of the harbor.

From Messrs. Simpson & Bogart, Solicitors of Jacob Cronk, notifying the Council that they would oppose the action of the Council towards widening Rear Street.

From the Educational Department, re school apportionment for 1879.

From John Haslett, asking for appointment as tallyman at the boom.

From John Cook, jr., relative to his position as lessee of the market for 1878-79, and asking a rebate of a portion of his indebtedness.

From Mrs. Beaupre, asking remission of taxes.

From a number of ratepayers in Murney Ward, asking that repairs be made on Octavia street in Murney Ward.

From R. Thompson and others, opposing the widening of Rear street.

From Wm. Lingham and others also in opposition to widening Rear street.

From Rev. Mr. Locke and others, relative to the bad condition of Octavia street, and asking that it be graded and a sidewalk built to Catharine street.

Ald. Robertson came in.

From John Forin to Ald. St. Charles, relative to the bad condition of the floor in No. 2 engine shed.

From Active Fire Company No. 4, stating that at a special meeting held by them in April last they had decided to tender their resignation in consequence of the action of the Council in hiring horses to draw hose carts to fire, and also because they did not receive as much grant as other companies, and for other reasons.

From Lt. Col. Lazier and the officers of the 15th Battalion asking for a grant of $200 for the Battalion Band.

A number of accounts were also presented, which with the foregoing were referred to their respective committees, excepting the petitions re Rear street and that of Messrs. Forin and Ald. Bleecker, which were laid on the table.

REPORTS.

The Public Works Committee reported, recommending payment of a number of accounts. Also making various recommendations as to necessary public works.

The Committee on Printing reported, recommending that no further advertisements be put in the papers unless a discount of 25 per cent off rates be allowed.

The Harbor Committee reported on work done on the boom, and that the lease of J. Sills be referred to J. B. Derry. That Edward Donovan be appointed as tallyman at $1.50 per day. That Louis Jones be paid for trees put out on the Court House grounds.

The Board of Health reported on the matter of the houses owned by Jacob Cronk on John street, that they were not in a position to say that they were a public nuisance.

INQUIRIES.

Ald. Proctor stated that wood had been sent to a certain family, and upon the matter coming before him he had given instructions to inquire into it, and found that the family repudiated having got wood from the city.

Ald. Lingham wished to know if anything had been done in regard to the new ferry.

The Solicitor stated that there was nothing new in reference to the matter further than the day had been appointed for the hearing of the case.

Ald. Jellett wished to know whether Ald. Sherwood had resigned or given any intimation of his intention to resign as a member of the Council. Several members said that he did not intend to resign his position as Alderman.

The Mayor instructed the Clerk to write to him, asking him to resign his position as Chairman of the Committee on Market.

Various members expressed their opinion upon the matter, all of whom were of the opinion that he should not only resign his position as Chairman of the Market Committee, but as an Alderman.

NOTICES.

Ald. Holden gave notice of a by-law to levy the rate for municipal and school purposes for 1879.

Ald. Robertson gave notice of a by-law for the widening of Rear Street.

Ald. St. Charles asked that his notice relative to stretching one be allowed to stand over.

Mr. Cronk, through his Solicitor, was heard relative to widening Rear Street.

He denied that there was such a street as Rear Street, it being simply a right of way, established by the Court of Chancery, and that the city had no right to take land from him for the purpose named.

BY-LAWS.

The By-Law for the amendment of the Dog By-law was read a first time.

MOTIONS.

Ald. Geen moved, seconded by Ald. Vandusen, that the Council does not object to a charter for the new ferry as long as it does not interfere with the rights of Mr. Jellett.

Ald. Jellett contended that the motion could not be introduced without notice being given. He was sustained by the chair.

Ald. Geen asked the suspension of the rules for the aforesaid purpose, as, he said, the owners of the new ferry intended to commence running at once.

Ald. Jellett contended that Mr. Anderson or any other man had no right to run a ferry without an order from the Governor in Council, and that until he was heard from the Council had no right to interfere.

Ald. Geen said if the city wanted the new ferry he thought the passage of this motion would be the best way of showing it.

Ald. Jellett said the Township of Amelias burg had never asked for a new ferry, because they had ample ferry communication now.

Ald. Robertson thought the city should keep its skirts clear in this matter. If the new ferry was sanctioned by the Council an action of damages would ensue.

Ald. Hambly believed the matter should be left in the hands of the City Solicitor. If Mr. Jellett had rights the city should protect him.

Ald. Holden believed that Ald. Geen's motion should be allowed to pass. The opinion had gone abroad that the Council was opposed to another ferry, and if they were not he could see no other reason why the motion should not pass.

The yeas and nays were taken on the question to suspend the rules as follows:

Yeas,—Ald. Dickson, Geen, Hayne, Holden, Petrie, Proctor, St. Charles, Vandusen and Wallbridge.—9

Nays,—Ald. Doyle, Hambly, Hulme, Jellett, Lingham, McInnich, Panter and Robertson.—8.

The motion was lost and Ald. Geen asked that his motion stand as a notice.

Ald. Dickson gave of motion re harbor dues. The object of which was to rescind what had been done already.

On motion the Council went into Committee on by-laws. Ald. Hambly in the chair.

The Dog By-Law was then read a second time, or rather the amendments to it, which, in substance, is intended to do away with the fee charged by the Clerk for the medals.

Ald. Petrie in speaking to the proposed amendment, thought it was high time that such an imposition was done away with, and that a change was made in some of the affairs of the city.

Ald. Holden thought, in view of the time being on us for registration of dogs, this by-law should be passed now. He favored the doing away with the cost of the medal, and thought that for the license of $1 the medal should be furnished.

Ald. Hayne moved, seconded by Ald. St. Charles, that the by-law be referred to the By-Law Committee. Carried.

The committee rose and reported accordingly.

Ald. Geen moved its reference back to Committe on the Whole. Lost on a division, the vote standing yeas 5, and nays 12.

On motion the Council went into Committee on Ways and Means, Ald. Robertson in the chair.

The report of the Public Works Committee was first taken up.

Ald. Holden said he did not know whether any estimate of the proposed works had been made, but he regarded the propositions as alarming, in view of the depressed state of the finances.

Ald. Holden was informed that the matter would have to go before the Finance Committee, and consequently withdrew opposition to the report.

The report was then passed, as regards the payment of accounts and the petition of Wm. Bleecker and others to have the bridge across the railway on North Front Street removed, the Solicitor being instructed to take the necessary steps to carry out the last proposition.

The report of the Printing Committee was adopted.

The report of the Harbor and Town Property Committee was next considered.

On the clause relative to the employment of Mr. Donovan as tallyman,

It was moved by Ald. McInnich, that J. C. Brennan be employed as tallyman at $1 per day.

Ald. Wallbridge stated, from his knowledge of the lumber business, that it required a man who was experienced in the lumber business to act as tallyman.

Ald. McInnich's motion was carried.

The report of the Board of Health was adopted.

In reference to the communication of John Forin, Esq.,

Ald. St. Charles moved, seconded by Ald. Proctor, that the Chairman of the Fire Committee have the necessary repairs done, at a cost not to exceed $60.—Carried.

Ald. Dickson moved, seconded by Ald. Robertson, that $100 be granted for the proper celebration of Dominion Day, to be expended under the direction of Ald. McInnich, Hulme, Jellett, and St. Charles.—Carried.

The Committee rose and reported.

Ald. Geen moved that the report be not adopted, but be referred back for the purpose of striking out the grant of $100 for the Dominion Day celebration. Lost on a division, the vote standing 5 for and 12 against.

Ald. Holden moved, seconded by Ald. Jellett, that in connection with the resignation of Ald. Bleecker, this Council desires to express its appreciation of his services while an Alderman of this city, and that the Mayor take the necessary steps to have the vacancy filled.—Carried.

The Council then adjourned.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIPHTHERIA.—Three of my children han Diphtheria in its worst form. Skin dry lips parched, could not swallow. With a feather I applied Gilbs' Liniment Iodide Ammonia to the tausils, rubbed over their throats and chests. THE CELLS.—One prisoner and three tramps lodged in the cells last night.

COMMENCED RUNNING.—The new ferry steamer 'Mary Ethel' commenced running this morning, although she has not yet got her charter.

THE MARKET.—There was a very good market this morning. A considerable amount of strawberries were offered for sale, at the modest price of 25 cents per box.

TO BE REMOVED.—In accordance with a largely signed petition, the bridge on North Front Street over the railway track, is to be removed, and the hill cut down.

RESIGNED.—Ald. Tobias Bleecker's resignation was formally laid before the Council last night. The Mayor has been instructed to take the necessary steps toward filling the vacancy.

DOMINION DAY.—The City Council last night voted $100 towards the Dominion Day celebration. It was intended, more particularly, to aid the torchlight procession and the purchase of fireworks.

A NOVELTY.—The schooner A. G. Ryan has brought a cargo of Canadian barley to Kingston from Oswego. The market in Oswego is completely at a standstill, nothing doing in barley at all.

49TH. BATTALION RIFLE CLUB.—The annual meeting of the above Club will take place on Thursday evening next, June 19th, at 8 o'clock, at Hambly's, for the election of officers and other important business. All members of the Battalion are requested to attend.

REAR STREET.—Mr. Cronk is determined to oppose the widening of Rear Street, and should the by-law which has been published be carried into effect, another costly suit is likely to follow. Two petitions were presented to the Council last night, in opposition to the scheme.

TO-NIGHT.—"Rose o' Ettrick Vale" and "The Irish Tutor" by the Belleville Histrionic Association at the Opera House. As the society is popular with the public and the entertainment is for the benefit of Mr. Geo. Hanwell, we expect to see a very large attendance.

MASONIC EXCURSION.—The Masonic fraternity of Belleville have decided to celebrate St. John's DAY, Tuesday June 24th, by an excursion to Campbellford per Grand Junction Railway. The train will leave here at 9 a. m., and returning will leave Campbellford at 5 p. m. This trip will be a novelty, and it will, doubtless be largely attended.

FAIR PLAY.—The officers of the 15th Battalion, through Lt. Col. Lazier, have asked the City Council for a grant of $200 for their band. Should their prayer be granted, which we think very unlikely, a similar request will be made on behalf of the Oddfellows Band, as the latter has in every respect, equal claims upon the public, having contributed quite as largely to the entertainment of our citizens as the regimental band. Aside from this, last year a grant was made to the 15th band, for which very little was given in return. Nothing was asked for the Oddfellows' band although it was just then making its appearance, and had gone to much more expense than ever the other band had been. Besides this, the band for which the grant is asked, is supported to a certain extent by the Government, while the other has been gotten up and is maintained by a benevolent society, the members of which are nearly all rate-payers in the city. We hope no grant will be made, or if so, that each band will be set down for a like amount.

GOOD.—On the recount of ballots in the Addington election, Mr. Deroche's majority was increased four votes, making it 41. The number of rejected ballots was 63.

ALEXANDRA COLLEGE.—This (Tuesday) evening several ladies will receive their degrees as graduates of this school. The exercises will be in Albert College Chapel, with an admission fee of ten cents. The music, it is expected, will be first-class, and the literary exercises attractive.

LACROSSE.—In connection with the sports on Dominion Day, we understand a lacrosse match will take place between the Belleville and Kingston Lacrosse Clubs. The game will be played the first thing in the morning so as not to interfere with the other programme of sports. The home team are getting themselves in readiness, and a splendid game may be expected.

CONVOCATION DAY.—To-morrow the thirteenth annual convocation of Albert College will take place. The proceedings will be held at the City Hall in the afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock, and will be of a most interesting nature. The list of graduates comprises 9 B.A's., 2 M.A's., 1 LL.B., and 1 LL.D. Tickets may be had on application at the book stores.

ALBERT COLLEGE.—We are informed that the practice a lopted by students elsewhere of either purloining or purchasing examination papers from the printer, was indulged in by students of Albert College, at the recent matriculants examinations. The discovery was made by the examiners and in consequence they had to repeat five different examinations. As a result of this many of the students, some of whom were perhaps innocent, had to suffer and were "plucked."

☞ Consumption, so prevalent and so fatal is dreaded as the great scourge of our race; and yet, in the formative stages, all pulmonary complaints may be readily controlled by using "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers." They will relieve the most severe cough in a few minutes, and have a most beneficial influence on the bronchial and pulmonary organs; but they must be used in time. Public speakers and singers will also derive great benefit by using them. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

"O MISCHIEF! THOU ART SWIFT."—When the love-sick Romeo uttered those words he spoke a truism admitted by everybody. What can be swifter than the treacherous attack of disease in whatever form, whether dyspeptic, bronchical, or consumptive. And the mischief done by these fell foes of health is incalculable. Thanks however, to the genius of science we can subdue them by the use of Scotts Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. As a medicine for this life destroying disease it stands at the head of the list.

ELEVATED Railroads, Lines of Stages, Places of amusement Depots and Steamers—all there radiate from, or are situated in, the immediate neighborhood of the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, which is dow kept on both plans. the American $2.50 or $3.00, and the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices is conduc ed by the Grand Central.

Brevities.

—Is this Vennor's "cool dip?"

—John C. Brennan has been appointed tallyman at the boom.

—The heavy rain Sunday night beat down grain and grass.

—The new ferry boat is running. She does not care about charters.

—"My fat sides," what fun there will be at the Opera House to-night.

—The Kingston firemen go to Watertown on the "Glorious Fourth."

—Strawberries must be cheaper after a while. The yield promises to be abundant.

—A new sidewalk is being built on West Bridge Street, opposite Mr. Jellett's residence.

—The fruit trees in this vicinity are well loaded. The late frosts have not injured them any.

—To-day the elections for Rouville and Chambly will speak the fate of the Joly Government.

—Mr. Dunnett's new house begins to show its proportions. It will be a handsome structure.

—Directly those Tyne oarsmen will be calling after Hanlan Row-me-oh! Row. me-oh! Where art thou Row-me-oh?

—If you have not already secured your seat for the dramatic entertainment at the Opera House to-night, go at once and do so.

—There were four sailing vessels, three steamers, a tug, and dredge in Trenton harbor yesterday morning, and the denizens were happy.

—No one here is at all excited about the race. What we want to know now is, how often did Hanlan stop to wash his face and bail out his boat, and whether he had sufficient leisure to take a swim? When we get in all those little particulars we shall be better enabled to judge of the merits of the case.

The News.

—Mr. Sanford Fleming entertained a number of the delegates to the Presbyterian Assembly at his residence on Saturday evening.

—Fishing for salmon in the Dominion of Canada, excepting under the authority of leases or licenses from the department of Marine and Fisheries, is prohibited.

—The safe at the Great Western Station, Listowel, was opened one day last week and rifled. The money carried off amounted to only $9.50

—Bread peddlers from neighboring villages are compelled to pay a license of $25 when they visit Waterford.

—The members of the Sarnia Independent Band have presented their leader, Mr. Austin, with a purse of $25.

HANLAN'S CROWNING VICTORY.

MASTER OF THE SITUATION FROM THE START.

AND WON THE RACE AS HE PLEASED.

Thirteen heavily laden steamers were at the high level bridge, The Gateshead was chartered to carry the judges and reporters; there was also a number of Americans on board. The river police in large force were on hand, in order to keep the course clear. About 10:40 a. m. the stake boats were moored in the centre of the river opposite the Mansion House. Elliott was the first to step into his shell, assisted by Renforth and McGregor. He was greeted with loud cheers from the thousands of excited admirers. Hanlan took chip on the Gateshead side of the river, and came in for an equal share of applause. They rowed slowly to the stake boat, where both men stripped for the struggle. Hanlan app ared to be in t e pink of condition, and Elliott also displayed fine muscular development. The excitement at this time grew intense and the scene was inspiring. Elliott had the sympathy of the crowd, though Hanlan was evidently very popular. Shortly after eleven o'clock the Gateshead steamed to the starting point, and the oarsmen took up their respective positions. A few minutes later Hanlan outer was rowed over the course ready to coach him, and was followed immediately after by Elliott's cutter. Every preliminary having been arranged, the signal was given and the great struggle began. Elliott's oars caught the water first, and he dashed away rowing forty strokes per minute. Hanlan started with his long, sweeping stroke, and reaching forward clean over his toes. An exciting struggle followed, both oarsmen rowing in magnificent form. At the end of the first half mile, Hanlan was fully a length ahead and rowing a waiting race. The quick, easy style in which he forced his shell through the water was looked upon with amazement by the spectators. Elliott's rowing was almost perfection, but it was plain that the Canadian's rig and style of rowing were far superior. At the Meadows, Elliott made a grand spurt to close the gap and drove his shell at a tremendous pace through the water, but all in vain. Hanlan did not alter his stroke or seam in the least, to fear the result of the Englishman's spurt. He maintained his lead without difficulty, and at Paradise Quay had increased it to several lengths, still rowing within himself and evidently having the race won. At Benwell Ferry the race, barring accidents, was virtually over. Elliott was rowing a stern race but struggled gamely. Hanlan kept the lead throughout and won the race as he pleased.

TORONTO, June 16.—The announcement here this morning that Hanlan had defeated Elliott and secured the championship of England, produced the greatest enthusiasm. When the news became known flags were hoisted in every part of the city, and on the vessels lying in the harbor. The following message was sent by Mr. H. P. Dwight, Mayor Beaty being out of the city:

"TO EDWARD HANLAN, Newcastle on Tyne.

"Toronto congratulates its champion of England on to-day's success."

The Hanlan club also sends congratulations.

Hanlan's future movements are not yet known here, but it is expected he will return home shortly and will be asked to take part in a regatta for professional scullers on the bay here during the Governor-General's visit in September.

FURTHER PARTICULERS.

The struggle throughout had been of the keenest, and during the whole race Elliott did his utmost to win. Hanlan's final spurt was one of his most magnificent efforts, and certainly the grandest piece of rowing ever seen on any English waters. He received a splendid ovation as he rowed through Scotswood Bridge, the winner of the championship, seemingly without hardly turning a hair.

The Tynesiders admit that everything was fair and square, and that the best man won. They look on Hanlan's sculling as phenomenal—at least they mean that though their mode of expressing their opinion is in terms not quite so scientific or so lengthy. They admit with a sigh that he thoroughly defeated England's best man.

The length of the course was 3 miles 570 yards. The time 21m 1 sec., the first mile being done in 6m 11½ sec.

In the evening, when Hanlan entered the Chronicle office, a large crowd gathered outside and cheered loudly. Hanlan appeared to acknowledge the reception, and said he was proud to say he had been man enough to win the proud title of Champion of England. He had beaten the best man he ever rowed against. He thanked them most heartily for the enthusiastic reception.

Col. Shaw addressed the crowd and said that the Hanlan Club had accomplished the one great object of their ambition. All Canadians would remember with gratitude the splendid welcome Newcastle had given to Hanlan.

In response to the cheering of the crowd, Hanlan once more appeared and thanked them again and again, winding up by saying "good-bye."

As Hanlan landed at Scotswoods the enormous multitude cheered him to the echo, a compliment which he acknowledged by frequent salutes. He shook hands cordially with Elliott, with Dr. Armstsong, and with his backers. The enthusiasm of the Toronto party was extreme. Elliott was also greeted with long and continued cheers.

Twenty heavily laden steamers accompanied the race. There is no question as to the fact that Elliott rowed all he could, his used-up condition at the finish showing how thoroughly it had been taken out of him. Hanlan, on the contrary, as an oil pitman remarked, "looked as fresh as paint."

It may interest our readers to know that Hanlan was, as usual, dressed in blue, with a red handkerchief bound tightly round his head, while Elliott was stripped to the skin. The betting on the latter improved during the morning, and just before the start only a slight shade of odds was laid on Hanlan.

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vitality of the Oil, but claim that the Hypophosphites are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vitality of the Oil, but claim that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. It is not only better tolerated, superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable as cream, never separates, deposits or smells. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

Next day we gave what contradiction we could to the story, the truth of which we had no reason to doubt when we published it. That contradiction took the shape of an extract from the marriage register of the city, showing that while here Miss Branscombe was married to a Mr. Menzies. A respected citizen of Hamilton, whose wife was once an ornament of the profession, not a representative of this paper recently, and assured him that there could not be a word of truth in the St. Paul Globe story or his wife would have heard of it, for she and Miss Branscombe were so intimate as to story my good name. My husband is still with me, thank God!" In a letter to a friend in this city, which has been handed to us for perusal, Miss Branscombe says that she never was near St. Paul, and that she was playing in New York when her alleged visit took place. Mrs. Siddons writes to Miss Branscombe that she is perfectly unconscious of ever having had any interview with a St. Paul reporter, and that she certainly never was the bearer of any message from Australia.

The only semblance of truth in the interview is the fact that Gertrude, Maud's sister, is married to a Jew named Louis Pollek. But here the resemblance ceases, for Gertrude is now living with her husband, and it is said happily. Altogether the reported interview is a most impudent and cruel hoax, and we can but join willingly with those papers which express their regret at having been the means of doing an injustice to one whose public position renders her affairs less private than is agreeable to her and perhaps in the public interests.—Toronto Telegram.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIS, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe ful smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physicial Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, crtain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.
This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.
Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—
Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $67.88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6 68	to $56.90

Death of the Prince of Orange.

AN INHERITANCE OF IMMORALITY—EARLY PROMISES NOT FULFILLED.

The death of the heir apparent to the throne of the Netherlands did not come unexpectedly either to his friends or to King William III. of Holland. Prince William Nikolas Alexander Fridrik Karl Hendrik was born at the Hague September 4, 1840, and was consequently in his thirty-ninth year. His death was the result of diabetis lablis. He was notorious all over Europe, but especially at Paris, for his immoralities, in which respect he followed only too faithfully the traditions of his house. He was usually known by the nickname of "Prince Lemon," and for reasons connected with the impairment of his constitution by his excesses, was never married. In earlier years the ordinary run of his subjects—illuminations and feasts were held in all the cities of Holland in honor of the event. In spite of their shortcomings, the House of Orange has always been considered as the palladium of their rights, liberties and privileges, and these held at that time were significant of the hope that another representative of their royal house had fairly entered upon life. He was Duke, Privy Councillor and a Major-General. There were rumors that the King intended to abdicate in favor of his son, and the English and French papers canvassed the befind of Princess Alice, the daughter of Queen Victoria, who died last year at Darmstadt, had been promised him.
He had received a good education at the University of Leyden; was conversant with the German, French and English languages and literature. But from the time of his majority his inclinations tended all in the direction of "wine, women and money"—a maxim which he was enabled to realize to the utmost. It has been frequently urged in extenuation of the unenviable moral character of the deceased Prince, as well as that of other members of the Netherland Royal family, that many of these peculiar moral and mental characteristics are a taint inherited originally from the Imperial house of Romanoff. His paternal grandmother was the Princess Anna Paulovna, daughter of the ill-fated Czar Paul of Prussia. Be this as it may, he received from his father, King William, excellent lessons in the life he led in Paris. The King married in 1839 the Princess Sophia of Wurtemburg, one of the most learned and best educated women who ever occupied a throne, and a great patron of literature, science and art. She had an especial claim upon the gratitude of Americans for her friendship of many years with the late John Lothrop Motley, the historian of the Netherlands. As is we'l known the Queen lived unhappily with her husband, and had separated from him several years before her death in 1877. She left two sons—the Prince of Orange, whose death is just announced, and Prince Alexandra, a post captain in the Dutch navy, and unmarried.
The King gave himself up earnestly to the enjoyment of life. For many years past he has spent much of his time in Switzerland, and his name has been intimately connected with that of Mlle. Ambre, who is at present one of Mr. Mapleson's prime donne at Her Majesty's Opera in London. Mlle Ambre is said to be an Algerian. She is a dark brunette, with a figure of voluptuous form and suppleness. She made her first appearance in London in November last, and dazzled her audience with the brilliancy of her jewels, the grace of her movements and her remarkable rendering of the "Traviata." After the death of Queen Sophia it was announced the King intended to make a morganatic marriage with this lady whom he had created a Countess. This project fell through, however, chiefly, it is said, because of the good sense of Mlle. Ambre herself, who, at the request of the King's advisors, decided to return to the operatic stage.
On the 7th of January last King William contracted a second marriage at Arolsen, with Princess Emma of Waldeck Pyrmont, a young lady of scarcely twenty one summers, a daughter of the mother's side of the House of Nassau. The succession to the Dutch throne had long inspired serious anxiety in the Netherlands, and this was one of the reasons for the late marriage of the King. Prince Alexander being unmarried, the next heir to the throne of Holland is Prince Hendrick, the Admiral of the fleet, brother of the King, who married as his second wife the Princess Marie, daughter of the Red Prince, Fredrick Karl of Prussia, on the 24th of August last. The marriage was cited at the time as an instance of the ambitious policy of the Imperial House of Germany; it being assumed that the throne of the Netherlands would ultimately fall to Prince Hendrick or to his children, who will be closely connected by blood with the Imperial family of Germany.

The Sad Old Story.

A YOUNG GIRL IN SEARCH OF HER HUSBAND, —BETRAYED AND FORSAKEN, SHE CONTEMPLATES SUICIDE—SHE IS SAVED FROM SELF AND KINDLY CARED FOR.

When the last train over the London Huron and Bruce Railway arrived at the Great Western Depot here on Saturday night at ten minutes past ten, a young lady of prepossessing appearance alighted and entered the gentlemen's waiting room. She entered the room alone, having left her companions, and attracted considerable attention by a handsome, though sad and dejected face. Constable Logan, of the Great Western Railway, noticing that she was seated in the gentleman's room suggested that she had better move into the ladies' apartment, and as she did so, he enquired whether she was expecting any one to meet her or did she intend to go on one of the night trains. She answered, with some hesitation, that she proposed going west on the first train. Dropping wearily down on a seat she commenced to weep bitterly. Constable Logan, pitying her in her distress, asked if he could do anything for her, and receiving a negative answer, told her that she had better go to a hotel and sleep till morning as she could get no westward bound train till 5.40 a. m. Refusing his proffered aid and advice, and saying "I wish I was dead," she continued to manifest her distress by sobbing and crying in a most heartbroken manner. After leaving her for some time, the constable returned and insisted on knowing the cause of her distress and begged her to tell him her troubles, in order that he might

The Daily Ontario

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 18.

THE disgraceful exhibitions of female Lesbianism that have taken place lately are bearing good fruit. Public opinion is being rapidly educated to a point that will tolerate no more such demoralizing shows. At Indianapolis, where one Mlle. Rose has been walking against time, the people have closed the performance by withdrawing entirely from the building, and refusing to countenance the affair. This woman had fallen exhausted on the track, and had thrice suffered from apoplexy.

THE interview between Mr. Joly and the Colonial Secretary, anent the Letellier affair, revealed some desperate efforts on the part of Mr. Langevin. In order to work on the sympathies of the Home authorities representations had been made that went far beyond the indictment. A revolution was depicted as imminent in Quebec, and the Lt.-Governor was charged with interfering in the elections. Mr. Joly had no difficulty in disposing of both charges. It is now more than probable that the Lt.-Governor will be sustained.

A Higher Duty on Coal Promised.

It has been stated that the support of Mr. Doull, one of the members of Pictou, Nova Scotia, was finally obtained, after much haggling, by the promise that after the Ontario elections were over the duty on coal would be advanced from 50 cents per ton, with which he declared himself wholly dissatisfied, to 75 cents per ton. This assertion has not been contradicted, but it is a question now, inasmuch as Sir John Macdonald was unable to get the Government of Ontario into his clutches, whether Mr. Doull will ever see the duty promised him carried into effect. Be that as it may Mr. D. is but one of hundreds discontented Nova Scotians. Mr. Lithgow, who became a famous Tory last year, writes thus to a friendly paper in his province in criticism of Mr. Tilley's despatch sent to England in justification of the new tariff:

Ponder well Mr. Tilley's statements, especially those underlined, which please print in italics, and then blame me if you conscientiously can, for giving expression to the widespread disappointment and dissatisfaction which exists at such a mockery of protection (!) to Nova Scotia's coal interests, for so many years unjustly dealt with by Dominion Finance Ministers. A duty equal, according to Mr Tilley, to "about 15 per cent, ad valorem," and which will not interfere with the consumption of English coal in the Maritime Provinces," coupled with up to 30 per cent. ad valorem on mines supplies supplies and 25 per cent. on wire rope, which for ships are free, is his idea of fostering the mining interests of the Dominion in accordance with the "National Policy!" This, please remember, is written by no partisan, neither to please or displease any political party.

These are the words of a man who fought at the polls and in the press for Mr. Tilley and Dr. Tupper. He like Mr. Doull is a disgusted and unhappy man. The latter, however, obtained the promise of an increase in the duty. This was a clear bribe. He allowed himself to be dragged by it to vote for the new tariff. Whether he will ever see that bribe carried out, is a question the future alone can answer.

How Brave Men Die.

The subject of this notice, which is from the London Morning Advertiser, was well known to many in Canada, he having married a Canadian lady, the daughter of Col Gzowski, of Toronto:

Col. Weatherley's horse went into action about eighty strong, and of these brave fellows we know that forty-five are dead, including the gallant Colonel himself, and his brave, intelligent and handsome son, a lad of fifteen, who, at an age when many an English youth is celebrated on the cricket field or on the river, had seen more real fighting than many a veteran in the regulars. Nothing can be more sad than the account I have heard of my dear friend Weatherley's death. At the fatal hour, when all save honor seemed lost, he placed his beloved boy upon his best horse, and, kissing him on the forehead, commended him to another Father's care above, and implored him to overtake the nearest column of English horse, which seemed at that time to be cutting its way out. The boy clung to his father and begged to be allowed to stay by his side and share his life or death. The contrast, I am told, was characteristic; the man, a bearded, bronzed and hardy Sabreur, with a father's tears upon his cheek, while the blue-eyed and fair-haired lad, with much of the beauty of a girl in his appearance, was calmly, and with a smile of fond delight, loading his father's carbine. The two noble hearts were cut down, the father wounded to death with cruel assgaies, clasping his boy's hand with his left, while the right cut down the brawny savages who came to despoil him of his charge. Weatherley was a well known man in what, I believe, are called fashionable circles in London, and will leave many an old comrade, who respects his chivalry and enterprise, to mourn for that friendship, which has changed to respect and regret.

Casual Remarks.

—The Ottawa Free Press thinks Hanlan should be knighted. No. We like "our Ned" better that "Sir Edward."

—Some 30 of 40 items in the indictment against Mr. Bodwell have been abandoned. It is not probable that a case will be made out. Perhaps the Tories are getting frightened by threats of retaliation.

—It is said Mr. Wells will not be a candidate for the Speakership of the Legislature again. Col. Clarke, of Centre Wellington, will probably be the next First Commoner of the Province of Ontario.

—Of the new members of the Ontario Legislature, Messrs. Young and McMaster, Ministerial and Opposition respectively, attract most attention. Both are men of ability, character, and will take a foremost place in debate.

—A correspondent of the Globe makes a sensible suggestion. He would have the Government recognize Hanlan's supremacy as a sculler and worth as a Canadian and gentleman by offering him a permanent situation in the Marine Department.

—The Brantford grand jury calls attention to a very patent fact, namely, that in the changing condition of society, evident to all who take any interest in observing such things, county jails are more the places of refuge and of comfort for the dissolute than places of punishment for crime. The natural effect of this can hardly be said to be healthful.

"Our Man."

Says the Oswego Palladium :—"Our man, Hanlan, had an easy victory over the English champion, Elliott to-day. We can't be beaten while we handle Hanlan. Canada, of course shares the glory of the Newcastle on the Tyne victory."

How fortunate it is that Canada can "share" in the glory of the last great aquatic victory; and how very generous the American papers are to concede that share.

A Teacher's Reward.

Mr. Milburn, of the High School, has been made happy by his pupils presenting him with a token of their friendship and confidence, accompanied by the following address :

DEAR MR. MILBURN,—Before the closing of the school for the vacation, we, the pupils of your class, wish to express to you in some form our gratitude for your earnest and untiring labors while imparting instruction, and for your cheerful readiness to assist those under your immediate charge. Knowing that the duties of a teacher are very onerous, we trust that, if at any time we have given you unnecessary trouble, you will forget it all during your holiday rest.

We ask you to accept this present as a token of our regard for you as our teacher, and our esteem for you as a friend.

We trust you will enjoy your approaching vacation, and that when school reopens you may return to your duties thoroughly recuperated.

In conclusion, wishing you all the blessings a Divine Providence can bestow, we are the PUPILS OF YOUR CLASS.

Dissatisfaction in Manitoba.

The following has been handed us by a subscriber for publication in Ontario :

"The Yankee land agent is an untiring, cunning and altogether unscrupulous individual. Just at present he infests the trains of emigrants on their way to Manitoba, he prowls about among the passengers seeking whom he may devour, and long bouncing falsehoods about the badness of the Canadian North west and equally untruthful stories of the glorious future which is the certain portion of all who will take his advice and settle in the particular garden of Eden which he is hired to puff. Unfortunately there are Canadian journals so partizan and unpatriotic that they are eager to assist the said Yankee land sharks by telling, as the Globe did lately, most wanton falsehoods of people being driven out of Manitoba by the National Policy. We are glad to see that Wm. C.B. Grahame Dominion Goverament Immigration Agent at Duluth, has issued a circular to counteract the evil."

How much truth there is in the above statement clipped from the National or from that portion of it which refers to the "Globe's most wanton falsehoods," &c., may be learned from the accompanying letter, written by one of our old and respected citizens, who emigrated to the Prairie Province early this spring. The writer has been a consistent, life-long Conservative, and a member of the Orange Order :

PEMBINA, May 17th '79.

DEAR SIR.—I write to let you know the particulars. I was thirteen days getting to Emerson. We were delayed by ice. I found it impossible to get land in Manitoba. The best is all grabbed up by speculators and others, unless you go away back, so I put over into Dakota. I got good land seven miles from Pembina, one mile from the Red River. The railroad runs down from St. Vincent on the Minnesota side of the river opposite Pembina. I am close to market. They are settling in here fast. It costs $17 for 160 acres. There can be no better land got anywhere. I am 100 miles south of Winnipeg. That makes a good deal of difference in the winter. The people are very much dissatisfied the way land is managed in Manitoba. Plenty are returning home. I am very well satisfied. I have good neighbors here. This will be a good place in a few years. I would like to have you come here and secure a lot. I have sent for one of my boys. I am going to make brick. They are worth $10 per 1,000. I can sell all I can make. It is all a humbug to think you can't get a drink of good water here. I never drank better water in any country. The Red River water is better than your bay water. I can get water by digging seven feet. I would not go back under any consideration. All I regret is that I was not here long ago. I will have in half an acre of potatoes this week. You must not think hard of me turning Yankee. I had to take the Oath of Allegiance. I was not alone; there were six Canadians along with me. We were all made Yankees together. It makes no difference with me so long as I can better the condition of myself and children. The stage runs up in front of my place, a good ways from Pembina. I have far better health than when I left Belleville. I am two miles from wood land. Please send me a newspaper. Write and let me know all the particulars and oblige your,

The Picnic of the Season.

A picnic took place on Saturday June 14th on Big Island, Sophiasburgh, under the management of Mrs. C. Peck, whose jurisdiction was excellent. In order that the attendance might be great, invitations were tendered to parties residing in Ballcville and Shannonville, and they certainly would have increased the numbers had not the boat on which they intended to sail taken its departure a little too soon, leaving them to bewail their sad condition. The order of the day was dancing, ball-playing and croquet playing. In reference to the base ball, the opposing club failed to file an appearance, so a scrub game was played in which some fine playing was exhibited. The games were carried on under the management of Jessie E. Peck as assistant. An interesting scene was the procession of the school children of S. S. No 15, who were got in line and marched to the grounds, reflecting credit on their teacher by their good conduct. A rough estimate calculated that not less than 1,000 persons paraded the ground.—Com.

The Thousand Island Park.

AN OUTLINE OF THE SUMMER'S CAMPAIGN.

We are in receipt of the July number of the "Thousand Island Park Journal." As usual, this descriptive paper is embellished with an accurate map of the extensive grounds, and an outline of the services which will be sure this year to attract thousands of visitors to this popular resort. The fifth year at the Park bids fair to outrival every previous season in interest. No pains or expense have been spared by the trustees and managers to render it a more than ever attractive rendezvous for all those who, with the leisure to seek it, are in quest of health and pleasure. In addition to the attractions of former years the grounds will be found to be vastly improved. There will also be a sanitarium established for invalids, and every facility, medicinal and otherwise, afforded for their restoration to health. The celebrated florist, Mr. Vick, of Rochester, is now constructing a large and handsome floral hall, in full view of the dock, and those who saw his beautiful display of last year will be prepared for a rich feast with the enlarged facilities which the new building will furnish for the display of the beauties of nature, of which Mr. Vick promises this year a generous and varied profession. The active season is to open as usual with the camp meeting, which will extend one week from Tuesday, 8th of July. This will be followed by the 'Scientific and Esthetic Conference,' from July 16th to 22nd, inclusive. To this will succeed the 'International Temperance Camp Meeting,' from July 31 to Aug. 9th. Then, a new feature in the programme, an 'International Normal Educational Conference,' extending from Aug. 11 to 16th. Immediately succeeding this the popular Sunday School Parliament will commence its sessions on Aug. 17th and continue till Aug. 25th. We shall take an opportunity of referring to the interesting particulars in their respective bills of fare in these several feasts of reason. Enough just now to say that the season of 1879 at the Park is sure to prove one of unprecedented merriment, pleasure and profit to all who visit the Island with either of these commendable objects in view.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD

At a dinner given in behalf of the London Cabman's Benevolent Association, the Prince of Wales presided, and was supported on the right by Musurus Pasha, the Turkish Ambassador, and on the left hand by Cardinal Manning. The association allows aged and infirm cab-drivers a pension of $50 a year and assists the cabmen as a class in other ways, finding an important field among the 12,000 men who follow that avocation. The Prince pleaded their cause so well that between $6,500 and $7,000 were promised during the festivities.

A BLAKE'S Transmitting Telephone has been placed in the Congregational church in Mansfield, Ohio, the wires leading to the houses of several aged and invalid persons. It surmounts a floral decoration on the table in front of the open platform, a very unnoticeable position. The speaker pays no attention whatever to it, yet every word uttered in the auditorium is easily heard in the rooms of the dwellings which the wires reach. The first communication from the minister was from Scripture : "The word is nigh unto thee ;" "His word runneth very swiftly."

THE ORANGE DELEGATES.—Advices from Ireland by the last mail contain the information that the British and Irish delegation to the Supreme Orange Council, which will meet at Ottawa on the 26th of July, will, in all probability, be composed as follows :— From England, A. E. Miller, Q. C., D. G. M. of England, (instead of Lord Arthur Edwin Hill Trevor, G. M., as previously announced,) and Rev. Dr. Potter, Mr. Miller is a relative of the Lord Chancellor of England. From Ireland, Lord Rossmore, Grand Master of the County Monaghan ; Mr. Hunt W. Chambre and Wm. Johnston. From Scotland, Prof. Macklin of Glasgow.

A Murdered Girl.

Oswego papers record the death of a young girl named Mary Dillon, at the Fitzhugh House in that city last Saturday. She was brought there from Syracuse by a man named Arden, who admitted at the inquest that he had been familiar with her, but denied having been a party to the abortion that caused her death. The crime was committed in Syracuse, and the police are now working up the case. The girl's mother is Mrs. Margaret Dillion, who lives at Prince Albert, near Toronto. She has an aunt, Mrs. Margaret O'Leary, who lives on corner of Queen and Jarvis streets, Toronto, Ontario. She was about 17 years old. Shortly before her death she expressed a wish to see her mother.

The Proposed Regatta.

A GUARANTEE OF $10,000 IN PRIZES—ENGLISH, AUSTRALIAN AND AMERICAN OARSMEN TO BE INVITED—THE GREATEST PROJECT ON RECORD.

It is stated that ten gentlemen, residents of Toronto, have offered to devote $1,000 each to be given in prizes at a grand regatta which it is proposed to hold early in September or October, provided two or three of England's best oarsmen can be induced to compete. Elliott, Boyd and Hawdon have been invited, and it is believed will accept. Courtney, Morris, Hosmer, Ross, and a host of other American and Canadian scullers will enter the lists, and it is thought by many the great Trickett, and perhaps Rush and Laycock will come from the Antipodes to try our champion's speed. "The Little Wonder," as Hanlan is aptly termed, can give them all a billet at his Island home, where they can practice in any weather, enjoying the fresh lake breezes. Let the programme be made public as soon as possible, so that no one desiring to take part can grumble at a want of notice. The Committee should cable Australia this week, inviting them most cordially to take a chance in the great sweep. The race will be rowed in heats extending over five or six days at least. If well managed, we opine it will be a greater success than anything of the kind before attempted.—Telegram.

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman to:—

A Daring Rescue from the Bears.

JOE BEE'S BEAR PIT—HIS CHILD FALLS AMONG THE BEASTS—A FEARFUL ENCOUNTER.

It is well known among a certain class that "Joe Beef" has a bear pit under his canteen on Common street. It extends all along under the house, and is reigned over by a big black bear weighing over 400 pounds. There are also a she bear and two comparatively young cubs, which Joe reckons among his do mestic pets. Strangers frequently visit the place and are generally escorted to see the bears through a trap door in the floor. Yesterday afternoon, while a colored preacher was holding service in the "singing room," three American strangers came to visit the place and the trapdoor was thrown open to show the bears. While Joe went into the bar-room his little boy, six years old, went too near the edge and fell into the den. The old bears were in a dark corner, but one of the cubs at once ran towards the child, who had

UTTERED A FRIGHTENED SCREAM.

The cook lay down on the floor, and reaching down, caught the little fellow and raised him up. The she bear had heard the child's cries, and with a growl rushed toward the trap door and seized the child just as he was being lifted up. The little fellow was in an instant dragged into the den, encircled by the claws of the old she bear. Joe hearing the noise which the fearful sight caused, came to the door and asked what was the matter. Seeing his child as it were, in the jaws of death, he did not hesitate to think, but lighting on the head of one of the bears. He managed by a frantic effort to tear his child from the savage monster, and threw him behind. In another instant he handed the little fellow up among the almost paralized spectators. The men around seemed so suddenly struck with terror that they could do nothing to help Joe, who had placed himself in such imminent danger. The moment the child was out of the pit the she bear growled fiercely and sprang on Joe, who had no arms with which to defend himself.

LEAPED FROM THE FLOOR INTO THE PIT,

THE SAVAGE BRUTE SEIZED HIM

by the right knee, throwing him on his back. Her teeth were driven fully an inch deep into his flesh. He was then completely at the mercy of the animal, whose tameness had disappeared, it being enraged at having the child taken away. The men looking on still seemed powerless to help, though one of the visitors had a revolver in his pocket. Joe, however, did not loose his presence of mind, but seized a brick which lay near him, and struck the bear on the snout with all his might. The brute let go her hold, and Joe quickly got on his feet. The old she bear has not shown fight, but when Joe shouted had slunk back to the dark corner. The she bear now stood off, showing her teeth, but he continued to shout, and she also went back. Joe was then his legs being covered with blood. The trousers which he had on were torn to shreds, and his stockings were saturated with blood. The child had not been injured at all, beyond a slight scratch on the head. Joe says that the she bear was always a contrary beast, and that when he trained her first he used to put her in a puncheon of water and push her under with a broom, and when the cub was nearly drowned it would bite the broom. Joe blamed the preacher in the meeting for telling the men to sit down, that it was only a dog fight. He refuses all medical attendance, and applies high wines to the bite, which continues to bleed to-day. The limb is greatly swollen, and unless great care is used, very serious results may follow.—Montreal Witness.

RESCUED FROM THE PIT,

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY
JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system, forms a true preventative for the duties of life, a d when taken in middle or old age, proves a real blessing; and on the approach of childbirth these pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; the benefits to be derived are incalculable; they f rtify the constitution; lessen the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with comfort to herself and child. In all cases of Nervous Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on Slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and White and Blues, these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and, although a powerfull remedy do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution. A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIPHTHERIA.—Three of my children han Diphtheria in its worst form. Skin of lips purulent, could not swallow. With a feather I applied Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia to the tonsils, rubbed over their throats and chests. WOOL.—A large quantity of wool has been brought in the market during the past week, for which a uniform price of 20 cents per pound has been paid. One dealer bought close on a thousand pounds on Saturday.

COLLAPSED.—Cool Johnston's Burlesque Company collapsed in Kingston on Monday night. A row first took place between the manager and some of his company and afterwards between Cool and an Oshawa, livery man whose rigs had been hired.

ALBERT COLLEGE.—Remember the Conversazione at the College Chapel this evening. The Oddfellows' Band will be in attendance, and the grounds and college building will be brilliantly illuminated. This will be the winding up of the exercises in connection with the close of the academic year.

SERIOUS UPSET.—Yesterday afternoon a span of horses, belonging to a Mr. Fretz, who resides near Picton, ran away from near the ferry. They got frightened by the carriage, containing Mr. and Mrs. Fretz and three other persons, upsetting in a hole; but were closely caught by Rev. Mr. Tunnell, of Picton, and Rev. J. C. Young of Albert College, who sprang before them and secured the frightened animals. Mr. and Mrs. Fretz were both hurt by the upset. Dr. Abbott was summoned and dressed their wounds.

THE HISTRIONIC SOCIETY.—The performance given by the above society at the Opera House last evening, for the benefit of Mr. Geo. Hanwell, was, we are pleased to say, well attended, though not quite as largely as we would like to have seen. The general verdict of all present was that the company have improved very much since their last appearance. The thrilling drama or "The Rose of Ettrick Vale," both as to dress and acting, was exceedingly well rendered, and every member of the Company, particularly the ladies, is deserving of praise, for the very creditable manner in which they acquitted themselves. We hope it will not be long before we will again have the pleasure of hearing them.

NEW STYLE OF BUTTER PACKING.—The Montreal Gazette says firms received late last week a shipment of very choice Canadian print butter neatly packed in the drawers of a compact refrigerator case about 2½ feet in length, 2½ feet in width, and 18 inches deep. The drawers which contained the prints were constructed so as to slide in and out over the ice, thereby protecting them from the injurious effects of the hottest weather. The shipper in the country and the party receiving it have each a key to lock and unlock the case. It is thought this style of shipping butter will come into general use during hot weather. The quality of prints was really superb, and the shipment was quickly distributed among the lovers of the rosy product of the churn.

DOMINION DAY CELEBRATION.—Through the exertions of Chief McKinnon the 1st of July next, our national holiday, will be duly celebrated in this city. The programme of sports and amusements will be very attractive, and visitors from the country will find more to interest them than they did last year. In the first place, the grand athletic contest for the heavy-weight championship of America between Chief McKinnon and Mr. D. C. Ross, of Baltimore, U.S., will be the most exciting event of the kind ever witnessed in this country. Both men are well-known athletes, and both claim the championship. Ross has defeated all competitors in the United States, but has yet to encounter the Canadian champion. Besides this, there will be a procession, games, torch light parade, fire works, &c. In short a day of rare amusement may be expected. Our country readers should make a note of this.

Consumption, so prevalent and so fatal is dreaded as the great scourge of our race; and yet, in the formative stages, all pulmonary complaints may be readily controlled by using "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers." They will relieve the worst cough in a few minutes, and have a most beneficial influence on the bronchial and pulmodary organs; but they must be used in time. Public speakers and singers will also derive great benefit by using them. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

THE MIDNIGHT FIRE BELL.—What a shock it gives to hear the sharp clang of the midnight fire bell. To the doting mother the plaintive moan or the more shrill cry of her darling child that lies in its crib by her bedside, too plainly telling her of its sufferings from an attack of inflammation of the bowels which is no less terrible and terrifying. She springs for the bottle of Scott & Bowne's Palatable Castor oil which she took the precaution to obtain from the druggist the day before and with one teaspoonful puts an end to the disease. The little sufferers take it cheerfully for it is as palatable as cream. Price 25 cents.

Elevated Railroads, Lines of Stages, Places of amusement Depots and Steamers—all these radiate from, or are situated in, the immediate neighborhood of the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, which is due kept on both plans. The American $2.50 or $3.00, and the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices is conducted by the Grand Central.

Brevities.

—Warmer weather is needed by the growing crops.

—Everybody say the price of strawberries must come down.

—Alexandra College convocation last night a grand success.

—It is a solemn fact that people with pianos or organs in the house are more troubled with rats than those without. If you want to get rid of rats put a chattel mortgage on your musical instruments.

—Funny, wasn't it, how the Duke of Hamilton all at once discovered that he had been robbed of $7,500,000? How nice it would be to be able to let some one rob you of millions and you living in bliss, fulignorance of it!

A TREASURE TROVE

A QUANTITY OF SILVER TURNED UP BY THE PLOUGH.

IS IT GENUINE, OR COUNTERFEIT.

Last Thursday while Mr. Leonard Rupert, of Lot. 29, 9th Concession of Tuttelow, was ploughing in one of his fields, the share turned up a quantity of small white objects, that made a ringing noise in contact with the plough. An investigation revealed what Mr. Rupert believed was a veritable treasure trove, and he began a careful examination of the metallic substances and the locality. His search was rewarded by a pile of silver quarter dollar pieces. He counted them, and found ninety-nine in all. Turns of the number were well-preserved Canadian 20-cent pieces, of the date of 1853. The only suspicion attached to these was a roughness of the edges, as if the moulding had not been well done. In every other respect the coins are perfect specimens of the kind represented.

The other 96 pieces are of the same size but smooth, and somewhat rusty. Mr. Rupert brought them to our office this morning just as he found them, and a close examination of the lot, coupled with the suspicious appearance of the finished 20 cent pieces, induce us to believe that they are the relics of some counterfeiting gang, and that detection becoming probable these specimens were buried where found. The smooth pieces are evidently the unstamped counterfeits, and the three finished ones samples of the work turned out by the gang.

This is our opinion, founded on a hasty examination of the "find," but we may be mistaken. Any silversmith in the city can decide whether the pieces are genuine or counterfeit. We hope Mr. Rupert may find his treasure trove to be the full value expected.

Since writing the above we learn that a test has has been made and the whole lot pronounced "bogus."

THE CONTEMPLATED IMPERIAL GUARANTEE. —QUESTION TO BE ASKED BY MR. BRIGHT.

(Special Cablegram to the Globe.)

LONDON, June 17.

Mr. Bright has given notice that he intends to ask the Colonial Secretary on Thursday a question regarding the visit of certain members of the Canadian Government, who are reported to be coming to England for the purpose of asking the Imperial Government for a loan or guarantee for the purpose of constructing the Canada Pacific Railway.

The Londonderry Iron Works.

Mr. George Stephens, of Montreal, in a letter to a correspondent in Toronto says:

"It would be a service to the Londonderry Iron Works were the discussions of its affairs withdrawn from the arena of politics. It is still my opinion that a duty of seventy-five cents or even one dollar per ton on bituminous coal would reduce the cost of coal at the pit's mouth. All the Londonderry Company asks from the Government is that the coal shall be carried by the Intercolonial Railway at the same price per ton per mile as coal is carried for to Quebec. But for the National Policy, and the hope of life which it created, the works would in all probability have been closed a year ago.

PLAISTED'S NEW BOAT.

LONDON, June 17.—Plaisted's new boat for his match with Nicholson is a very satisfactory one, Plaisted and Nicholson are both in excellent condition.

HANLAN'S CONFIDENCE.

The Sportsman says that Hanlan was so confident of the result of the championship match that he prepared on Thursday the speech he delivered yesterday.

THE SPORTSMAN CUP.

The Sportsman, in regard to the proposition to contest for the Sportsman Cup in America, says:—The trustees will doubtless carefully weigh the very potent objections raised to taking the Cup abroad. We feel, however, convinced the trustees realize the design of the donors was to promote the best interests of sculling, and not necessarily in England alone.

—Culhoun, one of the Galt team, fell and broke his collar bone in two places on Saturday at Berlin.

—The great storm ten days ago did no damage to fishermen at Magdalen Island; fishing has been good.

—A Haligonian, who stained without a cent, has returned from the Black Hills with $44,000; one year's work.

—The G. W. R. will build the Georgian Bay branch from Palmerston to Owen Sound, via Mount Forest and Dundurn.

—A scheme for the amalgamation of the Montreal and City of Ottawa Junction Railway with the Province Line may be adopted to-day.

—A. & C. Black, of Edinburgh, have seized copies of the Encyclopedia Britannica in Montreal, on the ground that the edition is an infringement of their copyright.

—Some Montreal citizens may endeavor to stop the city from coming to an arrangement with the Government about the location of the M. O. & O. R. workshops.

—Ontario County Council before adjourning adopted a memorial praying for the remission of the life sentence on Burke and McPherson in the Bennett case, tried in May, 1878. Subsequent evidence is exculpatory.

—Mr. Fisher, a wealthy Carlisle farmer of advanced years, was last Friday shot, but not fatally, in the house of a friend, by a burglar who seems to have been aware that Fisher had that day collected a large sum of money.

—Dr. Hodgins, Deputy Minister of Education, is in Ottawa conferring with Prof. F. MacCabe in regard to the appointment of teachers for the Ottawa Normal School, which opens on the 1st of September next.

—The Catholic Church of Montreal is surprised by the announcement that owing to the financial difficulties of the Church during the past year of depression through which it is passing, the Catholic Bishop has determined to abandon his Episcopal palace, and rent it or sell it, and accept a curacy in St. Henri, thus saving the body ten thousand dollars per annum. The Minerve hopes that necessity from this sacrifice of His Lordship will not exist for a long period.

The expenditure of brain power too early or too severely in children often results in physical debility; the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites exerts a singularly happy effect in such cases.

"SUDDEN COLDS."—At the commencement of a cold, take a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in a little milk and sugar, and the cure is more sudden than the cold.

Unrivalled.—Delightful to use, clean and healthful upon the hair, there is nothing that can compare with it. Try Bearine.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

ST. PAUL, Min., June 18.—The Governor has just been summoned at midnight to Tracy to take steps to suppress a riot. No Particulars. Tracy is the terminus of Hastings & Dakota R.R.

NEW YORK, 18.—Twelve cases of small pox reported to Board of Health during the week; six the week before. Contagious disease, especially scarlet fever, are increasing. The Board of Health asks $5,000 of the city for 50 extra physicians to visit tenement houses, and prescribe for inmates, and $2,500 for fruit inspectors.

Indian Commissioner Hoyt charged with publishing false statements as to paid up capital of International Trust Company, Jersey City, of which he was President, was acquitted yesterday.

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., June 18.—Edward Christman and Hy. Saager tied, confessed being the burglars who assaulted and robbed Gabriel Seiss near this place. This exonerates Joseph and John Ott, who were arrested for the crime.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Duke of Argyle and party are at Coney Island.

A DesMoines despatch to the Sun says the Democratic Central Committee of Iowa are endeavouring to induce their candidates to withdraw in favor of Greenbackers, the trade to be dependent on the Greenbackers of Ohio withdrawing in favor of Kinney. Wall nation influences are reported working to some end.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Reported the Nevada bank closed out its trade dollars yesterday at par in gold.

ST. PAUL, MINN.—June 18.—Gen. Miles is organizing a column of troops to clear the country north of Mo. River of Indians, who recently came across the border from Sitting Bull's camp, and are now raiding upon the Indian reservation.

LONDON, June 18.—The Times says the exchange on Paris has advanced in anticipation of further remittance wanted to pay for American wheat.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 18.—E. D. White aged 60, a wealthy painter near Selma, Ala., attempted suicide here yesterday. He married a young wife recently, who eloped with another man. White came north intending to secure a home away from the scene of disgrace. Becoming despondent, he cut a gash in his throat with a razor. In the hospital he tore the bandage from the wound. Condition critical.

BRIDGEPORT, 18.—Oliver Tomlinson last week posted his wife and commenced a suit for divorce. This a.m. she took his revolver from a bureau, and threatened, if not reconciled, to kill herself. When he approached she shot him above the heart, then herself through the left breast. She claims the shooting of her husband was accidental. The parties are wealthy, and prominent here.

LONDON, June 18.—At 4 o'clock this p.m. the scores of the pedestrians were: Brown 281 miles; Weston 271, Ennis 180; Harding 100. Brown follows Weston in the same manner as Rowell followed Ennis in the O'Leary match in New York, increasing or decreasing his pace with Weston.

Ghosts.

Not Col. Ingersoll's "aristocracy of the air," but real human ghosts. Ghosts that were once healthy men and women, but are now simply "the ghosts of what they once were." As we meet them, and inquire the cause of all the change, they repeat the old old story, "a cold," "neglected cough," "catarrh," "overwork," or "dyspepsia," "liver complaints," and "constipation," with unsuccessful physicians and remedies. In offering Sir Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets for the cure of the above affections, Dr Pierce does not recommend them as a sure cure in all stages. For if the lungs be half wasted away, or there be a cancerous complication, no physician or medicine can cure. The discovery is, however an unequalled pectoral and blood purifier. It speedily cures the most aggravated cough, or cold, and in its early or middle stages, consumption. By correcting and irregularities of the stomach and liver, it readily cures blotches pimples, scrofulous ulcers, bunches, or tumors. Hundreds testify that it has restored their health after eminent physicians had failed. For constipation, use the Pellets. As a local remedy for catarrh, use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

"O MISERIES! THOU ART SWIFT."—When the love-sick Romeo uttered those words he spoke a truism admitted by everybody. What can be swifter than the treacherous attack of disease in whatever form, whether dyspeptic, bronchial, or consumptive, and the mischief done by these fell foes of health is incalculable. Thanks however, to the genius of science we can subdue them by the use of Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. As a medicine for this life destroying disease it stands at the head of the list.

A Card

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in the South America. Send a self-address envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, general Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the most delicate of fatty extracted virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is certainly a better agent in nursing but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in promoting healthful functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable as cream, restores the appetite, deposits and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, relieves spasmodic coughs, and is unequalled for all Scrofulous troubles, never separates, decomposes or sours. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at 50cts per bottle.

assist her. After some persuasion, and with many sobs and tears, she told him the following story, re markable only in its similarity to the old tale of woe and shame that has been told so often by lips that trembled with fear for the past and trembled with fear for the future:

I am seventeen years of age and my name is ——. My father is a well to do farmer near Syracuse, N. Y. For several years I have been attending a ladies' seminary, situated nearly a hundred miles from there, and have only been home during holidays and vacation. Near my father's farm lived a young man whom I have known for a long time, and to whom I have become attached. He was a frequently at my father's place while I was home. He paid me great attention, and our acquaintance became so intimate that he followed me to the Seminary when I returned and persuaded me to marry him. For two months we met frequently and then he left me, and during the seven months that have intervened since I have had one letter from him, and that was dated at Kineardine, Ont. I wrote to him, oh! so often, but never got any letter but that one. Thinking that my husband might still be in Kineardine, I used the money in going there to hunt him up. I got there on Thursday night, and found that he had been gone from there for some weeks. I did not know what to do. I went to a lawyer, and he told me that my husband and his brother had failed in business and left town, but he could not find out where they had gone. I became ill and remained there for a time. Thinking that the unusual saddsummer vacation. my husband might still be in Kineardine, I used the money in going there to hunt him up. I got there on Thursday night, and found that he had been gone from there for some weeks. I did not know what to do. I went to a lawyer, and he told me that my husband and his brother had failed in business and left town, but he could not find out where they had gone. I became ill and remained there for a time. The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63.88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.98	to	$56.90

The Professor's Proposal.

[From Harper's Magazine]

If there was mischief in the eyes of Tom Kingsley, it was because he was up to mischief. This was no unusual circumstance, for it was a rare thing to find Tom and not find him in mischief of some sort or other. On this occasion he was with his schoolmate, Jem.

Tom and Jem had on various occasions played practical jokes on Prof. Bensel, and the price set seemed to them a fit subject for their jokes. He was a tall, ungainly man, with a scholarly stoop in his shoulders, a head of bushy hair much threaded with gray, a pair of mild, weak spectacles, and a general air of perplexed acquiescence in all mundane affairs whatever. The two boys had just been discussing their last joke and its successful termination, and wondering what their genius could invent for the next trial, when Tom's sister, Mary, came in with the remark:

"Why don't you show him a ghost then?" queried May. I'll help you, and—"

"May!" cried Tom, jumping to his feet and dancing the "Fisher's Hornpipe," "you are a trump! The professor never locks his door."

The two pairs of brown eyes looked at each other, and the respective owners of them burst out laughing, with the delightful unanimity of sentiment that exists whenever any specially delectable piece of mischief is on foot.

Jem in no way dissented from the programme, but, on the contrary, added some timely suggestions. Tom considered this the quickest witted mind in the world, and a handsome fellow besides, which last was true enough. The young people soon found out that to copy the spirits successfully required more time and practice than they had counted upon, their ghostly advisers having failed to provide any short road to perfection. They were very patient, however, as people will be when engaged in something with which they have no manner of business, and in about a week had all their arrangements completed. Jem was to personate the ghost, Tom and his sister the audience, Tom having reluctantly yielded the post of distinction to Jem in consideration of his abilities.

But when it came to the point the would-be ghost had a new proposal to make. "Let's tell him to do something or other," he said—"something that he would never think of himself—so that we shall know by that afterwards whether he believes in it all or not."

This being hailed with acclamation, Tom suggested that the professor should be commanded to wear a cocked hat for a month; May, that he should make a daily pilgrimage to the top of the meeting-house hill for that length of time, but Jem rejected both of these proposals; they would be likely to bring about discovery, and were not solemn enough to be accredited to a ghost. "No; it must be something that will affect his whole life," he said, "something of so much consequence that he would think it likely the spirits would be charged to deliver it. Well tell him he must go as a missionary; or, no, better still, let's tell him to marry somebody—May, here, for instance; he was always fond of her, and she is right in the same house."

"But, unluckily, May is not fond of him, and I don't observe Tom, wickedly.

"Well, he doesn't know that. He will think it's his duty to ask her. And when she says no, he will wait for some new spiritual light. You don't mind, do you May?

May did mind very much at first, but the boys, aided by her own sense of fun, at last persuaded her into it. Perhaps the thought that it was sure to be discovered, and that the professor could not possibly carry his credulity to that point, helped to quiet her conscience. At any rate, she not only yielded, but, after the fashion of womankind, was the one to originate the boldest part of the scheme.

"If I let you do that, boys, you must let me do what I want to."

Of course they both asked, "What is it?"

May refused to tell them. You'll know soon enough," she said, with the mischievous sparkle coming and going in her brown eyes. "Only if I don't say anything to spoil your fun, you must promise not to spoil mine."

They both gave the promise readily, finding a new interest in their project now that something not laid down in the plan might possibly happen.

In about a week everything was ready and the night set for the ghostly visitation. The professor, after putting out his light, was just getting into bed, still absorbed in the true interpretation of a difficult aorist construction, when the ghost crashed gently, seemed to swing open of itself, and presently to his astonished eyes, a tall white figure presented itself, with a faint blue light encircling it, and a general misty uncertainty of outline that might be attributed to the darkening of some thick vapor, but to an uninitated person was highly suggestive of unincorporeal spirits.

"Bless me! bless me!" said Prof. Rensel, staring at this vision. "Who are you, my friend?"

"I am a disembodied spirit," replied a sepulchral voice.

"Dear, dear! what a pity! Can't anything be done for you?"

"Nothing. I am sent to you."

"Well, my friend. I am here"—after a pause, in which he seemed to imagine that the embarrassed spirit required some encouragement. His face shone with a mild benevolence. "I am here," he repeated. "What can I do for you?"

The blue light was shaken for a moment as if the spectral visitor was disturbed by this tantalizing calmness, and even disposed to back out of the situation. Then the sepulchral voice replied, "You are commanded to marry May Kingsley."

"How? What? My good friend, you are talking like a—ghost!" exclaimed the astonished professor. A slight flush rose to his benevolent face.

"You are commanded to do it," repeated the spirit monotonously.

"Bless me! bless me! It isn't possible."

"With us, all things are possible."

"Indeed?" said the professor inquiringly.

"Indeed?" he repeated, with as much deliberation as if he was addressing his classes.

"Well, well. Let me consider that settled and—pass on the something else," with a certain frill dignity as if he objected to discussing the lady they had named even with a ghost. He was evidently disposed to be hospitable, but somewhat at a loss how to entertain his visitor.

"You are not," said the professor glancing hesitatingly at the suggestive blue light, "from the celestial regions, I am afraid?"

"No."

"Dear me! what a pity! I must be very unpleasant. Yet if you could—if you could be persuaded to give me alittle information about the other place. The Truth is, I have a young friend who is going that way. I very much fear, and—

Here something not laid down in the programme happened: the ghost inconsiderately bolted, blue light and all. Outside there was a suspicious shuffling and hurrying of feet that may have been produced spiritually, but was very like scampering humanity.

The professor deliberately got up and closed the door, murmuring to himself: "Very singular—very singular, indeed."

The same embarrassed flush still lingered on his face but he got into bed and went calmly to sleep as if nothing unusual had happened.

Meanwhile the ghost and the audience were holding a hurried consultation downstairs. All three were considerably taken aback.

"He knew us," said Jem, disconsolately. "He must have known us the very first thing. His young friend! That was cool, at any rate. Which of us does he mean, Tom—you or me?"

"Perhaps he didn't know himself which it was," said Tom.

As neither of them could settle this point, they at last adjourned to bed, each, perhaps, with a little sense of discomfiture under all his merriment.

The next morning, after watching Tom out of the house, May sat down to some feminine work of her own to ponder over their ill-fated schemes, when in walked Prof. Rensel, who was supposed to be safe in his class-room. May was aghast at the sight of him.

"Now for it," she thought. "It is too bad I should have to take the scolding alone."

For it could not be but even so mild a man would be angry at such an escapade. True, he could not know of her share in it, but then it was nearly as bad to have Tom made the scapegoat.

Miss May was an audacious young lady, but conscience made a coward of her, and she dared not look up or ask him why he was not at school.

"Why don't he begin?" she mused, still keeping her eyes on her work, as the tall figure shuffled uneasily round the room.

Presently the professor stepped in front of her and cleared his throat. "My dear Miss May, do you think you could ever bring yourself to marry me?"

The work fell out of her hands, and May sat fairly dumb with astonishment. The professor picked it up again for her.

(To be Continued)

The Daily Ontario

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 19.

ENGLISH newspapers put Hanlan down as "a wonder." The Sportsman says the Canadian was so confident of the result of the championship race last Monday that he began to prepare his speech for the occasion on the preceding Thursday. He knew what he had to contend with, and never for a moment doubted his ability to defeat the English champion.

THE OTTAWA Citizen has a special mission marked out by the Ministry, and faithfully applies itself to the allotted task. The National Policy is on trial, and a hard trial it is having, too. The Citizen undertakes to defend the new tariff against every attack by the Reform press, and not unfrequently is forced into uncomfortable quarters.

Where's the Fault?

A number of complaints from subscribers having reached us lately, referring to the irregularity with which they receive their papers, we have thought it advisable to enquire through this medium into the matter. From Rednerville, Brockville, Cobourg and several other localities we learn that the weekly edition of our paper does not reach subscribers oftener than once in two and three weeks. The fault does not lie in this office, as the mailing is done regularly by machinery, the name of each subscriber being stamped on a paper in alphabetical order. It is impossible, therefore, for the mail clerk to omit any on the list, as the whole form must be run through. This being the case, it appears somewhat strange that so many papers go astray, or fail in reaching their destination. We are quite confident that the local post office is not responsible for any irregularity of the kind, and must look for the fault at the distribution offices. It is not an easy matter to trace a defect of this nature, and we are anxious that our subscribers should be faithfully served. We will make it a special duty to watch the mail proceedings for a few weeks, and ascertain, if possible, where the mistake or irregularity is.

That Demonstration.

The Ottawa Free Press refers to the late Reform demonstration here and the Mail's pretended "sarkasm" as follows:

"Belleville, generally supposed to be a preserve of that great political genius, the Minister of Customs, has of late been indulging in the unwonted luxury of a Reform demonstration. The ONTARIO says 5,000 people assembled to do honor to the victory by which Mr. Mowat's Government was sustained, and that never before had Belleville witnessed such an enthusiastic demonstration. There was a procession, of course, and a torchlight procession at that, and what is of great importance it consisted of gentlemen, "who look the in opponents squarely in the face by daylight." From which we are bound to infer that the Liberals of Belleville possess a praiseworthy characteristic not conspicuously observable in the followers of the Minister of Customs—we hesitate to say not observable in the Minister himself. The Mail tries to poke fun at a demonstration of this kind in what it has been the fashion to regard as a parsly Macdonald constituency, but it is weak when it tries to get rid of the imputation that the Macdonaldites "don't look people straight in the face by daylight." The farce is too transparent the pretence of parity and economy and virtue, and what not is too slim to deceive the loyal people of Belleville. The idols they have been wont to worship have yielded nothing but sound. Like Memnon's statue which played at sunrise, the source of their melody has been secret. They are full of poetic promises but as yet there is no sign of practical fulfilment. And in the absence of a realization of those promises, and in fact at the accumulation of evidences of an belief, the faithful of Belleville have resorted to a device not unknown in more devout societies in order to bring about a better and healthier state of feeling. They have taken to stone-throwing and rotten eggs, and this, it seems,—in spite of the Mail, which discreetly avoids all reference to that part of the programme—is the latest phase of that tolerant and gentlemanly Conservatism which is supposed thereabouts to be specially embodied in the Minister of Customs—Ex-Grand Sovereign Bowell. Well, we suppose the Liberals of Belleville can stand it. The disgrace is not theirs at any rate, and we shall be much mistaken if intelligent and honest Conservatives—and there, as elsewhere, we are glad to believe, they form the large majority of the party) do not set their faces against proceedings which, if persevered in, will make Belleville Toryism odorous throughout the land.

The National Policy.

THE DISASTROUS BOOMERANG EFFECT IT IS HAVING UPON CANADIAN TRADE.

(From the Detroit Evening News.)

Business is dull, terribly dull, in Windsor. People who a short time ago were landing the National Policy of protection are now execrating it as a cause of more depression than has been known since 1873. There is nothing doing, and no money in circulation; men stand on the street corners and discuss the situation, wondering what on earth is to become of them if this sort of thing keeps up much longer. A prominent Windsor merchant in conversation with a News reporter recently, said there was every probability of an alarming array of failures in Canada within the next three months. When the Conservative Government announced its protectionist policy, and gave importers a hint of what they might expect, the leading merchants went to work and bought large quantities of Goods in the United States on 60 days' time. The Government allowed the merchants to take advantage of the existing tariff by accepting their checks on call, which were turned over to the bank of Montreal on deposit to Government credit, and the banks are now calling up these checks. The bills for goods are becoming due, and the merchants find themselves loaded down with stock for which there has been but little or no demand thus far. May find themselves in a tight box, unable to meet the heavy drain for duties or the heavier call for the bills due to English and American houses. Already the great dry goods house of T. J. Claxton & Co., of Montreal, with one exception the largest in the Dominion, have gone down, and several others are believed to be tottering to their fall. Dependent upon the great importing houses innumerable others which will be affected to a greater or lesser extent, and the knowledge of an impending crash has had the effect of destroying the confidence which was a few months ago thought to be reviving.

On the floor of the House of Commons Sir Richard Cartwright accused Finance Minister Tilley, when the check business came to light, of playing the part of the merchant who helped his clerks to rob his own till. The Windsor merchant from whom the News reporter derived his information says that the country may learn before long that the ex-Finance Minister was not far from right.

The 69th N. Y. Regiment.

It seems that a detatchment of the 69th regiment is to visit Montreal on Dominion Day, after all. The 69th, it will be remembered, is the New York regiment that is accused of being half Fenian, and that refused to parade in honor of the Prince of Wales when he visited New York in 1860. The necessary permission of the Dominion Government to the regiment to cross the frontier with arms has been secured. There is a good deal of opposition in some quarters in Montreal to such a regiment, or any portion of it, coming to Canada on the national holiday. But after all, it makes very little difference, as the 69thers who are coming are probably not going to shoot anybody. The Montrealers can console themselves with the cheerful reflection that the only time Fenian soldiers came to Canada to stay was by the kind permission of the Dominion Government.—Telegram.

Casual Remarks.

—The Conservative press declare that the Letellier matter is to be referred back to this country for settlement, the Imperial authorities declining to have anything to do with it.

—A telegram from Montreal says:—

A cable despatch from London, received here last night, confirms the sad intelligence of the drowning of John Pollok Gilmour, son of James Gilmour, of Picton, Ont.

—The man Thickpenny, now on trial at Toronto for the murder of an old woman in the Township of Markham some time ago, is certainly non compos mentis. He is either a lunatic or a fool.

—Toronto will spend $5,000 in decorations for the visit of the Marquis and Princess in September. She intends to push the bad off the bridge, no matter what it costs. Kingston will take a back seat after Toronto shows herself.

—Our Conservative friends have not been very fortunate so far with their recounts of electoral ballots. Mr. Striker's majority in Prince Edward has been increased by one vote, and Dr. Robinson's in Cardwell by tree votes. Mr. Dorosh gained four in Addington.

—The "Glasgow Warehouse" advertises cotton for sale, "bought before the new tariff came into operation, and before the advance in the cotton market." And still we are told that the new tariff has not increased the cost of cotton goods to the consumer.

—Dr. Bergin, of Cornwall, who was elected last fall as a supporter of Sir John Macdonald, and who visited East Hastings full of poetic promises but as yet there is in the interest of Mr. John White, is now before the Election Court. Some idea of how votes were obtained for him may be gained from the report of Tuesday's proceedings before Mr. Justice Armour, that appeared in yesterday's Globe.

—London Times:—It was well that Mr. Joly went over to England to counteract Mr. Langevin's representations. The man of destiny and $32,000 said Quebec was in a state of rebellion against Mr. Joly. It is no such thing. The $32,000 man said that Governor Letellier had interfered in politics. Mr. Joly quietly replied that that charge had not been included in the written indictment. The Colonial Secretary looked at the document, and found that Mr. Joly was right—Mr. Langevin made charges conversationally that he dared not put on paper. For ways that are dark Mr. Langevin always was peculiar.

Cahmen Vs. Wilson.

At the Police Court this morning the judgment, reserved since the taking of the evidence by Mr. J. P. Gildersleeve in the Cahmen vs. Wilson case, was given. The charge was for hiring horses and vehicles on Sundays, contrary to law, Section 1, chapter 180, of Revised Statutes of Ontario. The Magistrate entered into an elaborate review of the rule of construction usually pursued in matters pertaining to the law, quoting instances of previous cases. After summing up he dismissed the charge against Mr. Wilson, as there was no decision in either English or Canadian courts prohibiting livery men from exercising their ordinary calling on the Lord's Day within the meaning of the statute. Mr. Gildersleeve's judgment was given after consultation with the City Solicitor.—"Whig." 18th.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

GEN. GRANT is said to have conceived a deadly antipathy to the late Mr. Motley from seeing the latter with his hair parted in the middle.

THE European packages brought out by the last two Canadian steamers have arrived in one case on Saturday evening, being only ten days, and in the other Monday, being eleven and one-half days, from Liverpool to Toronto. This dispatch of freight is the fastest on record and is worthy of notice.

A HARDSHIP.—The schooner Undine, lately discharged at Kingston, took a cargo of 10,000 bushels of wheat from Hamilton, at a freight of 1¼ cents per bushel. The master says he delivered all the grain received into the vessel. The weight was ninety-four bushels short of the reckoning at Hamilton. The deduction of the value of the wheat, with the charge for shovelling, gave the vessel only $4.85 for carriage of the cargo.

COLONEL STOLLERY of the 10th Royals Rifles, has entered a libel suit against the Globe Printing Company, claiming $10,000 damages. The alleged libel was contained in an article which appeared in the Globe about two weeks since insinuating that Colonel Stollery, besides being unfit for the position as commander of the regiment, had appropriated for his own use that which had been received from the Government to be devoted toward defraying the expenses incurred by the excursion.

THE Charlottetown (P.E.Island) Herald, a Conservative paper, sadly says: "Up to the present time no compensation has been given to the Island as a set-off against the high tariff which from our exceptional position will injure us for the benefit of Ontario." The new tariff is not the only burthen of which the Islanders complain. Hitherto the Island has enjoyed exemption from the operations of the Stamp Act. An amendment passed at the recent session of the Dominion Parliament extended this blessing (?) to that province, and, strange to, say, the Islanders do not regard it in the light of a blessing. [Truro N. S. Guardian.

"HUMANITY" writing to a Toronto paper says:—"Our tax collectors have been round with their papers, to the sorrow of widows, orphans and invalids (many of whom cannot make ends meet as it is, and are consequently nearly crazed when they think of their taxes) who have to pay not only their own but those of preachers and others who receive salaries varying from $1,000 to four times that amount, besides perquisites. Is there one minister of the gospel (sic) who has manhood enough to pay his just taxes this year? We shall see! Any man no matter who or what he is, who is in receipt of $1,000 per annum and does not pay taxes is a robber—a moral robber—a robber of widows, orphans, and invalids—and as such should be branded by every honest man."

MARRIAGE is a solemn thing—a choice for life; be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for female complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Bucha and Uva Ursa. The Battle of Waterloo.

The battle of Waterloo was fought sixty-four years ago yesterday, and it may not be uninteresting to recall the salient features of the great event. The French army numbered 71,947 men and 246 guns, under Napoleon, and the allies, commanded by the Duke of Wellington, 67,661 men and 156 guns. The latter resisted the various attacks of the enemy from ten in the morning until five in the afternoon. About that time, 16,000 Prussians reached the field of battle; and by seven, the force under Blucher amounted to above 50,000 men, with 104 guns. Wellington then moved forward his whole army. A total rout ensued, and the carnage was immense. Of the British (23,991), 93 officers and 1,916 men were killed and missing, and 363 officers and 4,560 men wounded—total, 6,932; and the total loss of the allied army amounted to 4,206 killed, 14 539 wounded, and 4,231 missing, making 22,976 hors de combat. Napoleon, quitting the wreck of his flying army, returned to Paris; and finding it impossible to raise another, abdicated the throne of France.

The rents of the R. C. Church property in Montreal have fallen off one-third and their real estate has depreciated one-half.

A Remarkable Case.

A HUMAN ILLOGICAL BATTER'S STRANGE STORY FROM THE TOWNSHIP OF RODNEY.

We have been favored with the details of one of the strangest cases of which we ever heard, and one which is sure to excite a good deal of interest among medical men. The particulars of the cases are given below:

It seems that about two years since a daughter of Mr. Richard Clare, Caroline by name, and then 17 years of age, living on lot 25, in the 2nd concession of Rodney, was taken ill. Her disease could not be correctly diagnosed, and had many peculiar features. Her appetite fell off, and she lost flesh till from a strapping girl of 130 pounds weight she barely weighed 87 pounds. There did not seem to be any organic complaint. The bodily functions were not impaired, and although she ate less than formerly, the falling off in this respect was not such as in itself would alarm her friends. After the lapse of a few months she took to her bed. Then it was that a change occurred in her mental condition. Formerly she was noted rather for the lack of conversational powers, but now fits or spasms would come over her, on the passing away of which her eyes would become set and glazed, her body almost rigid, and while in that state she would discourse eloquently, and give vivid descriptions of far-off scenes, far exceeding in their beauty anything which she had ever seen or presumably ever read of. On the passing away of this state she exhibited a great degree of lassitude and indisposition to move, and was taciturn and surly in reply to any questions. This continued till about a month since, when an extraordinary change occurred. The girl, although still not gaining flesh, appeared to rally. She became light-hearted and gay, and her friends anticipated an early release for her from the room to which she had been confined so long. Their expectations were not vain, for she is now about the house apparently as well bodily as ever. But a most remarkable development has taken place. She is constantly giving off electrical discharges, and seems to be a perfect battery. A person, unless possessed of the very strongest nerves, cannot shake hands with her, nor can anyone place his hand in a pail of water with hers. By joining hands she can send a sharp shock through fifteen or twenty people in a room, and she possesses all the attraction of a magnet. If she attempts to pick up a knife the blade will jump into her hand, and a paper of needles will hang suspended from one of her fingers. So strangely developed is this electrical power that she cannot release from her touch any article of steel which she may have taken up. The only method yet found is for a second party to take hold of the article and pull while the girl strokes her own arm vigorously, from the wrist upwards. On her entering the room a perceptible influence seizes hold of all others, and while some are affected to sleepiness, others are ill and fidgety till they leave, and even for a considerable time afterwards. A sleeping babe will wake up with a start at her approach, but with a stroke of her hand she can at once coax it to slumber again. Animals also are subject to her influence, and a pet dog of the household will be for hours at her feet as motionless as in death. A curious part of the phenomena is the fact that the electricity can be imparted by her to any article with which she habitually comes in contact. The other day a young er sister, while doing the house work, took up a pair of corsets belonging to Caroline, and on her hand touching the steel she was compelled to drop them with a loud cry and an exclamation to the effect that she had run a needle into her finger. Wooden spoons had to be made for her, as she cannot touch metal. Altogether, the case is a most remarkable one, and attracts scores of visitors to the house of Mr. Clare. Medical men are especially interesting themselves, and it has been stated that Dr. Tye, of Thamesville, will read a paper on the subject at the meeting of the Provincial Medical Association which is to be held in London in the course of this summer. Mr. Clare is the father of a family of seven children, none of whom except Caroline show any abnormal qualities.—London Tiser.

The expenditure of brain power too early or too severely in children often results in physicial debility; the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites exerts a singularly happy effect in such cases.

"SUNDEN COLDS."—At the commencement of a cold, take a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in a little milk and sugar, and the cure is more sudden than the cold.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIPHTHERIA.—Three of my children had Diphtheria in its worst form. Skin dry like parchment, could not swallow. With a feather I applied Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia to the tonsils, rubbed over their throats and chests. Great chunks of stuff came from the throats, the skin became moist, fever left them, and under the almighty care I attribute their cure to Dr. Giles' Liniment.

Local & General

THE MARKET.—There was a tolerably good market this morning, but no change in prices.

THE CELLS.—Three prisoners fell into the hands of the police last night, two of whom were drunks and one for larceny.

WATERLOO.—Yesterday was the 64th anniversary of the battle of Waterloo, and a flag was hoisted over Captain Harrison's armory in honor of the occasion.

A PROTEST.—While administering the rite of confirmation in St. Paul's Church, Kingston, one day last week, Bishop Lewis remained seated. The result is that he has received a stern rebuke from the Churchwardens.

HARD ON DICKIE.—Dickie Lingard's yacht was seized at Brockville last Thursday by the Customs officer. Dickie only returned some empty beer bottles which had contained fluid presents, but failed to report. She had to give $750 bonds and $50 in cash before they allowed her to go to Clayton.

THE DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTE.—The closing exercises of the pupils of the Deaf and Dumb Institute took place last week. Mr. Carlyle being the examiner, which, we understand, were of a most satisfactory nature. The pupils living in the west left for their homes by a special train yesterday morning, in charge of the teachers.

PERSONAL.—The following lay-delegates from Belleville, are attending the Synod of Ontario at Kingston:—St. Thomas, J. J. Lockwood; Christ Church, Edmond J. Sisson; St John's, A. Geen. The following are the clericals:—St. Thomas, J. W. Burke; Christ Church, W. C. Clark; St. John's, R. S. Forneri.

A CHALLENGE.—A team of No. 3 Company, 49th Battalion, Sidney, have challenged a team from the two city companies for a rifle contest to come off on no no day to be named by the city marksmen. The loosing party are to pay the expense of a supper to be held on the evening of the day the match comes off. The challenge has been accepted, but a day has not been fixed as yet.

THE HEAVY-WEIGHT CHAMPIONS.—Mr. Newbury, who is stake-holder for the coming heavy-weight championship, between Hugh McKinnon and D. C. Ross, received the articles of agreement yesterday, together with the first depost of $50 from each man. The second deposit of $100 each will be made on the 27th, and the final deposit of $350 on the 30th.

FIX NO UP.—Mr. Dafoe has a large force of workmen employed in the alterations on the Dafoe House, which are of an extensive character. The frame work for the new Mansard roof is all up, and in a very short time the Dafoe House will present a handsome exterior. Inside, by means of a large force pump, water has been carried to the bath rooms and water closets, which have been newly put in. Mr. Henderson is also having nearly every room in the house papered, painted and is laying new carpets on the floors.

A NOVEL COVERING.—Considerable attention was attracted by the sight of a man taking his noon-day siesta at the west end of the lower bridge to-day. He had lain down and carefully covered himself with a large sheet of paper torn from one of the "bill boards," and appeared to be heartily enjoying the cool shade afforded by his novel covering.

STRAWBERRIES.—Messrs J. & A. Wallace will to-morrow receive a choice lot of fresh strawberries which they will sell at 12 cents a box.

IRON ORE.—The Belleville and North Hastings Railway, nearly every day brings in several cars loaded with iron ore, from the mines in the northern part of the county.

VISITORS.—Several handsome women were observed on our streets to-day, and the bachelors were anxious to know where they hailed from. There was an excursion from Napanee. The Bazar must not copy this.

NEEDS REMEDYING. — Complaints are made that the ticket office at the G. T. R. station is not opened for the sale of tickets for a sufficient length of time before the arrival of trains. To-day at noon several parties came very near being left in consequence.

MENDING HIS WAYS.—Parsons living on and passing over the Kingston Road in this city, are pleased to observe that Mr. Lingham, Chairman of Public Works, has commenced to gravel it and make the rough places smooth. There was no street in the city that needed attention more.

RUNAWAY.—A team of horses, belonging to Frank Countryman, got frightened and ran away on Front Street this morning. When near Geen's drug store the waggon upset, but the driver held on to the lines and succeeded in stopping them. No damage done, except to the waggon, which was badly smashed.

☞Elevated Railroads, Lines of Stages, Places of amusement, Depots and Steamers—all those radiate from, or are situated in, the immediate neighborhood of the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, which is now kept on both plans, the American $2.50 or $3.00, and the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices is conducted by the Grand Central.

☞Consumption, so prevalent and so fatal is dreaded as the great scourge of our race; and yet, in the formative stages, all pulmonary complaints may be readily controlled by using "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers." They will relieve the worst cough in a few minutes, and have a most beneficial influence on the bronchial and pulmonary organs; but they must be used in time. Public speakers and singers will also derive great benefit by using them. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

"O MISCHIEF! THOU ART SWIFT."—When the love-sick Romeo uttered those words he spoke a truism admitted by everybody. What can be swifter than the treacherous attack of disease in whatever form, whether dyspepsia, bronchial, or consumptive. And the mischief done by these fell foes of health is incalculable. Thanks however, to the genius of science we can subdue them by the use of Scotts Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. As a medicine for this life destroying disease it stands at the head of the list.

Brevities.

—The Dafoe House is having a Mansard Roof put on.

—The weather is more like June than March to-day.

—Somebody calls the mosquito the Little Buttercup of Summer.

—The rain last night interfered with the lawn arrangements at Albert College.

—Nature is moulding green apples to fire into the stomachs of rapacious little boys.

—Folks who have been doing nothing all winter are now going off on a summer vacation.

—The small boy may get chilled going in swimming these early days, but he gets warmed up when his mother finds his shirt on wrong side out.

—The water seems to be warm enough for drowning accidents, and all that is needed is the usual carelessness on the part of the boys to fill the papers with items all too soon with sorrow.

Albert University.

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL CONVOCATION.

Owing to the hour at which we each day go to press, we were unable to give more than the programme yesterday.

The City Hall was, as is usual each year, well filled with a very select audience, composed largely of ladies, many of whom had came from a distance. As the procession of the students, professors and trustees of the University filed into the hall and onto the stage, they were applauded by the audience.

Among those present from a distance we observed Dr. Nichol of Montreal, P. V. Dorland, B.A., Newburgh, and several others whose names we could not learn.

Bishop Carman, Chancellor, having made the proclamation, in Latin,

The Rev. Dr. Aylsworth opened the proceedings with prayer.

Dr. Badgley, Registrar, then presented the successful matriculants, nine in number, as follows:—Messrs. J. H. Packham, S. Davis, A. R. Carman, F. Lazier, W. J. Herrington, W. C. Austin, J. C. Drowry, L. E. M. Pomeroy, F. H. Phippin.

The Chancellor having addressed each one of the matriculants, and received a response, then delivered an address to them, as a whole. It had been customary, he said, for the Chancellor to say something to the class in matriculating. If he had anything to say it would simply be to repeat the charge which he had been given to them in Latin. All of them were able to translate that charge, or else they could not have matriculated. He then took each of the sentences in the charge and made the proper application. He exhorted the young men to diligence in their studies, in order that they might attain distinction. There was, he said, no other desire on the part of the Professors than that each one of them should achieve honor and distinction. If they succeeded the laurels would rest upon the brow of the University from which they had graduated. Members of a family should not be bound more closely together than they should be, and he hoped the career they were just entering upon would be crowned with success.

The matriculant prizes and honormen were then presented to the Chancellor by P. V. Dorland, B.A., Principal of the Newburgh High School. In doing so, he said it gave him pleasure, and he congratulated them on having taken prizes thus early in their collegiate career. He took it as an earnest of greater achievements in the future, and exhorted them to drink deep at the fountain of knowledge, and hoped they would always come out as honormen.

The Chancellor also addressed a few words of congratulation, after which they received their prizes from the Registrar.

Matriculant Prizemen.—J. H. Packham, The Senate Prize, Proficiency; F. Lazier, The Holden Prize in English.

Matriculant Honormen:—First class, Mathematics, J. H. Packham. Classics, J. H. Packham, S. Davis. Latin Salutatory, J. H. Packham. English Oration, F. Lazier.

Theses for Degrees were then delivered by the following gentlemen, each occupying about ten minutes, and all of them were beautifully worded and well delivered, and were heartily applauded by the audience:

E. N. Baker, Socialism; M. M. Brown, The Teuton; A. C. Crosby, Sir Isaac Newton; M. H. Davis, Plurality of Worlds; C. Lane, Divination; W. H. Anger, Daimon of Socrates, and Valedictory.

At the conclusion of the theses, the candidates for degrees were presented by the Registrar as follows:

B. A.—Edward Norcliffe Baker, Charles Lane, Matthew Munsell Brown, William Henry Anger, George Stranchon, Matthew Howard Davis, John Burton, Alonzo Cyrus Crosby, James Montgomery Boyd.

M. A.—John Wellington Wright, B. A., M. D., William Pirritte Dyer, B. A., Clk. LL. B.—Dougald Graham, B. C. L. LL. D.—Samuel Barton Burdett, LL. B.

After which came the ceremony of conferring upon the Rev. James Gardiner the degree of D.C.L., which was noticed by the audience with marked applause.

Then followed the presenting of the undergraduate prizemen, which was done by Dr Nichol, of Montreal, whose remarks were of such a nature as to stimulate the successful prizemen to still greater exertions in the future.

The Chancellor also addressed the successful candidates, after which they received their prizes at the hands of the Registrar, The following is the list:—

Junior Sophisters.—J. H. George, the Senate Prize, Proficiency; J. H. George, The President's Prize in Classics; J. H. George, the Bishop's Prize, Logic and Mental Philosophy.

Senior Freshmen.—W. P. Ferguson, the Senate Prize, Proficiency.

The undergraduate honormen were presented by Prof. J. T. Bell, who also delivered an address suitable to the occasion. The list is as follows:

First Class.—Mathematics.—M. H. Davis, Sen. Soph.

Classics.—C. Lane, Sen. Soph.; W. P. Ferguson, Sen. Fresh.; G. Morton, Sen. Fresh.

Modern Languages.—M. M. Brown, Sen. Soph.

Metaphysics.—E. N. Baker, Sen. Soph.; W. H. Anger, Sen. Soph.

Second Class.—Mathematics.—A. C. Crosby, Sen. Soph.

The Medallists were presented by Dr. Jaques, in a very able speech, followed by the Chancellor, and as each of the successful candidates received their medals they were heartily applauded. The following was the list:

Met. Eth. & Civ. Pol. Gold Medal, "Harry Nichol Memorial," E. N. Baker. Classics, Gold Medal, C. Lane.

Modern Languages, Gold Medal, M. M. Brown.

Met. Eth. & Civ. Pol. Silver Medal, W. H. Anger.

The proceedings then came to a close with the singing of the National Anthem and the Benediction.

THE CONVERSAZIONE.

As in former years, there was a very large attendance at the Conversazione. The evening's entertainment was opened by Prof. Wright, in a few well timed remarks. Then came a song by Miss Barr, of Hamilton, which can be safely set down as being by far superior to any ever heard in the College Chapel before. She was vociferously applauded, and responded with an encore. Mr. Hutton was then announced for a recitation, entitled the "Maniac," and the manner in which he delivered it completely captivated the audience. He bids fair to become a famous orator. The next on the programme was a song by Miss Hall, of Rochester, N. Y. The low sweet pathos in which she sung won the admiration of all. She was rapturously encored. The next was an instrumental quartette, but on account of the absence of one of the parties was dispensed with. Miss Barr was again announced for a song, which she delivered in beautiful style, and was again heartily encored. This concluded the evening's indoor entertainment, but before closing Dr. Wright expressed himself so well pleased with Miss Barr's singing that he invited her to sing another of those sweet Scotch songs, which she did in most becoming style, playing her own accompaniment. The Dr. then announced to the audience that they were free to inspect the laboratory, museum, library, &c., at will. At the conclusion of each piece the Oddfellows' Band discoursed sweet music; and all who had the pleasure of hearing it last night declared that they had never heard better music. We need not mention that every thing passed off very successfully, although the rain in the afternoon somewhat dampened the grass; and the committee of management deserve great praise for the manner in which they conducted the whole business. We omitted to mention that the entire building and grounds were brilliantly illuminated, and all unanimously expressed themselves well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—The nomination of Perkins on first ballot by Republican convention yesterday indicates a decided victory for the anti-machine element. Perkins is a partner in S. S. Co., has had considerable experience in public life, and while open to objection, being engaged in transportation, will prove a strong candidate.

CONCORD, June 19.—Opinions adverse to a new trial was announced yesterday in the case of Buzzell convicted for being an accessory to the murder of Miss Sanborn, at Brookfield, 1874. Buzzell's execution is fixed for July 10. An attempt will be made to secure a commutation. Buzzell was previously acquitted of the charge of being the principal.

PHILADELPHIA June 19.—Jas. Daughter, of Frankfort yesterday shot his wife twice and himself three times. Jealousy. The wounds are not serious.

ANSONIA, Conn., June 19.—Chas. Duran ex-Speaker, Conn. House of Representatives, and Member of Congregational Church here, has been put on trial by the church charged with breaking church rules and covenant vows and attempting to break down the church, and writing libelous, untruthful articles for papers. This is the culmination of a long-pending quarrel with a neighbor.

NEW YORK, 19.—Lord Augustus Loftus, formerly British Minister to St. Petersburg, arrived here Tuesday on his way to New South Wales, of which he has been appointed Governor. In an interview with a reporter he says the Nihilist movement in Russia is generally misunderstood. The Nihilists are but an infinitesimal part of the population. They are writers, students and other classes, fairly educated. These oppose the present form of Government. Many other classes are dissatisfied with the prevailing system of bribery and corruption, but they are not Nihilists, though willing Nihilism should bring about a change. The Emperor is kind-hearted, but frequently acts under bad advisement. If he would give the people limited representation in the Government, at least, as far as disbursement of the finances are concerned, social disturbances would be checked. The Emperor approves of such a policy, but the Court fears it would be accepted as a confession of weakness.

Arrival Lord Alcester from Hull.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A London special says:—Weston's wonderful running is a surprise to every one. He made better time up to noon of fourth day than anything accomplished heretofore, beating Rowell's time 81 miles. Betting is now in favor of Weston.

LONDON, 19.—At 15 minutes past three Brown was still on the track walking very slowly, and wearing an elastic supporter on right knee, which had given way. The score stood:—Weston 361; Brown 356½. Weston is going strongly. He says this will be his last performance in London, so he intends to mark it by an endeavor to cover 550 miles.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A special from London says at 4 this p. m. the score stood: Weston, 364; Brown 364.

LONDON, June 19.—Brown rested two hours at a stretch during the night. Weston picked up a considerable distance then running one time two miles without a break. Weston seems hearty and strong, and is going finely. Brown not so strong. His supporters are getting anxious.

BIRKENHEAD, Conn. June 19.—Samuel Johnson, of West Stockbridge, Mass., brakesman, killed by the cars near Sperry.

NEW YORK, 19 a. m., June 19.—Niblo's Theatre is burning.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 19.—Miss Emma Sands, of Essex, Vt., who disappeared from home June 7th, and who was supposed to have been murdered, was found near Smith's basin on a canal boat this morning. She donned male attire at Burlington on Monday and had her hair cut short, since which time she has been tramping over the country, hopelessly insane.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Fire was discovered in the Metropolitan Hotel this a. m. The flames were bursting from the roof extension between the main building and Niblo's Garden. The flames originated in the dining room and spread rapidly to the roof. By 10 the fire was under control. Loss $8,000.

VALLEYFORGE, Pa., June 19.—The ceremonies of relaying the corner stone of "Washington Head Quarters," took place to-day. Many people from abroad were present. The ceremonies were participated in by military from different parts of the State.

HANLAN TO BAIL ON DOMINION DAY.

(Special Cablegram to the Globe.)

LONDON, Wednesday, June 18.

Hanlan sails for Canada on the 1st of July, Dominion Day, by the Inman Line, steamer "City of Chester." He will visit Manchester on June 27th and 28th.

(Associated Press Despatch.)

Hanlan is expected in London shortly.

The Sportsman suggests that those interested in aquatics give him such a reception as would add to the many pleasant memories he will carry away of the treatment accorded him in England.

Supposed Murder.

A WOMAN KILLED AT ARTHUR.

ARTHUR, Ont., June 18.—In the outskirts of this village this morning, about 6 o'clock, a man named George Anticknap is supposed to have struck his wife on the head with an axe, breaking in the skull, from the effects of which the woman died in a few hours. The man disappeared and is now being searched for in the woods. The axe was found covered with hair and blood The man has on two or three previous occasions attempted to commit suicide by hanging, and has been cut down by his wife. Further particulars will be learned at the inquest. Great excitement prevails.

THE NEWS.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are greatly increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or sours. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at 50 cts per bottle

Poisoned.

TWO FAMILIES IN GRENVILLE HAVE BEEN BEREAVED.—DEATH OF ONE OF THE CHILDREN.

MONTREAL June 14.—The poisoning case which came to light last night is the subject of much interest to-day. Two families, that of Daniel Farmans, laborer, aged about 50 years, and Edward Pullan, his son-in-law, aged 25, an employee of the rolling mills of Messrs. Pillow, Hersey & Co., and residing on Young street, on Thursday last were in their usual health and vigor. In the evening Pulan's wife went to the grocery to... evening Pulan's wife went to the grocery store and bought several articles of consumption for next day including one and a half pounds of bacon. She cooked a portion of the latter for her own and her children's supper and observed at the time she placed it in the pan that it was slightly tinged as though with mildew in a small spot at one end. With this exception the meat looked thoroughly fresh and wholesome. She ate a small portion as did also the two little boys, Georges, aged three years, and Willie, aged five. Of the remainder she cooked a portion for her husband's midday meal next day, and gave the remainder to her mother, residing next door. Yesterday morning, after the hust band left for work, Mrs. Polan was seized with illness, experiencing every symptom of sickness at the stomach. Willie was also taken sick and suddenly became worse, dying at eight o'clock last night. Polan himself is in bed, and the grandfather is also ill. The meat has been submitted to public analysis and an inquest is being held.

Ghosts.

Not Col. Ingersoll's "aristocracy of the air," but real human ghosts. Ghosts that were once healthy men and women, but are now simply the "ghosts of what they once were." As we meet them, and inquire the cause of all this change, they repeat the old old story, "a cold" "neglected cough," "catarrh," "overwork," or "dyspepsia," "liver complaints," and "constipation," with unsuccessful physicians and remedies. In offering his Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets for the cure of the above affections, Dr. Pierce does not recommend them as a sure cure in all stages. For if the lungs be half wasted away, or there be a cancerous complication, no physician or medicine can cure. The discovery is, however, an unequalled pectoral and blood-purifier. It speedily cures the most aggravated cough, or cold, and in its early or middle stages, consumption. By correcting and irregularities of the stomach and liver it readily cures blotches pimples, scrofulous ulcers, bunches, or tumors. Hundreds testify that it has restored their health, after eminent physicians had failed. For constipation, use the Pellets. As a local remedy for catarrh, use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. On dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has saved an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints spinal difficulties, pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stops the pain of a burn as soon as applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every description on an and breast.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the name Northrup & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHRUP & LYMAN Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affliction of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration, have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not begun people in the backward of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputation of any pills before the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities no the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY

JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dange ous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system fortifies it against the evil consequences of the duties of life, and when taken in middle or old age, proves a real blessing; and on the approa h of childbirth these pills are truly a boon, as they relieve when given us to confinement; the benefits to be derived are invaluable; they fortify the constitution against the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with comfort to herself and child. In all cases of of Nervous Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fits, or Slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites and Blues, these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution. Full directions is the pamphlet round each package. DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS.

WHY THEY ARE PREFERED TO ALL OTHERS.

BECAUSE they rank foremost among the few great Pianos of the world

BECAUSE they have advanced the standard of excellence several degrees beyond the farthest limits heretofore attained by the most celebrated makers.

BECAUSE their Tone is the purest, sweetest and most sympathetic.

BECAUSE they stand in tune much longer than any other Piano.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nerving of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

The Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63.88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.98 to	$56.90
" 5th "	10.40 "	53.48
" 6th "	17.30 "	46.58
" 7th "	20.73 "	43.15
" 8th "	25.89 "	37.99
" 9th "	36.65 "	27.23

Being a cash reduction of over 57 per cent. The above figures show the advantage of insuring in this Company.

Poetry

Don't Leave the Farm, Boys.

Come boys, I have something to tell you,
Come near, I would whisp r it to—
You are in a hurry to leave the homestead,
Don't be in a hurry to go!
The city has many attractions,
But think of the vices and sins—
Wine-cups in the work a d frolics,
How soon the course downward begins.

You think of the mines of Australia—
They're only to gold what seeds are,
But oh! there is gold on the farm, boys
If only you'll search for it.
The more wills trade is a hazard,
The gr wth every day and the hour—
Better risk the old farm a while longer—
Don't be in a hurry to go!

The great busy West has inducements,
And so has the latest unrest,
But, why not stay on the farm, boys,
Don't be in a hurry to start?
The best are broken every year,
Th y take in their treasures or ns,
All the while found and deception—
Don't be in a hurry to go!

The farm is the safest and surest,
The orchards are loaded to-day,
You're free as the air of the mountains,
And manage it all you survive,
Better stay on the farm a while longer,
Remember you've no long to rise, boys—
Don't be in a hurry to go!

Rock Me to S'eep, Mother.

Backward, turn backward O, time in your flight;
Make me a child again just for to night!
Mother come back from the echoless shore,
Take me again to your heart as of yore.
Kiss from my forehead the furrows of care,
Smooth the few silver threads out of my hair;
Over my slumber your loving watch keep,
Rock me to sleep, mother, rock me to sleep!

Backward flow backward, O wave tide of years!
I am weary of toil, I am weary of tears;
Toiling and moiling in city and street,
Take them all give me my childhood again!
I have grown weary of dust and decay—
Weary of flinging my soul-wealth away,
Weary of sowing for others to reap;
Rock me to sleep, mother, rock me to sleep!

Tired of the hollow, the base, the untrue
Mother, O, mother my heart calls for you!
Many a summer the grass has grown green,
Blossom ed and faded, our fair heritage;
Yet with strong yearning and passion to pain
Long I to clasp your dear presence again.
Come from the silent land whisper and speak—
Rock me to sleep, mother, rock me to sleep!

Over my heart in the days that have flown,
No love like mother love ever has shone;
No other worship abides and endures,
Faithful, unselfish and pure as of yore:
Some like a mother can charm away pain,
From the sick soul and the world weary brain.
Slumber's soft calm o'er my heavy lids creep,
Rock me to sleep, mother, rock me to sleep!

Come, let your brown hair, just lightly sprinkled with gold,
Fall on your shoulders again as of old;
Let it drop over my face, let your arms creep
Shading my weak eyes away from the light;
For with it many-aged shadows once more,
Happy will sing the old songs I sang before,
Lovely, softly its bright golden s ream,
Rock me to sleep, mother, rock me to sleep!

Mother, dear mother! the years have been long
Since last I was hushed by your lullaby song
Sing me that song as you used in the days
When my young life lay dreaming before you;
Changed to your arms in a mystical rest,
With your soft lips kissing my f ce
Never hereafter to wake or to weep;
Rock me to sleep, mother, rock me to sleep!

The Red Cross of England—The Flag of the Brave.

Old England, thy name shall yet warrant thy fame
If the brow of the foeman shall scowl;
Let the Lion be stirred by too daring a word
And beware of his echoing, growl,
We have still the same breed, of the man and the steed
That were nobly our Waterloo wrath,
We have more of the blood that formal Inkerman's flood
When it poured in the whirlpool of death,
And the foeman will find neither coward nor slave
'Neath the Red Cross of England, the Flag of the Brave.

We have jackets of blue, still as dauntless and true
As the tars that our Nelson led on;
Give them room on the main, and they'll show you again
How the Nile and Trafalgar were won.
Let a ball show its teeth, let a blade leave its sheath
To defy the proud strength of our might,
We have iron-mouthed guns, we have steel-hearted sons
That will prove how the Britons can fight,
Our ships and our sailors are lords of the wave
'Neath the Red Cross of England, the flag of the Brave.

Though a fear might arise in our women's bright eyes,
And a sob shake the fearful 'Good bye,'
Yet those women would send lover, brother or friend
To the war-field to conquer or die.
Let the challenge be flung from the braggart's bold tongue
And that challenge will fiercely be met;
And our banner unfurled shall proclaim to the world
That there's life in the land or the wave
'Neath the Red Cross of England, the Flag of Brave

For Quiet Moments.

History has well been pronounced to be philosophy teaching by example. And it is as with history, so may be your pull-sophical theories, your philosophy is frequently such a long time in coming [illegible] and the sum of the [illegible] goodness is a visible philosophy indeed. It did not seem to be worse than he had them. But no man ever lived who had one fault and one only. And that fault multiplied itself like any cryptogamous plant, and swore to beget a large family.

Intemperate Women in England.

In the United States a young man or a young girl going into a drinking bar. It is common in England. In the slums of London a great deal of the drinking is done by women. This kind of promiscuous tippling is said to be pretty well carried on in the lower classes. But our Gladstone, from his school in Rome, would say—and he does it, of course, on high authority—that the drinking of women and girls is a very serious thing. Every second or third drinking shop for women in the streets and their mothers of the worst and most odious class could go out round the corner, like Rosie in "Pinafore," and tipple as well as their poorer sisters. And they are the natives of the provinces to an alarming extent. Mr. Gladstone's famous free trade in wine in public has increased drunkenness among the women of England in that it has created by the facility as a special disease. Every doctor will tell you that the most unknown drinking among women is promoted and extended by enabling women to have wine and spirits at the grocer's or confectioner's, and to order it with their wines and sugar. It is proving a awful influence upon the British female.—[London Letter to N. Y. Times.

A Poor Capital.

Orsini was remarked to Lord Ellenborough that a certain man dying had left £200,000, whereupon he replied: "That's a poor capital to begin the next world with—what a failure we are!" Lord Ellenborough, by the by, died worth £200,000! Is this what we call success? Surely not of the best. What will he do with it? He left it to others? Does he know what they are doing with it? He left it to others? To those who came after, and to the republican [illegible] of the third generation? If any good to the world ever came out of that £200,000 no thanks are due to him. He kept it as long as he could (and left it only because he could not carry it with him). If he had only converted it into something useful, and sent it on ahead, with a note to the blessings of the poor, into the sweet heavenly bank, he would have been wise indeed. But as it is, only the hope of a spendthrift is his influence when he is dead. We don't call him a success for some of these things. He left it and he left it—for others. Ought he to? Is it right? Is it wise? Is it [illegible]? To those who came after, and to the republican [illegible] of the third generation? If any good to the world ever came out of that £200,000 no thanks are due to him. He kept it as long as he could (and left it only because he could not carry it with him). If he had only converted it into something useful, and sent it on ahead, with a note to the blessings of the poor, into the sweet heavenly bank, he would have been wise indeed. The ground of a certain claim brought forth plentifully, and he hired a laborer, and sent him into it. What shall I do because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? And I said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns and build greater; and there will I bestow my fruits and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.—Luke xii. 16-21.

What are Rich Men Doing?

Are they hoarding money for lawyers and children to quarrel over, or midnight graveyard ghouls to be hunted and finally to be rewarded with? Graves have their force, and good men and women have their virtue of a finished life. But a man who sacrifices while he lives, who does good with his means when he can take them, who is the expansion of his business, who now and then expends his capital a little and gives the slice to great benevolences, not only prevents a large measure of litigation, but is entitled to the virtue of a wise and great sacrifice. He spares from himself that he may share with the world. Who can manage a great charity so well as the hand that first created it? Who can so well advise concerning it as the brain that conceived it and the heart that blessed it? We suspect that the recent strifes over great estates, and the uncertainty which overhangs their management and distribution, are going to produce a revolution in the grave of many a man who was good in earlier in life; they are going to make benevolence more of a study; they are going to give attention to it in their vigorous youth, which will make them examples to the world of the beauty of self-denial, and the true means of leaving a legacy of love to posterity. There are vast accumulations of wealth at this moment in all our great centres that ought to be thrown into the better channels. Misery predominates everywhere. The suffering prevail over the strong. As to the future of what a liberal soul leaves behind to children and friends, after a lifetime of good and wise giving to great causes, it will do more, it will do more, reach further, and live longer, than if it were the undivided estate of a clenched hand, and an unsatisfiable. There are cases where a half is more than the whole, and this is one of them.

"Bloomed Out."

One evening I was walking with a sweet little girl, noted for her quaint thoughts and expressions. After a while we were called to the house. Later we returned to enjoy more of the delightful evening out of doors, when suddenly the charming prattler looking up to the heaven, exclaimed, "See how many stars have bloomed out while we were in the house."

The Grateful Tiger.

A tiger had a live dog cruelly thrown into its cage; and though for many very hungry, the usually fierce creature did not touch the trembling little victim. This quietness gave the dog courage, and he began to lick the tiger's eyes, which were sore. This seemed very pleasant to the wild beast, and the dog continued from time to time, till the eyes of the savage animal got well. The tiger from that time took his tiny fourlegged doctor under his patronage, looked upon him kindly, and allowed him to eat what he choose of the food thrown into his cage. Henceforth they lived like bosom friends.

Thus you see even a fierce tiger can be grateful for a kind favor. How much more, then, should children learn to be grateful to their friends for the great favors they have received? When I see boys and girls unfeeling to their parents, who have done and suffered so much for them, I tell them the story of the tiger and the dog, and say: "Children, don't be less grateful to your kind parents than the tiger was to the little dog."

The Earlier the Easier.

An old man one day took a child on his knee, and talked to him about Jesus, and told him to seek the Saviour now and pray to him to love him. The child knew that the old man was not himself a Christian, and felt surprised when he looked up into the old man's face and said: "But why don't you seek God?"

The old man was affected by the question and replied, "Ah, my dear child, I neglected to do so when I was young and now my heart is so hard that I fear I shall never be able."

Ah, my little reader, believe him! "Today if ye will hear his voice harden not your hearts." It will be more difficult to hear to-morrow. And weeks, and months, and years hence, how high and strong a barrier will gradually be rising between you and Christ! Will you not resolve, "I will begin now seek my Saviour?" Listen to the words of Wisdom: "They that seek me early shall find me."

A Christian In Deed.

A few days since a christian woman came into our neighborhood, and entered a house. She went to a house at once infected with scarlet fever, and comforted the poor widow for the loss of her two little girls and watched day and night by the bed of her baby boy till she had brought him safely through the crisis of the disease. She was a professional nurse but she went away again without taking a single cent for her services, or making the slightest display of her Christ-like work.

The story is short. Our neighbor, a worthy Scotch Presbyterian, lost her husband a few years ago, and has since supported her four children by hard work. A month ago scarlet fever invaded her home and prostrated her eldest girl. She watched with him night and day. He had scarcely recovered when the three other children were taken ill, with a malignant type of the disease and within a week she lost her two little girls. One of them was buried while she was compelled to stop at home to [illegible] for the others. Under this long continued burden of anxiety and grief she was almost beside herself and almost exhausted when this good Christian woman made her appearance. She was a perfect stranger to the [illegible] School of Nurses in East 20th Street. We were obliged to send for her because no nurse could be secured in the neighborhood who was willing to brave the frightfully malignant nature of the disease. She was a strong healthy woman whom it was a simple benediction to look at and her gentleness and kindly ways endeared her at once to the poor destitute, afflicted widow, who seemed almost bereft of sympathy. All graduates of this School I am informed receive $20 a week or $3.00 a day, for their services; and she was engaged by the church to which the poor woman belongs with the distinct understanding that she was to receive that amount.

She remained five days and five nights watching by the sick child with the most assiduous care; and when it was no longer necessary for her to remain she refused to take the offer of $15 for her services; My mother is a widow and I know how grateful a little aid in her affairs of has been. I am glad to aid our poor widow in her want and I cannot take pay for my services here. Please give her that $10 or $15 from a friend without mentioning my name. I do not care to have her know but that I was kind.

We can add but with there were more like her. While such lights shine in the world Christianity cannot die; the cross is shown to be divine.

Trailing Skirts and Health.

Few women realize how much of their vitality is consumed in the mere wearing of fashionable clothes. They are accustomed to the burden, and the thought never occurs to them that they could do much more and better work with greater comfort in more simple and bountiful clothing. A distinguished lady physician of the United States, Miss Harriet N. Austin, of Dansville, New York, says on this subject, on which she is very much in earnest:

Society will be better in all its aspects when the dress of women shall no longer be a theme for the ridicule or the criticism of man, because to him it indicates vanity, weakness and dependence, and when he shall see her in this respect as well off as himself. That time may seem very far to the future, but it may be brought a little nearer, by every woman who conscientiously feels its desirability. Every man helps, when in the love of this truth, has the courage to think for herself. I believe that women are just as competent to judge at the head of his growing-up daughter, he has done something. Every woman can do this, and something more; she can defy the mandates of fashion in her own person. There is no harm to one in being singular, if she does it in the spirit of love of the truth and of her fellows. In fact there may be real womanly delicacy in defying the dressmakers. Say to her, at the shocking to my instinct of cleanliness to drag my dress in the dirt; it is wasteful, it is wearisome, it is setting a bad example, for if my silk or cashmere touches the ground, my calico or alpaca of my hired girl will be made quite as long or a little longer. It is a good element in the character of this girl who is thus influenced by me, that she desires to do as she sees the above her do. Being then in some measure responsible for her, I will endeavor to act sensibly, and therefore give you notice that I will never again have a street dress which shall not clear the ground. Can not any woman bearing a character for discretion and good sense in a community, venture to go so far as this? If does not seem far, certainly; yet one who will unanimously persist even in this, through all changes of fashion, will be an exception if she does not find her dressmaker not only, but her neighbors and friends, even her own husband, trying to induce her not to be odd, but to do as other folks do.

From this point of view, we see how desirable it is that a woman who wishes to promote the physical well-being of her convert her husband. She must be very gentle, patient and considerate toward him, praying for him day and night, till he is brought to a knowledge of the truth. With his support she can firmly maintain her position against all comers, without losing the sweetness of her temper or marring the genialness of her relation to them. More than this. Almost any woman whose husband is on her side, and who has a house, and duties to do in it, can in her own house during her hours of work, wear skirts so short that she can go up and down stairs without any trouble to their feet. This is a very great gain. It accustoms the whole family to see how excellent freedom is for her, and it actually will have very large influence toward the preservation of her strength and the prevention of those weaknesses and derangements which make the lives of so many women wretched in the presence of their family responsibilities and duties. There are in these ocsic opportunities for those who are in earnest in the matter, to do something toward educating the people to the idea of a better dress for women. For a beginner or geological specimen, to be carried up to the party, or a boat ride, the obvious propriety and advantage of short skirts would justify any woman, her husband encouraging and sustaining her, in adopting them. Strong as is the sway of fashion, no Lithful soul need feel utterly helpless under it. One may be able to offer but very feeble resistance. Another may be so constituted or so situated as circumstances, as to accomplish much more. Let whoever has it in his or her heart to do something, be assured that whatever influence tends to the enfranchisement of women adds to the redemption of the race.—Lucy of Life.

Women's Christian Temperance Ass'n

OUR CONTRIBUTION.

Killed by Alcohol.

The Harveian Medical Society of London, which was largely instrumental in securing the late inquiry into the causes of baby farming has now instituted an enquiry into the mortality caused by alcohol, and has sent out a large number of forms requesting the experience of recipients in this matter. The following is part of a paper read by Dr. Norman Kerr before this society on February 6th:

When a few years ago, I instituted an enquiry into the influences contributing to the mortality in the practice of several medical friends, it was with the avowed object of demonstrating and exposing the utter falsity of the paradoxical assertion, that the 50,000 drunkards died every year in the United Kingdom. I had not long pursued this line of enquiry before it was made clear to me that there was little if any exaggeration in these temperance statistics; and when asked to present the final results of my investigation to the last Social Science Congress, I was compelled to admit that at least 120,000 of our population annually lost their lives through alcoholic excess—40,000 dying from their own intemperance, and 79,500 from accident, violence, poverty or disease arising from the intemperance of others.

Though proposing to discuss only the direct fatality in persons killed by their own indulgences, it is by no means altogether irrelevant to ask your consideration of the following facts:

1. The Government returns of the sickness and mortality of the European troops forming the Madras army in 1819 show that the percentage of mortality was amongst total abstainers 11.1 per thousand, amongst the careful drinkers 23.1, and amongst the intemperate 44.5. 2. If all drinking,limited and unlimited,be taken into account, and if all our 16,000 practitioners had a similar experience to myself, the records of my own practice point to a minimum annual mortality from alcohol of 200,000. 3. If the opinion expressed by Dr. Richardson, than whom we have no higher authority, that our national vitality would be increased one-third were we a temperate nation, be well founded, we lost in 1876, through alcohol, 227,000 lives. 4. The death rate in the General Section of the United Kingdom Assurance Company, from which drunkards are excluded altogether, being fully 17 per cent. higher in the abstaining Section, this ratio, applied to our whole number of deaths in Great Britain and Ireland, supposing we had no drunkards amongst us,gives a probable annual mortality from what Sir Henry Thompson calls "drinking for short of drunkenness" of more than 117,000.

But to our immediate subject, the deaths caused by the excessive drinking of the "slain by drink." After endeavoring in every possible manner to eliminate the doubtful cases, for which there was no complete evidence, I have been unable to bring the deaths from alcoholic excess below 40,500 That this number is greatly under the truth I have not the slightest. It is quite generally difficult, often impossible, to ascertain the truth as to the habits of the intemperate either from themselves or from their friends, and I have no hesitation in saying the belief that a careful and well-ordered investigation will reveal a fatality from intemperance little, if at all, short of the tee-total tradition of 60,000. Indeed, from a more searching analysis of the causes of recent deaths, I am inclined to believe that even this number will yet be found inadequate to express the whole mortality amongst the victims of personal excess. Not long since, the unconscious husband of a lady dying in the prime of life had to be informed by his clergyman that she was dying from secret dipsomania, the spirits she drank having long been surreptitiously conveyed to her by her own daughter.

In his interesting and valuable paper read before this society, Dr. Morton put the mortality among the intemperate much higher than I had ventured to do. The latest returns I have been able to procure show in England and Wales 510,312 deaths in 1876 ; 93,509 deaths in Ireland in 1877 ; and 76,316 deaths in Scotland in 1878. Therefore, if Dr. Morton's estimate of 89,387 deaths of persons dying from from their own intemperance in England and Wales be extended to embrace the Irish and Scotch returns, there will be a total death roll at all ages of 62,661. Though a certain portion of these deaths occur in very young people, when we recollect that Dr. Morton's returns comprise little more than half their due proportions of deaths in workhouses and no deaths at all in hospitals, we at once see how closely his results correspond with what we have all been accustomed to look upon as the exaggerated figure of 60,000.

Dr. Wakley was of opinion that from 10,000 to 15,000 persons died from hard drinking in London alone every year ; Dr. Lankester held that alcoholic excess accounted for one-tenth of the death rate,i.e. for 68,000 deaths ; while their talented successor in the onerous post of coroner for Central Middlesex, our esteemed associate Dr. Hardwicke, stated at Cheltenham and at our last discussion on the subject here, emphatically declared his belief that the deaths from personal alcoholic excess amounted to much more than 40,000 yearly.

One country coroner has stated that intemperance was, directly or indirectly, the cause of nearly all the cases brought before him ; and another that, during twenty years, excluding inquests held on children (many of these, too, arising from the drinking of mothers) and accidents of collieries, nearly nine-tenths of all the inquests he had held were on the bodies of persons "whose deaths were to be attributed to drinking ;" Dr. Parkes and Sanderson, in their report on the sanitary condition of Liverpool, said that drink and immorality were the two great causes of mortality ; while Dr. Noble, of Manchester, gives it as his deliberate opinion that one-third of our disease is caused by intemperance, and another third by moderate drinking.

The Daily Ontario

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 21.

Dominion Day.

The first day of July in each year has been made by mutual consent and statutory enactment the "natal day" of Canada. As Canadians, therefore, it should appeal to our patriotism and enthusiasm more powerfully than any other recognized holiday. Last year the people of Belleville and vicinity made it memorable by the formal inauguration of our city, and the programme of amusements on that occasion was highly relished by the many thousands of visitors who witnessed the proceedings.

This year, as we have previously announced, there will be equally as interesting a list of sports ; and in the absence of so much excitement attending the inauguration ceremonies, much more satisfaction will be derived from what is exhibited. The athletic contest for the heavy-weight championship of the world, between Chief McKinnon and D. C. Ross, of Baltimore, U. S., will be the finest exhibition of muscular development and science ever witnessed in Canada. These men have a continental reputation as famous athletes, and will show what can be done with heavy weights.

In addition to the above, there will be other amusements, processions, torch-light parades, &c. The whole arrangement is under the supervision and general management of Chief McKinnon, which is a guarantee that everything possible will be done to make the day one of rare attraction. Visitors to Belleville from the country will find more to interest and amuse them on the 1st prox. than on any former occasion.

The Two Pictures.

Not many days ago nearly all the Tory candidates and stump-orators were working, night and day, to convince the people that it would be a grand stroke of economy and retrenchment to turn out the Mowat Government and put in a party led by Messrs. Meredith and Morris. The best evidence to produce in favor of the economy of the latter was the fact that John Sandfield McDonald was economical in his day, and he was supported by a section of the Tories in his time. The people, however, fortunately for them, failed to be convinced that because such a sterling old Reformer was careful of the public funds, the Tory opponents of this year of grace would prove themselves so. As an evidence of the economical ideas of one of these leaders, the following account has just been published of the bill of expense charged by Mr. Morris when Governor of Manitoba, for a short treaty he made with the Indians on the plains. Here is the account charged and actually PAID TO MR. MORRIS :

Transport of Commissioner and party.....	2,000 00
Interpreter employed.....	514 00
Petty disbursements by Commissioners	191 93
Total.....	$14,734 77

One holds his breath as he goes over this little bill of items for one Indian Treaty of which one half our readers never heard.

Compare with this the amount incurred for expenses in connection with a similar treaty by such an extravagant Reformer as Mr. Mackenzie's late Minister of the Interior:

PAID TO MR. LAIRD.

Lieutenant-Governor Laird, Commissioner expenses (from Pelly) to and from Blackfoot Crossing to negotiate treaty in 1877:
Hire and keep of horses, hire of carts,purchase of waggons &c....	$611.43
Supplies for Commissioner and Assistants	86.51
Wages to servants and payments to Indian runners.....	211.00
Sundry petty disbursements.....	54.00
Services of band at treaty.....	50.000
Interpreters.....	105.00
Total.....	$1,117.94

Some of our opponents who were so fond of contrasting figures will do well to present these to the public, that it may be seen how much would have been saved by placing a man like Mr. Morris, the present Tory leader, and the expectant Tory Minister into power. Tory ideas of economy in regard to the payment of others, and in regard to the payment of themselves are quite different things.

Down the Bay.

MR. EDITOR.—I suppose you have many times enjoyed the pleasure of a trip down the beautiful Bay of Quinte, from Belleville to Kingston. At this season of the year, especially, there is much to please the tourist, as the fine agricultural country that borders the narrow and irregular piece of water is dressed in the richest emerald, and the coves and the headlands seem to invite repose.

I wonder some why your delightful Bay has not long ago become a favorite resort for those who yearly go in search of the beautiful in nature, and the pure, life-giving elements so much longed for by the pent-up creatures of our towns and cities. Not only is the scenery imposing and the facilities for recreation and pleasure many, but the bracing atmosphere and clear, blue sky at once infuse new vigor into weary, care-worn bodies.From the Carrying Place to the old Limestone City, too, there are several very agreeable places for transient abode. Trenton, your own beautiful City of the Bay, Picton, Mill Point, Napanee, Northport, Bath, and others of less note are famous for hospitality and good cheer.

To properly enjoy all this, suitable travelling accommodation is necessary, and a list of the fine boats that ply on this Bay will ensure all the most fastidious can desire. The good steamer Hastings, which makes daily trips between Belleville and Kingston, has served my purposes so well I ask you to give her the credit which is her just due. Under the command of genial Capt. Crawford and his polite assistants this boat is and must be a great favorite.Having had considerable experience with such means of travelling I am in a position to bear testimony to the comfort, convenience and pleasure that a trip on the Hastings ensures.

Yours, &c.,
TRAVELLER.

"Warning To Farmers."

We published a few days ago an item under the above heading, clipped from the Napanee Beaver, and are asked to give equal publicity to the following communications to the same paper:

ADOLPHUSTOWN, June 16th, 1879.

Editor Napanee Beaver.

DEAR SIR,—In the Beaver of the 14th inst., is an article headed "Warning to Farmers," which might convey an impression that is not true. I therefore ask you kindly to publish this letter in your next issue.

The only barley shipped from this town ship last fall on the Co-operative system was that which I shipped for a number of farmers in this township and South Fredericksburgh to Oswego on the 27th of November—a cargo of 7,000 bushels—the most of which was No. 3 barley. It was sold in Oswego on the 3rd day of December, and netted the farmers 65½ cents per bushel, all of them getting their money in a few days from the date of sale. This No. 3 barley could not be sold here at any price, not even to those that bought their bright barley, and hence their only and last resort, when navigation was closing, market flat, and speculators on the shelf, the grain was shipped and netted the farmers the sum above mentioned.

I am yours truly,
FRED. MEMBERY.

DEAR SIR.—Allow me to say in reference to the losses by farmers by grain speculations: Too much to lose. The poor unfortunate farmers lost last year by middlemen and speculators between Kingston and Toronto, a very large sum of their honest hard earnings. In Napanee by Sherwood, Diamond and Carscallen about $11,000; at Mill Point by Baker, some $4,000 or $5,000; at Belleville by Baker and Hall, a large sum; at Trenton, by Squire Whittier and Jeffs, about $20,000; at Port Hope by J. B. Salter and another firm in the same place a very large sum indeed, amounting, in all, to about $60,000. This is even worse than the Adolphustown farmers mentioned in your issue last week, who shipped their barley to Oswego and netted only 27 cents per bushel.

Poetics.

BY T. C. DEAN, OF MADOC.

We have received a "Press Edition" of several poems by Mr. T. C. Dean, now of Madoc, and formerly of Belleville, and have hurriedly looked them over. Mr. Dean, we know, possesses many excellent qualities, but we were not aware that he could so justly claim a large share of the "divine afflatus." These specimens of his poetical powers reveal a fullness of thought, richness of fancy, and gift of language that many more pretentious writers might envy. We give the following, by which Mr. Dean's claims to recognition may be judged :—

PERSEVERANCE.

Just as the night died out in all its madness,
And day breathed once again her tales of lore,
A child, whose face bore not a trace of sadness,
Played on the ocean's shore.

she fondled with the sand, and, singing sweetly,
Built fairy castles in her childish glee—
Vain was her work and valueless completely,
For soon the greedy sea

Arose, in all its oft sung pomp and glory,
As if 'twere jealous of this child's glad play,
And, casting up a billow—old and hoary,
Washed all her work away.

No sorrow sought her face, her eyes shone brightly,
As if they scorned a single glance of pain,
As soft she said, while laughing long and lightly :
"I'll build them up again."

Oh ! ye whose daily paths are dark and dreary,
Whose work and strivings have but been in vain,
Shake off the fetters of grief's stupor, weary ;
Arise ! build up again.

GUIDE THOU MY FEET TO-DAY.

My Father, in the east the morning clouds
Roll back as fast the day awakes from sleep ;
The sea-birds meet again in joyous crowds
Along the barren boundary of the deep ;
The world awakes again to care and strife,
And I must soon pursue my weary way :
Oh God ! life's paths are with temptations rife,
Guide Thou my feet to-day.

Guide Thou my feet to-day, old satan's band
Is ever near, I fear to journey more,
Unless, my Father, thou wilt take my hand
And lead me safely to thy promised shore.
Yes, guide my feet, for they are weak and prone
To lead my tempted, faithless soul astray ;
Oh, God ! I dare not further go alone,
Guide Thou my feet to-day.

Guide Thou my feet to-day, and then my cold,
Unfaithful heart shall laugh at care and grief,
And as I tread again earth's barren wold,
Thy face shall be a beacon of relief.
Yes, guide my feet and I will brave life's sea,
As free from sorrow as a child at play ;
Oh, God ! take not Thy tender care from me,
Guide Thou my feet to-day.

Washington Correspondence.

Washington, D. C., June 16 1879.

We may as well stop predicting the adjournment,for this congressional agony seem no nearer an end to-day than it did a week ago. The Republicans of the Senate manifest a disposition to make more opposition than they did in the House to the appropriation bills with the restrictive clauses, and threaten a bitter fight. It is also intimated that the President will veto the judical bill because it prohibits money to supervisors and marshals of elections, and the Army bill, because it interferes, he says, with the executive perogatives. Then the contest will be renewed and bitterer than ever, with the possibility that the Democrats will no longer hesitate to enforce their policy of adjourning without providing for the Government expenses. The President's friends say that should they do so the President would call them together again, within 24 hours, and keep up the fight to the end of the year if necessary.

The greenbackers have gotten their back up because there is a prospect that they may be crowded out of existence between the two other parties. The immediate provocation is the failure of congress to do anything for what they call Financial reform. The National View, the greenback organ here, criticises the work of the present Congress. After reciting the promises made by the Democrats in the campaign of 1878, and charging that those promises were not only not mentioned but entirely ignored by Congress the National View says : "What Democrat talked in 1878 about troops at the polls, 'A free ballot,' 'No supervisors,' and all that sort of froth ? Not me. The Democratic leaders organize the party by the caucus system, and in every case where that the party, as such, shall make tests of party fidelity and loyalty. And what are these test ? The repeal of the Resumption Laws? Not at all. The repeal of the law giving the National Banks the control of the money of the country? Not at all. The income tax? No. The substitution of greenbacks for bank notes ? Not at all. A law making greenbacks legal tender for debts, public and private ? No, sir. None of those measures are made caucus measures, but the juror's test oath law is, and yet this very law was repealed by a Republican Senate of the last Congress, and by it sent to a Democratic House, that had it before its Judiciary Committee for 60 days without making a report for or against it. And this is the party of the people, the party for reform and relief. They assail the Republicans with even more venom as the party of bloated bondholders and monopolists. The trouble is that the Democrats in Maine and Ohio have very nearly absorbed the Greenbackers, and they have slight prospect of doing much as a third party in 1880.

A funny incident occurred at the opening of the Senate the other day. Both parties were holding caucuses at noon, the hour appointed for commencing. Senator Sherman, President pro tem was about to call the Senate to order, and was surprised to find,upon entering the Senate Chamber, that no Senators were present. Thinking, however, the Senators were in the clock rooms, he seated himself in the Vice President's chair, and as he did so Senator Hill of Ga., entered the chamber. Mr. Sherman arose and thumped the desk several times with the gavel, in the belief that Senators would respond from the clock rooms. As they did not respond,the President pro tem, with the eyes of the crowd of auditors in the galleries upon him, felt the awkwardness of his position, and realized that there was only one way out of the difficulty. Looking seriously at Mr. Hill the President pro tem, said in the usual solemn tones of the presiding officer, "The Senator from Georgia will please come to order." The scene was enjoyable to the galleries,for it showed that the usual solemnity of the judicial mind can often furnish an agreeable joke.

Educating the Masses.

At the educational meeting of the Montreal Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada,held in Kingston Thursday night, Rev. Mr. Stafford, who, the Whig says,delivered "the speech of the evening,"said:—

"The world's history for the past three centuries was a protest against general ignorance ; the printer's press, the omnipresent newspaper, the ballot box, Egerton Ryerson and the State of Massachusetts constituted a vindication of the claims of the masses to education. (Applause.) It must be acknowledged that most men will read, that most men think for themselves, and they reach their own conclusions,they vote independently of men or party, and God be praised that they have reached such a goal. (Applause.) For that they might rise and sing the doxology."

We believe most men do think for themselves, but a good many are a long time reaching their own conclusions. Some vote independently of men or party, and some do not, as every election campaign will testify.

Geo. F. Rowe.

TO BE DIVORCED FROM HIS WIFE.

NEW YORK, June 20.—MRS. Kate Rowe, better known by her professional name of Kate Girard, has brought a suit for divorce from her husband, George Fawcett Rowe. Both the principals are well known to the public, the former as an actress and the latter as the author of 'The Geneva Cross,' and other plays. The parties were married about two years. Miss Girard's counsel says it is a case where both parties are tired of matrimony, and the allegation is that of adultery.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

A COUPLE of American travelers are "doing" Europe in a novel and yet interesting manner, in which they will see phases of European life and character not often discovered by tourists. Starting from London in a sailboat, they crossed the channel to Holland, and sailed up the Rhine to Lake Constance, whence their boat was transferred by rail to Ravensburg. In March they resumed their voyage,descending the Danube to the Black Sea, and sailing from Varna to Constantinople. The next course will be to Greece and the Archipelago.

CAPTAIN BOYTON must look out for his laurels. An inventor is exhibiting at Leavenworth, Kansas, the claims of patent water shoes with which he walks on the water across the Missouri. A few days ago he started from the upper side of the Missouri river bridge, and although the current was running at the rate of fourteen miles an hour, the river was crossed in nine and a half minutes. After resting a few moments he showed the audience how to manage the shoes, and how they could be steered in any direction one wished to go. The shoes were then attached together, making a perfect buoy or life preserver, upon which the occupant could sit or lie with ease or safety.

Casual Remarks.

—Grip's principal cartoon this week has reference to the late championship sculling match on the Tyne. While it is very amusing and ingenious we cannot approve of the spirit that prompts such a display of "high-falutin' bunkum."

—Dr. Talmage of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, is now in London, enjoying a holiday. If not exactly the "lion of the season" at the metropolis, he is a pretty good sized cub, and is receiving marked attention from ecclesiastical and other dignitaries.

THE CELLS.—Six persons lodged in the cells last night, two of whom were prisoners, and four tramps.

CORONATION DAY.—Yesterday was the 41st anniversary of the Coronation of Queen Victoria. Long may she reign.

MASONIC EXCURSION.—The general public can purchase tickets for the Masonic excursion as well as members of the fraternity.

THE MARKET.—There was a very large market this morning, and a considerable quantity of strawberries and early fruit were offered for sale, at reasonable prices.

CHEAP FARES.—Elsewhere will be found an advertisement of cheap fares over the Grand Trunk Railroad, from all stations on the line, for the accommodation of all persons wishing to take a trip on Dominion Day.

THE NEW FERRY.—At the special meeting of the City Council held yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of considering the matter of the running of the new ferry, it was decided that the Council had no right to interfere in the premises.

PURCHASE OF INSOLVENT ESTATE.—The sale of the stock of Mr. Nulty, insolvent, took place yesterday, and was bought by Wm. Paterson & Co., of Toronto. The purchasers are at present engaged in checking the stock and the store will be opened in a few days when great bargains will be given.

BRUSH FACTORY.—The stock in the brush factory, which is to be established at Napanee, has all been taken in that place, and the factory will soon be in operation. The stock consists of 200 shares of $10 each, and an additional $10 per share to go to the patantee, which purchases the patent and exclusive right to sell and manufacture in Canada.

BUN FEED.—The first Tory bun-feed of the season will occurr to-day at Channel Grove. The defeated candidates of Addington, Lennox and Prince Edward Counties will tell their tales of woe into the ears of sympathizing friends as consolation. Our M. P.P., and the member in the lower House for Kingston, will do the necessary crowing.

COME TO BELLEVILLE.—The Whig says there will not be much to amuse the people of Kingston on Dominion Day. Come to Belleville, then, by all means. We will have an excellent programme of sports, &c., and Chief McKinnon will see that the whole is properly carried out. We invite all our neighbors. Come and see how we celebrate Dominion Day.

GREAT CROWD.—A great crowd was in town to-day; many evidently in to talk over the election news. Politics and wool appeared to be the chief topics of conversation. By the by, many of the farmers join us in again requesting some of the Tories to re-publish their last year's articles UPON WOOL. They would like to see them NOW denounce the Government for not protecting this article to help the "poor farmer."

☞ On a public holiday in Summer, what is more to be desired than to get away from the heat and dust of the city, and in some shady spot on the shores of our beautiful bay to spend the day. The opportunity to thus enjoy themselves is to be afforded our citizens by the Bridge St. Methodist Church Sunday School on Dominion Day. The excursionists will be taken by Steamer "Transit" to Thompsons Point. A forty mile excursion for 25 cents.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FORESTERS.—Court Moira, No. 33 will meet in the Workingmen's Temperance Hall on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—The Rev. Rural Dean Bogart will preach in St. John's Church, West Belleville, to-morrow at both morning and evening services.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.—W. H. Campbell, Chief of the Fire Department, has called a meeting of the brigade for Monday evening next, for the consideration of matters connected with the celebration of Dominion Day. The meeting will be held at No. 2 Company's Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m.

WEATHER BULLETIN.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Fresh southerly to westerly winds, partly cloudy continued warm weather with showers at night in some localities.

THE 12TH.—The Orangemen of Lennox and Addington, Hastings, Prince Edward and adjoining counties will celebrate the anniversary of the Order at Mill Point on the 12th of July. It is thought that as many as twenty Lodges will participate in the celebration. A grand parade speeches and music will be part of the programme.

INVITATION.—The Belleville Fire Brigade have received an invitation from Nos. 1 and 2 Companies of Watertown, to visit Watertown on the 4th of July, and take part with them in the celebration of the Glorious Fourth. The invitation will be duly considered at a meeting of the brigade to be held on Monday evening next.

DOMINION DAY.—Already several noted athletes from all parts of Canada have signified their intention of coming to Belleville to take part in the athletic sports on the 1st of July. There will also be a large influx of visitors to witness the contest between Chief McKinnon and D. C. Ross. We would again like to see our streets decorated as on last Dominion Day.

THE HANLAN CARD.—The framing and work on the "Hanlan Card," published by the Canadian Advertising & Publishing Company, of Toronto, referred to in our issue of yesterday, was done by Mr. R. H. Toy, 319 Front Street, Belleville. We are authorized by the Company to say that Mr. Toy's work has given them better satisfaction than any they have had done between Belleville and Toronto.

MRS. VAN COTT.—On Wednesday evening this lady concluded her labors in Hamilton by giving two farewell lectures, the first lasting until 9 p. m., and the second until 11 p. m. At the close of the last lecture a purse of $200 was presented to her. The Spectator says:—Mrs. Van Cott sold a large number of books and photographs, and on the whole her visit to Hamilton appears to have been a financial success.

"GOOD BYE."—How frequently every day is this little phrase used, and yet how few of the many that use it have any notion of its meaning or origin. "Bye," from the Saxon "by," or "bying," means a dwelling, a habitation or home. "Good bye" therefore, means "good home," i. e., may your home be good, happy, pleasant, and of course encircled with all blessings. What parting phrase so appropriate for one we love! What better wish for our dearest and best friends than the old, the sweet, "good bye."

☞ Elevated Railroads, Lines of Stages, Places of amusement Depots and Steamers—all these radiate from, or are situated in, the immediate neighborhood of the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, which is now kept on both plans, the American $2.50 or $3.00, and the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices is conducted by the Grand Central.

☞ Consumption, so prevalent and so fatal as dreaded as the great scourge of our race; and yet, in the formative stages, all pulmonary complaints may be readily controlled by using "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers." They will relieve the worst cough in a few minutes, and have a most beneficial influence on the bronchial and pulmodary organs; but they must be used in time. Public speakers and singers will also derive great benefit by using them. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

"O MISCHIEF! THOU ART SWIFT."—When the love-sick Romeo uttered those words he spoke a truism admitted by everybody. What can be swifter than the treacherous attack of disease in whatever form, whether dyspeptic, bronchial, or consumptive. And the mischief done by these fell foes of health is incalculable. Thanks however, to the genius of science we can subdue them by the use of Scotts Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. As a medicine for this life destroying disease it stands at the head of the list.

Brevities.

—"Ripe cherries, if you please."

—Strawberries are coming down a little.

—The local Tories have a pic-nic to-day at Channel Grove.

—Smoking is a bad habit. Even Mount Etna has given in up.

—Several changes in the Faculty of Albert University are probable.

—A good many new awnings are being put up by Mr. Chamberlain.

—This is the ecclesiastical month of the year,—Synods, Conferences, &c.

—Hon. O. Mowat and Sir R. J. Cartwright speak at Napanee some day next week.

—The market to-day was as usual. Lots of "green things," and they were not all vegetables, either.

—Beecher says that the mother's heart is the children's school room. Yes; and too many children play "hookey."

The robins are flocking all through the country in immense numbers. This indicates a most tremendous cherry crop.

Mr. Marcus Smith has left for the North-west. He goes to make a survey of the Western division of the Canada Pacific Railway, in order to report in relation thereto.

The Prince Imperial's Death.

THE SAD NEWS CONVEYED TO EUGENIE—SHE LIES SENSELESS FROM NERVOUS PROSTRATION.—THE PRINCE'S HEIR.

LONDON, June 20.—Lord Sidney to-day tenderly notified Empress Eugenie of the death of the Prince. The ex-Empress received the news with an agonized cry, and sank into a senseless stupor. She remains insensible.

Prince Napoleon, who by the death of the Prince Imperial has become the head of the line, is a Democrat in politics, and distasteful to the entire Bonapartist following. He has two sons aged seventeen and fifteen years respectively. The party loyalty may fasten around the name of one of these sons, but for a time Imperial counsels must be distracted, and the possibility of a return of the Empire appear more shadowy than ever.

PARIS, June 20.—Most newspapers deplore the tragic end of the Prince Imperial. Prince Jerome Napoleon is expected to arrive here to-day.

The Gazette de France says:—Before starting for Zululand, the Prince Imperial made his will, appointing Prince Victor the eldest son of Prince Napoleon, his heir.

THE LETELLIER MATTER.

THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT DECLINES TO INTERFERE—THE DECISION TO BE GIVEN ON WEDNESDAY.

(Special Cable Despatch to The Globe.)

LONDON, June 20.

The decision of the Imperial Government in the Letellier case will be given next Wednesday. The feeling in the Colonial Office is against sanctioning the dismissal of Lieutenant-Governor Letellier, but impressed with the idea that this is a constitutional question, they hold that it is not proper for the Government here to deal with the matter. It is assumed as probable that both political parties in Canada might take umbrage at such interference with Canadian internal affairs. Further, it is held that the Canadian Government has constitutional authority to deal with the matter. It is understood that interference with the question will be declined.

Messrs. Langevin and Abbott have taken passages in next Tuesday's steamer.

AN OPPOSITE VIEW FROM ANOTHER SOURCE.

(Associated Press Despatch.)

The statement that the Imperial Government has decided to refer the case of Lieutenant-Governor Letellier back to the Canadian authorities is unauthorized.

TRIED TO MURDER HIS WIFE.

LeRoy Cortright, of Spencer, awoke his wife Friday morning and told her the Lord had commanded him to kill her. Mrs. Cortright had sufficient presence of mind to make no demur, but got permission to go down stairs and see her sick mother before being slaughtered, and once down, she scooted for the nearest neighbors, nimbly pursued by her husband. Assistance was procured and after a severe tussel, Mr. Cortright was secured and placed in durance. He had become suddenly insane from scrofulous catarrh, and is supposed to be incurable. Though we are certain that a faithful use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical discovery and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy would effect a speedy cure. For many years these remedies have been acknowledged as positive specifics for all scrofulous and catarrhal affections.

The News.

—The stock for Napanee brush factory is all subscribed.

—Crops damaged in Victoria and Madawaska, N. B, by frost.

—The corner stone of the Quebec Y. M. C. A building laid last night.

—St. John Police Magistrate has desided that lager beer is intoxicating.

—Ottawa Model School contract has been let at $24. 000 to Mr. J. Lyons.

—The recent half-million Loan by Quebec in New York is to pay off the Q. M. O. and O. contractors.

—Two London youths have been sent for four years to the reformatory for stealing papers from door steps.

—Galena discovered in Frontenac lead mine, one specimen 232½ pounds will be put in Ottawa Museum.

—Montreal Synod disapproves the selection of the Bishop of Fredericton as Metropolitan Bishop of Canada.

—Attrill, residing at Hyde Park, near London, has been invited into a buggy and robbed by its occupants.

—Miss Gault, daughter of Mr. H. Gault, M.P., was married Thursday to Mr John Allan, son of Andrew Allan, Montreal.

—Two or three skeletons have been found round the St. Foye monument at Quebec—probably those of soldiers killed in the battle of St. Foye.

—No troops in Canada, in future to be granted to foreign troops in Canada, and probably Canadian troops will not be permitted to cross the line under arms.

—The resilence of three female religious fanatics in London East was assailed by the neighbors on Wednesday night, and the woman arrested for creating a nuisance.

—The meeting of appraisers at Montreal and the action of the Minister of Customs is likely to result in a removal of complaints that goods were not always appraised alike at different ports of entry.

—The arbitrators, by their decision in the case of Colquhoun v. the town of Berlin, decided that the town has a right to build a road, even though it should be alleged to be injurious to private property.

—Government engineers will visit Toronto to report upon the Credit Valley matter. Sir John A. Macdonald is in favor of giving permission of the company to come into Toronto, but he doubts the value of such permission.

MILLBRIDGE P. O. TUDOR, ONT

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain. At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

JOHN CLARK,

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Delegates from lacrosse clubs throughout the United States last evening formed a national organization. It was resolved to call the organization the "U. S. Lacrosse Amateur Association." Herman Oelrichs was elected President.

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—Smith & Co.'s furniture establishment and Maguire's cigar mould manufactory were burned last night. Loss, $21,000.

LARAMIE CITY, W. T., June 21.—Great interest here over the rich silver mine discovered on rim of North Park. An official assay to-day by territorial assayer certifies the ore to be lead carbonate and to contain 433 ounces of silver per ton. People are rushing here from all around this section.

BERLIN, June 21.—HERR Hoffman, President of the Imperial Chancellory, has laid a statement before the tariff commission, showing increased duties on articles hitherto taxed are expected to produce a revenue of 500,000 marks. Those on articles hitherto free three million.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The Workingmen's Municipal Convention yesterday exonerated Rev. I. S. Callock, nominee for Mayor, of the charges of immoral conduct during his Boston pastorate, by a vote of one hundred and four to one.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The case of John Hope charged with the Manhatten bank robbery, was given to the jury yesterday. At 10 last night the jurors notified the judge that they could not agree, and were locked up for the night.

The French man-of-war Labourbonins arrived here this morning.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 21.—Dr. Clark, editor of Methodist Record, Pittsburg, Pa., is here dangerously ill. Gov. Colquitt is having him cared for at the executive mansion.

PARIS, June 21.—News of the death of Prince Imperial though known in London Thursday evening only reached Paris at 7 Friday morning. The event greatly shocked the public mind, though it doubtless helps to consolidate existing institutions. Many Republicans participate in the general regret at the untimely end of the brave young Prince. Bonapartists are overwhelmed by news of the Prince's death. With the death of the Prince Imperial the last hope is gone from the Bonapartists party. Cassagnac the recognized leader of the Imperialists in his journal LePays, puts the question: "Does the Empire die with the Prince?" He answers "No, there is an heir whom the Prince designed should be his successor—Prince Victor, eldest son of Prince Jerome Napoleon, a youth of warm heart, bright intellect, worthy of us and worthy of France."

LONDON, noon, June 21.—Weston 498 miles. Brown 436.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 21.—A serious collision occurred this morning between the ocean steamships Italy and Canada, in the upper bay. The two steamships left their dock nearly at the same time, and steamed down North River. Before reaching the narrows the Canada ran into the Italy, and disabled her. While backing away from the injured vessel the Canada struck and sunk the English bark Barbarossa lying at anchor. The Canada was compelled to turn up the bay and anchor. Both S. S. were damaged considerably. Not learned if any lives were lost on the sunken bark. Reported the Canada has 4 feet of water in her hold.

LONDON, June 21.—At 3 p. m. Weston 512 miles, Brown 442. Weston was then going as fast is not faster than the time of any contestants in present match and he will probably beat Brown's last record at agricultural Hall, 542 miles. Brown is walking slowly merely persuing to obtain a share of the gate money. His right knee is still very bad.

LONDON, June 21.—Ex-Empress Eugenie swooned when she heard of her son's death and remained insensible for a long time. She rallied somewhat in the p. m., but was unable to see anybody. Many distinguished visitors called and many telegrams of condolence were received from all parts of the world.

PARIS, June 21.—The news of the death of the Prince Imperial was not published in morning papers, and it was late in p.m. before it was generally known. It made a great sensation, and among Bonapartists created a genuine dismay. Prince Victor, who by a political testament succeeds to the titles, is now a student at Lycee, Charlemagne. Even if he is willing to agree to his father's exclusion, it is questionable whether the deceased had power on Bonapartist principle to make such a change. There will also be difficulty on the part of leading Bonapartists to confer with and guide the actions of the young Prince without the consent of his parents. Nevertheless, it is evident the leaders intend to maintain the party organization. Last night at a full meeting of Bonapartists senators and deputies a resolution was adopted, declaring that, though the Prince Imperial is dead, his cause survives, and a succession of Napoleons has not lapsed, and the empire will live. An address of condolence with the ex-Empress Eugenie was drafted, expressing the deepest sympathy. The Ordre, M. Router's organ, makes no political allusion to the death of the Prince Imperial.

LONDON, 21.—Ex-Empress Eugenie is sleepless and depressed. Her private secretary telegraphed the Duchess of Sutherland this morning that she still remained in a semi-conscious condition and it is imperatively necessary to do something to rouse her. The Douchess has accordingly started for Chiselhurst.

5 P. M.—Weston 521; Brown 483.

5:30 P. M.—Weston is going wonderfully. When the band plays he trots at a rate of 5 miles an hour. Brown is merely limping along. Attendance is very scanty. Rowell is among the spectators. 1

The Victory of Faith.

In Sir Edile's on "Unsuspected treasures." I have just read: "Faithful parents may meet wayward children whose repentance in a dying hour has not been spoken with the lips."

An incident related in our ladies prayer-meeting so forcibly shows the truth of these words that I would like to send it to you:

A son of Godly parents and a child of many prayers, wandered away in early manhood from the paths in which his earlier steps were lovingly guided. He seemed wholly indifferent to everything of a religious character. He never attended church, but on summer Sundays would pass nearly the whole day in his boat upon the river with companions as worldly as himself. He was at one time in great danger from drowning. Strong arms rescued him and bore the cold, almost lifeless body to the shore and it was a long time before there was any sign that life still lingered. Then he was carried home and lay unconscious for hours only a feeble flutter at the wrist to keep alive the hope in the hearts of his friends.

And it was then in the midnight stillness, that his mother sat beside his bed, and thinking that his ear was closed to every sound, poured forth her soul to God and blessed and prais d him that in mercy her son was not sent unrepentant to eternity. She prayed in agony that his life might be spared at least till he should seek and find forgiveness. As she prayed the cold hand she held in hers gave a feeble pressure and the eyelids quivered a little but did not lift. It was not until the next day that he looked at his mother and said in feeble tones, "Mother I am saved." from drowning she thought he meant, and replied, "Yes, dear, you are saved, thank God!" Another day of silence passed before strength returned to the young man so that he could speak. And then it was in broken sentences often long resting spells between the words, that he told his remarkable experience.

"Mother I heard you praying; if I had died you would of thought I was in hell; but I am saved." He said that when he had realized that he had lost his hold on the boat the thought came, "Now I am lost, I am going to eternity with all my sins" and then he prayed, "O God wit thou forgive and save me!" A voice seemed clear and distinctly to say, "I will save thee, trust me." He felt that it was the voice of Jesus; he simply trusted and all fear was gone, and he knew nothing more until he heard his mother pleading with God for him; he should have been safe with Jesus mother and you would have mourned me as lost.

Many were there who said this was only an excited imagination and when health returned it would all be forgotten as a dream. They were mistaken. The life so mercifully spared was a consecrated life, and long years of loving activity in the service of the Master have proved that the faith put forth in that hour of peril was a true and loving faith.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

How He Kept Sase Weel.

Doctor Thompson, I hope you're for his text', "Do not at no time wine when it is setting the cup," he charged upon the evil effects of drinking up to the head, heart and purse. As this coming question departed two old cronies, given to taking more than a "wee drap," talked over the sermon.

"Did you hear you, Johnnie?" quoth one.

"Did I hear't? Was ye'ins hear't? I never winked an e'e."

"Weel, weel, what thocht ye o't?

"Ah, deed, Davie, I think he has been a lad in his day, or he couldna ha keen'd sae weel about it; he's been a wicked hand, the minister!"

Strategy of the Heathen Chinee.

In New Zealand, as in California the Chinaman abounds, and there too he has to resort to strategy to make good his position. It is related that in Otago where Scotchmen are a majority of the colonists a contract for grading a road was to be let, and the lowest bid was found to be that of McPherson. Notice was sent to said McPherson to meet the board and complete the contract. In due time they met. Behold McPherson was yellow in hue and wore an unmistakable pigtail.

"Sir," gasped the president, "your name cant be McPherson."

"Alle lighter," cheerfully answered John, "nobody catch um contract in Otago unless he name Mac."

The contract was signed and the Mongolian McPherson did his work as well as if he had really hailed from Glasgow.

Our Father.

A good woman searching out the children of want, one cold day last winter, tried to open a door in the third story of a ragged tenement house, when she heard a little voice say: "Pull the string up high! Pull the string up high!" She looked up and saw the string which, on being pulled, lifted a latch; and she opened the door upon two little, half-naked children all alone. Very cold and pitiful they looked.

"Do you take care of yourselves, little ones?" asked the good woman.

"God takes care of us," said the oldest.

"And are you not cold? No fire on a day like this!"

"Oh! when we are very cold, we creep under the quilt, and I put my arms around Tommy, and Tommy puts his arms around me, and we say, 'Now I lay me,' then we get warm," said the little girl.

"What have you to eat, pray?"

"When granny comes home she fetches us something. Granny says God has got enough; granny calls us God's sparrows and we say, 'Our Father' and 'daily bread' every day. God is our Father."

Tears came into the good woman's eyes. She had a mistrusting spirit, herself; but these two little "sparrows," perched in that cold upper chamber, taught her a sweet lesson of faith and trust that she will never forget.

ELECTRICITY

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING, THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

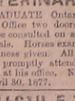
A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!



We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

The ONTARIO LIFE is the only Canadian Life Assurance Company that is

PURELY MUTUAL.

Its Policy-holders own its funds and control its business; its Policy-holders, therefore, are its only Stockholders, and mutually share all benefits, thus receiving Life Assurance at NET COST.

This Company puts by more money every year for the Security of Policy-holders, in proportion to business done, than any other Canadian Company, as its Reserves are based on 4 per cent interest.

Intending Insurers cannot value this too highly as two great advantages result from this safe calculation, viz.:

ABSOLUTE SECURITY FIRST.

Then rapid annual reduction of premium until the Policy becomes self sustaining, which the following example shows—

Wm. Verity, of Exeter, Ont., insured in this Company in 1871 for $2,000, at age 42, premium annually for the first three years $63,88 since which time the profits have reduced the premium as follows:

The 4th Premium by	$ 6.98 to	$56,90

The Arthur Murder Case.

DETAILS OF THE HORRID DEED.

Further particulars of the murder of Mrs. Anticknapp are supplied by the Arthur Enterprise. On Wednesday morning Anticknapp rose as usual and lit the fire. His wife shortly afterwards rose and visited a pasture field in rear of the house to milk the cow. An hour afterwards she was heard moaning by the children, and found in a dying state. She was carried into the house and Drs. Allen and Henderson called in. They found the skull just behind the right ear, literally smashed to pieces, and saw at once that the woman was dying. Upon enquiry as to the cause of the fracture, the doctors were told that the cow had kicked her. They took it for granted that such was the case, and, after doing what they could, returned home. After the affair was over suspicions were excited by the fact that they (the doctors) had not seen Anticknapp, who they were aware possessed the most ungovernable temper. By 8 o'clock the news had spread around town, and every person who knew the fellow were of the same opinion, that he had murdered his wife. The people became infuriated, and commenced moving to the scene of the deed. About a quarter of a mile above the Q. G. & B. R. station they found the members of the household of the unfortunate woman as themselves, and at once instituted a search in the woods and fields in the vicinity, but with a well-known fiend at large not a soul dare venture far from the beaten highway. A party of 50 to 60 men kept up the search till about noon, when he was finally discovered in a thicket of bushes alongside of the railroad track, barefooted. He was taken from his hiding place and escorted to the lock-up, failing to offer the slightest resistance, but in reply to the questions put to him, said that he knew nothing about the affair; that he had his breakfast at home in the morning, and after holding family prayers went out for a walk, and was just having a rest when found. Some of the first ones who visited the place yesterday found an axe in the field close to the fence, about ten feet from the spot where the unfortunate victim was found. Upon examination a few spots of blood were found and several long black hairs corresponding exactly with that of the deceased woman were discovered on the axe. The woman died about 8 o'clock in the morning. It is said Anticknapp was a man of eccentric habits, kept a noosed rope dangling in his barn, and used to annoy his family by trying to hang himself.

The Princess Louise.

A FINE PEN PORTRAIT OF HER ROYAL HIGHNESS.

From the Whitehall Review

The world was looking gloomy enough when the eyes of the Princess Louise first opened upon it. Within a month of the 18th of March on which she was born, "Mr. Smith," alias Louis Philippe, had landed in much stress of weather, in real as well as physical, on the English coast—funded with shaven cheeks and green spectacles, and a head of hair of such magnitude carefully swathed his jaws. Within a month after that day, Louis Napoleon Bonaparte was parading Regent street as a special constable, under orders of his Captain of Division, Major Waller. But to set against the many bitter things for which the year 1848 is notable, Englishman treasures the remembrance that it gave them the most beloved of all Princesses. The salient facts of her life, from her birth down to her departure for Canada last year, are so familiar to everybody that it would be an impertinence to reiterate them here. And equally impertinent would it be to eulogize a character such as hers. One form, it does, however, which must be touched upon, for it is so rare in its highest profection that it may perhaps be called her peculiar characteristic. The charm is that "sweet unconsciousness" which, in the words of Pope, is that it supplies the last crowning grace of beauty and the last crowning grace of genius, supplies also the last crowning grace of an English princess. Consciousness, none of it, has apparently ever troubled the superiority, whether of rank or beauty or genius, does, in these advanced days, all its duties. To the Princess Louise her position is neither a burden, as exaulted rank is to some weak natures, nor a source of secret vainglory, as it often is to others. As she never thinks of it—as it never wearies or vexes her—she is as incapable of affected humility as of hauteur. The splendour of her position invests her with its halo none the less, but it invests her merely as a reflected light from the conscious eyes of others. It is not merely that she does not require any demonstration of the reverence which is her due, but such a demonstration, except in the very smallest form, shirks her. It is this perhaps more than any thing else which makes her name like a note of music in the ears of those who know her. That a charm so delicate as this, however, should be appreciated in circles of art and culture more than anywhere else is but natural. Here there is no cue—high or low, "gentle or simple"—so beloved as she. A born artist herself, the severity of training impossible in a princess was alone needed to give her a distinct and recognized place in pictorial as well as in plastic art. Her portrait of Mr. Motley, the American minister, is alone sufficient to show her gifts in portraiture.

That she should marry such a man as the Marquis of Lorne was in entire accord with the harmony of her life. As the sublimity of snobbery is the denial of a man's claim to esteem on account of his rank, we need not shrink from saying there is no man living with purer and a nobler aspirations than the Governor-General of Canada; and his abilities are equal to the demands which will inevitably be made upon them. Of him it may be said that he has that faith in God and belief in the high duties of man without which rank is a vulgar nuisance—an insult flung in the faces of honest and independent men. That the Princess and her husband will both be highly popular with the Canadians it is difficult to doubt. And, with regard to the Princess, we cannot question that the Canadians will realize the value of the prize they have gained as fully as two Englishmen realize the value of the prize we have for a time lost. They have robbed us of half our sunshine—these Canadians—and they will know how to cherish the "golden" spoil.

"Notwithstanding all the dreadful fog and smoke," a foreigner of eminence once said to us "there are many bright things to be seen in London, but the brightest o all is the Princess Louise's smile. For frankness, for sunniness, and complete geniality, it is—as far as my experience of smiles extends—unique." There was much truth of observation in this, and we told that distinguished foreigner "that he knew a good thing when he saw it." He might have gone on to say that the smile she has to bestow upon him or any of the great personages of Europe, if it differs at all from that with which she greets any struggling artist of genius or deserving man with whom she may be brought into contact differs only in this, that the latter is more frank—if possible—more "sunny," and more genial than the court knows.

The Daily Ontario

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 23.

DEEP and sincere is the general sympathy expressed for the ex-Empress Eugenie in this last great trial and domestic bereavement. It is doubtful whether she ever rallies from the terrible blow.

THE pedestrian match that has just closed in London once more conclusively proves that the swiftest do not always win. Or it proves that endurance and endurances are doubtful qualities to depend upon in a walk of six days. Weston, who has, in this last performance, shown such wonderful powers of endurance, had been repeatedly beaten by those whom he now leaves so far behind, and was considered the poorest "show" in the lot. Success depends entirely upon the physical condition of the person when beginning the contest.

Dr. Bergin, the Parisian.

Our readers have a distinct recollection of this gentleman. He visited East Hastings last winter to help Mr. John White in his election canvass, and at the earnest solicitation of Sir John and the Minister of Customs. Dr. Bergin came to have a talk with the electors of East Hastings generally, and those of Tyendinaga in particular. In this latter municipality the Dr. was expected to accomplish wonders, and perhaps he did. The state of the polls at the close revealed something that was somewhat surprising, if not a little wonderful. But all this is history.

When in East Hastings Dr. Bergin dwelt with lofty contempt upon the corruption and extravagance of the Mackenzie Government. He pictured in forcible rhetoric the danger to the commonwealth by electing such men as favored a policy that was fraught with so much that is evil. Lately, however, we have had an opportunity to judge with what authority that Tory purist spoke on the occasion referred to. His election for Cornwall last September was protested, and last week the trial began before Mr. Justice Armour. Several witnesses were examined, and their testimony was very interesting. We condence a few, which will suffice to show by what means Dr. Darby Bergin occupies a seat in the House of Commons.

One Geo. Crites, who has since received an appointment as Inspector of Weights and Measures, seems to have been the Disburser-General. The evidence shows that money floated about with the utmost recklessness, and dropped down most unexpectedly in p'aces where it was thought it would do most good. Duncan Fraser was given all the whiskey he wanted, which we opine was a good deal; borrowed half a dollar, and received the promise of five dollars, all in return for the slight favor of a ballot cast for Dr. Bergin. He looked on himself in the light of a man who was having a very good day. Samuel Bender sold a sheep for $5. He did not deliver the sheep, but he voted for Darby like a little lamb. David Loucks received $6 on account of a cow that he sold. David voted for the Doctor, and the cow trade is declared off. Wm. Arbuthnott got $4 for his vote. Perhaps his was not as good a vote as the $6 article. However, after getting the money, he failed to deposit his ballot. This should teach Darby the wisdom of making the next batch of votes that he negotiates for C. O. D. Alphonso Runnions sold a heifer for $4, and traded the heifer for his vote. And so it went all through the trial. Cornwall, which so nobly redeemed itself on the 29th of May, will doubtless have an opportunity of electing a member to support the Opposition in the Dominion House.

CASUAL REMARKS.

—Another recount finished, and Lennox remains true to Hawley and Reform. The majority is ten. Pretty close.

—It is understood that there will be a general dismissal of Government officials appointed under the Weights and Measures Act, at the end of this month.

—It is suggested to name the island opposite Toronto after Hanlan, who was born on it, and who has lived there all his life, excepting when rowing his races. A good idea.

—We have to wait until Wednesday for the official publication of the Imperial Government's views of the Letellier affair. If relegated back to Canada, what will Sir John do?

—The Khedive of Egypt, who owes many millions to England and France, and who is not very anxious to meet maturing obligations, is asked by these powers to step down and out, or he will be turned out. He asks time to consider, but will probably accept.

—Edward Thickpenny, who murdered the old woman in Markham Township, has been found "guilty," coupled with a recommendation to mercy. Judge Cameron sentenced him to be hanged on the 12th of September. The sentence will likely be commuted to imprisonment, perhaps in a lunatic asylum.

—About 50 of the employees of the Methodist Book Room, Toronto, waited on the Rev. S. Rose, D.D., at his residence, Friday evening, and presented him with an engrossed address, neatly framed, together with a life-size oil painting of himself and one of Mrs. Rose. The Rev. Dr. replied in suitable terms, after which, short, appropriate addresses were delivered by his sons, J. F. Rose, L.L.B, and Rev. S. P. Rose, and also by Rev. Dr. Potts, Rev. Dr. Dewart, Mr. Warren Kennedy and several of the employees. Rev. Dr. Rose retires from the Book Room after fourteen years connection,

THE CHARGES AGAINST MR. BODWELL.

We said some time ago that the charges brought against Mr. Bowdell, the Superintendent of the Welland Canal, bore every appearance of having been trumped up for the purpose of getting rid of him. Subsequent events have not by any means shaken this hypothesis. Mr. Bodwell's misfortune is that he is a Grit, and his place is wanted for some hungry Tory. Mr. Bodwell was suspended by the Government on the strength of the charges. If these charges are not amply sustained, the Government should take care that additional injustice is not done Mr. Bodwell by depriving him of any part of his salary. We have reason to know that the respectable portion of the Conservative party in St. Catharines does not endorse the attempt to oust Mr. Bodwell.

Dominion Telegraph Stock.

Holders of Dominion Telegraph Stock are congratulating themselves on its increased value, it having gone up quite a bit during the past few days. Some time ago a proposition was made to the effect that the Montreal and Dominion Telegraph Companies should amalgamate or pool their receipts. After the proposition had been discussed, it fell through, the advantage to the Montreal Company being that it had got a look at the Dominion Company's cards. The Dominion Company is reported as having made an arrangement with an American company controlled by Jay Gould. This has sent its stock up, and now there is talk again of an amalgamation of the Montreal and Dominion lines. The shareholders will be best pleased with whatever will most increase their stock. The general public will probably be best pleased if the rival companies remain as they are, for in the business competition between them lies the public assurance of cheap telegraphy, which, in these days of commercial activity, when time is really money, is a very necessary and very important thing.—Telegram.

ESCAPE OF A FORGER.

F. W. Rimer, the forger whom Sergeant Seymour, of the Toronto Police Force, was bringing down from Winnipeg, via the Dawson route, has escaped. The Sergeant tells the following story: He left Winnipeg on the 22nd of May with his prisoner and two guides. The latter accompanied them as far as Saven, which is within seventy miles of Prince Arthur's Landing, and is the terminus of the railway. On the 4th inst. the guides returned. Seymour and Rimer were detained two days at Saven, where the former hired a man to take custody of his prisoner. On the morning of the 7th, at five o'clock, Rimer pretended he was suffering from diarrhœa, and went in the direction of the water-closet of the hotel at which they were staying, the hired man accompanying him. The man returned with the story that Rimer had escaped, when Seymour set out in pursuit, but was put on the wrong scent by one of the employees at the hotel. After discovering that he had been misled, and after telegraphing to various points to intercept the fugitive, he came to the conclusion that he had fled into the bush, which he searched for seven days, and, failing to find him, returned to Toronto disgusted. The Sergeant believes he is still in the bush, and that he will yet be apprehended.

THE CATTLE TRADE.

Referring to the official correspondence respecting the proposition from the Dominion Government that the restrictions on the cattle trade should be relaxed so as to allow western cattle to be shipped to England via Canada, the Marks Lane Express says:—"Whatever confidential arrangements the Privy council authorities may have made, or may be inclined to make, with Sir John Rose, we are quite sure that British farmers are in a mood to look very narrowly into the action of the Privy council in this matter; and not only will the United States Government have to declare a clean bill of health before any change is made in existing regulations, but it will also have to show competent professional authority for such declaration. The interests of foreign traders have hitherto been studied at the expense of our own flocks and herds; but public opinion as well as agricultural opinion is now more than at any previous time in favor of preserving the health of home-bred animals at the expense—it need be—of the entire foreign live cattle traffic. And it is as clear as noonday that if Canada imports United States cattle before that country can be officially, professionably, and satisfactorily declared free from pleuro-pneumonia, cattle from Canadian ports will be slaughtered at our ports of landing as United States now are. No argument in favor of the interests of railway companies, shippers, or others connected with the cattle will find favor here; and it was not a little ridiculous to suppose that a plea based on such grounds that should have weight with the Privy council."

CETEWAYO'S BROTHER.

The correspondent of the London Times, in speaking of the surrender of the Zulu King Cetewayo's youngest brother to the English, says: "In appearance the Mugwende is a low, cunning-looking savage, with a forbidding look about his eyes. He has a tendency to elephantiasis, caused by his weakness for native beer, which it is said, he indulges in to excess. His wives are conspicuous rather by the scanty nature of their costume—viz., a string of fine beads round the loins—than by beauty of person. Their hair is shaved close, except a round patch on the crown of the head, where the hair is gathered into a cone and plastered with red clay.

MARRIAGE is a solemn thing—a choice for life; be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for female complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Buchu and Uva Ursa. STRANGE ADVENTURE OF A PRECOCIOUS COUPLE.—THE GIRL MASQUERADING IN BOY'S APPAREL.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 20.—Shortly before noon to-day, as the Canada Southern train was leaving the Central Depot, passengers and others were surprised to see Specials Wiley and Kief, of the First Precinct, arrest two bright looking boys, who had taken passage on the train. One of the supposed boys was in reality a girl in male attire. The prisoners were marched up to the station house, and Capt. Donahue at once proceeded to investigate the case. The Captain proceeded to question the supposed boy, who promptly admitted her sex. The substance of her statement was that she had been attending public school in Flint, and that the project was arranged between herself and Harry Platters or notes which they wrote to one another. The girl seemed to realize her position, and apparently felt very sorry. Her male companion was next called into the Captain's office and questioned. He stated that his name was Harry Clark, and that his age was 17, and that he resided in Flint Mich. He admitted running away with the girl, and stood in answer to a direct question, that he did not intend to marry her, and could give no very satisfactory reason for the elopement. Last night the adventurous couple took quarters in a boarding-house on Seneca street, and were just leaving the city for St. Thomas, Ont., where the girl has friends, when they were taken into custody. The girl had in her possession $4 in money, and her companion's cash capital consisted of $5.53. Harry intimated that he had got tired of the trip, and intended to return home, even if he had not been arrested. This youthful couple will be returned to their parents much wiser in their brief connubial experience.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

A NEW PEA BUG.—We have been shown a specimen of a new insect pest, whose ravages will probably soon spread through Ontario. In the United States the pea crop has been suffering from a fly or beetle, which is supposed to lay its eggs in the pea blossom, the grub occupying the seed when grown, and there developing into the perfect insect. The specimen shown us came from near Whitby, the pea having a perforation almost through it, and containing the destructive insect. Probably our farmers will have to give up growing peas, as in some parts of the States.—Peterborough Review.

If the Paris Salut is to be believed, taxation by torture is now the mode in Egypt. Those who will not or cannot pay are hanged to palm trees, and unless they pay, or are payed for, are left to die. Germany has addressed a non-political remonstrance to Egypt, stating in plain language her views.

AN American writing from Spain urges the shipment of labor-saving implements there. Spanish farmers plough with the end of a piece of wood about five inches thick, as was done in the middle ages, sowing and reaping machines are unknown and grain is not threshed. Oxen tread it out, and it is winnowed by women, who toss it in the air to scatter the chaff.

The Liberals in Chambly are reported to be jubilant over having gained the strong support of many persons heretofore staunch supporters of Sir John A Macdonald. There is great enthusiasm in the ranks of the party, and a feeling that the candidate of the sans culottes will be handsomely beaten by Mr. Prefontaine on Thursday next. Two-thirds of the English vote in the country will be polled for the Jolly Government.

AMERICAN NOTES.

The Southern country is now full of tramps—negroes who are excluded from steamboats coming up the Mississippi, and are making the exodus on foot.

Natchez, Miss., has built a cotton factory in the past two years, every dollar of the stock being owned at home, and it is said that the return on the investment is now nearly 20 per cent.

The grasshoppers are hatching out in myriads on the plains west of the Missouri river. The train out of Virginia City, Nev., passed through a mile of them on their migrations the other afternoon.

After Tom Sanders, of Decatur, Ala., had dreamed three nights in succession that he could subsist forty days and nights without food, he concluded to keep the fast, but failed at the end of thirty-eight days, when he died.

The Chippewa in northern Wisconsin have recently piloted Charles and James Patrick of Eau Claire to a rich deposit of copper and silver ore, which they had stumbled upon in the dense forest of Barron county, and the discovery has caused much excitement in all that region.

A singular instance of the verification of a dream, occurred in Polk County some days ago. A young daughter of Mr. Hill dreamed one night that she had been burned to death. The next morning she went with her brother into the cornfield to keep the birds from the planted corn. As it was cold they built a fire, and while they were warming themselves the clothes of the girl caught fire. Her little brother tried to extinguish the flames, but could not. She died next day.

—Montreal has this year up to date shipped 89,945 bushels more of grain than during the corresponding period of last year.

—The H. & N. W. Railway office at Milton was entered on Thursday night and the safe blown open—$80 abstracted.

—A verdict of murder against Dr. de Wolf has been returned. Jealousy is said to be at the bottom of the murder.

—A settler has been forcibly ejected at Meadow Lea, Man., by a squatter. Rifles were fired, but no damage was done.

—Farmers going to the Canada Presbyterian Church on Sunday the 15th, inst, at St. Louis de Gonzague, Que., were stopped and assaulted by the Fete Dieu processionists.

—A rise in Montreal ice stock is not likely. The bulk of it is held by very few people, and until these blocks are broken prices must be depressed.

—A Neville family have been committed for trial at Hamilton for procuring, on false pretences, a $1,000 loan from the Anglo-Canadian Mortgage Company.

—Two men employed on the Fredericton post-office building were arrested on suspicion of being the burglars who stole $400 worth of jewellery, &c., from Mr. S. F. Shute.

—John Cain, hotel keeper, Lucan, went to New York with $150, for which he was promised $450. The money was apparently put into a satchel, but it turned out to be brown paper. The swindler is under arrest.

—Mr. B. Higgins, the license inspector of London, has resigned. He explains his failure to make full returns by saying that certain license-holders were allowed to pay in instalments, but the Chamberlain refused to take the money except in bulk.

—Mrs. Mowlds, London, has been committed for trial for kidnapping a child heiress who was left by her mother to the guardianship of one Kydd. The child's half-brothers were kept by Mrs. Mowlds, and one of them brought Effie McVien to the house, when Mrs. Mowlds refused to give her up to Kydd.

—Bella Hood, a woman of weak intellect, was found dead on the doorstep of a shanty occupied by her on the Russel road, near Ottawa. She had all the appearance of being murdered. The jury found that she was enceinte, and that she came to her death from a puncture in the vagina, but how inflicted they could not say.

A ROW AT A PIC-NIC.

A VOLUNTEER COMPANY CHARGES CHICAGO ROUGHS.—SEVERAL MEN SEVERELY WOUNDED.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 22.—The Bohemian Sharpshooter Association numbering twenty, had a pic-nic to-day at Silver Loaf Grove. One sharpshooter had a quarrel with a visitor, who, after being roughly treated, was ejected from the ground. The crowd outside then threw sticks and stones into the enclosure. The lieutenant of the company, F. Ladweic, ordered a charge. The crowd were bayonetted and sabred until they fell back. The company fired three of four volleys. A doz n men were wounded, and three, it is said, have died. The police arrested the whole company on a charge of murder. The company marched under the American flag to the station. The prisoners are now guarded by a heavy detachment of police. It is rumored the Lehr and Wehr Verein will attempt the rescue of the prisoners to-night.

LATER.—The Lehr and Wehr Verein made no effort to release the prisoners. The pic-nic was given by the Bohemian Sunday School. The drunken roughs gave considerable trouble, and finally the sharpshooters were sent for as a protection. The Lieutenant denies that he gave an order to fire, but says after he had cleared the grounds by a bayonet charge there was such a rain of stones and bricks that his men began a desultory fire without orders.

GILES & Co.—GENTS: I have for more than one year prescribed your Liniment with the very best results. I have found it as an application in inflammation of the lungs (pneumonia) or in pleurisy, one of the very best. It penetrates the tissues or parts rapidly. In cases of irregularity of the heart's action depending on nervous irritation, it acts promptly. After being made acquainted with the combination of your Liniment, and seeing its action in so large a number of cases, I do not hesitate to recommend it both to the public and the profession. RETURNED.—The REV. N. R. Willoughby M. A., and the other Methodist clergymen of this city, who have been attending Conference, occupied their respective pulpits yesterday.

CHURCH MATTERS.—The Bishop of Ontario leaves Kingston for Trenton to-morrow, for the purpose of endeavouring to arrange the differences at Frankford and Stirling, which is very desirable.

VANDALISM.—Some person or persons have been amusing themselves by throwing stones through the windows of this office at night. If their names can be learned Mr. Carman will see that due punishment is meted out and the damage done made good.

SMALL POX AT MILL POINT.—There is considerable alarm among the people of Mill Point, over several cases of small-pox that have been discovered in that village. Every precaution is being taken to prevent the disease spreading, and the schools have been prematurely closed for holidays.

NO BACK SEAT.—The Whig notices our references to what Toronto proposes doing when the Vice-Regal party visit that city in September, and says Kingston will take no back seat; or not unless the amount ($50,000) is quadrupled. Even then, our contemporary thinks, the comparison will be against Toronto, taking population into consideration.

WIDOWS AGAIN.—There is a new phase to the case. Information has been received that an investigation has been held by the Christian people of Glasgow into the charges against ex-Monk Widdows, and it has resulted in proving their falsity. On the strength of the result of the enquiries, Widdows was presented with an address at a public meeting and a purse of sovereigns.

MONEY STOLEN.—We understand that sometime on Friday night the house of Mr. Lake, near Albert University, was entered by burglars and considerable money and other articles stolen from the young men, students of the College, who were boarding there. Mr. Lane lost about $50 and a watch, and Mr. Brown, another boarder, quite a sum of money. We have not learned the particulars, nor whether any clue to the robbery has been found.

A SMALL WHALE.—On Friday an agent of Coup's mammoth circus and manager arrived at Kingston per Grand Trunk RR. (Express department) having in charge a small whale, which was caught in the Gulf, and which he purchased at a considerable sum for addition to the monster show. The 'cait' (for such it is, being about 12 feet long and weighing 1200 lbs.) died in transit between Richmond and Montreal. It was shipped from Kingston by the propeller Kincardine for Oswego the same evening.

A FAILURE.—The great Conservative pow-wow, or bun feed, advertised to come off on Saturday last at Channel Grove was a failure. It did not come off owing to the very few who went down on the steamer Hastings. The Kingston News lets the thing down in this way:—The steamer Hastings to-day brought down a number of excursionists from Prince Edward County, the intention being to hold a pic-nic at Channel Grove. It was announced to be under the auspices of the Conservative Association of the County, but we have been informed that it was more of a private enterprise. The pic-nic was abandoned, owing to the comparatively small number who came there.

THE CHASE.—On Saturday night, three prisoners and one tramp occupied cells at the Police Station, and last night there were two prisoners and one tramp.

WEATHER BULLETIN.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate winds, clear to partly cloudy continued hot weather.

TENDER ACCEPTED.—We are pleased to learn that Mr. John Forin of this city has been awarded the contract for the construction of certain works at the Central Prison, Toronto. Mr. Forin left for Toronto this morning to complete his arrangements.

FINE WHEAT.—Mr. D. J. Fairfield, of Thurlow, showed us on Saturday last, a sample of fall wheat measuring 5 ft. 1 inch in length. It was grown on his farm, lots 4 and 5, 5th concession, by Mr. Wesley Parliament, who is working the farm on shares.

PRINCESS LOUISE.—A few days ago we received a copy of the Whitehall Review from London, England, which contained a fine portrait of the Princess Louise, and the very complimentary sketch of her personal charms that appears on the first page of this issue.

REFORM DEMONSTRATION.—The Reformers of Addington will celebrate the great Reform victory, and also the election of Mr. Deroche, by a grand demonstration, at Newburgh, on Thurrday evening next. An invitation is extended to the Reformers of this county to be present.

TROTTING RACES.—As an additional attraction for Dominion Day, there will be trotting races on the Bayside driving Park, commencing at 10:30 a.m. There will be two races open for trotting horses, for a purse of $50, and one for farm and hack horses, for a purse of $30.

A COMPLIMENT.—Mr. T. O'Hagan, Principal of the Separate School of this city, sent a copy of his well-written poem on the Centenary of Thos. Moore, which was read at the celebration here, to the celebrated poet and writer, O. W. Holmes, of Boston. To-day Mr. O'Hagan received a copy of his (Mr. Holmes') poem on the same subject, with the compliments of the author. We congratulate Mr. O'Hagan on possessing such a literary confrere.

On Broadway, New York, the great St. Coughdrop, a prominent feature of even that famous street convenient to all places of interest and noted for its luxurious appointments—is situated the Grand Central Hotel, which is now kept on both plans the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards per day. An elegant Restraunt at moderate prices is conducted by the Grand Central.

For over twenty years "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" have maintained their reputation for curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary diseases. Those suffering or threatened with any of the symptoms of Bronchitis or any of the pulmonary complaints should at once give them a trial. They give almost immediate relief, and if taken in time generally effect a cure. Remember that a common cough or cold if not attended to in time often leads to that destructive and fatal disease consumption. Sold by all druggists and country dealers 25cts per box.

WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—When we hear anybody say that such and such a thing is worth its weight in gold we think they are indulging in hyperbole, and pass the matter with a smile. But numbers of invalids who have once partaken of Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil in combination with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda say they would not be without it for any consideration. And no wonder for in all cases of General Debility or Chronic Coughs, in fact, any pulmonary complaint and consumption it is worth its weight in gold.

BREVITIES.

—This weather is just about O. K.

—There's millions of 'em—strawberries.

—The Dafoe House begins to look nobby.

—St. Thomas' Church approaches completion slowly.

—Many regrets at the resignation of Rev. Dr. Jaques from Albert University.

—Everybody, together with their sisters, and their cousins, and their aunts have been, or are going fishing these days.

—The ice cream and soda season is in full blast, strawberry festivals and picnics are in blossom, excursions are rapidly budding, the N. P. is in force, and yet no move is made towards raising the wages of the average clerk.

—The man who said that "woman never thinks" has found out his mistake. He took his wife to a millinery establishment and showed her two hats and asked her which she thought she would like to have. She thought most plainly of the $50 one.

—Muggins caromed off an orange peel and cushioned on the sidewalk. The plank, not having been relaid off very smoothly, was ornamented with some good sized slivers. Muggins sadly arose, and after a critical examination of his impressibles, decided that rents were growing enormous.

Persons under the operation of Fellows' Hypophosphites should examine their blood under the microscope from time to time, and mark the increase of red and active particles and diminution of the white or dead ones; these observations are interesting and instructive.

A CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.—MRS. Ellen B. Mason, wife of REV. Francis Mason, Tounghoo Birmah, writes:—.....My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, cold chills, burning fever, and sore throat. I counted one morning ten little vesicles in his throat, very white, and his tongue, towards the root, just like a watermelon, full of seeds; the remainder coated as thick as a knife blade. I tried the PAIN-KILLER as a gargle and found it invariably cut off the vesicles, and he raised them up, often covered with blood. He was taken on Sunday; on Wednesday his throat was clear, and his tongue rapidly clearing off. I also used it as a liniment, with castor oil and harishorn, for his neck. It seemed to me a wonderful cure and I can but wish it could be known to the many poor mothers in our land who are losing so many children by this dreadful disease.

WHAT IS THE MATTER.—Your hair looks so dry and dead, it breaks off, and is falling out. You dress it with an alcohol and oil mixture or some well advertised Hair Restorer. The hair is poisoned, it is killed. If you would restore it, cast away those things, go by a bottle of Bearine which can be had at any Druggist, and we will guarantee a change for the better at once.

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

Mr. Bergh will rejoice to learn that Queen Victoria has become a patroness of the Italian society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. In Italy almost every creature that walks and flies has been since time immemorial subject to the most brutal usage. Ball baiting and cock fighting have been favorite pastimes in rural Italy.

DELIBERATE MURDER.

A FATHER KILLS HIS THREE DAUGHTERS.—HE FEARED THEY WOULD BECOME IMBECILE IF THEY LIVED.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., June 22.—John Kemmler, at South Holyoke, yesterday shot his three children, Annie aged six, Ludmilla four, Amy one, because unable to support them. He has been out of work since February. He sent his wife on an errand, and called the eldest child into the house and tried to poison her with cyanide of potassium. She threw up the dose. Kemmler then took the second child into the front bed-room and shot her through the head with a pistol. Then he took Annie to a rear bed-room and shot her in like manner. The youngest girl lay on a bed, and he shot her also behind the ear. He left the house and told a saloon-keeper what he had done, and was arrested. After the arrest he was cool. He said he was ready to let the law take its course. He said he could not support his children. He feared they would grow up and enter houses of prostitution, and thought that they would be happier in heaven. He had planned it for ten days to kill them. He is collected and apparently sane. Mrs. Kemmler is completely overcome.

Critical Condition of the Ex-Empress Eugenie.

(Special by cable to the Mail.)

LONDON, June 21.—The condition of the ex-Empress is regarded as most critical. The stupor into which she sank upon receiving the intelligence of the Prince Imperial's death continues. She rallies occasionally and as the realization of her terrible affliction flashes over her mind she cries out despairingly for her dear son and again relapses into utter unconsciousness.

By Telegraph

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, 23.—Friends of the late Mrs. Hull, who was murdered in her own house went to Boston Saturday and identified certain jewelry found in a pawnbroker's shop there, as that which belonged to Mrs. Hull, and was taken from her house at the time of the murder. It had been pawned by a negro. An arrest is expected immediately.

BOSTON, June 23.—Mrs. Martin Mulke, while walking to Dedham from West Roxbury, last night, fell through a bridge at Islington and was killed. She had been requested to leave the train because she did not pay her fare.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Mary Conners, housekeeper on a canal boat lying at a dock in Jersey City, was found last night in the hold of the vessel badly injured and died in an hour. She stated George Donohue, the captain, had kicked and beat her and had thrown her into the hold. Donohue was jailed. He claims the wounds were caused by accidentally falling into the hold.

The fund for the relief of Archbishop Purcell has been increased largely the past week. Hoped $10,000 will be collected in this city. Gifts are made by rich and poor alike. The Archbishop and Secretary remain here probably two weeks longer.

Considerable excitement among manufactures of silk goods over the extraordinary advance in price of raw silk, owing to short crops.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 23.—A bitter warfare has broken out between liquor sellers and churches. The Christian portion of the community recently began a crusade against the violators of Sunday law, and the Excise Board issued an order for its strict enforcement. The Germans, 200 strong, marched to the City Hall yesterday and demanded an audience with the Mayor and police force and made threats of political rebellion. Their demands were acceded to, and the new order was revoked. Yesterday (Sunday) the law was openly violated. Everywhere great indignation is felt to ward the police board. Its action was condemned in many pulpits yesterday.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

LONDON, June 23.—Sheffield advices say it is a long time since such a feeling of uneasiness prevailed there. Local failures for past week aggregate £200,000.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Pa., June 23.—Wm. Savage, and Iowis Snyder, machinists, while being lowered in the slope of Williamstown colliery this morning, were precipitated to the bottom and instantly killed.

CARTHAGE, Ind., June 23.—Chas. Henly's flouring mills burned. Loss $15,000.

LONDON, June 23.—A telegram from Calloa states that the Peruvian ironclad turret ship Huascar has bombarded Antofagasta, and captured a Chilian transport.

The Government received an anonymous letter Wednesday last giving warning that an attempt would be made in Cheshire to upset R. R. train conveying Queen Victoria and Princess Beatrice from Balmoral to Windsor. Saturday the Railway line was consequently guarded by hundreds of constables. The journey, however, was uneventful. The letter was probably a hoax.

From Morning Papers.

—The Orangemen of the Brant section intend celebrating the 12th of July in Toronto this year.

—Dr. Medcalf, who has for some months past been acting Medical Superintendent of Rockwood Asylum, has been appointed permanently.

—The Canal Commission at St. Catharines has finished its investigation into the management of the Welland Canal. The result will not be known for some time.

—George Fleming, an old resident of Brantford, and at one time proprietor of the Brant House, is dead. Matthew Whitham, another old resident, died on Saturday.

—Dr. Cochran preached the graduate sermon of the Young Ladies' College yesterday evening in Zion Church, Brantford. Tomorrow evening the closing concert in connection with the same institution takes place at Wycklitte Hall.

—The body of a man named Walter Finlayson was found in the canal, opposite Cornwall, on Saturday morning. His coat and hat were lying on the bank near by. He had been drinking Friday night, and a bottle of liquor was found in his pocket.

—Mr. E. B. Morgan, cattle exporter of Oshawa, shipped per steamship Gowina from Bristol, on the 12th of June, four shearling Cotswold rams and 46 shearling ewes, which were selected with great care from Mr. Henry Cole's celebrated flock at Ashbrook, near Cirencester. Mr. Morgan sent out by the same steamer two valuable Exmoor ponies for breeding purposes. Fifty of the Canadian sheep recently exported to the Bristol market by Mr. Morgan made an average of £4.5s.

MILLBROOK P. O. TUDOR, ONT

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—SIRS, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain. At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

A Chinese Woman's Foot.

A French woman has written an entertaining book of travels, in which she tells how she obtained sight of a Chinese woman's foot. Few ever see, not even the husband, the bare foot of a lady; but the authoress, after great effort succeeded, amid the lamentations of the family. The bandage was removed, and the foot exposed to her view. It had been tightly bandaged from infancy, and the toes were doubled under the sole of the foot, producing suppuration.

A Card

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in the South America. Send a self-address envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN Station D, New York City.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical appliances. It contains new medicinal elements which in combination with rubber, possess the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any physician in your own locality will confirm the above statement. For lame back, rheumatism, Female Weakness, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, diseased Kidneys Whooping cough, affections of the heart, and all ills for which porous plasters are used, it is simply the best known remedy. Ask for Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster and take no other. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts. Sent on receipt of price, Seabury & Johnson 21 Platt Street, New York.

SCOTT'S EMULSION PURE COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood; General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at 50 cts per bottle.

A Creed Paymaster

Mr. Wellington, when he was making a collection, said to one of his men in this way: "Take this money to the Lord," adding, "The Lord is a good paymaster." These words made such an impression upon the mind of a little boy who was present, that he got a shilling into the plate, sent, that he got a shilling into the plate. This was the only coin that he possessed. He fully expected that this shilling would soon come back to him, and as time passed on and it did not return, he was much disappointed. So he told his mother what he had put to the Lord, and mother what he had put to the Lord, and he had not been paid him again. He had not been paid him again. "Never mind," replied his mother, "the Lord is a good paymaster."

Twenty years rolled away, and the boy had grown up to be a very rich man, and what is infinitely better, a real Christian. One day he met Mr. Wesley, and reminded him of his words, telling him also how he had acted upon them. "And so," he added, "the Lord is a good paymaster, for I am this day worth twenty thousand pounds, and I trust have the grace of God in my heart."

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stops the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, sores and corns, and wounds of every description on an and breast.

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING, THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholly vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking herbs its name It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco or smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

LECTURE, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

May 5, '79.

When she found out that he was married he declared he would get a divorce. He gave her rich presents, then failed. They went together to Boston. He appropriated her clothes, and went back to Halifax. She followed him to get her clothes, and he pretended to send them to her address by express, but really sent a trunkful of bricks and rubbish.

The Masonic Excursion.

One of the most successful excursions that has ever been gotten up in this city was that of the Masonic fraternity to Campbellford yesterday. Trains was largely due to the novelty of a ride over the Grand Junction. The train composed of ten or sixteen coaches, was pretty well filled when it left here, and at Haydon's Corners, Foxboro, and other places between here, Foxboro, and other places between there were large additions made to the number.

Manitoba.

Manitoba may be seen through different spectacles. Mr. Matthew Fauck, of Logan, weeks ago, returned home last week perfectly disgusted with the country. He says Winnipeg is crowded with idlers, and most of the settlers in the country have poor buildings, some of them being built with sods of earth. If a man can get a living in Ontario, he advises him to stay here.

The Northwest Indians.

The Winnipeg Free Press (10th) says—A party of mounted police arrived in town this morning from Qu'Appelle. They report the Indians in that section as very dissatisfied, but as yet they have given no trouble. They brought a man from Qu'Appelle to Shell Lake, where he is to be tried for rape. They also report another party on the way from Cypress hills with a lunatic named Kokopo, or "the man who walks on his ear," who has been "cutting up dog" out there.

Sheep and Dogs.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, expressing his satisfaction with sheep, gives figures in regard to the profit of his flock for one winter, based on the losses account this item appears: "Lost by dogs and other causes during the year, 15 head." This farmer, like many more, seems to pay a heavy dog tax in the way of sheep losses. The Prairie Farmer is authority for the statement that the department of agriculture reports that the direct losses to sheep owners by the ravages of dogs reach $1,000,000 annually in wool and mutton. The indirect loss in preventing sheep husbandry in many districts, especially the South, and the consequent waste of a large percentage of the grass crop may be probably placed at double this sum annually.

The Apparently Drowned.

An instrument has been invented in France for aiding in the resuscitation of persons apparently drowned, or who from any other cause have been temporarily deprived of animation. It consists of a cylinder of sheet iron large enough to contain the body of any adult person. It is closed at one end, and the inanimate individual is inserted, feet foremost, in the receptacle, as far as the neck, around which there is placed a padded diaphragm, fastened to the cylinder so as to be air-tight. An air pump, attached to an opening in the tube, creates a partial vacuum, and then the outer atmosphere, by its own pressure forces its way into the lungs by the mouth and the nostrils, which are left exposed. By a reverse action of the pump, the air is allowed to reenter the cylinder, and respiration is thereby reestablished. A glass plate inserted in the iron casting enables the operator to watch the movements of the chest which rises and falls as in life, with the working of the pump. The body may be repeated eighteen times in a minute, an exact imitation of natural breathing being thus produced.

What Constitutes a Lady?

Hamerion's definition, as given in his Life of Turner, is as follows:

"A lady is a woman who clearly understands and consistently practises the refinements of a highly civilized existence; and the most real distinction between a lady and a woman who is not a lady, is that one is more civilized than the other, and more determined to preserve the habits of a high civilization, both in her own person and in all those over whom she has authority. These habits are not simply habits of expense; it is cheaper to remain sober than to get drunk, and yet it is more ladylike to be sober. It does not cost more money to speak good English than bad, or to be gentle than rude; yet a lady always, from preference, speaks correctly and has gentle manners. It so happens by the force of circumstances that there are more ladies in the upper classes than in the lower, and that there is a severer public opinion in the upper classes about many things which, taken together, constitute civilization, because it is a fault in rich people (who have such great facilities) not to be clean and cultured and polite, when it may only be a misfortune in poor ones. There is then really such a thing as ladyhood, and it is one of the strongest of civilising influences."

From this definition I infer that it is no derogation from the dignity of a true lady that she works to support herself, or, if married, makes her own clothes, does her own housework, and nurses her children. If "ladyhood is one of the strongest of civilising influences," it must itself be strong and powerful, like the atmosphere, seeming to be nothing, but containing within itself all things.

To Trustees.

COLLECTION OF SCHOOL TAXES.

The powers of trustees in rural school sections in Ontario to levy and collect public school rates were abolished by the school act passed this year. Henceforth rural school trustees must obtain all moneys for public school purposes from the Township Council. The law further directs that by revised School Act, s. 103, cl. 12, that Trustees must make application to the Council to raise the required amount at or before the August meeting of the Council. Trustees, therefore, should before the end of the next month—July—meet and estimate the amount of the application to the Township Council. The application should be in writing. In December or as soon as the taxes are collected, the trustees will give an order to the Secretary-Treasurer for apart or the whole of the amount raised for them by the Township Council. The Treasurer's duties for the disbursement of the school money will, as usual, be given on their own Secretary-Treasurer.

In UNION SCHOOLS SECTIONS.—With regard to Union Schools Sections the law plainly directs that for the purposes of inspection, taxation and borrowing of money, the union school section shall be held to be within the township, town, or village, in which the school house of the union is situate. Hence the clerk of township A. for example, will obtain from the clerks of townships B. & C. as the case may be, the assessment of the portions of Union School sections with B. & C. respectively having school houses situated in A. Then in accordance with the applications of the trustees of the union school sections, and with the equalization of the assessments as made by the Reeves and Inspectors, of which he should be duly notified in time, the clerk will make out the roll for the whole union school sections to be collected entirely by the collector of township A. That is, the collector of A. goes into B. & C. to collect the taxes for union school sections that have their school houses situated in township A.

—HALF YEARLY RETURNS.—The half-yearly returns have been sent to the inspectors and are by this time in the hands of teachers. The number of teaching days in the Public Schools for the half year is Jan. 21, Feb. 20, Mar. 21, April 20, May 22, June 21, total 125, which number is to be used as the divisor in ascertaining the average. Some schools were kept open 21 days in April including Easter Monday, but as that day is a legal holiday in the public schools the attendance on that day should not be included in the aggregate. Each teacher should get his half yearly returns filled as far as possible before Monday the 30th of June, so that on Monday evening he can complete it. By Wednesday morning in most cases it could be signed and sealed by the trustees and posted to the inspector. The columns in the return must be proved by obtaining the same total when added horizontally and perpendicularly. If all the reports for a township are received by the inspector, correctly made out, he can apportion the grant to the different schools of the township during the month of July, but if reports have to be returned for corrections the apportionment may be delayed until late in August. Teachers fill your reports correctly, have them signed and sealed by the trustees, and mail on the 2nd of July.

The Daily Ontario

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 25.

THE Ottawa City Council have been discussing the small-pox, which is prevalent in that city, and devising some better means of protection and suppression. It is a subject that should receive the attention of other civic bodies.

IT turns out that Sir Garnet Wolsely was appointed to the supreme command in South Africa by the War Office without previous consultation with the Duke of Cambridge, who heartily disapproves of the step. The last despatch from Lord Chelmsford determined the action of the War Office.

IT is now quite evident that the Letellier matter will come back to Canada for settlement, and that the Lieutenant-Governor will not be dismissed. The Blues last session made a big fuss and threatened dire things if Letellier was not instantly disposed of, but some time has elapsed since, and it is now hard to say what the Blues will do in case of being finally disappointed.

THE editor of the Montreal Post has been discussing journalism lately, and giving his views of what constitute a "respectable newspaper." He says:—"One can always respect, if they cannot agree with, journals of the Witness stamp, papers that nail their colors to the mast, and vow will them to live and, if necessary, for them to die. An open enemy is always a gallant fellow, and he will give and take hard blows with becoming grace. On many questions the Witness is at one end of the pole and we are at the other, and if we snarl at each other by times, yet we always respect our contemporary for its bold, although often mistaken, opinions. If our contemporary could dismount from that stagey animal, the Protestant horse, there would not be a better journal in the country, but if the Witness chooses to bestride the beast, it is its own business."

THE Ottawa Free Press is responsible for this:—"There is an extraordinary rumor afloat to the effect that, immediately after the swearing in of Sir John Macdonald as a Privy Councillor, the Cabinet will resign, and that the Hon. Mr. Blake will be called upon by His Excellency to form a new Administration. Further, that Mr. Blake will form a Coalition Government, which will not include the Minister of Railways—though other prominent Conservatives will be brought in. It is hardly necessary to say that we attach little credence to a story of this nature, but the fact that it is current in Macdonaldite circles indicates a good deal of interior disturbance, and a feeling of uncertainty regarding the results of developments to be expected in the near future. It is now stated that Sir John and Dr. Tupper will not now leave for England until the arrival of Messrs. Langevin and Abbott."

The Fishery Report.

We have received the annual report of the Commissioner of Fisheries for 1878 and find it, as usual, filled with interesting matter. Mr Whitcher says the Canadian fisheries are still improving in their condition and yield. The value of fish produced in 1877 had reached $12,029,057 and in 1078 it increased to $13,215,679. There are no details for Manitoba and the North-West, but the catch there may be estimated at $40,000. The increase over last year is $1,225,721. The difference is principally in the cod, mackerel, salmon, and lobster fisheries. The exports and imports of fish for the eighteen months preceding the 31st of December last were as follows:—In the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1878, the exports amounted to $6,929,956, being an increase over the preceding year of $1,053,006. About half of the fish so exported were disposed of in the United States market. The imports are valued at $1,500,469, being $66,882 less than the previous year. Nearly half of these fish were imported from the United States. In the six months ending December 31st last the total exports were $4,846,566. The United States took a little more than a third of this amount. The imports are valued at $851,075. Nearly all these imports were from the United States. The total expenditure for the fiscal year 1878 amounted to $95,887, and the revenue to $14,118, and the expenditure for the subsequent six months $48,780. The total expenditures on account of fish culture for the fiscal year amount to $20,083. No new establishments were opened during the year. In the spring of 1878, 27,554,000 young fish were distributed in the waters of the Dominion, and were composed thus: Salmon, 5,141,000, California salmon, 35,000, salmon trout, 658,000, speckled trout, 20,000, white fish, 21,900,000. In the autumn of 1878 the number of verified eggs deposited in the hatching troughs were of salmon 3,312,000, salmon trout, 1,840,000, speckled trout 169,000, and white fish 16,000,000. A very fine map of Baie de Chaleur, showing the salmon fishing stations, accompanies the report. There are also two appendices; the first accompanies the reports of local fishing officers, and the second is the report on fish breeding in the Dominion, which is mainly taken up with a report by Samuel Wilmot, superintendent of fish-breeding establishments. The report furnishes interesting reading, and Mr. Wilmot in summing up his report draws attention to the fact that in a few years the Government has directed attention to this matter seven imposing structures have been erected in which to carry on pisciculture; that 94,000,000 of fish eggs of the salmon family have been collected and laid down in these buildings, and nearly 27,000,000 of these are at the present time far advanced in incubation; 53,000,000 and upwards of young fish have been hatched and distributed in the waters of this country. He concludes by asking, "What mighty results may we not reasonably look forward to realize from the introduction of fish cultivation into Canada when it shall have arrived at its strength of manhood and experience in ripe old age?"

"The Penny Weekly."

This is the title of an eight page, demy size literary paper, published by Hartley & Hynes at Cleveland, Ohio. The junior member of this new publishing firm is Mr. James Hynes, eldest son of W. J. Hynes, Esq., of this city, and for some time connected with the ONTARIO. The initial number of the Penny Weekly before us is well printed and filled with short, entertaing and wholesome miscellaneous reading. For family entertainment we know of no other similar publication superior to it. The firm have been carrying on a very successful job and general printing office at Cleveland for some time, and now venture upon the uncertain sea of journalism. We hope their trim little bark may triumphantly sail a wide ares, always well laden with choice merchandise. Address as above, at 17, 19, and 21, Hickox Street, Cleveland, Oh io.

So Independant!

The Toronto Telegram is an excellent paper. We like it very much. There is always something fresh and spicy about it that makes it of good flavor in our sanctum. But the Telegram is an 'independent' journal, and this means a good deal more than most people imagine. Its independence is not exactly like that of the traditional pig on the ice, for the Telegram has always got plenty of "go" in it. In fact it has a little too much "go." It "goes" for everybody and everything from the first smack of the whip, and then feels "independent" enough to lecture its confreres for doing the same. The 69th N.Y. Regiment has been talked about by nearly every newspaper in Canada lately. The Telegram was one of the first to offer advice and report progress. Its readers were kept posted in what was going on relative to the Montreal St. Patrick's Society and the 69th. Now, that the affair has been quited down, the Telegram ridicules the whole proceedings, and coolly says:—"There was more fuss made over the matter than it was worth." Satan reproving sin!

Political Notes.

—It is a most remarkable fact that the Government are at present advertising for 15,000 tons of steel rails. This rather knocks the bottom out of one of their principal arguments used against the late Government in the recent election.

—Messrs. Mousseau and Caron are in Ottawa, it is presumed, in connection with the Letellier matter. It is stated they are making enquiries of Sir John as to what he intends to do about it. Uneasy lies the head of the wily Premier.

—It is stated that Thomas Steers, jr., of Ottawa, who is well but not over-favorably known, has been appointed to the position of Dominion Emigration Agent at St. Boniface, at a salary of $1,600 a year and expenses paid. This is Steers' reward for services rendered during the past winter in bleeding Conservative members of Parliament and others in order to keep up the weekly distribution of food and prevent unemployed laborers from making a demonstration against the Government. It is by such appointments as the latter that honest Conservatives will lose entire faith in the integrity of their leaders.

That "Warning" Farmers."

We are requested to publish the following letter, a copy of which has been addressed to the Napanee Beaver, in reply to certain communications that have appeared in that journal, and were copied into the ONTARIO:

Editor Napanee Beaver.

DEAR SIR.—Some annonymous scrib ler with the usual hearsay information (which appears to satisfy those who are desirous of injuring business competitors whether they can substantiate the truthfulness of their statements or not) rushes into print under the nom-de-plume of "X," and makes several unjust and incorrect statements relative to the grain dealers and the barley trade of last fall. He says the poor and unfortunate farmers lost by middlemen and speculators between Kingston and Toronto large sums of money of their hard and honest earnings, and in naming over the dealers by whom the farmers lost he mentions that of Baker & Hall of Belleville. I will not charge "X" with wilfully stating an untruth, but will say he mistated the correct position of the affair in regard to us; at least he got the boot on the wrong foot. Instead of the farmers losing a large sum of money by us we paid them ten thousand dollars more for their barley than it was worth. I say "worth," because its worth or value is just what it sells for in the (American) market; and I challenge "X" to name a single farmer to whom we did not pay every dollar for their grain as agreed; and I presume his statements were as correct in regard to the other dealers as they were of us. "X" might have said both consistently and correctly that the grain dealers between Kingston and Toronto paid one quarter of a million of dollars to the farmers last fall more than their barley was worth or more than it was or can be sold for), thus contributing $250,000 directly or indirectly to the coffers of the poor and unfortunate farmers; and yet he ("X") would from selfish motives endeavor to make them dissatisfied. He spoke of shipments and sales made by these "Granger Middlemen," and which will not net the farmers seventy-five cents per bushel, whereas the grain dealers on the Bay of Quinte paid the farmers an average of one dollar per bushel for their barley. So I fail to see the great loss or injury done to them by the grain dealers.

Respectfully yours,
C. E. HALL.

Fishy, Very.

Touching the great hoax perpetrated upon some of the English papers in regard to an alleged discovery whereby sheep and cattle could be put into a trance, frozen, kept in a congealed state for several weeks and then thawed out and brought to life again, a correspondent of the Ottawa Free Press tells a story of fish having been caught, frozen, and afterwards brought back to life by simply being placed in warm water, and without using any drugs at all. He says it is a most singular thing. It certainly is. As a rule, these fish stories are singular things. It has come to this pass, that when a man begins to tell fish stories he is looked upon with suspicion by all right-minded people.—Telegram.

Thickpenny the Murderer.

We stated the other day that, though Edward Thickpenny, the confessed murderer of Mrs. Thompson, an old woman of Markham Township, had been sentenced to death, it was not probable that the sentence would be carried out. Taking all the circumstances connected with the murder into consideration, there does not appear to be the shadow of a doubt that the criminal is either a lunatic or idiot. His conduct from the moment of his arrest until the Judge's sentence was pronounced in Court confirm this belief. Referring to the case yesterday the Telegram says:—"It is not by any means likely that the man Thickpenny, who was sentenced to death the other day, will be hanged. The evidence of the medical experts who were called in to examine him went to show that he was not of sound mind, and the jury expressed an opinion to the same effect in rendering the verdict. The Judge had to sentence him to death as a matter of form, but it is unlikely that the sentence will be carried out. At the same time it must be said that the murder was a most brutal one, and was planned and carried out with inhuman premeditation."

A Melancholy Suicide.

A YOUNG ONTARIO WOMAN SHOOTS HERSELF IN THE NORTHWEST.

Details of a very sad and melancholy suicide noticed in our despatches last week have reached us from the far Northwest. A week or so ago a young man named James McDougall, from the Township of Wellesly, Waterloo County, Ontario, was on his way with his wife and some friends to land he had taken up on the Little Saskatchewan. His wife, who was both young and handsome, exhibited signs of melancholy during the trip and frequently asked her husband to shoot her and end it all. In due time they camped near Hare's Crossing of Little Saskatchewan. Mrs. McDougall still showed signs of depression but no particular notice was taken of it. In the morning McDougall went out to get the horse, and had not proceeded far when he heard a pistol shot, and rushing back found his young wife lying in her blood. She died in a few moments without uttering a word. The unfortunate woman's parents are well to do people of Morningtown Township, County of Perth. An inquest was held at Hare's Crossing, and a verdict returned in accordance with the facts. The body was interred in the very homestead where McDougall had expected to be so happy and prosperous.

CASUAL REMARKS.

—Emerson, Manitoba, wants to be incorporated. A year ago there were scarcely twenty people in the place; now the population is over a thousand.

—The Hamilton Times thinks the numbers on the ballots under the Ontario Act should be done away with.

—Rev. Dr. Hartley, lately M. E. Minister at Ottawa and Napanee, is seeking connection with the Canada Methodist Church.

—A popular street song in England has for its chorus: "For the Tories are up, and Wages are down." It will do very well here.

—London Truth:—The poor fool who recently jumped from the Suspension Bridge has arrived at the dignity of a "Professor."

—The Harbor Commissioners of Toronto are held responsible for shipping accidents in that harbor, owing to the channel not being properly buoyed.

—At one time it was the hope of certain persons that Manitoba would become a second French Province. That expectation is now abandoned, as the French are completely outnumbered by English and other immigrants.

—Mr. Patterson has returned to Paris from his third trip to Winnipeg. He advises no one to go to Manitoba who does not intend to take up land and follow farming for a living. The city of Winnipeg is full of men looking for work.

—A London correspondent says of the recent golden wedding at Berlin that "Queen Victoria had arranged twelve months ago to be present on this occasion, but in consequence of the extraordinary inhospitality with which the Empress Augusta was treated during her recent visit to Windsor, it was plainly intimated that the visit was not desired by the Kaiser or his family."

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman too—
For thousands cry with eager breath,
They saved me from the jaws of death!
All ye ailing give me heed,
'Tis National Pills your system needs.
Immense the rush for these Pills;
Which can't do many woeful ills.

A Scandal.

A YOUNG GIRL SWINDLED AND BETRAYED—DESPICABLE CONDUCT OF A MARRIED MAN—HE IS ARRESTED ON A CHARGE OF LARCENY.

HALIFAX, N. S. June 23.—One of the worst scandals ever exposed in this city has just come to light in the Police Court by preliminary examination of Wm. C. Brennan, a prominent boot and shoe dealer, on the charge of stealing wearing apparel valued at $100, belonging to a young woman named Emma Porter, of Kentville. The evidence so far shows that Brennan induced Miss Porter to come to this city, and when some time afterwards she learned that he was a married man and had a family, he told her that he had good grounds for getting a divorce from his wife, that he would do so, and would marry her. He supplied her with clothes and money and paid her the greatest attention, gave her a gold watch and chain, a diamond ring and numerous other articles. Some three weeks before his failure in November he entrusted her with his watch and chain and a box which he said contained between $3,000 and $4,000. He said he would convert everything he could into cash and go to Boston, marry her and settle down. She packed her clothes and left them with him to express with his. They went to Boston under assumed names, but after being there a few days he ran away and left her. She followed him to Halifax and insisted on getting her clothes. He agreed to have them expressed to her at Boston. The trunks were delivered to the Intercolonial Express Company, but after she had got the trunk back from the express office and substituted a trunk containing bricks, bottles and empty paper shoe boxes. On receipt of this she again came back to Halifax and had him arrested. He was soon liberated on bail and he has tried to compromise the matter, but failing in that threatened to murder her. Brennan's conduct has produced an intense feeling against him.

MARRIAGE is a solemn thing—a choice for life; be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for female complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Buchu and Uva Ursa. It is now extensively prescribed by all respectable physicians. Bright's disease of the kidneys, diabetes etc., may be overcome by Buchu if taken in time. For sale by all druggists in Bellev ille.

The Niagara Falls Tragedy.

MADAME ROLLAND CARRIED OVER HER CATARACT.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 21.—Our citizens were horrified to-day by the enactment of one of those terrible tragedies the list of which has already reached a fearful length. Another victim to the Falls was added. This time the unfortunate being was a woman, and the circumstances of the case show it to be one of the most pitiable that have ever yet occurred. The lady met her death purely by accident, and right before the eyes of her loving husband she was swept on to her fearful death. Mr. A. Rolland and wife, of Paris, the celebrated gun-maker arrived at the Falls on Wednesday. They had been travelling since the French Exposition, had visited Japan, China, and other countries, and were on their way back to their home. They were able to speak that little English. The husband exhibits great ignorance of our language. They took quarters at the Falls House, and they had their meals at Romain's restaurant opposite. This was owned by a Frenchman, and, through his assistance, Rolland and his wife visited all the places of interest, and had become satisfied with hackmen, &c. This morning they were to have left for Philadelphia, from whence they were to sail about Tuesday. Mrs. Rolland just after breakfast, told her husband that she would like to make a farewell visit to Goat Island, as she was greatly pleased with the sights of that locality. He consented and they started for the Island. They passed through it and went clear to the end of the Three Sisters. They walked down to the edge of the river, and were standing on the corner nearest the Horseshoe Falls, which were distant about forty yards. Rolland turned to look up the river and his wife stooped to dip a cup of water from the river, which at this point runs very swiftly. All at once he was startled by an agonizing shriek, and turning around he was thunderstruck at seeing his wife being carried rapidly to the terrible precipice. She disappeared, and just before reaching the brink she came to the surface, and gave one long last and piercing scream. Almost paralyzed with horror Rolland was unable to move for a minute. He quickly betook himself to the hotel, stopping on the way to endeavor to hollhis pistol late to lose whom he met, but no one could understand his utterances, and all immediately passed on, thinking perhaps he was crazy or drunk. He ran rapidly to the hotel, and in the office took his position in front of the clerk, gesticulating wildly and shouting at the top of his voice, Monden Romain, the landlord, succeeded partially in quieting him, when he succeeded in saying:—"My wife's river." After many minutes he told his terrible story in French, wringing his hands and walking up and down the room. No one could do anything with him, and a man kept watch of him to prevent him committing suicide, as he said he would soon follow her. The case has excited the sympathy of all, and everything has been done that is possible to allay his great grief. The woman was 25 years old, and had been married about a year. It is supposed that while dipping she lost her balance, and was instantly swept away from all possible chances of rescue. At last accounts her body had not been recovered.

GILES & CO.—GENTS: I have for more than one year prescribed your Liniment with the very best results. I have found it as an application in inflammation of the lungs (pneumonia) or in pleurisy, one of the very best. It penetrates the tissues or parts rapidly. In cases of irregularity of the heart's action depending on nervous irritation, it acts promptly. After being made acquainted with the combination of your Liniment, and seeing its action in so large a number of cases, I do not hesitate to recommend it both to the public and the profession. Yours truly,

LOCAL & GENERAL

THE CELLS.—Four tramps registered at the Police Station last night.

DOMINION DAY.—Arrangements are being made for an excursion from Campbellford to Belleville on Dominion Day.

REFORM DEMONSTRATION.—The Oldfellows Band leave for Newburg to-night, they having been engaged to play at the Reform Demonstration there to-morrow.

STRIKE ON THE G. J. R.—The workmen employed on the Grand Junction Railway struck yesterday for higher wages. About 150 men were employed but they want $1.25 a day.

☞Fresh Sea Salmon for Friday at the Fish Market, on Market Square. Price 12 cents per pound. Also fresh Lobsters, White Fish and Trout. All fish delivered.

RACES.—On Saturday next races will take place at Bay Side driving Park, for a purse and sweepstake of $50 for the following named horses:—Queen, Factory Girl and Farmer Boy. Also a race for farm and hack horses for a purse of $6.

ENJOYING HIS HOLIDAYS.—Few, if any, of our local yachtsmen extract more realpleasure from their frequent sails on the bay than does Prof. Green, of the Deaf & Dumb Institute. In his trim little Zephyr, a sample of his own handiwork, he spends many delightful hours cruising about these hot days, often alone to manage the well-rigged yacht. He will probably take a run down the river soon with some friends.

ORNAMENTAL.—The Post Office here is to be ornamented with a new patent time table to indicate the time of arrival and departure of mails. The center will be ornamented with a fine face clock with dials to indicate the arrival of mails as well as departures. It is gotten up in exceedingly fine shape, and will contain a limited number of business cards. The work is done by the National P. O. Bulletin Co., of which Mr. R. M. Kellogg is agent.

SCHOOL DRILL.—It is the intention of the Government to have 25 companies of 35 school boys each, 35 companies to be in Ontario, 25 in Quebec, and 15 in the Maritime Provinces, organized for the purpose of receiving military instruction, in connection with the public schools, the boys not to be under 15 years of age. Arms will be furnished by the Government but tunics will have to be supplied by parents or School Boards. Instructors will be sent from Kingston Military College.

WASHED HIS SHIRT.—A seedy looking tramp, whose habiliments were propositioned to the height of the thermometer, concluded yesterday that a bath in the harbor would not hurt his constitution, if it were a novel experience. He was not long in divesting himself of the outward covering, and having "dipped" a few times, picked up what he called a shirt and took a look at it. The idea then occurred to him that the shirt was dirtier than himself, and needed a cleansing. So he gave it a slight rubbing, wrung out the water, slipped it over his back, drew on the old pants, picked up his hat and went on his way a cleaner, if not a happier man.

WARMEST YET.—To-day was the hottest of the season thus far. At noon the thermometer was 92° in the shade.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—The communication from "Vox Populi" came to hand too late for insertion in to-day's issue.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—The steamer Transit will leave Campbell's wharf at 8 o'clock this evening for a two hour's sail on the bay.

H. M. S. PINAFORE.—Mr. Hanwell is endeavoring to make arrangements with Laurent's Pinafore Company for a performance here on Monday evening next. They are said to be the best company on the road.

WEATHER BULLETIN.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate to fresh southwesterly to southeasterly winds, clear to fair hot weather.

THE ATHLETIC SPORTS.—The following athletes, dancers and pipers take part in the games on Dominion Day:—Mathieson, Brodie, Howard and Pipe-Major Smith of Hamilton; Algeo of Stayner; Fullerton and Newton, of Montreal; Peter Duffy, of Oshawa; Anderson, Morrison and Brodie, of Toronto.

☞On Broadway, New York, the great thoroughfare, a prominent feature, I event that famous street convenient to all places of interest and noted for its luxurious appointments —is situated the Grand Central Hotel, which is now kept on both plans the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards per day. An elegant Restaurant at moderate prices is conducted by the Grand Central.

☞For over twenty years "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" have maintained their reputation for curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary diseases. Those suffering or threatened with any of the symptoms of Bronchitis or any of the pulmonary complaints should at once give them a trial. They give almost immediate relief, and if taken in time generally effect a cure. Remember that a common cough or cold if not attended to in time often leads to that destructive and fatal disease consumption. Sold by all druggists and country dealers 25cts per box.

WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—When we hear anybody say that such and such a thing is worth its weight in gold we think they are indulging in hyperbole, and pass the matter with a smile. But numbers of invalids who have once partaken of Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil in combination with the Hhpophosphites of Lime and Soda say they would not be without it for any consideration. And no wonder it is the most of General Debility or Chronic Coughs, in fact, any pulmonary complaint and consumption it is worth its weight in gold.

BREVITIES.

—Terribly hot to-day.

—Is this a dry moon? It is well turned up.

"How sweet is the rose, what a beautiful flower!"

—"Glorious corn weather," said a farmer to-day.

—The Dafoe House tower commences to "boom" up.

—Make up your mind what to do on Dominion Day.

—The strawberry festivals are now in order, as the berries are plentiful.

—The school vacation draws nigh, and then what will we do with the boys.

—The ladies summer costumes contain about a ton of style to the square yard.

—Amateur scullers are showing up. Who knows but Belleville may yet produce a Hanlan?

—Vennor is expected to say something about the weather soon. This heat will thaw him out.

—Two or three strawberry festivals now on the tapis. Take your choice, after paying your money.

—It is urged by the printer with the red nose that some sticks have too much lemonade in them.

—The Iowa Press Association numbering 100 is visiting Winnipeg, where it proposes staying a few days.

—Bull's Island men are congratulating themselves on the prophecy that there would be but few flies this summer.

—There is comfort for spinsters in Scripture, which tells them that Naomi was five hundred and eighty years old when she married. The veterans may still hope.

—A young man, the other day, got married against the wishes of his parents, and, requesting a friend to break it to them, said: "Tell them I am dead, old fellow, and gently work them up to the climax."

—How sweet is the father's effort to soothe his infant prodigy to sleep:—

Hush-a-by baby—
Pa's dear little wonder;
Baby, lie still,
Or he'll spank it by thunder.

The News.

—The household of the Princess Louise has arrived at St. John, N. B.

—Hon. Mr. Masson and Sir A. T. Galt will be in Kingston to-morrow.

—A sturgeon 8½ feet long caught off the Island of Orleans on Sunday.

—London water supply is endangered through the lowness of the river.

—The members of the Presbyterian General Assembly have left Ottawa for home.

—The crops around St. Catharines are looking well. Fruit will be a heavy yield.

—The funeral of the wife of Bishop Bond of Montreal, Monday was largely attended.

—The Ontario and Wellington Field Battery is encamped in the grove in rear of Judge Macdonald's at Guelph.

—The Ottawa correspondent of the suppressed Montreal paper, City Life, is being hunted up by a detective.

—Bishop Fabre left Montreal yesterday morning for Rome, to obtain permission to live outside of his diocese so as to reduce expenses.

—Crops in Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island are much damaged by rain. Damage also feared in some parts of New Brunswick.

—Mr. P. M. Court gives a donation of $5,200 towards a fund of $10,000 required to erect a Catholic Orphan Male Industrial School at St. John. N. B. Bishop Sweeney is organizing the fund.

—The Post-office at Parrsboro', N. S., has been robbed of a registered letter containing $1,000, addressed to the Halifax Banking Company.

—Mr. Fred Mitchell, of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, has been appointed official auditor of Prince Edward Island, vice Mr. Fred. W. Hyndman, resigned.

—Rev. Dr. Sutherland, of Toronto, delivered the charge to five young ministers who were ordained, in connection with the Methodist Conference of the Maritime Provinces, at Halifax Monday night.

—George Smith a youth of 17, has been arrested for attempting to assassinate Israel Atkinson at Sackville, N. B. The youth says he intended to shoot another party, a merchant, who detected him stealing some time ago.

—Grumley, the seconant, and Mr. Crookman, of the N. Y. Herald, had a narrow escape from death in the balloon ascent made from Montreal on Saturday. The balloon ascended with a rapidity beyond their control, and was dragged through bushes at a frightful rate.

—A married shoe dealer named Brennan belonging to Halifax, induced Emma Porter to leave Kentville to live with him. When she found out that he was married he declared he would get a divorce. He gave her rich presents, then failed. They went together to Boston. He appropriated her clothes, and went back to Halifax. She followed him to get her clothes, and he pretended to send them to her address by express, but really sent a trunkful of bricks and rubbish.

The Masonic Excursion.

One of the most successful excursions that has ever been gotten up in this city, was that of the Masonic fraternity to Campbellford yesterday, which was largely due to the novelty of a ride over the Grand Junction. The train composed of ten passengers coaches, was pretty well filled when it left here, and at Hayden's Corner, Foxboro, and other places between here and Stirling, there were large additions made to the number. At the junction with the B. & N. H. R., there was a dozen or more from Madoc got on the train. At Stirling, where there was a holiday in honor of the occasion, the whole population seemed to be bound for Campbellford, but unfortunately the accommodations were not large enough and many had to stay at home. The Stirling Brass Band joined the excursion, with as many others as could pile in, making the cars very uncomfortable from this point forward. Campbellford was not reached until about one o'clock, and the hotels were at once besieged with the hungriest crowd of people they ever had to cater to before, but fortunately ample provision had been made for a large number of people. After dinner a procession took place through the streets, the 15th Battalion and Stirling Bands furnishing the music. Here we wish to say that the Stirling people have a right to feel justly proud of their band, which is under the leadership of Mr Stackler, for although few in number they play well. The procession marched to a grove in the west end of the village where, a strawberry festival was being held when it broke up.

The train did not leave for home until about 7:30 o'clock, and arrived here a little after 9.

As many of our readers have never been to Campbellford a word or two in reference to the village may not be out of place. It is delightfully situated and has some very fine buildings and private residences, and although mechanical operations seemed to be suspended for the day, there was evidence of a large amount of work being done there. The village is divided by the Trent River, which is spanned by a fine iron bridge. Possessing, as it does, one of the finest water powers we have ever seen, we were not surprised at noticing that a large building has just been erected for a cotton mill, as well as a great number of manufacturing establishments along the banks of the river. The place can also boast of as fine hotels as can be found in any village of Canada, the Windsor and Queens. The former is kept by Mr. Blute and the latter by Mr. Adams. Both of these places were well filled by the excursionists, and all came away well satisfied with the treatment received at the hands of the proprietors of these houses. The village can also boast of one of the best weekly journals published in this part of the country, the proprietor of which, Mr. Vosper, is a gentleman who thoroughly understands his business, and has doubtless done much towards the welfare of the village.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

CANADA sold ships to other countries in April, 1878, to the extent of $113,140. Same period this year, nothing. The N. P. is a most lovely institution, clearly.

CHARLESTOWN, S. C., contains about twenty five thousand white people and about thirty-two thousand colored people. For every white person who died three colored people die.

THE New Orleans Picayune says that the average watering place looks best on paper. We are rather glad to hear it, as we intend to visit the average watering place that way this summer.

THE first arrival of new wheat at Baltimore from any source was recorded on Monday. It came from Northumberland County, Virginia. It was a small lot, and sold above the market price, but not at fancy figures.

INTERESTING "Personal" in the New York Herald: "For adoption—the handsomest six weeks old girl baby in America; eminent father; young mother of peerless beauty, pure American blue blood, without a taint; perfectly healthy. Address Family Physician, Herald office."

THE Canadian government have discovered that in order to evade duty on flour American shippers have placed Canadian brands upon American flour. The customs department at Halifax has been instructed to require a Canadian certificate for all flour said to be Canadian imported via the United States.

IF you cannot go to Europe this summer, and yet hanker after the sea, get a sleeping chair on rockers, hang up a large sea piece in front of you, and employ a little colored boy at a nominal figure to flash buckets of water at intervals against your window pain. It might add to your pleasure to take an emetic occasionally, and to bribe a fellow in the room above to ring a bell in a jerky sort of a way, and sing out at intervals, "All swell!"

Leg Broken.

NAPANEE, June 24.—Jacob Loyst, of Adolphustown, one of the cavalry troop accidentally had his right leg broken, between the knee and ankle. The accident occurred about 10:30 this morning on the drill ground, as he was leading his horse. The animal either got frightened or stumbled, striking him with his foot with the above result.

Persons under the operation of Fellows' Hypophosphites should examine their blood under the microscope from time to time, and mark the increase of red and active particles and diminution of the white or dead ones; these observations are interesting and instructive.

A CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.—Mrs. Ellen B. Mason, wife of Rev. Francis Mason, Toughkonbirmah, writes:—.....My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, cold chills, burning fever, and sore throat. I counted one morning ten little vesicles in his throat, very white, and his tongue, towards the root, just like a watermelon, full of seeds; the remainder coated as thick as a knife blade. I tried the PAIN-KILLER as a gargle and found it invariably cut off the vesicles, and he raised them up, often covered with blood. He was taken on Sunday; on Wednesday his throat was clear, and his tongue rapidly clearing off. I also used it as a liniment, with castor oil and hartshorn, for his neck. It seemed like a wonderful cure, and I can but wish it could be known to the many poor mothers in our land who are losing so many children by this dreadful disease.

WHAT IS THE MATTER.—Your hair looks so dry and dead, it breaks off, and is falling out.

You dress it with an alcohol and oil mixture or some well advertised Hair Restorer. The hair is poisoned, it is killed. If you would restore it, cast away these things, go by a bottle of Bearine which can be had at any Druggist and it will guarantee a change for the better at once.

BY TELEGRAPH

MORNING DESPATCHES.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 25.—The old Empire and Main elevators on South side of the Creek were totally destroyed by fire this a. m. They were not full nor and contained no grain.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The Sun's Washington special says the Democrats in Congress are thoroughly demoralized and divided among themselves. They lack leadership. Hardly a Democratic Congressman will venture tonight to express an opinion as to probable outcome of present state of affairs.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Arrived, Wisconsin from Liverpool; Lessing from Hamburg.

AUBURN, N. Y., June 25.—Lyman Hay, convicted in 1875, and sent to Auburn State prison for 20 years for outrage on a young girl, is said to be innocent, as a man named Corwin confessed to Postmaster Hunt, at Meridian that he was the criminal. Corwin has fled to Canada. The case will be presented to the Government immediately. There is a remarkable resemblance between the men, and the girl swore Hay was the one who assaulted her.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The great tower of New York side of East River Bridge was completed yesterday. Ex-Supervisor Ackerman has been indicted for the embezzlement of $13,000, money of New Rochelle, which he confessed he was unable to turn over to his successor.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Chastine Cox, the murderer of Mrs. Hull, was brought to this city this morning. He was taken to the police headquarters, where a large crowd had gathered in expectation of his arrival. Cox looked nervous and glanced from side to side, as if fearing an attack from the crowd.

QUEENSTOWN, June 25.—Arrived The Queen, 7 days, 9 hours and 23 minutes from New York, the fastest time on record.

PARIS, June 25.—The Temps says the insurrection in Algeria is ended. Four thousand insurgents are in the hands of the French.

LONDON, June 25.—Despatch from Simla says a strong Afghan force has left Cabul to pacify tribes in the Bokharkhan district of Tooriktsan.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—In the Senate to day Burnside introduced a joint resolution substantially as follows: Whereas the people of this union for 50 years have adhered to the Monroe doctrine, that the nations of the American continent, by the free and independent condition they have assumed and maintained, are henceforth not to be considered as subjects for future occupation by any European power. Therefore, resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives that the people of these States would not view without serious inquietude any attempt by the Powers of Europe to establish under their protection and domination a ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien, and such action could not be regarded in any other light than as a manifestation of unfriendly disposition towards the U. S. Referred to Committee on Foreign affairs.

CAIRO, 25.—British, French and German Consuls General proceeded after midnight to the palace, and declared to the Khedive their deposition by the Sultan and the despatch of Halim Pasha to Egypt to succeed him was imminent, unless he immediately abdicated. The Khedive in reply again referred the Consuls General to the Sultan.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relief human suffering. I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French or English. Send by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 powers Block, Rochester, N. Y.

The Herted Term—Look Out.

DON'T SIT ON THE GRASS.—The most stubborn case of dysentery which is nothing more or less than inflammation of the rectum, produced not unfrequently by sitting on the grass—may be cured by that most efficient cathartic, Castor Oil. Its soothing and healing properties are wonderful but its nauseatin effects make it impossible for a patient to retain it. To Scott and Bowne the public are indebted for an Emulsion of Castor Oil that is not only palatable but is pronounced by thousands who are using it absolutely agreeable to the palate. No family can afford to be without it through the heated term. Price 25cts a bottle.

A Card

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in the South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN Station D, New York City.

SCOTT'S EMULSION
PURE COD LIVER OIL
WITH
HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly digestible, even by patients in the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and blood-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians unreservedly acknowledge that the rarely superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, relieving the hacking cough, and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all Druggists at 50 cts per bottle.

Orchard Management.

Alex. Hyde, no mean authority, tells his experience with two orchards in the columns of the "Country Gentleman." The first had garden culture for a number of years. The trees grew luxuriantly, and soon began to yield splendid fruit abundantly; but, here and there, a limb would blight; ugly cracks would start between the limbs and trunks; the plough bruised the roots considerably; and occasionally a tree died. He concluded that either the fertilizers he had used were too rank with ammonia, or that the plough was too rough a surgical instrument. So he stocked the orchard with grass, and took the top dressing to keep up the fertility of the soil. The result was a marked improvement in the health of the trees, but a diminished size and quantity of fruit for a time.

The other orchard was stocked with grass the same year the trees were planted, and the surface has never been disturbed by the plough since. Liberal top-dressings of various manures have been given, so that two cuttings of grass have annually been taken off, and yet the trees have thriven and borne good crops of fruit. The bark of the tree is smooth, the leaves are dark green, the fruit is fair, and the orchard every way thrifty and vigorous. A compost has been chiefly used, composed of quite an assortment of ingredients, in which swamp muck or leaf mould from the woods has played a conspicious part. The unploughed orchard, kept constantly in grass, and faithfully top-dressed, has been all along better than the other.

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TWO DOLLARS A BOTTLE—ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. On dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents worth has cured croup. Fifty cents worth has cured sciatica in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stops the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every discription on an and breast.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the name Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 35 cents. NORTHUP & LYMAN Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affliction of the Kidneys and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Diseases of life long duration have been permanently relieved and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not beggars people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputation of any pills before the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities no the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pill bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

MILLBRIDGE P. O. TUDOR, ONT

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and laid it by my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil.

NEW STRAIGHT NEEDLE

Sewing Machiues,

THE BESTGIN THE WORLD,

And Must Supercede All Others

Manufacturers in every department of trade, in which Sewing Machines are used, are daily throwing out Shuttle Machines, and use in their stead the WHEELER & WILSON which have Rotary Motion.

HEADS OF FAMALIES:

Will consider their own interest by refusing to buy what MANUFACTURERS DISCARD. ROTARY MOTION ENSURES DURABILITY SPEED, QUIETNESS, AND EASE OF OPERATION. These are the ONLY MACHINES that can be used successfully in the manufacture of Shirts, Cuffs, Collars, and all KINDS OF WHITE UNDERWEAR.

DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS.

WHY THEY ARE PREFERRED TO ALL OTHERS.

BECAUSE they rank foremost among the few great Pianos of the world

BECAUSE they have advanced the standard of excellence several degrees beyond the farthest limits heretofore attained by the most celebrated makers.

BECAUSE their Tone is the purest, sweetest and most sympathetic.

BECAUSE they stand in tune much longer than any other Piano.

BECAUSE they are the finest, most durable and reliable in the world

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING. THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is also a vegetable, being composed of the balsamic secular shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a narvine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe ful smoken before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce it one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physicial Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

GRANDMA'S STORY: OR THE LOST WILL.

[BY MAUD MEREDITH.]

We sat on the porch one June evening, looking off across the level prairie, watching the sun as it cast its scorching level beams across the fields of waving wheat, gilding the church spires of Raymond and Eldora, sparkling on the river, as it wound its lazy length along, like some giant ribbon bound about the fair fields; glistening back from far-off windows, and seeming in no haste to "tuck the coverlid" about it and retire to rest.

Many strange fancies ran through my mind. Father and mother were gone, and I felt lonely, for they seldom spent a night away from home, and so I begged grandma for a story.

"Tell me a true story, grandma," I pleaded, "something about you old home among the Green Mountains," for often in our childhood she had told us stories of wolves and bears that had made us sit very close together, and draw our breaths softly.

"I will tell you one," she said quietly. "I do not like to think of those days, but it may learn you patience, as it did me."

I looked at the dear, serene old face, and wondered if it had ever been necessary to teach lessons to one so sweet and true. Perhaps, though, the sweetest color is exhaled from the crushed flower, for grandma had always been my ideal of perfection.

She laid her knitting in her lap, and, with folded hands and a far-away look in her eyes, began:

"It was on an exceedingly hot July day. I had been obliged to churn in the morning, the clothes were ready to iron, and besides there were ten men in the field to get dinner for. As I ironed I noticed two new handkerchiefs that your grandpa had just bought me, and I thought I would take a moment and mark them. You see, when my cousin Ben had visited us that spring, she left her indelible ink pen on the clock-shelf over the table. So I reached up and took them. I had written my name on one, when Kittie came to me and said, 'Oh, ma, do mend my doll.' Just the same time holding up a worn rag doll. I didn't know how it happened, but she struck her arm against the pen, forcing it into the tender flesh of the little arm, making a great black mark that I know could never be washed off.

"I was tired and heated, and I suppose I felt cross. I pinned on the doll's arm, and sent her away.

"'You've spoiled my pen, Kitie,' I said; 'that's mischief enough for one day. Run out and play under that sweet apple tree.

"'Can Benny go?' she said, as the little fellow ran after her.

"'Yes, I shall be glad to be rid of you both until dinner time.'

"I had only these two little ones. Kittie was four and Benny two years old, but sometimes the noise disturbed me, and my work flurried me.

"I know how much I lacked patience then. As they started away hand in hand I relented a little, and cut them each bread and butter, after which I kissed the rosy little mouths.

"I think that kiss was all that kept my heart from breaking for weary years after that, and I shall always see the picture of the two little golden-haired children formed in the low door-way, as they went out to the green flat rock under the sweet tree.

"I turned back to the heated stove. Work met me on all sides. I prepared the dinner, after I had finished ironing, and then the men came in noisily, when I hurried faster than before.

"I had thought often of the little ones, but I was very busy, and they had played three hours at a time. I took a kettle from the stove, and, call it what you will, I saw among the glowing coals an Indian's brown hand, the palm heaped with candies. I turned cold with a shudder of apprehension, set down the kettle, and ran out calling, 'Come, little ones, mamma wants you.'

"I turned the corner of the house. They were not on the rock, and I ran hither and thither, calling, 'Kittie, Kittie, Benny, oh, where are mamma's darlings?'

"The sound of my voice roused the men who came running out and joined in the search, for, as I have told you, there were wolves on the mountains, and sometimes a bear would grow bold enough to rob the sheep-fold or sty. There were some black berry bushes that fringed the woods at the back of the house, and just beyond them the forest. Father and I searched every hollow in the fields, and every corner about the barns. Then he bade me go to some neighbor's, while he followed the men to the woods, but I wandered about, calling, calling.

"I think I must have gone wild. I took no heed of day or night, and afterwards they told me I was gone two days and two nights, but I only remember how I came around a low shrubby spruce tree, and suddenly stood face to face with old Cloud-top, the Indian who had years before lived near there.

"It was not yet light, but I saw plainly, as he stopped, two little white faces peering over his shoulders, and I heard the voices of Kittie and Ben plainly calling 'Mamma.'

"I cried, 'Oh! my children,' and sprang towards them, which is all I ever knew.

"At sunrise the hunters found me lying insensible at the foot of the tree, and the footprints of moccasined feet were easily discerned.

"Two of the company helped me home, while the rest followed on after the footprints of the Indian.

"After his encounter with me he had run on and taken no pains to conceal his tracks. A mile or two further on, however, the trail ended by a river, and no other trace could be found, though as soon as boats could be procured, they started up and down the river.

"After a long time search was given up and the tired neighbors came home in little companies, for whole towns had engaged in the search. The Indian, however had crossed the mountain, and was far out of the way before the news of the lost children had spread so far.

"At last hope died out, and we sat around our lonely table, two people, old and crushed in spirit ere the work of life and scarce begun.

"I left all the little toys in their accustomed places, the little dresses hung on the same nails, for I repeated over and over to my own heart, 'Cloud-top will surely bring them back again.

"The little doll lay on the rock, the sun and rain had washed out the features I had penciled and the red of the cheeks I had stained with berries—how eager both had been to watch the painting that day—and there was the pin in the loose arm, rusted by the rain. Pray God you may never know the agony the sight of that doll gave me. I have never been tempted to speak an impatient word since, that the remembrance of that doll in the deserted little playhouse has not come back to me.

"The weeks passed by, and with the lonely autumn grew the feeling that we could not stay there. Every way the eye could turn brought up some memories of the lost. Ah! those who bury their little ones in the quiet church-yard, knowing the Heavenly Father will shelter and care for them, can never know the anguish of a mother's heart, who must feel always that dimpled feet she has kissed so often are forced to follow on some wild Indian trail, while the loving baby hearts must grieve for father and mother, and suffer every cruelty the savage mind may impose.

"In the spring we sold our farm and went to the far West, chance directing our location. Meeting an old friend we followed his directions, and were satisfied with our purchase. The crops prospered, but at first it seemed impossible to stay even here. Two years passed slowly on, and we grew more reconciled. We had planted the usual square of poplars and cottonwoods around our yard and garden, had made an addition to the house—it was the little house where this one now stands —while two little boys played about the house and brought handfuls of wild flowers and roses from the fields.

Marking Ballo Papers.

The recount of ballots cast in the late election for the Legislature in South Wentworth has again brought up the subject of how ballot papers should be marked to make them legal, and what constitutes an illegal mark. The Judge appears to have devoted much attention to the questions that arose for discussion by the respective Counsel, and his decision is spoken of as having been "elaborate and lucid." Upon the whole, both parties seem to regard Judge Sinclair's ruling as impartial and conscientious, but a number of ballots were disposed of, pro and con, that excited an animated discussion, and created considerable criticism. For instance, it is not a little curious why the same judicial rule should not have been applied to the two following cases :

(31.) Opposite Mr. Awrey's name are two figures or letters, in which certainly appears one distinct cross, and Mr. Osler argues strongly that it should be counted for his client. I am inclined to think these characters, or whatever they may be, were intended to represent the initials of the voter, though I cannot tell what such initials are. With doubt, I must hold the ballot properly rejected.

and

(33.) Two marks, somewhat like the figures 71, appear on this ballot in addition to a cross opposite Mr. Carpenter's name. I do not think these marks indicate any improper object, and am of opinion that it was correctly counted for Mr. Carpenter.

A layman can observe similarity between these two ballots as described, and must naturally wonder why the same rule did not apply in both cases. Again, here is another case :

(37). This ballot has written on it the word "Yes," and right over it a cross opposite Mr. Awrey's name. As I think the voter could be identified by the writing of this word, the ballot was improperly counted, and must be deducted from Mr. Awrey's number.

And,

(51). Here there are three distinct crosses opposite Mr. Carpenter's name. If done for the purpose of showing how the person voted it would be bad. I do not think that the object. I prefer believing that he wanted emphatically to show for whom he voted. The ballot was properly counted.

Most non-judical person would conclude that the means of identification were clearer on ballot 51 than on ballot 37. The making of three distinct crosses is an unusual proceeding, and far more likely to be agreed upon as a means of identification than the writing of any word, long or short.

The Hamilton Times has been discussing this matter, and says :—

We think we see a remedy for all this in the adoption of the American ballot paper. It is of the simplest possible character. Such a proceeding as a recount or a scrutiny is seldom heard of among our cousins—a fact largely if not wholly owing to the species of ballots used. To contrast the two ballots, we will copy the one used in South Wentworth and then show how it would have appeared under the American plan :—

BALLOT ACCORDING TO THE ONTARIO ACT.

AWREY.

1 (Nicholas Awrey, of Ancaster, Yeoman.)

CARPENTER.

2 (Frank Carpenter, of Saltfleet, Yeoman.)

BALLOT IF ALTERED AS WE PROPOSE.

NICHOLAS AWREY.

FRANK CARPENTER.

Now in our ballot we are compelled by law to make a X somewhere within the compartment enclosing the name of the candidate for whom we vote, while if we were using the system we suggest, all that would be necessary would be to run the pencil through the name of the candidate against whom we voted. On the first case, we have a complicated ballot paper with two or more compartments and the necessity of a cross which a microscope has sometimes to be called in to fix the position of, while in the second we have but two names, one of which is to be struck out by a single stroke of the pencil. Does not this offer a solution of the difficulty and show clearly a path out of the woods of recounts and scrutinies with their exasperating perplexities, refined microscopical analyses, judicial mind readings from scratches, dots, crooked lines, knock-kneed crosses, open umbrella-shaped abortions of marks, tortuous twistings, nervous squirmings, and all that sort of thing, which is just serious enough in results to save it from being laughed at as a roaring farce, or scoffed at as a palpable fraud? We think so, and so far as our humble power will admit, will press this suggestion upon the attention of the Legislature, as well as upon that of the people.

The Huntingdon Bonus By-Law.

To the Editor of the Ontario

DEAR SIR,—The coming 9th of July is being looked forward to by the rate-payers of the Township of Huntingdon, as an eventful period in the financial history of the township.

It is then the rate-payers, irrespective of partyism or political creed, will be called on to decide the all-absorbing question of this locality, viz: the $10,000 bonus. It is then our heard-working farmers will be called on to say by their decision at the polls, whether or not Huntingdon shall give ten thousand dollars of her heard earnings to the Belleville and North Hastings Railway Company. The tardiness displayed by this Company in the construction of this road, and the payment of their debts, together with the treatment which has been meted out to the people of Huntingdon and others employed on the road, needs no reiteration from any pen at this time. From the time of the turning of the first sod until the present hour, the facts as they occurred are fresh in the minds of the people, and will greatly assist in giving this modern system of swindling that crushing defeat which it is bound to receive from the hands of every ratepayer who knows what it is to earn money by the sweat of his brow.

Madoc has paid dearly for blowing the bonus whistle, and rebelled with all her might against her paying the extravagant sum of $30,000, which she so foolishly voted to this enterprise. She must now sink or swim under this burden of debt, which she, in her hour of railway excitement, so foolishly brought on herself; and without sympathy, she moans her fate, and looks upon her financial situation with fearful anticipation.

Let Huntingdon take warning from the fate of Madoc. Railway contractors, and a hundred and one land-sharks, in the form of speculators, and enterprising promoters of railway schemes, tell us that Belleville will soon become a city of 50,000 inhabitants; thrt prices of hay, grain, and other farm produce will equal those obtained during the Crimean War; that large smelting works and rolling mills, for the manufacture of iron on an enormous scale, will be erected in Belleville; that the city will at once become a modern Sheffield, famous for her iron and other manufacturing industries; that the value of land will greatly increase; and in short, farmers are to be made rich, &c. &c. This is all bosh. Farmers of Huntingdon, don't for a moment listen to these wily statements. They are circulated for the purpose of exciting your imaginations, and are calculated to mislead you. Turn a deaf ear to their cry or ten thousand dollars of our money. Always remember that Huntingdon is already paying her full share of the County Bonus of $75,000, granted to the Company; and by the time we have paid our share of this bonus, which amounts to several thousand dollars, together with the interest, which amounts to a large sum, we shall feel that we have aided this flimsily constructed railroad, with its narrow grading, sunken road-bed, wooden culverts, and spile-bridges, as far as our means will allow. This system of bonusing railroads originated in the far-Western States, and is pronounced by competent judges, to be a Yankee humbug.

Many municipalities have been caught napping by this system of wholesale speculation, and very many municipalities have, by granting enormous sums in this manner, become hopelessly involved in debt. In addition to our share of the County bonus, if we were to grant this bonus of $10,000, and issue Township debentures for that amount, for twenty years, bearing interest at eight per cent. per annum, re-payable in twenty annual instalments on the sinking fund system, we would have to pay, say $21,140, which would be required to pay off the entire debt, including principal and interest. Farmers of Huntingdon, look at this gigantic sum, which this Railway Company are anxious to obtain from you. Can you afford to go further into debt? No. Is not our burden of taxation already more than our people can bear? Farmers of Huntingdon, let us arise and buckle on our armour of resistance against this unmerciful attempt at taxation. Be united. Let every man vote against the bonus and thus administer a crushing defeat, which it so richly deserves, it being nothing less than a downright insult to an already insulted community.

Mr. Editor, trusting that you will pardon me for occupying so much of your valuable space,

I am, &c.,
VOX POPULI.

Huntingdon, South West, June 21st '79.

Casual Remarks.

—The Montreal Gazette says it is probable that a company of Canadian bush rangers will be formed for service in the African campaign.

—The city of Winnipeg was invaded last Sunday by ninety editors. They were given a sail on the river and dinner, which with divine service on the boat, kept them from doing anything serious.

—The Whig says there is ample proof of corruption enough to void the late elections for both the City of Kingston and County of Frontenac, and urges that both elections be protested at once.

—Our local contemporary says the Globe had a controversy with it some time ago on the sugar question and got so badly worsted it has been furious ever since. Poor Globe! It will know better next time, and not stirs up such a dangerous opponent.

—R.P. Cooke, of Brockville, and Anthony Force, of Montreal, have received and signed the contract for the Carillon Canal works. The contract for the Corillon Dam, it is believed, has not been signed, the Government not being inclined to agree to the terms demanded by Mr. McNamee.

—A goo l many strangers who have visited our city lately asked for the public park, and were not a little surprised to learn that there was no place for recreation and pleasure nearer than Massassaga Point. Belleville is the only city in Canada so circumstanced. Guelph, the latest addition, boasts of a fine park, well arranged and carefully preserved.

—The Chambly (Q.) election takes place to-day, and the general belief is that Mr. Joly will score another victory.

—The Rev. Dr. Hartley, who has made application to be connected with the Methodist Church of Canada, was not accepted by the Montreal Conference. The Whig says:—"Not a word was said against the talent and ability of the applicant, but it was felt that he could not be placed in a position worthy of his experience without doing an injustice to younger members of the Conference; and the field was fairly filled."

—It is now semi-officially announced from Montreal that salaries and wages on the Grand Trunk will be reduced about the 1st of July. Will our local contemporary say whether the N. P. has anything to do with this? It is a poor rule that will not work both ways, you know. If the N. P. builds up institutions, as our contemporary insists, it must also have something to do in tearing them down. If not, what is the cause of this depression on the Grand Trunk and elsewhere?

The Crops.

The Mail yesterday contained a number of crop reports from different sections of the country, from which we take the following of local import :—

HASTINGS.

STIRLING.—Fall wheat looks very well, with something over the average acreage. Spring wheat fair; will be about an average crop. Corn coming on very nicely, and with the last few warm days looks very healthy. Hay, more than an average crop. Potatoes, doing well, but scarcely equal to the acreage planted. Garden stuff, coming along nicely. The weather has been very favorable so far, and the prospects point to an abundant harvest.

NORTHUMBERLAND.

CAMPBELLFORD.—The crops in East Northumberland never looked better. The weather has been all that could be desired, and there is every prospect of an abundant harvest. Fall wheat and hay are especially heavy.

COLBORNE.—The crops here are looking well, and the prospects are good for one of the most bountiful harvests in years. Hay and grain of all kinds are looking fine. The weather until lately has been rather cold for corn, but is now better. Potatoes are looking well. The bug has not done any harm yet.

LENNOX.

NAPANEE.—The prospect for an abundant harvest is most encouraging throughout the whole county. Farmers from all parts give most encouraging reports for a general crop, and hay will be the largest crop for years. The weather has been unusually favorable for clay land.

A CONTROVERSY.

For some time a quasi-political discussion has been going on in Montreal over the management of the Long Point Lunatic Asylum. The Gazette tries to show that Mr. Joly, in his eagerness to economize somewhere, has been dismissing patients who were not cured, and whose freedom is a great danger to the public peace. Dr. Howard publishes a letter from the Superiores to him, to show that four inmates of the asylum were declared by her fit to be discharged, yet in her report to the Government she declared them unfit. The Herald points out that Dr. Howard is a Conservative, appointed by a Conservative Government, and is a Roman Catholic. The Sisters received one hundred dollars per annum for each inmate. The public hardly know what to think of the conflicting statements, and a public investigation is demanded by the Herald.

A Sad Chapter.

FATAL RUIN VISITED UPON A FAMILY IN CHESTER, PA.

Chester, Pa., June 22.—Somebody who had a spite against Robert W. Ramsden, who runs a stage line between Chester and Upland, set fire to his stable this morning. The building was fired in three different places. The flames communicated to Mr. Ramsden's residence, a handsome stone and brick cottage. The stable, wheelright and blacksmith shops were burned to the ground. Seven horses and two mules perished in the flames. Six stages and other property were destroyed. Had it not been for the crying of their little baby, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsden would both have been burned to death. Upon getting awake Ramsden at once rushed out of the house, which was in a blaze, to the stabler, thinking to save his horses. He was not able to get far inside the door, and retired terribly burned and almost suffocated. Pain and fright and the prospect of his loss made the man insane, and after running for a few moments, he fell to the ground in a swoon. He lay insensible for a number of hours, and as his pulse had stopped beating, he was supposed to be dead. His wife, with nothing on but her night clothing, escaped unharmed, with her babe in her arms. When she was spoken to it was found that she was out of her mind, and at last accounts she was still in the same condition. Ramsden has worked hard all his life, and what was burned this morning represents his earnings for the past sixteen years.

NEVADA CITY, NEVADA CO., CAL., May 24th, 1875. R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. York:

Dear Sir—For three years I was afflicted with a scaly eruption on the face, and pimples. I tried every physician and every remedy that I could hear of, but to no purpose. At last I tried your Golden Medical Discovery, and was happily astonished with the result. In one month's time my face became smooth and well, and every pimple and blotch entirely disappeared. I regard it as the best remedy in the world for disease of the blood.

Yours Truly,
A DIAMOND,
Editor Herald.

This and That.

FROM MORNING PAPERS.

A girl named Simpson while whitewashing a ceiling in a house in Brockville fell and broke both her arms below the elbow.

Mr. C. F. Fraser, while out trolling on Monday evening at Brockville, captured a maskinonge four feet long, weighing 26 pounds.

Mr. Thomas Sayers, of Guelph, who was seriously injured by falling into a well about a week ago, died on Tuesday morning.

A cablegram to the Globe says:—Messrs. Langevin and Abbott, who had secured their berths on the steamer which sails to-morrow have postponed their departure, and will await the arrival of the Canadian Ministers who are expected here shortly.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.

For the speedy cure of Consumption and all diseases that lead to it, such as stubborn coughs, neglected colds, and Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Asthma, pain in the side and chest, dry hacking coughs; tickling in the throat, Hoarseness, sore throat, and all chronic lingering diseases of the throat and lungs, Dr. Kings New Discovery has no equal and has established for itself a world wide reputation. Many leading physicians recommend and use it in their practice. Our formula from which it is prepared is highly recommended by all medical journals. The clergy and the press have complimented it in the most glowing terms. Go to your druggist and get a trial bottle free of cost or a regular size for $1.00. For sale by L. W. Yeomans & Co., also Jas. Clarke & Co., Belleville.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY
JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system fortifies the you ful constitution for the duties of life, and when taken in middle or old age, proves a real blessing; and on this approach of childbirth should a female be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; the benefits to be derived are incalculable; they fortify the constitution, lessen the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with comfort to herself and child. In all cases of Nervous Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Hips, Fatigue on Slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites and Blues, these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and, although a powerful remedy do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution. Full directions in the pamphlet round each package. JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. $1.00 and 25 cents for postage enclosed to Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agent for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. For sale by all druggists in Belleville. G. T. Wilson, Madoc. G. H. Boulter, Stirling, W. C. Clarke, Trenton, and all medicine dealers.

GILES & CO.—GENTS: I have for more than one year prescribed your Liniment with the very best results. I have found it as an application in inflammation of the lungs (pneumonia) or in pleurisy, one of the very best. It penetrates the tissues or parts rapidly. In cases of irregularity of the heart's action depending on nervous irritation, it acts promptly. After being much acquainted with the combination of your Liniment, and seeing its action in so large a number of cases, I do not hesitate to recommend it both to the public and the profession. Yours truly,

Local & General

THE CALLS.—Two drunks were brought in last night. It was too hot for tramps. They preferred to bask in the moon light.

HAY MAKING.—The familiar rattle of the reaper is now heard through the land. Hay making is merry making when the sun is bright and the crop good as it is this year.

DOMINION DAY.—The Mayor has issued his proclamation calling upon citizens to observe Tuesday next as a general holiday. It will be one of the best days we have ever had in Belleville, thanks to Chief McKinnon.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—We direct your attention to the advertisement in another column, of Edison's Electric Absorbent Belt. It is for sale by A. L. Geen, Druggist, and is said to be one of the greatest wonders of the age.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.—Among the other attractions for Dominion Day is the excursion of the Bridge Street Methodist Sunday School to Thompson's Point. The fare for the round trip is only 25 cents, and will, doubtless, draw a large crowd.

WEATHER BULLETIN.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate to fresh south-easterly to southwesterly winds, partly cloudy hot weather, possibly showers or thunder storms at night.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A scaffold on the new Robertson Block on which some men were working, gave way yesterday afternoon, and two of the men fell, one from the second to the first story, but the other hung on to the joist until rescued. Neither were seriously injured.

LADIES BAZAR.—The ladies of St. Thomas' Sewing Society will hold a bazar, combined with a Luncheon and Strawberry Festival, on Friday 27th inst., in the shop formerly occupied by Muir & Lawrence, Robertson's Block. Lunch will be served at any time after 12 o'clock, for the sum of 25cts., and all are cordially invited.

DECLINED.—The Montreal Conference of the Canada Methodist Church, now in session at Kingston, have refused to admit Dr. Hartley, late of the M. E. Church, to their body. The vote on his admission took place yesterday, a large majority going against him. It is said that his sensational style of preaching was one of the chief objections urged against him.

ALBERT UNIVERSITY.—We are pleased to learn that Dr. Badgley, late Registrar of Albert University, has been appointed to the position of President, vacated by Dr. Jaques. Dr. B. will still retain his Professorship in the College, so that the students who have been receiving instruction from him will not loose his valuable services. The University is to be congratulated on having secured so able a gentleman as successor to Dr. Jaques. The office of Registrar will not be filled until the opening of the College in September.

☞ The finest assortment of fish ever in the city will be at the fish market on Market Square Friday. Salmon 12 cts. cut. All fish delivered.

THE MARKET.—There was a rather small market this morning. Strawberries, green peas, new potatoes and cucumbers were offered for sale.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Thos. Ritchie, head of the mercantile firm of Geo. Ritchie & Co., of this city, leaves for Europe to-morrow, on business connected with the firm. He will be absent about two months. Bon voyage.

EXCURSION TO OSWEGO.—On Thursday next July 3rd, the steamer Hattie will leave here for Oswego at 6 a. m. The steamer will arrive in Oswego on the morning of the Fourth, in time for the celebration. Fare for the round trip, only $1.

THANKS.—We give them to friend Farley for bringing us a pocketful of roses to-day. Our sanctum did not have a sulphuric smell this afternoon. If it had not been so very warm and the "devil" was absent, we might have fancied ourselves in a parterre.

GOOD WORK.—One of the best day's work that has ever been done at the Eagle Mill, opposite Belleville, or any other mill of like proportions that we know of, was accomplished on Tuesday last. Seventy-five men are employed altogether in yard and mill, and 851 standard logs were cut into lumber and piled away in eleven hour's work.

NEW POTATOES.—We have to thank Mr. Samuel Blakely, market gardener, for a measure of beautiful new potatoes. They are of the Early Rose variety, and are the finest we ever saw thus early in the season. Mr. Blakely has the credit of bringing the first new potatoes to the market this season, he having sold some on the market just one week ago, which was the earliest we have ever known them to appear.

THE VOTERS' LIST.—Municipal clerks and others will do well to bear in mind that important alterations have been made in the voters' list Act, and that those alterations affect the list about to be got out for the present year. The most important alterations are that hereafter the post office address of each voter must be given, and that all of said voters qualified to act as jurymen must have the letter "J" appear in connection with their name. This difficulty of giving names in full arises from the fact that the Act has not been distributed to the general public; but the alterations alluded to above embrace the principal features of the additions made to the Act.

☞ On Broadway, New York, the great thoroughfare, a prominent feature of even that famous street convenient to all places of interest and noted for its luxurious appointments—is situated the Grand Central Hotel, which is now kept on both plans the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards per day. An elegant Restaurant at moderate prices is conducted by the Grand Central.

☞ For over twenty years "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" have maintained their reputation for curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary diseases. Those suffering or threatened with any of the symptoms of Bronchitis or any of the pulmonary complaints should at once give them a trial. They give almost immediate relief, and if taken in time generally effect a cure. Remember that a common cough or cold if not attended to in time often leads to that destructive and fatal disease—consumption. Sold by all druggists and country dealers 25cts per box.

Brevities

—It is decidedly hot.

—Ulsters are useless now.

—Ice cream is in full blossom.

—Who did not go bathing last night?

—This weather will warm somebody up yet.

—Now is the time to get ready to camp out.

—Strawberries belong to the gay party.

—Succumbed on trust will soon be easily.

—O, give us one of Voltaire's Arctic waves.

—O for a country seat in Greenland or words of that effect.

—Can loungers at hotel entrances be styled "out-door sports?"

—The Reformers of Addington jubilate to-day. The "sick pat" will be there.

—Barnum will be around by-and-by, to rejoice the heart of the average small boy.

—Rev. Joseph Young has received a substantial welcome from the Kingston M. E. congregation. He deserves it.

—"Don't be an editor," shrieks the Transcript. It is all very well to say, "don't be an editor," but when a man is too honest for anything else, what is he to do?

—The hotels flies hold their regular annual convention all over the country the first of this month, and unanimously resolved to adopt last year's platform without any changes.

—See how much is it that Canada wants to borrow now? Better get out a press and print some money of her own, instead of borrowing eternally. England can't have much to lend these days.

—Now the swell in style arrives!
Goeth forth to promenade,
But with neath the fervor of the sunbeams glances,
And so do his collars, and his jackets, and his pants.

—When the thermometer marks 20 degrees in the shade in Greenland, the Greenlanders go around mopping the perspiration off their brows and asking one another, "Is it hot enough for you?" And they wish a thunder storm would come up and cool off the atmosphere.

—'Tis the rosebud, with its delicate blush, that now adorns the lappel of the swell young gent. He would like to convey the impression that it was placed there by some fair hand that plucked it from its bush while yet it sparkled with the morning dew. This is not the case. It is one that he reached across the fence and stole from a front yard on his way down town.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

A telegram from Waterloo, Q., states that a collision took place there this morning, about 7.30, between the regular passenger train on the Southeastern Railroad, bound for Acton and Sorel, and the engine construction train. The engineer and fireman of the latter were both instantly killed. Their names were John Daly and Moses Morreau. The bodies had not, at the time of the despatch, been extricated from the wreck. Three other men were seriously injured. Both engines are a total wreck.

The News.

—A Hamilton dealer fined $2.50 for selling bad fish.

—J. H. Cross & Co's brush factory at Port Elgin burned.

—Sir Hugh Allen has been to Ottawa in the last day or two.

—Gold discovered on Shefford Mountain in the eastern townships.

—A man killed by lightning at St. Michael, Isle of Orleans Tuesday night.

—More dismissals of weights and measures inspectors reported at Ottawa.

—Agricultural inspectors, a sort of deputy Indian agents, are being appointed.

—Hon. Mr. Masson is going to Kingston to-day to close the Kingston Military College.

—International money orders are to be limited in future to $50 and not to $40 as at present.

—St. George's Episcopal Church at Guelph was consecrated yesterday by the Bishop of Toronto.

—Sir Charles Tupper has been addressing the Ottawa Liberal Conservative Union a secret society.

—The new Departmental buildings of Quebec will be delivered completed to the Government in spring.

—Unusual activity in Madoc mines, and American speculators reported buying red hematite lands there.

The agricultural inspectors for the Northwest are to cultivate the soil as well as act as deputy Indian agents.

Sir John A. Macdonald is expected to go to England next week, and not with Sir Chas Tupper, on Saturday first.

Gottfield Berger, a Hamilton clerk, has absconded for fear of being punished for robbing Mr. Austen Confectioner.

Residents in Hamilton complain of a scarcity of water, which is said to arise from the large quantity used on the streets.

Mr. Mikeldmore's 49 immigrant children have arrived at the Guthrie House, London. Applications are being received for them.

The Viceregal party are having fair fishing, but the Globe correspondent isn't. He says the Restigouche is overrated as a salmon river.

The Government has promised a block of land and free transportation to Thunder Bay for their immigrants, to the London Colonization Society.

Mr. Shanly, City Engineer, has been deputed by the Minister of Railways to lay out a track for the Credit Valley Railway into Toronto.

Four seamen sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment and forfeiture of six days' pay at Halifax yesterday, for mutiny when the ship Miramichi was on her way from St. John to Liverpool, she having to put in to Halifax in consequence.

A number of tramps have been prowling around the neighborhood of Bath lately. A good deal of thieving has been done at Bath by tramps, and our citizens should be on the alert.

Efforts are being made to have Harry McLeod released from the Penitentary, to which he was sentenced for five years for larceny. They think he has suffered enough. He has been in three years.

Peter Mackenzie, farmer, residing in Scarboro Township, received a sunstroke while on Jarvis street, Toronto, yesterday forenoon. He was carried into an hotel and restored to consciousness.

A new $15,000 Presbyterian church is to be erected on the corner of Denison avenue and Monk street Toronto, and a $15,000 Methodist church on the corner of Spadina avenue and College street.

The Herted Term—Look Out.

DONT SIT ON THE GRASS.—The most stubborn case of dysentery which is nothing more or less than inflamation of the rectum, produced not unfrequently by sitting on the grass—may be cured by that most efficient cathartic, Castor Oil. Its soothing and healing properties are wonderful but its naiusatin effects make it impossible for the patient to retain it. To Scott and Bowne the public are indebted for an Emulsion of Castor Oil that is not only palatable but is pronounced by thousands who are using it absolutely agreeable to the palate. No family can afford to be without it through the heated term. Price 25cts a bottle.

Persons under the operation of Fellows' Hypophosphites should examine their blood under the microscope from time to time, and mark the increase of red and active particles and diminution of the white or dead ones; these observations are important to the patient.

A CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.—Mrs. Ellen B. Mason, wife of Rev. Francis Mason, Tounghoo Birmah, writes:—.....My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, cold chills, burning fever, and sore throat. I counted and removed ten little vesicles in his throat, very white, and his tongue, towards the root, just like a watermelon, full of seeds; the remainder coated as thick as a knife blade. I tried the Persian Lotion as a gargle and found it invariably cut off the vesicles, and he raised them up, often covered with blood. He was taken on Sunday; on Wednesday his throat was clear, and his tongue rapidly clearing off. I also used it as a liniment, with castor oil and hartshorn, for his neck. It seemed to me a wonderful cure and I can but wish it could be known to the many poor mothers in our land who are losing so many children by this dreadful disease.

WHAT IS THE MATTER.—Your hair looks so dry and dead, it breaks off, and is falling out.

You dress it with an alcohol and oil mixture or some well advertised Hair Restorer. The hair is poisoned, it is killed. If you would restore it, cast away these things, go by a bottle of Bearine which can be had at any Druggist, and we will guarantee a change for the better at once.

MARRIAGE is a solemn thing—a choice for life; be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for female complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Buchu and Uva Ursi. It is now extensively prescribed by all respectable physicians. Bright's disease of the kidneys, diabetes, &c., may be overcome by Buchu if taken in time. For sale by all druggists in Belleville.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

The divorce statistics of Connecticut for a period of nearly thirty years have been collected. In 1840 only 91 divorces were granted. Under the new law then passed the number increased more than one-third in a single year. The evil grew steadily until 1864, when 426 were granted. From that time until the close of 1877 the number—448 annually on the average—varied but little, the ratio of marriages being 1 to 10, and 1 divorce to 1,200 inhabitants. In Connecticut there must be one divorce to every 8 Protestant marriages. There is less variation in the annual average number of divorces than in either the births, the deaths or the marriages. The divorce record of Connecticut leads that of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Vermont.

The fine gold-weighing scales made in Philadelphia for the New Orleans mint, and placed in position recently, are marvels of mechanical invention and accurate workmanship. The larger of the two has a capacity of ten thousand ounces troy, or about six hundred and eighty-six pounds avoirdupois, and when loaded to its full weight, will indicate a variation of one thousandth part of an ounce, or the million part of its weighing capacity. Another pair of scales is the one intended for weighing gold only. It has bearings composed of the finest agates, which have been ground with the finest precision. So delicate is this machine that it will give the precise weight of a human hair, and is susceptible to the slightest atmospheric changes. Millions of dollars' worth of precious metals will be weighed annually upon these scales.

In Brooklyn the law forbidding the sale of liquors to boys under eighteen years of age is to be enforced by the Law and Order League, it having come to to the knowledge of the association that the best patrons of the beer trade are minors. The boys employed by the Brooklyn car companies at the steep hills along the different routes spend the greater part of their earnings for beer.

A sad case of death from neglect a t the hands of drunken parents occurred in New York Sunday. A little child two and a half years old was found dead in the upper story of a tenement house, and his parents in a state of beastly intoxication lying in the same room. The latter were arrested by officer Chiardi of the society for the prevention of cruelty to children, who charges them with neglect of the child, which ultimately resulted in his death.

THE NEW STOCK SPECULATIONS.

The new combination method of operating in stocks which Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers N. Y., have inaugurated, is attracting unusual attention in financial circles, by reason of its remarkable success. A customer in Providence invested nine times, and made over $6,000 in three months, by using from $50 to $500 capital. By this system, orders from thousands of customers in various sums, are pooled into one immense capital, and operated as a mighty whole, thus giving to each shareholder all the advantages of vast capital and shrewd skill. Profits are divided every 30 days. Any amount from $10 to $75,000 can be used in Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s combination with equal proportionate success. $15 will make $75 profit in the month. $200 will return $1,600 or 8 per cent on the stock, and so on as the market varies. MORNING DESPATCHES.

DENVER, Col., June 26.—The Ohio Editorial Association arrived this p.m. over the Kansas Pacific Railroad.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Albert Weber, piano manufacturer, died yesterday morning, aged 50.

A collision occurred in the Narrows during a fog yesterday morning, between the steamers Hatteras, of the old Dominion Line, and St. John, the latter striking the Hatteras making a hole ten feet long and four wide. No lives lost. The cause of the collision will be investigated.

Judge Mills, ex-Surrogate, West Chester Co., who escaped from the custody of the Sheriff Saturday, has been recaptured. He had been arrested on a warrant of the Surrogate of Oneida Co., for failing to account for $12,000 held by him as guardian of Miss Kreitzer.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The inquest in the Hull murder case was resumed this morning. An immense crowd was present, anxious to get a glimpse of the prisoner. The inquest will be finished today, so the case may go to present session of Grand Jury.

STOCKBRIDGE, R. I., June 23.—Jno. Lavin, a returned Californian attempted to shoot Jno. M. Brennan, lawyer, on the street this a. m. He charges Brennan with defrauding him.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., June 24.—Zimmerman and Harliman's furniture warehouse and the Vacuum Brake Company's shop were burned this morning. Loss $8,000.

CAIRO, June 26.—According to authentic information received from Constantinople, the Sultan has signed a firman deposing the Khedive in favor of a son of Prince Mohammed Jewfik. Previous Constantinople advices show a very strong pressure has been brought to bear on the Sultan by Layard, British Ambassador, semi-officially representing to him if he declined to displace the Khedive the Powers would be compelled to take that step upon themselves, and Turkey would in the case eventually lose Egypt. Layard added, the Powers are firmly determined to establish good administration in Egypt. The Porte, Wednesday, advised the Sultan to acquiesce.

PARIS, June 26.—The Ordre, M. Rouher's organ, authenticates the account of an interview, in which Rouher, replying to the question, Who would take the place of Prince Imperial? said: "Prince Jerome will if he accepts that serious responsibility."

LONDON, June 26.—Stated the Indian Government has received information that Abdul Rogman, pretender to Afghan Throne who hitherto lived under Russian protection, has invaded Bodakshan and Afghan troops in Balk have revolted.

A Constantinople despatch says Carthodori Pasha, Minister of Foreign Affairs, informed the Ambassadors of the Powers the Sultan has signed an irade deposing the Khedive and appointing Prince Tewfik his successor. Understood the adhesion to the Khedive and Prince Tewfik to these measures are assured.

The Admiralty have ordered the detention of the torpedo boat purchased by the Peruvian Government, which was put into Sheerness for repairs.

CAIRO, 26.—The Khedive has received the Sultan's order demanding his abdication in favor of Prince Tewfik, and has expressed his compliance with the demand.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical appliances. It contains new medicinal elements which in combination with rubber, passes the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any physician in your own locality will confirm the above statement. For lame back, rheumatism, Female Weakness, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, diseased Kidneys Whooping cough, affections of the heart, and all ills for which porous plasters are used, it is simply the best known remedy. Ask for Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster and take no other. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts. Sent on receipt of price, Seabury & Johnson 21 Platt Street, New York.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at 50 cts per bottle.

A Good Paymaster

Mr. Wesley once, when he was making a collection, urged the people to give and in this way lend their money to the Lord, adding, "The Lord is a good paymaster." These words made such an impression upon the mind of a little boy who was present, that he put a shilling into the plate. This was the only coin that he possessed. He fully expected that his shilling would soon come back to him, and as time passed on and it did not return, he was much disappointed. So at last he told his mother that he had lent to the Lord, and that it had not been paid him again. "Never mind," replied his mother, "the Lord is a good paymaster."

Twenty years rolled away, and the boy had grown up to be a very rich man, and what is infinitely better, a real Christian. One day he met Mr. Wesley, and reminded him of his words, telling him also how he had acted upon them. "And so," he added, "the Lord is a good paymaster, for I am this day worth twenty thousand pounds, and I trust have the grace of God in my heart."

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints, spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part; no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stopes the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every discription on an and breast.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the name Northrup & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHRUP & LYMAN Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affletion of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Disease of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not begus people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of this Dominion, easy of access and open to question, upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no mineral by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputation of any pills before the public.

Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and indigestion no the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

MILLBRIDGE P. O. TUDOR, ONT

Messrs. Millburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain. At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

ALL FOR THE SIERRA NEVADA SMOKING, THE ONLY POSITIVE CURE FOR CATARRH yet discovered, and is equally efficacious in all Cases of Bronchial Affections.

THE worst cases of ASTHMA or DIFFICULT and all diseases of the lungs, yield readily to this treatment. It is wholy vegetable, being composed of the barks of a peculiar shrub or tree that grows in great quantities on the Sierra Nevada from which this delicious smoking derives its name. It is a nervine of great power, quieting and soothing. A pipe full smoked before retiring produces the happiest results.

Unlike tobacco, it does not destroy the nervous system, but strengthens and builds it up, and must eventually supersede the use of tobacco for smoking purposes; it is much cheaper than tobacco, as the same quantity will last three times as long. We have testimonials from hundreds of the best citizens in the land, who pronounce t one of the most remarkable luxuries of the 19th century.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the rational and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, crtain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land

GRANDMA'S STORY; or THE LOST WILL

[BY MAUD MEREDITH.]

"Ten years had passed away, just ten years from that hot July evening, when I called in the little ones and told them the story of their lost sister and brother.

"There's a gipsy fortune teller at Centralia, mamma," said Harry, who was nine years old, "why don't you ask her what became of them?"

"Why my son it would be wrong," I hastened to reply; 'never seek information from such a wicked source,' but in spite of my strong Puritan principles, the thought came back again and again. I could not sleep for a long time, for principle and inclination were at war.

"At last I fell into a troubled sleep and dreamed I saw a tall slender girl with brown skin, but long golden curls, and Harry's voice again saying 'Ask the Gypsy Queen.'

"I awoke with a start but again I slept and dreamed she came again, when I arose and walked the room. Was it my thinking of her, or could there be a meaning to my dream? At last I put it aside. How foolish to believe in dreams. Perhaps I was not very well, so I laid down again. It was almost dawn, when suddenly I thought Cloud-top stood beside me, and said, 'Go to the Gypsy.'

"I awoke, and so vivid had the dream been that I really thought the Indian stood by the beside in all the hideous array of paint feathers.

"I arose and tried to go about my accustomed tasks, but the dreams haunted me. At breakfast my husband spoke of my dreams, and asked, 'did you have bad dreams?'

"'I dreamed of Cloud-top,' said I, and then I told him of my dreams.

"We looked each other in the face a moment, when he said, 'We will go.'

"'I almost feel it to be wicked,' said I.

"It was so hard, you see, for me to forget my training. I suppose I should have done just as the Jews did had I been there I should have denied the Christ, so set was I against anything but old beliefs.

"We left the little boys over where Mr. Gates lives now, the neighbors promising to keep them safe from harm until our return. We found the gypsies' camp very still, and they looked as though they had been there a week, longer than such bands usually stop in one place.

"There was no preparation for a move. And by and by we learned that the Queen was sick, and they feared dying. I asked to see her.

"'No! no!' said they.

"I pleaded 'perhaps I could cure her,' but still they said 'no!'

"At last I said, 'tell her the woman who had two children stolen by Cloud-top has come to see her, and will make her rich if she can help me.'

"I fairly forced them in with the message, and presently an old hag came out and led me in.

"A woman not more than forty years of age lay propped up, breathing heavily, apparently in a stupor, but as I neared her she opened her eyes.

"'I knew you would come in time,' she said. 'I sent him last night; I made him go.'

"She closed her eyes, and I thought life had gone.

"Oh, the tremor of that moment, so near the solution of the awful mystery, perhaps so near the knowledge of my children's whereabouts, and yet afraid to late, but the woman gave a portion of some liquid, and she again opened her eyes.

"'I sent Cloud-top after you,' she resumed. 'You are Emeline May Gardner, and you married Benjamin Hayden, in Vermont?'

"I nodded.

"'I know you,' she said, 'and I have a message for you.'

THE GIPSY'S STORY.

"Years ago I worked for an old lady in Hertfordshire, England, who was the last of her race, and a grand old race it had been. I had come of Spanish parents, and was early turned adrift upon the world. I had for my good looks been a prey to a young English noble, Lord Elsewin. I was deserted, and at last came and begged at his gate for a morsel to keep me from starvation, but he kicked me from his door. In fury I strangled his child, his and mine, before his eyes and threw it at his feet. Then I fled, for I knew he would have the authorities after me. At last I fell sick, and was taken to a hospital, where I procured pen and ink, and wrote false recommendations, procuring the situation with this old lady, Miss Cumberland. I stayed with her ten years, and little by little I found out all her business affairs, how she had willed the great bulk of her wealth to the children of her two dearest friends; one was Emeline Gardner, and the other Lord Elsewin. Oh, how my heart bounded. I turned away my face to hide the crimson tide of anger that arose, and from that time I set myself to destroy one of the wills. At last after all manner of machinations I induced her to make a new will, bequeathing it all to Miss Gardner, except what was given to the servants. I had hardly accomplished this when the old lady died. Then came a temptation. I knew where the will was kept, why might not I personate the heir, and instead of being an outcast make myself a lady. I concealed the will, and left the place in the servant's charge, telling them I had had my instructions to find the heir. I sailed to America. I traced you and drove, to your place. Before stopping I noticed your children at play, and in a moment my decision was made. Why should one have home, and love, and children, aye, even wealth, and I have nothing. I drove away determined to lay my plot. As fate decreed it, I met an old Indian, who called himself Cloud-top. I gave him money and promises of whisky in abundance, when he entered eagerly into my plans. He knew the country all about, and promised to meet me on the other side of the mountain, in one week, naming the place. I made my arrangements quietly, and inquiring my way along to the town named, found the Indian in company with two more. I took the children and paid their captors, but dared not return from the river bank, as many people in the little town were already observing me, so I hired them to carry me a few miles beyond. Night came on, and tired and worn I fell asleep, but awoke to find myself tied and being gagged. I was taken immediately through the wilds north, and west, until at last we settled down among a tribe of Blackfeet on the Rocky Mountains. For ten years I have been in the wilderness. Our band was beaten by Sioux, and these in turn being driven by the whites, we escaped. As we were destitute of clothes except our Indian garb, and had no money, I conceived the plan of

The Daily Ontario

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 27.

A Few Words of Advice.

The summer solstice is past, and the extreme heat we have been experiencing has some relation, we suppose, to that position of the sun. At any rate, really hot weather is not usually experienced in Canada until after the 21st of June. The atmospheric pressure of the last three days has been sufficient to cause some anxiety as to what the next two months will bring upon us.

Old age and childhood are especially subject to peculiar dangers during the hot summer weather. Care and cleanliness will be necessary to enable many of these two classes to weather the siege. In this connection we would urge the Board of Health, as well as all parents and citizens, who are agents of life, to work for the preservation of the public health during the present summer, which, we have reason to believe, will be a very hot one.

In some places, perhaps, inconvenience will be caused to individuals; but the man who fights against proper sanitary precautions is an enemy to society. During the summer the temperate in both eating and drinking, and the busy, will feel least the exhausting and enervating effects of the heat, and these classes will come out at the end of the season in the best physical trim.

Mr. J. C. Rykert.

Few public men in Canada have a more unenviable notoriety than Mr. J. C. Rykert, the present M.P. for Lincoln. Without reference to old scores, we have that $10,000 bribe question in a new dressing, and it does not improve Mr. Rykert's public reputation much. It will be remembered that subsequent to the late election for the Commons a charge was made to the effect that Mr. Rykert had been offered a bribe of $10,000 in connection with the Pacific Railway contracts, and that he did not exactly refuse the tempting offer. This charge the accused vehemently denied, and declared his intention of going before the Welland Canal Commission (in connection with which the charge was formulated) and telling the whole story under oath.

The other day, just before the enquiry closed, Mr. Rykert was called upon to speak his little piece. His statement, which has been published, is a curious affidavit to be made by an honorable M.P. He acknowledges that a friend asked him to use his influence as a member of Parliament to procure a contract for certain persons who were doubtful of getting it from the Minister of Public Works. Money was mentioned, of course. Mr. Rykert told his friend there was a prejudice against American contractors, and that sometimes it was necessary to buy off others who were more favored. His friend seemed to understand, and, after considering the matter, said the favor whom he was acting would be willing to pay "five or ten thousand dollars if they could get the contract." But Mr. R. declares he did not expect to get any of this bribe; it was to be paid to contractors tendering lower than the American firm for whom his friend was interceding.

Mr. Rykert went to Ottawa to attend to his Parliamentary duties, and not hearing anything more about the matter, he returned to St. Catharines. The same proposals were again made, and he then telegraphed to Mr. Stephenson, at Ottawa, to procure, if possible, some favor which it was supposed the Minister would not grant without that intercession. It is not probable that Mr. Rykert did all this without remuneration; and the transaction itself is somewhat "peculiar," to say the least of it. He (Mr. R.) denies having expected any share of the proposed bribe. "I never for a moment," says he, "considered that Mr. Brennan had directly or indirectly offered to bribe me or purchase my influence." Then, however, comes this singular statement, "for I considered any moneys which they stated they were willing to pay us was for the purpose of getting other contractors out of the way and not for myself."

This is a facil confession that money was offered to Mr. Rykert, and for a purpose which, according to his own account, certainly does comport with the position of a member of Parliament. He did not resent this attempt to use him as an agent for bribing those who might be in the way of the contracting firm his friend represented. Not at all. When at Ottawa, after his interview with that friend at St. Catharines, he was somewhat surprised at not seeing the contractors there, or hearing more directly from them. Innocent Mr. Rykert. He had better make another affidavit:

Political Notes.

Mr. Chapleau has moved an amendment to the third paragraph of the address in the Quebec Assembly, and the debate is now in progress.

It is understood that Senator Haviland is to be appointed Lieut.-Governor of Prince Edward Island, to fill the vacancy which will be created by the present occupant of the position whose term expires on the 4th of July.

Hon. Dr. Tupper left Ottawa yesterday en route for the Old Country. Sir John Macdonald will not go at present for some reason or other.

The rumor is current that Mr. Langevin is to be replaced in the Cabinet by Mr. Caron.

Another Gain for Mr. Mowat.

The recount of ballots for the County of Russell has resulted in unseating Mr. Baker, the Conservative candidate and late member, who had been declared elected. The representation of the constituency is awarded, by right of a majority of 26, to Mr. Morgan, the Liberal candidate, who lost the seat from the fact that a large number of ballots cast for him were held by the returning officer to be bad. That decision has been reversed by the Judge and Mr. Morgan has been returned as duly elected.

—Sir Alex. Campbell and Hon. Mr. Masson are at Kingston.

JOLLY AND LETELLIER.

CHAMBLY SPOKE YESTERDAY.

ANOTHER REFORM VICTORY.

The election in Chambly yesterday, for the Quebec Legislature, resulted in the return of Mr. Fontaine, the Liberal candidate, by a majority of 60 over Dr. Martel, Conservative.

There is rejoicing in Montreal and elsewhere over this splendid victory, which is considered even greater than that of Rouville or St. Hyacinthe.

The Mail is struck dumb. It has not a word to say—does not even notice the election. These verdicts from the people mean something, and the Mail knows what that is. There is a reaction in the country that can no longer be disregarded.

The N. P. Denounced by a Conservative.

It has been held all along that the new fiscal policy we have would, sooner or later, inflict most grievous injury upon the shipping interests of the country. The truth of this has been furnished sooner than we had anticipated, for we find a Conservative who writes to the Montreal Spectator of last week, says:

"Truly the harbor of Montreal presents a sad spectacle. What few vessels are arriving are entering with half empty hulls. In a word, the "National Policy" (shame that the term "national" involves the disgrace of all our citizens) has simply paralyzed our trade with the Mother Country. The ships can get no freights; and, in addition, it seems that every possible obstruction is placed in the way of bonding goods from the United States in transit to British ports. Surely Mr. Tilley had time and opportunity of hatching a more respectable looking bantling than this never ending source of discontent and disaster. For one may write forty such cursory letters as these and still be at the beginning of the melancholy story."

To prove that this is not written by an opponent of the present Administration, we have simply to copy a paragraph which appears in the same letter, as follows:

"I have been charged with abandoning the acknowledged principles of true Conservatism. I wish all apparent supporters of the present Government of Canada could honestly claim to be as loyal to their first love as I can."

Vanderbilt Getting in Deep Water.

NEW YORK, June 23.—D. O. Mills, a close personal friend of Mr. Vanderbilt, and also a newly-elected Director of the Lake Shore Road, is reported as saying that Mr. Vanderbilt expected, when he left this city in May for Europe, that the earnings of the Michigan Central would be sufficient to justify a division of about three per cent. among the stockholders; but during the forty days of his absence the Company had been making no money, owing to the cutting of freights, and this fact had upset his calculations entirely. It is the gossip on the street that Mr. Vanderbilt's brother-in-law, George Osgood, who was a great bull on Michigan Central, has dropped about $200,000, owing to the decline in this stock, which has fallen from 90 to the present prices within the past three months.

OBITUARY.

THE LATE W. E. HOLTON.

Again we are called upon to record the death of an old and respected citizen of Belleville. The many friends of Mr. W. E. Holton have known for some time that his health was rapidly failing. Lately his familiar form, slightly bowed by the cares of more than three-score years, has been missing from our streets, and enquiries elicited the painful intelligence that he was rapidly sinking. With that same serene confidence that so prominently characterized all the engagements of his life he awaited the final dissolution. Surrounded by the comforts and luxuries of his home, and watched over by those who loved him dearly, his last moments were rendered as full of pleasure as the irritations of disease would permit. At an early hour this morning he went to sleep, to wake no more until the Judgment Day.

Ezra William Holton was born in the State of Vermont, September 7th 1810. In 1816 his father removed to Canada, with his family and settled in Lansdown, County of Leeds. When 22 years of age, in 1832, the subject of this notice came to Belleville. The present city was then a village, lately incorporated, and nearly all business was transacted south of Dundas Street. Mr. Holton was first in the employ of Mr. Billa (now Senator) Flint, who was one of the first merchants of Belleville. When the latter retired he (Mr. H.) continued the business, gradually increasing his means and facilities, until at the time of his retirement a few years ago his trade was one of the most extensive in Ontario.

With regard to his habits as a business man, and his qualities as a citizen, we need only repeat the verdict of every one who knew him.—His word was never purposely broken; and his integrity of principle, thoroughness of character, and ability as a tradesman made his name honored in commercial as well as social circles. Of a naturally retiring disposition, he shrunk from public office; but was always ready to give his ripe experience and valuable counsel in furthering municipal and private affairs. We venture the assertion that no other man ever lived so long in Belleville—47 years—and retained the confidence and good-will of all classes of the community to the same extent. E. W. Holton had no enemies, but he had many warm friends. He was honored and respected in life, and his memory will abide with those who knew him.

In 1836 Mr. Holton married Miss Lucy Clement, who survives him, and who has the sympathy of the people of Belleville in this trying bereavement. Less than a year ago the death of George, the eldest son, weighed heavily upon the hearts of the aged parents, and now the wife and mother, in delicate health, mourns in widowhood. Her consolation is not derived from such feeble words of sympathy as we can offer,

Washington Correspondence.

Washington, D. C. June 23.

The turbulent and disgraceful scenes in the Senate Chamber will be remembered regretfully by the actors and the country for a long time to come, but something is to be said in extenuation of them. Men do not lose their passions and prejudices by coming to Congress, and the close and severe contest between the antagonistic parties, egged on by the partisan press, has strung up the names of the political leaders to an intensity almost unbearable. Add to these facts the aggravation of long hours and night sessions in the hot and stifling Senate Chamber, and you have enough to stir up the bile in the best natured man. During all the bitter and earnest contests of this remarkable session, it has remained for the last week to develope bad blood, and the controversy between Senators Conkling and Lamar was almost unavoidable. Both are proud and rather imperious, and quick of temper. But the matter will go no further, and all talk of a duel is idle and sensational. Senator Lamar has gone home on business, and Senator Conkling will not talk about the affair at all.

The general appropriation bill has been signed by the President, and is therefore a law—all except the judicial part of it, which is made a separate bill containing the U. S. Marshal and supervisor clauses. The latter is to be vetoed, and then the question will arise for the democratic majority to decide what to do about it. Many of them are for adjourning at once, and forcing the President to call another session. In this case only 24 hours need intervene between the two sessions. These democrats say they would then again pass this judicial bill as before, and take a recess, instead of adjourning, until October. If the President didn't sign the bill then the Courts would be suspended, and each side accuse the other of responsibility therefor. The democrats assert that during a recess the President cannot call Congress together, and therefore the contest could not be renewed until October. Another class of democrats, of which Senator Bayard is chief, assert that they will favor an appropriation bill without the election clauses. But how are they going to get at it? The appropriation bill must come from the proper Committee of the House, and the Committee is against any compromise, and will adhere to the original policy, I am told, of refusing supplies for the election officers. Unless, therefore, there is an open bolt in the democratic party ranks, the majority will control still, and refuse to submit to what they term the President's dictation.

The matter of establishing disinfecting vessels for protection against the importation of yellow fever has received a temporary check by Secretary Sherman's tendency to technical objection. The bill as first drawn authorized him to contract with John Grangee for the construction of the vessels under his process. Mr. Grangee's name was struck out and there was inserted a clause that the contract should be made with whoever would be recommended by the National Board of Health. The bill passed almost unanimously. That Board took the subject in hand, called in a Board of Engineers, and went over it thoroughly. They recommended the process of Mr. Grangee and that he be given the contract. Now the Secretary claims that he must have the plans of Mr. Grangee and advertise for bids for the contract, as Mr. Grangee's process is a patent, or covered by several patents, of course he cannot give them up without consideration, and there is a wide felt disappointment, especially among Southern men, that this experiment is thus delayed. They assert that the Secretary is in duty bound by the terms of the bill to make a contract at once with the man recommended by the Board of Health, and that his persistent refusal will be a public calamity.

Congress is rapidly thinning out and it is difficult to get a quorum in either House. Many members take little interest in the political contests, and would be heartily glad of a settlement and a speedy winding up of the session.

Casual Remarks.

—Potatoes are only 25 cents a bushel in Manitoba. Here they are $1 00.

—The Whig office in Kingston is to be connected with the Dominion Telegraph office by a wire and telephone.

—The Ottawa Herald intimates that Mr. Baker is not satisfied with the recount of ballots in Russell, and that a second recount will be moved for.

—The Telegram says Thickpenny, the murderer of Mrs. Thompson, will not be hung, but that his sentence will be commuted to imprisonment for life.

—Sir Hugh Allan has been hovering around Ottawa lately, and the general impression is that the Knight of Ravenscraig has not yet been fully "scooped."

—According to last night's telegrams, the Khedive of Egypt has made up his mind, under great pressure, to "step down and out," and give place to an honester man.

—Hon. Alex. Mackenzie was present at the public ceremonies in connection with the closing of the Brantford Young Ladies College, on Wednesday, and made an address which was much applauded.

—During the past week $4,000 has been paid to widows of deceased Canadian members of the Independent Order of Foresters. These payments clear off all existing claims upon the funds of the Order.

—Says a contemporary: "It has got so now-a-days that if a man puts up a new cow shed or hen roost, the Conservative papers attribute it to the N. P." We print this for the benefit of our local contemporary.

—Toronto will prohibit the use of firecrackers on the 1st prox. This is a sensible move, and one that our own City Council would do well to imitate. This is a season of the year when a careless use of such dangerous playthings may cause a serious loss of property.

—Mrs. Van Cott, the evangelist, has closed her labors in Hamilton, and the Times says:—"The Christian public, especially those who have attended the meetings, will feel very grateful to our friends of the M. E. Church for bringing to our city one who has done so much good."

—London Advertiser: Were a general election for the Dominion to be held tomorrow, it is believed that large majorities would be cast against the present Ottawa incumbents by Ontario, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, while Quebec would be about a tie. A general election may be nearer at hand than some imagine.

—The average small boy is down on the N. P., and will hereafter be a "howling Grit." He is told that the new tariff has killed the circus, by putting such a tax on the animals and gimcracks that few heads the great Barnum can afford to pay the charges for crossing the line into Canada. We believe the latter had to fork over $4,000 duty when he entered the land where the N. P. reigns.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

THE editor of the Baltimore Gazette is willing to take oath that he was in the Senate Chamber the other day and heard Senator Logan use the following sentence which did not find its way into the record: "I ain't been yet in a position to hear such sentiments as those uttered through the settlement, but I have long suspicioned in my own mind that there is men, in this here body which would, if they have the power, pluck the blue empyrean from the ægis of the American eagle without stopping to reflect where the country was going to or drifting at." At the same time, Logan made use of such expressions as, "If I had of knowed it" "I have saw the time," "He done this without reflection."

AN Aeronaut calling himself Count Henri de Gilbert was to make an ascension in Cincinnati. He stepped into the basket when all was ready, and then leaned over the edge to kiss his wife. Then he kissed another woman, and so hastily that his wife was furiously angry. The balloon was cut loose, and as it went up Count Henri saw that his jealous wife and the other woman were fighting. The spectacle disturbed his presence of minde and he permitted the balloon to collide with a chimney. A rent and a collapse were followed by a quick decent, but the Count was only a little bruised by the fall. His feelings, however, were seriously hurt.—N. Y. Sun.

A very singular event occurred recently on a Saxon railway. At the moment the passenger train which leaves Dresden for Leipsic was about to start, heavy, black clouds collected and announced an approaching thunder-storm. Hardly had the train left the station at Kotschienbroder and only a few miles from its destination, when all persons in the train, passengers and employees, heard a crackling noise, and at the same time experienced a sensation resembling a strong electric shock They soon understood what had taken place, for before a second had passed they heard a tremendous clap of thunder. Great alarm prevailed at first, but it soon passed off as the passengers reflected that, as the train continued its progress, the electric fluid had neither done any harm to the material or injured any one. When the train reached Riand, and the matter was talked over, the unanimous opinion was that the lightning had struck the rails immediately behind the last carriage, as the persons in the hinder portion of the train felt the shock much more severely than those in the middle, and those in the front portion were scarcely conscious of it.

THE ARGYLL FAMILY.—Reference is made in one of the Glasgow papers to the fact that the father of the present Duke of Argyll invented a flying-machine, and once attempted to ascend into the air by its aid from the top of a haystack at Ardincaple—but what result need hardly be stated. Those who are old enough to remember Lord John Campbell do not require to be reminded that his physical conformation was rather favorable to such an experiment. Below the middle size, he was of slight build. With his pants a span too short, and a loose shooting coat always flowing open, he looked as if he were at any time ready for mounting upwards. A good story is still current at the mouth of the Gareloch relating to the surprise with which an Inveraray Highlander, sent with a message to Ardincaple, first saw the future Duke of Argyll. He could not believe that the little, unconventional, homely man whom he met in the policies of Ardincaple was the near kinsman of the great chief of the Clan Campbell. Yet Lord John was a son of the lovely Miss Gunning, she who married two dukes and herself produced four—the haughty beauty who so remorselessly snubbed poor Boswell when he visited Inveraray along with Dr. Johnson. The present Duke of Argyll takes after his father somewhat as to personal appearance; but in other respects he owes much more, we presume, to his mother.

GILES & CO.—GENTS: I have for more than one year prescribed your Liniment with the very best results. I have found it as an application in inflammation of the lungs (pneumonia) or in pleurisy, one of the very best. It penetrates the tissues or parts rapidly. In cases of irregularity of the heart's action depending on nervous irritation, it acts promptly. Having made acquainted with the combination of your Liniment, and seeing its action in so large a number of cases, I do not hesitate to recommend it both to the public and the profession. Yours truly,

THUNDER STORM.—The thunder storm and light fall of rain which occurred last night has made the weather less oppressive to-day.

RELIEF OF DERRY.—The Prentice Boys of Kingston are coming to Ballville on the 12th of August,—the anniversary of the Relief of Derry.

G. T. R. EXCURSIONS.—The Grand Trunk Railway announces cheap trips every Saturday to Ottawa from all points, the tickets, at a single fare, being good for three days. No doubt many will take advantage of the trips.

THE ROBERTSON BLOCK.—The work on the new Robertson Block is progressing very rapidly, and from present appearances it will be the finest block in the city. The center store, intended for Messrs. Barber, Brignall & Co., will be equal to any other store in the Province.

LECTURE ON MANITOBA.—The Rev. Canon O'Meara, lately returned from the North-West, will deliver a lecture on Manitoba at the City Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. The admission will be free, but a collection in aid of the church there will be taken up.

THE "DAUNTLESS."—This old and favorite yacht is undergoing a thorough overhauling at the hands of Messrs. Stoneburgh and Black. Her planks are being bolted and re-nailed, no less than about 150 bolts being put in. A new coat of paint is being put on, and she will be ready for launching in about two weeks, as good as new.

FATHER MCWILLIAMS' PIC-NIC.—The pic-nic announced by Father McWilliams to take place on Tuesday near Bath was a decided success, several hundreds being present, and everything passing off exceedingly well. Dancing, boat sailing and other amusements helped to pass a pleasant day.

A FAILURE.—The regatta which was to have taken place in Kingston on Dominion Day is likely to be declared off. A meeting was held on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of making arrangements, but there was a small attendance. When they get some better yachts there they will enthuse more than they now do.

ON Broadway, New York, the great thoroughfare, a prominent feature of even the famous street convenient to all places of intrest and noted for its luxurious appointments —is situated the Grand Central Hotel, which is now kept on both plans the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards per day. An elegant Restaurant at moderate prices is conducted by the Grand Central.

For over twenty years "Dyas's Pulmonic Wafers" have maintained their reputation for curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary diseases. Those suffering or threatened with any of the symptoms of Bronchitis or any of the pulmonary complaints should at once give them a trial. They give almost immediate relief, and if taken in time generally check a cure. Remember that a common cough or cold if not attended to in time often leads to that destructive and fatal disease—consumption. Sold by all druggists and country dealers 25cts per box,

WITH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—When we hear anybody say that such and such a thing is worth its weight in gold we think they are indulging in hyperbole, and pass the matter with a smile. But numbers of invalids who have once partaken of Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil in combination with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda say they would no wonder for in all cases of General Debility or Chronic Coughs, in fact, any pulmonary complaint and consumption it is worth its weight in gold.

owners rebuilt her, and will hereafter use her in the carrying trade. She looks well, and is admirably adapted for the purpose, being a pretty fast sailer.

POLICE COURT.—Lew Smith was the only prisoner before the P. M. to-day. He was let off, it being some time since he made his appearance in Court before.

RACES TO MORROW.—Don't forget the trotting races on Bayside Driving Park to-morrow afternoon. It will be one of the best races of the season, and will come off without fail.

PERSONAL.—We exceedingly regret to hear that Mrs. John Bell, one of the most esteemed ladies in Belleville, is dangerously ill, and little hopes are entertained of her recovery.

FIREWORKS. — LaDue & Co's agent from Hamilton, is in the City fitting and making preparations for the grand display of Fireworks to take place on the Agricultural Grounds, on the evening of Dominion Day.

H. M. S. PINAFORE.—Laurent's Pinafore Company will play here, in the Opera House, next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. They will give a holiday matinee on Tuesday afternoon. We refer to the excellence of this company elsewhere.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.—The steamer Kingardine announces an excursion to Watertown and Oswego on Wednesday next, leaving here at 8 a.m. She will carry No. 3 Fire Company to Sackett's Harbor, and the Cricket Club to Oswego. Fare for the round trip, $1.25.

WEATHER BULLETIN.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region received by telegram, per Dominion Line, from Toronto:—Moderate winds, partly cloudy hot weather, possibly local showers or thunder storms.

SEA SALMON.—Mr. Levi Taylor received 200 lbs. of fresh sea salmon this morning, and an additional 200 lbs. will follow this evening. These fish are cut up and sold by the pound, in any quantity. The price is low and nothing finer can go on the table in the shape of fish.

TOO COLD.—On Wednesday afternoon, when the thermometer ranged away up in the nineties, a couple of ladies met at the door of the Post Office. One asked the other why she did not come and visit her. "Well," she replied, "I will just as soon as the weather gets a little warmer." Just then there was a suppressed titter among persons near who overheard the conversation.

PINAFORE COMPANY.—THE Whig says:—We have received two letters from Brockville, stating that Laurent's Pinafore Company, which played there two nights, is an excellent organization. The Company is composed of pretty girls whose singing is far above the average. "Pinafore as sung by Laurent's Company is far different from the the "Pinafore" sung in Kingston last spring.

THE REFORM DEMONSTRATION.—The Oddfellows' Band returned home from Newburgh about half past 12 o'clock last night. They report the demonstration as being a grand success, notwithstanding the fact that it rained nearly all day. The 47th Battalion Band, of Kingston was also present, and is highly spoken of by members of the home band. The Hon. Oliver Mowat and other distinguished gentlemen were present.

A FINE STALLION.—We wish to call the attention of farmers and others to the fact that the thoroughbred stallion "Leamington Second" is kept at the Prince Edward House here, for service during the season. Leamington has as fine a pedigree as any horse owned in the Province, and is three-fourths brother to the celebrated race horse "Parole." We would recommend lovers of good stock to call and see Mr. T. K. Joslin, agent for the owner, at the Prince Edward House.

BATHING IN THE HARBOR.—We join our local [illegible] in denouncing the disgraceful conduct of bathers in the harbor during the boating hours. But, if people are to be deprived of all available points for bathing, where must they go to? The majority cannot get a chance to indulge a health-giving plunge until evening, when so many are on the water for pleasure. Perhaps this protest will bring up the question of having bathing houses erected in a more tangible form.

REPORTERS AS DETECTIVES.—An exchange says:—The papers are full of the praises of Mr. W. P. Balch, reporter on the Boston Herald, who was the means of having the murderer of Mrs. Hull, of New York, arrested. There can not be the slightest doubt, notwithstanding what police authorities may say, that if greater confidence was placed in reporters of newspapers respecting criminals, there would be fewer miscarriages of justice. It is the very nature of a reporter's business to be on the alert, even when off actual duty, and many a time assistance could be given to detectives and policemen in such a way that there could be no doubt of success.

BREVITIES.

—Strawberry boxes are always made to fit the price.

—The Convention of Ancient Foresters is to be held in Toronto, July 22nd.

—Said one of the anglers who went out this morning: "I didn't catch any fish, but I drowned a good many worms."

—At a school pic-nic the other day, the superintendent threw one lemon and two strawberries in the crock, and then sold the water to the scholars as strawberry lemonade.

—A country exchange has an editorial headed "Our Great Need." Contrary to what might be supposed, the editor's remarks refer to the want of a better local market, and not to a new pair of trousers.

BODY OF AN UNKNOWN WOMAN FOUND.

CORNWALL, June 26.—The body of an unknown woman was found this morning near Gleason's lock, Cornwall Canal. The body has been in the water some days. An inquest is now in progress.

Telegraph News

The Dominion Telegraph Company have accepted the subsidy of $20,000 offered by the Government for the construction of a telegraph line between Halifax and the Gut of Canso, forming one of the links in Dr. Fortin's scheme for the telegraphic connection of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The result of the Government's offer of $15,000 annually to a company connecting the Island of Anticosti with the mainland by cable will be made known on the 15th of July prox.

The Anglo-American Company are now in correspondence with the Government in relation to the landing of a cable on the Magdalen Islands. It is probable that the request will be granted.

It is understood that the Marine Insurance Company will reduce their rates 25 per cent. on the completion of the Gulf telegraph system.

The Government at the next session of Parliament will likely make a grant to the Montreal Telegraph Company to extend their connection on the north shore to the Straits of Belle Isle.

Poor Eugenie!

The mournful intelligence respecting the sad condition in which the news of the Prince Imperial's death has placed the ex-Empress Eugenie is alarmingly portentous. To such an extent does she mourn the loss of her son that her reason has begun to be affected, and unless some very favorable change takes place, grave fears are entertained by her medical attendants as to her recovery. While this sad scene in casting a gloom over Chiselhurst and the sympathies of the English people are warm for the unfortunate woman, a vastly different act in the drama of life has been played in Paris, alike discreditable to the instigators as well as the police authorities who permitted it. On Tuesday night, outside of the Fernando Circus, some Imperialists who had been seen to witness the performance were "mobbed" by a set of rowdies on their coming out. They were not only assaulted personally, but their ears were assailed by cries—which at a period like the present cannot be termed anything but most opprobrious—of "Down with the Empire!" "Hurrah for the Zulus!" etc.

Persons under the operation of Fellows' Hypophosphites should examine their blood under the microscope from time to time, and mark the increase of red and active particles and diminution of the white or dead bodies; these observations are interesting and instructive.

A CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.—Mrs. Ellen B. Mason, wife of Rev. Francis Mason, Tounghoo Birmah, writes:—"My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, cold chills, burning fever, and sore throat. I counted one morning ten little vesicles in his throat, very white, and his tongue, towards the root, just like a watermelon, full of seeds; the remainder coated as thick as a knife blade. I tried the PAIN-KILLER as a gargle and found it invariably cut off the vesicles, and he rinsed them up, often covered with blood. He was taken on Sunday; on Wednesday his throat was clear, and his tongue rapidly clearing off. I also used it as a liniment, with castor oil and lardoem, for his neck. It seemed to me a wonderful cure and I can but wish it could be known to the many poor mothers in our land who are losing so many children by this dreadful disease.

WHAT IS THE MATTER.—Your hair looks so dry and dead, it breaks off, and is falling out. You dress it with an alcohol and oil mixture or some will advertised Hair Restorer. The hair is poisoned, it is killed. If you would restore it, cast away these things, go by a bottle of Bearine which can be had at any Druggist, and we will guarantee a change for the better at once.

A Startling Story.

DREADFUL SMALL POX RAGING AMONG THE THAMES INDIANS.—INFECTED CLOTHING WASHED IN FLOWING WATERS. ALARM SPREADING.—HORRORS MEASURES CALLED FOR.

Highgate, June 25.—About six weeks ago small pox of a very malignant type broke out among the Moravian Indians on the River Thames. It is supposed to have been brought among them by Frank Wampum from Ottawa, who it will be remembered, was on a trip to interview the Governor-General in reference to Indian affairs. Since its outbreak about 13 have died, and more have it at present than at any previous time. As yet no preventative measures have been taken to prevent the spread of the disease. At present they are soaking and washing their infected clothing in the spring creek and streams which supply a great many of the whites with water for family use. Unless stringent measures are at once adopted it is feared it will spread very rapidly among the whole community for miles around. Although the matter was laid before the Government at the outbreak, still no benefit seems to have been derived from their action in the matter. A certain doctor has been authorized to attend them, but seems to be very negligent in the matter, he only coming among them about once a week and vaccinating a few who call on him for that purpose. The Township councils are again asking the Government to take strong and active measures to stamp out the disease. Meanwhile the people feel very insecure.

—Judge Gwynne has gone to England for two months.

The News.

—A vinegar factory has been started at London.

—A site has been purchased in Halifax for a cotton factory.

—Two American forgers are being watched for by Canadian detectives.

—The Hudson Bay Company's store at Mattawa burned; loss $10,000.

—Oka is to have a new Catholic church in place of the one burned two years ago.

—The recount gives Mr. Morgan a majority of 23 over Mr. Baker in the Russell election.

—The Orange Lodges of Cobourg district will hold their annual celebration at Port Hope.

—The Hamilton Field Battery paraded yesterday morning and went into Camp at the Palace Grounds.

—Small-pox is increasing at Long Point and Mingan. The Government is appealed to to send help.

—A man's body was drawn up by two women in a lobster net at Luquenbury, N. S., yesterday.

—The Order of Foresters has paid $4,000 during the past week, clearing off all Canadian claims on them.

—The G. T. R., the G. W. R., and the Wabash have agreed to construct an extension from Toledo to Detroit.

—Rev. Heber Ballock, Chaplain of Herbert Hospital, Woolwich, England, is on a visit to his parents at Halifax.

—Jacob Corey is committed for trial at Hamilton for setting fire to the house of Rev. S. Lyle, Burlington Beach.

—Albert Kontz was drowned at Aylmer while bathing. He took cramps. His companion, Young, narrowly escaped.

—M. Say's steam yacht Nooya has arrived at Pictou. The Rothschild's friend is cruising round the Canadian coast.

—It is proposed to run a cable across the American Falls, at Niagara, and suspend a car from it, from which one may be lowered perpendicularly up and down directly in front of the middle of the cataract, and close to it.

—The following item appears in an English newspaper: A marriage is arranged and will shortly take place between Mr. Frederick Ward, late Aide-de-camp to the Earl of Dufferin, and Miss Rose Watson-Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Lady Charlotte Watson-Taylor.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Coroner James Dempsey of Staten Island, 20 years Coroner of Richmond Co., was yesterday sentenced to one year imprisonment for perjury.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., June 27.—In an altercation last evening, J. A. Blair, Merchant of N. Y., fatally shot John Ogleby, his coachman.

TRENTON, N. J., June 25.—The Court denied the application for stay of execution in Smith and Bennett case.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The Herald's Washington special says General Burnside will probably speak this session on his resolution concerning the Panama Ship canal. He says it is the duty of our Government to give Europe timely warning that it will never allow such a canal to be built and controlled by foreign powers. Silence would give consent, and interference after the work is begun might place the Government in an awkward position.

Friends of ex-Governor Hartrant are pressing upon the President the propriety of making him Secretary of War, to succeed McCrary next fall.

JERSEY CITY, N. Y., June 27.—Michael Shanahon, alias Big Mike, one of the gang of river thieves was jailed here yesterday, charged with the robbery of $25,000 of silks and velvets from warehouse of the Bremen S.S.Co. Since the organization robberies by his gang from steamship Co's of North River are estimated at half a million.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The Hoboken Fire Insurance Co., owing to present low rates of insurance and unfavorable prospects of future, decided yesterday to go out of business and reinsured their risks in the London and Lancashire Co., of Liverpool.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

LONDON, June 27.—A Birmingham despatch says the Tipton drainage commissioners have now raised nearly £21,000, more than half the amount required to rescue mines in the district from threatened inundation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 27.—The Gov. of the Province of Salonica has asked for reinforcements on account of outbreak and insurrection in Dijuna district.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., June 27.—John Hone, jr., of Common Council finance commission, reports the city finances in bad condition. The late Treasurer's books show a deficiency of $5,000.

LONDON, 27.—The Times this morning says the amount of bullion in the bank of England, £20,000, is the largest on record, and there is no reason to think this immense sum will not be considerably exceeded.

BERNE, 27.—A Catholic Synod of Canton of Berne, Monday, the R. C. delegates for the first time participated in the voting. They outnumbered the old Catholics by 65 to 35; elected the office bearers and synodal council to hold office for the next four years entirely of the Roman party.

PARIS, 27.—M. Larroche Jubert, Bonapartist, who has lately been veering towards Republicanism, is about to resign his seat in the chambers of deputies, so his son may stand as Republican candidate.

The Government took precautions against any demonstration at yesterday's funeral mass commemorative of deceased Prince. The Imperial troops in the neighboring barracks were confined to their quarters. The police were instructed to arrest anybody indulging in Bonapartist cries.

BERLIN, June 27.—A tobacco commission has decided in favor of duty of 85 marks per 100 kilogrammes on foreign tobacco.

LONDON, June 27.—The Protestant school in Connaught, County of Galway, Ireland, has been sacked by a gang of 30 bills and thrown into the sea. This is a revival of the series of disturbances which was thought to have been quieted some weeks ago.

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman to:—
For thousands cry with eager breath,
"They saved me from the jaws of death!
All ye allidg give me need,
'Tis National Pills your system needs.
Immense the rush for those Pills;
Which cure so many woeful ills.

Miscellaneous Items.

Jenny Lind sang in the chorous at the first concert last season of the Bach Society of London.

An East Bridgeport, (Conn.) woman, who is insane over the loss of her child, dressed up a cat and carried it [about as though it were a baby.

The Reformer, a paper started in Paris with a view to converting Roman Catholics to Protestantism, suspended after the twentieth number.

Lord Elcho said lately in the House of commons that he did not believe that British troops had ever fought so physically brave a race as the Zulus.

John Dunn is handsome and has seventeen wives. Several are presented by Kaffir chiefs, who would ill have brooked rejection of their presents.

Edison has exhibited in Philadelphia an improved telephone, which speaks much louder than the ordinary apparatus. The improvement consists of the attachment of an electro motograph receiver to the carbon transmitter.

MARRIAGE is a solemn thing—a choice for life, be careful in the choosing. And be careful in the choosing a remedy for female complaints. Be sure to ask your dealer for Victoria Bucha and Uva Ursa. It is now extensively prescribed by all respectable physicians. Bright's disease of the kidneys, diabetes, &c., may be overcome by Buchu if taken in time. For sale by all druggists in Belleville

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical appliances. It contains new medicinal elements which in combination with rubber, possess the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any physician in your own locality will confirm the above statement. For lame back, rheumatism, Female Weaknesses, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, diseased Kidneys Whooping cough, affections of the heart, and all ills for which porous plasters are used, it stands alone in its curative powers. Ask for Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster and take no other. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts. Sent on receipt of price. Seabury & Johnson 21 Platt Street, New York.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

PURE COD LIVER OIL

WITH

HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood, General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians generally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and a better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, spoils or spoils. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

travelling as gipsies, and in that way we have travelled [illegible] etc. I wanting to gain the seashore and return to that wealth in England. Here is the key to the wherabouts of the will,' and she handed me a small leather bag, containing a drawing with a few numbers. "I have not much longer to live and if you may have the will, and all it gives you now. I have kept your children, have raised them after a fashion, and now ask Peosta to send the young Queen here; I would see her once more."

"I gave the message to the wisred woman by the tent door, and in a few moments she returned with a young girl, brown as a nut out with long golden curls and eyes of heaven's own blue. She cast a shy glance toward me, and passed to the side of the dying woman. I did not understand the language by which they conversed, but presently, after taking another stimulant, the woman turned to me, and said:

"'Mrs. Hayden I give you back your child; this is your Kittie. Mimona that woman is your mother.'

"Can I describe the scene that followed? "Bennie, now a tall boy of twelve, was called in, and his father. It was to us a glad reunion, but the children were almost bewildered.

"We turned to thank the woman for her tardy justice, but the troubled spirit had fled; so we took our children and returned.

"I think the stars shone on no happier mother's heart than mine that night.

"The children were as two young Indians; so we kept them at school for years, and now, my dears, there is no more beautiful woman than your mother."

"But the will, grandma, where is all that wealth?"

"The will is in the little leather pouch. There is no one to decipher it, and without the will we can get nothing."

She brought me the paper, which contained only a drawing of we could not tell what, a few numbers, and one or two words.

"Did Uncle Ben ever learn Spanish?" I asked. "You said he could speak several languages."

"I think not," grandma said.

"Then I will study it. I will never rest until I find that will."

ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EXCELSIOR ECLECTRIC OIL.

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD—PAIN CANNOT STAY WHERE IT IS USED

Is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity has cured sciatica of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five cents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For bruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stopes the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every discription on an and breast.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the name Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHRUP & LYMAN Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

Messrs. A. [illegible] & Co., Toronto, Ont.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affliction of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Disease of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not local people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public. Their efficacy has heen fully proved as a remedy or Biliousness, Sick Headache, and intestinal activities ho the Stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

MILLBRIDGE P. O. TUDOR, ONT.

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson,—Sirs, I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing of the other also so that I was afraid I would never be able to hear again. I tried every thing to bring back my hearing I could think of but found it all in vain. At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil so I rubbed a little on the outsides of my ears two or three times a day and every night and morning. I wet some wool with the oil and kept it in my ears and in one weeks time I could hear as well as I ever could but still rub the oil when the weather is cold and I keep wool also in my ears. I write you this that you may know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours Truly,

JOHN CLARK.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postages stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

Emperor and People.

WHAT LORD LOFTUS SAYS ABOUT THE NIHILISTS IN RUSSIA.

(Interview in N. Y. Herald.)

"Will you be kind enough to favor me with your views of the so-called Nihilist movement, as it seems to be little understood here?"

"I have known the Imperial family intimately, and I would prefer not to express opinions that might be misunderstood. However, I will say that the so-called Nihilist movement is very much exaggerated. It is certainly misunderstood so far as regards dynasty. The Nihilist party, if it be permissable to use such a figure of speech, can be almost counted on the fingers of one's hand."

"Is the army loyal?"

"So long as the Emperor can depend on his army he is master of the situation. I doubt if the Guards are in any way tainted with feelings of disloyalty; but the case may be different from the line regiments. Those which have been down in Turkey have had a certain amount of liberty, and they have come back with feelings of discontent."

"Who are the Nihilists?"

"They are but an infinitesimal part of the population. The peasants are not among them. These latter are intensley loyal to the Emperor. The Nihilists are what you may call a political party

The Daily Ontario

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 30.

The nomination for Vershères takes place to-day, and the election on the 6th prox. Mr. Joly is quite sure of another addition to his majority.

It was reported some time ago that Hon. Mr. Masson, owing to continued ill-health, would probably retire from the Ministry, and be succeeded by some other French Canadian claimant. Mr. Masson is now quite restored to health, and will probably remain in the Cabinet.

Mr. J. C. Rykert having, under oath revealed his connection with that $10,000 bribe, and his revelation not adding any to the lustre of his reputation, the Hamilton Spectator tries to cover his disgrace by abusing his accuser. No matter what Mr. McMahon may be, the fact is now on record that J. C. Rykert was offered $5,000 or $10,000 to be used by him in getting lower tenderers out of the way of a certain American firm for which his friend, Mr. Brennan, was acting. That's the case.

A Suggestion.

The decision in the South-Wentworth election case has given much dissatisfaction. This is only what might be expected with the result of the recount, and in fact with the result of the election, before the people of that staunch old Reform constituency. A number of letters have appeared in the Hamilton papers giving reasons, pro and con, and offering suggestions. The majority of these letters give expression to feelings and prejudices rather than to facts. One, however, makes a suggestion which, though intended to be Pickwickian, is sufficiently sober to be repeated. Says the correspondent :—"I have no doubt that the microscopic election system will be greatly extended and improved before long, and it is to be hoped that the services of a clairvoyant may be secured, so that in the event of peculiar difficulty, or where the microscope fails in discovery, another means may be at hand to solve the mysterious problem. Perhaps there would be some difficulty in resuscitating the Witch of Endor, therefore I make the above suggestion as to the next best agent to be retained in any future discussion that may arise out of a disputed election."

Anglo-Israel.

The Rev. Mr. Williams, of Boston, has been preaching and lecturing in Montreal on the lost tribes of Israel. He entertains some peculiar theories, but not much unlike those propounded by all Anglo-Israel advocates. The blessings bestowed on Ephraim and Manassah by Jacob were, he said, now being poured out on the British Empire and United States respectively. The descendants of Ephraim, it had been prophesied, would multiply like fishes; they would be found in the isles and waste places of the earth. This "advertisement" for the lost tribes could apply to none but the British, and prophecy pointed them out as being a greater nation (being of Ephraim) than the Israelites which are of Manasseh, and the latter would eventually be found under the British flag again. He made this statement at an identification society in the United States not long ago, and an American, who felt very sensitive under what he considered to be putting the Americans in a second place, contended that the Americans were of Ephraim. Mr. Williams, however, very effectively suppressed an impending ovation on the magnificence and glorious future "of these United States" by pointing out that it was prophecy, and mortals had only to submit. In the end representatives from all over the world, and in every quarter of it the British flag shall wave, including Jews, will return to Palestine. He sagely remarked that all the people would not return to that country, as he did not think it large enough to contain them all.

A Threatened Danger.

The "Rag Baby" is an insidious youngster, and is being fed with pap and buffs by the so-called Conservative press—in some places openly—in other places covertly; while we know of no case in which any Conservative newspaper has denounced it. The inference is plain.

We pointedly charge the Conservative press with desiring to produce insensibly an impression in favor of an irredeemable paper currency in Canada.

It is the duty of the Liberal press to expose the fraud in short and lively articles likely to be read by everybody.

If we do not, we will be beaten at the next election by the "Rag Baby," as we were on the 17th of September by the N. P.

People everywhere now recognize that the N. P. was a dodge—yet the unscrupulous party got into power by its use all the same, and the people realized the deception when too late.

The N.P. was a delusion; but the "Rag Baby" paper money is a worse schemo, is a worse delusion still. The currency proposed is one which its proposers know could not be taken for revenue, and which would not be accepted as money in foreign payment of any kind. And yet this is the depreciated currency in which it is proposed to pay mechanics for work, and farmers for produce! It would be found that "a dollar" of that kind of "money" would not go very far in purchases.

Our chief object at this moment is to point out the danger of regarding this "Rag Baby," scheme as too transparently cruel and atrocious to win any acceptance. With demogogues looking for new cries—with times still hard—and with the newspapers of one party either advocating it or refraining from exposing it, the danger that Canada may at an early date be cursed with an irredeemable paper currency in addition to ruinous trade legislation is by no means a risk only of the imagination.—London Tier.

Dominion Day.

THE PROGRAMME FOR TO-MORROW'S SPORT.

To-morrow will be the 113th anniversary of Dominion Day. The people of Canada have wisely and loyally agreed that this shall be their natal day—the chief holiday of the year. As Canadians we should feel a livelier interest in what this anniversary is appointed to commemorate than in most other similar calendar dates. The grand Confederation of British colonies, which stretch from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and which form the nucleus of a great northern nation of freemen, is worthy of the loyal respect of all who claim allegiance, whether by nativity or adoption. Canada is indeed a land of peace and plenty. Her institutions, founded upon those of the "right, tight little isle," are landmarks of Freedom and Religion. Her laws are impartially administered for the greatest possible good of mankind. Her climate is temperate and salubrious. Though sometimes subject to extreme meteorological changes, her people enjoy a greater degree of bright sunshine and invigorating atmosphere than those of any other country. Education, the handmaid of Christianity, is carefully and successfully nourished. The school-house, academy and college are found in every neighborhood. The poor man's child has equal privileges with that of his more wealthy neighbor. A fruitful soil produces in abundance for the wants of man and beast. Industry, frugality and sobriety will surely lead to competence and wealth. It is, in short, a land "flowing with milk and honey."

To-morrow will be duly celebrated by the citizens of Belleville and surrounding country. Owing to the praiseworthy efforts of Chief McKinnon a programme of rare attraction has been prepared. The principal events will be:

1st. A GRAND PROCESSION, consisting of Military and Firemen, and he led by their splendid bands.

2nd. A LACROSSE MATCH, at 10 o'clock, a.m., between the Kingston and Belleville Clubs, on the Cricket Ground.

3rd. GREAT CHAMPIONSHIP ATHLETIC CONTEST, between Chief McKinnon, of the City Police Force, and Duncan C. Ross, Professor of Gymnastics, Baltimore, U. S., for $500 a side, and the Heavy Weight Championship of America, at 2 p. m. in the Agricultural Grounds. This will undoubtedly be the finest exhibition of muscular development ever witnessed in Canada.

4th. 27 OTHER MATCHES AND GAMES in which noted athletes will take part.

5th. TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION, from the City Hall at 8 p. m., proceeding through the principal streets of the city, thence to Agricultural Grounds.

6th GRAND DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS, at the Grounds, as a termination of the day's sports.

Excursions and Picnics are also advertised. The Bridge St. Methodist Sunday School have an excursion to Thompson's Point, and the Committee of Management have arranged a very interesting programme. This society never fail in carrying out their promises, and a most enjoyable day may be expected by all who patronize them on this occasion. The boat starts at 8 a. m.

Our readers can see that everybody will be able to make a choice to-morrow, and that no one need complain of a lack of amusements. If the day is fair—and the prospects are good now—a very successful celebration of Dominion Day will be enjoyed.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN,
and
GOD BLESS OUR NEW DOMINION.

Sir John's Intentions.

Sir John Macdonald will be well out of the way when the Letellier reference comes back from England. The French Tories are an excitable lot, and it is very hard to get them to listen to reason. They have been moving heaven and earth, ever since the De Boucherville Ministry was turned out, to get Lieut-Governor Letellier's head cut off, but Lieut-Governor Letellier sits serenely in Government House with his head on yet. Sir John Macdonald's great misfortune was in trying to conciliate his French followers in the first place. He should have taken a firm stand and refused to interfere in the Quebec case at all, on the ground that the Quebec people had settled it among themselves. The moment he took the first step he committed himself, and had to go o. But those Reform journals that profess to believe that Sir John will have to resign are looking a long way ahead. There is no likelihood of that at all.—Telegram.

Casual Remarks.

—The general impression seems to be that Thickpenny, the murderer, now confined in Toronto jail under sentence of death, is not insane, but weak minded. He will probably go to the penitentiary for life.

—The French element has hitherto predominated in Manitoba, and many believed that the province would become decidedly French in all its institutions. The large English immigration lately has entirely changed the prospect of affairs, however.

Mr. Flesher, who was lately defeated in Cardwell, for election to Local Legislature, has fallen heir to $11,000. This will reconcile his troubled feelings.

—Sunstroke seems to be more than usually prevalent this season. Many cases have already occurred, and some of them have terminated fatally.

For all purposes of a family medicine the National Pills stand at the head. They are mild in their action, do not leave the bowels constive, they act on the liver and secretary organs purify the blood and breath, and removes all corrupt humors and unhealthy accumulations from the stomach cleansing and invigorating the whole body giving it tone and vigor.

—The Bishop of Rupert's Land is now at Winnipeg, having returned from Europe.

The Saughton Company.

THEIR FAREWELL PERFORMANCES IN MANITOBA.

The above company, who are now playing the west, have just returned from Winnipeg, Manitoba, where they played to crowded and delighted audiences for five successive weeks. On the occasion of their last performance, on Saturday evening, 21st inst., a larger crowd than ever greeted them, and each of the lady artists received a number of boquets from admirers in the auditorium, and several of the actors also received marks of appreciation. A boquet thrown at the feet of Joe Banks was handed to his Wife (Dollie Norman) who represented a newsboy, with the words, "Here! Sanny, here's a flower pardin for you." After the curtain had been rung down, Mr. E. A. McDowell, the proprietor of the Company, appeared in front of the stage, and addressed the audience with the following valedictory remarks:—

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,—I must begin by telling you that I am not a speech-maker "never made one in my life. But I couldn't go away from Winnipeg without saying a few words. Our stay here has been a most pleasant one. There was somewhat of a risk in bringing, for the first time, a full dramatic company from such a great distance. Some people were opposed to it, but Arnold and I put our heads together, and so we came. (Cheers.) You will all be glad to hear and know that our visit has been a most successful one, both financially and artistically. We have been here five weeks—one week longer than we intended. In the name of Mrs. McDowell, and the members of the company, I must thank you most sincerely for your kindness and support, not only inside, but outside the theatre. I must also thank the gentlemen of the press, who have most ably supported us. In saying "good-bye," I echo the wish of the company in saying that it will give them great pleasure to appear again before you at some future time. (Great and continued applause.) I hope at no distant day—early in the winter perhaps. We will carry away with us pleasant recollections, and hope that you will remember us with the same feeling. (Renewed applause.)

The last act was then proceeded with, at the close of which all the members of the company walked across the stage, between the curtain and the footlights. As each favorite made his or her appearance they were hailed with demonstrative cheers. And so ended the last of the McDowell performances. There is not one of our readers who witnessed them but will join with us in saying—

Happy to meet,
Sorry to part,
Happy to meet again.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HOME AND ABROAD.

At the opening of the London Bridges by the Prince and Princess of Wales, which took place recently, the Prince ordered his carriage to stop to speak a kindly and courteous word or two to the Chelsea pensioners (old soldiers) who were drawn up along the road. On the same occasion, while passing the Hospital for [illegible], the procession was ordered to [illegible] at a foot's pace to gratify the wish of a poor dying boy, who had expressed a wish to see the Prince and Princess of Wales as they passed. Such acts speak for themselves and leave little cause to understand how it is the future King of England (with all the shortcomings attributed to him) and his spouse are deservedly popular throughout the United Kingdom.

The Detroit News tells the following story :—Helen Stanley is the name of a young woman who started alone the other day for a journey from Springfield, Ill., to Guelph, Ont. At Chicago she fell in with a nice young man who had a game leg and a black eye. These injuries, he said, were caused by falling in one of Forepaugh's circus performances. Being temporarily no good to Mr. Forepaugh, the latter had given him leave of absence to visit some of his relatives in this part of the country. In a short time the pair were well acquainted, and, after taking in the sights of Chicago, they started in town and put up at the Central Hotel, on 3d street. Next morning Miss Stanley gave all her remaining cash to her companion to buy a ticket from Detroit to Guelph. The fellow took the money and disappeared. Miss Stanley is mad!

The Galt Reporter (Tory) makes this frank acknowledgement :—"Disguise it as may be done, it cannot be denied that the victory aimed a blow at the National Policy. It is useless for our people deceiving themselves. There is, amongst some classes of our people, a dissatisfaction with that policy."

A GENERAL election is anticipated in England before the year closes, and expectation is increased by a recent speech from Sir Stafford Northcotte indicating the probability of the dissolution taking place soon. A successful settlement of the Zulu war and a fair showing in foreign relations would no doubt induce the Government to hasten the day of the contest for which both sides are making due preparation. The Liberals are confident of carrying the country by a large majority and if they could unite upon a moderate programme in home affairs with a distinct foreign policy they might triumph over Jingoism. Before they regain power, however, they will have to overcome very heavy odds. Still, the popular pendulum may swing Liberalwards again.

INDIAN TROUBLES.—A telegram from Ottawa says: It is reported here to-day that the Indians in the vicinity of Battleford had sacked the residence of Lieut.-Gov. Laird and carried off all the provisions stored at the Government outpost. Enquiries made at the Department of the Interior fail to illicit any definite information, but it is believed that some difficulty has taken place as no telegraphic communication has been had with Battleford since the 4th of the present month, at which time the Indians were in a state of dissatisfaction, many of them being on the verge of starvation.

ABOUT SHEEP.—From the best data within our reach, we ascertain that there are on the entire globe about 500,000,000 sheep. Of these the United States have but about 35,000,000. Their manufactories consume annually more than 225,000,000 pounds of wool. If each sheep furnished five pounds of wool, there would yet be a yearly deficit of 50,000,000 pounds. Here is a good field for enterprising stockmen.

DIED AMONG STRANGERS.—Last Thursday night a stranger called at the house of Mr. Noble, township of Keppel, and requested permission to stay all night, stating that it was his intention to go to Southampton in the morning, and that he had been troubled with asthma for many years. Next morning he was taken suddenly ill, and died within a few hours, and was unable to give either his name or address.

Maxims.

Persevere against discouragements; keep your temper; employ leisure in study, and always have some work in hand; be punctual and methodical in business, and never procrastinate; never be in a hurry; preserve self-possession, and do not be talked out of convicti on; rise early, and be an economist of time; maintain dignity without the appearance of pride—manner is something with everybody, and everything with some; be guarded in discourse, attentive and slow to speak, never acquiesce in immoral or pernicious opinion; be not forward to assign reasons to those who have no right to ask; think nothing in conduct unimportant or indifferent; rather set than follow examples; practice strict temperance, and in your transactions remember the final account.

How John Dunn left Cetewayo.

The London correspondent of the Leeds Mercury says: "The following story of John Dunn, of the native volunteers and scouts, who are doing such good service with our troops in Natal, has been told to me by an officer just returned from that country, and whose up country service entitles him to credence. John Dunn has lived many years in both Natal and Zululand, and has been one of those most intimately acquainted with Cetewayo. For some years past, indeed, he has been acting as a kind of commander in chief of certain sections of Cetewayo's army, and for his successes has received many marks of that chiefs good will. At the outbreak of pre. sent hostilities, Cetewayo sent for Dunn, and asked him what were his intentions—whether he would continue to fight for him or whether he would join his own countrymen. Dunn without hesitation, expressed his intention of placing his services at the disposal of the English commanding officer. Cetewayo replied that under the circumstances he should have done the same—that no man had ever any right to fight against his countrymen, and that had Dunn given any different answer he had made up his mind to have him executed at once. Dunn then received a safe conduct to the frontier, and as is well known, has been a most valuable counsellor to Lord Chelmsford and Colonel Evelyn Wood."

The Zulu Warrior.

(Correspondence of the Liverpool Courier.)

The Zulu warrior possesses advantages over the British soldier which any who have a knowledge of his habits and country cannot call in question. He knows every inch of the ground he desires to hold, its pathways, natural defences, and positions of weaknesses. He can travel with a rapidity on foot that would out-distance in the race for any given point the rider would be compelled to travel by a more circuitous route; he can run like a buck and lead like a goat. Moreover he can sustain hims lf for a length of time upon the handful of mealies he carries in his bag of skin. Inured to heat and cold, he fears no disentery or fever, and if such overtakes him during his march he carries around his neck feutile remedies gleaned from the roots and herbs that cover the hills of his much-to-be-desired and really beautiful country. He is here to-day and fifty miles away by sundown on the next. He has no commissariat stores or convoy of waggons to hamper him, neither has he red tape to bind him. He carries nothing but what he requires, and if he challenges the issue of battle he will find his tower musket, Martini-Henry, or fowling piece often with an accuracy of aim that would do credit to Wimbledon marksmen, then discard it for his ever ready and terrible assegai. I have seen Zulus throw this weapon with a precision that might appear incredible, and an effect that to any beholder must prove astonishing. I have witnessed them at their kraals indulge in competitions, when a reed has been split again and again at 30 or 40 yards distance, and once in my presence a smart young Kaffir threw his assegai into the air, and at the third attempt split the cork in the neck of a bottle, upon which it decended at some distance from where he stood.

Local & General News.

CITY COUNCIL.—Regular semi-monthly meeting of the Council this evening.

NO PAPER.—To-morrow being a legal holiday, no paper will be issued from this office.

THE CELLS.—Four prisoners, three for drunkenness, and one for larceny, were confined in the cells on Saturday night.

☞ Ice Cream Lunch and other Refreshments at Condon's old stand, near lower bridge, Bridge Street, to-morrow.

EXCURSION TO-MORROW.—Remember the Bridge Street Sunday School excursion to-morrow. The steamer Tom Hill will leave here about 8 o'clock a.m.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—On Friday evening next an excursion will take place on the new ferry steamer Mary Ethe, under the auspices of St. John's Church, West Belleville.

ST. LAWRENCE CAMP MEETING.—This Camp Meeting, which is under the auspices of the M. E. Church, was opened yesterday. Bishop Clarman and Rev. Dr. Ives were expected to officiate.

THE LAST RITES.—The funeral of the late E. W. Holton, which took place yesterday, was one of the largest ever witnessed in Bel'eville, fully attesting the extent of public sympathy in his death.

THE BEST YET.—Mr. Aaron H. Jones, of the Front of Sidney, two miles from Belleville, this morning brought to our office a bunch of Closs'm Fall wheat 5ft. 6 inches in length. This is the best growth we have yet heard of.

PINAFORE.—Remember the matinee tomorrow afternoon by Laurent's Pinafore Company, and this performance in the evening, and also on Wednesday evening. They are worth seeing, is the universal verdict wherever they have appeared.

HIGHLANDMEN.—A pc st card here to-day announced the fact that Jand D. K. Anderson, pposes to w Wand ering Willie," and Mr. J. Paterson, of the Toronto Custom House, with his son, will be here on the midnight train.

☞ THE HEAVY WEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP.—The final deposit of $350 in the heavy weight championship between Hugh McKinnon and D. C. Ross was made this morning. There will be a large number of people here from Toronto, Hamilton and Guelph.

ARRIVED.—Prof. Duncan C. Ross, of Baltimore, E. W. Johnston, and other noted athletes from a distance, have arrived in the city. Prof. Ross talks as though he is going to have an easy victory over Chief McKinnon. It is our opinion, the shoe will be on the other foot to-morrow night.

WELL PREPARED.—A grand stand has been erected on the Agricultural Grounds capable of seating 2,000 people. Those who take a seat there can have a n excellent view of the games to-morrow, and will be sheltered from the sun should it be warm. It is built very strongly, so that there is no danger of falling.

AN ODDFELLOW IMPOSTER.—One of the most accomplished imposters upon Oddfellows is now ranging the country, bearing the name of John Mason. He has claimed to be a member of Mount Joy City Lodge No. 839 of Pennsylvania. He is about 25 years of age, five feet eight inches high, and wears a black moustache. He is well posted in the initiatory degrees of the order.

THE SCHOOL HOLIDAYS.—United Public and High Schools and Public Schools in cities, towns and incorporated villages in which High Schools are situated, shall close on Friday, July 11th, at 4 o'clock p.m., and reopen on Monday, Sept. 1st, at 9 a.m. Public Schools in villages where High Schools do not exist and Public Schools in rural sections, shall close on Monday July 7th, at 4 o'clock p.m. and reopen on Monday, August 18th, at 9 a.m.

RACES TO-MORROW.—The trotting races on Bayside Driving Park will come off to-morrow afternoon, and should the weather be fine they will be two of the best races that has taken place there in some time.

SEPARATE SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The usual midsummer exam nation of Mr. O'Hagan's department of the Separate School of this city will be held Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 1.30. The public are invited.

MUSIC ON THE HILL.—The 15th Battalion Band will give their second open air concert on the Hospital lot to-morrow evening, July 1st, the following is the programme :—1. Grand March—Cyprus—Metcalfe. 2. Selection—Mohawk Minstrels—Davis. 3. Waltz—Minnie—Offen. 4. Quickstep—Torpedo—Harris. 5. Selection—Erin go Brach—Metcalfe. 6. Lancers—Richmond—Kelly. 7 Galop—Leap Year—Samuels. God save the Queen.

IN TROUBLE.—Saturday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, a woman was seen lying in the street, near the Bridge St. Church, apparently in great agony. Several persons were collected in the vicinity, but no one seemed willing to lend a helping hand, until a lady who was passing acted the part of the Good Samaritan, and helped the afflicted one up. We did not learn the cause of her trouble. Some one said she was drunk, but this may have been an erroneous conclusion.

MORNING EXCURSION. — The steamer Kincardine will have an excursion around the Bay to-morrow morning, leaving Campbell's wharf at 10 a.m., returning in time for dinner. The fare for the trip is only 25 cents for adults, and 10 cents for children. As the processing which was to have taken place has been abandoned, and there will be little doing until after dinner, this will be a good opportunity of spending the morning. The reduced fare for children offers particular advantages to parents for half day's recreation.

LACROSSE.—The following compose the home team in their match game of lacrosse with the Kingston Club to-morrow :—W. Lawrence, goal; H. Minore, point; Chas. Gillen, cover point; John Taylor, Chas. Sangster, John Garret, defence field; Alf. Gillen, centre; John Forin, Owen Jones, Archie Way, home field; W. McDonald, Chip Sherwood, home. The match promises to be a very interesting and exciting one, as both clubs seem confident of success. The game will take place on the Old Cricket Ground, Kingston Road, at 10 a.m. Admission 10 cts. Ladies free and provided with seats.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Among the prisoners arrested for drunkenness on Saturday night was one Maggie Ball, a prostitute. She was brought to the station about 12:40, and about 1 o'clock she was discovered by Officer Hayes lying on the floor with a silk handkerchief tied tightly around her neck, and one end of it to the iron bars. The officer cut the handkerchief and on opening the door found that life was almost extinct. By the aid of water, however, animation was soon restored. About a half an hour later the unfortunate woman made a second attempt, this time by tying her stockings together, but fortunately was again discovered. Some time afterwards she tore a strip from one of her undergarments, and made another attempt with the same result as before. Later on she was found to be almost strangled with her garters, which were tightly around her neck. After this close watch was kept upon her, and no further attempts were made. The unfortunate young woman is only 23 years of age, but is possessed of an unconversable appetite for drink, while under the influence of which she is a most dangerous woman, not only to herself, but to others with whom she comes in contact. She is a native of Toronto and has been in this city for a short time living at houses of ill-fame.

Police Court.

(Before A. Diamond, Esq., P. M.)

Monday, June 30, 1879.

LARCENY.

Phœbe Hutcheson, charged with larceny, was dismissed, the case not being proven.

THE LIQUOR LAW.

The case of Inspector Ross against Captain Smith, was enlarged one week.

THE FISHERY ACT.

Inspector Wilkins charged Uriah Thompson and Ira Taylor with violation of the fishery act in having shipped fish per express during the close season.

THREATENING LETTER.

Dr. Allen charged John D. Murlock with unlawfully sending him a threatening letter. The charge was dismissed.

THAT'S THE WAY THEY USED TO DO IT.

With a thumb and finger on the nose, a bright silver dime on the table as a bribe, and the Castor Oil bottle in the other hand is the way our mother had to approach us when she was about to attack a severe case of colic that had tied our little intestines in knots. Those days, and that access, come no more to us, neither need children suffer who have learned in the rough path their parents trod in their childhood. Now we take Scott & Bowne's Palatable Castor Oil as complacently as we do condensed milk, and it is just about as cheap—25 cents a bottle.

☞ The first approaches of consumption are so insidious that thousands remain unconscious of the fatal progress until it has brought them to the verge of disgrace. The immediate use of "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" upon the first appearance of the cough, pain or soreness of the throat or chest, would generally preclude a fatal result; therefore, when you take a cold use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," and thus prevent the necessity for taking them in more dangerous complaints. To be obtained of all druggists and county dealers at 22 cents a box.

A FLYING FOUR FOOTER.—Somewhere down in the wilds of Jersey—if Jersey has any wilds these present Centennial days—one McDaniels dwells, in all the patriarchal comfort and dignity which attach to the English Lord of the Manor. He has a park, a stately mansion grove of timber, and above all, the most famous racing stable in America. These royal establishments contain some of the finest and fleetest horses in the world. Among them is Harry Basset a monarch of the turf who some time ago met with an accident to one of his slender and priceless limbs. Without wasting a moment in doubtful experiments Mr. McDaniels applied some of Giles Liniment Iodide Ammonia and in half a day the horse was sound as the proverbial silver dollar. No wonder Mr. Danniels tells Dr. Giles to send skeptics to interview himself and his horse in Jersey.

Sold by all druggists. Send for pamphlet.

The Montreal Tragedy.

FURTHER PARTICULARS—THE CORONER'S INQUEST.

The following particulars of the terrible murder in Montreal, an account of which appeared in Saturday's ONTARIO, are taken from the Globe:

Constable McKinnon gives the following account:—Last night, he said, a boy notified me that a woman was dead in the house of Susan Kennedy Myers, and in company with sub-Constable St. Onge I went to the house. Meeting some policemen, we brought them along, and they watched the door while I went up stairs. I found the body of the unfortunate woman, Mrs Connolly, lying on her breast in the back room, and the head and hand cut off and thrown into a bucket. No axe was to be seen. I then went into the front room, and lying on the bed, pretending to be drunk, was Susie Myers, or Susan Kennedy Myers. There was a candle burning in the kitchen. I went in. I asked Susie, as she is called, for she is a well-known case, how the murder occurred. She said a man came into the house yesterday morning, and gave her (Myers) some money, which aroused the jealousy of deceased. The latter and the man had a quarrel, and the man killed her. She said she saw the man wash the blood from his hands and clear out. Before going he warned her not to tell the police. She did not know the man's name, and was glad he had escaped, because he was a good-looking fellow. The police all came up stairs, and they arrested the woman. Three dresses had been found on her, all stained with blood. The outside dress had but a few spots. Under this was an apron, over a second dress, both of which were much bespattered with blood, and under these again was a third dress, also bearing spots of blood. One of these dresses and some of the clothing, he had been told, belonged to the murdered woman. Susie Myers is a drunken character, and becomes outrageous when under the influence of liquor. She is about 24 years of age, is tall and powerfully built, and her countenance, although now defaced with drink, has from appearance not been altogether devoid of beauty. She is well known to the police, and is feared by them. Some three years ago she was arrested for striking a woman over the head with a bottle, and was then sent need to three months' imprisonment.

The Coroner opened the inquest this morning, when Jacob Mayers was examined. He stated that he has been 16 years in Montreal, and works in Clendinning's foundry, but has been idle lately; he married Susan Kennedy about 5 or 6 years ago, and has no family; his wife is 20 years old; his wife he said was frequently drunk; witness went out yesterday morning at seven o'clock, and on returning at 12 noon he found a woman in bed with his wife, and on going into the room of Mr. Conolly he saw her lifeless body on the floor; he then immediately left the house, being afraid of being accused of the murder; could not say who committed the crime, as he was not an eyewitness; he recognized Flanagan as the man he saw in bed with his own wife; he testified the axe found in the trunk as his own; he used it for chopping wood; the trunk it was found in belonged to him, and was not used by his wife for holding her clothes.

James Conolly, husband of deceased, was next examined. He testified to having married Mary Gallagher, the deceased, in Kingston about six years ago, and being obliged to leave her a year since; he knew nothing of her habits lately.

Murdered in Bed.

ANOTHER MYSTERY.—ARREST OF SUSPECTED PARTIES.

St. Louis, Mo., June 29.—On Friday morning Mrs. Agnes Dieckmann was murdered in her bed at Bluff Bridge, being shot in the head. Her husband went to the market early, leaving her in bed, and Joseph Stockli, a neighbor who had been helping him, at the house. Three hours later Mrs. Dieckmann's Brother, Fred, came to the house and found Stockli and a negro named Lyle there. Not finding his sister, Fred, accompanied by Stockli, went to her room, where she was discovered lifeless in bed, saturated with blood. The affair has caused great excitement. Dieckmann, when he returned home, expressed the belief that Stockli had committed the murder. The latter was arrested. Dieckmann was also arrested. Mrs. Dieckmann's infant, a year old, was found nearly smothered with its murdered mother. The deepest mystery surrounds the whole affair.

The public are cautioned against imitations of the Pain-Killer, and to be suspicious of persons who recommend any other article as "JUST AS GOOD"; many of these they make a little more profit upon, but which have no qualities in common with the Pain-Killer.

It is happily established fact that Fellow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites will retard vital consumption increase involuntary muscular power and thereby harden the organs promote vitality and facilitate reflection. It consequently possesses the wonderful property of PROLONGING HUMAN LIFE.

NO ALCOHOL.—Bearine is prepared without the use of alcohol or any other Hair killing ingredient. A preparation of Cocoanut oil will be found the most delightful Hair Dressing in the market.

THE RICH CALIFORNIA BANKER.

When it became known that one of the richest California bankers had left the Pacific Coast and transferred his base of operations to the New York Stock Exchange, all the shrewd financiers watched his course with keen interest to see how he would succeed. The result has emphatically proved the wealthy banker's sagacity. Besides having a much wider and more promising field to operate in, he is known to have been in several stock combinations that paid immense profits. By the combination method of operating in stocks Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite orders of thousands of customers, in different sums, not only to use vast capital, and operate them as a mighty whole, realizing large pro rata among shareholders every 30 days. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with great success in these pools. $25 would pay $100 profit. $500 would make $5,000 or 10 per cent. on the stock during the month. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) gives "two unerring rules for success," and full particulars, so that any one can operate in stocks, and make money. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 30.—Thomas Brown of Stamford, Con., found his wife with another man in a house on William St., last night. In the scuffle that ensued he threw a kerosene lamp which broke and the woman was frightfully burned. Brown was jailed. The woman will die.

Police Superintendant Walling, Coroner Woltman, Capt. Williams, and District Attorney Rollins have written a letter to Dr. Hull saying they never placed any faith in the story of ex-convict Purdy, that Hull tried to hire Purdy to kill Mrs. Hull. The story, however, first came from the police.

Louisa Courthouse, W. Va.— W. L. Groome and J. Clements were arrested, charged with the murder of a negro girl who was Groome's mistress.

NEW YORK, 30.—Arrived Ethiopia from Glasgow; Denmark from London.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

NEWBURYPORT, MASS., June 30.—Newburyport yacht fleet with some from Haverhill were down the river yesterday in a gale. One of the Haverhill yachts was wrecked on Ipswich Bar. Some were driven upon the beach, others found shelter at Squam, and have not yet returned.

STRATFORD, CONN., June 30.—An unknown lady, about 75, walking on the track, was killed this morning. $545 on her person.

LONDON, June 30.—Arrived, Macedonian.

Thornby & Co., cotton spinners owning mills at Hyde Godley, Stockport, have suspended. Immediate cause, is the death of senior partner.

LONDON, June 30.—It seems the last peace overtures of King Cetewyayo are bonafide. A special from Gen. Wood's camp says messengers of King Cetewyayo have been recognized as important persons by native spies. While palvering with Lord Chelmsford the report arrived that the Zulu army was advancing on Wood's corps. The messengers readily agreed to be shot if this report proved to be true. When it was ascertained the report was unfounded the messengers were released. Chelmsford after stating the terms of peace declared before treating further the 2 cannons captured at Isandula and some hostages must be given up. The messengers asked Chelmsford to halt pending an answer, but he refused.

The Troopers who were with the Prince Imperial when killed, contradict Lt. Carey's statement that the survivors galloped 2 or 3 miles without stopping.

The Times correspondent summarizing the various accounts of the death of the Prince says the quartermaster General disobeyed Chelmsford's orders by sending the Prince on a dangerous expedition with an escort which deserted its duty. In the whole affair there is not one redeeming feature.

A Utrecht despatch of June 8th, says yesterday a body of Zulus raided a farm within a mile of Lunenberg. A small detachment sallied out from Lunenberg but finding the Zulus in a strong hill position retreated.

NEW YORK, June 30.—Chastein Cox was brought into the Court of General Sessions this a.m. He is to be tried next term of the court, provided the Jury can be obtained. Cox will plead not guilty and his counsel will move for early trial. The police received to-day a list of jewelry stolen on Friday night from the store of Robert Linke, Providence, R. I. The property valued at $15,000. The police think Irving and Porter, who escaped recently from Brooklyn jail are the robbers.

LONDON, June 30.—Sir Wm. Fathergill Cooke, who constructed the first telegraph line in England, in 1838 is dead, aged 73.

BERLIN, June 30.— In connection with reported coolness between Germany and Russia, it may be noted that Mde. Schweinitz, German Ambassador at St. Petersburg, arrived at Berlin Saturday night, and had a long conference with Bismarck, and Prince Arloff, Russian Ambassador at Paris visited Baden and interviewed Gostschakoff.

Trustworthy advices from Constantinople speak of an endeavor on the part of Russia, to come to an understanding with; France, relative to the Eastern Question. Said also Russia is endeavoring to conciliate Turkey by dwelling on the possibility of a release of Hungary and Herzegovia from Austrian domination.

WHAT IS THE MATTER.—Your hair looks so dry and dead, it breaks off, and is falling out. You dress it with an alcohol and oil mixture or some vile advertised Hair Restorer. The hair is poisoned, it is killed. If you would restore it, cast away these things, go by a bottle of Bearine which can be had at any Druggist, and we will guarantee a change for the better at once.

—The case of Brennan, who seduced the young country girl and so shockingly abused her confinement, has been on at Halifax. Testimony has been introduced which, it is said, is irrelevant, and which has compromised the position of many who hold their heads high. An effort is to be made to confine the case to the stealing of the girl's trunk, when the case is re-opened on Monday.

The National Pills are a new and successful combination of vegetable extracts for the cure of bilious diseases, headache sea sickness indigestion and bad breath. They act on the liver giving it tone and vigor. They are the great blood purifier. They are the most perfect and thorough purgative ever discovered. They are mild in their action, not producing any griping pains or do not leave the bowels costive after their use. They give health, a general and harmonius action throught the whole system giving tone and energy to the digestive organs. This safety, mildness and efficacy should recommend them to all desiring a reliable family pill.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affection of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Disease of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not bogus people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, many of whose names are question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no minerals by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some mercury for sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and insactivities so the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

What National Pills alone can do
Man testifies and woman to:—
For thousands cry with eager breath.
They saved me from the jaws of death!
All ye ailing give me heed,
'Tis National Pills your system needs.
Immense the virtue of these Pills;
Which cure so many woeful ills.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical appliances, which are mostly chemical elements which in combination with rubber, possess the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any physician in your locality will confirm the above statement. For lame back, rheumatism, Female Weakness, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, diseased Kidneys Whooping cough, affections of the heart, and all ills for which porous plasters are used, it is simply the best known remedy. Ask for Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster and take no other. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts. Sent on receipt of price, Seabury & Johnson 21 Platt Street, New York.

SCOTT'S EMULSION
PURE COD LIVER OIL
WITH
HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

This preparation combines the two best remedies ever discovered for Consumption, Colds and Chronic Coughs, Scrofula, Rheumatism and Diseases of the Blood. General Debility, and all Wasting Diseases of Children. It not only contains the well known and highly esteemed virtues of Cod Liver Oil in a form that is perfectly tasteless and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, but in addition, the wonderful tonic and life-giving properties of the Hypophosphites, so incorporated that the remedial powers of both are largely increased. Physicians universally acknowledge the vastly superior virtues of this combined food and medicine in all the above diseases. It is not only better tolerated, but much more readily assimilated by the system than plain Cod Liver Oil, and is better agent in enriching and purifying the blood, allaying the irritation of the throat and lungs, restoring the impaired functions and giving strength and vigor to the whole body. It is sweet and palatable to the taste, never separates, deposits no pill. Be sure and ask for Scott's Emulsion. For sale by all druggists at 50 cents per bottle.

It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. It cures swelled neck, tumors, rheumatism, neuralgia, contraction of the muscles, stiff joints spinal difficulties, and pain and soreness in any part, no matter where it may be, or from what cause it may arise, it always does you good. Twenty-five sents' worth has cured chronic and bloody dysentery. One teaspoonful cures colic in 15 minutes. It will cure any case of piles that is possible to cure. Six or eight applications is warranted to cure any case of excoriated nipples or inflamed breast. For kruises, if applied often and bound up, there is never the slightest discoloration to the skin. It stopes the pain of a burn as soon applied. Cures frosted feet, boils, warts, and corns, and wounds of every discription on an and breast.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the name Northrup & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHRUP & LYMAN Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion

The most Valuable Gift.—Restoration of the Health.

During the last ten years the proprietor of the great Shoshonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public over his signature. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung disease Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, affliction of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including scrofula and skin Disease of life long duration have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the remedy are not bogus people in unheard of localities or foreign states, but respectable citizens of the Dominion, easy of access and open to question upon whose verbal recommendation we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shoshonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian remedies as they contain no mineral by which the fate the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test their efficacy.

The Shoshonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputat on of any pills before the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a remedy or Billiousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities no the stomach. Price for the Remedy in pint bottles $1. Pills 25 cts. a box.

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY

JOB MOSES' PILLS

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It invigorates the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system fortifies the youthful constitution for the duties of life, and when taken in middle or old age proves a real blessing; and on the approach of child birth these pil s should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; the benefits to be derived are incalculable; they fortify the constitution; lessen the suffering during labor, prevent weakness of the organs, and enable the mother to perform her duties with ease and to herself and child. In all cases of Nervous and Affections, Pains in the Back and limbs, Fai ure of Sight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, Whites and Blues, these pils will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and, although a powerful remedy do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution. Full directions is in the pamphlet around each package. JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR. $1.00 and 12½ cents for pamphlet enclosed to Northrup & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agent for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN!

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physicial Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage etc., resulting from excesses.

☞Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.
